PARTIES

Appeal Filed by:	Property Owner/Landlord
Tenants:	Maria Gallegos and Jacqueline Gallegos
Property Owner / Landlord:	2370 Cooley Avenue, LLC

SUMMARY

The issue before the Board of the Rent Stabilization Program ("Program") is whether the Hearing Examiner erred or abused his discretion under the City's Rent Stabilization Ordinance ("Rent Ordinance"), its accompanying Regulations, and applicable law in awarding rent rebates and reductions for the conditions raised by the Petition.

Tenants Maria Gallegos and Jacqueline Gallegos (“Tenants”) commenced their tenancy at 2370 Cooley Avenue, Unit 2, East Palo Alto, California, 94303 ("Property") on September 8, 2004.[1] Tenants filed their Individual Rent Adjustment Petition (“Petition”) with the Program on January 12, 2025, seeking rent reductions based on habitability problems, failure to provide maintenance and services, and loss of/or reductions in maintenance and services.[2] The Petition sets forth the following issues as summarized by the Hearing Examiner’s Decision[3]:

1. A lack of an adequate ventilation system in the bathroom that causes an excessive moisture accumulation on the walls, creating mold and mildew that, in part, has caused the vanity sink to deteriorate, and that has caused Petitioners to become ill.
2. The bathtub needs proper glazing, the sliding doors to the bathtub must be replaced because of the buildup of mold and bathtub drains slowly or not at all.
3. An infestation of cockroaches and mice and there have been no efforts to engage a professional pest control service to address infestations.
4. Door locks and door knobs need replacement.
5. The refrigeration does not work and the owner has refused to replace it
6. Kitchen cabinets are old and discolored and need replacement.
7. The laundry facilities are being used as a storage, are covered in mold, lack proper plumbing, and the washing machines and dryers are frequently out of service
8. The carpet is in poor condition and needs to be replaced.
9. The security gate is broken and that allows persons not authorized to be on the property to be on the property.

The Petition also states that the above issues have affected Tenants’ physical and mental well-being and that Landlord has harassed and discriminated against them. Tenants also seek to recover from Landlord, $667.00 that they state they incurred in connection with addressing the above issues.[4] Tenants vacated the Property at the end of February 2025. Tenants’ monthly rent during their tenancy was $765.00.[5]

Landlord’s objection to the Petition was received by the City via email on February 24, 2025—after the deadline to oppose the Petition had expired.[6] Given Landlord’s failure to timely object to the Petition, and pursuant to Regulation 1500(A)(9)(d), a hearing was not held.

The Hearing Examiner issued a decision on July 18, 2025 ("Decision") finding that, in absence of a timely objection from the Landlord, and for failing to provide any grounds for opposing the Petition, Tenants carried their burden of proof entitling them to a rent reduction/rebate based on their claims in the Petition.[7] Additionally, a hearing was not conducted as a result of Landlord's failure to object.

On, August 5, 2025, Landlord timely appealed the Decision contesting in sum that there was an error of discretion by the Hearing Examiner in evaluating and accepting Tenants' claims ("Landlord's Appeal").[8] Concerning the procedural issue, Landlord argues that they, "arranged to have the original mailed on February 7, 2025" but do not know, "what date the Response was actually received by the Program."[9] Landlord's Appeal was supported by an inspection report from San Mateo County Health, written statements from the Landlord's representatives, and communications from the parties.[10]

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

A. Application

Tenants filed their Individual Rent Adjustment Petition ("Petition") with the Program on January 12, 2025, seeking rent reductions based on habitability problems, failure to provide maintenance and services, and loss of/or reductions in maintenance and services. The Petition sets forth the following issues as summarized by the Decision[11]:

1. A lack of an adequate ventilation system in the bathroom that causes an excessive moisture accumulation on the walls, creating mold and mildew that, in part, has caused the vanity sink to deteriorate, and that has caused Petitioners to become ill.
2. The bathtub needs proper glazing, the sliding doors to the bathtub must be replaced because of the buildup of mold and bathtub drains slowly or not at all.
3. An infestation of cockroaches and mice and there have been no efforts to engage a professional pest control service to address infestations.
4. Door locks and door knobs need replacement.
5. The refrigeration does not work and the owner has refused to replace it.
6. Kitchen cabinets are old and discolored and need replacement.

7. The laundry facilities are being used as a storage, are covered in mold, lack proper plumbing, and the washing machines and dryers are frequently out of service.
8. The carpet is in poor condition and needs to be replaced.
9. The security gate is broken and that allows persons not authorized to be on the property to be on the property.

For the period of April 1, 2024 (the date Tenants assert they first noticed the problem and informed the Landlord of it/or the Landlord should have known of the problem) through February 2025 (when Tenants assert their lease ended), the Petition seeks a 35% rebate for bathroom mold and mildew, kitchen cabinets, carpet, and pest; mice/roach, making it a total reduction period of 11 months.[12]

For the period of November 1, 2024 (the date Tenants assert they first noticed the problem and informed the Landlord of it/or the Landlord should have known of the problem) through December 2024, the Petition seeks a 20% for a broken refrigerator, for a total reduction period of 2 months.[13]

For the period of May 1, 2024 (the date Tenants assert they first noticed the problem and informed the Landlord of it/or the Landlord should have known of the problem), through February 2025, the Petition seeks a 5% rebate for the replacement of door knob, making it a total reduction period of 10 months.[14]

The Petition also states that the above issues have affected Tenants' physical and mental well-being and that Landlord has harassed and discriminated against them.[15] Tenants also seek to recover from Landlord, $667.00 that they state they incurred in addressing the above issues.[16]Tenants vacated the Property at the end of February 2025. Tenants' monthly rent during their tenancy was $765.00.[17]

In compliance with Regulation 1500(A)(9)(d), Program staff emailed a notice to the Landlord on January 24, 2025 notifying them in relevant part, of Tenants' Petition, and Landlord right to object it, and that if an objection is submitted, it must be filed within 20 days after "the mailing of the notice"—February 13, 2025.

Landlord untimely emailed a response on February 25, 2025 ("Response"). The single page form Response did not explain why it was submitted late, nor provide the grounds for opposing the Petition.

B. Hearing

The City received Landlord's Response on February 24, 2025—nearly two weeks after the deadline of February 13, 2025.[18] It also failed to specify the grounds for the objection.[19] Accordingly, under Regulation 1500(A)(9)(d), a hearing was not held in connection with the Petition.

C. Hearing Examiner Decision

On July 18, 2025, the Hearing Examiner issued his written Decision based on the Petition, and other information provided by the Tenants.[20] The Decision found that, in absence of a timely filed objection from the Landlord and/or grounds for objecting to the Petition, Tenants carried their burden of proof entitling them to a rent reduction based on their claims in the Petition.[21]

Accordingly, the Decision awarded a total rent reduction of $4,606.75. A rent reduction of $3,939.75 in connection with the habitability problems, failure to provide maintenance and services, and loss of/or reductions in maintenance and services as sought by the Petition as follows:

- 35% from April 1, 2024 to February 2025 for the bathroom mold and mildew, kitchen cabinets, carpet, and pest/mice/roach: $765.00 x $35% = $267.75 x 11 months = $2,945.25

- 20% from November 1, 2024 to February 2025 for the broken refrigerator: $765.00 x 20% = $153.00 x 4 months = $612.00.

- 5% from May 1, 2024 to February 2025 for the replacement of door knob: $765.00 x 20% = $38.25.00 x 10 months = $382.50.

$2,945.25 + $612.00 + $382.50 = $3,939.75 plus $667.00 for tenant's out of pocket expenses for a total rent reduction of $4,606.75.

D. Appeal of the Hearing Examiner's Decision

On August 5, 2025, Landlord filed a timely Notice of Appeal, contesting in sum that there was an error of discretion by the Hearing Examiner in evaluating and accepting Tenants' claims.[22]

[18] Email from counsel for Landlord dated February 24, 2025.
[19] See gen., Response.
[20] See gen., Decision.
[21] Decision, pp. 3-4.
[22] See gen., Landlord's Appeal.

Landlord argues that the claims regarding poor habitability (mold, mildew, pest infestations, and general disrepair) were never substantiated by a previous inspection of the Property conducted by the San Mateo County Health Department. Additionally, according to a February 7, 2025 inspection report conducted by Environmental Health Services only, "minor" issues were found in Unit 2. This includes, as listed by the Landlord in their appeal: issues with the plumbing in the bathrooms, reported issues with pests, rusted shower head and medicine cabinet components, and kitchen range hoods not functioning correctly.[23]

Concerning the "other issues" outlined in the Petition, Landlord argues that they were not "observed or confirmed by the Health Department." Landlord also argues that Tenants' first and only written maintenance request in connection with such issues was submitted a day after the Tenants submitted a written notice of their lease termination.[24] For the pest issue, Landlord claims that Tenants repeatedly refused pest control services in signed documents stating that there were no issues.[25]

Landlord's Appeal also argues that the Hearing Examiner failed to consider what Landlord describes as, "documented harassment and safety concerns that prevented landlord from entering the premises."[26]

Lastly, in connection with procedural issue, Landlord argues that they, "arranged to have the original [Response] mailed on February 7, 2025" but do not know "what date the Response was actually received by the Program." [27]

On March 11, 2026, the Program requested the Board set a hearing and briefing schedule, and the Board determined to conduct this appeal on the record.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

Under Chapter 14.04 of City's Rent Stabilization and Just Cause Eviction Ordinance ("Rent Ordinance") and its corresponding Regulations, a tenant may, in relevant part, petition the City's Board for a reduction of rent resulting from: (i) failure to comply with the "warranty of habitability" set forth in California Civil Code section 1941.1[28]; (ii) failure to maintain the premises in a habitable condition consistent with building or housing codes[29]; and (iii) for decrease in housing services or failure to provide adequate maintenance without a corresponding reduction in rent[30]. Under each of the foregoing grounds, a

petitioner must evidence the grounds for a rent reduction by a preponderance of the evidence.[31]

On appeal, an appellant must establish there was either an error or abuse of discretion on the part of the Hearing Examiner.[32] "Error" nor "abuse of discretion" are defined in the Rent Ordinance nor its corresponding Regulations. Accordingly, the Board has interpreted "abuse of discretion" to mean and refer to the standard of review established by the state law applicable to judicial review of administrative decisions like the present one—California Code of Civil Procedure section 1094.5.

Under Section 1094.5, an abuse of discretion is found if: (i) the Hearing Examiner did not proceed in the manner required by law; (b) the decision is not supported by the findings; and (c) where the findings are not supported by substantial evidence.[33] Where it is claimed that findings are not supported by the evidence, abuse of discretion is established only if the findings are not supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record.[34]

The Board's scope of review on appeal is as follows:

> "The Board may conduct a new (de novo) hearing or may act on the basis of the record submitted to the Hearing Examiner. Unless the Board determines that a de novo hearing is required, the Board's decision will be based exclusively on the record before the Hearing Examiner. If the Board does not grant a de novo hearing, the parties shall be instructed that their discussions or comments at the Board hearing may not include factual matters or evidence that were not presented to the Hearing Examiner or officially noticed. Parties may discuss or comment upon the legal matters in question and any other pertinent issues raised by the appeal. The Board shall disregard any discussion or comment regarding factual matters that were not in the record before the Hearing Examiner or officially noticed."[35]

During its March 11, 2026 meeting, the Board determined to conduct this appeal on the record submitted by to the Hearing Examiner.

Lastly, on appeal, the Board may affirm reverse, remand or modify the Decision of the Hearing Examiner. The Board's decision to affirm, reverse, or modify the Decision of the Hearing Examiner shall be supported by written findings of fact and conclusions of law.[36]

QUESTION TO BE DETERMINED

In light of the appeal, the Board must determine the following:

1. Whether the Hearing Examiner erred or abused his discretion in determining the Landlord failed to abide by Regulation 1500(A)(9)(d), restricting the Hearing Examiner's Decision to information in the Petition and the Board's files.

2. Whether the Hearing Examiner erred or abused his discretion in awarding rent rebates and reductions for the below noted issues:

    i. A lack of an adequate ventilation system in the bathroom that causes an excessive moisture accumulation on the walls, creating mold and mildew that, in part, has caused the vanity sink to deteriorate, and that has caused Petitioners to become ill.
    ii. The bathtub needs proper glazing, the sliding doors to the bathtub must be replaced because of the buildup of mold and bathtub drains slowly or not at all.
    iii. An infestation of cockroaches and mice and there have been no efforts to engage a professional pest control service to address infestations.
    iv. Door locks and door knobs need replacement.
    v. The refrigeration does not work and the owner has refused to replace it.
    vi. Kitchen cabinets are old and discolored and need replacement.
    vii. The laundry facilities are being used as a storage, are covered in mold, lack proper plumbing, and the washing machines and dryers are frequently out of service.
    viii. The carpet is in poor condition and needs to be replaced.
    ix. The security gate is broken and that allows persons not authorized to be on the property to be on the property.
    x. $667.00 for Tenants' out of pocket expenses in addressing said issues.

DISCUSSION / ANALYSIS

Under Regulation section 1500(E)(3), reductions in rent shall reflect the loss in rental value attributable to the failures providing the grounds for a reduction in rent under the Regulation 1500(E)(1) which are listed in the preceding section above and include: (i) failure to comply with the "warranty of habitability" set forth in California Civil Code section 1941.1;[37] (ii) failure to maintain the premises in a habitable condition consistent with building or housing codes[38]; and (iii) for decrease in housing services or failure to provide adequate maintenance without a corresponding reduction in rent.[39]

"Factors that may be considered in setting the amount of the reduction in Rent include the extent to which the failure affects the tenant(s), the relative significance of the failure in relation to the safety, health, convenience, and comfort of the tenant(s), the extent to which the tenant relied on the fact that the condition would be adequately maintained, the extent to which the use and enjoyment of the unit is affected, and other factors that are reasonably deemed to be relevant."[40]

A. Timeliness of the Response & Grounds for Objection

Under Regulation 1500(A)(9)(d) a notice is served by Program staff to the respondent(s), notifying them in relevant part, of their right to object to a petition, and that, "if the respondent does not object within 20 days of the mailing of the notice, or if the respondent's objection does not specify one or more grounds for the objection, the rent for the tenant's unit may be adjusted by the amount requested in the petition, based on the information in the petition and the Board's files. Failure to file an objection may constitute a waiver of the right to a hearing on objections to the petition."[41]

Regulation 1500(A)(10)(b) then provides that, "A response to a petition must be served by the responding party upon the Administrator and all other parties by personal service, certified mail or USPS First Class Mail accompanied with a proof of service, within 20 days of the date on which the petition was served."

Here, the notice was emailed to Landlord by Program staff on January 24, 2025—20 days from City's mailing of such notice is February 13, 2025[42]. Program staff received the Response via email on February 24, 2025.[43] The Response, nor the email transmitting it to the City, explain why it was submitted late nor provide the grounds for the objection. Notably, the Landlord does not contest that the Response was untimely submitted on appeal, but rather that it was signed before the deadline and "arranged to have the original mailed by February 7, 2025".

The single page form Response marked an "X" next to the option for opposing the Petition, but did not specify the grounds for objecting to the claims raised. Thus, even if the Response is found to have been filed within the requisite 20-day period, the Hearing Examiner would still have been required to issue his decision based on the Petition and

[39] Rent Ordinance, § 14.04.130(B); Regulation, § 1500(E)(1)(c).
[40] Regulation, § 1500(E)(3).

[43] Email from counsel for Landlord dated February 24, 2025.

materials submitted by the Tenants as no supporting materials nor statements were provided by Landlord in conjunction with the Response.

The Board must determine whether the Response was untimely under Regulation 1500(A)(9)(d) in that Landlord failed to issue a Response within the requisite 20-day notice, and to specify the grounds for objecting to the Petition, restricting the Hearing Examiner's Decision to the Petition and its supporting evidence which consisted of information submitted solely by the Tenants.

B. Sufficiency of the Evidence Concerning the Alleged Conditions and Amount of Reductions

Under Regulation Section 1500(A)(9)(d), the failure to timely object to a petition, may constitute a waiver of the right to a hearing on objections, and the Hearing Examiner may adjust the rent by the amount requested based on the information in the Petition and the Board's files. The Regulation's use of "may," rather than "shall," does not require the Hearing Examiner to award the requested reductions automatically or in full. The Hearing Examiner must still exercise discretion and determine whether the information in the Petition and the Board's files supports the requested amounts.

The Decision awarded the requested reductions but did not adequately explain whether or how the Hearing Examiner exercised that discretion in determining the amounts awarded. The Board must therefore review the record and determine whether the requested and awarded reductions are supported as reasonable approximations of the established losses in rental value.

C. Inclusion of Information and Evidence Submitted on Appeal

On March 11, 2026, the Program requested the Board set a hearing and briefing schedule, and the Board determined to conduct this appeal on the record. Landlord's Appeal contains information and evidence which was not previously submitted to the Hearing Examiner. Under Regulation 1500(G)(2)(h), the Board must determine whether it is part of the hearing record.

STAFF NOTES

Staff does not recommend a disposition of the appeal. The following items identify matters the Board may wish to address expressly in its ruling and in the resolution prepared after the Board determines the appeal.

A. Loss in Rental Value

If the Board affirms the percentage reductions, the resolution should expressly find that the percentages reasonably reflect the loss in rental value attributable to the established reductions in housing services under Regulation Section 1500(E)(3), considering the nature, duration, and recurring frequency of the conditions; their effects on safety, health, convenience, comfort, and use and enjoyment; the common-area nature of the affected services; and, for the elevator, the greater effect on third-level Tenants than on second-level Tenants.

B. Period of Loss in Rental Value for Refrigerator

The Decision awarded a 20% rent reduction in connection with the refrigerator for a period of 4 months—from November 1, 2024 (the date Tenants assert they first noticed the problem and informed the Landlord of it/or the Landlord should have known of the problem) to February 2025 (when Tenants assert their lease ended). If the Board affirms this reduction, the resolution should explain why the 20% reduction is being granted through the date of Tenants' termination of the lease, rather than to the date for which the record appears to demonstrate the issue was corrected.

CONCLUSION

After considering the administrative record, the Decision, the parties' submitted materials and arguments, and the applicable Rent Ordinance and Regulations, the Board may affirm, reverse, remand, or modify the Decision of the Hearing Examiner dated July 18, 2025. Staff does not recommend a particular disposition.

vs.	)
	)	DECISION WITHOUT HEARING
2370 Cooley, LLC, Jose Prado and Bianco Ceballos,	)
Respondents	)

PARTIES

Petitioners Maria Gallegos and Jacqueline Gallegos ("Petitioners") filed on January 12, 2025 a petition with the Rent Stabilization Program against Respondents named above. The petition states Petitioners are tenants at 2370 Cooley Avenue, Unit 2, East Palo Alto, California. Petitioners, however, vacated the rental unit at the end of February 2025.

ISSUE PRESENTED

The petition seeks a rent reduction based on habitability problems, reduction in maintenance and services, failure to provide maintenance and services required by law, code violations, and loss of or reduced housing services. To that end, Petitioners marked on their petition almost all of the boxes under "Habitability Problems", "Maintenance Related Conditions", "Code Violations" and "Loss of or Reduced Housing Services." Petitioners request a rent reduction of 35% from April 1, 2024, an additional rent reduction of 5% from May 1, 2024, and an additional 20% rent reduction from November 1, 2024.

On January 24, 2025, the Rent Stabilization Program sent an email to Respondents informing Respondents that Petitioners had filed their petition requesting a rent adjustment. The email provided that if Respondents choose to oppose the petition, Respondents must submit a Response by February 13, 2025.

On February 24, 2025, Respondents submitted a one page "Response to Petition" that opposed the petition but the Response did not specify one or more grounds for the objection.

On March 19, 2025, the Rent Stabilization Program sent a follow up email to Respondents informing Respondents that a Response to the petition was due on February 13, 2025, that the Response that was filed was not timely, and that the Response did not specify one or more grounds for the objection.

EVIDENCE

The Petition identifies numerous conditions in the rental unit that Petitioners state warrant a rent reduction until those conditions are corrected. These include:

A lack of an adequate ventilation system in the bathroom that causes an excessive moisture accumulation on the walls, creating mold and mildew that, in part, has caused the vanity sink to deteriorate, and that has caused Petitioners to become ill;

The bathtub needs proper glazing, the sliding doors to the bathtub must be replaced because of the build up of mold and the bathtub drains slowly or not at all;

An infestation of cockroaches and mice and there have been no efforts to engage a professional pest control service to address these infestations;

Door locks and door knobs need replacement;

The refrigeration does not work and the owner has refused to replace it;

Kitchen cabinets are old and discolored and need replacement;

The laundry facilities are being used as a storage area, are covered in mold, lack proper plumbing, and the washing machines and dryers are frequently out of service;

The carpet is in poor condition and needs to be replaced; and

The security gate is broken and that allows persons not authorized to be on the property to be on the property.

The Petition further states that these issues have affected Petitioners' physical and mental well being and that Respondents have harassed and discriminated against them. Petitioners also claim that they have incurred costs in the amount of $667 to address these conditions and they seek reimbursement for those costs.

Petitioners vacated the rental unit at the end of February 2025. Petitioners' monthly rent during their tenancy was $765. Petitioners seek a reimbursement of rent paid based on Respondents' failure to correct these conditions and a reimbursement of $667 that Petitioners spent to address these conditions.

LEGAL FRAMEWORK

Section 13 of the City's Rent Stabilization and Just Cause for Eviction Ordinance ("Rent Ordinance") addresses rent adjustments for maintenance and service reductions. The failure to maintain a rental unit in a habitable condition consistent with building or housing codes is considered an increase in rent and a rent reduction may be ordered based on loss in rental value attributable to a failure to maintain the rental unit in a habitable condition. In addition, a decrease in housing services or maintenance without a corresponding reduction in rent is considered an increase in rent and a rent reduction may also be ordered based on loss in rental value attributable to a reduction in maintenance or services.

"Housing services" are broadly defined to include maintenance, repairs and any other benefit connected with the use or occupancy of rental unit. Rent Ordinance, Section 4, subsection G.

Subsection E of Section 1500 of the Rent Stabilization Board Regulations for Residential Tenancies in the City of East Palo Alto ("Regulations") sets for the grounds for reductions in rent. These include a failure of a landlord to comply with the "Warranty of Habitability" set forth in California Civil Code, section 1941.1, failure to comply with building or housing codes or other legal requirements for the maintenance and operation of rental housing which affects the livability and/or rental value of the rental unit, and decreases in housing services or failure to provide adequate maintenance without a corresponding reduction in rent. Minor maintenance deficiencies or deterioration, however, that have no or insignificant impacts on the livability of rental value of a rental unit and that do not cause any health and safety risk shall not provide a basis for reduction in the rent.

Under California Civil Code, section 1941.1, a dwelling shall be deemed untenantable if it substantially lacks any of the following: effective waterproofing and weather protection of roof and exterior walls; plumbing or gas facilities maintained in good working order; a water supply, capable of providing hot and cold running water; heating facilities maintained in good working order; electrical lighting maintained in good working order; building, grounds, and appurtenances kept in clean, sanitary and free from all accumulation of debris, rubbish, rodents, and vermin; an adequate number of receptacles for garbage and rubbish; and floors, stairways, and railings maintained in good repair.

A petitioner shall bear the burden of proof and must prove by a preponderance of evidence the grounds for a reduction in rent. Regulations, at paragraph c, subsection E, Section 1500. Reductions in rent shall be effective from the date that the landlord first had notice or should have known of the condition providing the basis of the reduction. For failures justifying a reduction In rent that are ongoing at the time of hearing, the reduction shall be in effect until the failure is corrected. Regulations, at Paragraph d, subsection E, Section 1500.

The Regulations also provide that the notice to a respondent that a petition for a rent reduction has been filed includes the respondent's right to object to the petition and that if the respondent does not object within 20 days of the mailing of the notice, the rent for the petitioner may be adjusted by the amount requested in the petition and failure to file an objection may constitute a waiver of the right to a hearing on objections to the petition. Regulations, at Paragraph d, subsection A, Section 1500.

DISCUSSION

Petitioners filed their petition on January 12, 2025. The Rent Stabilization Program sent Respondents a notice on January 24, 2025 advising Respondents that Petitioners had filed a petition requesting a rent adjustment and informing Respondents of the opportunity to respond, to indicate whether Respondent opposes the petition, and if Respondents oppose the petition, the Response must be filed by February 13, 2025.

Respondents did not file a Response by the February 13, 2025 deadline and did not request an extension of time in which to file a Response. On February 25, 2025, Respondents did file a Response opposing the petition but did not explain why the Response was late and did not state any grounds for the opposition.

Accordingly, in the absence of a timely objection from Respondents and/or any grounds for opposing the petition, Petitioners have carried their burden of proof that they are entitled to a rent reduction/rebate based on their claims in the petition. Petitioners vacated the rental unit at the end of February 2025.

Accordingly, from April 1, 2024 through February 2025, Petitioners are entitled to a rent rebate of $3939.75 [$765 x 35% = $267.75 x 11 months = $2945.25; $765 x 5% = $38.25 x 10 months = $382.50; $765 x 20% = $153 x 4 months = $612; $2945.25 + $382.50 + 612 =$3939.75].

In addition, Respondents are to reimburse Petitioners $667 for out of pocket expenses Petitioners incurred in addressing conditions in the rental unit.

DECISION

1. The Petition for a rent reduction/rebate based on the grounds set forth in the Petition is granted.

2. Petitioners are entitled to a reimbursement of rent in the amount $3939.75 and a reimbursement of $667 for out of pocket expenses incurred in addressing conditions in the rental unit.

3. Respondents shall make the full amount of the reimbursement ($4606.75) to Petitioners within 30 days of the date of this Decision. If the reimbursement is to be mailed to Petitioners, Petitioners are to advise Respondents where the reimbursement is to be sent.

- [ ] Broken or missing mailbox.
- [ ] No on-site resident manager services for rental properties with16 or more units.

Other: defective surveilllance sys.

Other: no safety signs

3. For each of the problems checked above, describe where the problem exists, and the nature and cause of each problem. (Attach additional pages if necessary.)

Bathroom Ventilation and Moisture Issues: The bathroom lacks an adequate ventilation system, leading to excessive moisture accumulation on the walls. This moisture has caused the development of mold and water bubbles, creating an unsanitary environment.

Bathtub and Sliding Doors: The bathtub requires proper glazing, and the sliding doors must be removed due to mold buildup in hard-to-reach areas, further exacerbating health risks.

4. For each of the problems presented in this petition, specify whether you have already notified your landlord, and how your landlord was notified of each problem, whether verbally or in writing. If you know the name of the landlord or manger that you informed of a problem, include the name of this person. If you notified your landlord in writing of a problem and you have a copy of the notice, attach a copy.

Tenant notified landlord: ☒ verbally ☐ in writing (attach copy)

If you did not notify the landlord, provide the timeframe in which the landlord knew or should have known about each problem. Explain how they knew about the problem.

I have provided multiple verbal notifications regarding these issues and have also personally shown the problems to the handyman, who has observed them firsthand.

Previous on-site manager: Lurdes Padron, Francisco Padron Current: Blanca Ceballos, and Angel Padron

5. Describe specifically how you and your family have been affected by the problems cited in this petition. In what ways has your use and enjoyment of and benefit from your rental unit been impaired by each of the problems? (Attach additional pages if necessary.)

I am writing to express my deep concerns regarding the numerous unresolved maintenance issues within my unit, which have severely impaired my ability to fully benefit from the apartment. The ongoing neglect of these matters has resulted in substantial personal, financial, and emotional distress.

Cockroach and Mice Infestation: The ongoing cockroach and mice infestation has triggered significant allergic reactions, requiring me to take unpaid medical leave for allergen treatments. This has not only impacted my health but also caused me to incur additional medical expenses, which I would not have faced had the pest issues been properly addressed.

PETITION B–Reductions in Maintenance and Services, Habitability Problems, and/or Failure to Provide Maintenance and Services Required by Law

6. What documentation do you have for the existence of each of the problems cited in this petition?

Medical bills, Home Depot receipt of new fridge, and A3 alarm; licensed contractor door/ window sensors.

☑ I wish to have the Rent Program Administrator or Hearing Examiner determine whether my unit has been properly registered and whether my landlord failed to comply with the Rent Stabilization Ordinance or regulations adopted by the Rent Board to implement the Ordinance. If it is found that my landlord has not properly registered my rental unit or failed to comply with the Ordinance and regulations, I wish to contest any increases in my rent until compliance is met.

☐ I wish to have the Hearing Examiner conduct an inspection of the problems cited in this petition if a hearing is held to make a determination on the issues raised in this petition.

Petition B – Reductions in Maintenace, Habitability Problems, and/or Failure to Provide Maintenance and Services Required by Law

3. For each of the problems checked above, describe where the problem exists, and the nature and cause of each problem

- Water Drainage Issues: The water drain in the bathroom takes an excessive amount of time to clear, and at times becomes backed up, disrupting normal use.
- Toilet Plumbing and Water Supply Issues: The toilet has been experiencing ongoing plumbing issues, including insufficient water flow from the sink, a faulty sealant, and inconsistent flushing performance.
- Vanity Sink Deterioration: Due to persistent high humidity, the white vanity sink has begun to discolor, turning almost black, and requires replacement.
- Pest Control Negligence: The onsite manager has been fumigating the building with low-cost products such as Raid, without engaging professional pest control services. As a result, there are ongoing infestations of mice and cockroaches.
- Unaddressed Lock Replacement Request: I previously requested a door lock replacement, and while the onsite manager agreed to address this issue, the replacement has not been completed.
- Refrigerator Malfunction: The refrigerator has ceased functioning, and despite my request for a replacement, the onsite manager has refused to provide one. This refusal was based on an alleged discriminatory justification, stating that due to the low cost of rent, appliance replacements and repairs are not available.
- Laundry Facilities Hazard: The laundry room is being used as a storage area, with walls covered in mold and significant plumbing issues. Additionally, the floors are in hazardous condition, and several washing machines and dryers are frequently out of service.

5. Describe specifically how you and your family have been affected by the problems cited in this petition. In what ways has your use and enjoyment of and benefit from your rental unit been impaired by each of the problems?

- Cockroach and Mice Infestation: The ongoing cockroach and mice infestation has triggered significant allergic reactions, requiring me to take unpaid medical leave for allergen treatments. This has not only impacted my health but also caused me to incur additional medical expenses, which I would not have faced had the pest issues been properly addressed.

- Carpet Condition: The carpet in the unit was not new prior to my move-in and is now in poor condition, necessitating its replacement. The deteriorating carpet presents an unsanitary and unpleasant living environment, which has further impaired my use and enjoyment of the space.
- Broken Refrigerator: The refrigerator has been broken for an extended period, leaving me unable to store food in my apartment. This has forced me to either eat out at increased costs or store food at relatives' homes. Despite my requests, the onsite property manager refused to provide a replacement. As a result, I was compelled to purchase a new refrigerator at my own expense.
- Broken Security Gate: The broken security gate has allowed intruders to access the building and loiter in the hallways. I have had to personally intervene by either confronting these individuals or contacting the East Palo Alto Police Department for assistance, creating an unsafe and disruptive living environment.
- Laundry Facilities Out of Service: The coin-operated laundry machines have frequently been out of service, forcing me to take my laundry elsewhere at greater expense and inconvenience. This issue has added unnecessary financial and personal burden.
- Harassment and Discrimination: The ongoing harassment and discriminatory behavior from the onsite manager have further exacerbated my stress. This mistreatment has led to a significant increase in my mental health services costs, adding an additional $300 to $600 per month to my expenses, which I should not have had to incur due to the hostile living environment.\

Each of these issues has severely affected my living conditions and well-being, and I respectfully request immediate action to resolve them. The failure to address these problems promptly has not only diminished my quality of life but has also caused substantial financial and emotional hardship.

PETITION B–Reductions in Maintenance and Services, Habitability Problems, and/or Failure to Provide Maintenance and Services Required by Law

7. To calculate the amount you believe your rent should be reduced and/or be rebated to you, complete the following table with the information requested for each maintenance, service, or habitability problem that you claim. For each problem, provide the date it began, or the first date you had knowledge of the problem. Then provide the date your landlord first knew of or was notified of the problem, or should have known about the problem. If a problem has already been corrected, provide the date the correction was made or completed. (Attach additional pages if necessary.) State the percent you think your rent should be reduced for each item given its impact on your use and enjoyment of your rented home and its rental value.

8. If you seek reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses you incurred as a result of the above reductions in maintenance and service, enter the amount of reimbursement requested: $ 666.94 . (Submit documentation for each expense, and how it relates to the maintenance or service reduction reported.)

I have been a tenant at 2370 Cooley Ave #2, East Palo Alto, CA 94303, along with my mother, since 2004. Throughout our tenancy, we have faced numerous instances of harassment and discrimination at the hands of the property management, specifically under the supervision of Lurdes Padron. On multiple occasions, she unlawfully entered our unit, refused to perform necessary repairs, and left my mother and me with no choice but to cover the costs ourselves.

In addition to these issues, I have personally witnessed the property management intimidate tenants based on their immigration status, engage in unlawful evictions, and financially extort tenants by withholding security deposits. In 2022, I experienced repeated threats from Ms. Padron regarding my emotional support animal (ESA), which I had acquired while away at college. Despite providing all required documentation, including mental health provider letters and medical statements, she would discard these documents, often tearing them up or throwing them away. She made it clear that she felt no obligation to adhere to housing laws and frequently left harassing phone calls and notes on my door.

This mistreatment ultimately forced me to move out due to the emotional distress and fear of jeopardizing my mother's housing situation. When I returned in September 2024, I encountered a new property manager who displayed a similar pattern of harassment, discrimination, and negligence. This individual made disparaging verbal statements, such as, "You are not entitled to have anything fixed or updated," and, "I've been allowing you to stay, you owe me." Additionally, the landlord himself referred to me as "the stupid girl with the stupid dog," further perpetuating a hostile and discriminatory environment.

The ongoing mistreatment by property management has created an untenable living situation, and I am seeking a resolution to address these serious issues.

Dear Complainant:

Subject: Housing Discrimination Inquiry

HUD Inquiry No. 811657

I am the Intake Specialist assigned to conduct the intake for your housing discrimination inquiry. You have contacted us alleging housing discrimination in violation of federal fair housing laws. We have not filed a complaint, no investigation is presently contemplated, and we cannot proceed until we are able to obtain more information from you. In order to evaluate your claim, we need responses to the following questions. Within ten (10) calendar days, please respond via email at: R9IntakeInbox4@hud.gov to the below questions all at once and not with multiple emails. Do not include any documentation in your response unless specifically requested. Do not attach pictures or documents to the body of the email. If including requested documentation, please provide a PDF or word attachment.

Please FORWARD your response via email at, R9IntakeInbox4@hud.gov and insert your response under each question, or you may REPLY and match your responses to the numbered questions. Please be specific with names and dates of events.

1. Who discriminated against you? Who was involved? Please provide first and last names of the persons, their titles (i.e., property manager, owner, etc.) and their mailing addresses.

2. Where did it take place? Please provide the address of the property and if applicable, describe the location (i.e., inside your home, the leasing office, the common area etc.)

3. Why do you think this happened? In other words, why do you believe that this took place because of your race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability, or familial status? Please explain.

4. Have you been diagnosed with a physical or mental disability? What is your disability?

5. When did you make a reasonable accommodation to the housing provider?

6. Please state verbatim the request as you conveyed it to the housing provider.

7. Relative to your disability, please explain why this accommodation is necessary to afford you equal use and enjoyment of a dwelling.

8. When did you provide medical documentation to the housing provider certifying your disability-related need for the reasonable accommodation? Attached a PDF copy of the letter with your response.

9. Is your animal a trained service animal or is it an assistance animal? How many animals do you have?

10. What rules are you specifically requesting the property waive? A no pets' rule? A size or breed restriction? Explain

11. Are you receiving ongoing treatment from the medical professional that wrote the letter? How long?

12. What was the method of evaluation made to determine your need for the request? For example, were you evaluated in person, online via questionnaire, via phone calls, or a combination?

13. Please provide the names of all persons in your household at the time of the discrimination, the dates of birth for the minors, and your current mailing address if different than the address above. Please also include your current phone number and email address for all the adults in the household.

14. Do you have a preferred pronoun for us to use in our communications with you?

Please note that under the Fair Housing Act you have a statute of limitations of one year from the last date of discrimination if you file with this office, and two years if you file your own action in a state or federal court. Under other fair housing laws, the statute of limitations is 180 days. We will be glad to work with you to determine if a description of events presents a sufficient basis to file a complaint in this office if you provide us the necessary information within the applicable limitations period.

It is therefore extremely important that you contact our office promptly by email at: R9IntakeInbox4@hud.gov, if the end of the applicable limitations period or irreparable harm is imminent. If we do not receive the information needed to establish jurisdiction from you within ten calendar days of the date of this email/letter, we will administratively close this claim.

Dear Blanca,

Pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1941.1, landlords are obligated to maintain rental properties in a habitable condition, thereby ensuring compliance with the implied warranty of habitability. Attached, please find the documents that were delivered to your front door on December 30th between 5:30 p.m. and 6:15 p.m. Additionally, I have stored the refrigerator, along with the other items, at the laundromat for safekeeping.

Spanish translation;

De acuerdo con la Sección 1941.1 del Código Civil de California, los arrendadores tienen la obligación de mantener las propiedades en condiciones habitables, cumpliendo así con la garantía implícita de habitabilidad.

I have the invoice total amount $666.94

Adjunto los documentos que fueron entregados en su puerta el 30 de diciembre entre las 5:30 p.m. y las 6:15 p.m. Además, he almacenado el refrigerador, junto con los otros objetos, en la lavandería para su resguardo.

Invoice: $666.94

Best,
Jacqueline Gallegos

Dear Ms. Ceballos,

I am writing to formally notify you of a violation of the implied warranty of habitability concerning the rental property located at 2370 Cooley Ave #2, East Palo Alto, CA 94303.

As previously communicated, I requested a replacement refrigerator on November 15 and 16, 2024, and again in December, upon payment of rent. However, despite my verbal notice, this issue remains unresolved.

Under California law, landlords are obligated to maintain rental properties in habitable condition, which includes ensuring that essential appliances, such as refrigerators, are in working order. Failure to address this issue may constitute a violation of the implied warranty of habitability, which could affect my enjoyment and use of the premises.

Please be advised that any attempt to retaliate against me, including eviction or rent increases, for requesting repairs would be considered unlawful under California law.

I request that you contact me within 7 days from the date of this letter to discuss a proposed plan and timeline for addressing the refrigerator issue. You can reach me via email at gallegos.jackie1@gmail.com or by phone at (650) 804-1801.

Additionally, as of December 30, 2024, I am returning the white Kirkland refrigerator, which has been in my possession for the past 20 years.

I have retained a copy of this letter for my records.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Jacqueline Gallegos

Estimada Sra. Ceballos,

Por la presente, le notifico formalmente sobre una violación de la garantía implícita de habitabilidad en la propiedad de alquiler ubicada en 2370 Cooley Ave #2, East Palo Alto, CA 94303.

Como se comunicó previamente, solicité un reemplazo del refrigerador el 15 y 16 de noviembre de 2024, y nuevamente en diciembre, al realizar el pago del alquiler. Sin embargo, a pesar de mi notificación verbal, este problema sigue sin resolverse.

Bajo la ley de California, los arrendadores están obligados a mantener las propiedades de alquiler en condiciones habitables, lo que incluye asegurar que los electrodomésticos esenciales, como los refrigeradores, estén en funcionamiento. No resolver este problema podría constituir una violación de la garantía implícita de habitabilidad, lo cual podría afectar mi disfrute y uso de la propiedad.

Le informo que cualquier intento de represalia en mi contra, incluida la desalojo o el aumento del alquiler, por haber solicitado reparaciones, se consideraría ilegal bajo la ley de California.

Solicito que se comunique conmigo dentro de los 7 días a partir de la fecha de esta carta para discutir un plan propuesto y un plazo para resolver el problema del refrigerador. Puede contactarme por correo electrónico a gallegos.jackie1@gmail.com o por teléfono al (650) 804-1801.

Además, a partir del 30 de diciembre de 2024, estoy devolviendo el refrigerador blanco Kirkland, que ha estado en mi posesión durante los últimos 20 años.

He guardado una copia de esta carta para mis registros.

Gracias por su pronta atención a este asunto.

Atentamente,

Jacqueline Gallegos

East Palo Alto, CA 94303

Dear Maria,

In response to your daughter's letter regarding the refrigerator, we acknowledge that you verbally informed us of the issue with your refrigerator when you came to pay the rent in December 2024. At that time, we offered you a replacement unit, as we always keep a spare one on hand for such emergencies to ensure that every unit has a working refrigerator. However, you declined the replacement and requested a new one instead.

We inspected the refrigerator after you placed it outside. We used a thermometer to check the temperature inside, and the refrigerator is still functioning properly. We can provide photographic evidence of the readings if needed. The freezer still maintains a low temperature, as it successfully froze a bag of water. The lower section of the refrigerator also holds a cool temperature.

Please note that our evaluation of appliances is based on functionality, not appearance or age. As the refrigerator still works properly, we cannot be held responsible for any purchase that you made, though we continue to offer the replacement unit that we already have.

Please note that East Palo Alto Rent Stabilization Board controls the rent increase annually for all tenants of the property.

Sincerely,

Blanca Ceballos

Estimada María,

En respuesta a la carta de su hija con respecto al refrigerador, queremos confirmar que usted nos informó verbalmente sobre el problema con su refrigerador cuando vino a pagar el alquiler en Diciembre del 2024. En ese momento, le ofrecimos un aparato (refrigerador) de repuesto, ya que siempre mantenemos uno disponible para tales emergencias, asegurándonos de que todas las unidades tengan un refrigerador en funcionamiento. Sin embargo, usted rechazó el reemplazo y solicitó uno nuevo en su lugar.

Inspeccionamos el refrigerador después de que lo colocó afuera. Utilizamos un termómetro para verificar la temperatura en su interior, y el refrigerador sigue funcionando correctamente. Podemos proporcionar evidencia fotográfica de las lecturas, si es necesario. El congelador sigue manteniendo una temperatura baja, ya que logró congelar una bolsa de agua. La sección inferior del refrigerador también mantiene una temperatura fresca.

Tenga en cuenta que nuestra evaluación de los electrodomésticos se basa en su funcionalidad, no en su apariencia o antigüedad. Dado que el refrigerador sigue funcionando correctamente, no podemos hacernos responsables de ninguna compra que haya realizado, aunque seguimos ofreciéndole la unidad de repuesto que ya tenemos disponible.

Además, le informamos que la Junta de Estabilización de Rentas de East Palo Alto controla el aumento del alquiler anualmente para todos los inquilinos de la propiedad.

Sinceramente,

Blanca Ceballos

Response to Notice Left on Door – January 3, 2025

Jacqueline Gallegos <JGallegos@ravenswoodfhn.org> Fri, Jan 3, 2025 at 3:53 PM
To: "gallegos.jackie1@gmail.com" <gallegos.jackie1@gmail.com>

I am writing in response to the letter left on my door on January 3, 2025. While I appreciate your willingness to address the concerns I have raised, I would like to clarify my position and expectations moving forward.

I am fully prepared to seek professional assistance to resolve the ongoing issues related to the refrigerator and the broader habitability concerns within the unit. To ensure transparency and a thorough evaluation, I request that you provide any evidence or documentation you have regarding the condition of the refrigerator and any other related issues. I believe it would be beneficial for both parties to be present during the assessment, whether conducted by a qualified technician or through code enforcement, to obtain an unbiased and comprehensive report.

Please inform me of your availability so we can coordinate a suitable time for the evaluation.

Additionally, I would like to remind you of the communications from November and December regarding the refrigerator. In November, you made the comment, "people like you are not entitled to any repairs due to the low cost of rent," which I trust remains clear in your memory. In December, despite my raising concerns about the refrigerator, you failed to provide an appropriate solution. Instead, you merely stated that the current appliance was "available," offering no concrete resolution. It was not until an entire month later that a replacement was offered, which I find wholly unacceptable.

Furthermore, you mentioned that the "spare" refrigerator came from another location. However, you have not clarified the condition of this appliance, its prior use, or whether it was subject to any pest issues or mechanical failures. This lack of transparency is concerning, especially in light of the ongoing pest control issues that have not been adequately addressed. I have photographic evidence and witness statements indicating that appliances have been stored in substandard conditions, yet you have consistently failed to act. This negligence, compounded by your failure to manage pest control in a timely and effective manner, is unacceptable.

Regarding the functionality of the refrigerator, I must remind you that neither you nor your husband possess the required qualifications or certifications to assess whether the appliance is functioning correctly. The refrigerator was improperly stored in the laundry room without the necessary packaging, in an area where the bathroom is also used. This exposure presents serious concerns, including contamination, potential pest infestation, and risks related to mold or mildew. For these reasons, I am under no obligation to accept this replacement as meeting the reasonable standards of habitability.

This is not a matter of entitlement, but one of eligibility. As a long-term tenant with a proven record of compliance, I am entitled to a functioning appliance that meets the necessary standards for food safety and preservation. A refrigerator over 20 years old, showing inconsistent cooling and causing food spoilage, is no longer capable of fulfilling these basic requirements. Therefore, requesting a replacement is entirely reasonable.

I must also express my dissatisfaction with how my requests have been handled. After being a tenant for 20 years, it is both disheartening and insulting to face resistance when requesting a replacement of an essential appliance. Your statement that the refrigerator "works" is insufficient, as it does not meet the legal standards for habitability. Simply "working" does not guarantee the appliance maintains the proper temperature range necessary to safely store perishable food.

Moreover, your claim that the freezer's ability to freeze a bag of water is an adequate test of the refrigerator's functionality is not a credible or reliable assessment. The determination of whether an appliance meets the required standards for food storage should be made by a licensed professional. I request the hire a certified technician to properly evaluate the refrigerator's performance and confirm whether it meets health and safety standards. The improper storage and ongoing maintenance issues only further undermine confidence in the appliance's reliability.

Lastly, I must emphasize the negative impact this situation has had on my health and well-being. I have been forced to take time off work due to illness caused by the inability to properly store perishable food, and I have incurred additional medical expenses as a direct result. These factors will be taken into account should this matter proceed to legal action.

Given these concerns, I urge you to take immediate and appropriate action to resolve these issues. Due to the lack of trust in how this matter has been handled thus far, I cannot accept further involvement of unlicensed individuals attempting to repair or assess the appliance. A licensed professional must be brought in to ensure the refrigerator is functioning properly and meets all relevant safety and habitability standards.

Failure to address these concerns promptly and effectively will leave me with no alternative but to pursue legal remedies to protect my rights as a tenant. As per California Business and Professions Code (BPC) Section 7028, it is illegal to contract for services without the proper licensing.

I would like to bring to your attention certain safety and legal concerns. First, the laundry room does not appear to have any public signage or disclosures regarding the potential hazards associated with its proximity to the boiler room. This lack of warning could pose safety risks to residents. Additionally, leaving plugged-in appliances near sources of fire or water is inherently dangerous and may violate fire safety regulations. I urge you to review these issues to ensure compliance with local safety and housing laws.

Thank you for your immediate attention to this matter.

DESCRIPTION

blue older honda crv with spare tire on rear, rear passenger window [InsCompany=aaa]

NARRATIVE

This morning at 6 a.m., I discovered that my vehicle, which was parked on the street in front of 794 Weeks Street near the red cherry tree, had its rear passenger side window cracked. To prevent further damage, I quickly covered the window with a trash bag. Additionally, the driver's door does not open, so I am uncertain whether an attempt to break into the vehicle occurred.While this is the first time I have experienced such vandalism, I have recently become aware of threats made against me through informal channels. I have been informed of potential harm being planned for both myself and my dog, including poisoning or physical violence. A neighbor, who overheard these threats, reported the information to me. I suspect that this incident is related to the same group of individuals involved in these threats. I reached out to several places for quotes and was quoted approximately 400 for repairs. Given these ongoing concerns, I am considering selling the car for peace of mind.

Hello Officer Venegas,

I wanted to confirm that I have granted you permission to access the video. Please let me know if you encounter any difficulties in accessing it.

Additionally, I will be seeking medical attention for ongoing pain in my right arm, and scratches. Should it be necessary, I can provide the relevant medical records. If required, I will also follow up with my attorney's contact information.

Please feel free to reach out if you need anything further.

Best,
Jacqueline Gallegos

Over the weekend, I was physically assaulted and as a result had to press charges for battery. While I sustained minor scratches; my hand/arm were subject to trauma.
I have ongoing back pain and neck strain. Have not been able to sleep, constant state of fear and high anxiety.
Experienced a panic attack; I feel like I may need readjustment of meds for mental health.
Any advise, I've been using ice packs temporarily

Hello Jenifer,

Thank you for your patience.

This Response to Petition was due to our office on 2/13/2025.

Per the Rent Stabilization Rules and Regulations Section 1500(A)(d):

Notice to Respondents . The notice to the respondent shall include a notice of the right to object to the petition, and that if the respondent does not object within 20 days of the mailing of the notice, or if the respondent's objection does not specify one or more grounds for the objection, the rent for the tenant's unit may be adjusted by the amount requested in the petition, based on the information in the petition and the Board's files. Failure to file an objection may constitute a waiver of the right to a hearing on objections to the petition.

The Response to Petition was not submitted within the required deadline of February 13, 2025 and it did not specify one or more grounds for the objections.

Gallegos v. 2370 Cooley, LLC, et al.
Petition No. 20250001

Attachment to Form to Appeal Decision of Hearing Examiner

Appellants respectfully submit this appeal on the basis that there was an error of discretion by the Hearing Examiner in evaluating and accepting the Petitioners' claims. The findings presented in the original decision do not align with verified facts, and overlook key documentation and circumstances that contradict the allegations made by the Petitioners.

First, the claims regarding poor habitability—specifically mold, mildew, pest infestations, and general disrepair—were never substantiated by the County Health Department. The Petitioners themselves contacted the County Health Department, which conducted an inspection of the rental unit. However, none of the alleged issues outlined in their petition were flagged in the County's official findings. This directly undermines the credibility of the Petitioners' assertions and should have been taken into account during the initial hearing.

On February 7, 2025, Environmental Health Services conducted an inspection of the apartment building, including Unit 2, and found only "Minor" issues. A true and correct copy of that Report is attached as Exhibit 1. The sole issues found by the Health Inspector with Unit 2 were:

1. "Units 2... report issues with the plumbing in their bathrooms working inconsistently."

2. " Units 2... reported issues with pests in their units."

3. "Unit 2 shared photos of rusted components in their bathroom. Replace rusted shower head and medicine cabinet components."

4. "Units 2... report that their kitchen range hoods are not functioning correctly."

None of the other "issues" alleged in the Petition were observed or confirmed by the Health Inspector.

Furthermore, the Petitioners submitted a written notice of lease termination on February 10, 2025. A true and correct copy of that notice is attached as Exhibit 2. Their first and only written maintenance request was submitted a day later, on February 11, 2025 - after they had already formally ended their tenancy. (Exhibit 3.) At that point, the County advised the landlord not to enter the unit due to the false accusations being made by the tenants. Given that the lease termination had already been filed, and out of an abundance of caution following the County's recommendation, the landlord did not proceed with any work inside the unit.

It is also important to note that there were no written notices or documented complaints from the Petitioners throughout the entire year of 2024. If the alleged conditions were as severe and longstanding as claimed, it is unreasonable that no written communications or maintenance requests were submitted until the day after the lease was terminated.

In regard to the allegations of pests, the Petitioners had repeatedly refused pest control services in signed documents stating that there were no issues. Attached as Exhibit 5 is the substance of an email prepared by the Property Manager, who can testify competently to the truth of the statements made in that documents.

Additionally, the Petitioners engaged in repeated acts of harassment against the appellant. Police reports were filed documenting these incidents, and the appellant possesses both witness statements and video surveillance evidence supporting their account of the situation. These acts created a hostile environment that further complicated the ability to safely address any maintenance concerns. Attached as Exhibit 4 is a description by Appellant Blanca Ceballos, Property Manager, of numerous incidents that have occurred since September, 2024.

When the Property Managers attended a City Council meeting on Appellants' behalf, the Petitioners were allowed to speak in great detail in support of their Petition – but when the Property Managers attempted to respond to those allegations, they were denied the opportunity. A statement by the Property Managers describing that event is attached as Exhibit 6.

In conclusion, the decision by the Hearing Examiner failed to account for significant evidence in favor of the appellant, including the lack of findings by the County Health Department, the timing of the lease termination, and the absence of prior written complaints. The Examiner also overlooked the documented harassment and safety concerns that prevented the landlord from entering the premises. For these reasons, appellants request that the decision be reviewed and overturned.

Procedural Issues. The decision notes that the Response was filed late, on February 24 instead of February 13, 2025. Respondent Jose Prado actually signed the Response on February 4, 2025 (see Exhibit 5, cover page) and arranged to have the original mailed on February 7, 2025, well in advance of the deadline. Respondents to not know what date the Response was actually received by the Program.

In Aldrich v. San Fernando Valley Lumber Co. (1985) 170 Cal.App.3d 725, the Court held that "[i]t is the policy of the law to favor a hearing on the merits whenever possible, and the appellate courts are much more disposed to affirm an order which compels a trial on the merits than to allow a default judgment to stand. This policy disapproves a party who attempts to take advantage of the mistake, surprise, inadvertence, or neglect of his adversary." The ground for the exercise of this jurisdiction is that there has been no fair adversary trial by law.

"The Court may, on any terms as may be just, relieve a party or his or her legal representative from a judgment, dismissal, order, or other proceeding taken against him or her through his or her mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect." CCP §473(b).

If the decision of the Hearing Examiner was based on the timeliness of the Response, Respondents request that the decision be set aside and the matter set for hearing so that a decision may be issued based on the merits of the Petition.

Dear 2370 Cooley LLC,

This letter serves as formal written notice of my intention to terminate the lease agreement dated February 28, 2025, for the property located at 2370 Cooley Ave #2, East Palo Alto, CA 94303. I plan to vacate the premises by 02/28/2025.

I am requesting the termination of the lease due to ongoing verbal threats experienced throughout the tenancy, particularly when desired outcomes are not met. Such behavior has created an environment where peaceful enjoyment of the unit has been compromised. In accordance with the lease agreement and applicable tenant protection laws, I am exercising my right to terminate the lease under these circumstances.

The threats I have received have caused significant emotional distress, and I am no longer able to continue residing in the property under these conditions. I trust you understand the gravity of the situation and the necessity of this action.

Additionally, I request that my security deposit refund be directed to the Rent Board Program of East Palo Alto, due to privacy.

Also, thanks for the demeaning advice from a while ago! I'll be sure to make my new place as secure as possible—wouldn't want any more "helpful" suggestions.

Sincerely,
Maria Gallegos

Dear maintenance

As you know, I am a tenant at the following address: 2370 cooley dve #2, E. Palo Alto.

The purpose of this letter is to give you formal notice of the problems at this property that are health and safety hazards. Civil Code Section 1941.1 et seq. and Health and Safety Code Section 17920.3 et seq. require that landlords and property managers maintain rental units in a condition that is habitable. Failure to do so is a breach of the warranty of habitability.

The following conditions at the property violate the warranty of habitability: rats!
a coackroach infestation "due to other units" The cockroaches in apt are likely coming from neighboring units within the same building, traveling through shared walls, heater system.
mold / mildew on walls - transfer to clothes & furniture carpet has not been replaced for 20+ years; prior tenants had same. Broken window lock Broken heater, broken security gate, service reductions
Neither I nor my guests caused or created any of these problems. lack of proper notice.

I know my rights under the law to reside in safe and habitable conditions. The law requires you to make repairs within a reasonable period of time.

I also know that I am allowed to make this complaint to you, and that Civil Code Section 1942.5 protects tenants from retaliation when they stand up for their right to live in safe and decent housing. Any rent increase, reduction in services, eviction, or other adverse action taken by you in response to this letter is punishable under this law.

You need to give me 24 hours notice before you enter the property to make repairs. I will allow entry to repairmen upon 24 hours notice, or at a time on which we both agree.
Please contact me as soon as possible so that we can discuss the needed repairs.
Please provide documentation of repairs past 20 years.

Sincerely,

Maria Gallegos
Jacqueline G.

Note: At the end of September, Mrs. María Gallegos informed me that her daughter was coming to visit for 15 days and that she was bringing a dog, to which I informed her that the owner does not allow visitors with pets. Since August, her daughter has been living in the apartment.

First Incident: On October 23, Antonio Hernández and his wife from apartment 21 complained about Jaqueline Gallegos because she had confronted them, accusing them of hitting her mom's car in the parking lot. She told them that if they didn't know how to park, she would call the police, which did not happen. That same day, after speaking with the residents of apartment 21, I called María Gallegos to ask if she could come talk. When we spoke, I asked her to please speak with her daughter since this was the second complaint from tenants stating that Jaqueline Gallegos had disrespected them. Mrs. María agreed and said she would address it. I approached Mrs. María because she is the one on the lease.

Second Incident: On October 31, a man suffering from Alzheimer's and Parkinson's disease, who had a Silver Alert out, arrived and sat on the bench in front of my apartment. The man was lost, and later, Jaqueline Gallegos passed by and asked if he needed help, to which I replied no. Jaqueline then approached the man and offered help to get him on the bus, to which he declined. She then told him that this was private property and that he needed to leave. I kindly asked her not to say that, as there was no issue with him being there. Later that same day, around 8 p.m., Jaqueline passed by again, and Mrs. Yuri Millón was present. Jaqueline addressed Mrs. Yuri, saying, "Are you on drugs or how are you going to drive like that? You can't drive like that." I intervened because Mrs. Yuri was already upset and explained that she worked all day and was tired. At that moment, María Gallegos was present, and she did not address Jaqueline's behavior.

Third Incident: I spoke in person with Mrs. María Gallegos and asked her to consider that pets are not allowed in the building. I mentioned that she should tell her daughter that the dog could not live there, and that her daughter could continue living there as long as she adhered to the lease, which states no pets. María responded that she was aware of this but would speak with her daughter.

Fourth Incident: In response to my comment about the dog, María Gallegos and her daughter went to the City of East Palo Alto Rent Control office and submitted letters indicating that her daughter needed the dog as an emotional support animal. They also filed a complaint stating that I had disrespected and harassed them, which is false. A person named Abisai Moreno, who works at the Rent Control office, contacted me to inform me about the complaint. She also mentioned that, as a landlord, I needed to be aware that retaliation and harassment are strictly prohibited, and these violations could have serious legal consequences. I replied via email that I understand there should be no retaliation or harassment and that I have a video as proof that I did not disrespect or harass them. After this, Jaqueline Gallegos sent an email to Abisai Moreno from the Rent Control office, claiming that I, Blanca Ceballos, had disrespected her mother, María Gallegos, accusing me of inappropriate and harassing behavior. This is completely false, as I have never disrespected Mrs. Gallegos. In that same note, she mentioned that she wanted me to communicate with her, not her mother, and that it should be in writing or through her lawyer, not verbally. My responsibility is to communicate with Mrs. María Gallegos because she is the one on the lease. I respected this request and followed the instructions, only communicating with Mrs. Gallegos in writing or via text, but never verbally or by phone.

Fifth Incident: In the first days of December, Mrs. María Gallegos came to pay me the rent, and I gave her the receipt. At that moment, she mentioned that her refrigerator was not working. I responded that we had a replacement refrigerator available and that if she wanted it, we could change it as soon as she indicated. However, she said she didn't want that one and that she wanted a new one. I replied that the replacement refrigerator we had was in good condition. I always spoke to her with respect. After this, she began making accusations, saying that I had informed people who are always outside the building that they called the police. I responded that this was not true and asked her not to make false accusations. She also mentioned that the glass on her car was broken, to which I replied that she had every right to file a police report, but that I had nothing to do with it and asked her to stop making false accusations.

Sixth Incident: On December 30, 2024, María Gallegos decided to replace her refrigerator with a new one. It should be noted that this was never authorized. Later that same afternoon, they left the refrigerator in the laundry room of the apartment complex and left a note on my door informing me of the location of the refrigerator and requesting a refund. That same day, I reviewed the security footage to see the exact moment when they left the note and observed that she took photos of the refrigerator, which was her right to do. However, she also took photos of my home, in addition to the laundry room, which I don't think was necessary.

Seventh Incident: On January 3, 2025, I went to leave a response at the door of her apartment. I placed a yellow envelope with the response and also sent an email and text message to Mrs. María Gallegos, with all the respect she deserves, informing her that the cost of the refrigerator would not be reimbursed because the one removed from her unit was in perfect condition. I have proof that I placed a thermometer and a freezing water bag in the refrigerator, and it was working fine. In response to this notice, Jaqueline Gallegos sent several emails claiming that the area where the refrigerator was located was not in good condition and that the place where it was left was used as a bathroom, which is not true. She also mentioned that the person I have for repairs was not licensed or authorized, among other accusations. I have these emails as proof and also have text messages where I communicated with María Gallegos.

Eighth Incident: On January 2, 3, 4, and 5, we were working in the parking lot next to the area where her car was parked, with one parking space between us. During those days, I kindly and respectfully asked Mrs. María Gallegos if she could move her car to avoid it getting dirty with dust or materials from the repairs. The first day, she moved the car, but on January 3, she refused to move it. The car was parked in the space designated for apartment 22, whose tenant is Raúl Arinaga. I have text messages as proof. That same day, around 6 p.m., Jaqueline Gallegos arrived at the parking lot of apartment 22, where we were still working, and asked why the car needed to be moved. I, Blanca Ceballos, did not speak to her either verbally or visually.

One of the employees explained that we were not disrespecting her and that we would talk to Raúl Arinaga when we needed to move the car. It's important to note that she was taking photos of the employees, walking around, and observing our work, taking photos of the repairs we were making, which was uncomfortable and concerning for us. She kept observing constantly, which made us feel intimidated as she was watching us while we did our work.

Ninth Incident: On January 4, Mrs. María Gallegos and her daughter Jaqueline Gallegos came to pay me the rent. I collected the rent and gave them the receipt, but then Jaqueline Gallegos became aggressive and asked me to sign a copy of a check she had in her hand because her lawyer required it. I refused to sign and told her that her lawyer should address this matter with my lawyer. She also mentioned that she had a private detective searching for the owner's address, José Prado, and asked me why my name didn't appear anywhere (since her detective couldn't find my name). I responded that my name is Blanca Ceballos. She then continued talking about the owner and mocked my responses. Throughout the conversation, she looked at me in an intimidating way. I have a video as proof of that day.

Tenth Incident: On January 5, I sent a message to her mother, María Gallegos, asking if she agreed to speak with the building owner, José Prado, to which she responded yes (I have the messages as proof). That same day, when the owner arrived, I informed him that he was here. Later, María Gallegos and Jaqueline Gallegos arrived, and we stood outside in front of the laundry room and apartment 5, where I live. The first thing Jaqueline Gallegos said, addressing the building owner, was: "What did you say to me yesterday? You called me names." The owner responded that he had never disrespected her or said that. They tried to have a conversation, but Jaqueline Gallegos wouldn't let her mother speak with the owner. They tried to enter the laundry room, which was opened by one of the employees. I turned on the light and tried to close the door, at which point Jaqueline Gallegos started pushing the door, saying she was going to give her mom the phone. I didn't stop her from doing that, I just tried to close the door, and at that moment, she scratched my hand. The owner saw and heard how Jaqueline Gallegos was acting and told María Gallegos, "No, we're not going to talk after all," and headed toward his car. He said to me, "Blanca, bring me the rent." I responded that I would go right away. Then we went to the edge of the apartments and were discussing the rent, while Jaqueline Gallegos walked around the entire building area, upset and recording us with her phone. About five minutes later, I saw that the police arrived. We headed toward the entrance of the building, since Jaqueline Gallegos had called the police and was filing a report in which she pressed charges against me, accusing me of assault. I also pressed charges because she scratched me, and I have the case number from the police report (I have video evidence of this incident), as well as the police involvement.

I want to clarify something very important: I don't understand how I could have assaulted her, when all I did was tell her that the owner and her mother would speak alone, and that I wasn't going to give my opinion, nor was the other employee. I didn't disrespect her or touch her at any moment. (Since she arrived here in August), I haven't had any conversations with her. The only interaction we had was during the earlier mentioned incident when the lost man arrived on October 31. In any other conversation, it was strictly work-related, and I always addressed her mother, María Gallegos, who is the one on the lease.

Subject: County request for the apartment and building

We would like to clarify that we have not received any verbal notice nor have we entered the apartment to inspect or address any concerns, as there have been no complaints brought to our attention before February. The only verbal communication regarding an issue was concerning the refrigerator, and we promptly offered an appropriate replacement. The refrigerator we provided is currently functioning well, maintaining proper freezing temperatures in the freezer section and cold temperatures in the cooling section, as verified by temperature thermometers. Despite this, you declined the replacement, expressing a preference for a new unit instead.

Furthermore, our maintenance personnel have not entered your unit, in part due to several complaints you have made regarding harassment. These claims are completely unfounded, unacceptable, and have no basis in fact and since they turned in a notice of list of work that need to be done after they had turned in their notice of leaving the uni.

We would also like to remind you that you previously declined pest control services, as indicated by your signed refusal, in which you stated that there were no issues. We also made this documentation available to both the county and city inspectors.

In addition, Blanca has provided clear evidence to the police regarding an incident in which your daughter was involved in an altercation and assaulted her.

Additionally, your recent accusation of vandalism to your vehicle is unfounded, as the incident occurred outside of the property, and we have no involvement in that matter. Furthermore, your claim that we are attempting to harm your pets or family is wholly false and without merit.

The county inspector checked the apartment and let us know what we needed to fix and certain things were functioning properly and none were f her request were on the list that health county inspector provided.

We take these matters seriously and request that any future communications be based on factual and verifiable information.

Statement Regarding Alleged Discriminatory Treatment During Council Meeting on Fee Waiver Appeal

On the day of the fee waiver appeal hearing before the council, we felt that the proceedings were biased against us and that we were subjected to discriminatory treatment. Several concerning incidents occurred during the meeting that support this belief.

Firstly, it was apparent that several individuals present at the meeting—specifically tenants with whom we have had ongoing conflicts—were given the opportunity to speak. One tenant, with whom we have experienced harassment and even an incident of assault, was approached by the Rent Control Board prior to the meeting and was provided with the necessary documentation to formally address the council. In contrast, we were not approached by anyone from Rent Control or otherwise informed that we needed to complete and submit a form to be allowed to speak. This selective treatment led us to believe that Rent Control acted in a biased manner against us.

During the meeting, this same tenant submitted private documents, including what appeared to be our tax records and letters from the property owners, to the council. These documents were seemingly authorized by Rent Control for use during the public hearing. At no point were we given notice that such documents would be presented or that we would have the opportunity to respond.

Following the tenant's testimony, I raised my hand to speak on behalf of the property owners, as they were unable to attend due to being out of state, and our secretary was absent due to health reasons. Despite this, one of the council members denied us the opportunity to speak on the basis that we had not submitted the required form. Given that we were not informed about this requirement, we believe the refusal to allow us to speak was unfair and prejudicial.

This council member, in particular, appeared to have a conflict of interest. She has known affiliations with an organization called YUCA, which has had a history of hostility toward us. On several occasions, members of this organization have harassed us at our place of work, prompting us to contact law enforcement for our safety. During the meeting, this council member expressed clear disapproval of our decision to involve the police, stating, "Why did you call the police?"—a question that, in our view, was inappropriate and reflective of a personal bias. Notably, this council member's daughter is employed by YUCA, further raising concerns regarding impartiality.

Throughout the meeting, it felt as though our perspective was not welcomed or considered. We were not provided the same opportunity to present evidence or make our case. I offered to submit documentation, including building expense receipts, at a later date, but we were never informed ahead of time that such evidence needed to be prepared or submitted prior to the hearing. Moreover, the majority of the council members appeared to have affiliations or sympathies with YUCA, making it difficult to believe we received a fair and unbiased hearing.

Further concerns arose due to the Rent Control Board's lack of responsiveness leading up to the meeting. We sent several emails requesting information and clarification, which were either ignored or met with insufficient responses. Although one staff member cited being on worker's compensation as a reason for their unavailability, they were in attendance at the meeting, which calls into question the explanation provided. Additionally, at least three Rent Control staff members were included in our email correspondence, including the director, yet no one responded.

In conclusion, we believe the proceedings were conducted in a manner that was unfair, one-sided, and indicative of both bias and potential conflicts of interest. The treatment we received during the appeals process undermines the principles of transparency, fairness, and due process.

SUMMARY

The issue before the Board of the Rent Stabilization Program ("Program") is whether the Hearing Examiner erred or abused his discretion under the City's Rent Stabilization Ordinance ("RSO"), its accompanying Regulations, and applicable law in awarding a 7% retrospective rent rebate and a 5% fixed-term prospective rent reduction for common-area conditions at the Property, including the amount, effective dates, duration, and scope of that relief.

The individual tenants commenced their tenancy at 201 East O'Keefe Street, East Palo Alto, California, 94303 ("Property") in the following years: Josefina Calderon (Unit 107; 2010); Rocio Rios, Jose de la Torre, Miriam de la Torre, and Miguel de la Torre (Unit 108; 2010); Reyna del Cid, Richard Juarez, and Jacqueline Argueta (Unit 110; 2011); Alma Hernandez (Unit 201; 2010); Maria Guadalupe Villalon (Unit 202; 2009); Adelina Garcia and Mireya Segundo (Unit 204; 2009); Katterine Ciramagua and Alex Santiago (Unit 206; 2024); Elizabeth Parada (Unit 207; 2010); and Melva Spruell (Unit 208; 2012). The Property is owned by Woodland Park, LLC also known as Woodland Park Communities.

Tenants filed their Individual Rent Adjustment Petitions ("Petitions") with the Program on September 18, 2024, seeking rent reductions and rebates based on habitability problems, failure to provide maintenance and services, and reductions in maintenance and services.[1] The Program consolidated the petitions and bifurcated the issues into common area issues and individual unit issues, with common area issues to be heard and decided first. The common area issues are the subject of this appeal.

The Petitions set forth the following common area issues:

1. swimming pool unavailability and poor maintenance, including failure to obtain required County permits;
2. removal of lawn chairs, picnic tables, and refuse containers from the pool area;
3. removal of chairs from the second floor gathering area;
4. inoperative intercom;
5. peeling paint on building exterior and hallways;
6. elevator frequently out of service and not cleaned regularly;

[1] See gen., Tenant Petitions.

7. non-functioning hallway light fixtures;
8. uneven floors and cracked tiles;
9. discolored doors;
10. plumbing issues with discolored/foul-smelling water;
11. laundry room machines not working properly and laundry areas not kept clean; and
12. lack of adequate security measures.

A hearing was held on February 27, 2025.[2] Tenants appeared at the hearing along with their representatives James Huynh from the Regional Tenant Organizing Network and Laura Vasquez from the East Okeefe Tenant Association. Aura Andrade (Community Manager), Andrea Bumagat (Compliance Manager) and Enrique Bedolla (Maintenance Supervisor) appeared on behalf of Landlord.

The Hearing Examiner issued a decision on May 30, 2025 ("Decision") awarding a 7% rent rebate from September 2021 through May 2025 and a prospective 5% rent reduction from June 2025 through May 2026. Specifically, the Decision found that Landlord did not timely repair and maintain the common areas and that the swimming pool was unavailable during summer months because of maintenance or permit issues. The Decision attributed 5% to delayed common-area maintenance and repairs and 2% to pool unavailability. Assuming the pool was available by June 2025, the Decision continued only the 5% common-area reduction for one year and denied the remaining common-area claims.[3]

Landlord timely appealed the Decision, challenging the evidentiary findings, the September 2021 commencement date, the 5% and 2% amounts, the pool award, the fixed one-year prospective period, the scope of the Petitions, and relief awarded outside an actual tenancy or to a person Landlord contends was not a tenant.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

A. Application

This matter arises from nine consolidated petitions filed by sixteen tenants residing in nine separate rental units at 201 East O'Keefe Street, East Palo Alto, California 94303 ("Property"), against Woodland Park Communities ("Landlord".)

Tenants filed their Individual Rent Adjustment Petitions with the Program on September 18, 2024, seeking rent reductions and rebates based on habitability problems, failure to provide maintenance and services, and reductions in maintenance and services. The Program consolidated the petitions and bifurcated the issues into "common area issues" and individual unit issues, with common area issues to be heard and decided first. Taken together, the Petitions set forth the following common area issues:

[2] Decision, pg. 4, ¶ 6.
[3] Decision, pg. 9, ¶9.

1. swimming pool unavailability and poor maintenance, including failure to obtain required County permits;
2. removal of lawn chairs, picnic tables, and refuse containers from the pool area;
3. removal of chairs from the second floor gathering area;
4. inoperative intercom;
5. peeling paint on building exterior and hallways;
6. elevator frequently out of service and not cleaned regularly;
7. non-functioning hallway light fixtures;
8. uneven floors and cracked tiles;
9. discolored doors;
10. plumbing issues with discolored/foul-smelling water;
11. laundry room machines not working properly and laundry areas not kept clean; and
12. lack of adequate security measures.

B. Hearing

A hearing on the Petitions was conducted on February 27, 2025. Five tenants testified: Alyce Spruell (Unit 208), Josephine Calderon (Unit 107), Reyna Del Cid (Unit 110), Maria Guadalupe (Unit 202), and Adelina Garcia (Unit 204). Tenants were represented by James Huynh and Laura Vasquez from the Regional Tenant Organizing Association. Respondent was represented by Aura Andrade (Community Manager), Andrea Bumagat (Compliance Manager), and Enrique Bedolla (Maintenance Supervisor).

C. Hearing Examiner Decision

On May 30, 2025, the Hearing Examiner issued his written Decision. The Hearing Examiner found substantial evidence that common-area maintenance and repairs were not completed promptly, including nonfunctioning hallway light fixtures and bulbs, uneven floors and cracked or broken tiles, peeling exterior paint, and conditions noted in County inspection reports. The Decision acknowledged that Landlord performed maintenance but found that many repairs were unreasonably delayed. It also found that the swimming pool had been unavailable during summer months because of maintenance or permit issues and was not always properly maintained. The Decision concluded that the delayed maintenance and pool unavailability reduced housing services, assigned 5% and 2% respectively to those conditions, and awarded a combined 7% rebate from September 2021 through May 2025. Assuming the pool was then available, it continued the 5% common-area reduction from June 2025 through May 2026. The Decision denied the remaining common-area claims.

D. Appeal of the Hearing Examiner's Decision

On June 27, 2025, Landlord filed a timely Notice of Appeal challenging the findings supporting the rebate and reduction, the commencement date and prospective duration, and the relief awarded to the listed petitioners.

On March 11, 2026, the Program requested the Board set a hearing and briefing schedule, and the Board determined to conduct this appeal on the record submitted by the Hearing Examiner.[4]

Landlord filed its Opening Brief on March 25, 2026, arguing that: (1) the record shows reported common-area conditions were timely addressed and does not support the 5% maintenance award; (2) the Decision failed to determine when Landlord received notice sufficient to support a September 2021 commencement date; (3) the fixed one-year prospective reduction is not tied to whether a condition remained or was corrected; (4) minor or de minimis conditions do not justify a reduction; (5) relief may be awarded only for issues and rebates requested in each individual Petition; (6) the 2% pool rebate is unsupported because the pool was open and maintained and, in any event, should not apply equally during months when the seasonal pool would not operate; (7) the conditions did not violate the warranty of habitability; (8) the Decision mischaracterized the County inspection reports; (9) rebates may not cover periods outside an actual tenancy, including Unit 206; and (10) Mireya Segundo was not a tenant entitled to relief. Landlord requests reversal.

Tenant Adelina Garcia filed an Opposition Brief on April 10, 2026, arguing that tenant testimony, photographs, County materials, the property inspection, and Landlord's records substantially support the Decision. Garcia contends that Landlord had actual, verbal, or constructive notice of long-standing and observable conditions; the conditions were sustained rather than de minimis; the Regulations authorize prospective reductions for conditions existing at the hearing; each petitioner submitted an addendum raising the common-area issues; the pool was inconsistently available or maintained and its annual rental value could be reflected in a year-round percentage; the habitability label and Landlord's description of the County reports do not change the established housing-service reductions; relief should be limited to actual tenancy periods; and Mireya Segundo may qualify under the RSO's definition of tenant. Garcia requests affirmance.

Thereafter, Landlord filed its Reply Brief on April 23, 2026, repeating that the Decision is unsupported by the record and does not follow the RSO's notice, scope, tenancy, valuation, and restoration requirements. Landlord additionally argues that Garcia was the only petitioner who opposed the appeal and that the appeal should be granted as to the remaining petitioners; the record does not establish who was authorized to represent each petitioner; and Landlord did not receive the hearing recording until after its opening-brief deadline, although Garcia's counsel had access to it.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

Under Chapter 14.04 of City's Rent Stabilization and Just Cause Eviction Ordinance ("Rent Ordinance") and its corresponding Regulations, a tenant may petition the City's Board for a reduction of rent resulting from: (i) failure to comply with the "warranty of habitability" set forth in California Civil Code section 1941.1[5]; (ii) failure to maintain the premises in a habitable condition consistent with building or housing codes[6]; and (iii) for decrease in housing services or failure to provide adequate maintenance without a corresponding reduction in rent[7]. Under each of the foregoing grounds, a petitioner must evidence the grounds for a rent reduction by a preponderance of the evidence.[8]

On appeal, an appellant must establish there was either an error or abuse of discretion on the part of the Hearing Examiner.[9] "Error" nor "abuse of discretion" are defined in the Rent Ordinance nor its corresponding Regulations. Accordingly, the Board has interpreted "abuse of discretion" to mean and refer to the standard of review established by the state law applicable to judicial review of administrative decisions like the present one—California Code of Civil Procedure section 1094.5.

Under Section 1094.5, an abuse of discretion is found if: (i) the Hearing Examiner did not proceed in the manner required by law; (b) the decision is not supported by the findings; and (c) where the findings are not supported by substantial evidence.[10] Where it is claimed that findings are not supported by the evidence, abuse of discretion is established only if the findings are not supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record.[11]

The Board's scope of review on appeal is as follows:

> "The Board may conduct a new (de novo) hearing or may act on the basis of the record submitted to the Hearing Examiner. Unless the Board determines that a de novo hearing is required, the Board's decision will be based exclusively on the record before the Hearing Examiner. If the Board does not grant a de novo hearing, the parties shall be instructed that their discussions or comments at the Board hearing may not include factual matters or evidence that were not presented to the Hearing Examiner or officially noticed. Parties may discuss or comment upon the legal matters in question and any other pertinent issues raised by the appeal. The Board shall disregard any discussion or comment regarding factual matters that were not in the record before the Hearing Examiner or officially noticed."[12]

During its March 11, 2026, the Board determined to conduct this appeal on the record.

Lastly, on appeal, the Board may affirm reverse, remand or modify the Decision of the Hearing Examiner. The Board's decision to affirm, reverse, or modify the Decision of the Hearing Examiner shall be supported by written findings of fact and conclusions of law.[13]

QUESTION TO BE DETERMINED

In light of the appeal, the Board must determine the following:

1. Whether the Hearing Examiner erred or abused his discretion in awarding rent rebates and reductions for the established common-area conditions (swimming-pool unavailability and maintenance; nonfunctioning hallway lights; uneven floors and cracked or broken tiles; peeling exterior paint; and other delayed common-area maintenance and repairs identified in the Decision).

2. Whether the Hearing Examiner erred or abused his discretion in determining the amount, effective dates, duration, and scope of the rent rebates and reductions.

DISCUSSION / ANALYSIS

Under Regulation section 1500(E)(3), reductions in rent shall reflect the loss in rental value attributable to the failures providing the grounds for a reduction in rent under the Regulation 1500(E)(1) which are listed in the preceding section above and include: (i) failure to comply with the "warranty of habitability" set forth in California Civil Code section 1941.1;[14] (ii) failure to maintain the premises in a habitable condition consistent with building or housing codes[15]; and (iii) for decrease in housing services or failure to provide adequate maintenance without a corresponding reduction in rent.[16]

"Factors that may be considered in setting the amount of the reduction in Rent include the extent to which the failure affects the tenant(s), the relative significance of the failure in relation to the safety, health, convenience, and comfort of the tenant(s), the extent to which the tenant relied on the fact that the condition would be adequately maintained, the extent to which the use and enjoyment of the unit is affected, and other factors that are reasonably deemed to be relevant."[17]

A. Sufficiency of the Evidence Concerning the Sustained Conditions

Landlord argues that its work orders, invoices, maintenance records, and testimony show that reported common-area conditions were investigated and corrected timely. Garcia responds that the Hearing Examiner considered that evidence but credited tenant testimony, photographs, inspection materials, and Landlord's records showing that repairs were delayed and clustered near the hearing. The Decision found untimely maintenance of hallway lights, floors and tiles, exterior paint, and other common-area items, together with summer pool unavailability or poor maintenance. It rejected the other common-area claims.

Regulation Section 1500(E)(2)(d)(i) does not require a reduction when a landlord promptly restores a service and the interruption has a minimal effect. Thus, whether an item was described as minor is not alone dispositive; the Board must consider the promptness of correction and the effect on the tenants. The Board must determine whether the findings concerning the sustained conditions are supported by substantial evidence in light of the whole record.

B. Notice and Commencement Date

Regulation Sections 1500(E)(2)(a) and 1500(A)(16)(b) require reasonable notice, which may be verbal, written, or constructive, a reasonable opportunity to correct the condition, and a determination of when Landlord was notified, actually knew, or reasonably should have known of it. Landlord argues that the record does not establish notice three years before the Petitions. Garcia relies on tenant testimony that the long-standing conditions were repeatedly reported, their visibility in common areas, and regular inspections by Landlord's personnel. The Decision stated that long-term tenants had brought the conditions to Landlord's attention numerous times and selected September 2021 as the commencement date, but it did not identify a notice date for each condition.

The Board must determine whether the findings and evidence support the September 2021 commencement date for the conditions included in the award.

C. Scope of the Petitions and Notice of Requested Relief

Regulation Section 1500(E)(3) requires reductions to be based on the issues presented in the petition, and Regulation Section 1500(A)(13)(a) generally limits the hearing to issues raised by the petition and objections. Landlord argues that the individual forms did not request all relief awarded. Garcia responds that each petitioner submitted an addendum identifying the common-area issues and that Landlord received notice and defended those issues at the consolidated hearing.

The Board must review each Petition and its attachments to determine whether the awarded issues and requested relief were within the scope of each filing or addendum.

D. Amount of the Rent Rebate and Reduction

Regulation Section 1500(E)(3) requires an award to reflect the loss in rental value attributable to the established failure. The Decision assigned 5% to delayed common-area maintenance and repairs and 2% to pool unavailability or poor maintenance. Landlord argues that these percentages are unsupported, and that a 2% rebate for every month overstates the value of a seasonally operated pool. Garcia responds that the Hearing Examiner reasonably assessed the duration and combined effects of the conditions and could annualize the lost value of the pool service.

The Board must determine whether the findings and evidence support the 5% and 2% percentages as reasonable approximations of the loss in rental value. If the pool loss is measured through a year-round percentage, the Board should determine whether 2% reasonably reflects the annualized market value of that seasonal service.

E. Fixed One-Year Prospective Reduction

Regulation Section 1500(E)(2)(d)(iii) authorizes a prospective reduction for a failure that remains in effect at the hearing and provides that the reduction continues until the failure is corrected. Regulation Section 1500(E)(4) establishes the procedure for restoring rent after correction. The Decision assumed that the pool had been restored, but stated that a wide-ranging set of common-area repairs and maintenance still needed to occur. It continued the 5% reduction for a fixed year to permit Landlord to address the conditions and demonstrate ongoing maintenance, after which Tenants could file new petitions.

The Board must determine whether the evidence supports a finding that the conditions underlying the 5% award remained in effect at the hearing and whether a fixed one-year period, rather than a reduction continuing until correction under the prescribed restoration procedure, is consistent with the Regulations.

F. Actual Tenancy, Petitioner Status, and Calculations

Landlord argues that Attachment 1 awards Unit 206 a rebate for months before its June 2024 tenancy and that Mireya Segundo was not a tenant under the written lease for Unit 204. Garcia agrees that relief must be limited to an actual tenancy but contends that the Unit 206 calculation can be corrected and that the RSO's definition of "Tenant" is not limited to persons named on a written lease. Attachment 1 calculates one rebate and reduced rent for each petitioning household.

The Board must determine each applicable tenancy period and whether each listed petitioner was entitled to seek relief.

The board should consider reviewing all calculations prior to affirming any rent reduction.

G. Scope of Opposition and Representation

Garcia is the only petitioner identified as a client in the Opposition Brief. Landlord argues that the appeal should therefore be granted as to all other petitioners and also questions whether prior representatives filed the written statement required by Regulation Section 1500(A)(13)(e). The appeal Regulations do not state that failure to file an opposition brief results in an automatic default.

The Board should confirm the scope of each representative's appearance and decide the appeal as to all parties based on the administrative record and applicable standard of review.

STAFF NOTES

Staff does not recommend a disposition of the appeal. The following items identify matters the Board may wish to address expressly in its ruling and in the resolution prepared after the Board determines the appeal:

A. Conditions and Loss in Rental Value

If the Board affirms either percentage, the resolution should identify the specific conditions supporting it and confirm that 5% and 2%, including any annualized pool amount, reasonably reflect the market value of the established losses under Regulation Section 1500(E)(3).

B. Commencement Date and Evidentiary Period

The Post-Hearing Order limited additional documentary submissions to documents created or existing from February 26, 2022, through February 27, 2025, while the Decision commenced the rebate in September 2021. If the Board affirms that date, the resolution should identify the evidence supporting notice and a reduction in services during the entire awarded period.

C. Prospective Period and Restoration

The appeal stayed the Decision, and the June 2025 through May 2026 period elapsed before the Board's ruling. The ruling should address how that period is treated and whether any reduction continues until correction and restoration under Regulation Sections 1500(E)(2)(d)(iii) and 1500(E)(4).

D. Tenancy, Party Names, and Calculations

Attachment 1 awards Unit 206 twenty-four months of rebate although the tenancy began in June 2024. It also contains facial arithmetic discrepancies in several prospective-rent calculations. The record uses different spellings for certain petitioners and identifies Alyce Spruell as the Unit 208 witness while Melva Spruell is the petitioner. Tenancy dates, party names and status, and calculations should be reviewed.

E. Scope of Individual Petitions

The parties dispute whether each petitioner requested the awarded common-area relief. Each Petition and its attachments should be reviewed before the Board resolves that issue.

F. Representation and Hearing Recording

The scope of Garcia's counsel's appearance and any written authorization for other representatives should be reviewed. Landlord's assertion that the hearing recording was provided unequally and only after its opening-brief deadline should also be reviewed, together with whether Landlord had a meaningful opportunity to address the recording in its Reply Brief and at the appeal hearing. Staff has indicated that the record was requested by Landlord on March 11, 2026 and was made available by the City on April 14, 2026. The deadline for the Landlord's reply was April 24, 2026.

G. Identification of the Responsible Landlord Entity

The Decision identifies Respondent as Woodland Park Communities. Landlord's Opening Brief states that Woodland Park Property Owner, LLC owned the Property and that it was sold in April 2025. The correct legal entity or entities responsible for the awarded periods should be confirmed before the Board's resolution is prepared.

City records identify Victor Tsang as the current owner of the Property. The administrative record and party filings previously identify Woodland Park Communities and Woodland Park Property Owner, LLC as ownership entities.

CONCLUSION

After considering the administrative record, the Decision, the parties' briefs and arguments, and the applicable RSO and Regulations, the Board may affirm, reverse, remand, or modify the Decision of the Hearing Examiner dated May 30, 2025. Staff does not recommend a particular disposition.

PARTIES AND HEARING DATE

On September 18, 2024 Petitioners and Tenants Josefina Calderon (apartment 107), Rocio Rios, Jose de la Torre, Miriam de la Torre, and Miguel de la Torre (apartment 108), Reyna del Cid, Richard Juarez, and Jacqueline Argueta (apartment 110), Alma Hernandez (apartment 201), , Maria Guadalupe Villalon (apartment 202), Adelina Garcia and Mireya Segundo (apartment 204), Katterine Ciramagua and Alex Santiago (apartment 206), Elizabeth Perada (apartment 207), and Melva Spruell (apartment 208) ("Tenants") filed petitions with the East Palo Alto Rent Stabilization Program against Respondent Woodland Park Communities ("Woodland Park" or "Landlord"). The petitions state Tenants are tenants at 201 E. O'Keefe Street, East Palo Alto, California. The petitions were submitted with and consolidated with petitions filed by tenants at 245 and 301 E. O'Keefe Street.

A hearing on the petitions was held on February 27, 2025. Tenants were present at the hearing and many of them testified; they were represented by James Huynh and Laura Vasquez, both from the Regional Tenant Organizing Association. Present on behalf of Woodland Park were Aura Andrade, Community Manager, Andrea Bumagat, Compliance Manager, and Enrique Bedolla, Maintenance Supervisor. Prior to the hearing, the undersigned Hearing Officer, at the request of the Tenants, inspected the exterior of the property at 201 E. O'Keefe Street, as well as the hallways and other portions of the interior of the property but not any individual rental units. Natasha Raiburn, Rent Stabilization Program Administrator, accompanied the Hearing Officer at the inspection. Ms. Andrade was also present at the property for the inspection.

ISSUES PRESENTED

The petitions seek a rent reduction and/or a rent rebate based on habitability problems, reduction in maintenance and services, failure to provide maintenance and services required by law, code violations, and loss of or reduced housing services, both within each Tenant's respective rental unit as well as in the common areas of the property.

Because the petitions concern issues within each Tenant's individual units as well as issues in the common area, it was decided that the common area issues would be decided first. Once those issues had been heard and decided, each Tenant's individual issues would be heard and decided.

Accordingly, concerning the common areas issues, in their petition Tenants identify the following in support of their petition: the swimming pool was out of service for many years and although it was re-opened in July 2024, it is not maintained properly; lawn chairs, picnic tables and refuse containers that previously were provided in the areas adjacent to the swimming pool have been removed; chairs on the second floor where residents could gather to talk have been removed; the intercom system does not work and has not worked for many years, the paint on the exterior of the building and common areas is peeling; the elevator does not operate all the time and it is not maintained; many common areas are in a state of disrepair, for example, lights in the hallway not working, uneven floors, doors are discolored; there is a problem with the water system as the water often comes out with an unpleasant smell; many of the washing machines in the laundry rooms do not work properly; and there is a lack of security measures.

Woodland Park disagrees with the contentions in the petitions, stating that the property has been maintained in a good and habitable condition and when Tenants have notified Woodland Park of a problem either in the rental unit or in the common area of the property, Woodland Park has addressed the problem in a timely manner. Woodland Park also contends that many of the conditions that Tenants identify have existed for many years and for which Tenants should not be granted relief due to the passage of time. Woodland Park also submitted documents that it contends supports its contentions that Tenants are not entitled to relief.

RELIEF REQUESTED

The petitions request that Tenants' rent be reduced and/or rebated due to these various conditions in the common area of the property.

By way of background, on July 24, 2024, the E. O'Keefe Tenant Association sent to the Sand Hill Property Company a petition, dated July 17, 2024, setting forth various issues and conditions at 201, 245 and 301 E. O'Keefe Street, requesting that all notices from management to the tenants be in English and Spanish, and summarizing a list of demands that the tenants wanted addressed in each building. Tenant Exhibit ("TE") 1. On July 31, 2024, Pabel Zumarraga, then General Manager of Woodland Park Apartments, responded to the Association's letter or July 17. That letter provides that maintenance personnel have responded timely to requests for work and there were no open work orders, the swimming pool is clean and available to the tenants, the elevator (at 201 E O'Keefe) is maintained, reminding tenants that if there are maintenance issues, they may be reported to management in a number of ways, and promising to look into other issues raised by the petition. TE 2.

The Association responded to the July 31, 2024 letter on August 1, again requesting that all communications with the tenants be in English and Spanish, disputing the contention that maintenance issues at the properties have been completed, requesting a direct meeting with the owners of the property, and stating that the tenants were still waiting for a response concerning fumigation for pests in the rental units, 24 hours notice when water would be shut off, and replacing appliances and worn out carpets in the units. TE 4.

On September 18, 2024, Tenants filed their petitions seeking a rent reduction based on various grounds set forth above. TE 28. The petitions were submitted with and consolidated with petitions from tenants at 245 and 301 E. O'Keefe Street.

Notwithstanding that Tenants had filed their petitions, following meetings between representatives of Woodland Park and the Tenants, the Association on September 25, 2024 sent a list of proposals to Woodland Park concerning conditions if the property were to be sold, repair procedures, weatherization of all rental units and the common areas, safety and security issues, and requesting a rent rollback. TE 7 and 8.

The parties met again in January 2025. Following that meeting, the Association sent an email to Woodland Park requesting further information/clarification concerning repair procedures, safety and security, weatherization and improvements in all the units and common area, rent rollbacks, and conditions of sale if the property were to be sold. TE 10 and 11.

Woodland Park responded on February 7, 2025 expressing a number of concerns about the process that has been used to address Tenants' issues, informing Tenants a part time community engagement representative dedicated to resolving tenant issues had been hired, and reminding Tenants of the process to report maintenance issues. TE 12.

At the hearing on February 27, 2025, numerous Tenants testified in support of the petitions: Alyce Spruell (apartment 208); Josephine Calderon (apartment 107); Reyna Del Cid (apartment 110); Maria Guadalupe (apartment 202); and Adelina Garcia (apartment 204). Some Tenants testified about individual common area conditions and some Tenants testified about several common area conditions. To a great extent, Tenants' testimony overlapped but was consistent.

Tenants, many of whom have lived at the property for many years, testified as follows and/or submitted documents concerning conditions in the common area of the property, all of which they say they have brought to the attention of the landlord numerous times.

The swimming pool has not been consistently available to tenants and even when it is available, it is not maintained properly so tenants are not able to use the pool. TE 13, 16 and 25. Moreover, access to the pool is locked and many tenants do not have keys. In the swimming pool area, there were lawn chairs, picnic tables and refuse containers so that tenants could gather there. Those amenities have been removed. TE 14, 16 and 17.

The second floor had chairs where tenants could meet but those chairs have been removed. At one time the property had an intercom system so that if someone wanted to enter the building, the person could contact a tenant; that system has been inoperable for years. TE 19. Paint on the exterior of the building is peeling and the hallways have not been painted in many years; this lack of maintenance makes the property look shabby. TE 18, 20, 23 and 27; also see photos attached to the petitions that show the common areas. The floors in the lobby and in the hallway are uneven and tiles are cracked, posing a tripping hazard. TE 17, 21 and photos attached to the petitions showing common areas.

The elevator is often out of service and even when it is working, it is not cleaned often. TE 16, 17 and 22. Many of the hallway light fixtures no longer work and when lights no longer work, they are not replaced, making the hallways dark. TE 16 and 26. Within all the units there is a problem with the plumbing. Often when water comes out of the faucet, it appears brown and has an unpleasant smell. The laundry rooms are not kept clean and when machines do not work, they are not repaired timely. TE 16. There is also a lack of security concerning the property.

Landlord representatives (Ms. Andrade and Mr. Bedolla [LE F]) testified as follows in response to the Tenants' testimony. Landlord also submitted a number of exhibits to support their contentions that the common areas are property maintained (LE L, M, O, and R), that Landlord has informed Tenants how to report repairs and maintenance (LE P and Q), and that Landlord provides adequate security for the building (LE N). Landlord also submitted other work orders (LE D and E) but these concern work or repairs in individual units, not the common areas.

It was acknowledged that the swimming pool is occasionally not available to the tenants because the proper permits from the County to operate the pool safely had not been obtained; those permits have now been obtained and the pool will be open. There is regular maintenance scheduled (two times/week) for the pool. Keys to the pool area have been provided to the tenants. If a tenant does not have a key, the tenant may obtain one from the office. The tables and chairs have been removed from the swimming pool area because some tenants were consistently damaging them or throwing them into the pool.

Concerning the chairs on the second floor that have been removed, that occurred many years ago and was in response to the request of the Fire Department. The intercom system was disabled more than 15 years ago. There is a keypad for entry to the building and many vendors who regularly deliver packages, etc. to the tenants have the code. The landlord is aware of the paint peeling on the exterior of the building and it is planned for the entire building to be painted.

The elevator is rarely out of service and when it is, the repair company responds timely. LE L. The elevator is cleaned regularly. As to the light fixtures and lights that need replacing, when tenants inform the landlord of these issues, repairs and replacement are accomplished timely. LE P, Q and R. Similarly, if the Landlord is informed of cracked tiles in the hallway floors, they are replaced. LE P, Q and R.

The issue with the water appearance and smell seems to occur after the water main in the street is shut off by the water company or the Fire Department in order to perform regular maintenance, not because of anything that the Landlord has control of. The Landlord has a third party vendor to maintain and replace the laundry facilities and when there are issues about those facilities, the Landlord responds timely. LE M.

As to security issues, the Landlord has a security service that routinely is on the property and routinely prepares reports about what security services it provides and in response to security concerns raised by tenants. LE N. Tenants have the number of the security service and can contact the service when necessary.

LEGAL FRAMEWORK

Section 13 of the City's Rent Stabilization and Just Cause for Eviction Ordinance ("Rent Ordinance") addresses rent adjustments for maintenance and service reductions. The failure to maintain a rental unit in a habitable condition consistent with building or housing codes is considered an increase in rent and a rent reduction may be ordered based on loss in rental value attributable to a failure to maintain the rental unit in a habitable condition. In addition, a decrease in housing services or maintenance without a corresponding reduction in rent is considered an increase in rent and a rent reduction may also be ordered based on loss in rental value attributable to a reduction in maintenance or services.

"Housing services" are broadly defined to include maintenance, repairs and any other benefit connected with the use or occupancy of rental unit. Rent Ordinance, Section 4, subsection G.

Subsection E of Section 1500 of the Rent Stabilization Board Regulations for Residential Tenancies in the City of East Palo Alto ("Regulations") sets for the grounds for reductions in rent. These include a failure of a landlord to comply with the "Warranty of Habitability" set forth in California Civil Code, section 1941.1, failure to comply with building or housing codes or other legal requirements for the maintenance and operation of rental housing which affects the livability and/or rental value of the rental unit, and decreases in housing services or failure to provide adequate maintenance without a corresponding reduction in rent. Minor maintenance deficiencies or deterioration, however, that have no or insignificant impacts on the livability of rental value of a rental unit and that do not cause any health and safety risk shall not provide a basis for reduction in the rent.

A petitioner shall bear the burden of proof and must prove by a preponderance of evidence the grounds for a reduction in rent. Regulations, at paragraph c, subsection E, Section 1500. Reductions in rent shall be effective from the date that the landlord first had notice or should have known of the condition providing the basis of the reduction. For failures justifying a reduction In rent that are ongoing at the time of hearing, the reduction shall be in effect until the failure is corrected. Regulations, at Paragraph d, subsection E, Section 1500.

DISCUSSION

Rent includes housing services and, as stated above, housing services are broadly defined and include repairs, maintenance, and any other benefit connected with the use or occupancy of a rental unit. A rent reduction and/or rent rebate may be ordered for a landlord's failure to maintain the property or for a reduction in housing services. As stated previously, Tenants' petitions seek a rent reduction based on (1) habitability problems (failure to comply with the "Warranty of Habitability" set forth in California Civil Code, section 1941.1), (2) reductions in maintenance and services and/or failure to provide maintenance and services required by law, (3) code violations (failure to comply with code violations that materially affect tenants' health and safety), and (4) loss or reduced housing services.

1. Habitability Problems

On the petition form itself, most of the items identified under the heading of Habitability Problems concern items that are within the rental unit itself, e.g, defective plumbing, drains, sewage system, or water supply, loss or insufficient hot water or water supply. Some items under this heading, however, do concern common area conditions: "Building, yard, garage, hallways, stairs and common areas are not clean, sanitary, or free from all accumulations of debris, filth, rubbish, garbage, rodents, and vermin, such as cockroaches or rats"; "Floors, stairways or railings are broken, rotting or missing".

To avoid repetition, the common area conditions that are under this heading are discussed in Section 2 below.

2. Reductions in Maintenance and Services and/or Failure to Provide Maintenance and Services Required by Law.

As with the items identified on the form of the petition under Habitability Problems, many of the items identified under this heading also address items within a rental unit (defective appliances in the unit, inadequate window coverings, etc.). But other items under this heading likewise pertain to common area issues, for example, peeling paint, missing, cracked or broken tiles, inoperative/missing exterior lights.

There was substantial testimony and documentary evidence that many common areas are not being repaired or maintained promptly. For example, there was testimony that light fixtures in the hallway and burned out light bulbs in the common areas have not been repaired or replaced timely. Hallway floors are uneven and tiles are cracked or broken and have not been repaired or replaced. Paint is peeling on the exterior of the building. Moreover, the Inspection Reports from the San Mateo County Environmental Health Services (LE O, pgs. 308-311) likewise identified various common area issues, such as the need to repair or replace steps, handrails or landings that are missing or in need of repair; and inoperable fire extinguishers.

The evidence did show that the Landlord does address maintenance issues in the common areas (LE L and M), but the evidence also demonstrated that the Landlord often delays unreasonably in making many of the repairs. See, for example, LE R, showing numerous invoices for repairs and other maintenance services in the common areas but only within the past few months, and LE O, at pgs. 277, 290, 296 and 298, concerning common area work orders only in the past few months.

The Landlord's failure to undertake timely maintenance and repairs is a reduction in maintenance and housing services in that housing services are broadly defined to include maintenance and repairs. Tenants have carried their burden of proof that there has been a reduction in maintenance and housing services such that a rent reduction/rebate is warranted. To the extent the conditions not timely repaired or maintained may also be characterized as habitability problems, Tenants have likewise carried their burden of proof.

3. Code Violations

Code violations address a landlord's failure to comply with code violations that materially affect tenants' health and safety, including Health and Safety Code, Section 17920.3. The Inspection Reports from San Mateo County Environmental Health Services (LE O, pgs. 308-311) do cite to violations of that statute and to violations of the Uniform Building and Housing Code but the code violations were characterized as "minor". Tenants have not carried their burden of proof that there are code violations that have been or are so severe so as to warrant a rent reduction/rebatge.

4. Loss or Reduced Housing Services

As stated above, housing services are broadly defined and the items listed under this category include many common area items such as a defective or inoperative elevator, a broken or defective intercom, laundry facilities, swimming pool, and no on site resident manager services for rental properties with 16 or more rental units. Tenants offered considerable testimony and submitted considerable documentary evidence in support of their contention that there has been a significant loss or reduction in housing services.

The evidence established that the swimming pool has not been available during the summer months whether due to maintenance issues or the landlord's failure to obtain the necessary County permits to operate the pool. Even a few of the reports from the security service state that the pool is dirty. LE N. That the pool has not always been available is a loss or reduction of housing services.

The evidence was uncontradicted that for some time there were tables and chairs in the area near the swimming pool but these have been removed. Ms. Andrade, on behalf of the Landlord, explained the tables and chairs were removed because they were continually getting broken and/or thrown into the swimming pool. A landlord should not be in the position of constantly replacing amenities that tenants or their guests are damaging. Although as a gesture of good faith, the Landlord should consider once again providing those amenities (perhaps this time taking better steps to secure the tables and chairs), the removal of the tables and chairs was justified and hence not a reduction in housing services for which a rent reduction is warranted.

Although at some point the property had a working intercom system, the evidence was clear that the intercom system has not been functional for many years. Given the length of time the intercom system has not worked, a petition for loss of this housing service should have been filed many years ago. Because of that, that loss of housing service is time barred.

The evidence established that the elevator is out of service from time to time and that the interior of the elevator is not as well maintained as it should be. Nevertheless, it does not appear that the elevator has been out of service for an extensive period of time or that it constantly is out of service. LE L. The Landlord should ensure that the interior of the elevator is cleaned regularly but the elevator related issues do not constitute a loss of housing services.

From time to time, water in the individual units is brown colored and has an unpleasant smell. These issues are better addressed with the individual petitions but evidently result after the water company or the Fire Department shuts off water in the main line, rather than a problem with the interior water lines.

Tenants cite to a lack of security at the property but there is a key pad in order to provide access and the Landlord does have a security service that is routinely in and around the property. LE N. While the Tenants would like to see more or better security, the evidence does not establish that there has been a reduction in housing services due to security issues.

Except as the failure of the Landlord to maintain and repair timely as described in Section 2 above may be considered a loss or reduction of housing services, and except for the unavailability of the swimming pool, Tenants have not carried their burden of proof as to a reduction of any other housing services so as to warrant a rent reduction/rebate.

REMEDY

Tenants have carried their burden of proof that the overall lack of maintenance in the common areas and the lack of availability of the swimming pool constitute a reduction in maintenance and housing services, both of which call for a reduction in/rebate of rent. As to an appropriate remedy, for a period of three years prior to the filing of the petitions in September 2024 through May 2025, Tenants are entitled to have their rents reduced by seven percent, 2% for the unavailability of the swimming pool and 5% for the failure of timely maintenance and repairs in the common areas. Assuming that the swimming pool is now available, beginning June 2025, Tenants' rents are reduced by only 5%. Given the wide ranging scope of repairs/maintenance that needs to occur in the common areas, for example, painting the exterior of the building, repairing light fixtures in the hallway, repairing/replacing broken or cracked tiles in the hallway, ensuring the elevator is working and that the laundry facilities are in working order and the laundry areas kept clean, and maintaining the swimming pool, etc., the 5% reduction will continue for one year in order to provide the Landlord with the opportunity to address the maintenance issues and demonstrate that the Landlord will meet its obligations to maintain the common areas on an ongoing basis.

DECISION

1. The petitions for a rent reduction/rebate based on the failure to maintain or repair items in the common area or a reduction in housing services relative to the common areas are granted; the rents for the Tenants are reduced by 7% from September 2021 through May 2025. From June 2025 through May 2026 Tenants' rents are reduced by 5%. If, after one year, Landlord has failed to demonstrate that it is maintaining the common areas, Tenants may file new petitions.

2. Because each Tenant is paying a different amount of rent, a separate calculation is required for the amount of reimbursement/rebate to each Tenant household and a separate calculation is required as to the rent as of June 2025. Landlord has provided rental information for the Tenants at 201 E. O'Keefe Street who filed petitions. LE B. The calculation of the rent reduction/rebate and the rent as of June 2025, for Tenants are set forth in Attachment 1. As to the reimbursement/rebates, Landlord may provide the amounts directly to the Tenants, provide the amounts as a credit against future rent, or provide the amounts against rent that is in arrears. The reimbursement/rebates shall be provided within 30 days from the date this Decision is final.

3. In all other respects, the petitions are denied.

INTRODUCTION

This appeal presents the question as to when a rent rebate is warranted under the City of East Palo Alto's Rent Stabilization Ordinance ("RSO"). Apparently concerned about an imminent sale of their building and frustrated by the age of the property, certain residents ("Petitioners") filed Petitions for Individual Rent Adjustment ("Petitions") for their respective tenancies in apartments located at 201 E. O'Keefe St., East Palo Alto (the "Property"). The Petitions claim that Petitioners should be awarded significant rent rebates.

Unfortunately for Petitioners, record evidence is clear that to the extent that material maintenance issues arose at the Property, the landlord addressed those issues in a timely fashion, working to resolve them as soon as they had notice of the problem. Rent rebates are not proper for problems that have been timely addressed by the landlord.

This appeal asks the Rent Stabilization Board ("Rent Board") to reverse the Hearing Examiner's decision on common area issues at the Property to the extent that it (1) awards a rent rebate when there was no change in housing services; (2) awards a rent rebate for the pool being closed when the pool was open; (3) cites no evidence to that Respondent had notice of problems three years before petition was filed; (4) awards rebates when record evidence shows that problems were fixed in a timely fashion; (5) awards rent rebates beyond the time period where there was a problem, especially prospectively before there could be evidence presented of an ongoing problem; (6) awards rent rebates for minor problems; (7) considers minor housing service reductions to be habitability flaws; (8) awards rent reductions that tenants did not request in their petitions; (9) misstates record evidence; and (10) awards rebates for periods in which tenants had no tenancy. Such determinations are contrary to the RSO and its implementing Rules and Regulations for Residential Tenancies Under 2010 RSO ("Rules").

FACTS

This matter involves nine petitions that were filed by tenants in the fall of 2024. At that time, the Property was owned by Woodland Park Property Owner, LLC. The Property was part of the portfolio of apartment buildings on the west side of East Palo Alto, known as the Woodland Park Apartments. The then-owner contracted with Greystar to manage the rental property, including negotiating lease agreements, collecting rent payments, and responding to requests for maintenance. Together, the owner and the property manager are referred to herein as "Respondent."

I. Petition Process.

The petitions were submitted to the Rent Stabilization Program ("RSP") in September 2024. They were served on Respondent in October 2024. Within two weeks, Respondent timely responded to the Petition on the RSP response form. The responses were served on the RSP and the Petitioners.

The RSP decided to consolidate the petitions and to bifurcate the issues into "common area issues" and individual issues. The RSP set a hearing on the common area issues for February 27, 2025. The RSP required the parties to provide a witness list and exhibits to the RSP and the other party by February 20, 2025. Respondent provided the witness list and exhibits to the RSP before the deadline. Respondent submitted exhibits related to each individual petitioner's tenancy as well as exhibits related to the common area issues.

The Hearing Examiner conducted a hearing on common area issues as scheduled. Only some of the petitioners attended the hearing on common area issues and provided testimony.

After the hearing, in April 2025, Woodland Park Property Owner, LLC sold the Property to a new owner. The new owner contracted with a new property management company to manage the Property. After April 2025, the new property owner and new property manager were responsible for day-to-day operations at the Property. However, the old property owner and property manager continued through the petition process on behalf of Respondent.

The Hearing Examiner issued a decision (the "Decision") dated as of May 30, 2025. It was not served on Respondent until June 12, 2025.

The Decision (at p. 9) awarded all nine petitioners a 7% rent rebate from September 2021 through May 2025 and a prospective 5% rent reduction from June 2025 through May 2026. These rent rebates included 2% for the unavailability of the swimming pool each month and the remaining 5% for maintenance and repair deficiencies in common areas, including paint issues, light fixtures in the hallway, broken or cracked tiles in the hallway, elevator functionality, functioning and clean laundry facilities, and pool maintenance. Decision p. 9.

Respondent timely appealed the decision on June 27, 2025. The RSP took no action on the appeal for nearly nine months.

The RSP finally asked the Rent Board to set a hearing and briefing schedule on March 11, 2026. At that time, the Rent Board determined to hold the appeal hearing on the record.

II. Tenant-Specific Facts

A. Josefina Caldaron; Apartment 107.

This tenancy began in 2010. See R002.[1] The Petition does not mention problems with light fixtures in the hallway, broken or cracked tiles in the hallway, or the cleanliness of the laundry facilities. (See Petition, PDF p.3 and p.9 regarding alleged problems.) There is no percentage rent requested to be refunded or reduced for these or other common area problems. The Petitioner never reported problems with paint, light fixtures in the hallway, broken or cracked tiles in the hallway, functioning and clean laundry facilities, pool maintenance or anything else in common areas. See R047 through R101.

B. Rocio Rios; Apartment 108.

This tenancy began in 2010. See R002. The Petition does not mention problems with light fixtures in the hallway, broken or cracked tiles in the hallway, or the cleanliness of the laundry facilities. (See Petition PDF p.9.) There is no percentage rent requested to be refunded or reduced for these or other common area problems. (See Petition, PDF p.9.). The Petitioner never reported problems with paint, the light fixtures in hallway, broken or cracked tiles in the hallway, elevator functionality, functioning and clean laundry facilities, and pool maintenance or anything else in common areas. See R040 through R072.

C. Reyna Del Cid; Apartment 110.

This tenancy began in 2011. See R002. The Petition does not mention problems with light fixtures in the hallway, broken or cracked tiles in the hallway, or the cleanliness of the laundry facilities. (See Petition PDF p.9.) There is no percentage rent requested to be refunded

These include leases, ledgers, and work orders related to the particular tenancy. Otherwise, citations to the record are to record evidence submitted for the common area hearing.

or reduced for these or other common area problems. (See Petition, PDF p.9.) The Petitioner never reported problems with paint, light fixtures in the hallway, elevator functionality, or functioning and clean laundry facilities. See R026 through R104.

On September 1, 2024, the Petitioner called to report broken tile on the first floor. See R064. Within days, a Woodland Park technician replaced the broken tile in work that was scheduled for September 6, 2024, and was completed by September 11, 2024. See R064.

D. Alma Hernandez; Apartment 201.

This tenancy began in 2010. See R002. The Petition does not mention problems with light fixtures in the hallway, broken or cracked tiles in the hallway, or the cleanliness of the laundry facilities. (See Petition, PDF p.5 [not indicating inoperative/missing lights or missing or cracked, broken tile] and p.9 regarding alleged problems.) There is no percentage rent requested to be refunded or reduced for these or other common area problems, other than alleged problems with the elevator. (See Petition, PDF p.9). The Petitioner never reported problems with paint, light fixtures in the hallway, broken or cracked tiles in the hallway, elevator functionality, or functioning and clean laundry facilities. See R036 through R075.

E. Maria Guadalupe Villalon; Apartment 202.

This tenancy began in 2009. See R002. The Petition does not mention problems with light fixtures in the hallway, broken or cracked tiles in the hallway, or the cleanliness of the laundry facilities. (See Petition, PDF p.5 [not indicating inoperative/missing lights; missing or cracked, broken tile; or laundry facilities] and p.9 regarding alleged problems.) There is no percentage rent requested to be refunded or reduced for these or other common area problems. (See Petition, PDF p.9). The Petitioner never reported problems with paint, light fixtures in the hallway, elevator functionality, functioning and clean laundry facilities, and pool maintenance or anything else in common areas. See R040 through R092. On October 14, 2022, the Petitioner reported a loose tile in the second floor hallway by the laundry room. Within a week, by October 20, 2022, a Woodland Park technician replaced the damaged tile. See R052.

F. Adelina Garcia; Apartment 204.

This tenancy began in 2009. See R002. The Petition does not mention problems with the cleanliness of the laundry facilities. (See Petition PDF p.9 regarding alleged problems.) There is no percentage rent requested to be refunded or reduced for these or other common area problems. (See Petition, PDF p.9). The list of common area issues in the Petition does not mention paint, broken tiles, light fixtures in the hallway, elevator functionality, functioning and clean laundry facilities, or pool maintenance. (See Petition PDF p.19.) The Petitioner never reported problems with paint, broken tiles, light fixtures in the hallway, functioning and clean laundry facilities, and pool maintenance or anything else in common areas. See R044 through R075.

On July 5, 2022, the Petitioner reported that the elevator was not working and there was graffiti in it. See R047. Woodland Park immediately called the elevator service vendor for service on July 6, 2022, and followed up with the vendor on July 7, 2022, and July 10, 2022. Id. The work was still pending the arrival of parts from the vendor to repair the elevator. Id. By July 26, 2022, the elevator had been repaired, the graffiti had been removed, and the elevator was fully functioning. Id.

G. Katterine Ciramagua; Apartment 206.

This tenancy did not begin until June 8, 2024. See R002. The Petition does not mention problems with light fixtures in the hallway, broken or cracked tiles in the hallway, or the cleanliness of the laundry facilities. (See Petition, PDF p.11 [not indicating inoperative/missing lights; or missing or cracked, broken tile] and p.15 regarding alleged problems.) There is no percentage rent requested to be refunded or reduced for these or other common area problems. (See Petition, PDF p.15). The Petitioner never reported problems with paint, light fixtures in the hallway, elevator functionality, functioning and clean laundry facilities, and pool maintenance or anything else in common areas. See R046 through R071.

On October 28, 2024, there is a work order for cracked hallway tiles. R064. The Woodland Park technician inspected the hallway on October 30, 2024, and could not find any loose tiles. R064.

H. Elibeth Pereda; Apartment 207.

This tenancy began in 2010. See R002. The Petition does not mention problems with light fixtures in the hallway, broken or cracked tiles in the hallway, or the cleanliness of the laundry facilities. (See Petition, PDF p.5 [not indicating inoperative/missing lights; missing or cracked, broken tile; or laundry facilities] and p.9 regarding alleged problems.) There is no percentage rent requested to be refunded or reduced for these or other common area problems. (See Petition, PDF p.9). The summary of common area issues does not mention light fixtures, tiles/flooring, or the cleanliness of laundry. See Petition, PDF p.16. The Petitioner never reported problems with paint, light fixtures in the hallway, functioning and clean laundry facilities, and pool maintenance or anything else in common areas. See R039 through R080.

On August 29, 2024, there was a work order reporting that the elevator was not working. R065. When the technician went to inspect, the elevator was working fine. Id.

On October 28, 2024, there was a work order for cracked hallway tiles. R079. The Woodland Park technician went to the apartment on October 30, 2024, but there was no answer and there was a dog in the unit, and the technician could not reach the resident by phone. R079. On November 11, 2024, the technician went back to inspect and could not find any visible loose tiles in the hallway. R079. The Petitioner told the technician that they had already been fixed. R079.

I. Melva Spruell; Apartment 208.

This tenancy began in 2012. See R002. The Petition does not mention problems with broken or cracked tiles in the hallway or the cleanliness of the laundry facilities. (See Petition, PDF p.5 [missing or cracked, broken tile] and p.9 regarding alleged problems.) There is no percentage rent requested to be refunded or reduced for these or other common area problems other than the pool being dirty. (See Petition, PDF p.11). The Petitioner never reported problems with paint, broken tiles, elevator functionality, functioning and clean laundry facilities, or anything else in common areas. See R027 through R114.

On September 22, 2021, the resident called to report that the pool was dirty. R035.Two days later, on September 24, 2021, the Pro Pools vendor cleaned the pool to resolve the issue. R035. The pool was also reported on August 28, 2024. R065. The work was scheduled for September 6, 2024, and the team noted that a new pool vendor was in contract to ensure the quality of service was kept to standards. R065.

On November 10, 2021, the resident called to report that the neon exit sign in the second floor common area was hanging and looked like it might fall. R040. The work was scheduled as a high priority item for that same day. The technician noted that they re-screwed the exit sign. See R040. A few years later, on October 28, 2024, there is a work order for the hallway lights being out. R097. The technician went on October 30, 2024, and found that the hallway lights, emergency lights, and exist signs were all working fine. R097.

On August 28, 2024, there is a work order relating to graffiti in the elevator. R076. The team completed the work by September 3, 2024, by removing the graffiti. R076. Another report was made on October 28, 2024, and the technician noted that the graffiti was removed from the elevator cab. R100.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

Neither the Rules nor the RSO articulate the standard of review that the Rent Board should apply to an appeal on the record. Respondent supports the use of the standard of review that applies generally to the review of quasi-judicial decisions:

> The inquiry in such a case shall extend to the questions whether the respondent has proceeded without, or in excess of, jurisdiction; whether there was a fair trial; and whether there was any prejudicial abuse of discretion. Abuse of discretion is established if the respondent has not proceeded in the manner required by law, the order or decision is not supported by the findings, or the findings are not supported by the evidence.

Cal. Code Civ. Proc. ("CCP") Section 1094.5(b). "Where it is claimed that the findings are not supported by the evidence... abuse of discretion is established if the court determines that the findings are not supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record." CCP Section 1094.5(c).

The quantum of proof required for a Hearing Examiner to award a rent rebate is the "preponderance of the evidence." Rule 1500(A)(16)(a). "No individual Maximum Allowable Rent adjustment shall be granted unless supported by the preponderance of the evidence submitted at the hearing." The "preponderance of the evidence" means more than half of the evidence.

In this case, the Hearing Examiner abused his discretion by failing to proceed in the manner required by law and by issuing a decision that is not supported by the findings, which in turn are not supported by more than half of the evidence.

ARGUMENT

The retrospective rent rebate and prospective rent reduction awarded to Petitioners should be reversed because they constitute an abuse of discretion. The Hearing Examiner failed to proceed in the manner required by law and made findings that were not supported by the preponderance of the evidence.

I. Record Evidence Shows That Woodland Park Timely Fixes Common Area Problems.

The Decision awards 5% rent rebates and reimbursements for unspecified "overall lack of maintenance in the common areas." Decision p. 9. However, there is no explanation of exactly what alleged problems existed, when the Respondent was notified of the problem, and how long the problem existed. Rather, the Decision makes unsupported blanket statements, awarding a rent reduction for "failure of timely maintenance and repairs in the common areas." Decision p. 9.

There is no citation of record evidence of exactly what maintenance or repair failed. There is no record evidence as to when a Petitioner provided notice to the landlord of a problem in the common areas that was not immediately fixed.

There is ample record evidence that when a Petitioner did provide notice to Respondent, the problem was fixed. Pursuant to Rule 1500(E)(2)(d)(i), "There shall be no rent reduction if the condition was promptly corrected upon notice to the landlord and the breach had a minimal impact." That is the case for every common area issue here.

Record evidence shows that as soon as Petitioners sent Respondent a letter in July 2024 about common area issues, Respondent fixed the issues Petitioners raised. Petitioners' own evidence shows this. TE 1 is the Petitioners' original letter from July 17, 2024, that discussed common area issues. It requests that the landlord clean and open the pool, repaint stairways, repair stairs and railings, fix flooring, fill in cracks, and ensure elevator function. TE 1. Woodland Park responded via letter, and the Petitioners followed up on August 1, 2024. TE 4, p.1. By that time, many of the items had been fixed such that none of those common area requests were "still waiting to be addressed properly," even though the Petitioners did list five other issues that did still require work. In other words, Petitioners admit that the problems they listed had been immediately resolved within two weeks.

There is other clear record evidence on every issue discussed in the Decision, as follows:

A. Pool.

Tenants collectively complained about the pool by letter on July 17, 2024. TE 1. By July 31, 2024, Respondent had inspected the pool and ensured that it was clean and open. TE 2. There are also many reports from the security company indicating their work to close the pool in the evenings at the end of the day during the summer of 2024; obviously this would not be necessary if the pool was closed the whole time. See Respondent's Exhibit N; e.g., R240-8; 257-73. The security company monitored the status of the pool and alerted the maintenance team when work was needed, so that it could be addressed. Id.

Each time that an individual Petitioner raised an issue about the pool, it was immediately addressed. On September 22, 2021, Ms. Spruell in Apartment 208 called to report that the pool was dirty. R035. Two days later, on September 24, 2021, the Pro Pools vendor cleaned the pool to resolve the issue. R035. Three years later, a new pool issue was reported by Ms. Spruell on August 28, 2024. R065. The work was scheduled for September 6, 2024, and the team noted that a new pool vendor was in contract to ensure the quality of service was kept to standards. Id. There is no record evidence that Petitioners made reports of pool problems that went unaddressed by Respondent.

B. Light Fixtures.

The Decision refers to "repairing light fixtures in the hallway." Decision p. 9. The record evidence shows that any time a problem with a light fixture was raised, it was immediately inspected and addressed. On November 10, 2021, the Petitioner in Unit 208 called to report that the neon exit sign in the second floor common area was hanging and looked like it might fall. R040. The work was scheduled as a high priority item for that same day. The technician noted that they re-screwed the exit sign. Id. A few years later, on October 28, 2024, there is a work order from the same Petitioner for the hallway lights being out. R097. The technician went on October 30, 2024, and found that the hallway lights, emergency lights, and exist signs were all working fine. Id.

The San Mateo Housing Inspector came to inspect the building in October 2024 and did not find any problems with light fixtures. R518.

A few months later, the PalAmerican Security Inc. inspected the building again. R384. Their report explains, "Dark areas were closely inspected, and all lighting was functional with no signs of unusual activity. Walkways and stairwells were thoroughly checked and found to be clear and safe for use." Id. Therefore, record evidence shows no ongoing problems with common area lights that would warrant a rent rebate.

C. Common Area Fooring.

Tenants complained about minor problems with tiles in the hallway. TE 1. On September 1, 2024, Ms. Del Cid in Apartment 110 called to report broken tile on the first floor. See R064. Within days, a Woodland Park technician replaced the broken tile in work that was scheduled for September 6, 2024, and was completed by September 11, 2024. See R064. Later that fall, Woodland Park hired another vendor to fix the tiles. Atherton General Construction and Hauling completed the job of "replace tiles in hallway and in front of unit #104." See R275. The job was so minor that it cost only $450. Id. The minor problem was fixed and no rent rebate is appropriate. Again, there is no record evidence of ongoing, unresolved issues with common area flooring.

D. Elevator.

Record evidence is clear that the elevator has been in good working order. When tenants report a problem, it is immediately fixed. On July 5, 2022, Ms. Garcia in Apartment 204 reported that the elevator was not working and there was graffiti. See R047. Woodland Park immediately called the elevator service vendor for service on July 6, 2022, and followed up with the vendor on July 7, 2022, and July 10, 2022. Id. The work was still pending the arrival of parts from the vendor to repair the elevator. Id. By July 26, 2022, the elevator had been repaired, the graffiti had been removed, and the elevator was fully functioning. Id. This happened as quickly as was possible given the need to obtain the part necessary to complete the repair.

On August 28, 2024, there is a work order from Ms. Spruell in Apartment 208 relating to graffiti in elevator. R076. The team completed the work by September 3, 2024, by removing the graffiti. R076.

On August 29, 2024, there was a work order from Ms. Pereda in Apartment 207 reporting that the elevator was not working. R065. When the technician went to inspect, the elevator was working fine. Id.

Another report associated with Ms. Spruell in Apartment 208 was made on October 28, 2024, and the technician noted that the graffiti was removed from the elevator cab. R100.

Respondent's Exhibit L includes additional elevator records. Monthly service from the elevator company is performed. See R201. When the elevator has a problem, an elevator technician comes to resolve the problem and fix the elevator. The elevator was restored to service on the same day as a problem was reported on June 21, 2022, October 11, 2022, June 7, 2023, November 28, 2023, May 8, 2024, and June 12, 2024. See R201. This proves that Respondent fixed problems efficiently and immediately. There is no record evidence of ongoing elevator problems.

E. Laundry Facilities.

The laundry facilities are functioning and clean. The record evidence also shows regular maintenance and inspection of the common laundry facilities by the security staff. For example, there is a report dated May 22, 2024, showing pictures of the clean, functional laundry rooms in the Property. See R225-227. There are similar pictures from July 25, 2024. R261-263. There are also many reports of the security staff visiting the Property's laundry room to ensure it is locked and closed in the evening. See, e.g., R215,-216, R223-224.

On January 17, 2025, the County Inspector observed a "small hole" in one of the dryer exhaust pipes. R521. Woodland Park hired Precision Heating and Cooling to address the dryer vent issues throughout the Property. R274. The work was completed including removing lint buildup, removing lint from walkways, and cleaning. Id. There is no record evidence of issues in the laundry room that warrant a rent rebate.

II. The Decision Cites No Evidence That Respondent Had Notice of Problems Three Years Before the Petitions Were Filed.

The RSO specifies that a tenant "must specify the housing services decreased and demonstrate that the landlord was provided with reasonable notice and opportunity to correct the conditions that provide the basis for the petition." RSO §§14.04.130C. The Rules further specify that "[t]he petitioner must provide proof that the landlord has reasonable notice (verbal, written, or constructive) and a reasonable opportunity to correct the conditions or restore the reductions in Housing Services that provide the basis for the petition." Rule 1500(E)(2)(a). The hearing examiner "shall determine the date on which the landlord was notified or actually knew or reasonably should have known that the conditions or problems existed." Rule 1500(A)(16)(b).

The record evidence shows that the earliest date of notice of Petitioner's alleged problems was the July 17, 2024 letter, followed by an August 1, 2024 letter and the Petitions themselves, in October 2024. The Decision cites no evidence that any Petitioner gave Respondent other, earlier notice of any purported common area problem. The Decision states, without any citation to record evidence or anything else, that "for a period of three years prior to the filing of the petitions in September 2024…Tenants are entitled to have their rents reduced." Decision at p.9. But there is no explanation as to how that date was established or whether Respondent had notice of the alleged problems prior to the summer of 2024 and Petitioner's original letter and subsequent Petitions. That is error and an abuse of discretion warranting reversal.

In fact, there are established ways for tenants to report issues and get problems fixed. All of the Petitioners regularly availed themselves of these tools. For example, the record contains evidence that very single Petitioner submitted work orders to Respondent between the beginning their tenancy and the date of the hearing. See, e.g. Apartment 107 R047 through R101; Apartment 108 R040 through R072; Apartment 110 R026 through R104; Apartment 201 R036 through R075; Apartment 202 R040 through R092; Apartment 204 R044 through R075; Apartment 206 R046 through R071; Apartment 207 R039 through R080; and Apartment 208

R027 through R114. The existence of these work orders shows that the Petitioners knew how to register problems with Respondent. When they needed work to be completed, they communicated the problem with Respondent and Respondent resolved the problem. To the extent that Petitioners have testified that there were other problems that they did not submit work orders for, it belies credulity. When any Petitioner had a real problem, they alerted Respondent and Respondent solved the problem. Id. The petition process is not intended to allow tenants to lay in wait for years, using the work order process to resolve acute problems, but springing a massive request for rent rebates on a landlord without ever telling the landlord about those problems. That is what has happened here.

There is also ample record evidence regarding the many ways for a tenant to report a problem to the landlord. The July 31, 2024 letter from Respondents to tenants in the Property explained that any tenant can report issues by logging onto the online resident portal, calling 650-566-2000, or coming to the two management offices then in existence. R214. Similarly, an invitation to a listening session on August 19, 2024 similarly confirmed these ways to reporting a maintenance issue. R215. The agenda for the August 19, 2024 reiterated the ways to notify the landlord of a maintenance problem. R221. The August 27, 2024, September 23, 2024, and October 19, 2024, emails from Michael Kramer again reiterated these ways of logging issues. R223, R228. R236. The February 7, 2025 email from Jason Villareal again provided this information. R247. Respondents clearly and repeatedly communicated to Petitioners how to report problems, and Petitioners used these methods effectively to get problems resolved.

The Decision's award of rent rebates that date back three years before the Petitioners raised their issues is error and must be reversed. The Hearing Examiner abused his discretion by failing to proceed in the manner required by law — which would have been to make a determination, based on factual record evidence, as to when Respondent had notice. The preponderance of the evidence shows that Petitioners all knew how to—and did—make maintenance requests and give Respondent notice of actual problems. They never requested attention on the common area issues raised herein. It was error to find that Respondent somehow had notice dating back to 2021.

III. Rent Rebates Are Only Appropriate During the Time of a Reduction of Housing Services And Not Beyond.

The RSO provides for rent rebates to account for the reduction in rental value of an apartment when the apartment is not receiving a housing service to which it is entitled. Any rent reduction is "based on loss of rental value attributable to a reduction in maintenance or services." RSO §14.04.130B. The rent reduction "shall be in effect until the failure is corrected." See Regulation 1500E.2.d.(iii). There is a process in Regulation 1500E.4 for "Restoration of Rent Once Bases for Reductions in Rent Are Corrected." There is no authority in the RSO for ongoing rent reductions after the housing service is restored. At that time, the tenant is receiving all of the housing services for which they contracted and no rent reduction is appropriate. There are no provisions for punitive or prospective rent reductions unassociated with a reduction in housing services.

The Decision awards prospective 5% rent reductions for twelve (12) months from the date of the Decision, from June 2025 to May 2026 for "failure of timely maintenance and repairs in the common areas." See Decision p. 9. There is no evidence that the housing services continued to be reduced during this time period. After all, the time period had not yet occurred. There is no basis in the RSO or the implementing Rules for this kind of prospective rent reduction that has no connection with whether or not the housing service has been restored. The only permissible rent reductions are for when the housing service has not been restored and where the rental value is therefore diminished. It was error and abuse of discretion to award an ongoing, prospective rent reduction without any evidence that the housing service continued to be a problem.

Record evidence shows that all problems had been resolved.

IV. A Rent Reduction Is Not Proper for De Minimis Problems.

Under the RSO, a rent reduction must reflect the "loss in rental value attributable to the failures specified." Rule 1500 (E)(3). The hearing examiner is required to make this determination in light of the following factors:

> [T]he extent to which the failure affects the tenant(s), the relative significance of the failure in relation to the safety, health, convenience, > and comfort of the tenant(s), the extent to which the tenant relied on the fact that the condition would be adequately maintained, the extent to which the use and enjoyment of the unit is affected, and other factors that are reasonably deemed to be relevant.

Rule 1500(E)(3). It follows that where a de minimis problem does not affect the rental value, no award is permissible. Accordingly, the Rule 1500(E)(1) specifies that:

> Minor maintenance deficiencies or deterioration which have no or insignificant impacts on the livability or rental value of a unit and which do not cause any health and safety risk shall not provide a basis for a reduction in the Rent pursuant to this subsection. (Emphasis added).

The Decision misstates and misapplies the law by failing to consider the magnitude of the alleged issues and how they affect the Petitioners. Rule 1500(E)(1) clearly exempts minor problems from the general rule that reductions in housing services warrant a rent reduction. In this case, the Hearing Examiner has erroneously awarded rent reductions for minor deficiencies that had insignificant, if any, impacts on the liability, rental value, or health and safety of the rental unit. Such reductions are improper and should be reversed.

The Decision awarded a 5% rent rebate for unspecified common area issues. Record evidence shows that these issues were minor. The San Mateo County Health Environmental Health Services Department inspected the building in October 2024, in response to complaints from Petitioners. This government agency is tasked with inspecting multi-family dwellings to ensure they are safe and healthy. When the agency inspected the building, they found only "minor" issues. See R518. Stephen Low, the Housing Inspector, looked at the very same common area issues that the Decision considered. He considered the exterior paint issues to be "Minor." He inspected steps, handrails, and landings and found only one portion of a balcony railing to be loose and need to be re-secured. He considered this to be "Minor." During his multiple inspections of the building, he did not find any issues at all with the pool, the common area floor, the common area lighting, or the elevator. R518 through 521. Because the County's housing inspector found only minor issues, no rent rebate is appropriate.

Even if the common area issues had existed, they had no impact on the livability, rental value, or health and safety of the rental unit and so no rent rebate should have been awarded. If a few tiles in a hallway had divots, they do not affect the rental value of the apartment. Similarly, old paint and light fixtures that were repaired similarly do not affect the rental value of the apartment. There was no discussion of the level of impact these alleged defects have. Indeed, there is no record evidence that these problems had any effect on the livability, rental value, or health and safety of the unit. Petitioners bear the burden of proof for these issues, and they did not offer any evidence, much less a "preponderance of the evidence" (Rule 1500 (E)(2)(c)) as to these factors. Absent any evidence, the award was erroneous.

The rent reduction is not supported by record evidence or the law and should be reversed.

V. A Petitioner Can Only Receive A Rent Rebate That They Request.

The Decision awards the same rent rebate to each of the nine Petitioners, without regard to the relief that those petitioners sought in their Petitions. This is an error. Due process requires that the Respondent have notice that a Petitioner is requesting relief on a particular topic. The Petition is the mechanism for giving such notice. When a petition does not mention a particular request, the landlord has no notice that the tenant seeks rent relief on that topic. Absent notice, there is no due process for the landlord.

Rule 1500 (E)(3) requires that rent reductions "shall be based on the issues presented in the petition" (emphasis added). Rule 1500(A)(13)(a) protects due process by limiting a hearing to the issues raised by the petition ("the hearing shall be limited to the issues raised by the petition" "to ensure that each party is given notice of the grounds for a petition.").

Not all petitioners raised issues with all of the common area complaints. Under the Rules, it was error and an abuse of discretion for the Decision to award rent rebates and reimbursements for issues that were not raised in a given Petition. The following table summarizes which issues were raised in each Petition. Issues not raised in a Petition cannot be awarded a rent rebate.

Petitioner	Pool	Paint	Light fixtures	Tiles in hallway	Laundry facilities	Elevator
Caldaron #107	No rebate requested	No rebate requested	Not in petition; no rebate requested	Not in petition; no rebate requested	Not in petition; no rebate requested	No rebate requested
Rios #108	No rebate	No rebate	Not in	Not in	Not in	No rebate requested	requested	petition; no rebate requested	petition; no rebate requested	petition; no rebate requested	requested

Del Cid #110	No rebate requested	No rebate requested	Not in petition; no rebate requested	Not in petition; no rebate requested	Not in petition; no rebate requested	No rebate requested
Hernandez #201	No rebate requested	No rebate requested	Not in petition; no rebate requested	Not in petition; no rebate requested	Not in petition; no rebate requested	Requested
Villalon #202	No rebate requested	No rebate requested	Not in petition; no rebate requested	Not in petition; no rebate requested	Not in petition; no rebate requested	No rebate requested
Garcia #204	No rebate requested	No rebate requested	No rebate requested	No rebate requested	Not in petition; no rebate requested	No rebate requested
Ciramagua #206	No rebate requested	No rebate requested	Not in petition; no rebate requested	Not in petition; no rebate requested	Not in petition; no rebate requested	No rebate requested
Pereda #207	No rebate requested	No rebate requested	Not in petition; no rebate requested	Not in petition; no rebate requested	Not in petition; no rebate requested	No rebate requested
Spruell #208	Requested	No rebate requested	No rebate requested	Not in petition; no rebate requested	Not in petition; no rebate requested	No rebate requested

The Decision must be reversed to the extent that it awards rent relief to a Petitioner for issues not raised in a Petition. Only Ms. Spruell in Unit 208, who requested a rebate for pool issues, and Ms. Hernandez in Unit 210, who requested a rebate for elevator issues, gave Respondent notice of their claim for a rebated due to common area issues. The other rebates must be denied on due process grounds.

VI. The Rent Rebate For Alleged Problems with the Pool Is Flawed.

A. No Rent Rebate Is Available When the Pool Was Clean and Open.

The Decision awards a 2% rent reduction for summer months when record evidence shows that the pool was open and clean. For example, the rent rebate extends from September 2021 through May of 2025. However, the pool was both open and clean for most, if not all, of this period. There is clear record evidence that the pool was open and clean in the summer of 2024. For example, Respondent's Exhibit P includes a letter from 2024 explaining that as of July 31, 2024, "the swimming pool at 201 E. Okeefe is open and clean." See R214. Tenants also provided this letter in their exhibits. And, they responded to the letter (See TE4) without contesting that the pool was open and clean. Indeed, they outlined certain issues still requiring attention, but not the pool, thereby admitting that it was open and available in the summer of 2024. There are also many reports from the security company indicating their work to close the pool in the evenings at the end of the day during the summer of 2024; obviously this would not be necessary if the pool was closed the whole time. See Respondent's Exhibit N; e.g., R240-8; 257-73. There is no basis for a rent reduction when this housing service was available. The Decision should be modified to exclude the summer of 2024 from the pool rent rebate.[2]

Each time that a Petitioner raised an issue about the pool, it was immediately addressed. On September 22, 2021, Ms. Spruell in Apartment 208 called to report that the pool was dirty. R035. Two days later, on September 24, 2021, the Pro Pools vendor cleaned the pool to resolve the issue. R035. The pool was also reported by Ms. Spruell on August 28, 2024. R065. The work was scheduled for September 6, 2024, and the team noted that a new pool vendor was in contract to ensure the quality of service was kept to standards. R065. There is no record evidence that the pool was closed for long periods in the summers or that Petitioners made reports of pool problems that went unaddressed by Respondent.

B. No Rent Rebate Is Available For Time Periods In Which There Was No Change In Housing Services.

The RSO authorizes a downward rent adjustment for a decrease in housing services. Municipal Code §14.04.130B. It says:

> A decrease in housing services or maintenance without a corresponding reduction in rent is considered an increase in rent. The board may order a rent reduction pursuant to a tenant petition based on loss in rental value attributable to a reduction in maintenance or services.

There is no authorization for a rent adjustment when housing services remain the same.

[2] Respondent also objects to any rent rebate for the summers of 2022 and 2023 because the pool was open and available. There is no record evidence that the pool was closed during those periods. Petitioners bear the burden of proof that a housing service is unavailable. They have not met that burden with regard to the pool.

The Decision awards a 2% rent reduction from September 2021 through May 2025 "for the unavailability of the swimming pool." Decision p. 9. This exceeds the loss in rental value attributable to a reduction in pool access because the pool is unheated and is only ever open during summer months. The pool is never provided as a housing service outside of the summer months. The typical schedule is to open the unheated pool by Memorial Day weekend, at the end of May each year, and close it after Labor Day weekend, at the beginning of September each year. Therefore, the pool is a housing service that is available for less than 3.5 months per year: a small portion of May, all of June, July, and August, and a small portion of September.

There is no record evidence that a closed or unavailable pool from the day after Labor Day, in early September, through the day before Memorial Day weekend, in late May, is a reduction in housing services. The pool was never a housing service during that time period. Because the pool is never a housing service included in the rental value of an apartment between Labor Day and Memorial Day, it is error to reduce the rent based on the unavailability of the pool during this time period. There is no basis for a 2% rent reduction for the following time periods because pool availability was never a housing service during those periods:

Scheduled Closing Date	Scheduled Opening Date	Number of Days	% of Year
Tuesday, September 7, 2021	Saturday, May 28, 2022	263 days	72%
Tuesday, September 6, 2022	Saturday, May 27, 2023	263 days	72%
Tuesday, September 5, 2023	Saturday, May 25, 2024	263 days	72%
Tuesday, September 3, 2024	Saturday, May 24, 2025	263 days	72%

The table above shows that the pool is closed 72% of the year and therefore it is open 28% of the year. If the pool comprises 2% of the rental value of a tenant's housing services, this is only true for 28% of the year. The maximum annual rent rebate associated with a pool closure is then 2% x 28% = 0.56%. Any rent rebate in excess of 0.56% exceeds the rental value associated with the alleged decrease in services. There is no decrease in services when a pool is not available during the time period in which it is always closed.

VII. The Property is Habitable; Minor Problems Do Not Violate the Warranty of Habitability.

The Decision obliquely concludes, without citation or explanation, that "to the extent the conditions not timely repaired or maintained may also be characterized as habitability problems, Tenants have likewise carried their burden of proof." P. 7. It is not clear what this means. If the Decision is determining that the common area issues rise to the level of a breach of the warranty of habitability, this is an abuse of discretion because there is no evidence of any habitability problem.

California Civil Code §1941.1 defines the warranty of habitability. The law considers the substantial lack of any of the following conditions to be a failure of a landlord to maintain the premises in a habitable condition:

> (1) Effective waterproofing and weather protection of roof and exterior walls, including unbroken windows and doors.
> (2) Plumbing or gas facilities that conformed to applicable law in effect at the time of installation, maintained in good working order.
> (3) A water supply approved under applicable law that is under the control of the tenant, capable of producing hot and cold running water, or a system that is under the control of the landlord, that produces hot and cold running water, furnished to appropriate fixtures, and connected to a sewage disposal system approved under applicable law.
> (4) Heating facilities that conformed with applicable law at the time of installation, maintained in good working order.
> (5) Electrical lighting, with wiring and electrical equipment that conformed with applicable law at the time of installation, maintained in good working order.
> (6) Building, grounds, and appurtenances at the time of the commencement of the lease or rental agreement, and all areas under control of the landlord, kept in every part clean, sanitary, and free from all accumulations of debris, filth, rubbish, garbage, rodents, and vermin.
> (7) An adequate number of appropriate receptacles for garbage and rubbish, in clean condition and good repair at the time of the commencement of the lease or rental agreement, with the landlord providing appropriate serviceable receptacles thereafter and being responsible for the clean condition and good repair of the receptacles under their control.
> (8) Floors, stairways, and railings maintained in good repair.
> (9) A locking mail receptacle for each residential unit in a residential hotel…
> (10) Except as provided in subdivision (b), a stove that is maintained in good working order and capable of safely generating heat for > cooking purposes. ....

> (11) (A) Except as provided in subdivision (b) and subparagraph (B), a refrigerator that is maintained in good working order and capable of safely storing food. ...

The Decision does not mention any of these habitability issues. In fact, Petitioners have not claimed any breaches of habitability with regard to the common area. None exist. Indeed, it is well established that the "implied warranty of habitability does not require that a landlord ensure that leased premises are in perfect, aesthetically pleasing condition, but it does mean that 'bare living requirements' must be maintained." Green v. Superior Court (1974) 10 Cal.3d 637 (emphasis added). Moreover, "minor housing code violations...must be considered de minimis and will not entitle the tenant to reduction in rent." Id. at 638 (emphasis in original).

The Decision should be overturned to the extent that it considers the alleged common area issues "habitability" problems. There is no evidence or law to support such a conclusion.

VIII. The Decision Misstates the Record Evidence.

Under CCP Section 1094.5(c), there is reversible error when findings are not supported by substantial record evidence. Here, the Decision misstates the record evidence to conclude that the County Inspector identified certain problems with the common area. These conclusions are incorrect: They misstate the findings on the County Inspector's report. The County Inspector found only "minor" issues, which, as above, cannot support a rent reduction. As such, the conclusions in the Decision are not supported by record evidence.

Rule 1500(E)(3) requires the Decision to consider "governmental inspection reports" when determining an appropriate reduction in rent. Where, as here, the government inspection found issues to be "minor," there can be no reduction in rent because minor problems "shall not provide a basis for a reduction in the Rent." Rule 1500(E)(1).

In particular, the Decision states that the County Inspector identified "the need to repair or replace steps." Decision p. 7. That is not what the report said. The report said, in relation to the topic of steps, handrails, and landings, that the only problem was the following, "Observed that the bottom portion of the balcony railing for unit 110 was loose. Re-secure as necessary." R518. There was no finding that there were missing steps or steps that required repair. Woodland Park re-secured the balcony railing for unit 110, which the tenant confirmed. See

The Decision states that the County Inspector found "inoperable fire extinguishers." Decision p. 7. That is not true. The County Inspector "observed that the fire extinguishers are due for annual servicing" and indicated this was a "minor" issue. See R518. This is not a determination that the extinguishers are "inoperable."

IX. The Decision Awards Rent Rebates For Periods Tenants Had No Tenancy.

The Decision awarded rent rebates and reimbursements to tenants for time periods in which they were not tenants and did not pay rent. For example, record evidence shows that Katterine Ciramagua and Alex Santiago became tenants of Apartment 206 on June 8, 2024. R002. The May 2025 Decision awards these tenants rent rebates and reimbursements for 24 months, which predates the beginning of their tenancy. See Decision Attachment 1. There is no authority in the RSO to rebate or reimburse tenants for rent that was not paid, during a time period in which they were not tenants. (The prior tenants are not petitioners and no rent rebate or reimbursement is appropriate for a tenant who does not petition.)

The Decision also awarded rent rebates to non-tenants. The Decision awarded Mireya Segundo a reimbursement for Apartment 204 (see Decision Attachment 1), even though the record evidence shows that only Adeline Garcia is a tenant in that apartment. R002 (Ms. Garcia is the named tenant on the lease); R004 (Ms. Garcia is the only occupant of the apartment.) There is no authority in the RSO for rent rebates for non-tenants.

CONCLUSION

The rent rebates and reduction in rent should be reversed.

I. INTRODUCTION

This appeal stems from sixteen tenants holding their landlord accountable for illegally profiting at their expense. Following a three-hour evidentiary hearing, East Palo Alto's Rent Stabilization board ("the Board") found that Woodland Park Communities ("Landlord") did not provide its tenants with the housing services they paid for. As such, the Board ordered Landlord to reimburse its tenants 7% of their rents for the three years preceding the tenants' petitions to the hearing. The Board also ordered Landlord to reduce the rent by 5% for the year following the hearing, as many issues remained unresolved.[1] Rather than submit to this modest reduction, Landlord appeals, raising a slew of meritless arguments about why it should be free to overcharge its tenants.

While it is clear that Landlord dislikes the Hearing Examiner's order, the Examiner made his decision based on substantial evidence from nine different units and sixteen different tenants, including the Landlord's own business records, hearing testimony, photographic evidence, third-party reports, and an on-site inspection. Landlord's appeal fails to show that the Examiner erred or in any way abused his discretion. At best, it shows that there were, at times, factual disputes. As such, the order should be upheld in its entirety.

II. FACTS

On September 18, 2024, Tenants at 201, 245, and 301 East O'Keefe Street (hereafter "the Property"), filed petitions with the East Palo Alto Rent Stabilization Program (hereafter "the Board") against Landlord, Woodland Park Communities. (Hearing Decision, at p. 4.)

The tenants' petitions requested rent rebates, in part, due to Landlord failing to provide housing services in the Property's common areas. (Id., at p.1-5.) Specifically, Tenants raised issues including Landlord's neglect of the Property's swimming pool; removal of chairs, picnic tables, and trash receptacles; failure to repair the broken intercom system; failure to adequately maintain the laundry facilities and elevator; and other instances of general neglect. (Id., at pp 3-5.)

The tenants, Josefina Calderon, Rocio Rios, Jose de la Torre, Miriam de la Torre, Miguel Angel de la Torre, Reyna del Cid, Richard Juarez, Jacqueline Arqueta, Alma Hernandez, Maria

[1] Landlord could have eliminated this decrease by making repairs and filing the proper paperwork. (RSBR 1500 (E)(4).)

Guadalupe Villalon, Adelina Garcia, Mireya Segundo, Katterine Ciramagua, Alex Santiago, Elibeth Pereda, and Melva Spruell, live in nine different units at the Property. (Id., at p. 1.). The Board consolidated the matters and set a hearing specifically for the common area issues. (Id., at pp. 1-2.)

After Tenants filed their petitions, the Hearing Officer and a Rent Stabilization Program Administrator, "inspected the exterior of the property" and "the hallways and other portions of the interior of the property…" (Id., at p. 1)

On February 27, 2025, the Board held its hearing on the common-area issues. (Ibid.) The tenants, many of whom testified, were represented by James Huynh and Laura Vasquez from the Regional Tenant Organizing Network. (Ibid.) The Board's decision states that "to a great extent, Tenants' testimony overlapped but was consistent." (Id., at p. 4) In addition to their testimony, the Tenants submitted twenty-eight exhibits. (Id., at pp. 2-3)

The Board issued its decision on May 30, 2025. Tenants prevailed on some issues and lost on others. In regard to the issues the Tenants did prevail on, the Decision awarded all nine petitioners a 7% rent rebate for the period of September 2021 through May 2025. (Id., at p.9.) The Board awarded a 5% rent reduction from June 2025 to May 2026. (Id., at p.9.)

III. LEGAL STANDARDS

Three legal standards are relevant in this matter. The standard in the initial hearing, the standard for this appeal, and the standard if either side seeks judicial review of this decision. All three standards should inform the Board's decision here.

A. Initial Petition

In the initial petition, the Petitioners bear the burden of proof and must show by a preponderance of the evidence the grounds for a reduction in Rent. (RSBR 1500(E)(2)(c).) A preponderance of the evidence "requires the trier of fact to believe that the existence of a fact is more probable than its nonexistence." (In re Angelia P. (1981) 28 Cal.3d 908, 918.) "The sole focus of the legal definition of 'preponderance' in the phrase 'preponderance of the evidence' is on the quality of the evidence. The quantity of evidence presented by each side is irrelevant." (Glage v. Hawes Firearms Co., 266 (1990) Cal.App.3d 314, 324–25.)

Appellant falsely claims that a preponderance of the evidence means "more than half of the evidence." This (citationless) assertion mischaracterizes the standard. The standard addresses the persuasiveness and quality of the evidence, not the quantity.

B. Board Appeal

In appeals before the Board, unless "the Board determines that a de novo hearing is required, the Board's decision will be based exclusively on the record before the Hearing Examiner." (Rent Stabilization Board Regulation (hereafter "RSBR" 1500(G)(2)(h).) To prevail in an appeal, the appellant must establish "either error or abuse of discretion." (RSBR 1500(G)(2)(b).) "In those cases where the Board is able to determine that the Hearing Examiner has erred, the Board may remand the case for further hearing…" (RSBR 1500(G)(2)(g).) The Board can also "affirm, reverse, remand or modify the decision of the Hearing Examiner." (RSBR 1500(G)(2)(j).)

Here, the Board did not order a de novo trial. As such, the Board is limited to the established record. (Notice of Rent Board Appeal Hearing)

C. Superior Court Review

If a party is unhappy with the Board's appeal decision, it may seek judicial review in the San Mateo Superior Court. (RSBR 1500(H); Cal. Code Civ. Proc., §§ 1094.5, 1094.6.) However, Courts do not disturb reasonable findings of local rent boards. Superior Court review is limited to jurisdictional issues, whether there was a fair trial, and whether there was "any prejudicial abuse of discretion." (Cal. Code Civ. Proc., §1094.5 subd. (b).) One way of establishing abuse of discretion is by showing that the "decision is not supported by the findings, or the findings are not supported by the evidence." (Ibid.) When the petitioner claims that findings are not supported by the evidence, the trial court can use two standards. (Cal. Code Civ. Proc., §1094.5 subd. (c). First,

> In cases in which the court is authorized by law to exercise its independent judgment on the evidence, abuse of discretion is established if the court determines that the findings are not supported by the weight of the evidence.

(Ibid.)

In any other case, "abuse of discretion is established if the court determines that the findings are not supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record." (Ibid.)

Here, Landlord and Tenant agree that the second standard would apply in the Superior Court. (Appellants Opening Brief ("AOB"), at p. 7:19-22. See also H.N. & Frances C. Berger Found. v. City of Escondido (2005) 127 Cal.App.4th 1, 7.) Under this standard, "the trial court must draw all reasonable inferences to support the agency's factual findings and may reverse only if the findings are so lacking in evidentiary support as to render them arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable." (Harrington v. Hous. Auth. of Riverside Cnty. (2026) 118 Cal.App.5th 1086, Citing Auburn Woods I Homeowners Assn. v. Fair Employment & Housing Com. (2004) 121 Cal.App.4th 1578, 1583) The reviewing court, "begins with the presumption the record contains evidence to sustain the board's findings of fact." (H.N. & Frances C. Berger Found., supra, 127 Cal.App.4th at p. 7.)

If the Board upholds its previous decision, Landlord will have an uphill battle in superior court. Tenants will likely be represented by experienced counsel, and Landlord will not be able to simply allege that there is "no evidence" supporting the decision (as done here). Instead, Landlord will need to affirmatively defeat the Court's presumption that the Board's decision was proper. In doing so, the Court will "draw all inferences" in support of the Board. (Harrington., supra,118 Cal.App.5th 1086.)

IV. ARGUMENT

The Board should uphold its order because the Examiner correctly determined that the preponderance of the evidence demonstrated that Landlord neglected its common areas despite being on notice of ongoing issues. Landlord's brief makes numerous overlapping arguments about why the Board should reverse its decision. Most center around the Landlord simply disagreeing with the Examiner's findings about whose evidence was more convincing.

Instead of arguing why the Tenant's evidence was insufficient, Landlord merely points out that it had its own evidence. Simply stating that the Landlord had its own evidence is not a basis for appeal. Tenants do not dispute that Landlord defended itself and presented evidence. That said, the Examiner found the weight of Tenants' evidence to be more persuasive. The remaining arguments misrepresent the record, are completely irrelevant, or attempt to create legal errors where none truly exist. To simplify review of Landlord's appeal, Tenant addresses each of their nine arguments in the order presented by Landlord in its brief.

A. The Record Demonstrates a Failure to Maintain the Common Areas.

Landlord's first argument is that "Woodland Park timely fixes common area problems" and that the Hearing officer's order is not detailed enough. Unsurprisingly, Landlord presented a defense at the hearing –this is not disputed. Landlord did indeed present evidence that it claimed showed it addressed the issues. On the other hand, tenants had evidence showing that the Landlord did not adequately address the issues. Ultimately, for several issues, the tenants' evidence was more persuasive.

The Examiner did not ignore the Landlord's evidence. (Hearing decision, at pp. 3-5) Landlord prevailed in part and the Examiner noted that "[t]he evidence did show that the landlord does address maintenance issues in the common areas" (Id., at p. 7.) However, the Examiner also found that "the evidence also demonstrated that the Landlord often delays unreasonably in making many of the repairs." (Ibid.) In making this determination, the Examiner credited overlapping, consistent tenant testimony and photographic exhibits showing the deferred common area maintenance. (Id., at pp.4, 7.) This evidence was corroborated by County Environmental Health inspection notes identifying common-area issues and recent, clustered landlord work orders belatedly addressing them. (Id., at p.7) Ultimately, the Examiner ruled that there was "substantial testimony and documentary evidence that many common areas are not being repaired or maintained promptly." (Decision at p. 7.)

Pages eight through eleven of Landlord's opening brief offer nothing except a rehashing of the evidence it presented below. Landlord did indeed present records that it responded to some complaints. This evidence was acknowledged in the decision and presumably led to Landlord not being found liable for a greater rent reduction. While Landlord attempts to make its largely failed case again, it does nothing to show that the decision involves "either error or abuse of discretion." (RSBR 1500(G)(2)(b).)

B. Respondent Had Knowledge of Problems Years Before the Petitions Were Filed.

Landlord's second argument is that the "decision cites no evidence" that Landlord had notice of the problems in the years before Tenants filed their petitions. There are several problems with this assertion.

First, Landlord largely shifts its argument from the evidence presented at the hearing to the written decision itself, alleging that the "decision cites no evidence." The Decision is abundantly clear that tenants met their burden of establishing their claims. Further, the Decision does indeed "cite evidence," noting that multiple tenants who lived at the property "for many years" brought the issues "to the attention of the landlord numerous times." (Hearing Decision, at p. 4.) This testimony is not only evidence, but it is evidence superior to the Landlord's hearsay business records. This is because, unlike a self-serving business record, "[o]ral testimony of witnesses given in the presence of the trier of fact is valued for its probative worth on the issue of credibility, because such testimony affords the trier of fact an opportunity to observe the demeanor of witnesses." (Elkins v. Superior Ct. (2007) 41 Cal.4th 1337, 1358.)

More importantly, the regulations are clear that "verbal, written, or constructive" notice are all acceptable forms of notice. (Rule 1500(E)(2)(a) (emphasis).)

> Every person who has actual notice of circumstances sufficient to put a prudent person upon inquiry as to a particular fact has constructive notice of the fact itself in all cases in which, by prosecuting such inquiry, he or she might have learned that fact.

(Cal. Civ. Code, § 19.)

Even if none of the tenants said a word about the problems (not the case), all the problems at issue were in the property's common areas. The Landlord cannot, and does not contend, that it has not set foot on its own Property since 2021. In fact, the Landlord's representative testified that,

> Same thing when we do our walks, um, uh, we take note of it like today as well, we put in a service request and we send out a technician to take care of it …. So, we have ourselves who walk the property, the building, uh we have security who does their checks as well, laundry rooms, you know um, elevators, uh grounds, uh we have our [inaudible] company as well that also walks the premises, they see anything they report it back to us. Um, I know we've had county inspections as well, I think the last one was January, I believe. Um, so if they cite us for anything like that we take care of.

(Hearing Recording at 1:44:00)

Whether the tenants used the online portal or not is irrelevant. The issue is whether the Landlord knew of the problems, not whether the tenants used the Landlord's web portal.

Landlord's argument is especially spurious since some of the problems are things that the Landlord's agents actually testified to causing. For example, "Ms. Andrade, on behalf of the Landlord, explained the tables and chairs were removed because they were continually getting broken." (Decision, at p. 8.) Surely, Landlord does not contend that Tenants should have given it notice of its own actions.

The Decision's award of a rent reduction and reimbursement starting from September 2021 is appropriate given that the Hearing Examiner found that Petitioners presented sufficient evidence of a reduction in maintenance and housing services "for a period of three years prior to the filing of the petition." (Decision at p. 9.) This determination falls within the Examiner's fact-finding discretion. Considering the record, Landlord's false and conclusory assertions of "no evidence," are insufficient to overturn the Decision.

C. Prospective Rent Rebates Are Appropriate in This Case.

Landlord claims there is "no authority" for a prospective reduction. However, Prospective Rent Rebates are appropriate when a landlord has not corrected maintenance failures, decreased housing services, or habitability violations that are "in affect at the time of the hearing." (RSBR 1500 (E)(2)(d)(iii). The purpose of these prospective rebates is to adjust rent going forward until compliance and rebate value prospectively by lowering rent during the period of noncompliance that continues past the hearing.

Landlord's only argument here is that "the tenant is receiving all of the housing services for which they contracted and no rent reduction is appropriate." (AOB, at p.14:9-10.) This is the Landlord's opinion – not the finding of the Examiner.

Landlord could have eliminated this rent decrease by fixing the issues Tenants complained of and following the proper procedures. (RSBR 1500 (E)(4).) Instead of addressing the issues and following the Board's process, Landlord chose to retain an attorney and challenge the Board's authority on frivolous grounds.

D. Landlord's "De Minimis Problems" Argument is not Persuasive.

The Examiner has discretion to determine when maintenance deficiencies or deterioration have significantly impacted the livability or rental value of a unit. (See Regulations 1500(E)(3).) It is not surprising that Landlord does not believe that the maintenance issues at the property were important. That point was made far before the instant petitions. Despite Landlord's belief that the problems were not significant, the Decision did not award rent rebates for de minimis problems.

The Tenant's Petitions list many different conditions that qualify tenants for rent reductions. Issues reported from the consolidated petitions were, "Building, yard, garage, hallways, stairs, and common areas are not clean, sanitary, or free from all accumulations of debris, filth, rubbish, garbage, rodents, and vermin, such as cockroaches or rats; … Inadequate trash receptacles in clean condition and good repair; … Floors; stairways, or railings are broken, rotting, or missing; … Holes in floors, walls, or ceilings; … Inoperative/missing exterior lights; … Peeling, crumbling, stained, worn, scraped or cracked paint or peeling, torn, stained wall covering; ..." Tenants also reported a loss or reduction of services of "defective or inoperative elevator; … laundry facilities; … swimming pool or recreational facilities; … play areas, yards, patios, balconies; … landscaping or yard care services; … and broken or missing mailboxes."

The San Mateo County Health Environmental Health Services Department inspected the building in October 2024, after Tenants had organized and pressured Landlord to conduct much-needed repairs. Though the issues found by the inspector were denoted as "minor" (not de minimis), the Examiner's decision was not solely based on the San Mateo Report. (Decision, at pp. 6-8.) Further, the Department's inspector is merely one witness, not the finder of fact.

The awarded rent rebates and reimbursements are appropriate and proportional to the rental value attributable to the reported issues. The Examiner found that tenants carried their burden on reductions in maintenance and services due to persistent lighting outages, flooring hazards, peeling paint, and pool access problems, while denying other categories, such as the time-barred intercom, insufficient security, and elevator outages. (Decision at p. 7-9.) The Examiner properly applied these factors in determining that Petitioners were entitled to a rent reduction based on the evidence of maintenance deficiencies in the record. Landlord's unsupported and inaccurate assertions that the problems "do not affect the rental value" are not a sufficient basis for overturning the decision.

E. All Petitioners Raised Common Area Issues in Their Petitions.

The rule Landlord cites to argue that the petitioners can only receive the rent rebates they request is Rule 1500(E)(3), which requires that rent reductions "shall be based on the issues presented in the petition." Landlord attempts to mislead the Board by failing to mention that every tenant in this consolidated matter submitted an addendum to their petition, which raised all common-area issues. While Landlord's table purports to analyze "each petition," it chooses to simply ignore the most important page, which universally raises the issues in question. The fact that Tenants did not raise the issues in a particular format or on a particular page is irrelevant, as Landlord was on notice, and did indeed present a defense to the claims.

F. The Rent Rebate for Problems with the Pool Is Proper.

Landlord contends that the rebates associated with the swimming pool are improper for two reasons. First, Landlord contends that the pool was generally available and clean. Second, Landlord contends that rent decreases were awarded for periods when the pool was never open.

1. The Pool was Not Always Clean and Open.

Landlord contends that the Board erred by awarding rent decreases for periods when the Pool was open and clean. The Examiner found that tenants lacked consistent access to the pool, including periods when required permits were not obtained, and that the pool was in poor condition, impeding use. The Decision notes that the pool "has not been available during the summer months whether due to maintenance issues or the landlord's failure to obtain the necessary County permits." (Hearing Decision, at p. 8.) Even Landlord's evidence includes security reports noting a dirty pool. (Ibid.) Landlord's reliance on isolated security logs and a July 31, 2024, letter does not negate the extensive testimony, photographic evidence, and statements from tenants in their Petitions and demands to management. The Decision correctly awarded rent rebates for the pool's unavailability during the summer months for three years. Again, all Landlord does in its brief is rehash the evidence it presented below. It is undisputed that the landlord's own records show that it sometimes performed maintenance. The dispute is whether the tenants had actual, reasonable, and consistent access to the pool. The Examiner determined they did not.

2. Whether the Pool Was Open in the Winter is Irrelevant.

The hearing decision does not purport to award rent decreases for periods when the Pool had never been open, for example, the winter. The hearing decision is clear that the pool "has not been available during the summer months" and "that the pool has not always been available is a loss or reduction of housing services." (Hearing Decision, at p. 8.) The fact that tenants were compensated for this loss as a rebate on their yearly rent means nothing.

The tenants pay for the pool as part of their rent. They do not pay lower rent in the winter when the pool is closed or higher rent in the summer when it is open. Just as the landlord is not required to adjust the monthly rent based on the dates the pool is scheduled to be open, the Board is not required to specify that the tenant's compensation is limited to certain months. The hearing office determined that the pool outages were worth two percent of the yearly rental value. Landlord does nothing to show this was an error.

G. Whether the Decreases in Housing Services Violated the Warranty of Habitability is Irrelevant.

Landlord argues that "the decision should be overturned to the extent that it considers the alleged common area issues 'habitability' problems." (AOB, at p. 20.)

The Board's decision does not say that all the problems are habitability problems. Tenants concede that certain issues do not constitute a violation of the warranty of habitability. For example, the loss of chairs and tables in common areas is not a habitability issue. Regardless, this argument misses the mark. All the issues complained of are decreases in housing services. The definition of housing services is broad and includes "benefit, privilege or facility connected with the use or occupancy of any rental unit." (East Palo Alto Mun. Code, § 14.04.040.)

Even if Landlord conclusively established that none of the issues violated the warranty of habitability (it has not), that would not be grounds to overturn the decision. Landlord has done nothing to prove that the issues are not "housing services" to which tenants were entitled by virtue of their rent payments.

H. The Examiner did not "Misstate" the Evidence.

Landlord accuses the Examiner of "misstating record evidence" primarily because the County inspector used the word "minor" in his report. It is unclear how this indicates that the Examiner misstated the evidence. Again, the Inspector is one (non-testifying) witness whom the Examiner may disagree with. Further, the Examiner may reduce rents for minor issues, so long as they are not de minimis. While Landlord points to the Examiner using slightly different wording than the examiner when discussing the stairs and fire Extinguisher, Landlord concedes that the inspector noted issues with the stairs and that the fire extinguishers were overdue for servicing. The semantic dispute does not undermine the Examiner's independent service-reduction finding.

I. The Decision Only Awards Rebates to Tenants with Tenancies at the Property.[2]

The Decision does not include compensation for time periods when tenants did not occupy their units. Similarly, the Decision does not offer rebates for non-tenants. Clearly, Landlord does not need to apply the 7% rent decrease from September 2021 to May 2025 to tenants who were not occupying the property during that period. The Board has not ordered this, and Tenants do not request it.

Landlord's next argument is that Mireya Segundo is not a "tenant." Ms. Segundo is Ms. Garcia's niece. They live together in the same apartment. Even if Ms. Segundo was not allowed at the property (not the case), Ms. Garcia is on the lease and petitioned for the unit. No provision of The East Palo Alto Municipal Code requires the Board to, for example, issue half the rent reduction to Ms Garcia because the Landlord claims her niece is not authorized. In any event, the legitimacy of Ms. Segundo's tenancy was (correctly) not resolved by the Board, and was not litigated on the merits.

In any event, whether Segundo's name appears on a lease or not, is irrelevant, as the East Palo Alto Municipal code defines a "Tenant" as,

> Any renter, tenant, subtenant, lessee or sublessee of a rental unit, or successor to a renter's interest, or any group of tenants, subtenants, lessee's, or sublessee's of any rental unit, or any other person entitled to the use or occupancy of such rental unit.

(East Palo Alto Mun. Code, 14.04.040.)

Even tenants not on a written lease are entitled to dignified housing in East Palo Alto. Landlord's choice to retaliate against this family for asserting their rights, by claiming Ms. Segundo is not a tenant, while illegal, has no bearing on this appeal. (Cal. Civ. Code, § 1942.5)

V. CONCLUSION

The rent rebates and reductions should be preserved because the Examiner applied the correct legal framework, properly weighed evidence, and made careful, itemized findings that reflect persistent reductions in common area maintenance and services and intermittent loss of other housing services. While Landlord may disagree with the Examiner's assessment, that alone is not grounds for reversal.

Attorneys for Respondent Woodland Park Communities

RENT STABILIZATION BOARD

CITY OF EAST PALO ALTO

CALDERON, et al., Petitioners and Appellees, v. WOODLAND PARK COMMUNITIES, Respondents and Appellants.	Case Nos. 20240013-20240021 RESPONDENT'S/APPELLANT'S REPLY BRIEF ON APPEAL Hearing: June 10, 2026

INTRODUCTION

This appeal presents the question as to when a rent rebate is warranted under the City of East Palo Alto's Rent Stabilization Ordinance ("RSO"). Petitioners argue that a rent rebate is warranted in any circumstance, whether or not the specific requirements of the RSO and its implementing rules (Rules and Regulations for Residential Tenancies Under 2010 RSO ("Rules")) have been met. They apparently believe that a hearing examiner can simply award rent rebates for any issue without regard for the limitations in the RSO and Rules.

In contrast, Respondent believes that the plain language of the voter-adopted RSO and its implementing regulations means something. The authority of the hearing examiner and the scope of a lawful decision is constrained by the authority provided by the voters in the RSO. Respondent agrees that rent rebates are available in some circumstances. However, the Decision went well beyond the authority set forth in the RSO. Respondent asks that rent rebates beyond the authority of the RSO be invalidated.

The RSO sets clear guidance for how the petition process works, what evidence must be presented, what findings a hearing examiner must make to award a rent rebate, and the potential scope of rent rebates. That guidance was not followed in this case. When the guidance isn't followed, it is an error and an abuse of discretion by the hearing examiner that warrants a remand or reversal.

This appeal asks the Rent Stabilization Board ("Rent Board") to reverse the Hearing Examiner's decision on common area issues at the Property to the extent that it: (1) awards a rent rebate when there was no change in housing services; (2) awards a rent rebate for the pool being closed when the pool was open; (3) awards 3 years of rent rebates without determining when landlord was notified of an alleged problem; (4) awards rebates when record evidence shows that problems were fixed in a timely fashion; (5) awards rent rebates without regard for whether a housing service is restored; (6) awards rent rebates for minor problems; (7) awards rent reductions that tenants did not request in their petitions; and (8) awards rebates for periods in which tenants had no tenancy. Such determinations are contrary to the RSO and Rules.

ARGUMENT

I. Unclear Representation.

As a preliminary matter, it is not clear who is appearing in this appeal. Respondent received an opposition brief from the California Center for Movement Legal Services on behalf of Adelina Garcia. No other opposition brief has been received from any other Petitioner. It appears that none of the other Petitioners (Caldaron, Apartment 107; Rios, Apartment 108; Del Cid, Apartment 110; Hernandez, Apartment 201; Villalon, Apartment 202; Garcia, Apartment 204; Ciramagua, Apartment #206; Pereda, Apartment 207; and Spruell, Apartment 208) have opposed the appeal. The deadline has passed for those Petitioners to submit opposition to the appeal. The appeal should be granted as to the Petitioners who did not oppose.

This continues a long-term pattern in which it is not clear which petitions are continuing or who has authority to represent a Petitioner. Without evidence or correspondence from the Petitioner indicating that they are represented or continue to prosecute the Petition, it is error to continue their cases. The Rules provide that although petitioners have the right to representation in petitions, "Any such representative shall file a written statement with the Board that he/she is assisting the named party, with the name, address and phone number of the representative." Rules Section 1500.A.13.e. That does not appear to have happened here, making it impossible to understand who is appearing in these proceedings and on whose behalf.

II. Standard of Review Requires The Decision to Be Supported By Evidence.

The Opposition Brief confusingly articulates three different standards of review. That obfuscates the relevant questions, which are whether the Decision is in error and whether it constitutes an abuse of discretion. The answer to both questions is "yes." The Hearing Examiner must be governed by the RSO and the Rules. Where the Decision violates the RSO or the Rules, it is in error and constitutes an abuse of discretion.

A critical piece of this is the administrative record. "Where it is claimed that the findings are not supported by the evidence… abuse of discretion is established if the court determines that the findings are not supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record." CCP Section 1094.5(c). The Opposition alleges without citation or explanation that there is plenty of record evidence to support the Decision. Neither the Decision nor the Opposition cites to that record evidence. Without any connection between the Decision and the record evidence, there is simply no proof that the Decision is supported by record evidence. Respondent has provided ample citations to the voluminous record in support of its position. Petitioners have provided none, other than a quote from the common area hearing.[1] That quote, of course, supports Respondent's position that it actively managed the properties.

Petitioners' argument on page 5 is illustrative. Petitioners argue that "the tenants' evidence was more persuasive." 5:6-7. The Brief proceeds to cite to Respondents' evidence and brief without ever mentioning a single piece of evidence from Petitioners, much less a persuasive piece of evidence. If Petitioners' evidence was so persuasive, then there would have been citations to evidence and facts to support the conclusion. There are literally none. For example, the Opposition could cite to a particular tenant recalling a particular date on which they notified landlord of a particular problem. If this happened as often as Petitioners allege, certainly there would be some evidence of it. Perhaps there would be emails or handwritten notes. But none were provided. The Decision is not supported by the evidence.

Only Respondent has provided citations and fact to support the claim that landlord did fix problems that were brought to their attention. The reason that Respondent thoroughly explains the record evidence that was presented below is that such evidence is the only proper basis for a decision. Ignoring this evidence without any other evidentiary basis to award a rent rebate is an abuse of discretion.

In this case, the Hearing Examiner abused his discretion by failing to proceed in the manner required by law and by issuing a decision that is not supported by the findings, which in turn are not supported by the preponderance of the evidence.

[1] This is true even though the City of East Palo Alto apparently provided Petitioners, but not Respondents, with the recording for the hearing on common area issues prior to briefing. Because the City did not provide a copy of the recording prior to the Opening Brief, it was not possible to cite to the hearing. City said they would treat the request for the hearing recording as Public Records Act request and then did not fulfill such request until after the City-set briefing deadline. This made it impossible for Respondent to cite to the hearing record. It is a violation of due process for a document to be provided to one party, but not the other, in a quasi-judicial setting.

III. The Rules Require the Hearing Examiner to Determine Specific Dates; He Did Not.

The RSO stipulates that a tenant "must specify the housing services decreased and demonstrate that the landlord was provided with reasonable notice and opportunity to correct the conditions that provide the basis for the petition." RSO §§14.04.130C. The Rules further specify that "[t]he petitioner must provide proof that the landlord has reasonable notice (verbal, written, or constructive) and a reasonable opportunity to correct the conditions or restore the reductions in Housing Services that provide the basis for the petition." Rule 1500(E)(2)(a). The hearing examiner "shall determine the date on which the landlord was notified or actually knew or reasonably should have known that the conditions or problems existed." Rule 1500(A)(16)(b) (emphasis added). After all, petitioners are required to "set forth in the petition the date on which the landlord was given notice of the conditions or problems" and should attach copies of written notice to the landlord. Rule 1500A.3.E. Petitioners entirely failed to do this.

The Decision fails to meet this basic requirement set forth in the authorizing regulations. The hearing examiner did not determine the date on which the landlord was notified, despite the mandatory language in the Rules. This violates the Rules. The Decision states, without any citation to record evidence or anything else, that "for a period of three years prior to the filing of the petitions in September 2024…Tenants are entitled to have their rents reduced." Decision at p.9. But there is no explanation as to how that date was established or whether Respondent had notice of the alleged problems prior to the summer of 2024 and Petitioner's original letter and subsequent Petitions. That is error and an abuse of discretion warranting reversal.

The Decision's award of rent rebates that date back three years before the Petitioners raised their issues is error and must be reversed. The Hearing Examiner abused his discretion by failing to proceed in the manner required by law — which would have been to make a determination, based on factual record evidence, as to when Respondent had notice. The preponderance of the evidence shows that Petitioners all knew how to — and did — make maintenance requests and give Respondent notice of actual problems. They never requested attention on the common area issues raised herein. It was error to find that Respondent somehow had notice dating back to 2021.

IV. Rent Rebates Cannot Continue Beyond the Resolution of the Problem.

The Decision awarded prospective rent rebates for a set amount of time — 12 months from the date of the Decision—without regard to whether or not the problem had already been resolved. This is contrary to the RSO, which only authorizes rent rebates to account for the reduction in rental value of an apartment when the apartment is not receiving a housing service to which it is entitled. Any rent reduction is "based on loss of rental value attributable to a reduction in maintenance or services." RSO §14.04.130B. The rent reduction "shall be in effect until the failure is corrected." See Regulation 1500E.2.d.(iii).

Once the failure is corrected, there is no authority for an ongoing rent rebate. To assume, without evidence, that a rent rebate should continue prospectively for 12 months violates the RSO and the Rules. There are no provisions for punitive or prospective rent reductions unassociated with a reduction in housing services.

Petitioners argue that Respondent could have "eliminated" the rent rebate required by the Decision "by fixing the issues." 7:20-21. But that is exactly the flaw in the Decision: It does not permit the Respondent to eliminate a rent reduction by fixing the issues. Rather, it requires the rent reduction for 12 months prospectively "From June 2025 through May 2026 Tenants' rent are reduced by 5%." Decision p.9. There is no provision for eliminating that rent reduction. Without such a provision, the Decision violates the RSO and Rules.

V. The RSO Does Not Support Rebates for Minor Issues Like the Decision Awarded.

Rule 1500(E)(1) specifies that:

> Minor maintenance deficiencies or deterioration which have no or insignificant impacts on the livability or rental value of a unit and which do not cause any health and safety risk shall not provide a basis for a reduction in the Rent pursuant to this subsection. (Emphasis added).

The Decision nonetheless awarded rent reductions for minor deficiencies that had insignificant, if any, impact on the livability, rental value, or health and safety of the rental unit. The San Mateo County Environmental Health Services Department inspected the building in October 2024, in response to complaints from Petitioners, and found only minor issues. See R518. This government agency is tasked with inspecting multi-family dwellings to ensure they are safe and healthy. Stephen Low, the Housing Inspector, looked at the very same common area issues that the Decision considered. He determined the exterior paint issues to be "Minor." He inspected steps, handrails, and landings and found only one portion of a balcony railing to be loose and need to be re-secured. He considered this to be "Minor." During his multiple inspections of the building, he did not find any issues at all with the pool, the common area floor, the common area lighting, or the elevator. R518 through 521. Because the County's housing inspector found only minor issues, no rent rebate is appropriate.

Petitioners attempt to discount the value of the County's inspection report. However, this runs afoul of direct authority in the Rules. Rule 1500E.3 expressly provides that rent reductions "shall be based on…the evidence presented in conjunction with the hearing, including governmental inspection reports, if any" (emphasis added). This is not "merely one witness," as Petitioners state, but is rather a required source of information that the hearing examiner must consider. The governmental inspection reports determined that there were only minor issues. Minor issues do not warrant rent rebates.

Furthermore, the Decision misstates the findings in the County's report to support the award of a rent rebate. It is an error and an abuse of discretion to misstate the contents of a governmental report. Decision states that the County Inspector identified "the need to repair or replace steps." Decision p. 7. That is not what the report said. The report said, in relation to the topic of steps, handrails, and landings, that the only problem was the following, "Observed that the bottom portion of the balcony railing for unit 110 was loose. Re-secure as necessary." R518. There was no finding that there were missing steps or steps that required repair. Woodland Park re-secured the balcony railing for Unit 110, which the tenant confirmed. See R519.

The Decision states that the County Inspector found "inoperable fire extinguishers." Decision p. 7. That is not true. The County Inspector "observed that the fire extinguishers are due for annual servicing" and indicated this was a "minor" issue. See R518. This is not a determination that the extinguishers are "inoperable."

VI. Due Process Requires Notice of Requests Within the Petitions Themselves.

The Decision ignores the specific requests of each tenant, and instead awards the same rent rebate to each Petitioner. This is error. The City's own petition form, created to effectuate the process set forth in the RSO and explained in the Rules, requires each tenant to complete a table that includes precise dates on which tenant gave landlord notice of a problem and to notify the landlord what rent rebate they are seeking for that problem. Most of the petitions did not indicate that the Petitioner sought a rent rebate for common area issues. It would violate due process to award Petitioners relief they never sought, and they never told Respondent about. Rule 1500(A)(13)(a) protects due process by limiting a hearing to the issues raised by the petition ("the hearing shall be limited to the issues raised by the petition" "to ensure that each party is given notice of the grounds for a petition.").

Only Ms. Spruell in Unit 208, who requested a rebate for pool issues, and Ms. Hernandez in Unit 201, who requested a rebate for elevator issues, gave Respondent notice of their claim for a rebate due to common area issues. The other rebates must be denied on due process grounds.

VII. Rent Rebates for the Pool Can Only Cover Time Periods the Pool Was Closed.

The RSO and Rules only permit a rent rebate when there is a reduction of housing services. Municipal Code §14.04.130B. Petitioners argue that a rent rebate is acceptable even when the housing services are available. That runs contrary to the authority in the ordinance and is error. Respondents have cited significant record evidence regarding when the pool was available. Neither Petitioners nor the Decision cite any evidence whatsoever about dates on which the pool was unavailable. Absent any evidence at all about the pool being closed, no rent rebate is appropriate. There is no record evidence that the pool was closed for long periods in the summers or that Petitioners made reports of pool problems that went unaddressed by Respondent.

Petitioners also argue that it is appropriate to reduce rent for the pool being unavailable in the winter, even though the pool is never available in the winter. In support of this argument, they argue that rent is an annual payment. Record evidence is clear in every single lease for every single Petitioner that rent is paid monthly. There is no support for the theory that rent is annual.

VIII. Petitioners Concede That No Rent Rebates Are Available Without a Tenancy.

Respondents agree with Petitioners that no rent rebates are available when tenants did not occupy a unit. As a clarifying point, the Decision does provide for rebates during time periods when a Petitioner was not a tenant. For example, Katterine Ciramagua and Alex Santiago became tenants of Apartment 206 on June 8, 2024. R002. The May 2025 Decision awards these tenants rent rebates and reimbursements for 24 months, which predates the beginning of their tenancy. See Decision Attachment 1.

The Decision and rent rebates must be corrected to provide for the accurate rebates.

CONCLUSION

The rent rebates and reduction in rent should be reversed.

Grounds for the Appeal

Respondent Woodland Park Communities ("Respondent") hereby appeals the Decision of the Hearing Examiner because the decision was in error and constituted an abuse of discretion on the part of the Hearing Examiner. Respondent respectfully requests that the Rent Board modify the Hearing Examiner's decision to correct the errors and the abuse of discretion.

The Decision was in error and constituted an abuse of discretion for the following reasons:

1.) The Decision awarded rent rebates and reimbursements to individuals who are not tenants. For example, the Decision awarded Mireya Segundo a reimbursement/rebate for Apartment 204 even though the record evidence shows that only Adelina Garcia is a tenant in that apartment. No rent rebates and reimbursements are available to non-tenants.

2.) The Decision awarded rent rebates and reimbursements to tenants for time periods in which they were not tenants and did not pay rent. For example, record evidence shows that Katterine Ciramagua and Alex Santiago became tenants of Apartment 206 on June 8, 2024. The Decision awards these tenants rent rebates and reimbursements for 24 months, which predates the beginning of their tenancy. There is no authority in the Rent Stabilization Ordinance ("RSO") to rebate or reimburse tenants for rent that was not paid, during a time period in which they were not tenants. (The prior tenants are not petitioners and no rent rebate or reimbursement is appropriate for a tenant who does not petition.)

3.) The Decision awarded rent rebates and reimbursements for the alleged unavailability of the pool during summer months for three years. Unrefuted record evidence shows that the pool was available during many summer months during that time. No rent rebate or reimbursement is proper when the housing service is being provided.

4.) The Decision awarded rent rebates and reimbursements for the unavailability of the pool during non-summer months. Record evidence shows that the pools are not open outside of summer months. In other words, pool availability is not a housing service during non-summer months. Therefore, lack of availability of a pool during non-summer months is not a reduction of housing services. No rent rebate or reimbursement is proper when there is no reduction of housing services, such as a pool that is not open in non-summer months.

5.) The Decision awarded rent rebates and reimbursements for unspecified "failure of maintenance and repairs in the common areas." There is no citation of record evidence of exactly what maintenance or repair failed. There is no record evidence as to when a tenant provided notice to the landlord of a problem in the common areas that was not immediately fixed. There is ample record evidence that when a tenant did provide notice to the landlord, the problem was fixed.

6.) The Decision awarded rent rebates and reimbursements for de minimus problems, including for example a problem with a light fixture, a burned out lightbulb, and a cracked tile. No rent rebates or reimbursements are available for minor maintenance deficiencies or deterioration. See Regulation 1500(E)(1)(c) ("Minor maintenance deficiencies or deterioration which have no or insignificant impacts on the livability or rental value of a unit and which do not cause any health and safety risk shall not provide a basis for a reduction in the Rent pursuant to this subsection.")

7.) The Decision awarded rent rebates and reimbursements in excess of the loss in rental value attributable to the alleged problems. Regulation 1500(E)(3) requires "Reductions in Rent shall reflect the loss in rental value attributable to the failures specified...above." The rent rebates and reimbursements far exceed any loss in rental value attributable to the alleged problems, which are de minimus. There is no record evidence that the alleged and unspecified problems with the common areas reduced the rental value by 5% for every petitioner.

8.) The Decision awarded rent rebates and reimbursements without properly considering the criteria for reductions in rent. Regulation 1500(E)(3) requires that reductions in rent be based on, among other things, "governmental inspection reports, if any." The governmental inspection reports in the instant case showed that any alleged common area problems were "minor." Therefore, it was error and an abuse of discretion to award a rent rebate or reimbursement.

9.) The Decision failed to determine, as required by Regulation 1500(A)(16), the date on which the landlord was notified that each condition or problem existed. Without such date, it is impossible to determine the length of time for any rent rebate or reimbursement. It was error to calculate or award any rent rebate or reimbursement absent record evidence was to when the landlord was notified of a problem. It was error to calculate or award any rent rebate or reimbursement absent record evidence was to when the landlord was notified of a problem, and to instead assume notice, without any citation or record evidence, in September 2021.

10.) Similarly, Petitioners "must provide proof" that landlords had reasonable notice and a reasonable opportunity to correct the conditions or restore the reductions in housing services. See Regulation 1500(E)(2)(A). Petitioners failed to provide such proof. Therefore, the Decision is in error and an abuse of discretion.

11.) The Decision provides for prospective rent reductions without consideration for whether each alleged condition or problem has been fixed and without an opportunity to prove that it has been fixed. There is no authority in the RSO or the Rules for prospective relief. Rather, Regulation 1500(E)(2) specifies that "the reduction shall be in effect until the failure is corrected." Regulation 1500(E)(4) explains "Restoration of Rent Once Bases for Reductions in Rent Area Corrected." There is no authority for a reduction to continue beyond the time of correction. Moreover, there is no record evidence that any problems are ongoing, so no prospective rent reduction is lawful. It is error and abuse of discretion to award prospective rent reductions.

12.) The preponderance of the record evidence shows that as soon as a tenant notified the landlord of a problem, the landlord took action to solve the problem. No rent adjustment is permissible unless supported by the preponderance of the evidence, which is not present here. See Regulation 1500(A)(15).

13.) The Decision awards a blanket rent reduction and reimbursement starting from September 2021. There is no record evidence that the alleged housing service reductions began in September 2021 or that the tenants provided the landlord with notice of any problem at that time. There is no citation to record evidence regarding this September 2021 date and there is no explanation as to why this date was chosen.

14.) The blanket rent reduction and reimbursement continues through May 2025 with no explanation and no citation to record evidence. The hearing on this case took place in February 2025 and no evidence was solicited or provided regarding the time period after the hearing through May 2025. It is error and an abuse of discretion to award a rent reduction and reimbursement during a time period during which there is no evidence of a problem.

15.) The Decision awards rent rebates and reimbursements that were not requested. Regulation 1500(A)(13) limits a hearing to the issues raised by the petition. Not all petitioners raised issues with common areas. It was error and abuse of discretion for the Decision to award rent rebates and reimbursements for issues not raised by a given petition.

16.) The Decision awards rent rebates and reimbursements to all petitioners, even petitioners who did not attend the hearing and for whom there is no evidence to support a finding that the rental value of their unit has been decreased by the common area issues for which an award was given. This is error and an abuse of discretion.

17.) The Decision awards rent rebates and reimbursements based on rent amounts not actually charged at the relevant time periods. This is error and an abuse of discretion.

18.) The Decision awards rent rebates and reimbursements calculated on the basis of arithmetic errors, which is error and an abuse of discretion.

Manejadores de Woodland

Por medio de la presente les quiero dejar saber sobre varios problemas que ahi en mi apartamento.

Las ventanas de los dos cuartos estan podridas y hemos visto que salen termitas en el verano y en tiempo de lluvias se filtra el agua por las ventanas por lo danadas que están. Ocupan remplazarse.

Los quemadores de la estufa se descomponen seguido y ya han venido a arreglarlos varias veces y a los dias siguientes se vuelve a descomponer.

La tina del bano se tapa a cada rato y ya la he reportado varias veces y sigue igual.

Las puertas deslizables del bano tienen mojo y estan en mal estado.

La campana de la cocina no está absorbiendo el aire y no esta funcionando correctamente.

Hay cucarachas.
La alberca no se mantiene en buen estado diariamente.
No ahi sillas ni mesas en el area de la alberca y antes teniamos todo esto.
Tampoco ahi botes de basura.
El elevador se descompone seguido.

Espero su pronta repuesta a mas tardar para el 30 de Agosto.

Woodland Managers

I want to let you know about some issues in my apartment.

The walls in my kitchen are in real bad shape, they need to be repainted.
The swimmingpool is durty and needs to be maintaining in good shape everyday. We need chairs, tables, lounge chairs and garbage cans.
Then when i started living here they used to have chairs on the lobbies for people to seat and wait for taxis and uber rides. I keep putting chairs and somebody trow them to the garbage. Please dont do that.
The cabinets on the kitchen they need caulking around them because its already off.
My front door need the plastic on the bottom because insects can g0 inside.
The hot water on the buth tub is just coming a little string of hot water. Needs to be fixed.
The window in my room has mold and it doesnt close all the way.
The screen doors on the balcony sliding door are not closing properly and looks like they are not fitting right.
The washing machines small very badly. They need to be maintaneced.
My heater needs to be check.
The back door in the lobby needs to be repainted its in very bad shape
The lights on the hallways are out. Needs to be in all the time.
When I started living here I use to have and intercom and they took it out. I need it back because was part of my montly rent.
There is a neighbor tree that keeps the swimming pool getting durty.
The elevator is in really bad shape. Grafity and paint felling down.

Its all for the moment and hope your response not lately than August 30rd.

Sincerely
Melva Alyci Spruell

Manejadores del edificio 201 E O'Keefe St

Por medio del presente correo quiero notificarles de varias cosas que necesitan su atención:

1. La taza del bano no esta flusheando el agua bien. 2. Los gabinetes del bano no cierran bien y los del espejo tampoco cierran bien.
3. Las puerta corredizas del baño tiene mojo. Las limpio y sale el mojo otra vez.
4. Las ventanas de la sala se atoran y no deslizan bien. Tambien cuando llueve se mete el agua por las ventanas.
5. LA lavadora de trastes la fueron a arreglar y le quitaron una parte cuando segun la arreglaron y se esta haciendo mojo.
6. El refrigerador lo cambiaron y no esta funcionando bien. Me esta congelando parte de la comida y se me hecha a perder . y a parte me trajeron uno usado y tiene cucarachas. No quiero otro refrigerador usado.
7. El piso que me pusieron en la sala esta ya en mal estado se esta levantando y no esta bien instalado. Tambien no terminaron de cambiar el piso en la cocina y el bano. Las personas de la instalacion quedaron de regresar y cuando fueron yo los deje entrar pero no instalaron nada con la excusa de que habia cosas personales y eso no era cierto. Ya nunca me la volvieron. Por favor ocupo que sea todo reparado o remplazado.
8. Sale agua negra de las tuberias varias veces. Ocupan checar esa razon de porque sale asi.
9. Las persianas las quitaron y nuca las remplazaron. Ocupa poner persianas.
10. Elevador en muy malas condiciones.
11. Poner mesas y sillas nuevamente en el area de la piscina.

Espero su pronta respuesta a mas tardar el dia Lunes 19 de Agosto.

Por medio del presente correo quiero dejarles saber algunas cosas que necesitan su atención:

1. Cuando llegue a vivir ahí me entregaron la estufa sucia y debajo de ella
. 2. La carpeta de el apartamento no se siente segura al caminar hace ruido.
3. Mesas y sillas en la piscina y asadores.
4. Botes de basura en áreas públicas.
5. También me gustaría recibir una lista del estudio donde me moví en el 685 Scofield ave apartmento 24, con una lista de cada cosa que ustedes revisaron y quieren cobrarme de más. Ustedes quedaron de venir a checar el estudio antes de salirme para checar el estado del apartamento de como lo dejé y nunca se presentaron. Entonces no entiendo como me están queriendo cobrar más. Necesito un documento con todo eso explicado y esa lista.

This Lease is entered into on the date signed, by and between the above-named parties (collectively, "Parties"). The party executing this Lease as the Landlord's Agent is acting as the managing agent for the owner of Woodland Park (the "Community"). Each person living in the Premises that is 18 years of age or older must sign the Lease as a resident. Each Resident states that they are of legal age to enter into a binding Lease for lodging. All others living in the Premises must be designated as Occupants. Each person signing the Lease is jointly and severally liable for all the various resident obligations under the Lease. Every individual resident, including all co-residents, is responsible for the entire rental amount and other obligations, even if, as roommates, individual residents have made arrangements among themselves to allocate the rent or other payments or obligations.

Landlord hereby leases and Resident hereby hires and takes the Premises for the term specified and subject to all of the terms and provisions set forth herein.

A. TERM OF LEASE

7. INITIAL TERM: The initial term of this Lease shall commence on the Start Date and end on the End Date as outlined in Section 3 and shall automatically continue as a tenancy from month-to-month upon expiration of the initial term.

8. LEASE EXPIRATION: Either party may terminate this Lease on the End Date or after the initial term by giving the other party at least thirty (30) days' written notice of its intention to terminate the tenancy, subject to California Civil Code sections 1946, et seq. In the absence of written notice of termination, or a new lease, after the expiration of the initial term, the tenancy shall become month-to-month subject to a rental increase and applicable fees as allowed under local and state law. Resident agrees to pay all rent up to and including the end of any thirty (30) day (or, as applicable, sixty (60) day) notice period (which may not occur before the end of the initial Lease term) or until the Premises are re-occupied, whichever occurs first.

9. FAILURE TO VACATE AFTER NOTICE: If Resident gives written notice to vacate the Premises and fails to completely vacate prior to the expiration of the notice, Landlord shall be entitled to commence legal proceedings to recover possession of the Premises and Resident shall be liable, unless otherwise prohibited by law, in addition to all other damages provided for under this Lease, for the daily rent based on a pro-ration of the monthly rent for each day Resident remains in the Premises. In addition, Landlord may collect costs for loss suffered from future resident losses, legal costs, lost rent, and other expenses, and any other amount allowed by law.

10. OPTION FOR EARLY TERMINATION: Resident is expected to remain a Resident for the entire initial term. If Resident fails to do so, Resident will be responsible to Landlord for all damages provided by law, including (but not limited to) rent due through the end of the initial term, minus rents paid by a replacement resident (if any). This amount will vary depending upon how long it takes Landlord to find a replacement resident which typically cannot be determined in advance of move-out.

To avoid this uncertainty, Resident may choose to exercise an Early Termination Option. Resident understands and acknowledges that Landlord is not legally obligated to allow early termination of the Lease unless provided for pursuant to law. To exercise this option, Resident must deliver to Landlord:

i. A written notice stating that Resident has elected to exercise the Early Termination Option;
ii. An early termination option payment of $3,900.00;
iii. An executed agreement for repayment of concessions received prior to the early termination (if applicable, see Concession Addendum); and
iv. Payment of rent and other amounts due through the new End Date.

When Landlord has (1) received the written notice and the Early Termination Option payment and (2) signed the notice, the End Date will be amended. The new End Date will be the date specified in the notice which must be at least thirty days after the written election and payment are given to Landlord. Exercise of the Early Termination Option will affect only Resident's rent obligations after the new End Date. Resident must comply with all other Lease obligations.

The notice will not move the End Date forward if:

i. Resident is in default under the Lease at the time that Resident gives notice of Resident's exercise of the option;

ii. Resident provides the notice unaccompanied by the Early Termination Option payment; or

iii. Resident does not properly exercise the Early Termination Option by following the procedures specified above, but vacates the Premises before the End Date specified in the Lease.

11. EARLY TERMINATION: In the event Resident vacates the Premises before the End Date, and fails to exercise the Early Termination Option as specified above. Resident shall be liable for all rent owed for the remainder of the initial term minus amounts paid by a replacement resident (if any), plus any other amounts as specified by law.

12. DELAY OF POSSESSION: If the Landlord, for any reason, cannot deliver the possession of the Premises to Resident at the Move-In Date, this Lease shall not be void or voidable, nor shall Landlord be liable to Resident for any loss or damages resulting therefrom; but in that event there shall be a per diem deduction of rent covering the period between the Move-In Date and the time when Landlord can deliver possession.

13. FAILURE TO MAKE PAYMENTS PRIOR TO COMMENCEMENT: If Resident fails to make any payment due prior to the Start Date of Lease shown in Section 3, Landlord has no duty to provide possession of the Premises, and Landlord may apply any and all previously made payments to amounts due to Landlord.

B. PAYMENTS, DEPOSITS, AND FEES

i. All rent payments are due in advance on or before the 1st day of each month. It is Resident's responsibility to be certain that each payment is actually received by Landlord on or before its due date. Use of a rental payment drop box is for Resident's convenience - the risk of receipt of funds by Landlord when such box is used is Resident's risk, and not Landlord's risk. If any rent payment is made late, it will be subject to all applicable charges and may be rejected by Landlord.

ii. Initial payment due for move in must be made in the form of a cashier's check. Except as otherwise provided, all subsequent rent payments shall be made by check, cashier's check, money order, or through the online payment portal. No cash or post-dated checks will be accepted.

iii. Payments must be made payable to Woodland Park and may be personally delivered to the Business Manager, Assistant Business Manager or Sales Associate at 5 Newell Court or at 2041 Euclid Ave., East Palo Alto, CA 94303. On non-holidays, the business hours, which remain subject to change, when rent payments may be made personally are: Mon and Wed, 9AM - 6PM, Tues 10AM - 6PM, Thurs and Fri 9AM - 7PM, Sat and Sun 10AM - 5PM.

iv. Unless Resident notifies Landlord otherwise by written notation on the rent payment, Landlord shall apply all of the payments made in the order of priority Landlord determines. Landlord reserves the right at any time to change payment procedures and policies.

v. If Resident makes any payment by check, it may be converted into an electronic funds transfer ("EFT"). This means Landlord will copy the check and use the account information on it to electronically debit Resident's account for the amount of the check. The debit from Resident's account will usually occur within 24 hours, and may occur as early as the same day as Landlord receives payment. The debit will be shown on Resident's regular account statement. Resident will not receive the original check back. Landlord will destroy the original check, but will keep a copy of it to the extent required by applicable laws. If the EFT cannot be processed for technical reasons, Resident authorizes Landlord to process the copy in place of the original check. If the EFT cannot be completed because of insufficient funds, Landlord may require payment in certified funds as required below.

vi. If the Start Date occurs on other than the first day of a calendar month or the End Date occurs on other than the last day of a calendar month, then the rent for that month shall be prorated on a daily basis.

15. LATE CHARGE AND NSF CHARGE: Landlord and Resident agree that when Resident fails to pay rent on time, or when Resident pays rent by a check which payment is subsequently dishonored by the bank, the actual cost to Landlord is difficult or impossible to ascertain, but the Parties agree that Landlord does, in the event of late payment or in the event of a dishonored check, incur certain costs, including without limitation, communication with Resident, additional bookkeeping and administrative charges, bank charges, and lost opportunity costs of the late payment. After making a reasonable endeavor to estimate accurately the approximate costs associated with such a breach, which the Parties agree is difficult or impossible to ascertain, the Parties agree that, any time the rent for any given month is paid after the 4th day of such month, Resident will in that month pay to Landlord, as additional rent due with the late payment, a late charge in the sum of 35.00 and further agree that, in the event of a dishonored check, Resident will pay to Landlord, as additional rent due with the payment required to replace the dishonored check, an NSF fee in the sum of $25.00. The Parties agree that the payment of these sums does not constitute a license to pay rent late nor does it constitute a license to pay by dishonored check. Rent remains due on the first day of the month and there is no grace period for the payment of rent. A three-day notice to pay rent or quit may be served at any time after the first day of the month irrespective of the existence of the late charges as set forth in this section. If such notice is served after the 10th day of the month, it may include the late charge and NSF charge, if applicable, which charges, as set forth above, are payable as additional rent. Furthermore, if Resident does not pay by the end of the 10th day of the month, Resident may only pay by cashier's check or electronic payment (if offered). Landlord will not accept a personal check after the 10th day of the month, or in response to a notice to pay rent or quit, or a notice to perform covenant or quit requiring payment. Landlord may terminate this Lease for failure to pay late charges and may terminate this Lease for non-payment of rent. If Resident gives Landlord two payments that are returned for nonpayment during the term of this Lease, then the future rent shall be payable by cashier's check for the remainder of the term.

16. SECURITY DEPOSITS:

i. Resident shall pay to Landlord, as security, the amount set forth in Section 5, which sum shall not exceed the maximum permitted by California Civil Code Section 1950.5. This sum shall be applied and accounted for in accordance with the provisions of California Civil Code Section 1950.5 and any other applicable statutes. Landlord shall not be obligated to pay Resident interest in connection with such security deposit, unless specifically required by applicable law.

ii. It is understood that the security deposit is applicable to all Residents jointly, and Landlord does not account for it until the passing of the permissible statutory period after all Residents have vacated the Premises. Any refund due may be made payable jointly to all Residents and it shall be the responsibility of all Residents to work out between themselves the manner of dividing said security deposit. If Landlord chooses to make the refund to any one of the Residents individually, in legal contemplation the payment shall be deemed to have been made to all Residents and Landlord shall have no liability to any one or group of Residents for failure of any Resident to divide such refund equitably.

iii. If the security deposit is later increased by agreement of the Parties for any reason (such as the installation of a waterbed or relating to a pet), the additional security deposit will be disbursed by Landlord in accordance with this section at the end of the statutory period following the end of Resident's tenancy. Removal of the waterbed or pet, or whatever caused the increase in the deposit, will not be grounds for early disbursement of the security deposit.

C. RESIDENT DEFAULT

17. DEFAULT BY RESIDENT: Resident shall be guilty of material breach of this Lease if Resident: (a) fails to pay any rent or other sums payable under this Lease on the date it becomes due; (b) defaults in the performance of or breach of any other provision, term, covenant or condition of this Lease; (c) vacates or abandons the Premises before expiration of the full term of this Lease, or any extension of the term; (d) permits the leasehold interest of Resident to be levied upon or attached by process of law; or (e) makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors.

18. REMEDIES: Upon the occurrence of any default by Resident, Landlord may exercise any right or remedy which Landlord may have at law or in equity, each and all of which are cumulative and nonexclusive. This may include giving Resident notice to correct or cure such default, taking action to recover possession of the Premises via the eviction process or otherwise, and/or terminating the Lease, all in accordance with applicable law. Additionally, Landlord shall be entitled to recover from Resident all damages incurred by Landlord by reason of Resident's default. Without limitation on the foregoing, upon the occurrence of any event of default by Resident, Landlord shall have the option to pursue any one or more of the following remedies, each and all of which shall be cumulative and nonexclusive:

i. Terminate this Lease and Resident's right to possession of the Premises and recover from Resident all damages allowed at law or in equity, including those allowed under Civil Code Section 1951.2 including:

- a. The worth at the time of award of the unpaid rent which had been earned at time of termination;
- b. The worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid rent which would have been earned after termination until the time of award exceeds the amount of such rental loss that the Resident proves could have been reasonably avoided;
- c. Subject to subsection (iii), the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid rent for the balance of the term after the time of award exceeds the amount of such rental loss that the Resident proves could be reasonably avoided; and
- d. Any other amount necessary to compensate the Landlord for all the detriment proximately caused by the Resident's failure to perform Resident's obligations under the Lease or which in the ordinary course of things would be likely to result therefrom.

ii. The "worth at the time of award" of the amounts referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (i) is computed by allowing interest at 10% per year, but no greater than the maximum interest rate permitted by law. The worth at the time of award of the amount referred to in paragraph (c) of subsection (i) is computed by discounting such amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco at the time of award plus 1 percent.

iii. Landlord may recover damages that include the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid rent of the balance of the term after the time of award, exceeds the amount of rental loss for the same period Resident proves could be reasonably avoided.

iv. Efforts by the Landlord to mitigate the damages caused by the Resident's breach of the Lease do not waive the Landlord's rights to recover damages under this section.

v. Nothing in this section affects the right of the Landlord under a Lease to indemnification for liability arising prior to the termination of the Lease for personal injuries or property damage where the Lease provides for such indemnification.

vi. Landlord has the remedy described in California Civil Code Section 1951.4 (Landlord may continue Lease in effect after Resident's breach and abandonment and recover rent as it becomes due, if Resident has the right to sublet or assign, subject only to reasonable limitations). Accordingly, if Landlord does not elect to terminate this Lease on account of any default by Resident, Landlord may, from time to time, without terminating this Lease, enforce all of its rights and remedies under this Lease, including the right to recover all rent as it becomes due.

19. DAMAGE BY RESIDENT: If any damage or destruction to the Premises, building, or Community is caused by Resident, Occupants, guests or invitees, such damage shall be considered a breach of Lease. Resident further agrees to pay rent for the period the Premises is damaged whether or not habitable, if such damage is caused by Resident, Occupants, guests or invitees. Any such damage or destruction of the Premises caused by Resident, Occupants, guests or invitees constitutes grounds for termination of the Lease; additionally such actions will not create any right of rent reduction. Resident shall pay for any expenses, including the costs of repairing such damage or destruction.

20. RESIDENT INFORMATION: If Resident has supplied information to Landlord by means of a rental application or similar instrument, Landlord has relied upon the statements set forth in said application or instrument in deciding to rent the Premises to Resident. Resident covenants that all such information is accurate and was given voluntarily and knowingly by Resident. It is agreed that, if Landlord subsequently discovers any misstatements of fact in the application or instrument, any such misstatements shall be deemed a material breach of this Lease. In the event that Resident submits information to verify Resident's income, Resident hereby certifies the accuracy of such information and further agrees that accurate information regarding family income, family composition and any other related eligibility requirements shall be deemed substantial and material obligations of Resident's tenancy; that Resident will comply with all requests for information with respect thereto from Landlord or any mortgagee; that Resident's failure to provide accurate information shall be a default by Resident, which shall entitle Landlord to pursue all rights and remedies set forth in the "DEFAULT BY RESIDENT" section or otherwise permitted by law, and that Resident's failure to furnish accurate and current information could subject Resident to civil liability.

21. COMPLIANCE WITH APPLICABLE LAWS: Resident agrees not to engage in or permit unlawful activities in the Premises, in the common areas or on the grounds of the Community or permit the Premises or Community to be used for any purpose which violates local, state or federal law. Resident, Occupants, guests or invitees and any other person under Resident's control shall not engage in or facilitate criminal activity, including drug-related criminal activity, on or near the Premises. "Drug-related criminal activity" means illegal manufacture, sale, distribution, use or possession with intent to manufacture, sell, distribute, or use a controlled substance (as defined in Section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 802)). Resident, Occupants, guests or invitees or other person under Resident's control shall not engage in any act of violence or threats of violence, including, but not limited to, the unlawful discharge of firearms, on or near the Premises. Resident agrees to reimburse and indemnify Landlord for all fines or other penalties incurred by Landlord as a result of Resident's violation of any statute, ordinance, regulation or other governmental restriction. This provision constitutes written notice to cease any breach of this section, including, without limitation, being so disorderly as to destroy the peace, quiet, comfort, or safety of the Landlord or other tenants of the building or Community or, where the Premises are a single family dwelling, the peace, quiet, comfort or safety of the owner or residents of an adjacent property. Such disorderly conduct includes violations of state and federal criminal law that destroy the peace, quiet, comfort, or safety of the landlord or other tenants of the building or Community containing the rental unit, or, where the Premises are a single family dwelling, the peace, quiet, comfort or safety of the owner or residents of an adjacent property.

22. COMPLIANCE WITH POLICIES: If indicated on the last page of this Lease with respect to Attachments/Addenda, Resident acknowledges receipt of a copy of the Community Policies, which Community Policies are incorporated into and made a part of this Lease, Resident agrees to abide by said Community Policies in all respects. Any Community Policies may be changed with thirty days' notice and Resident agrees to abide by any such changes. Failure to comply with the Community Policies shall be deemed a breach of this Lease.

D. PREMISES:

23. CONDITION OF PREMISES: Resident has inspected the Premises and acknowledges that the Premises are in good and habitable order and repair with all appliances and equipment in good working order at the time Resident is given occupancy. Resident also agrees that Landlord has made no promise to decorate, alter, repair or improve the Premises, except as listed on the Move In/Move Out Inspection Form.

24. RESTRICTIONS ON ALTERATIONS: Without the prior written consent of Landlord, Resident agrees not to make any alterations or improvements to the Premises, including, without limitation (i) changing or removing any part of the appliances, fixtures, or equipment; (ii) painting, installing wallpaper, or adhering contact paper; (iii) installing appliances including washing machines, dishwashers, dryers, fans, heaters, or air conditioners; or (iv) adding window coverings, foil draperies, or non-standard window coverings. In no event can any personal property, alterations, or improvements block entrance to or egress from the Premises, create a health or safety hazard or interfere with walkways or utility service equipment. All additions, fixtures and improvements shall be Landlord's property and shall remain upon the Premises after the termination of the Lease unless Landlord, as a condition to allowing Resident to make such alteration, requires that the Premises be restored to the condition existing prior to such alteration or addition.

25. MAINTENANCE: Resident is responsible to notify Landlord in writing, delivered personally or submitted online (except in the event of an emergency, in which case by telephone), if maintenance issues arise in or around the Premises. Maintenance requests will be handled after office hours only in an emergency. The on-duty maintenance associate will determine the appropriate course of action. Resident shall replace light bulbs and replace broken, damaged, or missing articles that Landlord has furnished.

To maintain the Premises, Resident agrees to:

- i. Keep the Premises clean.
- ii. Use all appliances, fixtures, and equipment in a safe manner and only for the purposes for which they are intended.
- iii. Refrain from destroying, defacing, damaging or removing any part of the Premises, common areas, Community or grounds.
- iv. Refrain from making any repairs without Landlord's prior written consent.
- v. Maintain a minimum of 50 degrees inside the Premises at all times to prevent water lines from freezing during winter months.
- vi. Dispose of all garbage, waste and recyclable materials in designated containers and/or designated areas and in accordance with applicable law and Landlord's instructions. Large items may not be disposed of in garbage containers or common areas.
- vii. Keep all ingress and egress routes clear and unobstructed and at all times.
- viii. Practice safe use of electrical cords, outlets, and appliances.

26. DUTY TO CLEAN AND VENTILATE: Resident hereby acknowledges that mold and mildew can grow in the Premises if the Premises are not properly ventilated and maintained. Resident acknowledges that it is important that Resident regularly allow air to circulate in the Premises. Resident agrees to regularly allow air to circulate in the Premises by using bathroom fan(s), using ceiling fans, where available, and regularly opening the windows and/or sliding doors where available. Since it is common for mold and mildew to grow even if a small amount of moisture builds up, Resident agrees to regularly wipe down areas where moisture sometimes accumulates and clean all toilets, sinks, countertops, bathroom walls, windows, windowsills, patio doors, showers, bathtubs and tile or linoleum floors with a household cleaner on at least a bi-weekly basis. Resident further agrees to notify Landlord immediately whenever Resident learns of any condition which could lead to a build-up of moisture in the Premises, including, but not limited to plumbing leaks, broken window or door seals, accumulation of rainwater or other moisture around windows or doors, broken water lines or sprinklers, inoperable fans, doors, or windows, and any failure or malfunction in the heating, ventilation, or air-conditioning system, if any, in the Premises, storage room, garage, or common area. If Resident notices mold, mildew, or other organic growth in the Premises, Resident agrees to notify Landlord, in writing, immediately. Resident agrees to take the following steps to prevent the growth of mildew, mold, and organic growth in the Premises:

- i. In damp or rainy weather, keep windows and doors closed.
- ii. If possible, maintain a temperature of between 50° and 80° Fahrenheit within the Premises at all times.
- iii. Use the pre-installed bathroom fan or alternative ventilation when bathing or showering and allow the fan to run until all excess moisture has vented from the bathroom.
- iv. Use the exhaust fan in the kitchen when cooking or while the dishwasher is running. Allow the fan to run until all excess moisture has vented from the kitchen.
- v. Use care when watering houseplants. If spills occur, dry up excess water immediately.
- vi. When washing clothes in warm or hot water, watch to make sure condensation does not build up within the washer and dryer closet. If condensation does accumulate, dry with a fan or towel.
- vii. Thoroughly dry any spills on carpeting.
- viii. Do not allow damp or moist stacks of clothes or other cloth materials to lie in piles for an extended period of time.
- ix. Do not overfill closets or storage areas to allow for proper ventilation.
- x. Do not overfill the Premises or block with personal property ventilation from fans, windows, or doors.
- xi. Vacuum and dust the Premises on a regular basis to remove household dirt and debris that contribute to mold growth.

Any failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall be deemed a material breach of this Lease. In addition, Resident shall be liable to Landlord for any damage resulting from Resident's failure to comply with the requirements of this section.

27. PESTS AND PEST CONTROL:

- i. The Premises and/or the common areas may be covered by a contract for periodic pest control by a registered structural pest control company. If so, pursuant to applicable law, concurrently with signing this Lease, Resident is being provided with a copy of the legally required notice provided by the registered pest control company under Business and Professions Code §8538 and California Civil Code §1940.8. Resident accepts all risks and hazards associated with chemicals used on the Premises that are stated in the notice attached to this Lease.

ii. Resident and Landlord have inspected the Premises prior to leasing and acknowledge there is no visible evidence of the presence or infestation of insects or vermin, including bedbugs, in the Premises. Resident agrees to inspect all personal belongings for signs of bedbugs or other insects or vermin prior to bringing personal belongings into the apartment and further agrees not to bring into the Premises any belongings which Resident suspects may be infested with bedbugs, insects, or other vermin.

iii. Resident agrees to maintain the Premises in a manner that prevents the occurrence of an infestation of insects and vermin, including bedbugs, and comply with policies relating to the prevention of infestations. Resident further agrees to report any signs of bedbugs, ants, fleas, roaches, or other insects or vermin immediately to Landlord.

iv. If Resident allows individuals or items carrying bedbugs, fleas, roaches, or other insects or vermin into the Premises, or has an infestation that cannot be traced to another source, such infestation will be deemed damage to the Premises and Resident will be responsible for all costs of treatment to the Premises, Resident's personal belongings, and neighboring units as necessary to eradicate the infestation. Resident will also be responsible for any damages caused to the Premises or to any of Resident's personal property, including without limitation furniture, clothing, and personal belongings, caused by pests or the treatment of pests. The choice of treatment shall be at the discretion of Landlord in consultation with Landlord's pest control vendor, if any.

v. Resident agrees to cooperate with all pest control efforts at and within the Premises and the Community. Resident shall follow all instructions from Landlord and/or Landlord's pest control vendor, if any, with respect to treatment and eradication of pests, whether infestation is within the Premises, a neighboring unit, or elsewhere in the Community. The Premises must be properly prepared for any treatment. Resident acknowledges that preparations for treatments can be time consuming and difficult. Resident nonetheless agrees to fully prepare the Premises in a timely manner at its own cost and expense for the treatment and eradication of pests until the pest infestation is fully abated. Resident further agrees to coordinate the cleaning and/or disposal of Resident's personal property with the treatment being performed, so as to protect against a re-infestation of any pests. Resident agrees to follow the recommended readiness procedures, including allowing full access for treatment(s). Resident agrees that the choice of pest control vendors, if any, and the implementation of a treatment plan, including the application of pesticides, is exclusively that of Landlord. Resident agrees not to treat the Premises, building, or Community with pesticides without the written authorization of Landlord.

vi. Resident is required to report, in writing, any suspected infestations to Landlord immediately after discovery. Resident shall report any signs of any infestations, including, but not limited to any household member experiencing any bites, seeing any insects or vermin within the Premises, or seeing any feces or other detritus relating to insects.

vii. Resident represents to Landlord that Resident is not aware that bed bugs were present in Resident's last residence and that if bed bugs were present in any of their furniture, clothing, or other personal property, the bed bugs have been eradicated. Resident agrees that this representation to Landlord is a material inducement to Landlord leasing the Premises to Resident.

28. KEYS, LOCKS, AND ACCESS DEVICES:

i. Keys and Locks: Resident agrees not to change or add any locks or gates on any doors or windows to the Premises without prior written consent of Landlord. If Landlord, in its sole discretion, approves a request to install locks, Resident agrees to immediately provide Landlord with a key for each lock. On or before the end of the term, Resident agrees to return all keys to the Premises to Landlord. Landlord may charge Resident $25.00 for each key that is lost or not returned.

ii. Access: Resident agrees to promptly notify Landlord in writing of any problem, defect, malfunction or failure of door locks, window latches, controlled access gates, intrusion alarms, and any other security device. Resident agrees to be responsible for all fines, penalties and other charges resulting from or attributable to the alarm, including false alarm charges. It is understood that Landlord is not responsible for providing access to the Premises after office hours. Resident is responsible for contacting a locksmith, at Resident's expense, to gain access to the Premises in the event of lockout. If Resident has called a locksmith, Landlord must be notified and then change locks at Resident's expense.

iii. Access Devices: If Resident has received gate cards, fitness, restroom and/or entry gate keys as indicated in Section 6 of this Lease, Resident understands that if any of these items are lost or not returned upon move out, that the following fees will apply:
Gate Access Device $0.00 Key Fob $0.00 Entry Gate Key $50.00

29. LOCATION: Upon reasonable notice, Landlord shall have the right to transfer Resident to another unit that is comparable to the Premises, upon which transfer the other unit shall automatically become the Premises under this Lease, which shall remain in full force and effect. Resident acknowledges and agrees that such comparable unit shall be deemed to provide the same housing services as the original Premises and that such transfer is not an eviction.

30. CONDITION UPON TERMINATION: Upon termination of the Lease, or the termination of Resident's right to occupy the Premises, Resident shall deliver all keys, access cards, and remotes to Landlord and move out of the Premises, leaving them in substantially the same clean, undamaged, and ready-to-rent condition as existed on the Start Date, less ordinary wear and tear. If the Premises are not returned in such condition, Landlord may charge Resident for the costs to repair any damage and to put the Premises back in the condition they were in upon the Start Date, less ordinary wear and tear. Resident is responsible for replacement of any damaged or missing items and for payment of all costs to clean or repair any portion of the Premises, carpeting, flooring, wall coverings, paint, counters, trim, window treatment, doors, windows, or appliances which are damaged, dirty, or unsanitary. Cleaning and repair of any damage due to smoking of any kind is not considered ordinary wear and tear. Resident is responsible for removing all trash and other items of personal property from the Premises. Failure to do so will constitute a condition that exceeds ordinary wear and tear. Resident will not be considered as having moved out, vacated and surrendered possession of the Premises until Resident has removed all personal belongings from the Premises and returned all keys, access cards and remotes. If Resident moves out and fails to return all keys, access cards and remotes, Resident agrees that the move-out date shall be determined by Landlord in Landlord's reasonable judgment and that Resident will be charged for any missing keys, access cards and remotes. If Resident leaves personal property in the Premises after move-out or if Resident places personal property in areas of the Community not designated for Resident's exclusive use, Landlord can determine that such property has been abandoned and can take steps to remove or dispose of the property consistent with applicable laws.

31. ENTRY: Landlord has the right to enter the Premises as allowed by law, including, without limitation, in case of emergency, to make desired, necessary or agreed repairs, decorations, alterations, renovations, or improvements, to supply necessary or agreed services, to test smoke detectors, to exhibit the dwelling unit to prospective or actual purchasers, mortgagees, tenants, workmen or contractors, or for any other purposes permitted by California Civil Code section 1954 (and any other applicable statutes or amendments which might be enacted subsequent to the execution of this Lease). Landlord also has the right to enter the Premises in order to make an inspection pursuant to subdivision (f) of Civil Code section 1950.5 when Resident has abandoned or surrendered the Premises and pursuant to court order. Resident agrees that if Resident denies Landlord access to the Premises when Landlord is in compliance with statutory requirements and entitled to access, any such denial of access shall be deemed a material breach of this Lease. The Parties agree that 24 hours' notice is presumed reasonable, although the Parties acknowledge that a shorter time period may also be reasonable under some circumstances. Landlord will serve Resident with written notice before entry unless:

i. Entry is due to an emergency, surrender or abandonment of the Premises, or
ii. Resident and Landlord agree orally to an entry to make agreed repairs or supply agreed services at an approximate day and time within one week of the oral agreement, or
iii. Resident is present and consents to entry at the time of entry, or
iv. To exhibit the Premises to prospective or actual purchasers of the property, provided that Landlord has notified Resident in writing within 120 days of the oral notice that the property is for sale and that Resident may be contacted to allow for an inspection.

32. SMOKE DETECTORS: The Premises have been equipped with smoke detectors. The smoke detectors have been tested prior to Resident's move in to ensure they are operational. Resident agrees not to interfere with the presence or operability of any smoke detector and to report immediately to Landlord, in writing, any defects in the condition of any smoke detectors. Resident agrees that if a smoke detector is battery operated, pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1942.1, as part of the consideration of the rental, Resident assumes responsibility to: (a) ensure the battery is in operating condition at all times; and (b) replace the battery as needed. Under no circumstances shall Resident remove the battery of a smoke detector without immediately replacing the battery with a new one.

33. CARBON-MONOXIDE DEVICES: If a carbon-monoxide device has been installed within the Premises, Resident acknowledges that the carbon-monoxide device was operable at the time Resident took possession of the Premises. Resident is responsible for notifying Landlord if Resident becomes aware of an inoperable or deficient carbon-monoxide device within the Premises. Landlord shall correct any reported deficiencies or inoperabilities in the carbon-monoxide device. Resident further agrees that, if the carbon-monoxide device is battery operated, pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1942.1, as part of the consideration of the rental, Resident assumes responsibility to: (a) ensure the battery is in operating condition at all times; and (b) replace the battery as needed. Under no circumstances shall Resident remove the battery of a carbon-monoxide device without immediately replacing the battery with a new one.

34. SATELLITE DISHES: If satellite dishes are allowed in the Community they must be one meter or less in size and may not be affixed to the patio or balcony of the Premises. Resident is specifically prohibited from making physical modifications to the Premises and is prohibited from installing said satellite dish in the common areas of the Community, including, but not limited to, outside walls, roofs, window sills, common balconies or stairways. Resident will be responsible for damages caused by the satellite dish, including the cost of removal if in any violation of any satellite guidelines. Resident shall install, use, maintain and remove a satellite dish in a manner which is consistent with industry standards and shall be liable for any damage or injury sustained as a result of the negligent installation, maintenance, use or removal of said satellite dish. Allowable locations may not provide an optimal signal or any signal at all.

35. WATERBEDS AND AQUARIUMS: Waterbeds and water tanks holding 30 or more gallons may only be installed in the Premises with prior written consent from Landlord. Prior to installation, a valid waterbed insurance policy or certificate of insurance for property damage must be obtained. The policy shall be issued by a company licensed to do business in California and possessing a Best's Insurance Report rating of "B" or higher. The insurance policy shall be maintained in full force and effect until the waterbed/water tank is permanently removed from the Premises. The policy shall be written for no less than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00) of coverage. The policy shall cover, up to the limits of the policy, replacement value of all property damage, including loss of use, incurred by the Landlord or other residents caused by or arising out of the ownership, maintenance, use, or removal of the waterbed/water tank, except for any damage caused intentionally or at the direction of the insured, or for any damage caused by or resulting from fire. Landlord may require Resident to produce evidence of insurance at any time. The insurance carrier shall give Landlord notice of cancellation or non renewal 10 days prior to this action. The waterbed/tank shall conform to the pounds-per-square foot weight limitation and placement as dictated by the floor load capacity of the Premises. The weight shall be distributed on a pedestal or frame which is equivalent to the dimensions of the mattress itself. Resident shall install, maintain and remove the waterbed/tank, including, but not limited to, the mattress and frame, according to standard methods of installation, maintenance, and removal as prescribed by the manufacturer, retailer, or state law, whichever provides the higher degree of safety. Resident shall notify Landlord in writing of the intent to install, remove, or move the waterbed/tank. The notice shall be delivered at least 24 hours prior to the installation, removal, or movement. The Landlord has the right to be present at the time of installation, removal, or movement. If the waterbed/water tank is installed or moved by any person other than Resident, Resident shall deliver to Landlord a written installation receipt stating the installer's name, address, and business affiliation.

E. LIMITATION ON LIABILITY:

36. LIABILITY: Landlord shall not be liable to Resident, Occupants, or to any guests or invitees of Resident for any damage or losses to person or property arising from any cause including, but not limited to, theft, burglary, assault, vandalism, fire, flood, water leaks, rain, hail, ice, snow, smoke, lightning, wind, explosion, interruption of utilities, earthquake, or any other condition over which the Landlord has no control. To the extent allowed by law, Resident agrees to assume all risk of harm, and waive all claims against Landlord, resulting from use of common area amenities. To the extent allowed by law, use of the common area amenities is at the sole risk of Resident, Occupants, guests or invitees.

37. INDEMNITY/HOLD HARMLESS: Resident and Occupants agree to indemnify and hold Landlord harmless, from any claims arising out of any death or injury to any person, or any damage to property, if such injury or damage is caused directly or indirectly by the act, omission, negligence, or fault of Resident, Occupants, or Resident's guests or invitee(s).

38. HOUSING SERVICES: The furnishing by Landlord to Resident of any storage space, use of laundry, electronic access controls and gates, or any other common area facilities outside the Premises shall be deemed to be furnished gratuitously and Landlord makes no representations or guarantees as to the availability, adequacy, or fitness of such space, service, or facilities. Resident acknowledges that Landlord will not provide lifeguard service at swimming facilities, if any, and Resident agrees to take adequate and reasonable care in use of all recreational facilities to ensure the safety of Resident, Occupants, guests or invitees. All guests and invitees must be accompanied by a Resident or Occupant to use recreational facilities and amenities. Resident, Occupants, guests, and invitees shall comply with all signs posted by Landlord in and around the common areas and Community. Landlord may ban any Resident, Occupant, guest or invitee from using any amenity at the Community if such persons fail to abide by posted signs or rules relating to those areas and Resident shall not be entitled to any rent reduction or offset if the loss of amenity privileges is the result of the conduct of Resident, Occupants, guests or invitees. Landlord makes no representations, warranties or guarantees express or implied, regarding the presence or quality of reception of electronic communication or information retrieving devices within the Premises or Community.

39. EMINENT DOMAIN OR CONDEMNATION: Should the land wheron the building containing the Premises is situated, or any part thereof, or any portion of the Community, be condemned or taken for public use, then, in that event, upon the taking of the same for such public use, this Lease, at the option of Landlord, shall be deemed null and void, and the term shall cease and come to an end, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, and without apportionment of the award. Resident shall not be entitled to receive any sum, or portion thereof, constituting any award arising out of any such eminent domain or condemnation.

40. SIGNIFICANT DAMAGE TO OR DESTRUCTION OF PREMISES:

i. If the Premises or property are damaged by fire, flood or other casualty, necessitating repairs that require Resident to vacate the Premises for any length of time, in the sole and absolute discretion of Landlord, Landlord shall have the option either (1) to repair the damage or otherwise restore the Premises, with this Agreement continuing in full force and effect, or (2) give notice to Resident, at any time after such damage occurs or repairs become necessary, terminating this Agreement as of a date to be specified in such notice. Landlord shall not be required to repair any damage by fire or other cause or to make any repairs of any property installed in the Premises by Resident.

ii. If Landlord elects to terminate, this Lease shall expire and all interest of the Resident in the Premises shall terminate and Landlord shall have no obligation to pay lodging costs or other expenses to Resident after the termination date. If Landlord elects to repair the damage and/or make the significant repairs and continue this Lease in full force and effect, the "Duty to Cooperate" and "Significant Repairs" sections, below, shall apply.

41. SIGNIFICANT REPAIRS:

i. If the Premises require significant renovations, improvements or repairs (such as, by way of example only and not by way of any limitation, tenting for termites, treating for pests or other vermin, replacing plumbing or electrical wiring, repairing fire damage, etc.) which require Resident to vacate the Premises for any length of time, Resident must vacate the Premises as needed and otherwise cooperate with Landlord in its efforts to perform the work. To the extent possible, Landlord shall give Resident at least ten days written notice of the need to vacate the Premises, which notice shall include Landlord's best estimation of the length of time Landlord anticipates Resident will need to be absent from the Premises.

ii. Resident agrees to vacate the Premises for the time necessary for the work to be completed and, if Resident needs to be absent from the Premises for more than 8 hours in any 24 hour period, relocate to alternative housing of the Landlord's choosing. Landlord shall be responsible to pay for the alternative housing; however, Resident will remain responsible for all rent while Landlord is paying for alternative accommodations. If Resident elects to relocate temporarily to lodging other than that designated by Landlord, then Landlord shall have no obligation to pay the cost of such housing, which shall be at Resident's sole cost and expense; although Resident shall have no obligation to pay rent during the time the Premises are not available to Resident during the repairs if Landlord is not paying for the alternative lodging, except as provided below. Resident shall return to the Premises once Landlord advises Resident that the work has been completed. Landlord shall have no obligation to pay for alternative housing or waive rent after Landlord has advised Resident that Resident may return to the Premises.

iii. If the work or repairs are required because of the conduct of Resident or the conduct of Occupants, invitees or guests (such as misuse of plumbing, causing a fire, etc.), then Landlord shall be relieved of its obligation to pay for alternative accommodations set forth above and Resident shall remain responsible for both rent and the cost of alternative lodging during the time when Resident must vacate the Premises for any work to be completed.

42. DUTY TO COOPERATE: Failure to vacate the Premises or otherwise cooperate with Landlord's efforts to conduct repairs, renovations or other improvements in the Community is a material breach of this Lease and grounds for termination of this Agreement.

43. SAFETY CONCERNS:

i. Landlord makes no representations or guarantees to Resident concerning the security of the Premises or the Community. Landlord is under no obligation to Resident to provide any security measure or take any action not required by statute. The presence of courtesy patrols, patrol cars, access gates, surveillance cameras or other deterrents do not guarantee that crime can or will be prevented. Landlord reserves the right to reduce, modify or eliminate any such measures (other than those statutorily required) at any time; and Resident agrees that such action shall not be a breach of any obligation or warranty on the part of Landlord. All such measures are subject to personnel absenteeism, human error, mechanical malfunctions and tampering. Resident is responsible for planning and taking action with respect to the safety of Resident and personal property as if such systems and deterrents did not exist.

ii. Landlord may install surveillance cameras in some common areas. These cameras may or may not be monitored and the footage recorded by these cameras may or may not be kept by Landlord for any length of time. Landlord may remove such cameras, or install additional cameras, at any time without notice to Resident. Footage from any cameras belongs to Landlord and shall not be released to any resident although such footage may be released to law enforcement personnel, insurance adjusters or others with legitimate business needs for such footage in the sole discretion of Landlord and without the consent of any individuals recorded by such footage.

iii. Landlord has no obligation to obtain criminal background checks on any residents and bears no responsibility or liability related to the criminal background or actions (whether past, present or future) of any person, even if Landlord has actually run a criminal background check on applicants. Resident agrees to hold Landlord harmless from claims arising out of criminal acts of other residents or third parties. Resident shall not rely on the fact that Landlord may have run a criminal background check on residents or any other applicant when deciding whether to enter into this Lease. Background checks are limited to the information actually reviewed and are not a guarantee that a person with a criminal background does not reside at the Community or that someone living in the Community will not commit a crime in the future. Landlord has not made and does not make any representations as to the background of any existing or future resident and Landlord is under no obligation to run background checks on any existing resident or future applicant.

iv. Resident agrees to report immediately all suspected or actual criminal activity to the appropriate local law enforcement agencies and, after doing so, to Landlord, and shall provide Landlord with such law enforcement agency's incident report number upon request. If Resident receives a copy of any law enforcement agency's incident report for an incident that occurred on the property and said incident impacted the Premises, the Community or other residents in the Community, Resident shall provide a copy of said incident report to Landlord upon request.

44. INSURANCE: Landlord does not maintain insurance to cover (a) Resident's personal injury, (b) loss or damage to Resident's personal property, or (c) Resident's liability for injury, loss or damage caused to others by Resident (or Occupants or guests). Resident is not a co-insured, a beneficiary, or an implied beneficiary under any insurance policy maintained by Landlord. Unless prior to the Start Date, Resident provides Landlord with written proof of a policy of liability insurance issued by an authorized insurance company that provides Resident with a minimum policy coverage amount of $100,000 per occurrence and names Landlord as an Interested Party, Resident hereby elects for Landlord to enroll Resident in a service program administered by Landlord and backed by a liability coverage program administered by an insurance company selected by Landlord. Resident agrees to reimburse Landlord for the actual cost of such program. The premium payment made by Landlord on Resident's behalf will be considered rent. Landlord reserves the right to hold Resident liable for any loss in excess of the insurance proceeds paid by the insurer. If Resident maintains its own liability insurance, Resident shall provide proof of such insurance to Landlord upon Landlord's request. Resident's failure to provide such proof within three days of a request therefor shall constitute an election by Resident for Landlord to enroll Resident in the service program specified above, at the then-current actual cost of the service program.

45. MEGAN'S LAW: Pursuant to Section 290.46 of the Penal Code, information about specified registered sex offenders is made available to the public via internet web site maintained by the Department of Justice at www.meganslaw.ca.gov. Depending on an offender's criminal history, this information will include either the address at which the offender resides or the community of residence and the zip code in which the offender resides. Since the information is equally available to residents and Landlord, and Landlord cannot discriminate against registered sex offenders pursuant to Penal Code Section 290.46 et seq., Landlord has not made any inquiry of any applicant or resident as to whether he or she is a registered sex offender. Resident is advised to take whatever reasonable and lawful actions Resident believes necessary to protect household members or guests against any potential harm. This includes talking to any children or individuals with a diminished capacity about how to deal with strangers and similar topics. Resident is advised that Landlord may not notify Resident if Landlord learns or is advised that a registered sex offender is living in the Community.

46. ENVIRONMENTAL INDEMNIFICATION: To the extent allowed by law, Resident expressly assumes and accepts any and all risks involved or related to the presence in the Premises, common areas, and Community of any and all health affecting substances, and any power lines in the vicinity of the Premises. Resident waives all claims and causes of action of any kind or nature, at law or in equity, including, but not limited to, claims or causes of action arising by statute, ordinance, rule, regulation or similar provision, against Landlord and Landlord's agents, principals, employees, legal representatives, affiliates, assignees, successors in title, partners, shareholders, officers, directors, parents, members and managers (herein collectively called the "Landlord Affiliates") with respect to any health hazard occurring in connection with the presence in the Premises, common areas, or Community of materials containing potentially health affecting substances, and claims arising out of or based upon any potentially health affecting substances brought, or allowed to be brought, into the Premises, common areas, or Community by any Resident, Occupant, guest, or invitee. Resident agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Landlord Affiliates against and from any and all actions, causes of action, claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages and expenses of whatsoever kind, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees at both the trial and appellate levels, that any or all of the Landlord Affiliates may at any time sustain or incur by reason of any and all claims asserted against them arising out of potentially health affecting substances brought or allowed to be brought into the Community by any Resident, Occupant, guest, or invitee.

47. PROPOSITION 65 WARNING: The Premises, common areas, and Community may contain chemicals known to the State of California to cause cancer, birth defects, and other reproductive harm. These chemicals may be contained in emissions and fumes from building materials, products and materials used to maintain the property, and emissions, fumes, and smoke from Resident and guest activities, including but not limited to the use of motor vehicles, barbecues, and tobacco products. These chemicals may include, but are not limited to carbon monoxide, formaldehyde, tobacco smoke, unleaded gasoline, soot, tars, and mineral oils.

For more information please contact OEHHA at (916) 445-6900 or visit http://www.oehha.org/prop65/pdf/Prop65tenants.pdf for additional information from the California Environmental Protection Agency's Office of Environmental Health Hazard.

48. LEAD-BASED PAINT WARNING: Housing built before 1978 may contain lead-based paint. Lead from paint chips and dust can pose health hazards if not managed properly. Lead exposure is especially harmful to young children and pregnant women. Lead poisoning in young children may produce permanent neurological damage, including learning disabilities, reduced intelligence quotient, behavioral problems, and impaired memory. Before renting pre-1978 housing, Landlords must disclose the presence of known lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the Unit. Residents must also receive a federally approved pamphlet on lead poisoning prevention. By Resident signing this Lease, they acknowledge receipt of Protect Your Family from Lead in Your Home pamphlet.

- i. Presence of lead-based paint or lead-based paint hazards: Known lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards are present in the housing.
- ii. Landlord has reports or records pertaining to lead-based and/or lead-based paint hazards in the Premises and has made available to Resident all available records and reports upon Resident's request.

49. ASBESTOS DISCLOSURE: Before 1981, asbestos was commonly used in construction. This Community was built before 1981 and asbestos may be present. Asbestos is a chemical known to cause cancer. Asbestos may be present in sprayed on acoustical ceiling material, insulation, fire proofing and floor tiles in the Premises and/or buildings of the Community. Disturbing or damaging certain interior Premises, common areas, and/or Community surfaces may increase the potential exposure to asbestos. Resident may not pierce, damage, disturb, or remove any portions of the Premises, common areas, and/or Community known or suspected to contain asbestos. Resident must notify Landlord immediately in writing if any portion of the Premises, common areas, and/or Community known or suspected to contain asbestos are pierced, damaged, disturbed or removed. Landlord has instituted an operations and maintenance program directed at maintaining the Community in accordance with any applicable federal and state safety requirements regarding asbestos-containing material. This program is designed (among other things) to prevent release of asbestos fibers into the air; minimize disturbance of damage to asbestos-containing materials; monitor the conditions of materials and air in the building; and regulate maintenance, renovation and construction activities. No matter how small the percentage of such material may be, Resident, Occupants, guests, or invitees shall comply with such rules and regulations as Landlord from time to time may prescribe in connection with Landlord's operations and maintenance program, including without limitation to the following:

- i. Hazardous Materials: Resident shall not take or allow any action which in any way damages or disturbs all or part of the ceiling, flooring, walls, insulation in the Premises, including but not limited to: Piercing the surface of the ceiling, flooring, walls or insulation by drilling or any other method; hanging plants, mobiles, or other objects from the ceiling; allowing any objects to come into contact with the ceiling; permitting water or any other liquid to come into contact with the ceiling; painting or undertaking any repairs or improvements with respect to the ceiling or floor tiles; or undertaking any activity which results in building vibration which may damage the ceiling.
- ii. Resident shall notify Landlord immediately in writing: If there is any damage to or deterioration of the ceiling, flooring, walls or insulation of the Premises, including (without limitation) loose, cracking, hanging, or dislodged material, water leaks, or stains in the ceiling, flooring, walls or insulation.

50. CREDIT REPORTING: Resident is notified that Resident's performance as a tenant of this Community may be reported to credit reporting agencies.

51. SOCIAL MEDIA: Landlord maintains an online presence through its website and social media. This online presence includes, but is not limited to, displaying images from community events organized by Landlord. From time to time Landlord will capture still ("photo") and moving ("video") images at these events. Resident hereby acknowledges that by attending these events Resident accepts and agrees to the potential of being depicted in those images and further agrees to permit Landlord to use Resident's, Occupants', guests' or invitees' likenesses, without compensation, for the limited purpose of Landlord's online presence. Please note that Landlord respects Resident's privacy and at Resident's written request Landlord will remove any image depicting Resident, Occupants, guests or invitees.

F. COMMUNITY CONSIDERATION

52. USE OF PREMISES: Resident agrees to use the Premises solely as a private residence. Storage areas, parking areas, balconies, patios, outdoor areas, and decks shall not be used for occupancy. Resident shall not use the Premises as a business address, nor shall Resident conduct business activities on the Premises. Conducting business activities includes, without limitation, using the Premises as a mailing address for a business enterprise, having a business telephone line in the Premises, having business clients meet with Resident at the Premises, having business stationery setting forth the address of the Premises as a business address, assembling or manufacturing any product upon the Premises, or otherwise holding out the Premises as the address of any business. Resident may, however, insofar as it is consistent with the restrictions set forth in this section, and with the written consent of Landlord, use a portion of the Premises as a "home office." Nothing set forth herein shall be deemed as disallowing any use of the Premises that cannot be prohibited legally.

53. CONDUCT OF RESIDENT: Resident agrees not to harass, annoy, or endanger any other resident, neighbor, or other person, or create or maintain a nuisance, or disturb the peace or solitude or quiet enjoyment of any other resident, neighbor or other person, or commit waste in or about the Premises. Resident further agrees not to harass, verbally abuse, denigrate or otherwise disrespect Landlord's employees, agents and/or contractors or interfere with the operations of the Community or the work of Landlord's employees or agents. Resident agrees to keep the volume of any activity, radio, stereo, electronic equipment, television or musical instrument at such a level which will not disturb the other residents at any time. Any noise, disturbance, or activity which would, in the sole and absolute discretion of Landlord, be reasonably likely to annoy or disturb other residents is strictly prohibited. 53. Certain acts are considered to be contrary to the safety, well-being, peace, and enjoyment of the other residents of the Community. These include, but are not limited to, the use, possession or sale of illegal drugs or controlled substances and the carrying or exhibiting of firearms in the Community. Such acts are prohibited. The carrying or exhibiting of firearms may be permitted with written consent of Landlord if doing so is required by law or job necessity. Resident shall not deface or damage any part of the Premises or the common areas or the Community or permit the same to be done. Resident shall not keep in the Community any flammable or explosive materials or any substance considered dangerous, hazardous, or toxic under any governmental law or regulation. Resident shall not do or permit anything to be done in the Premises that may be deemed hazardous or which will cause a cancellation of or an increase in the premiums for any insurance for the Community. Resident is responsible for the conduct of Occupants, guests, and invitees, including without limitation any minors, while they are in the Premises and in the Community. A Resident conducting any of the activities set forth in this section, or who allows Occupants, guests, or invitees to conduct any of said activities shall be deemed in violation of this Agreement, and said activity shall be grounds for termination of this Agreement. This provision constitutes written notice to cease any breach of this section, including, without limitation, committing or permitting to exist a nuisance in the Premises, building, or Community.

54. PARKING: Resident, Occupants, guests, and invitees shall follow the Parking Rules and Regulations, as the same may be amended from time to time. Landlord shall not be liable for any damage or loss to motor vehicles, the contents of motor vehicles, or personal property of Residents, Occupants, guests, or invitees. Failure to follow the Parking Rules and Regulations and posted signs relating to parking and operation of vehicles will result in the towing of the offending vehicle at the cost of the vehicle owner.

55. OCCUPANTS: Any person staying in the Premises for longer than two weeks or 20 nonconsecutive days out of the year shall be considered to be occupying the Premises. The Premises shall be occupied only by the person(s) indicated in Section 2. No other persons have permission to occupy the Premises unless such permission is in writing and signed by Landlord. Landlord's acceptance of rent from any other individual shall be deemed to be the payment of rent on behalf of the Resident and shall not constitute permission for the person making the payment to occupy the Premises. Should any person not named in Section 2 make any claim of right to possession of the Premises, any such person shall be deemed to be the guest or invitee of the named Resident and their claim to right of possession shall be denied. Any Occupant, named in Section 2, who is not a signatory to this Lease shall be deemed to be an invitee of Resident, who is a signatory to this Lease. Accordingly, if any such Occupant is not named in any unlawful detailer action to regain possession of the Premises, and if any such individual thereafter makes a claim to right of possession of the Premises, that claim shall be denied on the basis that said individual is the invitee of the named Resident and does not have an independent claim to right of possession of the Premises.

56. GUESTS: Any person occupying the Premises shall be considered an unauthorized occupant in violation of this Lease unless that person has completed a rental application, been approved, and been added to the Lease.

57. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING: Resident shall not assign this Lease nor sublet all or any part of the Premises without Landlord's written consent. Resident shall not sublet all or any part of the Premises on a short-term basis, including without limitation through Air BNB or any other short-term rental program. Permitting any person not named as an Occupant or as a Resident in this Lease to occupy the Premises shall be deemed an improper subletting of the Premises and shall subject the tenancy to termination. This provision constitutes written notice to cease any breach of this section, which breach is incurable pursuant to state law. Any attempted subletting or assignment in violation of this provision shall be void. In the event that no original Resident remains in residency at the Premises, Landlord may reset the rent in accordance with the Civil Code and Rent Stabilization Ordinance.

58. PETS: No pets are permitted in the Premises without the prior written consent of the Landlord through an Animal Addendum to this Lease. Permission to keep a pet may be granted, denied, or revoked in Landlord's sole discretion. Except to the extent written permission has been given, pets may not be brought upon the Premises, whether such pets belong to Resident or to any other person. The presence of any pets for which written permission has not been given and is not currently in force, even if such pets are "just visiting" shall be deemed a material breach of this Lease. This policy does not apply to accommodation or service animals. A disabled individual who requires an animal in order to be able to use and enjoy the Premises or the Community should contact Landlord before bringing the animal onto the Premises and request an accommodation to this Lease provision. All accommodation requests will be processed in accordance with applicable laws. Resident is responsible for reimbursing Landlord for the costs of repairing damage to the Premises, common areas, or Community caused by animal(s) under the control of or visiting Resident. Resident must promptly notify Landlord of any damage caused by animals.

59. CLOTHESLINES/DRYING RACKS: If the Premises has a private patio, deck, or balcony, which is enclosed by a fence, railing, or other structure, Resident is permitted to hang clothing, blankets or other laundry on the patio, deck, or balcony subject to the following rules and conditions:

- i. No more than two drying lines/racks may be in use at any one time.
- ii. Items may not be left on the drying lines/racks for more than 24 hours (i.e., all items must be removed within 24 hours of being put out on the drying lines/racks).
- iii. Drying lines/racks must be free standing.
- iv. No drying lines or racks may be attached or affixed in any manner to any portion of the building, fence, railing, wall, building support structure, or light fixtures.
- v. Drying lines/racks cannot be higher than the patio, balcony, or deck fence or railing.

vi. Drying lines/racks cannot be clearly visible from the sidewalk or street.
vii. Drying lines/racks cannot block entrance to or egress from the Premises, create a health or safety hazard or interfere with walkways or utility service equipment.
viii. Drying lines/racks cannot interfere with the maintenance of the Community.
ix. Clothes may not be draped over fence or balcony railings, or hung from any building fixtures.

If the private patio or balcony is not enclosed by a fence, railing, or other structure, Resident is not permitted to hang clothing, blankets, or any other laundry on the patio, deck, or balcony.

G. UTILITIES AND HOT WATER

60. UTILITIES: Utility services shall be provided directly from the utility provider or, at the sole discretion of Landlord, on a sub-metering, square footage, or other allocation basis. Landlord reserves the right to modify the method by which the utilities are furnished to the Premises or billed to Resident during the term of this Lease and may modify billing Resident for utilities previously included in the rent by giving Resident a 30 day written notice.

The following terms shall apply:
i. Resident agrees to pay all charges for utilities for the Premises for the term of the Lease. Charges may be assessed by the utility provider or Landlord or Landlord's designated Billing Party in the case of utilities billed to Resident by Landlord in connection with Resident's use of utilities.
ii. Resident shall not use any utility in a wasteful, unreasonable, or hazardous manner and agrees to comply with all utility conservation efforts implemented by Landlord.
iii. Landlord is not liable for claims arising from utility service outages, interruptions, or fluctuations in utilities provided to the Premises not reasonably within Landlord's control.
iv. For any utility which Resident is responsible for paying directly to the utility provider, Resident must contact the utility company prior to move-in to have the services placed in Resident's name no later than ten (10) business day following move-in. Resident shall continue to contract with the utility provider throughout the term for continuous utility service. Resident's failure to make necessary arrangements for Resident's utility service may result in an interruption of services and Resident's failure to transfer utility services to Resident's name or failure to have continuous utility service may be, at Landlord's discretion, considered a material breach of this Lease and will permit Landlord to terminate the Lease. If Resident fails to pay any utility charges that are to be paid by Resident, Landlord may, at its option, pay such charges to retain continuing utilities service. If Landlord does so, any such charges may be billed to Resident by Landlord and said billing shall become due and payable, in full, as additional rent together with the regular monthly rent payment on the first day of the month next following the date of such billing. Resident will also be subject to an additional charge of $50.00 for each billing cycle during which Resident has failed to become the customer of record with the utility provider(s).
v. Resident shall not use any utilities in the common areas for their own personal use without written consent of the Landlord.
vi. Resident agrees not to disturb, tamper, adjust, or disconnect any utility service, sub-metering device or system.

61. HOT WATER: The following will apply.
i. The water temperature in the Premises is set at 120 degrees Fahrenheit or below. When the water temperature is 120 degrees Fahrenheit, or below, bacteria may enter the water heater or associated plumbing and accumulate. If Resident desires the thermostat to remain at 120 degrees Fahrenheit, or below, Resident assumes any and all risks associated with any bacterial growth in the water heater or associated plumbing.
ii. Resident should be aware that some units may be equipped with an HVAC heating system which operates on hot water. To achieve full heating potential, it may be necessary to increase the temperature of the water heater during the colder months of the year. Resident should also be aware that some units operate on centralized hot water systems which service multiple units and as such individual adjustments in temperatures will not be possible.
iii. If Resident desires the water temperature in the Premises to be higher than 120 degrees Fahrenheit and the Premises has an individual hot water heater, Resident will request, in writing, the temperature of the hot water heater to be adjusted by Landlord, and Resident shall specify the desired temperature at which Landlord is requested to set the thermostat.
iv. Resident understands that if the temperature is set above 120 degrees Fahrenheit, that the water released from the taps in the Premises may scald or burn anyone using water, and potentially cause severe injury.
v. Resident may not tamper with, or adjust the water temperature thermostat in the Premises in any way without written authorization from Landlord.
vi. Resident agrees to indemnify and hold Landlord harmless in any action involving any injury related to the temperature of the water, the water system or the associated plumbing in the Premises.

H. ADDITIONAL TERMS

62. REQUESTS FOR ACCOMMODATIONS OR MODIFICATIONS: A disabled person shall be provided reasonable accommodations or reasonable modifications to the extent necessary to provide the disabled person with an opportunity to use and occupy the Premises in a manner equal to that of a non-disabled person. If Resident believes Resident, Occupant, or a member of Resident's household requires an accommodation or modification as a result of a disability, Resident should contact Landlord to begin the interactive process.

63. MILITARY: Military personnel on active duty may terminate this lease under Federal law if:
i. Resident becomes a member of the Armed Forces of the United States after Resident enters into the Lease; or
ii. Resident is or becomes a member of the Armed Forces of the United States and receives:
a. Orders for a permanent change of station; or
b. Orders to deploy for a period of at least 90 days.

Landlord fully supports its residents who are active-duty or reserve military personnel. Resident must give Landlord written notice of termination. For rentals when rent is paid monthly, the termination becomes effective 30 days after the first date on which the next rent payment is due after the termination notice is delivered and no further rent will be owed following the expiration of the notice period (or the actual move-out date, if later). Resident must furnish the Landlord with proof to establish that Resident qualifies for this limited exception. Proof may consist of any official military orders, or any notification, certification, or verification from the service member's commanding officer, with respect to the service member's current or future military duty status. Military permission for base housing does not constitute a permanent change-of-station order.

64. OFFICE OF FOREIGN ASSETS CONTROL: Resident represents and warrants that Resident and each person or entity owning an interest in Resident is

i. Not currently identified on the Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons List maintained by the Office of Foreign Assets Control, Department of the Treasury ("OFAC") and/or on any other similar list maintained by OFAC pursuant to any authorizing statute, executive order or regulation (collectively, the "List").

ii. Not a person or entity with whom a citizen of the United States is prohibited to engage in transactions by any trade embargo, economic sanction, or other prohibition of United States law, regulation, or Executive Order of the President of the United States.

iii. None of the funds or other assets of Resident constitute property of, or are beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, by any Embargoed Person (as hereinafter defined).

iv. No Embargoed Person has any interest of any nature whatsoever in Resident (whether directly or indirectly).

v. None of the funds of Resident have been derived from any unlawful activity with the result that the investment in Resident is prohibited by law or that the Lease is in violation of law.

vi. Resident has implemented procedures, and will consistently apply those procedures, to ensure the foregoing representations and warranties remain true and correct at all times. The term "Embargoed Person" means any person, entity or government subject to trade restrictions under U.S. law, including but not limited to, the International Emergency Economic Powers Act, 50 U.S.C. § 1701 et seq., The Trading with the Enemy Act, 50 U.S.C. App. 1 at seq., and any Executive Orders or regulations promulgated there under with the result that the investment in Resident is prohibited by law or Resident is in violation of law.

Resident covenants and agree(s):

i. To comply with all requirements of law relating to money laundering, anti-terrorism, trade embargo and economic sanctions, now or hereafter in effect.

ii. To immediately notify Landlord in writing if any of the representations, warranties or covenants set forth in this section or the preceding section are no longer true or have been breached or if Landlord has a reasonable basis to believe that they may no longer be true or have been breached.

iii. Not to use funds from any "Prohibited Person" (as such term is defined in the September 24, 2001, Executive Order Blocking Property and Prohibiting Transactions with Persons Who Commit, Threaten to Commit, or Support Terrorism) to make any payment due to Landlord.

iv. At the request of Landlord, Resident may be asked to provide such information to determine Resident's compliance with the terms hereof.

v. Resident hereby acknowledges and agrees that Resident's inclusion on the List at any time during the lease term shall be a material default of the Lease. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Resident shall not permit the Premises or any portion thereof to be used or occupied by any person or entity on the List or by any Embargoed Person (on a permanent, temporary or transient basis), and any such use or occupancy of the Premises by any such person or entity shall be a material default of the Lease.

65. NON-DISCRIMINATION: There shall be no discrimination against or segregation of, any persons on account of race, color, national origin, ancestry, creed, religion, gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, genetic information, marital status, familial status, age, source of income, handicap, disability, citizenship status, immigration status, primary language spoken or any other protected classification under state or federal law, in the sale, lease, sublease, transfer, use, occupancy, tenure or enjoyment of the Premises, nor shall the Landlord or any person claiming under or through Landlord, establish or permit any such practice or practices of discrimination or segregation with reference to the selection, location, number, use or occupancy of tenants, lessees, or vendees of the Premises.

66. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE: Time is of the essence with respect to the provisions of this Lease. This provision shall be interpreted in its strictest sense irrespective of the relative hardship to the Parties.

67. SUCCESSORS: If the property is sold or the ownership interest otherwise transferred, the successor in interest of Landlord shall be deemed the assignee of all rights arising under this Lease, and shall be entitled to enforce the provisions of this Lease against Resident. Nothing in this provision shall be construed as conflicting or superseding the foregoing subordination or as requiring a continuation of the tenancy in the event of a foreclosure or other involuntary transfer of ownership.

68. SUBORDINATION: This Lease shall, without further act on the part of Resident, be subject and subordinate to the lien of any mortgage and/or any deed of trust or other encumbrance which may now exist, upon, or which may hereafter be placed by Landlord upon, the leased Premises or property including the Premises.

69. ATTORNMENT: Resident hereby agrees that Resident will recognize as its Landlord under this Lease and shall attorn to any person succeeding to the interest of Landlord in respect of the land and the buildings on or in which the Premises is contained upon any foreclosure of any mortgage upon such land or buildings or upon the execution of any deed in lieu of such foreclosure in respect of such mortgage. If requested, Resident shall execute and deliver an instrument or instruments confirming its attornment as provided for herein; provided, however, that no such mortgagee or successor-in-interest shall be bound by any payment of rent for more than one 1 month in advance, or any amendment or modification of this Lease made without the express written consent of such mortgagee.

70. ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATE: Resident agrees that within five (5) days of Landlord's request, Resident must execute and deliver to Landlord a written statement certifying that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if modified, describing the modification). Any prospective or actual property purchaser may rely upon Resident's written statement. Should Resident fail to deliver a statement within the specified time, it will be conclusively presumed that the Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect, except as otherwise indicated, and there are no uncured defaults in Landlord's performance, and any other details specified by Landlord originally requested of Resident.

71. CONTENTS OF THIS LEASE: The failure of Landlord to insist upon strict performance of any of the covenants and agreements of this Lease or any addenda thereto, or to exercise any rights arising under this Lease, shall not be construed to be a waiver of Landlord's right to subsequently enforce any such provision or to insist upon any such right. The fact that Landlord may have accepted late payment(s) on one or more occasions shall not be deemed a waiver of Landlord's right to insist upon timely payment or rent or to exercise any remedy available for late payment of rent. Acceptance of rent following a breach of this Agreement shall not be deemed to constitute a waiver of such breach. No custom or practice which may develop between the Parties in the course of the tenancy shall be construed to waive the right of Landlord to enforce any provision of this Lease.

72. SEVERABILITY AND PROVISIONS REQUIRED BY LAW: If a provision or section of this Lease is legally invalid, or declared by a court to be unenforceable, such provision or section will be deemed deleted and the rest of this Lease will remain in effect. To the extent any provision of this Lease is in direct conflict with any provisions of applicable law, such provision is hereby deleted. Any provision specifically required by applicable law which is not included in this Lease is hereby inserted as an additional provision of this Lease, but only to the extent required by applicable law and then only so long as the provision of the applicable law is not repealed or held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction.

73. ENTIRE AGREEMENT: This Lease, including all addenda executed by both Parties, sets forth the entire agreement among the Parties with respect to the matters set forth in it. It shall not be altered nor modified unless such alteration or modification is in writing and signed by all signatories to this Lease. No verbal agreements or representations have been made or relied upon by either party or any agent or employee of either party, and neither party nor any agent or employee of either party is entitled to alter any provisions of this Lease by any verbal representations or agreements to be made subsequent to the execution of this Lease. The foregoing notwithstanding, if Resident holds over after the expiration of the Lease term on a month-to-month basis, Landlord may change any provision of this Lease without the consent of Resident in the manner prescribed by California Civil Code Section 827.

74. SECTION HEADINGS: The section headings are inserted only for convenience and are not intended to define or limit the scope or intent of any clause.

75. NOTICES:

i. Any notice that Landlord gives to Resident shall be deemed properly served (whether or not actually received by Resident) if served in the manner prescribed in Code of Civil Procedure Section 1162. Except as prohibited by law, if Landlord fails to serve the notice in accordance with the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure Section 1162, but Resident actually receives the notice, the actual receipt shall be deemed to cure any defects in the manner of service and the notice shall be deemed properly and personally served. Service upon any Resident of the Premises shall be deemed valid service upon all Residents - it is not necessary to serve each Resident individually unless otherwise required by law.

ii. Any notice that Resident gives to Landlord shall be given to the business manager, assistant business manager, or sales associates, who are authorized to manage the Premises, at the management office(s) located at 5 Newell Court or at 2041 Euclid Ave., East Palo Alto, CA 94303 during normal business hours. The telephone number is (650) 566-2000. On non-holidays, the business hours, which remain subject to change, are: Mon and Wed, 9AM - 6PM, Tues 10AM - 6PM, Thurs and Fri 9AM - 7PM, Sat and Sun 10AM - 5PM.

iii. The persons designated above are the persons authorized by the owner to act for an on behalf of the owner for the purpose of service of process and for the purpose of receiving and giving receipts for all notices and demands.

76. JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY AND AUTHORITY: In the event of more than one Resident, each Resident is jointly and severally liable for each provision of this Lease and service of any notice or demand upon one shall constitute notice to each other Resident. All persons signing this Lease as Resident shall remain jointly and severally liable for all obligations arising under it, whether or not they remain in actual possession of the Premises. The giving by any individual Resident of a notice of termination of tenancy shall not terminate the Lease as to that Resident unless all Residents vacate the Premises by the agreed date. Landlord may, however, treat any such notice as a notice binding against all Residents of the Premises, and may institute unlawful detainer proceedings against all Residents if they do not restore possession of the Premises to Landlord on or before the end of the notice period. Conversely, Landlord may, at its sole option, if one or more Resident gives notice, but all Residents do not return possession of the Premises to Landlord within the notice period, continue the tenancy in effect and, if Landlord does so, all Residents, including the Resident giving notice, shall remain fully liable for all obligations arising hereunder whether or not they remain in occupancy of the Premises.

77. ELECTRONIC SIGNATURES: The Parties agree that they may enter into this Lease by electronic means, although traditional hard copies with wet signatures may be used instead at the option of Landlord. Resident agrees and acknowledges that if Resident is entering into this Lease with Landlord by electronic means, doing so is not conditioned on Resident's agreement to conduct the leasing transaction electronically.

78. ATTACHMENTS/ADDENDA: Resident(s) acknowledges receipt of a copy of the attachments/addenda listed in this section, which are incorporated into and made part of this Lease. Resident(s) agrees to abide by said attachments/addenda in all respects. Any failure to comply with any of the attachments shall be deemed a breach of this Lease. If there is a conflict between these policies and the Lease, the Lease shall govern.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT RE USE OF MEDICAL MARIJUANA

Resident acknowledges receipt and understanding of the attached policies concerning use of Medical Marijuana. If applicable, Resident agrees to complete the Addendum for any Resident, Occupant, invitee, or guest who requires a Medical Marijuana Accommodation. If the accommodation is not applicable, Resident is not required to complete the Addendum and it will remain solely as an informative section of the lease, not an Acknowledgment of any sort.

ADDENDUM RE USE OF MEDICAL MARIJUANA

This document is an addendum to the Lease Agreement dated June 8, 2024 between Katterine V. Ciramagua Lopez and Alex A. Santiago Gregorio and Woodland Park for the Unit # 206 located at 201 East OKeefe Street East Palo Alto, CA 94303.

I have read the following and agree to adhere to the below rules and regulations for Medical Marijuana use at the Community:

1. I have a physical or mental impairment that limits one (or more) major life activity. As a result of my disability, I require the use of Medical Marijuana. A copy of the Medical Marijuana Card is attached and incorporated by reference into this Addendum. I agree to notify Landlord if the Medical Marijuana Card is revoked or expires and understand that this Agreement terminates immediately upon revocation or expiration of the Medical Marijuana Card.
2. The Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment and the California Environmental Protection Agency list marijuana smoke as a carcinogen. In 2009, the Carcinogen Identification Committee determined that marijuana smoke was shown to cause cancer, and was added to the Proposition 65 list, pursuant to Title 27, California Code of Regulations, section 25305(a)(1) (formerly Title 22, California Code of Regulations, section 12305(a)(1)).
3. I UNDERSTAND THAT ANY SECONDHAND MARIJUANA SMOKE THAT DRIFTS INTO THE WINDOWS OF OTHER UNITS, THROUGH THE VENTS, UNDER ANOTHER RESIDENT'S DOOR, ONTO A BALCONY, OR IN A COMMON AREA (INCLUDING FITNESS CENTER AND POOL/SPA) IS PROHIBITED. I AGREE TO CONFINE THE SMOKE TO MY PREMISES AND AGREE THAT ANY SMOKE THAT AFFECTS A NEIGHBORING RESIDENT WILL BE DEEMED A NUISANCE. I UNDERSTAND THAT I WILL BE REQUIRED TO TAKE THE MEDICATION IN AN ALTERNATE MEANS AND/OR SMOKE IN AN ALTERNATE LOCATION IF THE SMOKE DISTURBS ANY NEIGHBORING RESIDENT.
4. I understand that there are reasonable alternate means to take the medication, including (among others) edibles, tinctures, beverages, cannabis oils, and pills. Landlord understands that each individual's medical situation is different and will address the specific situation and alternate means to take the medication with advice from the prescribing physician.
5. The distribution and/or sale of marijuana or any other narcotic or illegal substance is a violation of the Lease and basis for termination of tenancy.
6. Resident is prohibited from making any unauthorized modifications to the Premises, including indoor irrigation systems or any other alteration that may increase the moisture and/or humidity levels or risk of fire in the Premises, building or Community.
7. This Addendum may be modified for any reason at any time without Resident's approval in accordance with State and Federal law.
8. Except as expressly modified hereunder, the remaining terms and conditions of the Lease as previously amended shall remain in full force and effect.
9. Resident hereby acknowledges that this addendum is incorporated into the Lease.
10. The Parties hereto represent and acknowledge that in executing this Agreement they do not rely upon and have not relied upon any representation made by the other party with regard to the subject matter of this Addendum, or its effects, other than those representations specifically set forth herein. No supplement, modification, or amendment of this Addendum shall be binding unless executed in writing by both Parties.

This Addendum may be executed in counterparts and facsimile copies of same shall be admissible for all purposes and shall be deemed an original.

BECAUSE WE CARE

At Woodland Park, we care about our residents' safety. We would like you to be aware of some important guidelines for your safety and protecting your personal property. Keep in mind that security is provided by local law enforcement agencies, much as it is for the other communities in the surrounding area. You should always proceed as if safety systems do not exist. The best safety measures you can take are the ones you can perform yourself as a matter of common sense. We have worked with local law enforcement agencies to develop a list of their recommendations for prudent practices regarding your personal safety. We provide this list as a convenience to you, without making any representation or warranty, and subject to the Lessee Security Notice & Acknowledgement:

PERSONAL SAFETY/INSIDE YOUR HOME

1. Lock your doors and windows, even when you're home.

2. If you have a deadbolt or night latch, use them even when you're home.

3. Never answer your door unless you know who is on the other side by looking through a peephole or window. If you don't know the person, talk to them without opening the door, and don't open the door unless you're satisfied with their identity.

4. If you are worried because you have lost a key, ask the management to rekey the locks. You have the right to do so, provided that you pay the cost of rekeying in advance.

5. Keep the telephone numbers for the police and emergency medical services handy.

6. Check your smoke detector periodically to ensure it is working.

7. Report to the management (in writing, dated and signed) any malfunction of safety devices outside your home such as broken gatelocks, burned-out stairwell and parking lot lights, etc.

8. Close your curtains or blinds at night.

9. Let friends know when you're going to be gone for an extended period of time. Ask your neighbors to keep an eye on your home, because the management cannot assume that responsibility.

10. Mark or engrave valuable personal possessions for identification.

11. Be careful to whom you lend or give your keys.

12. When lighting candles, always use holders that are sturdy to avoid tipping and keep candles 12" away from flammable objects such as curtains or pillows. Never leave a candle unattended. Extinguish them prior to sleeping or leaving your home.

13. Do not leave cooking items unattended. If a grease fire should break out, place a metal lid over the flames. Do not use glass since the heat from the fire could cause the glass to break. Smother the fire with a liberal amount of baking soda if it is relatively small and contained. Do NOT attempt to extinguish a grease fire with water; this will only cause the burning oil to splash and spread the flames.

PERSONAL SAFETY/OUTSIDE YOUR HOME

1. Lock your doors while you're gone. That means dead bolts too!

2. Leave a radio playing very softly when you're not at home.

3. Close and lock your windows when you're gone. Don't forget the sliding glass doors. Purchase a lamp timer at the hardware store, and set the time when you're not home in the evening or when you're on vacation.

4. Try not to walk outside alone at night.

5. Don't hide your front door key under the doormat. It's usually the first place a burglar will look.

6. If you have an entry code, don't give your code to guests or strangers.

7. Arrange for your newspaper delivery to be stopped when you're on vacation.

PERSONAL SAFETY/USING YOUR CAR

1. Lock your car doors when you're driving. Lock the doors and roll up the windows when you leave the car parked.

2. Don't leave visible items in the car, such as purses, briefcases, packages, money, etc.

3. Don't leave your keys in the car.

4. No matter where you are, always carry your key ring in your hand when you walk to the car. Don't ever stand by the car fumbling for keys.

5. Look in the back seat before you get in the car.

6. Don't stop alone at night at an automatic teller or gas station.

COMMUNITY POLICIES

This document is an addendum to the California Lease Agreement ("Lease") dated June 8, 2024 between Katterine V. Ciramagua Lopez and Alex A. Santiago Gregorio ("Resident") and Woodland Park ("Landlord") for the Unit #206 ("Premises") located at 201 East OKeefe Street, East Palo Alto, CA 94303.

In order to maintain and promote the Community, Landlord has established the following policies for the comfort and convenience of all residents. These Community Policies may be modified by written notice to residents.

1. Service Requests: All requests for service should be made in writing, delivered personally, sent via electronic mail, or submitted to the online resident portal. In an emergency, call 911 directly for help. Notify the Landlord immediately after.

2. Laundry Facilities: Laundry facilities are for the exclusive use by Resident and Occupants during the hours posted. Items should not be left unattended in the laundry area. Landlord is not responsible for loss or damage to personal items and clothing. To ensure the washers and dryers are working when needed, please follow the posted operating instructions carefully and treat the machines with care. If any of the laundry machines are not working properly, please notify Landlord immediately, so service can be arranged. A few additional tips:
   - i. Do not put plastic items in the dryer.
   - ii. Always clean the lint screen prior to use.
   - iii. Never operate the dryer without a lint screen,
   - iv. Refrain from overloading the washing machine or dryer. Do not use laundry facilities to wash or dry bulky items such as comforters.
   - v. We recommend leaving washer door open after cycle for better ventilation.
   - vi. Always clean the lint screen prior to using the dryer and never operate it without a lint filter.
   - vii. Never dry items that have come into contact with flammable substances like cooking oil, gasoline, paint thinner, or alcohol.

3. Appliances: The following policies must be followed with regard to appliances.
   - i. Appliances shall not be removed from the Premises, common areas, or Community.
   - ii. The disposal should only be used for the purpose for which it was designed. The following items should not be put in the disposal: metal, string, grease, coffee grounds, nut shells, fruit pits, corn on the cob, and potato peel.
   - iii. The bathroom fixtures should only be used for the purpose for which they were designed. The following items should not be disposed of in the toilets: diapers, paper towels, sanitary napkins, tampons, food, baby wipes and rags. Resident shall be held responsible for any repairs or damage resulting from the disposal of such items in the toilet. If Resident puts any other foreign objects in bathroom or plumbing fixtures, Resident shall reimburse Landlord for any repairs or damage caused by the same.
   - iv. Dishwashers should not be overloaded and only detergents made for automatic dishwashers should be used. We recommend using a rinse agent to improve drying and reduce spots and build up in dishwasher.
   - v. To keep the oven clean, use mild detergents following each use and do not use hard abrasives on chrome or glass parts of the oven.
   - vi. On the stove, never place foil under the burner pans.

4. Interior Alterations: Resident must obtain the prior written approval of Landlord before making any interior alteration. Any expenses incurred to restore the Premises will be at Resident's expense. Resident may not use nails when hanging pictures, mirrors, or other wall hangings. Please use adhesive hangers.

5. Window Coverings and Signs: Resident shall not use blankets, sheets, foil or non-standard window coverings in place of draperies or blinds. Except as permitted by law, Residents shall not place objects on window or window sill which are visible from the outside.

6. Community Equipment and Facilities: Recreational facilities may include business centers, fitness rooms, swimming pools and community rooms. Residents, Occupants, guests and invitees shall abide by all rules and regulations for the use of the recreational facilities. Resident, Occupants, guests and invitees will avoid conduct that Landlord deems inappropriate or disruptive. Any person in violation of these rules will be asked to vacate the area immediately. Failure to adhere strictly to the posted rules and regulations is acknowledged as grounds for suspension of privileges or termination of the tenancy in accordance with law. Landlord may change the rules and regulations at Landlord's discretion. Exercise care when enjoying the recreation facilities/equipment. Landlord is not responsible for physical injuries that result from the use of the recreational facilities/equipment. Any damages to any of the recreational facilities/equipment caused by Resident, Occupants, guests or invitees will result in Resident being responsible for the cost of repairing the damages. Take caution to lock/close common area doors and gates. No pets are allowed in any of the recreational facilities.

7. Communities with Pools: Resident is required to limit guests to no more than two at a time and accompany them to the pool. Visitors not accompanied by Resident will be asked to leave. Glass containers are not allowed in the pool area. Please help keep the pool area clean. Proper pool attire, such as bathing suits and swim trunks, is required. Children who are not toilet trained must wear a swim diaper. Cut-off jeans, T-shirts and non-swim diapers are not allowed. Additional pool policies and hours are posted by the pool. For safety reasons, do not swim alone.

8. Patios and Balconies: Resident shall comply with the following rules:
   - i. Patios and balconies are to be kept neat and orderly at all times.
   - ii. The installation of sunshades, blinds or hanging fabrics is not allowed.
   - iii. The construction of walls, ceilings, or other permanent attachments to the patio or balcony is not permitted.
   - iv. Patios and balconies may not be used as bedrooms.
   - v. No storage of any personal property or trash containers is allowed.
   - vi. All plants must be free-standing and have saucers underneath them. Hanging plants are not permitted.
   - vii. No motorcycles are allowed to be kept on any patios or balconies at any time.
   - viii. Unapproved bike hooks are not permitted and will be removed.
   - ix. Only furniture designed for outdoor use is permitted.

9. Trash Removal: Containers are located at various places throughout the Community. Residents shall secure trash and place it in a designated container. Residents shall not place trash on the ground if dumpster is full and should proceed to the next closest container to dispose of the trash. Resident shall not place large articles, such as furniture, for trash removal and Resident shall make alternate arrangements with a private disposal service to pick up such item at Resident's expense. Recyclable materials shall be separated from trash and disposed of in the recycling receptacles. Boxes should be recycled and broken down before disposal. Resident shall not dispose of hazardous materials in any container or other location at the Community. Resident shall only dispose of refuse in compliance with applicable laws. Resident may be charged a fee for not following these guidelines. Do not store trash on porches, balconies or in the hallways unless it is an approved container provided by the Landlord and is served regularly by the Landlord or a third party vendor.

10. Recycling: Resident agrees to comply with all present and future Community policies, laws, orders and regulations of all state, federal, municipal and local governments regarding the collection, sorting, separation, and recycling of waste products, garbage, refuse and trash.

11. Barbeques: The use or storage of any charcoal burner, liquid petroleum, gas fueled or any other open flame cooking devices are prohibited in the Premises, including on any patio or balcony.

12. Loitering: No unnecessary loitering in laundry facilities, recreation areas, leasing office, amenity areas, parking areas, or other common areas.

13. Recreational Equipment: Skateboards, motorcycles, bicycles and similar vehicles may not be stored in entry ways or under stairs without prior written permission from Landlord. Skateboards, roller-blades or other similar recreational equipment usage in Premises and in common areas is prohibited.

14. Posting Flyers: Resident is not authorized to distribute advertising, information or any other type of flyer, door-to-door, on cars, anywhere else in the building or throughout the Community, except as authorized by law. Landlord may designate a place for such items to be displayed and remove items that are not in keeping with the nature of the Community, as determined by Landlord.

15. Garage and Storage: Parking areas may only be used to park the Resident's registered, operational personal vehicle(s) in accordance with the Lease and Parking Rules and Regulations. Resident shall not use any parking area as storage for equipment, personal items, containers, vehicle parts or inoperable vehicles. In addition, Resident will not under any circumstances use any parking area or storage space to store flammable or toxic chemicals and/or waste. The parking area and storage space may not be used for occupancy. If Resident violates these requirements Resident agrees to immediately reimburse the Landlord for any costs associated with the removal of the unauthorized materials and immediately vacate the parking area or storage. Resident further agrees to be liable for any and all damage caused by Resident's carelessness or negligent driving, which may result in the destruction of the storage space and/or parking area or to any other vehicle near garage or storage space. The Landlord shall not be liable for any loss, theft, damages and or destruction of any personal property contained in any parking area or storage space. Nor shall the Landlord be held liable for or held responsible for any injury to any Resident, Occupant, guest or invitee resulting from the use of any parking area and/or storage space.

16. Solicitors and Salespeople: Solicitors are not allowed in the Community, except as authorized by law. Residents shall report all solicitors or salespeople to the Landlord immediately.

17. Car Wash and Repair: Vehicle repairs, including oil changes, and washing of vehicles are prohibited in the common areas and Community unless there is a designated area provided by Landlord.

18. Moving of Furniture: Landlord may designate the time and method for moving items to and from the Premises such as any furniture, merchandise, goods, freight or other such items. Residents may not move furniture to and from the Premises through the lobby, patio doors, or through the use of elevators (if available) without Landlord's permission. If elevators are installed at the Community, Landlord does not guaranty that the elevators will be available for use by Resident nor shall Landlord be liable for any loss resulting from the unavailability of elevator service.

19. Notification of Changes: Resident shall notify Landlord immediately in writing with any change to Resident's employer, employer telephone number, alternate phone numbers, emergency contact and other pertinent information.

Resident and Landlord represent that they have read this Addendum, understand the terms and conditions contained herein, and agree to the terms and conditions contained herein.

INFORMATION ABOUT BEDBUGS AND PEST CONTROL POLICIES

This document is an addendum to the Lease Agreement dated June 8, 2024 between Katterine V. Ciramagua Lopez and Alex A. Santiago Gregorio and Woodland Park for the Unit #206 located at 201 East OKeefe Street, East Palo Alto, CA 94303.

1. In recent times, bed bugs have become a re-emerging problem nationwide. One reason for these increasing problems is that it is easy for persons to spread the problem unknowingly. Bed bugs readily hide in small crevices and are notorious hitch-hikers. Bed bugs are often transferred by purchasing used furniture and through travel in luggage and in hotel beds and linens.

2. Landlord provides the following information about bedbugs pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1954.603:

a) Bed Bug Appearance: Bed bugs have six legs. Adult bed bugs have flat bodies about 1/4 of an inch in length. Their color can vary from red and brown to copper colored. Young bed bugs are very small. Their bodies are about 1/16 of an inch in length. They have almost no color. When a bed bug feeds, its body swells, may lengthen, and becomes bright red, sometimes making it appear to be a different insect. Bed bugs do not fly. They can either crawl or be carried from place to place on objects, people, or animals. Bed bugs can be hard to find and identify because they are tiny and try to stay hidden.

b) Life Cycle and Reproduction: An average bed bug lives for about 10 months. Female bed bugs lay one to five eggs per day. Bed bugs grow to full adulthood in about 21 days.

c) Bed bugs can survive for months without feeding.

d) Bed bug Bites: Because bed bugs usually feed at night, most people are bitten in their sleep and do not realize they were bitten. A person's reaction to insect bites is an immune response and so varies from person to person. Sometimes the red welts caused by the bites will not be noticed until many days after a person was bitten, if at all.

e) Common signs and symptoms of a possible bed bug infestation:

- Small red to reddish brown fecal spots on mattresses, box springs, bed frames, mattresses, linens, upholstery, or walls.
- Molted bed bug skins, white, sticky eggs, or empty eggshells.
- Very heavily infested areas may have a characteristically sweet odor.
- Red, itchy bite marks, especially on the legs, arms, and other body parts exposed while sleeping. However, some people do not show bed bug lesions on their bodies even though bed bugs may have fed on them.

f) For more information, see the Internet Web sites of the United States Environmental Protection Agency and the National Pest Management Association.

3. The best strategy for effective pest control is prevention. The following are recommended steps in the prevention of infestations by insects and vermin, including bed bugs: (1) Clean Premises regularly, including vacuuming mattresses; (2) Clean up clutter to help reduce the number of places insects like bed bugs can hide; (3) Carefully and thoroughly inspect used furniture or clothes you acquire and bring into the Premises; Ask the person from whom you acquire the items if the items were checked and treated for bed bugs; (4) Do not bring discarded furniture, mattresses or clothing into the Premises; and (5) When traveling or staying in hotels, avoid places which do not appear to be cleaned regularly.

4. If the Premises or neighboring Premises are infested with vermin or insects, including bed bugs, Landlord may hire a pest control professional to develop a treatment plan and apply pesticides. The Premises must be properly prepared for any treatment and Resident must cooperate with the implementation of the treatment plan.

Resident and Landlord represent that they have read this Addendum, understands the terms and conditions contained herein, and agree to the terms and conditions contained herein.

MOLD/MILDEW ADDENDUM

This document is an addendum to the Lease Agreement dated June 8, 2024 between Katterine V. Ciramagua Lopez and Alex A. Santiago Gregorio and Woodland Park for the Unit #206 located at 201 East OKeefe Street, East Palo Alto, CA 94303.

Resident acknowledges that it is necessary for Resident to provide appropriate climate control, keep the Unit clean, and take other measures to retard and prevent mold and mildew from accumulating in the Unit. Resident agrees to clean and dust the Unit on a regular basis and to remove visible moisture accumulation on windows, walls, and other surfaces as soon as reasonably possible. Resident agrees not to block or cover any of the heating, ventilation or air conditioning ducts in the Unit. Resident also agrees to immediately report to Landlord: (i) any evidence of a water leak or excessive moisture in the Unit, as well as in any storage room, garage or other common area; (ii) any evidence of mold- or mildew-like growth that cannon be removed by simply applying a common household cleaner and wiping the area; (iii) any failure or malfunction in the heating, ventilation or air conditioning system in the Unit; and (iv) any inoperable doors or windows. Resident further agrees that Resident shall be responsible for damage to the Unit and Resident's property as well as personal injury to Resident, other occupants or Resident's guests, resulting from Resident's failure to comply with the terms of this Addendum.

A default under the terms of this Addendum shall be deemed a material default under the terms of the Lease, and Landlord shall be entitled to exercise all rights and remedies at law or in equity. Except as specifically stated herein, all other terms and conditions of the Lease shall remain unchanged. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Addendum and the terms of the Lease, the terms of this Addendum shall control. Any term that is capitalized but not defined in this Addendum that capitalized and defined in the Lease shall have the same meaning for purposes of this Addendum as it has for purposes of the Lease.

Resident(s) acknowledges to have read this Addendum and understands the terms and conditions contained herein.

NOTICE OF ORDINANCE AT COMMENCEMENT OF TENANCY

Section 6 of the East Palo Alto Rent Stabilization and Just Cause of Eviction Ordinance of 2010 requires landlords provide residential tenants with a written notice of this Ordinance at the commencement of any tenancy.

RENTS AND RENT INCREASES

How Much Can Rents be Increased Each Year:

The Rent Stabilization Board determines the percentage increase each year, the Annual General Adjustment ("AGA"), that landlords can raise rents for tenants in regulated rental units. The percentage of rent increase allowed, including for all fees for regulated housing services, for the 2022-2023 program year is 4.2%.

Landlords, who are in compliance with the Ordinance, may increase rents between July 1 and June 30 of each program year by the amount of the AGA after giving a proper 30-day notice to a tenant. A landlord is eligible to increase rents using AGAs only if the landlord:

1. Registers all units in the same property with the Rent Stabilization Program;
2. Substantially complies with the Rent Stabilization Ordinance and/or orders or regulations issued under the Ordinance, including not charging more than the maximum allowed rent; and
3. Ensures the rental unit complies with the implied warranty of habitability; and completes all repairs ordered by the City.

Fees paid to a landlord for regulated housing services such as parking or utilities are generally part of the rent. An increase in fees for housing services, or charges for additional services that were not included in a tenant's initial rental agreement, are generally considered rent increases and must conform to the requirements for raising rents.

Accumulating AGAs for Future Rent Increases:

Landlords may raise rents by a lesser amount than allowed by the AGA or choose not to raise rents in any given year, and in that event, they may apply the AGA for future use to raise a tenant's rent. Rent increases may not exceed 10% in any 12-month period.

Certificate of Maximum Allowable Rent ("MAR"):

Certificates are issued upon Initial Registration of a rental unit, upon occupancy by a new tenant, and upon individual request. They are not issued every year. Based on information submitted by landlords, the Rent Stabilization Administrator calculates the Maximum Allowable Rent in the Certificates issued for rental units that have been properly registered with the City. A tenant cannot be charged rent, including any fees for regulated housing services, that exceeds the MAR for the timeframe specified in the Certificate issued for their unit.

RIGHT TO PETITION FOR VIOLATIONS OF ORDINANCE

A tenant can file petition A, B and/or C when their landlord violates the requirements of the City's Rent Stabilization Ordinance. A tenant may file a petition seeking a rent reduction or a rebate for rent already paid for the following reasons:

File Petition A for a Rent Reduction and Rebate for Maximum Allowable Rent Violations: This petition may be filed when rent is being charged over the Maximum Allowable Rent for a regulated rental unit. A tenant can also file Petition A if their landlord failed to properly register the unit.

File Petition B for Rent Reduction and Rebate for Housing Service Reductions, including Maintenance and Breach of Implied Warranty of Habitability: This petition may be filed when the tenant experiences habitability and/or maintenance problems, and/or reductions in services that have not been corrected in a reasonable time.

File Petition C for Approval to Withhold Rent for Landlord's Failure to Register a Unit with the Rent Stabilization Program: Tenants may contact the Rent Program to find out if their rental unit is properly registered and for more information about this provision in the Ordinance.

PROTECTIONS AGAINST EVICTONS WITHOUT CAUSE

Evictions are only permitted for the specific reasons cited in the Ordinance. Evictions not meeting these requirements can be contested in any action to recover possession of a rental unit in court.

Landlords must specify at least one of the permitted grounds for eviction listed in the Ordinance in a written notice of termination of tenancy. Permitted grounds for eviction include failing to pay rent, violating the lease, or engaging in disorderly or destructive conduct, among other reasons.

The landlord must file with the Rent Board a copy of any termination of tenancy and unlawful detainer action within five calendar days after the tenant has been served with such a notice.

TENANT PROTECTION ORDINANCE (Codified in Section 14.02 of the Municipal Code):
In May 2014, the City Council adopted the Tenant Protection Ordinance ("TPO") to further protect tenants. The TPO requires landlords to provide tenants a tenant rights information sheet, to give keys to every adult occupant in the rental unit, and to replace locks before a new tenancy begins. The TPO prohibits landlords from discriminating against families with children or based on the student or non-student status of housing applicants and tenants. It also prohibits landlords from harassing or taking retaliatory action against tenants. The TPO confirms tenants' rights to organize and to distribute literature related to tenancy issues. The TPO also provides for relocation assistance when units are to be demolished or removed or tenants have to temporarily relocate due to necessary repairs.

PARKING RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Each resident may only use the assigned parking space associated with that resident's lease and parking permit. Any vehicle parked in a parking space other than the assigned space is subject to immediate tow at the owner's expense. If you are not sure which space is yours, please ask the Management Office.

2. Every vehicle, including motorcycles, parked in an assigned Woodland Park parking space must have a visible, valid Woodland Park parking permit.

3. The Woodland Park Management Office at 5 Newell Court, East Palo Alto, CA 94303 issues parking permits. Generally, one parking permit will be issued for each assigned parking space. The make, model, color, and license plate number for each vehicle must be provided to obtain a parking permit.

4. The parking permit, including the permit identification number, must be fully visible at all times that the vehicle is parked at Woodland Park. Be sure not to cover the permit identification number.

5. If a resident's vehicle information changes or there are any other changes affecting the parking permit, the Management Office will reissue the parking permit. Upon reissue, the original parking permit will no longer be valid. All updated information must be provided to the Management Office.

6. If a parking permit must be reissued due to loss or theft, the resident will be charged a replacement fee for reissuance of the permit. Upon reissue, the original parking permit will no longer be valid. If the original parking permit is found in any vehicle parked at Woodland Park, that vehicle will be subject to immediate tow at the owner's expense. Reproduction or alteration of a parking permit is a direct violation of the Parking Rules. Any vehicle parked at Woodland Park with a reproduced or altered parking permit will be subject to immediate tow at the owner's expense.

7. No vehicle may be parked at any time in a fire lane, red zone, or any other area marked "NO PARKING." No vehicle may be parked so as to block any other parking space, sidewalk, driveway, or garage entrance. Any vehicle parked in violation of these rules is subject to immediate tow at the owner's expense.

8. Certain parking spaces are marked as guest and visitor parking spaces. Vehicles cannot be parked in guest and visitor spaces for more than 72 hours, unless the Management Office has provided prior written approval. An unapproved vehicle parked in a guest or visitor space for more than 72 hours is subject to immediate tow at the owner's expense. It is the resident's responsibility to advise guests and visitors of the Parking Rules.

9. Residents and their guests and visitors may park their vehicles in the parking spaces marked "Woodland Park Management Office" outside of Management Office hours; however, these vehicles must be moved during Management Office hours (signs are posted with the times). Any vehicle parked in the Management Office parking spaces during office hours are subject to immediate tow at the owner's expense.

10. Motorcycles must be parked in parking spaces. Motorcycles must affix the parking permit so that it is visible on the front area of the vehicle. Motorcycles may not be stored in units, on walkways, in courtyards, or on balconies. All parking rules and regulations apply to motorcycles.

11. All vehicles parked at Woodland Park must be in good operating condition and currently registered and licensed. Vehicles leaking any fluids will be subject to clean up fees. Any vehicle that is lacking any part or equipment necessary to operate safely, including without limitation, an engine, transmission, wheels, tires, doors, or windshield is subject to tow at the owner's expense. Management will attempt to provide 72 hours of notice before towing any such vehicle. Vehicle repair and maintenance in parking spaces and driveways is strictly prohibited.

12. Storage of personal property is not allowed in parking spaces. Management reserves the right to remove personal property left in parking spaces with no prior warning. Parking spaces and adjacent areas are to be neat and clean at all times.

13. Vehicles are not to be covered. Management will remove and discard covers.

14. Management is not responsible for theft or damage to any vehicle or personal property in the parking areas.

15. Boats, large trucks, RV's or trailers are not to be parked in the parking areas.

16. Bicycles must be parked in designated bicycle racks or inside a Resident's unit. Bicycles may not be stored or parked in common walkways or by the resident's front door.

Please remember to always lock your vehicle and never leave valuables in your car. Management is not responsible for loss or damage. Park at your own risk.

IF YOUR VEHICLE IS TOWED...

You have rights if your vehicle gets towed. Please consult the California Vehicle Code to fully understand your rights, as this is only an overview and the law may change at any time.

Generally, prior to paying any towing and storage-related fees, you have the right to:

- Receive an itemized invoice of actual charges.
- Receive your personal property, at no charge, during normal business hours.
- Retrieve your vehicle during the first 72 hours of storage and not pay a lien fee.
- Request a copy of the Towing Fees and Access Notice.
- Pay by cash or valid bank credit card
- Inspect your vehicle or have your insurance carrier inspect your vehicle at the storage facility, at no charge, during normal business hours.

You generally have the right to have the vehicle released to you upon (1) payment of all towing and storage-related fees, (2) presentation of a valid photo identification, (3) presentation of reliable documentation showing that you are the owner of the vehicle or that the owner has authorized you to take possession of the vehicle, and (4), if applicable, presentation of any required police or law enforcement release documents.

If you do not pay the towing and storage-related fees or you abandon your vehicle at the towing company, the towing company may sell your vehicle and any money received will be applied to towing and storage-related fees that have accumulated against your vehicle. You are still responsible for paying the towing company any outstanding balance due on any of these fees once the sale is complete.

If your vehicle was damaged during storage or towing, the owner of the vehicle may recover for any damage to the vehicle resulting from any intentional or negligent act of a person causing the removal of, or removing, the vehicle.

If the towing company violates the law, you may be able to bring a lawsuit in court, generally in small claims court. The towing company may be civilly liable for damages up to two times the amount charged, not to exceed $500, and possibly more for certain violations.

PET ADDENDUM

This document is an addendum to the California Lease Agreement ("Lease") dated June 8, 2024 between Katterine V. Ciramagua Lopez and Alex A. Santiago Gregorio ("Resident") and Woodland Park ("Landlord") for the Unit # 206 ("Premises") located at 201 East OKeefe Street, East Palo Alto, CA 94303.

Pets, including unauthorized or visiting pets, are not permitted on the Premises without prior written consent from Landlord. This addendum constitutes written consent for the pet(s) described below in the "Pet Description."

Pet Description

Resident and Landlord agree as follows:

1. Resident agrees to pay $0.00 per month per pet in Pet Rent per month on or before the first of each month with Monthly Rent. Pet Rent is additional "rent" for all purposes.

2. If a pet is added during the lease term, Resident agrees to pay $50.00 in Pet Rent per pet per month and will be required to pay an additional deposit of $500.00.

3. The additional deposit shall be subject to full inspection of the Premises upon Resident's move out and shall be considered an additional deposit pursuant to the Lease terms.

4. Resident shall be liable for all damages to Premises, common areas, or Community and all expenses caused by or in connection with pet, including without limitation the presence of fleas.

5. Pet will not be permitted outside the Premises unless restrained by a leash. Resident must control pet activity while in the Premises.

6. Pets may not be left or tied on balconies, porches, or patios and these areas must be kept clean and free of pet waste.

7. Resident is responsible for immediate and proper cleaning up and disposal of pet waste. Please note that landscape pesticides and chemicals are used on the grounds of the Community and therefore special care should be taken when walking pets.

8. If pet is a cat, an appropriate litter box shall be maintained and a scratching post should be provided. Resident must place soiled cat litter in a securely tied trash bag for disposal.

9. If Resident does not clean up after pet, Resident will be fined $50.00 per occurrence.

10. Pets shall not weigh over 50 Pounds full grown.

11. The number of pets per unit is limited to 2.

12. Resident shall not permit and represents that pet will not cause any damage, discomfort, annoyance, nuisance or in any way inconvenience, or cause complaints from, any other resident.

13. All pets must have all current, required vaccinations. Upon request from Landlord, Resident must provide proof of vaccinations to Landlord.

14. It is strongly recommended that all pets have an identification tag showing current address and telephone number on their collar. Dogs are required to have a current license and an identification tag at all times.

15. Resident agrees to comply with all applicable ordinances, regulations and laws governing pets.

16. In addition, Resident shall comply with the following policies:

- i. Except as further restricted by law, the following types of pets are permissible: cats, dogs, hamsters, guinea pigs, rabbits, birds, fish, non-poisonous or non-venomous amphibians, and non-poisonous or non-venomous reptiles. Permitted birds must be kept caged and permitted fish, amphibians, and reptiles must remain in in a tank/aquarium at all times.
- ii. All pets must be spayed/neutered.
- iii. Resident shall prevent any fleas or other infestation of the Premises, building and Community.
- iv. Birds shall not be let out of cages.
- v. Resident must obtain prior written consent from Landlord to have fish tanks over 30 gallons. Fish tanks must be placed in a safe area inside of the Premises.
- vi. Dangerous, illegal, exotic or poisonous animals (as determined solely by Landlord) are not permitted on the Premises.
- vii. Residents are not allowed to keep endangered species.
- viii. Feral animals cannot be fed or kept on the Premises, common areas, or Community.
- ix. Resident shall not allow any pet in the Community that has exhibited any sign of aggressive behavior or aggressive tendencies towards any person.

x. Resident shall not allow any pet in the Community that is a Restricted Breed. Restricted Breeds are Alaskan Malamute, Boxer, Chow Chow, Dalmatian, Doberman Pinscher, German Shepperd, Belgian Malinois, Husky breeds, Pit-Bull breeds, Staffordshire Terrier, Presa Canario, Rottweiler and wolf hybrids..

17. This addendum shall terminate without affecting the Lease or Resident's responsibilities under the Lease and Resident shall remove the pet immediately if any of the following occurs:

i. Payment of Pet Rent is delinquent.

ii. The pet displays aggressive behavior.

iii. Landlord perceives the pet to be dangerous or disruptive to premises, common areas, or Community, other residents, guest or employees.

iv. Resident fails to provide proof of current, required vaccinations upon request from Landlord.

v. Upon thirty (30) days' notice by either party to the other of intent to terminate this Addendum.

18. Companion and/or Service Animal: Landlord will review any request for accommodation to the pet policies, including the need for a companion or service animal. Additional information may be requested while engaging in the interactive process to determine the need for the accommodation. If a companion or service animal is required, the Resident will be provided a Companion Animal and/or Service Animal Addendum & Agreement detailing the terms and conditions.

19. Resident agrees to hold harmless and indemnify Landlord from all liability pertaining to pets on the property and Resident shall hold Landlord harmless and indemnify Landlord for any and all damages or costs in connection with pet.

Resident and Landlord represent that they have read this Addendum, understand the terms and conditions contained herein, and agree to the terms and conditions contained herein.

LEASE ADDENDUM
PERSONAL LIABILITY INSURANCE REQUIRED

1. Addendum. This is an addendum to the Lease for Apt. No. 206 at 201 East OKeefe Street, East Palo Alto, CA 94303

   The effective date of this Addendum is June 7, 2024.

2. Insurance Acknowledgment. You acknowledge that we do not maintain insurance to protect you against personal injury, loss or damage to your personal property or to cover your own liability for injury, loss or damage you (or your occupants or guests) may cause others. You also acknowledge that you may be responsible to others (including us) for the full cost of any injury, loss or damage caused by your negligent actions or the negligent actions of your occupants or guests, including but not limited to damage caused by fire, smoke, explosion or water damage liability.

3. Required Renters Insurance Policy. You are required to purchase and maintain a renter's personal liability insurance policy which provides limits of liability to third parties in an amount not less than $100,000.00 per occurrence through an insurance company or insurance agent authorized to issue insurance in this state. Proof of coverage must be submitted for all leaseholders. Such insurance policies are often referred to as "renter's insurance policies or "liability-only insurance policies." Most renter's insurance policies contain personal liability coverage and also personal property coverage for your own property. You are only required to have personal liability insurance, however we highly recommend that you obtain coverage for your personal property too. Personal property coverage protects your property in the event of theft, fire or weather-related loss to your property. The required personal liability insurance policy must cover all residents in your unit. The policy must identify Insurance Tracking, 1050 Crown Pointe Parkway, Suite 600, Atlanta, GA 30388 as a "Party of Interest" or "Interested Party" where the "Party of Interest" or "Interested Party" must be notified within ten (10) days after your insurance company or agent renews, cancels or non-renews your policy. When insurance providers are paperless and only submit communications electronically, they are required to submit policy documents to woodlandparkca@greystar.com. Failure to include Insurance Tracking as the "Party or Interest" or "Interested Party" with the above-listed address and/or woodlandparkca@greystar.com will constitute a breach of this Lease.

4. Insurance Election. If you choose not to purchase insurance through the carrier of your choice or are unable to secure satisfactory personal liability insurance coverage, you have the option to obtain insurance coverage under an insurance program issued by an insurance carrier we have partnered with. As a resident of this property, you automatically qualify for this coverage with our preferred insurance provider with no underwriting or lengthy application. Participation in this program allows you to conveniently pay the insurance charges with your monthly rent. Following your execution of this Lease, you will be sent a link via email or text message to an online insurance portal where you must either enroll in the insurance program offered by our preferred insurance provider or upload proof of insurance if you already have insurance or if you decide to purchase the insurance through a carrier or agency other than our preferred insurance provider.

   If you choose to participate in this preferred insurance provider's program, you agree that you will be charged $14.50 monthly with your rent to cover the costs of securing personal liability coverage in an amount of $100,000.00 and personal property coverage in an amount of $5,000.00. The insurance company will issue a certificate of insurance to you that will describe the limits, conditions and terms of the coverage provided. A description of the insurance coverage and the insurance carrier are available by visiting the online insurance portal. If you have questions regarding the insurance program, including other available options, please call (833) 227-2209.

   If you decide not to enroll in the preferred insurance provider's program described above, you will be required to upload proof of insurance coverage via the link you receive by email from woodlandparkca@greystar.com to meet the Lease's insurance requirement. If you do not have access to upload your proof of insurance, you must contact the leasing office and the on-site staff may be able to provide you with an alternative method (e.g. business center computer, iPad, etc.).

5. Freedom of Choice. At all times, you are able to purchase insurance through the carrier or agency of your choice and are not required to purchase insurance through a particular carrier or agency, including the preferred provider. However, the insurance you purchase must meet the Lease's minimum requirements at all times. By signing this Addendum you consent to the sharing of information with our preferred insurance provider, which includes, but is not limited to, your name, address, lease status/expiration, current renter's insurance policy information, email address and telephone number(s).

6. Subrogation Allowed. You acknowledge that subrogation is allowed by all parties and that this Addendum supersedes any language to the contrary in the Lease. Accordingly, our commercial insurance carrier may make a claim against you for losses it pays as a result of your negligence, and your insurance carrier may make a claim against us for losses it pays as a result of our negligence. We retain the right to hold you responsible for any loss in excess of your insurance coverage.

7. Your Insurance Coverage. By signing this Addendum, you acknowledge that you have purchased (or agree to purchase) the insurance described above or you have agreed to participate in the insurance program. If you purchase insurance through a carrier or agency other than the preferred insurance provider, you must provide proof of insurance via the online insurance portal prior to taking possession of the apartment. You further acknowledge that you will keep your insurance policy in-force for the entire term of the Lease. If any material terms of your insurance policy change, you agree to promptly provide proof of the modified policy terms to woodlandparkca@greystar.com.

8. Default. Unless otherwise prohibited by law, and subject to any right to cure a default under the Lease, any default under the terms of this Addendum shall be deemed a material default of the Lease, and we are entitled to exercise all rights and remedies under the law. If you fail to obtain and maintain personal liability insurance as required by this Addendum, you will be in violation of your Lease. In such event, we may send a written notice to you demanding that you cure the violation by purchasing the required insurance and providing evidence of coverage to us. If you fail to supply evidence of such insurance to us on or before the specified date set forth in your notice, we reserve the right to obtain personal liability insurance coverage on your behalf, and to charge you monthly for the amount of the insurance charges ($14.50). This is an insurance program provided to us by an insurance company we have partnered with and provides $100,000.00 in personal liability insurance to you but does not include any personal property coverage to protect your property from any loss or damage, including but not limited to from theft, fire or weather. You may cancel your participation in this insurance program at any time if you purchase your own personal liability insurance policy or renter's insurance policy and provide proof of coverage to woodlandparkca@greystar.com. Upon your enrollment in the insurance program set forth in this paragraph, the insurance company will deliver you an insurance certificate evidencing and describing the coverage.

9. Miscellaneous.

   a. Except as specifically stated in this Addendum, all other terms and conditions of the Lease shall remain unchanged.

   b. The insurance required by the Lease Contract is not required by any law. Your obligation to provide insurance stems solely from the Lease Contract.

   c. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Addendum and the terms of the Lease, the terms of this Addendum shall control.

   d. The insurance required by the Lease is not an attempt to limit our liability for our own negligence or your liability for your own negligence.

   e. Arthur J Gallagher & Co., a licensed insurance agency and affiliate of property manager, may receive compensation on policies issued by the preferred insurance provider for administrative, brokerage or marketing support. Owner may be receiving compensation or other payments from Arthur J Gallagher & Co. or one of its affiliates where permitted by law.

   f. The insurance required by the Lease is not in lieu of, or in any way a component of, any security deposit required by the Lease.

   g. You understand that the personal liability insurance coverage set forth in paragraph 8 may cost more than similar insurance you can purchase on your own and will only cover you for your own liability for injury, loss or damage caused by you (or, in some cases, your occupants or guests) to others and DOES NOT INCLUDE COVERAGE FOR PERSONAL INJURY OR LOSS OR DAMAGE TO YOU OR YOUR PERSONAL PROPERTY. THE PERSONAL LIABILITY INSURANCE DESCRIBED IN PARAGRAPH 8 IS LIMITED IN SCOPE AND MAY NOT FULLY PROTECT YOUR INTERESTS.

   h. You agree that you have not received any oral representations from Owner or any representative of Owner which are inconsistent with or not contained in the Lease Contract, the addenda attached to the Lease Contract, or in the Rules and Regulations. If you have received any such oral representations, you agree that you did not rely on them to decide to enter in the Lease Contract or this Addendum.

   i. You must refer to the actual insurance policy or certificate for a complete description of the coverage, as this Addendum only provides a general summary. If you have an annual renter's insurance policy and decide to switch to the insurance program offered by our preferred insurance provider, please compare the terms of coverage between the two policies, as not all policies are the same and coverage may differ.

   j. By signing this Addendum, you consent to receive communications from the insurance company via email, text, or other electronic means with respect to insurance related matters.

By signing below, you acknowledge and agree to be bound to the terms of this Addendum.

RESIDENT SECURITY
NOTICE & ACKNOWLEDGMENT

NOTICE TO RESIDENT: Landlord does not promise, warrant, or guarantee the safety or security of the Resident, Occupants, or their personal property against the criminal actions of other residents or third parties. Each Resident has the responsibility to protect himself or herself and to maintain appropriate insurance to protect his or her belongings.

It is a fact that no security system, courtesy patrol or electronic security device can guarantee protection against crime. Even elaborate security systems are subject to mechanical malfunction, tampering, human error or personnel absenteeism, and can be defeated or avoided by clever criminals. Therefore, Lessees should always proceed on the assumption that no security systems exist. The best safety measures are those precautions that can be performed as a matter of common sense and habit.

If security systems, security devices, or walk-through/drive-through services are employed at this community, no representation is being made that they will be effective to prevent injury, theft or vandalism. Such personnel, if provided, cannot physically be every place at every moment. Usually, such personnel are unarmed independent contractors and have no greater authority under the law to restrain or arrest criminals than the ordinary citizen. Therefore, Landlord does not warrant that any security systems, security devices, or services employed at this community will discourage or prevent breaches of security, intrusions, thefts, or incidents of violent crime. Further, Landlord reserves the right to reduce, modify or eliminate any security system, security devices or services (other than those statutorily required) at any time; and Resident agrees that such action shall not be a breach of any obligation or warranty on the part of Landlord.

Resident agrees to promptly notify Landlord in writing of any problem, defect, malfunction or failure of door locks, window latches, controlled access gates, intrusion alarms, and any other security-related device. If Resident's home is equipped with an intrusion alarm, Resident agrees to be responsible for all fines, penalties and other charges resulting from or attributable to the alarm, including false alarm charges.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT BY RESIDENT: I have read, understood and agree with the above notice. I have received no representation or warranties, either express or implied, as to any security or any security system on the property. Landlord has not in any way stated or implied to me that security of person or property was provided, promised, or guaranteed or that the Community was or will be free from crime. I further acknowledge that Landlord is not obligated under any circumstances to respond to any signal from an intrusion alarm system. The responsibility for protecting me, my property, and my family, guests and invitees from acts of crime is the sole responsibility of myself and law enforcement agencies.

I agree to release and hold harmless Landlord from claims arising out of criminal acts of other residents and third parties. I agree that Landlord shall not be liable to me based upon any claim that security was not provided, subject to Landlord's compliance with state statutes regarding door locks and window latches. Resident acknowledges that the foregoing shall also be binding upon Resident's heirs, successors, and assigns.

Representatives of Landlord have no authority to make changes or modifications in the terms of this document, except when in writing and signed.

UTILITIES WAIVER

This document is an addendum to the California Lease Agreement dated June 7, 2024 between Katterine V. Ciramagua Lopez and Alex A. Santiago Gregorio and Woodland Park for the Unit #206 located at 201 East OKeefe Street, East Palo Alto, CA 94303.

In order to allow my community to track our whole building utility data, which will be used to determine what upgrades can be done to reduce utility expenses in each unit, I hereby grant authority for Woodland Park Property Owner, LLC doing business as Woodland Park Communities, the owner of Woodland Park to obtain the usage and utility detail for my utility accounts during my tenancy at this location for the sole purpose of benchmarking through the Energy Star® Portfolio Manager system. In order to do this, I agree to grant my Landlord the right to sign my account up to electronically receive utility data, where necessary, and to receive my account details as necessary to accomplish such benchmarking. Where available, such details will be collected in aggregate so that no unit information is available, and no unit information will be distributed except as required by law, nor used for any marketing purposes.

Therefore, I hereby authorize any utility provider serving my Premises, located at 201 East OKeefe Street #206, East Palo Alto, CA 94303 to provide such utility details and history about the accounts tied to my Premises upon request through the term of this Lease, and including up to the 24 months prior to the signing of this agreement.

I understand that by signing below I am waiving my right to privacy, both actual and perceived, under Federal, State and Local statutes regarding the release of my utility data and agree to hold all parties involved harmless from any potential right to privacy violations.

Resident(s) acknowledges to have read this Addendum and understands the terms and conditions contained herein.

SECURITY DEPOSIT AGREEMENT

This Agreement is made this day, June 8, 2024, by and between Woodland Park (hereinafter referred to as "Lessor"), Lessor of the complex in which the "Premises", as hereinafter defined, are located, acting pursuant to express written authority given by the owner of such complex, and Katterine V. Ciramagua Lopez and Alex A. Santiago Gregorio (hereinafter referred to as "Lessee"), in connection with the Lease Agreement (the "Lease") between Lessor and Lessee for: Woodland Park (the "Premises").

1. Security Deposit. Lessor hereby acknowledges receipt from Lessee of the sum of: $2,600.00 (Security Deposit) which represents the security deposit payment under the Lease, which shall hereinafter be defined as "Security Deposit". Lessor will hold the Security Deposit for the faithful performance by Lessee of his/her obligations under the Lease, including payment of rent, and cleaning and repair of the Premises after its surrender.

2. Refund of Security Deposit. Lessor shall deduct from the Security Deposit all monies expended as a result of any breach of the lease or this agreement, including but not limited to the following:
   - A. Vacate completely the entire Premises by Lessee on or before the date specified in the required written 30 day move-out notice.
   - B. Expiration of the term of the Lease, or termination or cancellation of the Lease in accordance with the express provisions thereof.
   - C. Payment by Lessee of all rental required under the Lease, up to and including the date of expiration or termination of the term of the Lease, or the full move-out notice period, whichever is longer.
   - D. The Premises, including all kitchen appliances (refrigerator, oven, range, dishwasher, and microwave) and including all baths, closets, storage areas, patios/balconies, etc. have been thoroughly cleaned, so as to be in the same condition as they were in on the commencement date of the term of Lease, normal wear and tear excepted.
   - E. No defects or damage to the Premises, whether caused by Lessee, pets, or otherwise, unless shown on a written list of damages and defects signed by Lessee at the commencement of the Lease term.
   - F. Observance and performance by Lessee of all of the other covenants and obligations to be kept or performed by Lessee under the Lease up to and including the date of expiration or termination of the Lease term.
   - G. Observation and performance by Lessee of all rules and regulations to be kept and performed by Lessee under the Lease, including, without limitation, those rules and regulations pertaining to pets.
   - H. LESSEE has given LESSOR thirty days written notice prior to the date of expiration or termination of the term of the Lease.
   - I. Lessee has provided Lessor with a written copy of the forwarding address of Lessee.

3. Deductions. Within twenty-one (21) days after Lessee has vacated the Premises, Lessor shall furnish Lessee with an itemized written statement of the basis for, and the amount of, any security received and the disposition of such security to Lessee.

4. Move-Out Procedures. When Lessee moves out of the Premises, an inspection of the condition of same shall be made after all of the personal effects of Lessee have been removed. Lessee should accompany Lessor during said inspection to help resolve any problems that may arise. Failure of Lessee to do so shall constitute a concurrence by Lessee in Lessor's assessment of charges for damages or cleaning. After inspection by Lessor, appropriate charges will be assessed by Lessor for any missing items; damages or repairs to the Premises, or its contents (normal wear and tear excepted) with the exception of those items listed on the Move-In/Move-Out Inspection Report attached to this agreement; insufficient light bulbs; scratches, burns, or holes in the walls, doors, floors, draperies, carpets and/or furniture; and for cleaning the Premises (including all kitchen appliances). Lessee shall be charged for each unreturned key (mail-box key and garage remote), and charged for replacing locks if all door keys to the Premises are not returned to Lessor.

Any security deposit shall be held by the Landlord for Resident who is party to the Lease. The claim of a Resident to the security deposit shall be prior to the claim of any creditor for the Landlord. (Civil Code Section 1950.5(d)).

From the time of the Pre Move-Out Inspection until the termination of the tenancy, the Resident may remedy the deficiencies identified in a manner consistent with the rights and obligations of the Parties under the Lease, in order to avoid deductions from the security deposit.

The law allows the Landlord to use the security deposit for legal deductions itemized in this statement that are not corrected by the Resident prior to the termination of tenancy or that were not identified during the time of the Pre Move-Out Inspection and for damages to the Premises/Community. A final itemized statement will be provided to Resident.

LEASE AGREEMENT

THIS LEASE AGREEMENT is made and entered into April 30, 2010 between 201 Okeefe, LLC "Owner/Agent", whose address and phone number are 2041 Euclid ave, East Palo Alto, CA 94303 (650) 566-2030, and Jose A. De La Torre and Rocio Rios, "Resident."

THE PARTIES AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

1. PREMISES: Subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease Agreement, Owner rents to Resident and Resident rents from Owner, for residential use only, the premises ("Premises") located at 201 E. O'Keefe Street #108, East Palo Alto, CA 94303, The term "Property" in this Lease Agreement shall mean all the land, building(s) and common areas owned by Owner/Agent upon which the Rental Unit is located.

2. RENT AND UTILITIES: Rent is due on or before the 1st day of each and every month, whether or not the first day of the month falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, at $1,050.00 per month, beginning on May 1, 2010, payable at 2041 Euclid ave, East Palo Alto, CA 94303. Payments made in person may be delivered to Owner/Agent Monday through Friday 9am and 5pm. On weekends and holidays, payment may be placed at the drop box at: _____. Acceptable methods of payment: ☒ Personal Check ☒ Cashier's Check ☒ Money Order ☒ EFT/Credit (see Owner/Agent for details) and ☐ Cash.

   (a) If in any month rent is paid after the 1st of the month, there will be a late charge of $100.00 assessed for such late payment if payment is not received in full of all charges prior to the 5th day of that month. The parties have deemed the foregoing late charge to be a reasonable estimate of the amount of damages suffered by Owner/Agent by reason of Resident's late payment of rent, as it would be impracticable or extremely difficult to determine the actual damages suffered by Owner/Agent in the event of such a late payment.

   (b) Pursuant to California law, if Resident passes a check on insufficient funds, Resident will be liable to Owner/Agent for the amount of the check and a service charge of $25.00, for the first check passed on insufficient funds, and $35.00 for each subsequent check passed on insufficient funds.

   (c) If Resident has previously attempted to pay Owner/Agent with a check drawn on insufficient funds or if Resident has instructed the drawee to stop payment on a check, draft, or order for the payment of money, Resident shall thereafter be required to use money orders or certified funds as the exclusive form of payment of rent or deposit of security.

   (d) Resident is responsible for delivering the rent on time. Failure of the U.S. Post Office or private carrier to deliver the rent on time will not result in a waiver of the breach of lease provisions contained herein.

   (e) UTILITIES: Resident shall pay for all utilities, services and other charges as set forth in Section 5 of this Lease Agreement and by the due date set forth in Section 5(e) of this Lease Agreement.

   (f) PARKING: Resident acknowledges and agrees that parking is not provided for under this Lease Agreement and is not included in Resident's rent. Should Resident desire to purchase a monthly parking permit for one or more vehicles from Owner (subject to availability thereof and with the express understanding there is no assurance that parking will be available), Resident must enter into a separate agreement (the "Parking Agreement") which will govern the purchase of the parking permit(s). While a Parking Agreement does not constitute a part of this Lease Agreement, a default under a Parking Agreement shall constitute a default under this Lease Agreement.

   (g) RENT CONTROL: If the Property is subject to rent control, Resident shall pay monthly its share of the then-current rent stabilization fee. $5.63.

3. SECURITY DEPOSIT: Resident shall deposit with Owner/Agent, as a security deposit, the sum of $600.00 prior to taking possession of the unit, which sum shall not exceed the maximum permitted by California Civil Code Section 1950.5. During the term of tenancy, Resident agrees to replenish the security deposit upon three (3) days written notice, by an amount equal to the amount deducted by Owner, in Owner's sole and absolute discretion, to cover the cost of rectifying any damage and paying any expense for which Tenant is responsible. Resident shall not use the security deposit to pay any month's rent, nor shall it constitute a measure of Owner's damages in the event of Resident's default. The security deposit shall be applied and accounted for in accordance with California Civil Code Section 1950.5 and any other applicable statutes.

4. TERM: The term of this Lease Agreement is for 1 year, beginning on May 1, 2010 (the "Commencement Date") and ending on April 30, 2011 (the "Termination Date"), at which time this Lease Agreement will automatically renew month-to-month unless either party gives at least 30 days written notice of termination or intent not to renew the Lease Agreement prior to the expiration of this agreement. Any holding over by Resident after the Termination Date shall result in Resident being liable to Owner/Agent for daily rental damages equal to the current market value of the unit, divided by 30. A "month-to-month" tenancy subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease Agreement shall be created only if Owner/Agent accepts rent from Resident thereafter, and if so accepted, Resident may terminate the tenancy by serving by Owner/Agent with a written 30-day Notice of Termination. Except as prohibited by law, Owner/Agent may terminate the month-to-month tenancy by serving Resident with a 30-day Notice of Termination (pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1946.1) if Resident has resided in the Premises for less than one year, or a 60-day Notice of Termination, if Resident has resided in the Premises for one year or more.

5. UTILITIES: Resident's monthly rent does not include any charges for the monthly utilities services provided to Resident, including, without limitation, sewer, water, trash, gas or electric services. Resident shall pay all monthly utilities charges pursuant to the terms of this Section 5.

(a) SEWER, WATER AND TRASH SERVICES: Resident shall pay a flat monthly utilities charge for sewer, water and trash services (in addition to any charges for gas and electric services, as set forth in Section 5(b) below). The flat rate shall initially be $25.00 per month, but may be increased from time to time to reflect increases in costs for sewer, water and trash services. Further, the Premises may subsequently be separately metered (or Resident otherwise directly billed) for such services (in accordance with provisions substantively equivalent to the provisions of Sections 5(b)(2) and 5(b)(3), respectively, hereof), in which case Resident shall not be obligated to pay the flat rate, but must instead pay the amount billed for such services. Provided, however, if water services are separately metered, Resident must pay both the amount billed for water service and the flat rate. Resident shall immediately notify Owner of any water leak.

(b) GAS AND ELECTRIC SERVICES: The monthly utilities charge for gas and electric services shall be calculated, billed and paid in accordance with this Section 5(b).

(1) No Meter: Flat Rate: If the Premises is not separately metered for gas or electric services, Resident shall pay a flat monthly utilities charge for gas and electricity (in addition to any charges for sewer, water and trash services, as set forth in above). The flat rate shall initially be $0.00 per month if the Premises is not separately metered for either gas or electric services, or $0.00 per month if the Premises is separately metered for either gas or electric services, but not both. This flat rate may be increased from time to time to reflect increases in costs for gas and electric services. Further, the Premises may subsequently be separately metered for gas and/or electric services, in which case Resident shall pay the amount billed for such services (as set forth in Sections 5(b)(2) and 5(b)(3), below).

(2) Separate Meter: Direct Billing by Utility Provider: If Resident is directly billed for gas or electricity services, Resident shall pay the entire amount due each month (as indicated on the utilities bill) to the utilities provider at the address set forth in the utilities bill. Resident acknowledges that failure to do so shall constitute a default under this Lease Agreement. Resident must transfer any directly billed service into their name before the Commencement Date. If Resident is directly billed for either gas or electricity services (but not both), Resident shall pay, in addition to the amount set forth on the utilities bill, the flat rate set forth in Section 5(b)(1) above for the utility service which is not separately metered. If Resident is directly billed for both gas and electricity services, Resident shall not be obligated to pay the flat rate set forth in Section 5(b)(1), but must pay the entire amount due each month to the utilities provider(s).

(3) Separate Meter: Submetering: If separate gas or electricity submeters are installed and placed in operation at the Premises, at any time before or after the date of this Lease Agreement, Resident shall pay its proportionate share of the total monthly charges for gas and electric services, which will be calculated as set forth in this Section 5(b)(3). If either a gas or an electricity submeter is installed and placed in operation at the Premises (but not both), Resident shall pay, in addition to its proportionate share of the submetered utility service, the flat rate set forth in Section 5(b)(1) above for the utility service which is not submetered. If both gas and electricity submeters are installed and placed in operation at the Premises, Resident shall not be obligated to pay the flat rate set forth in Section 5(b)(1), but must pay its proportionate share of the submetered utility services.

(i) Resident's monthly utility bill shall be based on actual readings as recorded by the energy allocation equipment and submeter for the Premises. Utilities shall be calculated at the average rate per therm or ccf (for gas utility services) or per kwh (for electricity services) at the time of consumption. Utilities shall be calculated as follows: the master metered utility provider's total monthly charges for utility service (less Premises base charges or customer service charges if applicable), divided by the total monthly consumption of that utility measured by the utility provider, multiplied by the Resident's total monthly consumption as recorded by the energy allocation equipment and submeter for the Premises.

(ii) If any utility provider's rate structure includes a base charge, Resident shall be billed, and shall be responsible for paying, the base charge applicable to that Premises. If the utility provider's rate structure includes customer service charge(s), Resident shall be billed, and shall be responsible for paying, the amount of the customer service charge(s) divided by the total number of apartments, including vacant units, that can receive service through the master meter serving the Property. Resident hereby agrees to pay the monthly service charges or other administrative fees shown on the Resident's utility bill.

(iii) Resident may receive an estimated utilities bill if a submeter becomes inoperative until repairs can be made, and Resident acknowledges that estimated utilities will be reconciled on future billings. Resident acknowledges that if, upon correction of an estimated utilities bill, the previous bill(s) overstated charges, Resident shall be entitled to an account credit reflecting the overstated charges and if, upon correction of an estimated utilities bill, the previous bill(s) understated charges, Resident shall be responsible for paying the amount of such underpayment.

(c) Resident acknowledges and agrees that the billing method for Resident's utility services may be modified from time to time to reflect the Premises' current utilities metering method (e.g. if Resident currently pays a flat rate for utilities services, one or more of the utilities may later be separately metered, submetered or directly billed to Resident, at which time Resident shall pay, in lieu of the flat rate or a portion thereof, the amount of those utilities separately metered, submetered or directly billed to Resident, in accordance with Section 5(b)(2) or 5(b)(3), respectively, above).

(d) Resident acknowledges that Owner cannot guarantee the level of charges for directly billed or submetered utilities services, which will vary over time depending on the Resident's usage characteristics, changes in the rates imposed by the utility provider that provides service to Owner and other factors.

(e) Resident hereby understands and agrees that Resident must deliver payment of the entire amount due each month to the Owner (or the utilities provider, if Resident is directly billed for either gas and/or electricity services) by the due date specified on the utility bill (or, for flat-rate charges, in advance on the 1st day of each and every month). Late payment charges and insufficient funds charges, as set forth in Section 2 of this Lease Agreement, shall be assessed if payment is not received when due.

6. OCCUPANTS: This Premises shall not be occupied by more persons than listed for the 1 Bed / 1 Bath, 616 sq. ft. apartment indicated in the "Maximum Number of Occupants."

Type of Apartment	Maximum Number of Occupants
Studio	2
Junior	3
One Bedroom	3
Two Bedroom	5
Three Bedroom	7

The Premises is a 1 Bed / 1 Bath, 616 sq. ft. apartment. The Premises shall be occupied only by the following named person(s):

Name	Birthdate
Jose A. De La Torre	4/9/1969
Rocio Rios	11/25/1964

Occupancy of the Premises by a person other than those persons listed above for a period exceeding 72 hours shall be a material breach of this Lease Agreement.

7. PROHIBITIONS: Without Owner/Agent's prior written permission, no pets or waterbeds shall be kept or allowed in or about the Premises.

8. QUIET ENJOYMENT: Resident shall not violate any criminal or civil law, ordinance or statute in the use and occupancy of the Premises (including laws governing the possession, use or sale of illegal drugs or laws governing prostitution), commit waste or nuisance, annoy, molest or interfere with any other Resident or neighbor. Any such action may result in the immediate termination of this Lease Agreement as provided herein and by law. Possession of any illegal drug (including marijuana, whether or not obtained with a prescription) either within Resident's unit or on Resident's possession while Resident is anywhere on the Property, shall be grounds for immediate eviction. Resident and Owner agree that such violation is a non-curable violation of this Lease Agreement, and that a breach of this prohibition is a "material" breach of this Agreement. Further, it shall be a non-curable breach of this Lease Agreement (and thus cause for immediate eviction) for Resident, any guest of Resident, or anyone who resides with Resident at the Premises, to do any of the following: (a) to have in their possession, or be under the influence of, any illegal drug (including marijuana, whether or not obtained with a prescription) while on or near the Property, or within the City of East Palo Alto; or (b) to engage in any drug-related or other criminal activity while on or near the Property, or within the City of East Palo Alto. Furthermore, it shall be a non-curable breach of this Lease Agreement (and thus cause for immediate eviction) for any guest of Resident to engage in any drug-related or other criminal activity while on the Property. Resident understands that Resident is strictly liable for the conduct of guests and will be evicted even if Resident did not know, could not foresee, or could not control behavior by the others mentioned in this paragraph. Resident shall also abide by the rules set forth in the Resident Policies Addendum

9. REPAIRS AND ALTERATIONS: Except as provided by law, no repairs, decorating or alterations shall be done by Resident without Owner/Agent's prior written consent. Resident must notify Owner/Agent in writing of any repairs, decorating, or alterations contemplated and must receive Owner/Agent's prior written consent befote making such repairs, decorating, or alterations. Decorations include, but are not limited to, painting and wallpapering. Any visable tenant modifications such as window coverings where the resident has purchased their own window coverings, the white blinds provided by owner shall be the only window covering permitted to be visable from the outside of the unit. Resident shall hold Owner/Agent harmless and indemnify Owner/Agent as to any mechanics lien recordation or proceeding caused by Resident. Resident may not make any alterations to cable or telephone inside wiring (such as may occur when changing telecommunications providers or adding phone lines) without prior written consent of the Owner/Agent. The notice shall include the name, address, and telephone number of any new telecommunication provider. Resident agrees to pay all costs resulting from the alteration and agrees to pay to the Owner/Agent any costs associated with restoring the inside wiring to the condition at the time of move-in, except for reasonable wear and tear. Upon 24 hours' notice, Resident shall lend Owner the keys to the Premises for the purpose of having a duplicate made for Owner/Agent's use. Should the law require that Owner make alterations for the reasonable accommodations of Resident, such alterations shall be made at Resident's sole cost and expense. Any and all alterations, shall, upon Resident's move-out, become the property of Owner and remain on the Premises; provided, however, that Owner may remove any and all alterations made for or by Resident and Resident shall be responsible for the cost of (A) repairing all damage to the Premises caused by their removal and/or (B) returning the Premises to its original condition.

10. ACCEPTANCE OF PREMISES: Resident has inspected the Premises, furnishings and equipment, and has found them to be satisfactory and accepts them in their "as is" condition. All plumbing, heating and electrical systems are operative and deemed satisfactory. Owner/Agent makes no representations whatsoever regarding the condition of the Premises or the Property. Resident and Owner/Agent have noted the presence of certain personal property of Owner at the Premises as identified in the Move In/Move Out Addendum.

11. CARE, CLEANING, MAINTENANCE AND INSURANCE: During tenancy, Resident agrees to keep the Premises in a safe and sanitary condition and to immediately reimburse landlord for any sums necessary to repair any item, fixture or appurtenance that needed service due to Resident's, or Resident's invitee, misuse or negligence. Where a repair is the responsibility of the landlord, Resident must notify landlord with a written notice stating what item needs servicing or repair. Resident must give landlord a reasonable opportunity to service or repair said item. Resident agrees to leave the Premises and furniture, furnishings and appliances, and fixtures, which are rented for Resident's exclusive use, in good order and condition and in the same condition as each was received, subject to reasonable wear and tear. Upon move-out, Resident agrees to return the Premises to the same level of cleanliness it was in at the inception of the tenancy ree of all trash and personal property not belonging to Owner. It is agreed that all dirt, holes, tears, burns and stains of any size or amount in the carpets, drapes, walls, fixture or any other part of the Premises do not constitute reasonable wear and tear. Any personal property left behind by Resident and not belonging to Owner may be thrown away by Owner without liability. Further, if Resident leaves large items in the unit or on the Property upon move out (or in or near the trash or elsewhere on the Property at any time), Resident shall be charged per Owner's move out schedule of costs as of the time of move-out, which is available upon move in and may be revised from time to time in Owner's sole and absolute discretion. Resident shall pay Owner/Agent for costs to repair, replace or rebuild any portion of the Premises damaged by the Resident, Resident's guests or invitees, including the charges specified in the Repairs and Replacements Addendum for any damaged property.

Resident acknowledges that: (A) Owner's insurance may not cover loss from damage to Resident's personal property caused by plumbing leaks, fire, theft, rain, acts of God, acts of others, and/or any other causes, nor shall Owner be liable for such losses; and (B) Resident shall not hold Owner liable for any such losses, whether or not Owner's insurance covers the loss. Resident agrees to obtain Resident's own insurance to cover any losses to personal property. This paragraph does not intend to waive Owner's duty to guard against personal injury or property damage where that duty cannot be waived by Resident. However, since Resident's obtaining of insurance is considered additional consideration to Owner for this Lease Agreement, if Resident does not obtain a renter's policy for a minimum of $100,000 coverage, Resident waives any losses that would have been paid by such a policy, if Resident does not obtain said policy.

Resident shall deposit all garbage in a clean and sanitary manner into the proper receptacles as provided and shall cooperate in keeping the trash container area neat and clean. Resident shall be responsible for keeping out of the kitchen sink bones, toothpicks, match sticks, celery, grease, metal vegetable ties, and all other items that may tend to cause stoppage of the sink and garbage disposal. Resident shall pay for the cleaning and/or clearing of any plumbing fixtures or water pipes, necessitated by the misuse or non-maintenance.

12. WAIVER OF BREACH: The waiver of either party of any breach shall not be construed to be a continuing waiver of any subsequent breach. The receipt by Owner/Agent of rent with the knowledge of any default by Resident of any breach of any term covenant or condition of this Lease Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of such breach r of any subsequent breaches. Owner's failure to require compliance with the terms of this Lease Agreement and to exercise any right granted by this Lease Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver by Owner of said term, condition and/or right; and shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any provision of this Lease Agreement. No waiver by either party of the provisions herein shall be deemed to have been made unless expressed in writing and signed by all parties to this Lease Agreement.

13. JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY: The undersigned Resident(s), whether or not in actual possession of the Premises, are jointly and severally liable for all obligations under this Lease Agreement, and shall indemnify Owner/Agent for liability arising prior to the termination of the Lease Agreement for personal injuries or property damage caused or permitted by Resident(s), their guests and invitees. This does not waive "Owner/Agent's duty of care" to prevent personal injury or property damage where that duty is imposed by law.

14. ENTRY: California law allows Owner/Agent or his/her employee(s) to enter the Premises for certain purposes during normal business hours. The Owner/Agent will provide written notice to the Resident prior to the entry of the dwelling unit whenever required by state law. (Civil Code Section 1954.) Resident's non-compliance with Owner/Agent's lawful request for entry is a material breach of this Lease Agreement that may be cause for immediate termination as provided herein and by law.

15. NO SUBLETTING OR ASSIGNMENT:

(a) No portion of the Premises shall be sublet, licensed or otherwise rented to a person not a party to this Lease Agreement, nor shall this Lease Agreement be assigned. Any attempted subletting, licensing, rental or assignment by Resident shall, at the election of Owner/Agent, be an irremediable breach of this Lease Agreement and cause for immediate termination as provided herein and by law. Resident shall not take in or allow occupancy by any person, whether that person is deemed a boarder, lodger, roommate or guest; and furthermore said occupancy shall be deemed an illegal subtenancy.

(b) In the event the rental unit is assigned or sublet by Resident, whether Resident permanently resides in the rental unit or not, then the rent for the Premises shall be increased by thirty-five (35%) without further notice from Owner. This provision is pursuant to Civil Code Section 1954.53(d). Owner shall elect the option of either collecting the increased rent or enforcing the provisions of Section 15(a), above. If Owner elects to enforce the provisions of Section 15(a), but a court of competent jurisdiction rules that Owner has waived the provisions for any reason, then Resident agrees to pay the 35% increased rent from the time that the assignment/subletting first occurred.

16. BREACH OF LEASE: In the event that Resident breaches this Lease Agreement, Owner/Agent shall be allowed at Owner/Agent's discretion, but not by way of limitation, to exercise any or all remedies provided Owner/Agent by California Civil Code Section 1951.2 and 1951.4. Damages Owner/Agent "may recover" include the worth at the time of the award of the amount by which the unpaid rent for the balance of the term after the time of award, or for any shorter period of time specified in the Lease Agreement, exceeds the amount of such rental loss for the same period that the Resident proves could be reasonably avoided. Resident's default under any "Additional Agreement" (as defined in Section 25 hereof) shall constitute a default under this Lease Agreement. There is no grace period with respect to the payment of rent. Accordingly, without limitation on any other obligation of Resident under this Lease Agreement, Resident's failure to pay rent on the first day of a month constitutes a breach of this Lease Agreement.

17. ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATE: Within ten (10) days after written request is mailed to Resident, including in the event of the sale, financing or restructuring of ownership of the Property, Resident agrees to execute and deliver to Owner an estoppel certificate on the form submitted by Owner: (A) acknowledging whether this Lease Agreement has been modified and, if so, stating all the modifications; (B) stating the amount of the current rent Resident is paying and the amount Resident has paid as prepaid rent and security deposit; (C) stating whether or not Resident is then aware of any violation of law in the operation of the building, and/or has any claim against Owner; and (D) stating requests for other information relevant to Resident's occupancy of the Premises. Failure to comply shall be deemed Resident's acknowledgement that the certificate as submitted by Owner/Agent is true and correct and may be relied upon by any lender or purchaser.

18. SMOKE DETECTION DEVICE: The Premises are equipped with a functioning smoke detection device(s), and Resident shall be responsible for testing the device weekly and immediately reporting any problems, maintenance or need for repairs to Owner/Agent. If battery operated, Resident is responsible for changing the detector's battery as necessary. Owner/Agent shall have a right to enter the Premises to check and maintain the smoke detection device as provided by law.

19. NOTICE: Pursuant to Section 290.46 of the Penal Code, information about specified registered sex offenders is made available to the public via an Internet Web site maintained by the Department of Justice at www.meganslaw.ca.gov. Depending on an offender's criminal history, this information will include either the address at which the offender resides or the community of residence and ZIP Code in which he or she resides.

20. ADDENDA: By initialing as provided, Resident acknowledges receipt of the following applicable addenda, as indicated, copies of which are attached hereto, and are incorporated as part of this Lease Agreement. Please note that any Parking Agreement is a separate agreement and is not an addenda hereto.

- ☒ Asbestos Addendum
- ☒ Lead Paint Booklet

21. ENTIRE AGREEMENT: This Lease Agreement, which includes all attachments referred to above, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and cannot be modified except in writing and signed by all parties, except as permitted by applicable law. Neither Owner/Agent, nor any agent or employee of Owner/Agent has made any representations or promises other than those set forth herein. All determinations, consents and approvals by Owner/Agent in connection with this Lease shall be in its sole and absolute discretion.

22. CREDIT REPORTS: A negative credit report reflecting on your credit history may be submitted to a credit reporting agency if you fail to fulfill the terms of your credit obligations. Resident expressly authorizes Owner/Agent (including a collection agency) to obtain Resident's consumer credit report, which Owner/Agent may use if attempting to collect past due rent payments, late fees, or other charges from Resident, both during the term of the Lease Agreement and thereafter.

23. ATTORNEYS' FEES: If any legal action or proceeding is brought by either party to enforce any part of this Lease Agreement, each party's costs of said enforcement shall be the responsibilities of that respective party and no other party.

24. SATELLITE ANTENNA/DISHES: Resident shall not install, or permit any other person or entity to install, any kind of satellite dish or antenna on the Premises or anywhere on the Property.

25. ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS: From time to time during the term of this lease, any renewal, expansion or extension thereof or any month to month tenancy arising after the Termination Date, Resident may rent or purchase from Owner/Agent certain other services which are not included in Resident's rent. By way of example and without limitation, these services may include parking, cable television, concierge services, furniture rental and washer/dryer rental. Resident covenants and agrees to perform any and all of its obligations under any agreement executed in connection with those services (each an "Additional Agreement"), and acknowledges and agrees that a default by Resident under any Additional Agreement shall constitute a default under this Lease Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt and without limitation, a Parking Agreement constitutes an Additional Agreement.

26. RENT PAYMENT BY NON-TENANT: If Owner accepts rent from any person not a Resident, whether or not the person occupies the Premises, said acceptance: (A) shall not constitute a waiver or modification of Section 15 of this Lease Agreement, (B) shall not be used to establish said person's right to possession of the premises; and (C) shall be interpreted only as an accommodation to Resident.

27. RESPONSIBILITY/INDEMNIFICATION: The undersigned Resident is/are jointly and severally responsible and liable for all obligations under this Lease Agreement and shall indemnify Owner from any liability created by Resident's and/or Resident's guests' conduct. In addition, Resident shall indemnify and hold Owner free and harmless from any and all liability arising by reason of the death or injury of any person or damage to any property caused or allegedly caused by (A) some act or omission of Resident or any person in, on or about the Property with the permission of Resident; and (B) any matter connected with Resident's occupation and use of the Premises.

28. NO WAIVER DURING LITIGATION: In the event that Owner accepts rent from Resident while Owner and Resident are involved in litigated based on a 3 Day Notice to Pay Rent or Quit, acceptance of said rent by Owner shall not be considered a waiver by Owner of the default upon which the 3 Day Notice to Pay Rent or Quit was based. Rather, said rent payment shall be received by Owner in trust and shall be subject to jurisdiction of the court wherein said manner is pending. Owner shall be allowed to commingle said rent payment funds with Owner's regular funds as long as Owner keeps an accurate accounting of money received from Resident during litigation.

29. APPLICATION MISREPRESENTATION: Any material misrepresentation or omission made by Resident in Resident's rental application will constitute a material noncurable breach of this Lease Agreement.

30. LOCKING OF ENTRANCE DOORS: Owner reserves the right to close and keep locked all entrance and exit doors of the building during such hours as Owner may deem it advisable for the adequate protection of the Property and the personal property of Owner and Resident. It shall be a material breach of this Lease Agreement for any Resident to prop open any entrance or exit door.

31. LEAD DISCLOSURE: Many homes and apartments built before 1978 may have paint that contains lead (called lead-based paint). Lead from paint chips and dust can cause serious hazards if not taken care of properly. The law requires that Resident receive certain information before renting pre-1978 housing. By signing this Lease Agreement, Resident acknowledges that Owner has provided Resident with such information. Additionally, upon Resident's request, Owner will provide Resident with the EPA booklet entitled "Protect Your Family From Lead In Your Home." Any known lead-based paint or lead hazards at the Premises, if any, are hereby disclosed: _____.

32. WAIVER OF PUNITIVE DAMAGES:

(This paragraph is applicable only if initialed below by the parties.)

It is recognized that neither the Resident's nor the Owner's insurance company pays for an award of punitive damages. Thus, it is not possible for either party to insure against such a loss. Both parties feel it is in their best interest to mutually waive the right to collect punitive damages against the other and hereby elect to do so. Therefore, it is agreed that neither a judge nor a jury shall have the power or authority to award punitive or exemplary damages in any litigation between the parties, against either party. For purposes of establishing the enforceability of this waiver of punitive damages, the parties have elected to have federal law apply as a choice of law. Thus the legality of this waiver will be judged under federal law and not state or city laws. In the event that for any reason this mutual waiver of punitive damages is not upheld, then both parties agree that there should be a reasonable limit on the amount that either party shall recover against the other. Such limit shall be one (1) times the amount of actual damages awarded.

33. ATTORNEY'S ADVICE: Each of the parties hereto acknowledges that either (1) the terms of this Lease Agreement have been explained to them by their respective counsel and that they execute this Lease Agreement in reliance upon advice of their respective counsel, or (2) that they have been given the opportunity to consult an attorney and have decided not to do so; and warrant that they will not at a later time attempt to set this Lease Agreement aside because they were not represented by an attorney.

34. HEADINGS: The captions and headings used in this Lease Agreement are for convenience only and do not in any way limit, amplify or otherwise modify the provisions of this Lease Agreement.

The undersigned Resident(s) acknowledge(s) having read and understood the foregoing, and receipt of a duplicate original. Only may sign this Lease Agreement on behalf of Owner/Agent. If the signatory is not , this Lease Agreement is of no effect.

☒ This property may contain asbestos.

OR

❑ This property contains asbestos. This hazardous substance is contained in some of the original building materials and in some of the products and materials used to maintain the property. Disturbance or damage to certain interior apartment surfaces may increase the potential exposure to these substances.

1. Resident(s) or their guests, employees and contractors shall not take or permit any action which in any way damages or disturbs the ceiling in the Premises or any part thereof, including without limitation:
   (i) piercing the surface of the ceiling by drilling or any other method;
   (ii) hanging plants, mobiles, or other objects from the ceiling;
   (iii) attaching any fixtures to the ceiling;
   (iv) allowing any objects to come in contact with the ceiling;
   (v) permitting water or any liquid, other than ordinary steam condensation, to come into contact with the ceiling;
   (vi) painting, cleaning, or undertaking any repairs of any portion of the ceiling;
   (vii) replacing light fixtures;
   (viii) undertaking any activity which results in building vibration which may cause damage to the ceiling.
2. Resident(s) shall notify Owner and Agents immediately in writing: (i) if there is any damage to or deterioration of the ceiling in the Premises or any portion thereof, including without limitation flaking, loose, cracking, hanging or dislodged material, water leaks, or stains in the ceiling; or (ii) upon the occurrence of any of the events described in Paragraph 1 above.

CALIFORNIA'S PROPOSITION 65 WARNING

California's Proposition 65 (Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986) requires businesses with 10 or more employees to provide warnings prior to exposing individuals to chemicals known to the State to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm.

These types of chemicals are found within this establishment. This brochure provides you with information on what chemicals are present and what your exposures to them might be.

Warning

This Facility Contains Chemicals Known to the State of California To Cause Cancer and/or Birth Defects Or Other Reproductive Harm.

Second Hand Tobacco Smoke and Tobacco Products.

Tobacco products and tobacco smoke and its by-products contain many chemicals that are known to the State of California to cause cancer, and birth defects or other reproductive harm. Smoking is permitted in certain common and private areas.

Furnishings, Hardware, and Electrical Components.

Room furnishings and building materials contain formaldehyde, which is known to the State of California to cause cancer. Furniture, foams, brass keys, electrical power cords, carpeting, carpet padding, wall coverings, wood surfaces, and vinyl, contain a number of chemicals, including lead, and formaldehyde, known to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm. Their presence in these materials can lead to exposures. Certain molds that may be present contain chemicals, including sterigmatocystin, known to the State of California to cause cancer.

Combustion Sources.

Combustion sources such as gas stoves, fireplaces, and barbeques contain or produce a large number chemicals, including acetaldehyde, benzene and carbon monoxide, known to the State of California to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm which are found in the air of this complex. Any time organic matter such as gas, charcoal or wood is burned, Proposition 65-listed chemicals are released into the air.

Construction and Maintenance Materials.

Construction and maintenance materials contain Proposition 65-listed chemicals, such as roofing materials manufactured with vinyl chloride monomer, benzene and ceramic fibers, which are known to cause cancer, or birth defects or other reproductive harm. Construction materials used in walls, floors, ceilings and outside cladding contain chemicals, such as formaldehyde resin, asbestos, arsenic, cadmium and creosote, which are released as gases or vapors during normal degradation or deterioration, and as dust or particulate when disturbed during repairs, maintenance or renovation, all of which can lead to exposures.

Certain Products Used In Cleaning And Related Activities.

Certain cleaning products used for special cleaning purposes such as graffiti removal and spot and stain lifters contain chlorinated solvents including perchloroethylene and urinal odor cakes contain paradichlorobenzene which are Proposition 65-listed chemicals known to cause cancer or birth defects or other reproductive harm.

Swimming Pools and Hot Tubs.

The use and maintenance of a variety of recreational activities and facilities such as swimming pools and hot tubs where chlorine and bromine are used in the disinfecting process can cause exposures to chloroform and bromoform which are chemicals known to the State of California to cause cancer.

Paint and Painted Surfaces.

Certain paints and painted surfaces contain chemicals, such as lead and crystalline silica, that are known to the State of California to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm. Lead-based paint chips may be ingested and crystalline silica may be released into the air and lead to exposures.

Engine Related Exposures.

The operation and maintenance of engines, including automobiles, vans, maintenance vehicles, recreational vehicles, and other small internal combustion engines are associated with this residential rental facility. Motor vehicle rental fuels and engine exhaust contain many Proposition 65-listed chemicals, including benzene, carbon monoxide and, for diesel engines, diesel exhaust, which are known to the State to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm. In parking structures and garages, exhaust fumes can concentrate, increasing your exposure to these chemicals.

Pest Control and Landscaping.

Pests control and landscaping products used to control insects and weeds contain resmethrin, mycobutonil, triforine and arsenic trioxide which are known to the State to cause cancer and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm.

Sources of Chemical Exposures

California's Proposition 65 has identified hundreds of chemicals known to the State of California to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm. The law requires that businesses with 10 or more employees warn you prior to knowingly and intentionally exposing you to any of these chemicals when the exposure is over a certain level. While many exposures are associated with industrial activities and chemicals, everyday items and even the air we breathe routinely contain many of these chemicals. This brochure provides warning and information regarding exposures to these chemicals that occur in this facility. In many instances, we do not have information specific to this facility. Instead we have relied upon experts in this field to tell us where and to which chemicals these exposures might occur. For other exposures to listed chemicals, enough is known to identify specific areas of exposure.

The regulations implementing Proposition 65 offer warnings for various circumstances. Some of those warnings you may see in this residential rental property include the following:

General - Warning: This Facility Contains Chemicals Known to the State of California To Cause Cancer, And Birth Defects Or Other Reproductive Harm.

Foods and Beverages - Warning: Chemicals Known To The State of California To Cause Cancer, Or Birth Defects Or Other Reproductive Harm May Be Present In Foods Or Beverages Sold Or Served Here.

Alcohol - Warning: Drinking Distilled Spirits, Beer, Coolers, Wine, And Other Alcoholic Beverages May Increase Cancer Risk, And, During Pregnancy, Can Cause Birth Defects.

TARGET HOUSING RENTAL AGREEMENT/LEASE ADDENDUM
DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION ON
LEAD-BASED PAINT AND LEAD-BASED PAINT HAZARDS

Resident is renting from Owner/Agent the premises located at: 201 E. O'Keefe Street #108, East Palo Alto, CA 94303.

Lead Warning Statement

Housing built before 1978 may contain lead-based paint. Lead from paint, paint chips, and dust can pose health hazards if not taken care of properly. Lead exposure is especially harmful to young children and pregnant women. Before renting pre-1978 housing, landlords must disclose the presence of known lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards in the dwelling. Lessees must also receive a Federally approved pamphlet on lead poisoning prevention. NOTE: The existence of lead on the rental property is not, by itself, cause for termination of the tenancy. (Public Law 102-550 sec. 1018(c))

Lessor's Disclosure

(a) Presence of lead-based paint or lead-based paint hazards:

- ☒ Lessor has no knowledge of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing.
- ☐ Known lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards are present in the housing.

(b) Records and reports available to the Lessor:

- ☒ Lessor has no reports or records pertaining to lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing.
- ☐ Lessor has provided the Resident with all available records and reports pertaining to lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing.

Agent's* Acknowledgment (initial)

(c) _____ Agent has informed the Lessor of his/her obligations under 42 U.S.C. 4852(d), and the Agent is aware of his/her responsibility to ensure compliance.

* The term Agent is defined as any party who enters into a contract with the Lessor, including anyone who enters into a contract with a representative of the Lessor for the purpose of leasing housing. An on-site resident manager may act as the Agent if authorized to do so by either the Lessor or the property management company.

Lessee's Acknowledgment (initial)

(d) _____ _____ Lessee has received copies of all information listed above.

(e) _____ _____ Lessee has received the pamphlet Protect Your Family from Lead in Your Home.

Certification of Accuracy

According to state law:

Any security shall be held by the landlord for the tenant who is party to the lease or agreement. The claim of a tenant to the security shall be prior to the claim of any creditor for the landlord. (Civil Code Section 1950.5(d))

According to Civil Code Section 1950.5(b), the security deposit may be used by the owner for any purpose, including, but not limited to, any of the following:

(1) The compensation of a landlord for a tenant's default in the payment of rent.
(2) The repair of damages to the premises, exclusive of ordinary wear and tear caused by the tenant or by a guest or licensee of the tenant.
(3) The cleaning of the premises upon termination of the tenancy necessary to return the unit to the same level of cleanliness it was in at the inception of the tenancy. The amendments to this paragraph enacted by the act adding this sentence shall apply only to tenancies for which the tenant's right to occupy begins after January 1, 2003. (Amendment underlined)
(4) To remedy future defaults by the tenant in any obligation under this rental agreement to restore, replace, or return personal property or appurtenances, exclusive of wear and tear, if the security deposit is authorized to be applied thereto by the rental agreement.

From the time of the initial inspection until the termination of the tenancy, the tenant may remedy the deficiencies identified in the initial inspection, in a manner consistent with the rights and obligations of the parties under the rental agreement, in order to avoid deductions from the security deposit.

The law allows the Owner/Agent to use the security deposit for legal deductions itemized in this statement that are not corrected by the Resident prior to the termination of the tenancy or that were not identified due to the presence of the Resident's possessions during the time of the initial inspection. It also allows Owner/Agent to use the security deposit to correct any damages that occur to the unit/property between the time of the initial inspection and the termination of the tenancy.

A final itemized statement will be sent to you within 3 weeks of the termination of your tenancy.

PARKING AGREEMENT

THIS PARKING AGREEMENT is made and entered into this 1st day of May, 2010 between 201 Okeefe, LLC ("Owner"), whose address and phone number are 2041 Euclid ave, East Palo Alto, CA 94303, (650) 566-2030, and Jose A. De La Torre and Rocio Rios ("Permit Holder").

THE PARTIES AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

1. LOCATION. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Parking Agreement, Permit Holder agrees to purchase, and Owner agrees to sell to Permit Holder, zero (0) monthly parking permits (the "Parking Permits") for use at the property located at 201 E. O'Keefe Street, East Palo Alto, California 94303 (the "Property").

2. MONTHLY FEE. Permit Holder shall pay $25.00 per month per Parking Permit (the "Permit Fee"). Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that this amount may be increased from time to time to reflect Owner's then-current rate for parking spaces charged by the Owner to new residents at Owner's apartment buildings or at any other rate in Owner's sole and absolute discretion.
   (a) Payment will be due in advance on or before the 1st of every month. If the Permit Fee is paid after the 5th of the month, there will be a late charge of $10.00 assessed for such late payment. There is no grace period with respect to the application of such late charge. The parties have deemed the foregoing late charge to be a reasonable estimate of the amount of damages suffered by Owner by reason of Permit Holder's late payment of rent, as it would be impracticable or extremely difficult to determine the actual damages suffered by Owner in the event of such a late payment.
   (b) Pursuant to California law, if Permit Holder passes a check on insufficient funds, Permit Holder will be liable to Owner for the amount of the check and a service charge of $25.00 for the first check passed on insufficient funds, and $35.00 for each subsequent check passed on insufficient funds.

3. PERMIT AND DESIGNATED PARKING SPACE. The Permit Holder must obtain one (1) Parking Permit for each vehicle the Permit Holder will park on the Property. The Parking Permit must be prominently displayed in the back window of the vehicle at all times. The vehicle may only be parked in its designated parking space (as indicated in the "Vehicle Information" section of this Parking Agreement). The Parking Permits are valid only for the vehicle's assigned space and only for current residents of the Property who are party to a valid apartment lease and not in default thereunder.

4. NON-RESIDENT PARKING. Subject to availability, unassigned guest parking may be provided at the Property for non-resident guests on a "first come, first served" basis. Unassigned guest parking spaces may be assigned to current tenants of the Property at any time and at Owner's sole and absolute discretion. Guest use of parking facilities is in accordance with the Property's Parking Rules and Regulations (as the same may be amended or modified from time to time in Owner's sole and absolute discretion, the "Parking Rules"). The maximum allowable duration for visitor parking is three (3) days.

5. TERMS AND CONDITIONS. Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that:
   (a) Resident's use of the Parking Permit and parking facilities is in accordance with the Parking Rules.
   (b) The term and amount of all Parking Permits may vary. The Parking Holder may or may not have any or all of its Parking Permits for the duration of the "Lease" (as defined below), nor may Permit Holder have all its Parking Permits for the same duration.
   (c) The parking provided herein is not a service under that certain Lease Agreement between Owner and Permit Holder with respect to the Property (the "Lease").
   (d) Parking Permits may be cancelled at any time, in Owner's sole and absolute discretion, upon thirty (30) days' notice by Owner.
   (e) Parking Permits shall remain the property of the Owner. Parking Permits must be displayed as set forth herein and may not be mutilated in any manner. The serial number, if any, of the Parking Permit may not be obliterated. Parking Permits are not transferable and any Parking Permit in the possession of an unauthorized holder will be void. If a Parking Permit is lost or otherwise must be replaced, Permit Holder must pay a replacement charge of $20.00 for each replacement Parking Permit.

6. DEFAULT AND FAILURE TO ADHERE TO CONDITIONS. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, a default under the Lease shall constitute a default under this Parking Agreement. Further, Permit Holder's failure to adhere to the terms, conditions and provisions of the Parking Agreement and the terms and conditions of the Parking Rules may result in Owner or its agent taking one or more of the following actions:
   (a) Towing of the vehicle without warning and at the vehicle owner's or Permit Holder's risk and expense;
   (b) The temporary suspension of Permit Holder's or its guest's parking privileges with no refund;

(c) Permanent revocation of the Parking Permit with no refund; or

(d) Permanent loss of all of Permit Holder's or its guest's parking privileges.

Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that Owner shall be in no way responsible for loss, theft or damage to any vehicle or other property due to collision, theft, burglary, vandalism, crime or otherwise caused by Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees, any vehicle operated or parked by Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees pursuant to or in violation of this Parking Agreement, any personal property left in such vehicle, or otherwise with respect to Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees. Permit Holder agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Owner with respect to any claim arising from such loss or damage.

Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that Permit Holder has been granted a license to park on the Property and that no bailment relationship between Owner and Permit Holder has been or will be created. Permit Holder is required to park and lock Permit Holder's vehicle, and must retain the vehicle's keys. In no event shall Owner or its agents be deemed to have acquired any dominion over the vehicle or any right to control the vehicle's removal (except for purposes of towing vehicles following a violation of the Parking Rules or the Permit Holder's Parking Agreement).

Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that there is no attendant at the parking lot and that Permit Holder parks the vehicle at the Property at Permit Holder's sole risk.

ADDENDUM:
PARKING RULES AND REGULATIONS

The following rules and regulations shall govern use of the parking facilities for the Property. Any vehicle found to be in violation of these rules will be towed at the vehicle owner's expense, without notice.

1. No vehicle may be parked in the fire lane and/or red zones.
2. No vehicle may be parked in a disabled-access space without a valid and prominently displayed disabled parking permit or placard issued by the State of California.
3. No vehicle may be parked without a valid monthly parking permit sticker (the "Parking Permit") properly displayed. Each Parking Permit is valid only for the vehicle's assigned space and only for current residents of the Property who are party to a valid apartment lease and not in default thereunder.
4. All vehicles must be currently registered to the holder of the Parking Permit (the "Permit Holder") (or validly leased by the Permit Holder) and in good working order. Vehicles must not drop excessive oil or fluids on the ground, present a health or safety hazard, or cause damage or the risk of damage to any part of the Property. Inoperable, dismantled or partially dismantled, or unregistered vehicles are subject to tow under California Vehicle Code §22658 and any applicable local laws and/or ordinances.
5. No vehicle washing, waxing, cleaning or servicing is permitted on the Property.
6. Permit Holder may not perform or have performed any mechanical work or vehicle repairs on any vehicle in the parking area including, without limitation, changing oil.
7. Vehicles must be parked in only their designated parking space, entirely within the painted stall lines and head-in. No back-in parking is permitted.
8. The Property owner ("Owner") is not responsible if the vehicle is impounded.
9. Owner reserves the right to refuse the sale of Parking Permits or other parking identification devices to any tenant or person and/or his agents or representatives who willfully refuse to comply with these Parking Rules or any applicable city, state or federal ordinances, laws or agreements, whether posted or unposted.
10. Loss or theft of Parking Permits or other parking identification devices from vehicles must be reported immediately to Owner. Owner has the right to exclude any vehicle from the parking facilities that does not have an identification device. Any Parking Permit or other parking identification devices reported lost or stolen found on any unauthorized vehicle will be confiscated and the illegal holder will be subject to prosecution.
11. All directional signs and arrows must be observed.
12. The speed limit within all parking areas shall be 5 miles per hour.
13. Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that Owner shall be in no way responsible for loss, theft or damage to any vehicle or other property due to collision, theft, burglary, vandalism, crime or otherwise caused by Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees, any vehicle operated or parked by Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees pursuant to or in violation of this Parking Agreement, any personal property left in such vehicle, or otherwise with respect to Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees. Permit Holder agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Owner with respect to any claim arising from such loss or damage.
14. Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that Permit Holder has been granted a license to park on the Property and that no bailment relationship between Owner and Permit Holder has been or will be created. Permit Holder is required to park and lock Permit Holder's vehicle, and must retain the vehicle's keys. In no event shall Owner or its agents be deemed to have acquired any dominion over the vehicle or any right to control the vehicle's removal (except for purposes of towing vehicles following a violation of the Parking Rules or the Permit Holder's Parking Agreement).
15. Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that there is no attendant at the parking lot and that Permit Holder parks the vehicle at the Property at Permit Holder's sole risk.
16. Owner reserves the right to modify and/or adopt such other reasonable rules and regulations for the parking facilities as it deems necessary for the operation of the parking facilities. Owner reserves the right at any time to grant similar reserved and/or non-exclusive use to other tenants at the Property, to promulgate additional rules and regulations relating to the use of such parking areas, including reasonable restrictions on parking by tenants and guests, and to make changes in parking layout from time to time.

PEST CONTROL NOTICE ADDENDUM

This document is an Addendum and is part of the Rental/Lease Agreement, dated April 30, 2010 between 201 Okeefe, LLC (Owner/Agent) and Jose A. De La Torre and Rocio Rios, (Resident) for the premises located at 201 E. O'Keefe Street #108, East Palo Alto, CA 94303.

California law requires that an Owner/Agent of a residential dwelling unit provide each new tenant a copy of the notice provided by a registered pest control company if a contract for periodic pest control service has been executed.

The premises you are renting, or the common areas of the building are covered by such a contract for regular pest control service, so you are being notified pursuant to the law. The notice provided by the pest control company is attached to this Acknowledgment.

The undersigned Resident(s) acknowledge(s) having read and understood the foregoing and the referenced attachment. Only may sign this Lease Agreement on behalf of Owner/Agent. If the signatory is not , this Lease Agreement is of no effect.

PROPOSITION 65 WARNING AND Q & A ADDENDUM TO RENTAL AGREEMENT/LEASE AGREEMENT

WARNING:
This Property Contains Chemicals Known To The State of California To Cause Cancer and Birth Defects or Other Reproductive Harm.

Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment
Proposition 65 in Plain Language

What Is Proposition 65?

In November 1986, California voters overwhelmingly approved an initiative to address growing concerns about exposures to toxic chemicals. That initiative became The Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986, better known by its original name.

What does Proposition 65 Require?

Proposition 65 requires the Governor to publish a list of chemicals that are known to the State of California to cause cancer, birth defects or other reproductive harm. Agents that cause cancer are called carcinogens; those that cause birth defects or other reproductive harm are called reproductive toxicants. This list must be updated at least once a year. Over 700 chemicals have been listed as of March 10, 2000.

Proposition 65 imposes certain controls that apply to chemicals that appear on this list. These controls are designed to protect California's drinking water sources from contamination by these chemicals, to allow California consumers to make informed choices about the products they purchase, and to enable residents or workers to take whatever action they deem appropriate to protect themselves from exposures to these harmful chemicals.

Thus, Proposition 65 also provides a market-based incentive for manufacturers to remove listed chemicals from their products.

The benefits of the Proposition have their costs. Businesses have incurred expenses to test products, develop alternatives, reduce discharges, provide warnings and otherwise comply with the requirements of the Proposition. Recognizing that compliance with the Proposition comes at a price, Cal/EPA and the Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment (the lead agency for Proposition 65 implementation) have worked hard to minimize any unnecessary regulatory burdens and ensure that placement of a chemical on the list is done in accordance with rigorous science in an open public process.

What kinds of chemicals are on the list?

The list contains a wide range of chemicals, including dyes, solvents, pesticides, drugs, food additives, and byproducts of certain processes. These chemicals may be naturally occurring, or synthetic. Some of them are ingredients of common household products, others are specialty chemicals used in very specific industrial applications.

How does a chemical get listed?

The State of California relies upon information that already exists in the scientific literature when determining the threat of a chemical. A chemical is listed if the "state's qualified experts" two independent committees of scientists and health professionals appointed by the Governor find that the chemical has been clearly shown to cause cancer or birth defects or other reproductive harm.

In addition, a chemical can be listed if it has been classified as a carcinogen or as a reproductive toxicant by an organization that has been designated as "authoritative" for purposes of Proposition 65. For carcinogens, the organizations that have been designated as authoritative by OEHHA Science Advisory Board's Carcinogen Identification Committee (oehha.gov) are the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, U.S. Food and Drug Administration, National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health, the National Toxicology Program and the International Agency for Research on Cancer. The OEHHA Science Advisory Board's Developmental and Reproductive Toxicant Identification Committee have designated the following organizations as "authoritative bodies" for reproductive toxicants: the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, U.S. Food and Drug Administration, National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health and International Agency for Research on Cancer (limited only to transplacental carcinogenicity). A chemical can also be listed if it is required to be labeled or identified as a carcinogen or as a reproductive toxicant by an agency of the state or federal government.

Any company with ten or more employees that operates within the State or sells products in California must comply with the requirements of Proposition 65. Under Proposition 65, businesses are: 1) prohibited from knowingly discharging listed chemicals into sources of drinking water; and 2) required to provide a "clear and reasonable" warning before knowingly and intentionally exposing anyone to a listed chemical. This warning can be given by a variety of means, such as by labeling a consumer product, by posting signs at the workplace, or by publishing notices in a newspaper.

What Does A Warning Mean?

If you are given a warning or if a warning is posted in a workplace, a facility or an area in your community, this means that the business issuing the warning knows that one or more listed chemicals is present in its product, in its workplace, or in its emissions into the environment. Under the law, a warning must be given unless a business demonstrates that the exposure it causes poses no significant risk.

For a chemical that is listed as a carcinogen, the "no significant risk" level is defined as the level which is calculated to result in not more than one excess case of cancer in 100,000 individuals exposed over a Goodyear lifetime. In other words, if you are exposed to the chemical in question at this level every day for 70 years, theoretically it will increase your chances of getting cancer by no more than 1 case in 100,000 individuals so exposed.

For chemicals that are on the list as reproductive toxicants, the no significant risk level is defined as the level of exposure which, even if multiplied by 1,000, will not produce birth defects or other reproductive harm. That is, the level of exposure is below the observable effect level (NOEL), divided by 1,000. (The "no observable effect level" is the highest dose level which has not been associated with an observable reproductive harm in humans or test animals.)

When a warning is given by a business, it means one of two things: (1) the business has evaluated the exposure and has concluded that it exceeds the no significant risk level; or (2) the business has chosen to provide a warning simply based on its knowledge about the presence of a listed chemical, without attempting to evaluate the exposure. In these cases, exposure could be below the Proposition 65 level of concern, or could even be zero.

Since businesses do not file reports with the State regarding what warnings they have issued and why, the State is not able to provide further information about any particular warning which you may have received. The business issuing the warning is the appropriate party to contact if you seek more specific information about the warning, such as what chemicals are involved, in what manner these chemicals are present, and how exposures to those chemicals may or may not occur.

What has been accomplished as a result of Proposition 65?

Proposition 65 has provided an effective mechanism for reducing certain exposures that may not have been adequately controlled under existing federal or State laws. For example, a Proposition 65 enforcement action has resulted in the reduction of the amount of lead in ceramic tableware. Air emissions of certain chemicals including ethylene oxide, hexavalent chromium, and chloroform from facilities in California have been significantly reduced as a result of Proposition 65.

Certain chemicals on the list are no longer used as constituents of some commonly used products for example, trichloroethylene is no longer used in most correction fluids, toluene has been removed from many nail care products, and foil caps on wine bottles no longer contain lead.

Proposition 65 has resulted in the extensive dissemination of important information regarding the dangers to the unborn child of drinking alcoholic beverages during pregnancy. The warnings about alcoholic beverage consumption during pregnancy are perhaps the most widespread and visible type of warning issued as a result of Proposition 65.

REPAIRS AND REPLACEMENTS

Addendum to the Lease Agreement

During your tenancy, if the items below are not maintained in a satisfactory condition or working order, the following charges will be made. You will be responsible for these charges and billed directly. These bills are payable upon receipt. If the damages are discovered during the course of your move out inspection, the charges will be deducted from your security deposit.

If any items are missing or damaged to the point that they must be replaced when you move out, you will be charged the current cost of the item, plus labor and service charges.

You will be charged the list amount for each instance the item must be cleaned, repaired or replaced. Multiple charges will be made where appropriate. The prices given for the items listed below are average prices. If we incur a higher cost for repairing or replacing the item, you will be responsible for the higher cost.

Please be aware that this is not an all-inclusive list: you can be charged for cleaning, repairing or replacement items that are not on the list.

RESIDENT POLICIES AND "HOUSE RULES" ADDENDUM

I. GENERAL

1. This document is an Addendum and is part of the Rental/Lease Agreement, dated April 30, 2010 between 201 Okeefe, LLC (Owner/Agent) and Jose A. De La Torre and Rocio Rios, (Resident) for the premises at 201 E. O'Keefe Street #108, East Palo Alto, CA 94303.
2. New policies and rules or amendments to this document may be adopted by Owner/Agent upon giving 30 days' notice in writing to Resident.
3. Guests who stay more than 14 days in a year period may constitute a breach of the Rental/Lease Agreement. At the discretion of the Owner/Agent, guests may be required to go through the application process and, if approved, must sign a Rental/Lease Agreement.
4. Residents who lock themselves out of their units may be assessed a charge for the actual costs, including out of pocket expenses, incurred by the Owner/Agent.

II. NOISE AND CONDUCT

1. Residents and their guests shall not make or allow any excessive noise in the unit nor permit any actions which will interfere with the rights, comforts or conveniences of other persons.
2. Residents and their guests shall refrain from playing musical instruments, television sets, stereos, radios, and other devices at a volume which will disturb other persons.
3. Residents and their guests shall refrain, and shall ensure that Resident's guests likewise refrain, from activities and conduct outside of the unit (in common areas, parking areas, or recreation facilities) which are likely to annoy or disturb other persons.
4. Resident and their guests shall refrain from creating, or allowing to be created, any noise that is disturbing to other Residents between the hours of 10 pm and 8 am.

III. CLEANLINESS AND TRASH

1. Resident shall keep the unit clean, sanitary and free from objectionable odors at all times.
2. Resident shall ensure that papers, cigarette butts and trash are placed in appropriate receptacles so that litter is not created on or about Resident's unit.
3. Resident shall ensure that trash and other materials are not permitted to accumulate so as to cause a hazard or be in violation of any health, fire or safety ordinance or regulation.
4. Resident shall ensure that garbage is not permitted to accumulate and that it is placed on a daily basis in the trash containers provided for that purpose. Resident shall ensure that large boxes are broken apart before being placed in the trash containers. Resident shall be responsible, at Resident's expense, for hauling to the dump those items too large to fit in the trash containers.
5. Resident shall ensure that furniture is kept inside the unit and that unsightly items are kept out of view.
6. Resident shall refrain from leaving articles in the hallways or other common areas.
7. Resident shall refrain from shaking or hanging clothing, curtains, rugs, and other coverings and cloths outside of any window, ledge, or balcony.
8. Resident shall refrain from disposing of any combustible or hazardous material in trash containers or bins.

IV. SAFETY/SECURITY

1. Security is the responsibility of each Resident and each guest. Owner/Agent assumes no responsibility or liability, unless otherwise provided by law, for Resident's and guests' safety and security, or for injury or damage caused by the criminal acts of other persons.
2. Resident should ensure that all doors are locked during Resident's absence. Resident must notify Owner/Agent if locks become inoperable.
3. Resident should ensure that all appliances are turned off before departing from the premises.

4. When leaving for an extended period, Resident should notify Owner/Agent how long Resident will be away.
5. Prior to any planned absence from the unit, Resident shall give Owner/Agent authority to allow entry to the unit to any person or provide Owner/Agent with the name of any person or entity permitted by Resident to enter the unit.
6. Resident shall refrain from smoking in bed.
7. Resident shall refrain from using or storing gasoline, cleaning solvent or other combustibles in the unit.
8. Resident shall ensure that no personal belongings, including bicycles, play equipment or other items shall be left unattended in the halls, stairways or about the building.

V. MAINTENANCE, REPAIRS AND ALTERATIONS

1. Resident shall advise Owner/Agent of any items requiring repair, such as light switches or dripping faucets. Resident shall make repair requests as soon after the defect is noted as is practical.
2. Resident shall refrain from making service requests directly to maintenance personnel unless Resident is directed to do so by Owner/Agent.
3. Resident shall refrain from making any alterations or improvements to the unit without the consent of Owner/Agent. Resident shall refrain from using adhesives, glue or tape to affix pictures or decorations.
4. Resident shall refrain from using aluminum foil as a window covering and shall obtain the approval of Owner/Agent before using any window covering visible from the exterior of the building.
5. Costs of repair or clearance of stoppages in waste pipes or drains, water pipes or plumbing fixtures caused by Resident's negligence or improper usage are the responsibility of the Resident. Payment for corrective action must be paid by Resident on demand.

VI. PARKING

1. Number of parking spaces assigned to Resident's unit _____ . Only one vehicle may be parked in each space.
2. Resident shall only use assigned parking spaces and shall ensure that guests park only in unassigned areas or designated guest parking areas. Resident shall ensure that posted and designated fire zones or "No Parking" areas remain clear of vehicles at all times. Resident shall refrain from parking in unauthorized areas or in another resident's designated parking space. (Vehicles parked in unauthorized areas or in another Resident's space may be towed away at the vehicle owner's expense.)
3. Only currently registered vehicles may be parked on the property. A vehicle that lacks an engine, transmission, wheels, tires, doors, windshield, or any other major part or equipment necessary to operate saftely on the highways, is subject to tow under California Vehicle Code 22658. Vehicles parked in violation of local laws/ordinance are subject to tow.

The undersigned Resident(s) ackowledge(s) having read and understood the foregoing.

Opposition to Petition

Woodland Park opposes this petition for rent reduction and rebate. Woodland Park maintains the premises in a good and habitable condition. Each time that Petitioner notified Respondent of a problem in the premises, Respondent addressed that problem in a timely fashion. For problems that Petitioner did not reasonably notify Respondent and give Respondent an opportunity to correct, no rent rebate is available. Petitioner bears the burden of proof to demonstrate the landlord was provided with reasonable notice and an opportunity to correct the conditions, and yet failed to do so. Petitioner has not met this burden. Respondent has responded to and corrected in a timely fashion the problems identified by Petitioner, except to the extent and when Petitioner has prevented Respondent from providing requested services.

Woodland Park has also charged rent as allowed by the Rent Stabilization Ordinance, and at no time has exceeded the Maximum Allowable Rent. There has not been any rent ceiling violation. No rent rebate is appropriate.

Opposition to Petition

Woodland Park opposes this petition for rent reduction and rebate. Woodland Park maintains the premises in a good and habitable condition. Each time that Petitioner notified Respondent of a problem in the premises, Respondent addressed that problem in a timely fashion. For problems that Petitioner did not reasonably notify Respondent and give Respondent an opportunity to correct, no rent rebate is available. Petitioner bears the burden of proof to demonstrate the landlord was provided with reasonable notice and an opportunity to correct the conditions, and yet failed to do so. Petitioner has not met this burden. Respondent has responded to and corrected in a timely fashion the problems identified by Petitioner, except to the extent and when Petitioner has prevented Respondent from providing requested services.

Woodland Park has also charged rent as allowed by the Rent Stabilization Ordinance, and at no time has exceeded the Maximum Allowable Rent. There has not been any rent ceiling violation. No rent rebate is appropriate.

LEASE AGREEMENT

THIS LEASE AGREEMENT is made and entered into September 1, 2009 between 201 Okeefe, LLC "Owner/Agent", whose address and phone number are 2041 Euclid ave, East Palo Alto, CA 94303 (650) 494-3400, and Adelina Garcia, "Resident."

THE PARTIES AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

1. PREMISES: Subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease Agreement, Owner rents to Resident and Resident rents from Owner, for residential use only, the premises ("Premises") located at 201 E. O'Keefe Street #204, East Palo Alto, CA 94303, The term "Property" in this Lease Agreement shall mean all the land, building(s) and common areas owned by Owner/Agent upon which the Rental Unit is located.

2. RENT AND UTILITIES: Rent is due on or before the 1st day of each and every month, whether or not the first day of the month falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, at $1,050.00 per month, beginning on September 1, 2009, payable at 2041 Euclid ave, East Palo Alto, CA 94303. Payments made in person may be delivered to Owner/Agent 9am and 5pm Monday through Friday. On weekends and holidays, payment may be placed at the drop box at: _____ . Acceptable methods of payment: ☒ Personal Check ☒ Cashier's Check ☒ Money Order ☒ EFT/Credit (see Owner/Agent for details) and ☐ Cash.

   (a) If in any month rent is paid after the 1st of the month, there will be a late charge of $100.00 assessed for such late payment if payment is not received in full of all charges prior to the 5th day of that month. The parties have deemed the foregoing late charge to be a reasonable estimate of the amount of damages suffered by Owner/Agent by reason of Resident's late payment of rent, as it would be impracticable or extremely difficult to determine the actual damages suffered by Owner/Agent in the event of such a late payment.

   (b) Pursuant to California law, if Resident passes a check on insufficient funds, Resident will be liable to Owner/Agent for the amount of the check and a service charge of $25.00, for the first check passed on insufficient funds, and $35.00 for each subsequent check passed on insufficient funds.

   (c) If Resident has previously attempted to pay Owner/Agent with a check drawn on insufficient funds or if Resident has instructed the drawee to stop payment on a check, draft, or order for the payment of money, Resident shall thereafter be required to use money orders or certified funds as the exclusive form of payment of rent or deposit of security.

   (d) Resident is responsible for delivering the rent on time. Failure of the U.S. Post Office or private carrier to deliver the rent on time will not result in a waiver of the breach of lease provisions contained herein.

   (e) UTILITIES: Resident shall pay for all utilities, services and other charges as set forth in Section 5 of this Lease Agreement and by the due date set forth in Section 5(e) of this Lease Agreement.

   (f) PARKING: Resident acknowledges and agrees that parking is not provided for under this Lease Agreement and is not included in Resident's rent. Should Resident desire to purchase a monthly parking permit for one or more vehicles from Owner (subject to availability thereof and with the express understanding there is no assurance that parking will be available), Resident must enter into a separate agreement (the "Parking Agreement") which will govern the purchase of the parking permit(s). While a Parking Agreement does not constitute a part of this Lease Agreement, a default under a Parking Agreement shall constitute a default under this Lease Agreement.

   (g) RENT CONTROL: If the Property is subject to rent control, Resident shall pay monthly its share of the then-current rent stabilization fee.

3. SECURITY DEPOSIT: Resident shall deposit with Owner/Agent, as a security deposit, the sum of $600.00 prior to taking possession of the unit, which sum shall not exceed the maximum permitted by California Civil Code Section 1950.5. During the term of tenancy, Resident agrees to replenish the security deposit upon three (3) days written notice, by an amount equal to the amount deducted by Owner, in Owner's sole and absolute discretion, to cover the cost of rectifying any damage and paying any expense for which Tenant is responsible. Resident shall not use the security deposit to pay any month's rent, nor shall it constitute a measure of Owner's damages in the event of Resident's default. The security deposit shall be applied and accounted for in accordance with California Civil Code Section 1950.5 and any other applicable statutes.

4. TERM: The term of this Lease Agreement is for 1 year, beginning on September 1, 2009 (the "Commencement Date") and ending on August 31, 2010 (the "Termination Date"), at which time this Lease Agreement will automatically renew month-to-month unless either party gives at least 30 days written notice of termination or intent not to renew the Lease Agreement prior to the expiration of this agreement. Any holding over by Resident after the Termination Date shall result in Resident being liable to Owner/Agent for daily rental damages equal to the current market value of the unit, divided by 30. A "month-to-month" tenancy subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease Agreement shall be created only if Owner/Agent accepts rent from Resident thereafter, and if so accepted, Resident may terminate the tenancy by serving by Owner/Agent with a written 30-day Notice of Termination. Except as prohibited by law, Owner/Agent may terminate the month-to-month tenancy by serving Resident with a 30-day Notice of Termination (pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1946.1) if Resident has resided in the Premises for less than one year, or a 60-day Notice of Termination, if Resident has resided in the Premises for one year or more.

5. UTILITIES: Resident's monthly rent does not include any charges for the monthly utilities services provided to Resident, including, without limitation, sewer, water, trash, gas or electric services. Resident shall pay all monthly utilities charges pursuant to the terms of this Section 5.

   (a) SEWER, WATER AND TRASH SERVICES: Resident shall pay a flat monthly utilities charge for sewer, water and trash services (in addition to any charges for gas and electric services, as set forth in Section 5(b) below). The flat rate shall initially be $25.00 per month, but may be increased from time to time to reflect increases in costs for sewer, water and trash services. Further, the Premises may subsequently be separately metered (or Resident otherwise directly billed) for such services (in accordance with provisions substantively equivalent to the provisions of Sections 5(b)(2) and 5(b)(3), respectively, hereof), in which case Resident shall not be obligated to pay the flat rate, but must instead pay the amount billed for such services. Provided, however, if water services are separately metered, Resident must pay both the amount billed for water service and the flat rate. Resident shall immediately notify Owner of any water leak.

   (b) GAS AND ELECTRIC SERVICES: The monthly utilities charge for gas and electric services shall be calculated, billed and paid in accordance with this Section 5(b).

   (1) No Meter: Flat Rate: If the Premises is not separately metered for gas or electric services, Resident shall pay a flat monthly utilities charge for gas and electricity (in addition to any charges for sewer, water and trash services, as set forth in above). The flat rate shall initially be $0.00 per month if the Premises is not separately metered for either gas or electric services, or $0.00 per month if the Premises is separately metered for either gas or electric services, but not both. This flat rate may be increased from time to time to reflect increases in costs for gas and electric services. Further, the Premises may subsequently be separately metered for gas and/or electric services, in which case Resident shall pay the amount billed for such services (as set forth in Sections 5(b)(2) and 5(b)(3), below).

   (2) Separate Meter: Direct Billing by Utility Provider: If Resident is directly billed for gas or electricity services, Resident shall pay the entire amount due each month (as indicated on the utilities bill) to the utilities provider at the address set forth in the utilities bill. Resident acknowledges that failure to do so shall constitute a default under this Lease Agreement. Resident must transfer any directly billed service into their name before the Commencement Date. If Resident is directly billed for either gas or electricity services (but not both), Resident shall pay, in addition to the amount set forth on the utilities bill, the flat rate set forth in Section 5(b)(1) above for the utility service which is not separately metered. If Resident is directly billed for both gas and electricity services, Resident shall not be obligated to pay the flat rate set forth in Section 5(b)(1), but must pay the entire amount due each month to the utilities provider(s).

   (3) Separate Meter: Submetering: If separate gas or electricity submeters are installed and placed in operation at the Premises, at any time before or after the date of this Lease Agreement, Resident shall pay its proportionate share of the total monthly charges for gas and electric services, which will be calculated as set forth in this Section 5(b)(3). If either a gas or an electricity submeter is installed and placed in operation at the Premises (but not both), Resident shall pay, in addition to its proportionate share of the submetered utility service, the flat rate set forth in Section 5(b)(1) above for the utility service which is not submetered. If both gas and electricity submeters are installed and placed in operation at the Premises, Resident shall not be obligated to pay the flat rate set forth in Section 5(b)(1), but must pay its proportionate share of the submetered utility services.

      (i) Resident's monthly utility bill shall be based on actual readings as recorded by the energy allocation equipment and submeter for the Premises. Utilities shall be calculated at the average rate per therm or ccf (for gas utility services) or per kwh (for electricity services) at the time of consumption. Utilities shall be calculated as follows: the master metered utility provider's total monthly charges for utility service (less Premises base charges or customer service charges if applicable), divided by the total monthly consumption of that utility measured by the utility provider, multiplied by the Resident's total monthly consumption as recorded by the energy allocation equipment and submeter for the Premises.

      (ii) If any utility provider's rate structure includes a base charge, Resident shall be billed, and shall be responsible for paying, the base charge applicable to that Premises. If the utility provider's rate structure includes customer service charge(s), Resident shall be billed, and shall be responsible for paying, the amount of the customer service charge(s) divided by the total number of apartments, including vacant units, that can receive service through the master meter serving the Property. Resident hereby agrees to pay the monthly service charges or other administrative fees shown on the Resident's utility bill.

      (iii) Resident may receive an estimated utilities bill if a submeter becomes inoperative until repairs can be made, and Resident acknowledges that estimated utilities will be reconciled on future billings. Resident acknowledges that if, upon correction of an estimated utilities bill, the previous bill(s) overstated charges, Resident shall be entitled to an account credit reflecting the overstated charges and if, upon correction of an estimated utilities bill, the previous bill(s) understated charges, Resident shall be responsible for paying the amount of such underpayment.

(c) Resident acknowledges and agrees that the billing method for Resident's utility services may be modified from time to time to reflect the Premises' current utilities metering method (e.g. if Resident currently pays a flat rate for utilities services, one or more of the utilities may later be separately metered, submetered or directly billed to Resident, at which time Resident shall pay, in lieu of the flat rate or a portion thereof, the amount of those utilities separately metered, submetered or directly billed to Resident, in accordance with Section 5(b)(2) or 5(b)(3), respectively, above).

(d) Resident acknowledges that Owner cannot guarantee the level of charges for directly billed or submetered utilities services, which will vary over time depending on the Resident's usage characteristics, changes in the rates imposed by the utility provider that provides service to Owner and other factors.

(e) Resident hereby understands and agrees that Resident must deliver payment of the entire amount due each month to the Owner (or the utilities provider, if Resident is directly billed for either gas and/or electricity services) by the due date specified on the utility bill (or, for flat-rate charges, in advance on the 1st day of each and every month). Late payment charges and insufficient funds charges, as set forth in Section 2 of this Lease Agreement, shall be assessed if payment is not received when due.

6. OCCUPANTS: This Premises shall not be occupied by more persons than listed for the 1 Bed / 1 Bath, 616 sq. ft. apartment indicated in the "Maximum Number of Occupants."

Type of Apartment	Maximum Number of Occupants
Junior	3
One Bedroom	3
Two Bedroom	5
Three Bedroom	7

The Premises is a 1 Bed / 1 Bath, 616 sq. ft. apartment. The Premises shall be occupied only by the following named person(s):

Name	Birthdate
Adelina Garcia	7/13/1956

Occupancy of the Premises by a person other than those persons listed above for a period exceeding 72 hours shall be a material breach of this Lease Agreement.

7. PROHIBITIONS: Without Owner/Agent's prior written permission, no pets or waterbeds shall be kept or allowed in or about the Premises.

8. QUIET ENJOYMENT: Resident shall not violate any criminal or civil law, ordinance or statute in the use and occupancy of the Premises (including laws governing the possession, use or sale of illegal drugs or laws governing prostitution), commit waste or nuisance, annoy, molest or interfere with any other Resident or neighbor. Any such action may result in the immediate termination of this Lease Agreement as provided herein and by law. Possession of any illegal drug (including marijuana, whether or not obtained with a prescription) either within Resident's unit or on Resident's possession while Resident is anywhere on the Property, shall be grounds for immediate eviction. Resident and Owner agree that such violation is a non-curable violation of this Lease Agreement, and that a breach of this prohibition is a "material" breach of this Agreement. Further, it shall be a non-curable breach of this Lease Agreement (and thus cause for immediate eviction) for Resident, any guest of Resident, or anyone who resides with Resident at the Premises, to do any of the following: (a) to have in their possession, or be under the influence of, any illegal drug (including marijuana, whether or not obtained with a prescription) while on or near the Property, or within the City of East Palo Alto; or (b) to engage in any drug-related or other criminal activity while on or near the Property, or within the City of East Palo Alto. Furthermore, it shall be a non-curable breach of this Lease Agreement (and thus cause for immediate eviction) for any guest of Resident to engage in any drug-related or other criminal activity while on the Property. Resident understands that Resident is strictly liable for the conduct of guests and will be evicted even if Resident did not know, could not foresee, or could not control behavior by the others mentioned in this paragraph. Resident shall also abide by the rules set forth in the Resident Policies Addendum attached hereto.

9. REPAIRS AND ALTERATIONS: Except as provided by law, no repairs, decorating or alterations shall be done by Resident without Owner/Agent's prior written consent. Resident must notify Owner/Agent in writing of any repairs, decorating, or alterations contemplated and must receive Owner/Agent's prior written consent befote making such repairs, decorating, or alterations. Decorations include, but are not limited to, painting and wallpapering. Any visable tenant modifications such as window coverings where the resident has purchased their own window coverings, the white blinds provided by owner shall be the only window covering permitted to be visable from the outside of the unit. Resident shall hold Owner/Agent harmless and indemnify Owner/Agent as to any mechanics lien recordation or proceeding caused by Resident. Resident may not make any alterations to cable or telephone inside wiring (such as may occur when changing telecommunications providers or adding phone lines) without prior written consent of the Owner/Agent. The notice shall include the name, address, and telephone number of any new telecommunication provider. Resident agrees to pay all costs resulting from the alteration and agrees to pay to the Owner/Agent any costs associated with restoring the inside wiring to the condition at the time of move-in, except for reasonable wear and tear. Upon 24 hours' notice, Resident shall lend Owner the keys to the Premises for the purpose of having a duplicate made for Owner/Agent's use. Should the law require that Owner make alterations for the reasonable accommodations of Resident, such alterations shall be made at Resident's sole cost and expense. Any and all alterations, shall, upon Resident's move-out, become the property of Owner and remain on the Premises; provided, however, that Owner may remove any and all alterations made for or by Resident and Resident shall be responsible for the cost of (A) repairing all damage to the Premises caused by their removal and/or (B) returning the Premises to its original condition.

10. ACCEPTANCE OF PREMISES: Resident has inspected the Premises, furnishings and equipment, and has found them to be satisfactory and accepts them in their "as is" condition. All plumbing, heating and electrical systems are operative and deemed satisfactory. Owner/Agent makes no representations whatsoever regarding the condition of the Premises or the Property. Resident and Owner/Agent have noted the presence of certain personal property of Owner at the Premises as identified in the Move In/Move Out Addendum.

11. CARE, CLEANING, MAINTENANCE AND INSURANCE: During tenancy, Resident agrees to keep the Premises in a safe and sanitary condition and to immediately reimburse landlord for any sums necessary to repair any item, fixture or appurtenance that needed service due to Resident's, or Resident's invitee, misuse or negligence. Where a repair is the responsibility of the landlord, Resident must notify landlord with a written notice stating what item needs servicing or repair. Resident must give landlord a reasonable opportunity to service or repair said item. Resident agrees to leave the Premises and furniture, furnishings and appliances, and fixtures, which are rented for Resident's exclusive use, in good order and condition and in the same condition as each was received, subject to reasonable wear and tear. Upon move-out, Resident agrees to return the Premises to the same level of cleanliness it was in at the inception of the tenancy ree of all trash and personal property not belonging to Owner. It is agreed that all dirt, holes, tears, burns and stains of any size or amount in the carpets, drapes, walls, fixture or any other part of the Premises do not constitute reasonable wear and tear. Any personal property left behind by Resident and not belonging to Owner may be thrown away by Owner without liability. Further, if Resident leaves large items in the unit or on the Property upon move out (or in or near the trash or elsewhere on the Property at any time), Resident shall be charged per Owner's move out schedule of costs as of the time of move-out, which is available upon move in and may be revised from time to time in Owner's sole and absolute discretion. Resident shall pay Owner/Agent for costs to repair, replace or rebuild any portion of the Premises damaged by the Resident, Resident's guests or invitees, including the charges specified in the Repairs and Replacements Addendum for any damaged property.

    Resident acknowledges that: (A) Owner's insurance may not cover loss from damage to Resident's personal property caused by plumbing leaks, fire, theft, rain, acts of God, acts of others, and/or any other causes, nor shall Owner be liable for such losses; and (B) Resident shall not hold Owner liable for any such losses, whether or not Owner's insurance covers the loss. Resident agrees to obtain Resident's own insurance to cover any losses to personal property. This paragraph does not intend to waive Owner's duty to guard against personal injury or property damage where that duty cannot be waived by Resident. However, since Resident's obtaining of insurance is considered additional consideration to Owner for this Lease Agreement, if Resident does not obtain a renter's policy for a minimum of $100,000 coverage, Resident waives any losses that would have been paid by such a policy, if Resident does not obtain said policy.

    Resident shall deposit all garbage in a clean and sanitary manner into the proper receptacles as provided and shall cooperate in keeping the trash container area neat and clean. Resident shall be responsible for keeping out of the kitchen sink bones, toothpicks, match sticks, celery, grease, metal vegetable ties, and all other items that may tend to cause stoppage of the sink and garbage disposal. Resident shall pay for the cleaning and/or clearing of any plumbing fixtures or water pipes, necessitated by the misuse or non-maintenance.

12. WAIVER OF BREACH: The waiver of either party of any breach shall not be construed to be a continuing waiver of any subsequent breach. The receipt by Owner/Agent of rent with the knowledge of any default by Resident of any breach of any term covenant or condition of this Lease Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of such breach r of any subsequent breaches. Owner's failure to require compliance with the terms of this Lease Agreement and to exercise any right granted by this Lease Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver by Owner of said term, condition and/or right; and shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any provision of this Lease Agreement. No waiver by either party of the provisions herein shall be deemed to have been made unless expressed in writing and signed by all parties to this Lease Agreement.

13. JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY: The undersigned Resident(s), whether or not in actual possession of the Premises, are jointly and severally liable for all obligations under this Lease Agreement, and shall indemnify Owner/Agent for liability arising prior to the termination of the Lease Agreement for personal injuries or property damage caused or permitted by Resident(s), their guests and invitees. This does not waive "Owner/Agent's duty of care" to prevent personal injury or property damage where that duty is imposed by law.

14. ENTRY: California law allows Owner/Agent or his/her employee(s) to enter the Premises for certain purposes during normal business hours. The Owner/Agent will provide written notice to the Resident prior to the entry of the dwelling unit whenever required by state law. (Civil Code Section 1954.) Resident's non-compliance with Owner/Agent's lawful request for entry is a material breach of this Lease Agreement that may be cause for immediate termination as provided herein and by law.

15. NO SUBLETTING OR ASSIGNMENT:
    (a) No portion of the Premises shall be sublet, licensed or otherwise rented to a person not a party to this Lease Agreement, nor shall this Lease Agreement be assigned. Any attempted subletting, licensing, rental or assignment by Resident shall, at the election of Owner/Agent, be an irremediable breach of this Lease Agreement and cause for immediate termination as provided herein and by law. Resident shall not take in or allow occupancy by any person, whether that person is deemed a boarder, lodger, roommate or guest; and furthermore said occupancy shall be deemed an illegal subtenancy.
    (b) In the event the rental unit is assigned or sublet by Resident, whether Resident permanently resides in the rental unit or not, then the rent for the Premises shall be increased by thirty-five (35%) without further notice from Owner. This provision is pursuant to Civil Code Section 1954.53(d). Owner shall elect the option of either collecting the increased rent or enforcing the provisions of Section 15(a), above. If Owner elects to enforce the provisions of Section 15(a), but a court of competent jurisdiction rules that Owner has waived the provisions for any reason, then Resident agrees to pay the 35% increased rent from the time that the assignment/subletting first occurred.

16. BREACH OF LEASE: In the event that Resident breaches this Lease Agreement, Owner/Agent shall be allowed at Owner/Agent's discretion, but not by way of limitation, to exercise any or all remedies provided Owner/Agent by California Civil Code Section 1951.2 and 1951.4. Damages Owner/Agent "may recover" include the worth at the time of the award of the amount by which the unpaid rent for the balance of the term after the time of award, or for any shorter period of time specified in the Lease Agreement, exceeds the amount of such rental loss for the same period that the Resident proves could be reasonably avoided. Resident's default under any "Additional Agreement" (as defined in Section 25 hereof) shall constitute a default under this Lease Agreement. There is no grace period with respect to the payment of rent. Accordingly, without limitation on any other obligation of Resident under this Lease Agreement, Resident's failure to pay rent on the first day of a month constitutes a breach of this Lease Agreement.

17. ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATE: Within ten (10) days after written request is mailed to Resident, including in the event of the sale, financing or restructuring of ownership of the Property, Resident agrees to execute and deliver to Owner an estoppel certificate on the form submitted by Owner: (A) acknowledging whether this Lease Agreement has been modified and, if so, stating all the modifications; (B) stating the amount of the current rent Resident is paying and the amount Resident has paid as prepaid rent and security deposit; (C) stating whether or not Resident is then aware of any violation of law in the operation of the building, and/or has any claim against Owner; and (D) stating requests for other information relevant to Resident's occupancy of the Premises. Failure to comply shall be deemed Resident's acknowledgement that the certificate as submitted by Owner/Agent is true and correct and may be relied upon by any lender or purchaser.

18. SMOKE DETECTION DEVICE: The Premises are equipped with a functioning smoke detection device(s), and Resident shall be responsible for testing the device weekly and immediately reporting any problems, maintenance or need for repairs to Owner/Agent. If battery operated, Resident is responsible for changing the detector's battery as necessary. Owner/Agent shall have a right to enter the Premises to check and maintain the smoke detection device as provided by law.

19. NOTICE: Pursuant to Section 290.46 of the Penal Code, information about specified registered sex offenders is made available to the public via an Internet Web site maintained by the Department of Justice at www.meganslaw.ca.gov. Depending on an offender's criminal history, this information will include either the address at which the offender resides or the community of residence and ZIP Code in which he or she resides.

20. ADDENDA: By initialing as provided, Resident acknowledges receipt of the following applicable addenda, as indicated, copies of which are attached hereto, and are incorporated as part of this Lease Agreement. Please note that any Parking Agreement is a separate agreement and is not an addenda hereto.

- ☒ Asbestos Addendum
- ☒ Emergency Procedure Information For Tenants
- ☒ Lead Paint Disclosure
- ☒ Move-In/Move-Out Itemized Statement
- ☒ Pest Control Notice
- ☒ Resident Policies and House Rules Addendum
- ☒ California Proposition 65 Warning
- ☒ Lead Paint Booklet
- ☒ Move-In Summary
- ☒ Parking Agreement
- ☒ Repairs and Replacements
- ☒ Vehicle Registration

21. ENTIRE AGREEMENT: This Lease Agreement, which includes all attachments referred to above, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and cannot be modified except in writing and signed by all parties, except as permitted by applicable law. Neither Owner/Agent, nor any agent or employee of Owner/Agent has made any representations or promises other than those set forth herein. All determinations, consents and approvals by Owner/Agent in connection with this Lease shall be in its sole and absolute discretion.

22. CREDIT REPORTS: A negative credit report reflecting on your credit history may be submitted to a credit reporting agency if you fail to fulfill the terms of your credit obligations. Resident expressly authorizes Owner/Agent (including a collection agency) to obtain Resident's consumer credit report, which Owner/Agent may use if attempting to collect past due rent payments, late fees, or other charges from Resident, both during the term of the Lease Agreement and thereafter.

23. ATTORNEYS' FEES: If any legal action or proceeding is brought by either party to enforce any part of this Lease Agreement, each party's costs of said enforcement shall be the responsibilities of that respective party and no other party.

24. SATELLITE ANTENNA/DISHES: Resident shall not install, or permit any other person or entity to install, any kind of satellite dish or antenna on the Premises or anywhere on the Property.

25. ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS: From time to time during the term of this lease, any renewal, expansion or extension thereof or any month to month tenancy arising after the Termination Date, Resident may rent or purchase from Owner/Agent certain other services which are not included in Resident's rent. By way of example and without limitation, these services may include parking, cable television, concierge services, furniture rental and washer/dryer rental. Resident covenants and agrees to perform any and all of its obligations under any agreement executed in connection with those services (each an "Additional Agreement"), and acknowledges and agrees that a default by Resident under any Additional Agreement shall constitute a default under this Lease Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt and without limitation, a Parking Agreement constitutes an Additional Agreement.

26. RENT PAYMENT BY NON-TENANT: If Owner accepts rent from any person not a Resident, whether or not the person occupies the Premises, said acceptance: (A) shall not constitute a waiver or modification of Section 15 of this Lease Agreement, (B) shall not be used to establish said person's right to possession of the premises; and (C) shall be interpreted only as an accommodation to Resident.

27. RESPONSIBILITY/INDEMNIFICATION: The undersigned Resident is/are jointly and severally responsible and liable for all obligations under this Lease Agreement and shall indemnify Owner from any liability created by Resident's and/or Resident's guests' conduct. In addition, Resident shall indemnify and hold Owner free and harmless from any and all liability arising by reason of the death or injury of any person or damage to any property caused or allegedly caused by (A) some act or omission of Resident or any person in, on or about the Property with the permission of Resident; and (B) any matter connected with Resident's occupation and use of the Premises.

28. NO WAIVER DURING LITIGATION: In the event that Owner accepts rent from Resident while Owner and Resident are involved in litigated based on a 3 Day Notice to Pay Rent or Quit, acceptance of said rent by Owner shall not be considered a waiver by Owner of the default upon which the 3 Day Notice to Pay Rent or Quit was based. Rather, said rent payment shall be received by Owner in trust and shall be subject to jurisdiction of the court wherein said manner is pending. Owner shall be allowed to commingle said rent payment funds with Owner's regular funds as long as Owner keeps an accurate accounting of money received from Resident during litigation.

29. APPLICATION MISREPRESENTATION: Any material misrepresentation or omission made by Resident in Resident's rental application will constitute a material noncurable breach of this Lease Agreement.

30. LOCKING OF ENTRANCE DOORS: Owner reserves the right to close and keep locked all entrance and exit doors of the building during such hours as Owner may deem it advisable for the adequate protection of the Property and the personal property of Owner and Resident. It shall be a material breach of this Lease Agreement for any Resident to prop open any entrance or exit door.

31. LEAD DISCLOSURE: Many homes and apartments built before 1978 may have paint that contains lead (called lead-based paint). Lead from paint chips and dust can cause serious hazards if not taken care of properly. The law requires that Resident receive certain information before renting pre-1978 housing. By signing this Lease Agreement, Resident acknowledges that Owner has provided Resident with such information. Additionally, upon Resident's request, Owner will provide Resident with the EPA booklet entitled "Protect Your Family From Lead In Your Home." Any known lead-based paint or lead hazards at the Premises, if any, are hereby disclosed: _____ .

32. WAIVER OF PUNITIVE DAMAGES:

It is recognized that neither the Resident's nor the Owner's insurance company pays for an award of punitive damages. Thus, it is not possible for either party to insure against such a loss. Both parties feel it is in their best interest to mutually waive the right to collect punitive damages against the other and hereby elect to do so. Therefore, it is agreed that neither a judge nor a jury shall have the power or authority to award punitive or exemplary damages in any litigation between the parties, against either party. For purposes of establishing the enforceability of this waiver of punitive damages, the parties have elected to have federal law apply as a choice of law. Thus the legality of this waiver will be judged under federal law and not state or city laws. In the event that for any reason this mutual waiver of punitive damages is not upheld, then both parties agree that there should be a reasonable limit on the amount that either party shall recover against the other. Such limit shall be one (1) times the amount of actual damages awarded.

33. ATTORNEY'S ADVICE: Each of the parties hereto acknowledges that either (1) the terms of this Lease Agreement have been explained to them by their respective counsel and that they execute this Lease Agreement in reliance upon advice of their respective counsel, or (2) that they have been given the opportunity to consult an attorney and have decided not to do so; and warrant that they will not at a later time attempt to set this Lease Agreement aside because they were not represented by an attorney.

34. HEADINGS: The captions and headings used in this Lease Agreement are for convenience only and do not in any way limit, amplify or otherwise modify the provisions of this Lease Agreement.

The undersigned Resident(s) acknowledge(s) having read and understood the foregoing, and receipt of a duplicate original. Only may sign this Lease Agreement on behalf of Owner/Agent. If the signatory is not , this Lease Agreement is of no effect.

☒ This property may contain asbestos.

OR

☐ This property contains asbestos. This hazardous substance is contained in some of the original building materials and in some of the products and materials used to maintain the property. Disturbance or damage to certain interior apartment surfaces may increase the potential exposure to these substances.

1. Resident(s) or their guests, employees and contractors shall not take or permit any action which in any way damages or disturbs the ceiling in the Premises or any part thereof, including without limitation:
   (i) piercing the surface of the ceiling by drilling or any other method;
   (ii) hanging plants, mobiles, or other objects from the ceiling;
   (iii) attaching any fixtures to the ceiling;
   (iv) allowing any objects to come in contact with the ceiling;
   (v) permitting water or any liquid, other than ordinary steam condensation, to come into contact with the ceiling;
   (vi) painting, cleaning, or undertaking any repairs of any portion of the ceiling;
   (vii) replacing light fixtures;
   (viii) undertaking any activity which results in building vibration which may cause damage to the ceiling.
2. Resident(s) shall notify Owner and Agents immediately in writing: (i) if there is any damage to or deterioration of the ceiling in the Premises or any portion thereof, including without limitation flaking, loose, cracking, hanging or dislodged material, water leaks, or stains in the ceiling; or (ii) upon the occurrence of any of the events described in Paragraph 1 above.

The undersigned Resident(s) acknowledge(s) having read and understood the foregoing.

CALIFORNIA'S PROPOSITION 65 WARNING

California's Proposition 65 (Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986) requires businesses with 10 or more employees to provide warnings prior to exposing individuals to chemicals known to the State to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm.

These types of chemicals are found within this establishment. This brochure provides you with information on what chemicals are present and what your exposures to them might be.

Warning

This Facility Contains Chemicals Known to the State of California To Cause Cancer and/or Birth Defects Or Other Reproductive Harm.

Second Hand Tobacco Smoke and Tobacco Products.

Tobacco products and tobacco smoke and its by-products contain many chemicals that are known to the State of California to cause cancer, and birth defects or other reproductive harm. Smoking is permitted in certain common and private areas.

Furnishings, Hardware, and Electrical Components.

Room furnishings and building materials contain formaldehyde, which is known to the State of California to cause cancer. Furniture, foams, brass keys, electrical power cords, carpeting, carpet padding, wall coverings, wood surfaces, and vinyl, contain a number of chemicals, including lead, and formaldehyde, known to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm. Their presence in these materials can lead to exposures. Certain molds that may be present contain chemicals, including sterigmatocystin, known to the State of California to cause cancer.

Combustion Sources.

Combustion sources such as gas stoves, fireplaces, and barbeques contain or produce a large number chemicals, including acetaldehyde, benzene and carbon monoxide, known to the State of California to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm which are found in the air of this complex. Any time organic matter such as gas, charcoal or wood is burned, Proposition 65-listed chemicals are released into the air.

Construction and Maintenance Materials.

Construction and maintenance materials contain Proposition 65-listed chemicals, such as roofing materials manufactured with vinyl chloride monomer, benzene and ceramic fibers, which are known to cause cancer, or birth defects or other reproductive harm. Construction materials used in walls, floors, ceilings and outside cladding contain chemicals, such as formaldehyde resin, asbestos, arsenic, cadmium and creosote, which are released as gases or vapors during normal degradation or deterioration, and as dust or particulate when disturbed during repairs, maintenance or renovation, all of which can lead to exposures.

Certain Products Used In Cleaning And Related Activities.

Certain cleaning products used for special cleaning purposes such as graffiti removal and spot and stain lifters contain chlorinated solvents including perchloroethylene and urinal odor cakes contain paradichlorobenzene which are Proposition 65-listed chemicals known to cause cancer or birth defects or other reproductive harm.

Swimming Pools and Hot Tubs.

The use and maintenance of a variety of recreational activities and facilities such as swimming pools and hot tubs where chlorine and bromine are used in the disinfecting process can cause exposures to chloroform and bromoform which are chemicals known to the State of California to cause cancer.

Paint and Painted Surfaces.

Certain paints and painted surfaces contain chemicals, such as lead and crystalline silica, that are known to the State of California to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm. Lead-based paint chips may be ingested and crystalline silica may be released into the air and lead to exposures.

Engine Related Exposures.

The operation and maintenance of engines, including automobiles, vans, maintenance vehicles, recreational vehicles, and other small internal combustion engines are associated with this residential rental facility. Motor vehicle rental fuels and engine exhaust contain many Proposition 65-listed chemicals, including benzene, carbon monoxide and, for diesel engines, diesel exhaust, which are known to the State to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm. In parking structures and garages, exhaust fumes can concentrate, increasing your exposure to these chemicals.

Pest Control and Landscaping.

Pests control and landscaping products used to control insects and weeds contain resmethrin, mycobutonil, triforine and arsenic trioxide which are known to the State to cause cancer and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm.

Sources of Chemical Exposures

California's Proposition 65 has identified hundreds of chemicals known to the State of California to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm. The law requires that businesses with 10 or more employees warn you prior to knowingly and intentionally exposing you to any of these chemicals when the exposure is over a certain level. While many exposures are associated with industrial activities and chemicals, everyday items and even the air we breathe routinely contain many of these chemicals. This brochure provides warning and information regarding exposures to these chemicals that occur in this facility. In many instances, we do not have information specific to this facility. Instead we have relied upon experts in this field to tell us where and to which chemicals these exposures might occur. For other exposures to listed chemicals, enough is known to identify specific areas of exposure.

The regulations implementing Proposition 65 offer warnings for various circumstances. Some of those warnings you may see in this residential rental property include the following:

General - Warning: This Facility Contains Chemicals Known to the State of California To Cause Cancer, And Birth Defects Or Other Reproductive Harm.

Foods and Beverages - Warning: Chemicals Known To The State of California To Cause Cancer, Or Birth Defects Or Other Reproductive Harm May Be Present In Foods Or Beverages Sold Or Served Here.

Alcohol - Warning: Drinking Distilled Spirits, Beer, Coolers, Wine, And Other Alcoholic Beverages May Increase Cancer Risk, And, During Pregnancy, Can Cause Birth Defects.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURE INFORMATION FOR TENANTS

IN CASE OF FIRE USE STAIRWAY FOR EXIT DO NOT USE ELEVATOR

IF YOU ARE ABLE TO LEAVE YOUR ROOM

- Close your unit door, and take your unit key with you.
- If there is smoke, stay low to the ground.
- Use stairways to evacuate.
- Never use elevators during a fire. They could stop at floors that contain fire. Handicapped persons should proceed to stairwell for assistance.
- Pull the closest fire alarm and warn other people in the area.
- If there is a telephone available, dial 911.

IF TRAPPED IN YOUR ROOM

- If your front door is hot, don't open it.
- Call the Fire Department at 911.
- Wedge cloth material along the bottom of the door to keep smoke out.
- Close as many doors as possible between you and the fire.
- Block air conditioning vents if there is smoke coming in.
- Open windows cautiously so as not to allow outside smoke to enter the room. Remember, if you have broken the window, you cannot close it again if you need to.

Smoke detectors are provided for your personal safety. Anyone who willfully and maliciously tampers with, damages, breaks, or removes any required smoke detector shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person who willfully and maliciously sends, gives, transmits, or sounds any false alarm of fire is guilty of a misdemeanor.

TARGET HOUSING RENTAL AGREEMENT/LEASE ADDENDUM
DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION ON
LEAD-BASED PAINT AND LEAD-BASED PAINT HAZARDS

Lead Warning Statement

Housing built before 1978 may contain lead-based paint. Lead from paint, paint chips, and dust can pose health hazards if not taken care of properly. Lead exposure is especially harmful to young children and pregnant women. Before renting pre-1978 housing, landlords must disclose the presence of known lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards in the dwelling. Lessees must also receive a Federally approved pamphlet on lead poisoning prevention. NOTE: The existence of lead on the rental property is not, by itself, cause for termination of the tenancy. (Public Law 102-550 sec. 1018(c))

Lessor's Disclosure

(a) Presence of lead-based paint or lead-based paint hazards:

- ☒ Lessor has no knowledge of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing.
- ☐ Known lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards are present in the housing.

(b) Records and reports available to the Lessor:

- ☒ Lessor has no reports or records pertaining to lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing.
- ☐ Lessor has provided the Resident with all available records and reports pertaining to lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing.

Agent's* Acknowledgment (initial)

(c) _____ Agent has informed the Lessor of his/her obligations under 42 U.S.C. 4852(d), and the Agent is aware of his/her responsibility to ensure compliance.

* The term Agent is defined as any party who enters into a contract with the Lessor, including anyone who enters into a contract with a representative of the Lessor for the purpose of leasing housing. An on-site resident manager may act as the Agent if authorized to do so by either the Lessor or the property management company.

Lessee's Acknowledgment (initial)

(d) _____ Lessee has received copies of all information listed above.

(e) _____ Lessee has received the pamphlet Protect Your Family from Lead in Your Home.

PARKING AGREEMENT

THIS PARKING AGREEMENT is made and entered into this 1st day of September, 2009 between 201 Okeefe, LLC ("Owner"), whose address and phone number are 2041 Euclid ave, East Palo Alto, CA 94303, (650) 494-3400, and Adelina Garcia ("Permit Holder").

THE PARTIES AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

1. LOCATION. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Parking Agreement, Permit Holder agrees to purchase, and Owner agrees to sell to Permit Holder, one (1) monthly parking permits (the "Parking Permits") for use at the property located at 201 E. O'Keefe Street, East Palo Alto, California 94303 (the "Property").

2. MONTHLY FEE. Permit Holder shall pay $50.00 per month per Parking Permit (the "Permit Fee"). Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that this amount may be increased from time to time to reflect Owner's then-current rate for parking spaces charged by the Owner to new residents at Owner's apartment buildings or at any other rate in Owner's sole and absolute discretion.
   (a) Payment will be due in advance on or before the 1st of every month. If the Permit Fee is paid after the 5th of the month, there will be a late charge of $10.00 assessed for such late payment. There is no grace period with respect to the application of such late charge. The parties have deemed the foregoing late charge to be a reasonable estimate of the amount of damages suffered by Owner by reason of Permit Holder's late payment of rent, as it would be impracticable or extremely difficult to determine the actual damages suffered by Owner in the event of such a late payment.
   (b) Pursuant to California law, if Permit Holder passes a check on insufficient funds, Permit Holder will be liable to Owner for the amount of the check and a service charge of $25.00 for the first check passed on insufficient funds, and $35.00 for each subsequent check passed on insufficient funds.

3. PERMIT AND DESIGNATED PARKING SPACE. The Permit Holder must obtain one (1) Parking Permit for each vehicle the Permit Holder will park on the Property. The Parking Permit must be prominently displayed in the back window of the vehicle at all times. The vehicle may only be parked in its designated parking space (as indicated in the "Vehicle Information" section of this Parking Agreement). The Parking Permits are valid only for the vehicle's assigned space and only for current residents of the Property who are party to a valid apartment lease and not in default thereunder.

4. NON-RESIDENT PARKING. Subject to availability, unassigned guest parking may be provided at the Property for non-resident guests on a "first come, first served" basis. Unassigned guest parking spaces may be assigned to current tenants of the Property at any time and at Owner's sole and absolute discretion. Guest use of parking facilities is in accordance with the Property's Parking Rules and Regulations (as the same may be amended or modified from time to time in Owner's sole and absolute discretion, the "Parking Rules"). The maximum allowable duration for visitor parking is three (3) days.

5. TERMS AND CONDITIONS. Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that:
   (a) Resident's use of the Parking Permit and parking facilities is in accordance with the Parking Rules.
   (b) The term and amount of all Parking Permits may vary. The Parking Holder may or may not have any or all of its Parking Permits for the duration of the "Lease" (as defined below), nor may Permit Holder have all its Parking Permits for the same duration.
   (c) The parking provided herein is not a service under that certain Lease Agreement between Owner and Permit Holder with respect to the Property (the "Lease").
   (d) Parking Permits may be cancelled at any time, in Owner's sole and absolute discretion, upon thirty (30) days' notice by Owner.
   (e) Parking Permits shall remain the property of the Owner. Parking Permits must be displayed as set forth herein and may not be mutilated in any manner. The serial number, if any, of the Parking Permit may not be obliterated. Parking Permits are not transferable and any Parking Permit in the possession of an unauthorized holder will be void. If a Parking Permit is lost or otherwise must be replaced, Permit Holder must pay a replacement charge of $20.00 for each replacement Parking Permit.

6. DEFAULT AND FAILURE TO ADHERE TO CONDITIONS. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, a default under the Lease shall constitute a default under this Parking Agreement. Further, Permit Holder's failure to adhere to the terms, conditions and provisions of the Parking Agreement and the terms and conditions of the Parking Rules may result in Owner or its agent taking one or more of the following actions:
   (a) Towing of the vehicle without warning and at the vehicle owner's or Permit Holder's risk and expense;
   (b) The temporary suspension of Permit Holder's or its guest's parking privileges with no refund;

(c) Permanent revocation of the Parking Permit with no refund; or

(d) Permanent loss of all of Permit Holder's or its guest's parking privileges.

Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that Owner shall be in no way responsible for loss, theft or damage to any vehicle or other property due to collision, theft, burglary, vandalism, crime or otherwise caused by Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees, any vehicle operated or parked by Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees pursuant to or in violation of this Parking Agreement, any personal property left in such vehicle, or otherwise with respect to Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees. Permit Holder agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Owner with respect to any claim arising from such loss or damage.

Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that Permit Holder has been granted a license to park on the Property and that no bailment relationship between Owner and Permit Holder has been or will be created. Permit Holder is required to park and lock Permit Holder's vehicle, and must retain the vehicle's keys. In no event shall Owner or its agents be deemed to have acquired any dominion over the vehicle or any right to control the vehicle's removal (except for purposes of towing vehicles following a violation of the Parking Rules or the Permit Holder's Parking Agreement).

Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that there is no attendant at the parking lot and that Permit Holder parks the vehicle at the Property at Permit Holder's sole risk.

ADDENDUM:
PARKING RULES AND REGULATIONS

The following rules and regulations shall govern use of the parking facilities for the Property. Any vehicle found to be in violation of these rules will be towed at the vehicle owner's expense, without notice.

1. No vehicle may be parked in the fire lane and/or red zones.
2. No vehicle may be parked in a disabled-access space without a valid and prominently displayed disabled parking permit or placard issued by the State of California.
3. No vehicle may be parked without a valid monthly parking permit sticker (the "Parking Permit") properly displayed. Each Parking Permit is valid only for the vehicle's assigned space and only for current residents of the Property who are party to a valid apartment lease and not in default thereunder.
4. All vehicles must be currently registered to the holder of the Parking Permit (the "Permit Holder") (or validly leased by the Permit Holder) and in good working order. Vehicles must not drop excessive oil or fluids on the ground, present a health or safety hazard, or cause damage or the risk of damage to any part of the Property. Inoperable, dismantled or partially dismantled, or unregistered vehicles are subject to tow under California Vehicle Code §22658 and any applicable local laws and/or ordinances.
5. No vehicle washing, waxing, cleaning or servicing is permitted on the Property.
6. Permit Holder may not perform or have performed any mechanical work or vehicle repairs on any vehicle in the parking area including, without limitation, changing oil.
7. Vehicles must be parked in only their designated parking space, entirely within the painted stall lines and head-in. No back-in parking is permitted.
8. The Property owner ("Owner") is not responsible if the vehicle is impounded.
9. Owner reserves the right to refuse the sale of Parking Permits or other parking identification devices to any tenant or person and/or his agents or representatives who willfully refuse to comply with these Parking Rules or any applicable city, state or federal ordinances, laws or agreements, whether posted or unposted.
10. Loss or theft of Parking Permits or other parking identification devices from vehicles must be reported immediately to Owner. Owner has the right to exclude any vehicle from the parking facilities that does not have an identification device. Any Parking Permit or other parking identification devices reported lost or stolen found on any unauthorized vehicle will be confiscated and the illegal holder will be subject to prosecution.
11. All directional signs and arrows must be observed.
12. The speed limit within all parking areas shall be 5 miles per hour.
13. Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that Owner shall be in no way responsible for loss, theft or damage to any vehicle or other property due to collision, theft, burglary, vandalism, crime or otherwise caused by Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees, any vehicle operated or parked by Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees pursuant to or in violation of this Parking Agreement, any personal property left in such vehicle, or otherwise with respect to Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees. Permit Holder agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Owner with respect to any claim arising from such loss or damage.
14. Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that Permit Holder has been granted a license to park on the Property and that no bailment relationship between Owner and Permit Holder has been or will be created. Permit Holder is required to park and lock Permit Holder's vehicle, and must retain the vehicle's keys. In no event shall Owner or its agents be deemed to have acquired any dominion over the vehicle or any right to control the vehicle's removal (except for purposes of towing vehicles following a violation of the Parking Rules or the Permit Holder's Parking Agreement).
15. Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that there is no attendant at the parking lot and that Permit Holder parks the vehicle at the Property at Permit Holder's sole risk.
16. Owner reserves the right to modify and/or adopt such other reasonable rules and regulations for the parking facilities as it deems necessary for the operation of the parking facilities. Owner reserves the right at any time to grant similar reserved and/or non-exclusive use to other tenants at the Property, to promulgate additional rules and regulations relating to the use of such parking areas, including reasonable restrictions on parking by tenants and guests, and to make changes in parking layout from time to time.

PEST CONTROL NOTICE ADDENDUM

This document is an Addendum and is part of the Rental/Lease Agreement, dated September 1, 2009 between 201 Okeefe, LLC (Owner/Agent) and Adelina Garcia, (Resident) for the premises located at 201 E. O'Keefe Street #204, East Palo Alto, CA 94303.

California law requires that an Owner/Agent of a residential dwelling unit provide each new tenant a copy of the notice provided by a registered pest control company if a contract for periodic pest control service has been executed.

The premises you are renting, or the common areas of the building are covered by such a contract for regular pest control service, so you are being notified pursuant to the law. The notice provided by the pest control company is attached to this Acknowledgment.

The undersigned Resident(s) acknowledge(s) having read and understood the foregoing and the referenced attachment. Only may sign this Lease Agreement on behalf of Owner/Agent. If the signatory is not , this Lease Agreement is of no effect.

REPAIRS AND REPLACEMENTS

Addendum to the Lease Agreement

During your tenancy, if the items below are not maintained in a satisfactory condition or working order, the following charges will be made. You will be responsible for these charges and billed directly. These bills are payable upon receipt. If the damages are discovered during the course of your move out inspection, the charges will be deducted from your security deposit.

If any items are missing or damaged to the point that they must be replaced when you move out, you will be charged the current cost of the item, plus labor and service charges.

You will be charged the list amount for each instance the item must be cleaned, repaired or replaced. Multiple charges will be made where appropriate. The prices given for the items listed below are average prices. If we incur a higher cost for repairing or replacing the item, you will be responsible for the higher cost.

Please be aware that this is not an all-inclusive list: you can be charged for cleaning, repairing or replacement items that are not on the list.

RESIDENT POLICIES AND "HOUSE RULES" ADDENDUM

I. GENERAL

1. This document is an Addendum and is part of the Rental/Lease Agreement, dated September 1, 2009 between 201 Okeefe, LLC (Owner/Agent) and Adelina Garcia, (Resident) for the premises at 201 E. O'Keefe Street #204, East Palo Alto, CA 94303.
2. New policies and rules or amendments to this document may be adopted by Owner/Agent upon giving 30 days' notice in writing to Resident.
3. Guests who stay more than 14 days in a year period may constitute a breach of the Rental/Lease Agreement. At the discretion of the Owner/Agent, guests may be required to go through the application process and, if approved, must sign a Rental/Lease Agreement.
4. Residents who lock themselves out of their units may be assessed a charge for the actual costs, including out of pocket expenses, incurred by the Owner/Agent.

II. NOISE AND CONDUCT

1. Residents and their guests shall not make or allow any excessive noise in the unit nor permit any actions which will interfere with the rights, comforts or conveniences of other persons.
2. Residents and their guests shall refrain from playing musical instruments, television sets, stereos, radios, and other devices at a volume which will disturb other persons.
3. Residents and their guests shall refrain, and shall ensure that Resident's guests likewise refrain, from activities and conduct outside of the unit (in common areas, parking areas, or recreation facilities) which are likely to annoy or disturb other persons.
4. Resident and their guests shall refrain from creating, or allowing to be created, any noise that is disturbing to other Residents between the hours of 10 pm and 8 am.

III. CLEANLINESS AND TRASH

1. Resident shall keep the unit clean, sanitary and free from objectionable odors at all times.
2. Resident shall ensure that papers, cigarette butts and trash are placed in appropriate receptacles so that litter is not created on or about Resident's unit.
3. Resident shall ensure that trash and other materials are not permitted to accumulate so as to cause a hazard or be in violation of any health, fire or safety ordinance or regulation.
4. Resident shall ensure that garbage is not permitted to accumulate and that it is placed on a daily basis in the trash containers provided for that purpose. Resident shall ensure that large boxes are broken apart before being placed in the trash containers. Resident shall be responsible, at Resident's expense, for hauling to the dump those items too large to fit in the trash containers.
5. Resident shall ensure that furniture is kept inside the unit and that unsightly items are kept out of view.
6. Resident shall refrain from leaving articles in the hallways or other common areas.
7. Resident shall refrain from shaking or hanging clothing, curtains, rugs, and other coverings and cloths outside of any window, ledge, or balcony.
8. Resident shall refrain from disposing of any combustible or hazardous material in trash containers or bins.

IV. SAFETY/SECURITY

1. Security is the responsibility of each Resident and each guest. Owner/Agent assumes no responsibility or liability, unless otherwise provided by law, for Resident's and guests' safety and security, or for injury or damage caused by the criminal acts of other persons.
2. Resident should ensure that all doors are locked during Resident's absence. Resident must notify Owner/Agent if locks become inoperable.
3. Resident should ensure that all appliances are turned off before departing from the premises.

4. When leaving for an extended period, Resident should notify Owner/Agent how long Resident will be away.
5. Prior to any planned absence from the unit, Resident shall give Owner/Agent authority to allow entry to the unit to any person or provide Owner/Agent with the name of any person or entity permitted by Resident to enter the unit.
6. Resident shall refrain from smoking in bed.
7. Resident shall refrain from using or storing gasoline, cleaning solvent or other combustibles in the unit.
8. Resident shall ensure that no personal belongings, including bicycles, play equipment or other items shall be left unattended in the halls, stairways or about the building.

V. MAINTENANCE, REPAIRS AND ALTERATIONS

1. Resident shall advise Owner/Agent of any items requiring repair, such as light switches or dripping faucets. Resident shall make repair requests as soon after the defect is noted as is practical.
2. Resident shall refrain from making service requests directly to maintenance personnel unless Resident is directed to do so by Owner/Agent.
3. Resident shall refrain from making any alterations or improvements to the unit without the consent of Owner/Agent. Resident shall refrain from using adhesives, glue or tape to affix pictures or decorations.
4. Resident shall refrain from using aluminum foil as a window covering and shall obtain the approval of Owner/Agent before using any window covering visible from the exterior of the building.
5. Costs of repair or clearance of stoppages in waste pipes or drains, water pipes or plumbing fixtures caused by Resident's negligence or improper usage are the responsibility of the Resident. Payment for corrective action must be paid by Resident on demand.

VI. PARKING

1. Number of parking spaces assigned to Resident's unit _____ . Only one vehicle may be parked in each space.
2. Resident shall only use assigned parking spaces and shall ensure that guests park only in unassigned areas or designated guest parking areas. Resident shall ensure that posted and designated fire zones or "No Parking" areas remain clear of vehicles at all times. Resident shall refrain from parking in unauthorized areas or in another resident's designated parking space. (Vehicles parked in unauthorized areas or in another Resident's space may be towed away at the vehicle owner's expense.)
3. Only currently registered vehicles may be parked on the property. A vehicle that lacks an engine, transmission, wheels, tires, doors, windshield, or any other major part or equipment necessary to operate saftely on the highways, is subject to tow under California Vehicle Code 22658. Vehicles parked in violation of local laws/ordinance are subject to tow.

The undersigned Resident(s) ackowledge(s) having read and understood the foregoing.

LEASE AGREEMENT

THIS LEASE AGREEMENT is made and entered into July 23, 2010 between Redus Woodland LLC "Owner/Agent", whose address and phone number are 2041 Euclid ave, East Palo Alto, CA 94303 (650) 566-2030, and Josefina Calderon, "Resident."

THE PARTIES AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

1. PREMISES: Subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease Agreement, Owner rents to Resident and Resident rents from Owner, for residential use only, the premises ("Premises") located at 201 E. O'Keefe Street #107, East Palo Alto, CA 94303, The term "Property" in this Lease Agreement shall mean all the land, building(s) and common areas owned by Owner/Agent upon which the Rental Unit is located.

2. RENT AND UTILITIES: Rent is due on or before the 1st day of each and every month, whether or not the first day of the month falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, at $955.00 per month, beginning on September 1, 2010, payable at 2041 Euclid ave, East Palo Alto, CA 94303. Payments made in person may be delivered to Owner/Agent 8am and 7pm Monday through Friday. On weekends and holidays, payment may be placed at the drop box at: _____ . Acceptable methods of payment: ☒ Personal Check ☒ Cashier's Check ☒ Money Order ☒ EFT/Credit (see Owner/Agent for details) and ☐ Cash.

   (a) If in any month rent is paid after the 1st of the month, there will be a late charge of $50.00 assessed for such late payment if payment is not received in full of all charges prior to the 5th day of that month. The parties have deemed the foregoing late charge to be a reasonable estimate of the amount of damages suffered by Owner/Agent by reason of Resident's late payment of rent, as it would be impracticable or extremely difficult to determine the actual damages suffered by Owner/Agent in the event of such a late payment.

   (b) Pursuant to California law, if Resident passes a check on insufficient funds, Resident will be liable to Owner/Agent for the amount of the check and a service charge of $25.00, for the first check passed on insufficient funds, and $35.00 for each subsequent check passed on insufficient funds.

   (c) If Resident has previously attempted to pay Owner/Agent with a check drawn on insufficient funds or if Resident has instructed the drawee to stop payment on a check, draft, or order for the payment of money, Resident shall thereafter be required to use money orders or certified funds as the exclusive form of payment of rent or deposit of security.

   (d) Resident is responsible for delivering the rent on time. Failure of the U.S. Post Office or private carrier to deliver the rent on time will not result in a waiver of the breach of lease provisions contained herein.

   (e) UTILITIES: Resident shall pay for all utilities, services and other charges as set forth in Section 5 of this Lease Agreement and by the due date set forth in Section 5(e) of this Lease Agreement.

   (f) PARKING: Resident acknowledges and agrees that parking is not provided for under this Lease Agreement and is not included in Resident's rent. Should Resident desire to purchase a monthly parking permit for one or more vehicles from Owner (subject to availability thereof and with the express understanding there is no assurance that parking will be available), Resident must enter into a separate agreement (the "Parking Agreement") which will govern the purchase of the parking permit(s). While a Parking Agreement does not constitute a part of this Lease Agreement, a default under a Parking Agreement shall constitute a default under this Lease Agreement.

   JC

   (g) RENT CONTROL: If the Property is subject to rent control, Resident shall pay monthly its share of the then-current rent stabilization fee.

3. SECURITY DEPOSIT: Resident shall deposit with Owner/Agent, as a security deposit, the sum of $600.00 prior to taking possession of the unit, which sum shall not exceed the maximum permitted by California Civil Code Section 1950.5. During the term of tenancy, Resident agrees to replenish the security deposit upon three (3) days written notice, by an amount equal to the amount deducted by Owner, in Owner's sole and absolute discretion, to cover the cost of rectifying any damage and paying any expense for which Tenant is responsible. Resident shall not use the security deposit to pay any month's rent, nor shall it constitute a measure of Owner's damages in the event of Resident's default. The security deposit shall be applied and accounted for in accordance with California Civil Code Section 1950.5 and any other applicable statutes.

4. TERM: The term of this Lease Agreement is for 1 year, beginning on September 1, 2010 (the "Commencement Date") and ending on August 31, 2011 (the "Termination Date"), at which time this Lease Agreement will automatically renew month-to-month unless either party gives at least 30 days written notice of termination or intent not to renew the Lease Agreement prior to the expiration of this agreement. Any holding over by Resident after the Termination Date shall result in Resident being liable to Owner/Agent for daily rental damages equal to the current market value of the unit, divided by 30. A "month-to-month" tenancy subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease Agreement shall be created only if Owner/Agent accepts rent from Resident thereafter, and if so accepted, Resident may terminate the tenancy by serving by Owner/Agent with a written 30-day Notice of Termination. Except as prohibited by law, Owner/Agent may terminate the month-to-month tenancy by serving Resident with a 30-day Notice of Termination (pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1946.1) if Resident has resided in the Premises for less than one year, or a 60-day Notice of Termination, if Resident has resided in the Premises for one year or more.

5. UTILITIES: Resident's monthly rent does not include any charges for the monthly utilities services provided to Resident, including, without limitation, sewer, water, trash, gas or electric services. Resident shall pay all monthly utilities charges pursuant to the terms of this Section 5.

   (a) SEWER, WATER AND TRASH SERVICES: Resident shall pay a flat monthly utilities charge for sewer, water and trash services (in addition to any charges for gas and electric services, as set forth in Section 5(b) below). The flat rate shall initially be $25.00 per month, but may be increased from time to time to reflect increases in costs for sewer, water and trash services. Further, the Premises may subsequently be separately metered (or Resident otherwise directly billed) for such services (in accordance with provisions substantively equivalent to the provisions of Sections 5(b)(2) and 5(b)(3), respectively, hereof), in which case Resident shall not be obligated to pay the flat rate, but must instead pay the amount billed for such services. Provided, however, if water services are separately metered, Resident must pay both the amount billed for water service and the flat rate. Resident shall immediately notify Owner of any water leak.

   (b) GAS AND ELECTRIC SERVICES: The monthly utilities charge for gas and electric services shall be calculated, billed and paid in accordance with this Section 5(b).

   (1) No Meter: Flat Rate: If the Premises is not separately metered for gas or electric services, Resident shall pay a flat monthly utilities charge for gas and electricity (in addition to any charges for sewer, water and trash services, as set forth in above). The flat rate shall initially be $0.00 per month if the Premises is not separately metered for either gas or electric services, or $0.00 per month if the Premises is separately metered for either gas or electric services, but not both. This flat rate may be increased from time to time to reflect increases in costs for gas and electric services. Further, the Premises may subsequently be separately metered for gas and/or electric services, in which case Resident shall pay the amount billed for such services (as set forth in Sections 5(b)(2) and 5(b)(3), below).

   (2) Separate Meter: Direct Billing by Utility Provider: If Resident is directly billed for gas or electricity services, Resident shall pay the entire amount due each month (as indicated on the utilities bill) to the utilities provider at the address set forth in the utilities bill. Resident acknowledges that failure to do so shall constitute a default under this Lease Agreement. Resident must transfer any directly billed service into their name before the Commencement Date. If Resident is directly billed for either gas or electricity services (but not both), Resident shall pay, in addition to the amount set forth on the utilities bill, the flat rate set forth in Section 5(b)(1) above for the utility service which is not separately metered. If Resident is directly billed for both gas and electricity services, Resident shall not be obligated to pay the flat rate set forth in Section 5(b)(1), but must pay the entire amount due each month to the utilities provider(s).

   (3) Separate Meter: Submetering: If separate gas or electricity submeters are installed and placed in operation at the Premises, at any time before or after the date of this Lease Agreement, Resident shall pay its proportionate share of the total monthly charges for gas and electric services, which will be calculated as set forth in this Section 5(b)(3). If either a gas or an electricity submeter is installed and placed in operation at the Premises (but not both), Resident shall pay, in addition to its proportionate share of the submetered utility service, the flat rate set forth in Section 5(b)(1) above for the utility service which is not submetered. If both gas and electricity submeters are installed and placed in operation at the Premises, Resident shall not be obligated to pay the flat rate set forth in Section 5(b)(1), but must pay its proportionate share of the submetered utility services.

      (i) Resident's monthly utility bill shall be based on actual readings as recorded by the energy allocation equipment and submeter for the Premises. Utilities shall be calculated at the average rate per therm or ccf (for gas utility services) or per kwh (for electricity services) at the time of consumption. Utilities shall be calculated as follows: the master metered utility provider's total monthly charges for utility service (less Premises base charges or customer service charges if applicable), divided by the total monthly consumption of that utility measured by the utility provider, multiplied by the Resident's total monthly consumption as recorded by the energy allocation equipment and submeter for the Premises.

      (ii) If any utility provider's rate structure includes a base charge, Resident shall be billed, and shall be responsible for paying, the base charge applicable to that Premises. If the utility provider's rate structure includes customer service charge(s), Resident shall be billed, and shall be responsible for paying, the amount of the customer service charge(s) divided by the total number of apartments, including vacant units, that can receive service through the master meter serving the Property. Resident hereby agrees to pay the monthly service charges or other administrative fees shown on the Resident's utility bill.

      (iii) Resident may receive an estimated utilities bill if a submeter becomes inoperative until repairs can be made, and Resident acknowledges that estimated utilities will be reconciled on future billings. Resident acknowledges that if, upon correction of an estimated utilities bill, the previous bill(s) overstated charges, Resident shall be entitled to an account credit reflecting the overstated charges and if, upon correction of an estimated utilities bill, the previous bill(s) understated charges, Resident shall be responsible for paying the amount of such underpayment.

(c) Resident acknowledges and agrees that the billing method for Resident's utility services may be modified from time to time to reflect the Premises' current utilities metering method (e.g. if Resident currently pays a flat rate for utilities services, one or more of the utilities may later be separately metered, submetered or directly billed to Resident, at which time Resident shall pay, in lieu of the flat rate or a portion thereof, the amount of those utilities separately metered, submetered or directly billed to Resident, in accordance with Section 5(b)(2) or 5(b)(3), respectively, above).

(d) Resident acknowledges that Owner cannot guarantee the level of charges for directly billed or submetered utilities services, which will vary over time depending on the Resident's usage characteristics, changes in the rates imposed by the utility provider that provides service to Owner and other factors.

(e) Resident hereby understands and agrees that Resident must deliver payment of the entire amount due each month to the Owner (or the utilities provider, if Resident is directly billed for either gas and/or electricity services) by the due date specified on the utility bill (or, for flat-rate charges, in advance on the 1st day of each and every month). Late payment charges and insufficient funds charges, as set forth in Section 2 of this Lease Agreement, shall be assessed if payment is not received when due.

6. OCCUPANTS: This Premises shall not be occupied by more persons than listed for the 1 Bed / 1 Bath, 616 sq. ft. apartment indicated in the "Maximum Number of Occupants."

Type of Apartment	Maximum Number of Occupants
Junior	3
One Bedroom	3
Two Bedroom	5
Three Bedroom	7

The Premises is a 1 Bed / 1 Bath, 616 sq. ft. apartment. The Premises shall be occupied only by the following named person(s):

Name	Birthdate
Josefina Calderon	3/19/1966

Occupancy of the Premises by a person other than those persons listed above for a period exceeding 72 hours shall be a material breach of this Lease Agreement.

7. PROHIBITIONS: Without Owner/Agent's prior written permission, no pets or waterbeds shall be kept or allowed in or about the Premises.

8. QUIET ENJOYMENT: Resident shall not violate any criminal or civil law, ordinance or statute in the use and occupancy of the Premises (including laws governing the possession, use or sale of illegal drugs or laws governing prostitution), commit waste or nuisance, annoy, molest or interfere with any other Resident or neighbor. Any such action may result in the immediate termination of this Lease Agreement as provided herein and by law. Possession of any illegal drug (including marijuana, whether or not obtained with a prescription) either within Resident's unit or on Resident's possession while Resident is anywhere on the Property, shall be grounds for immediate eviction. Resident and Owner agree that such violation is a non-curable violation of this Lease Agreement, and that a breach of this prohibition is a "material" breach of this Agreement. Further, it shall be a non-curable breach of this Lease Agreement (and thus cause for immediate eviction) for Resident, any guest of Resident, or anyone who resides with Resident at the Premises, to do any of the following: (a) to have in their possession, or be under the influence of, any illegal drug (including marijuana, whether or not obtained with a prescription) while on or near the Property, or within the City of East Palo Alto; or (b) to engage in any drug-related or other criminal activity while on or near the Property, or within the City of East Palo Alto. Furthermore, it shall be a non-curable breach of this Lease Agreement (and thus cause for immediate eviction) for any guest of Resident to engage in any drug-related or other criminal activity while on the Property. Resident understands that Resident is strictly liable for the conduct of guests and will be evicted even if Resident did not know, could not foresee, or could not control behavior by the others mentioned in this paragraph. Resident shall also abide by the rules set forth in the Resident Policies Addendum attached hereto.

9. REPAIRS AND ALTERATIONS: Except as provided by law, no repairs, decorating or alterations shall be done by Resident without Owner/Agent's prior written consent. Resident must notify Owner/Agent in writing of any repairs, decorating, or alterations contemplated and must receive Owner/Agent's prior written consent befote making such repairs, decorating, or alterations. Decorations include, but are not limited to, painting and wallpapering. Any visable tenant modifications such as window coverings where the resident has purchased their own window coverings, the white blinds provided by owner shall be the only window covering permitted to be visable from the outside of the unit. Resident shall hold Owner/Agent harmless and indemnify Owner/Agent as to any mechanics lien recordation or proceeding caused by Resident. Resident may not make any alterations to cable or telephone inside wiring (such as may occur when changing telecommunications providers or adding phone lines) without prior written consent of the Owner/Agent. The notice shall include the name, address, and telephone number of any new telecommunication provider. Resident agrees to pay all costs resulting from the alteration and agrees to pay to the Owner/Agent any costs associated with restoring the inside wiring to the condition at the time of move-in, except for reasonable wear and tear. Upon 24 hours' notice, Resident shall lend Owner the keys to the Premises for the purpose of having a duplicate made for Owner/Agent's use. Should the law require that Owner make alterations for the reasonable accommodations of Resident, such alterations shall be made at Resident's sole cost and expense. Any and all alterations, shall, upon Resident's move-out, become the property of Owner and remain on the Premises; provided, however, that Owner may remove any and all alterations made for or by Resident and Resident shall be responsible for the cost of (A) repairing all damage to the Premises caused by their removal and/or (B) returning the Premises to its original condition.

10. ACCEPTANCE OF PREMISES: Resident has inspected the Premises, furnishings and equipment, and has found them to be satisfactory and accepts them in their "as is" condition. All plumbing, heating and electrical systems are operative and deemed satisfactory. Owner/Agent makes no representations whatsoever regarding the condition of the Premises or the Property. Resident and Owner/Agent have noted the presence of certain personal property of Owner at the Premises as identified in the Move In/Move Out Addendum.

11. CARE, CLEANING, MAINTENANCE AND INSURANCE: During tenancy, Resident agrees to keep the Premises in a safe and sanitary condition and to immediately reimburse landlord for any sums necessary to repair any item, fixture or appurtenance that needed service due to Resident's, or Resident's invitee, misuse or negligence. Where a repair is the responsibility of the landlord, Resident must notify landlord with a written notice stating what item needs servicing or repair. Resident must give landlord a reasonable opportunity to service or repair said item. Resident agrees to leave the Premises and furniture, furnishings and appliances, and fixtures, which are rented for Resident's exclusive use, in good order and condition and in the same condition as each was received, subject to reasonable wear and tear. Upon move-out, Resident agrees to return the Premises to the same level of cleanliness it was in at the inception of the tenancy ree of all trash and personal property not belonging to Owner. It is agreed that all dirt, holes, tears, burns and stains of any size or amount in the carpets, drapes, walls, fixture or any other part of the Premises do not constitute reasonable wear and tear. Any personal property left behind by Resident and not belonging to Owner may be thrown away by Owner without liability. Further, if Resident leaves large items in the unit or on the Property upon move out (or in or near the trash or elsewhere on the Property at any time), Resident shall be charged per Owner's move out schedule of costs as of the time of move-out, which is available upon move in and may be revised from time to time in Owner's sole and absolute discretion. Resident shall pay Owner/Agent for costs to repair, replace or rebuild any portion of the Premises damaged by the Resident, Resident's guests or invitees, including the charges specified in the Repairs and Replacements Addendum for any damaged property.

    Resident acknowledges that: (A) Owner's insurance may not cover loss from damage to Resident's personal property caused by plumbing leaks, fire, theft, rain, acts of God, acts of others, and/or any other causes, nor shall Owner be liable for such losses; and (B) Resident shall not hold Owner liable for any such losses, whether or not Owner's insurance covers the loss. Resident agrees to obtain Resident's own insurance to cover any losses to personal property. This paragraph does not intend to waive Owner's duty to guard against personal injury or property damage where that duty cannot be waived by Resident. However, since Resident's obtaining of insurance is considered additional consideration to Owner for this Lease Agreement, if Resident does not obtain a renter's policy for a minimum of $100,000 coverage, Resident waives any losses that would have been paid by such a policy, if Resident does not obtain said policy.

    Resident shall deposit all garbage in a clean and sanitary manner into the proper receptacles as provided and shall cooperate in keeping the trash container area neat and clean. Resident shall be responsible for keeping out of the kitchen sink bones, toothpicks, match sticks, celery, grease, metal vegetable ties, and all other items that may tend to cause stoppage of the sink and garbage disposal. Resident shall pay for the cleaning and/or clearing of any plumbing fixtures or water pipes, necessitated by the misuse or non-maintenance.

12. WAIVER OF BREACH: The waiver of either party of any breach shall not be construed to be a continuing waiver of any subsequent breach. The receipt by Owner/Agent of rent with the knowledge of any default by Resident of any breach of any term covenant or condition of this Lease Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of such breach r of any subsequent breaches. Owner's failure to require compliance with the terms of this Lease Agreement and to exercise any right granted by this Lease Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver by Owner of said term, condition and/or right; and shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any provision of this Lease Agreement. No waiver by either party of the provisions herein shall be deemed to have been made unless expressed in writing and signed by all parties to this Lease Agreement.

13. JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY: The undersigned Resident(s), whether or not in actual possession of the Premises, are jointly and severally liable for all obligations under this Lease Agreement, and shall indemnify Owner/Agent for liability arising prior to the termination of the Lease Agreement for personal injuries or property damage caused or permitted by Resident(s), their guests and invitees. This does not waive "Owner/Agent's duty of care" to prevent personal injury or property damage where that duty is imposed by law.

14. ENTRY: California law allows Owner/Agent or his/her employee(s) to enter the Premises for certain purposes during normal business hours. The Owner/Agent will provide written notice to the Resident prior to the entry of the dwelling unit whenever required by state law. (Civil Code Section 1954.) Resident's non-compliance with Owner/Agent's lawful request for entry is a material breach of this Lease Agreement that may be cause for immediate termination as provided herein and by law.

15. NO SUBLETTING OR ASSIGNMENT:

(a) No portion of the Premises shall be sublet, licensed or otherwise rented to a person not a party to this Lease Agreement, nor shall this Lease Agreement be assigned. Any attempted subletting, licensing, rental or assignment by Resident shall, at the election of Owner/Agent, be an irremediable breach of this Lease Agreement and cause for immediate termination as provided herein and by law. Resident shall not take in or allow occupancy by any person, whether that person is deemed a boarder, lodger, roommate or guest; and furthermore said occupancy shall be deemed an illegal subtenancy.

(b) In the event the rental unit is assigned or sublet by Resident, whether Resident permanently resides in the rental unit or not, then the rent for the Premises shall be increased by thirty-five (35%) without further notice from Owner. This provision is pursuant to Civil Code Section 1954.53(d). Owner shall elect the option of either collecting the increased rent or enforcing the provisions of Section 15(a), above. If Owner elects to enforce the provisions of Section 15(a), but a court of competent jurisdiction rules that Owner has waived the provisions for any reason, then Resident agrees to pay the 35% increased rent from the time that the assignment/subletting first occurred.

16. BREACH OF LEASE: In the event that Resident breaches this Lease Agreement, Owner/Agent shall be allowed at Owner/Agent's discretion, but not by way of limitation, to exercise any or all remedies provided Owner/Agent by California Civil Code Section 1951.2 and 1951.4. Damages Owner/Agent "may recover" include the worth at the time of the award of the amount by which the unpaid rent for the balance of the term after the time of award, or for any shorter period of time specified in the Lease Agreement, exceeds the amount of such rental loss for the same period that the Resident proves could be reasonably avoided. Resident's default under any "Additional Agreement" (as defined in Section 25 hereof) shall constitute a default under this Lease Agreement. There is no grace period with respect to the payment of rent. Accordingly, without limitation on any other obligation of Resident under this Lease Agreement, Resident's failure to pay rent on the first day of a month constitutes a breach of this Lease Agreement.

17. ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATE: Within ten (10) days after written request is mailed to Resident, including in the event of the sale, financing or restructuring of ownership of the Property, Resident agrees to execute and deliver to Owner an estoppel certificate on the form submitted by Owner: (A) acknowledging whether this Lease Agreement has been modified and, if so, stating all the modifications; (B) stating the amount of the current rent Resident is paying and the amount Resident has paid as prepaid rent and security deposit; (C) stating whether or not Resident is then aware of any violation of law in the operation of the building, and/or has any claim against Owner; and (D) stating requests for other information relevant to Resident's occupancy of the Premises. Failure to comply shall be deemed Resident's acknowledgement that the certificate as submitted by Owner/Agent is true and correct and may be relied upon by any lender or purchaser.

18. SMOKE DETECTION DEVICE: The Premises are equipped with a functioning smoke detection device(s), and Resident shall be responsible for testing the device weekly and immediately reporting any problems, maintenance or need for repairs to Owner/Agent. If battery operated, Resident is responsible for changing the detector's battery as necessary. Owner/Agent shall have a right to enter the Premises to check and maintain the smoke detection device as provided by law.

19. NOTICE: Pursuant to Section 290.46 of the Penal Code, information about specified registered sex offenders is made available to the public via an Internet Web site maintained by the Department of Justice at www.meganslaw.ca.gov. Depending on an offender's criminal history, this information will include either the address at which the offender resides or the community of residence and ZIP Code in which he or she resides.

20. ADDENDA: By initialing as provided, Resident acknowledges receipt of the following applicable addenda, as indicated, copies of which are attached hereto, and are incorporated as part of this Lease Agreement. Please note that any Parking Agreement is a separate agreement and is not an addenda hereto.

- ☒ Asbestos Addendum
- ☒ California Proposition 65 Warning
- ☒ Lead Paint Booklet
- ☒ Lead-Based Paint Disclosure
- ☒ Move-In Summary
- ☒ Move-In/Move-Out Itemized Statement
- ☒ Parking Agreement

- ☒ Vehicle Registration

21. ENTIRE AGREEMENT: This Lease Agreement, which includes all attachments referred to above, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and cannot be modified except in writing and signed by all parties, except as permitted by applicable law. Neither Owner/Agent, nor any agent or employee of Owner/Agent has made any representations or promises other than those set forth herein. All determinations, consents and approvals by Owner/Agent in connection with this Lease shall be in its sole and absolute discretion.

22. CREDIT REPORTS: A negative credit report reflecting on your credit history may be submitted to a credit reporting agency if you fail to fulfill the terms of your credit obligations. Resident expressly authorizes Owner/Agent (including a collection agency) to obtain Resident's consumer credit report, which Owner/Agent may use if attempting to collect past due rent payments, late fees, or other charges from Resident, both during the term of the Lease Agreement and thereafter.

23. ATTORNEYS' FEES: If any legal action or proceeding is brought by either party to enforce any part of this Lease Agreement, each party's costs of said enforcement shall be the responsibilities of that respective party and no other party.

24. SATELLITE ANTENNA/DISHES: Resident shall not install, or permit any other person or entity to install, any kind of satellite dish or antenna on the Premises or anywhere on the Property.

25. ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS: From time to time during the term of this lease, any renewal, expansion or extension thereof or any month to month tenancy arising after the Termination Date, Resident may rent or purchase from Owner/Agent certain other services which are not included in Resident's rent. By way of example and without limitation, these services may include parking, cable television, concierge services, furniture rental and washer/dryer rental. Resident covenants and agrees to perform any and all of its obligations under any agreement executed in connection with those services (each an "Additional Agreement"), and acknowledges and agrees that a default by Resident under any Additional Agreement shall constitute a default under this Lease Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt and without limitation, a Parking Agreement constitutes an Additional Agreement.

26. RENT PAYMENT BY NON-TENANT: If Owner accepts rent from any person not a Resident, whether or not the person occupies the Premises, said acceptance: (A) shall not constitute a waiver or modification of Section 15 of this Lease Agreement, (B) shall not be used to establish said person's right to possession of the premises; and (C) shall be interpreted only as an accommodation to Resident.

27. RESPONSIBILITY/INDEMNIFICATION: The undersigned Resident is/are jointly and severally responsible and liable for all obligations under this Lease Agreement and shall indemnify Owner from any liability created by Resident's and/or Resident's guests' conduct. In addition, Resident shall indemnify and hold Owner free and harmless from any and all liability arising by reason of the death or injury of any person or damage to any property caused or allegedly caused by (A) some act or omission of Resident or any person in, on or about the Property with the permission of Resident; and (B) any matter connected with Resident's occupation and use of the Premises.

28. NO WAIVER DURING LITIGATION: In the event that Owner accepts rent from Resident while Owner and Resident are involved in litigated based on a 3 Day Notice to Pay Rent or Quit, acceptance of said rent by Owner shall not be considered a waiver by Owner of the default upon which the 3 Day Notice to Pay Rent or Quit was based. Rather, said rent payment shall be received by Owner in trust and shall be subject to jurisdiction of the court wherein said manner is pending. Owner shall be allowed to commingle said rent payment funds with Owner's regular funds as long as Owner keeps an accurate accounting of money received from Resident during litigation.

29. APPLICATION MISREPRESENTATION: Any material misrepresentation or omission made by Resident in Resident's rental application will constitute a material noncurable breach of this Lease Agreement.

30. LOCKING OF ENTRANCE DOORS: Owner reserves the right to close and keep locked all entrance and exit doors of the building during such hours as Owner may deem it advisable for the adequate protection of the Property and the personal property of Owner and Resident. It shall be a material breach of this Lease Agreement for any Resident to prop open any entrance or exit door.

31. LEAD DISCLOSURE: Many homes and apartments built before 1978 may have paint that contains lead (called lead-based paint). Lead from paint chips and dust can cause serious hazards if not taken care of properly. The law requires that Resident receive certain information before renting pre-1978 housing. By signing this Lease Agreement, Resident acknowledges that Owner has provided Resident with such information. Additionally, upon Resident's request, Owner will provide Resident with the EPA booklet entitled "Protect Your Family From Lead In Your Home." Any known lead-based paint or lead hazards at the Premises, if any, are hereby disclosed: _____ .

32. WAIVER OF PUNITIVE DAMAGES:

It is recognized that neither the Resident's nor the Owner's insurance company pays for an award of punitive damages. Thus, it is not possible for either party to insure against such a loss. Both parties feel it is in their best interest to mutually waive the right to collect punitive damages against the other and hereby elect to do so. Therefore, it is agreed that neither a judge nor a jury shall have the power or authority to award punitive or exemplary damages in any litigation between the parties, against either party. For purposes of establishing the enforceability of this waiver of punitive damages, the parties have elected to have federal law apply as a choice of law. Thus the legality of this waiver will be judged under federal law and not state or city laws. In the event that for any reason this mutual waiver of punitive damages is not upheld, then both parties agree that there should be a reasonable limit on the amount that either party shall recover against the other. Such limit shall be one (1) times the amount of actual damages awarded.

33. ATTORNEY'S ADVICE: Each of the parties hereto acknowledges that either (1) the terms of this Lease Agreement have been explained to them by their respective counsel and that they execute this Lease Agreement in reliance upon advice of their respective counsel, or (2) that they have been given the opportunity to consult an attorney and have decided not to do so; and warrant that they will not at a later time attempt to set this Lease Agreement aside because they were not represented by an attorney.

34. HEADINGS: The captions and headings used in this Lease Agreement are for convenience only and do not in any way limit, amplify or otherwise modify the provisions of this Lease Agreement.

The undersigned Resident(s) acknowledge(s) having read and understood the foregoing, and receipt of a duplicate original. Only may sign this Lease Agreement on behalf of Owner/Agent. If the signatory is not , this Lease Agreement is of no effect.

☒ This property may contain asbestos.

OR

❑ This property contains asbestos. This hazardous substance is contained in some of the original building materials and in some of the products and materials used to maintain the property. Disturbance or damage to certain interior apartment surfaces may increase the potential exposure to these substances.

1. Resident or the Resident's guest(s), employees and contractors shall not take or permit any action which in any way damages or disturbs the Premises or any part thereof, including, but not limited to:
   (i) piercing the surface of the ceiling by drilling or any other method;
   (ii) hanging plants, mobiles, or other objects from the ceiling;
   (iii) attaching any fixtures to the ceiling;
   (iv) allowing any objects to come in contact with the ceiling;
   (v) permitting water or any liquid, other than ordinary steam condensation, to come into contact with the ceiling;
   (vi) painting, cleaning, or undertaking any repairs of any portion of the ceiling;
   (vii) replacing light fixtures;
   (viii) undertaking any activity which results in building vibration that may cause damage to the ceiling.
2. Resident shall notify Owner/Agent immediately in writing (i) if there is any damage to or deterioration of the ceiling in the Premises or any portion thereof, including, without limitation, flaking, loose, cracking, hanging or dislodged material, water leaks, or stains in the ceiling, or (ii) upon the occurrence of any of the events described in Paragraph 1 above.

The undersigned Resident(s) acknowledge(s) having read and understood the foregoing.

CALIFORNIA'S PROPOSITION 65 WARNING

California's Proposition 65 (Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986) requires businesses with 10 or more employees to provide warnings prior to exposing individuals to chemicals known to the State to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm.

These types of chemicals are found within this establishment. This brochure provides you with information on what chemicals are present and what your exposures to them might be.

Warning

This Facility Contains Chemicals Known to the State of California To Cause Cancer and/or Birth Defects Or Other Reproductive Harm.

Second Hand Tobacco Smoke and Tobacco Products.

Tobacco products and tobacco smoke and its by-products contain many chemicals that are known to the State of California to cause cancer, and birth defects or other reproductive harm. Smoking is permitted in certain common and private areas.

Furnishings, Hardware, and Electrical Components.

Room furnishings and building materials contain formaldehyde, which is known to the State of California to cause cancer. Furniture, foams, brass keys, electrical power cords, carpeting, carpet padding, wall coverings, wood surfaces, and vinyl, contain a number of chemicals, including lead, and formaldehyde, known to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm. Their presence in these materials can lead to exposures. Certain molds that may be present contain chemicals, including sterigmatocystin, known to the State of California to cause cancer.

Combustion Sources.

Combustion sources such as gas stoves, fireplaces, and barbeques contain or produce a large number chemicals, including acetaldehyde, benzene and carbon monoxide, known to the State of California to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm which are found in the air of this complex. Any time organic matter such as gas, charcoal or wood is burned, Proposition 65-listed chemicals are released into the air.

Construction and Maintenance Materials.

Construction and maintenance materials contain Proposition 65-listed chemicals, such as roofing materials manufactured with vinyl chloride monomer, benzene and ceramic fibers, which are known to cause cancer, or birth defects or other reproductive harm. Construction materials used in walls, floors, ceilings and outside cladding contain chemicals, such as formaldehyde resin, asbestos, arsenic, cadmium and creosote, which are released as gases or vapors during normal degradation or deterioration, and as dust or particulate when disturbed during repairs, maintenance or renovation, all of which can lead to exposures.

Certain Products Used In Cleaning And Related Activities.

Certain cleaning products used for special cleaning purposes such as graffiti removal and spot and stain lifters contain chlorinated solvents including perchloroethylene and urinal odor cakes contain paradichlorobenzene which are Proposition 65-listed chemicals known to cause cancer or birth defects or other reproductive harm.

Swimming Pools and Hot Tubs.

The use and maintenance of a variety of recreational activities and facilities such as swimming pools and hot tubs where chlorine and bromine are used in the disinfecting process can cause exposures to chloroform and bromoform which are chemicals known to the State of California to cause cancer.

Paint and Painted Surfaces.

Certain paints and painted surfaces contain chemicals, such as lead and crystalline silica, that are known to the State of California to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm. Lead-based paint chips may be ingested and crystalline silica may be released into the air and lead to exposures.

Engine Related Exposures.

The operation and maintenance of engines, including automobiles, vans, maintenance vehicles, recreational vehicles, and other small internal combustion engines are associated with this residential rental facility. Motor vehicle rental fuels and engine exhaust contain many Proposition 65-listed chemicals, including benzene, carbon monoxide and, for diesel engines, diesel exhaust, which are known to the State to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm. In parking structures and garages, exhaust fumes can concentrate, increasing your exposure to these chemicals.

Pest Control and Landscaping.

Pests control and landscaping products used to control insects and weeds contain resmethrin, mycobutonil, triforine and arsenic trioxide which are known to the State to cause cancer and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm.

Sources of Chemical Exposures

California's Proposition 65 has identified hundreds of chemicals known to the State of California to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm. The law requires that businesses with 10 or more employees warn you prior to knowingly and intentionally exposing you to any of these chemicals when the exposure is over a certain level. While many exposures are associated with industrial activities and chemicals, everyday items and even the air we breathe routinely contain many of these chemicals. This brochure provides warning and information regarding exposures to these chemicals that occur in this facility. In many instances, we do not have information specific to this facility. Instead we have relied upon experts in this field to tell us where and to which chemicals these exposures might occur. For other exposures to listed chemicals, enough is known to identify specific areas of exposure.

The regulations implementing Proposition 65 offer warnings for various circumstances. Some of those warnings you may see in this residential rental property include the following:

General - Warning: This Facility Contains Chemicals Known to the State of California To Cause Cancer, And Birth Defects Or Other Reproductive Harm.

Foods and Beverages - Warning: Chemicals Known To The State of California To Cause Cancer, Or Birth Defects Or Other Reproductive Harm May Be Present In Foods Or Beverages Sold Or Served Here.

Alcohol - Warning: Drinking Distilled Spirits, Beer, Coolers, Wine, And Other Alcoholic Beverages May Increase Cancer Risk, And, During Pregnancy, Can Cause Birth Defects.

TARGET HOUSING RENTAL AGREEMENT/LEASE ADDENDUM
DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION ON
LEAD-BASED PAINT AND LEAD-BASED PAINT HAZARDS

Resident is renting from Owner/Agent the premises located at: 201 E. O'Keefe Street #107, East Palo Alto, CA 94303.

Lead Warning Statement

Housing built before 1978 may contain lead-based paint. Lead from paint, paint chips, and dust can pose health hazards if not taken care of properly. Lead exposure is especially harmful to young children and pregnant women. Before renting pre-1978 housing, landlords must disclose the presence of known lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards in the dwelling. Lessees must also receive a Federally approved pamphlet on lead poisoning prevention. NOTE: The existence of lead on the rental property is not, by itself, cause for termination of the tenancy. (Public Law 102-550 sec. 1018(c))

Lessor's Disclosure

(a) Presence of lead-based paint or lead-based paint hazards:

- ☒ Lessor has no knowledge of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing.
- ☐ Known lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards are present in the housing.

(b) Records and reports available to the Lessor:

- ☒ Lessor has no reports or records pertaining to lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing.
- ☐ Lessor has provided the Resident with all available records and reports pertaining to lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing.

Agent's* Acknowledgment (initial)

(c) JC Agent has informed the Lessor of his/her obligations under 42 U.S.C. 4852(d), and the Agent is aware of his/her responsibility to ensure compliance.

* The term Agent is defined as any party who enters into a contract with the Lessor, including anyone who enters into a contract with a representative of the Lessor for the purpose of leasing housing. An on-site resident manager may act as the Agent if authorized to do so by either the Lessor or the property management company.

Lessee's Acknowledgment (initial)

(d) JC Lessee has received copies of all information listed above.

(e) JC Lessee has received the pamphlet Protect Your Family from Lead in Your Home.

Certification of Accuracy

The following parties have reviewed the information above to certify, to the best of their knowledge, that the information provided by the signatory is true and accurate.

According to state law:

Any security shall be held by the landlord for the tenant who is party to the lease or agreement. The claim of a tenant to the security shall be prior to the claim of any creditor for the landlord. (Civil Code Section 1950.5(d))

According to Civil Code Section 1950.5(b), the security deposit may be used by the owner for any purpose, including, but not limited to, any of the following:

(1) The compensation of a landlord for a tenant's default in the payment of rent.
(2) The repair of damages to the premises, exclusive of ordinary wear and tear caused by the tenant or by a guest or licensee of the tenant.
(3) The cleaning of the premises upon termination of the tenancy necessary to return the unit to the same level of cleanliness it was in at the inception of the tenancy. The amendments to this paragraph enacted by the act adding this sentence shall apply only to tenancies for which the tenant's right to occupy begins after January 1, 2003. (Amendment underlined)
(4) To remedy future defaults by the tenant in any obligation under this rental agreement to restore, replace, or return personal property or appurtenances, exclusive of wear and tear, if the security deposit is authorized to be applied thereto by the rental agreement.

From the time of the initial inspection until the termination of the tenancy, the tenant may remedy the deficiencies identified in the initial inspection, in a manner consistent with the rights and obligations of the parties under the rental agreement, in order to avoid deductions from the security deposit.

The law allows the Owner/Agent to use the security deposit for legal deductions itemized in this statement that are not corrected by the Resident prior to the termination of the tenancy or that were not identified due to the presence of the Resident's possessions during the time of the initial inspection. It also allows Owner/Agent to use the security deposit to correct any damages that occur to the unit/property between the time of the initial inspection and the termination of the tenancy.

A final itemized statement will be sent to you within 3 weeks of the termination of your tenancy.

PARKING AGREEMENT

THIS PARKING AGREEMENT is made and entered into this 1st day of September, 2010 between Redus Woodland LLC ("Owner"), whose address and phone number are 2041 Euclid ave, East Palo Alto, CA 94303, (650) 566-2030, and Josefina Calderon ("Permit Holder").

THE PARTIES AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

1. LOCATION. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Parking Agreement, Permit Holder agrees to purchase, and Owner agrees to sell to Permit Holder, one (1) monthly parking permits (the "Parking Permits") for use at the property located at 201 E. O'Keefe Street, East Palo Alto, California 94303 (the "Property").

2. MONTHLY FEE. Permit Holder shall pay $25.00 per month per Parking Permit (the "Permit Fee"). Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that this amount may be increased from time to time to reflect Owner's then-current rate for parking spaces charged by the Owner to new residents at Owner's apartment buildings or at any other rate in Owner's sole and absolute discretion.
   (a) Payment will be due in advance on or before the 1st of every month. If the Permit Fee is paid after the 5th of the month, there will be a late charge of $10.00 assessed for such late payment. There is no grace period with respect to the application of such late charge. The parties have deemed the foregoing late charge to be a reasonable estimate of the amount of damages suffered by Owner by reason of Permit Holder's late payment of rent, as it would be impracticable or extremely difficult to determine the actual damages suffered by Owner in the event of such a late payment.
   (b) Pursuant to California law, if Permit Holder passes a check on insufficient funds, Permit Holder will be liable to Owner for the amount of the check and a service charge of $25.00 for the first check passed on insufficient funds, and $35.00 for each subsequent check passed on insufficient funds.

3. PERMIT AND DESIGNATED PARKING SPACE. The Permit Holder must obtain one (1) Parking Permit for each vehicle the Permit Holder will park on the Property. The Parking Permit must be prominently displayed in the back window of the vehicle at all times. The vehicle may only be parked in its designated parking space (as indicated in the "Vehicle Information" section of this Parking Agreement). The Parking Permits are valid only for the vehicle's assigned space and only for current residents of the Property who are party to a valid apartment lease and not in default thereunder.

4. NON-RESIDENT PARKING. Subject to availability, unassigned guest parking may be provided at the Property for non-resident guests on a "first come, first served" basis. Unassigned guest parking spaces may be assigned to current tenants of the Property at any time and at Owner's sole and absolute discretion. Guest use of parking facilities is in accordance with the Property's Parking Rules and Regulations (as the same may be amended or modified from time to time in Owner's sole and absolute discretion, the "Parking Rules"). The maximum allowable duration for visitor parking is three (3) days.

5. TERMS AND CONDITIONS. Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that:
   (a) Resident's use of the Parking Permit and parking facilities is in accordance with the Parking Rules.
   (b) The term and amount of all Parking Permits may vary. The Parking Holder may or may not have any or all of its Parking Permits for the duration of the "Lease" (as defined below), nor may Permit Holder have all its Parking Permits for the same duration.
   (c) The parking provided herein is not a service under that certain Lease Agreement between Owner and Permit Holder with respect to the Property (the "Lease").
   (d) Parking Permits may be cancelled at any time, in Owner's sole and absolute discretion, upon thirty (30) days' notice by Owner.
   (e) Parking Permits shall remain the property of the Owner. Parking Permits must be displayed as set forth herein and may not be mutilated in any manner. The serial number, if any, of the Parking Permit may not be obliterated. Parking Permits are not transferable and any Parking Permit in the possession of an unauthorized holder will be void. If a Parking Permit is lost or otherwise must be replaced, Permit Holder must pay a replacement charge of $20.00 for each replacement Parking Permit.

6. DEFAULT AND FAILURE TO ADHERE TO CONDITIONS. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, a default under the Lease shall constitute a default under this Parking Agreement. Further, Permit Holder's failure to adhere to the terms, conditions and provisions of the Parking Agreement and the terms and conditions of the Parking Rules may result in Owner or its agent taking one or more of the following actions:
   (a) Towing of the vehicle without warning and at the vehicle owner's or Permit Holder's risk and expense;
   (b) The temporary suspension of Permit Holder's or its guest's parking privileges with no refund;

(c) Permanent revocation of the Parking Permit with no refund; or

(d) Permanent loss of all of Permit Holder's or its guest's parking privileges.

Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that Owner shall be in no way responsible for loss, theft or damage to any vehicle or other property due to collision, theft, burglary, vandalism, crime or otherwise caused by Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees, any vehicle operated or parked by Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees pursuant to or in violation of this Parking Agreement, any personal property left in such vehicle, or otherwise with respect to Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees. Permit Holder agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Owner with respect to any claim arising from such loss or damage.

Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that Permit Holder has been granted a license to park on the Property and that no bailment relationship between Owner and Permit Holder has been or will be created. Permit Holder is required to park and lock Permit Holder's vehicle, and must retain the vehicle's keys. In no event shall Owner or its agents be deemed to have acquired any dominion over the vehicle or any right to control the vehicle's removal (except for purposes of towing vehicles following a violation of the Parking Rules or the Permit Holder's Parking Agreement).

Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that there is no attendant at the parking lot and that Permit Holder parks the vehicle at the Property at Permit Holder's sole risk.

ADDENDUM:
PARKING RULES AND REGULATIONS

The following rules and regulations shall govern use of the parking facilities for the Property. Any vehicle found to be in violation of these rules will be towed at the vehicle owner's expense, without notice.

1. No vehicle may be parked in the fire lane and/or red zones.
2. No vehicle may be parked in a disabled-access space without a valid and prominently displayed disabled parking permit or placard issued by the State of California.
3. No vehicle may be parked without a valid monthly parking permit sticker (the "Parking Permit") properly displayed. Each Parking Permit is valid only for the vehicle's assigned space and only for current residents of the Property who are party to a valid apartment lease and not in default thereunder.
4. All vehicles must be currently registered to the holder of the Parking Permit (the "Permit Holder") (or validly leased by the Permit Holder) and in good working order. Vehicles must not drop excessive oil or fluids on the ground, present a health or safety hazard, or cause damage or the risk of damage to any part of the Property. Inoperable, dismantled or partially dismantled, or unregistered vehicles are subject to tow under California Vehicle Code §22658 and any applicable local laws and/or ordinances.
5. No vehicle washing, waxing, cleaning or servicing is permitted on the Property.
6. Permit Holder may not perform or have performed any mechanical work or vehicle repairs on any vehicle in the parking area including, without limitation, changing oil.
7. Vehicles must be parked in only their designated parking space, entirely within the painted stall lines and head-in. No back-in parking is permitted.
8. The Property owner ("Owner") is not responsible if the vehicle is impounded.
9. Owner reserves the right to refuse the sale of Parking Permits or other parking identification devices to any tenant or person and/or his agents or representatives who willfully refuse to comply with these Parking Rules or any applicable city, state or federal ordinances, laws or agreements, whether posted or unposted.
10. Loss or theft of Parking Permits or other parking identification devices from vehicles must be reported immediately to Owner. Owner has the right to exclude any vehicle from the parking facilities that does not have an identification device. Any Parking Permit or other parking identification devices reported lost or stolen found on any unauthorized vehicle will be confiscated and the illegal holder will be subject to prosecution.
11. All directional signs and arrows must be observed.
12. The speed limit within all parking areas shall be 5 miles per hour.
13. Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that Owner shall be in no way responsible for loss, theft or damage to any vehicle or other property due to collision, theft, burglary, vandalism, crime or otherwise caused by Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees, any vehicle operated or parked by Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees pursuant to or in violation of this Parking Agreement, any personal property left in such vehicle, or otherwise with respect to Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees. Permit Holder agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Owner with respect to any claim arising from such loss or damage.
14. Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that Permit Holder has been granted a license to park on the Property and that no bailment relationship between Owner and Permit Holder has been or will be created. Permit Holder is required to park and lock Permit Holder's vehicle, and must retain the vehicle's keys. In no event shall Owner or its agents be deemed to have acquired any dominion over the vehicle or any right to control the vehicle's removal (except for purposes of towing vehicles following a violation of the Parking Rules or the Permit Holder's Parking Agreement).
15. Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that there is no attendant at the parking lot and that Permit Holder parks the vehicle at the Property at Permit Holder's sole risk.
16. Owner reserves the right to modify and/or adopt such other reasonable rules and regulations for the parking facilities as it deems necessary for the operation of the parking facilities. Owner reserves the right at any time to grant similar reserved and/or non-exclusive use to other tenants at the Property, to promulgate additional rules and regulations relating to the use of such parking areas, including reasonable restrictions on parking by tenants and guests, and to make changes in parking layout from time to time.

PEST CONTROL NOTICE ADDENDUM

This document is an Addendum and is part of the Rental/Lease Agreement, dated July 23, 2010 between Redus Woodland LLC (Owner/Agent) and Josefina Calderon, (Resident) for the premises located at 201 E. O'Keefe Street #107, East Palo Alto, CA 94303.

California law requires that an Owner/Agent of a residential dwelling unit provide each new tenant a copy of the notice provided by a registered pest control company if a contract for periodic pest control service has been executed.

The premises you are renting, or the common areas of the building are covered by such a contract for regular pest control service, so you are being notified pursuant to the law. The notice provided by the pest control company is attached to this Acknowledgment.

The undersigned Resident(s) acknowledge(s) having read and understood the foregoing and the referenced attachment. Only may sign this Lease Agreement on behalf of Owner/Agent. If the signatory is not , this Lease Agreement is of no effect.

PROPOSITION 65 WARNING AND Q & A ADDENDUM TO RENTAL AGREEMENT/LEASE AGREEMENT

WARNING:
This Property Contains Chemicals Known To The State of California To Cause Cancer and Birth Defects or Other Reproductive Harm.

Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment
Proposition 65 in Plain Language

What Is Proposition 65?

In November 1986, California voters overwhelmingly approved an initiative to address growing concerns about exposures to toxic chemicals. That initiative became The Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986, better known by its original name.

What does Proposition 65 Require?

Proposition 65 requires the Governor to publish a list of chemicals that are known to the State of California to cause cancer, birth defects or other reproductive harm. Agents that cause cancer are called carcinogens; those that cause birth defects or other reproductive harm are called reproductive toxicants. This list must be updated at least once a year. Over 700 chemicals have been listed as of March 10, 2000.

Proposition 65 imposes certain controls that apply to chemicals that appear on this list. These controls are designed to protect California's drinking water sources from contamination by these chemicals, to allow California consumers to make informed choices about the products they purchase, and to enable residents or workers to take whatever action they deem appropriate to protect themselves from exposures to these harmful chemicals.

Thus, Proposition 65 also provides a market-based incentive for manufacturers to remove listed chemicals from their products.

The benefits of the Proposition have their costs. Businesses have incurred expenses to test products, develop alternatives, reduce discharges, provide warnings and otherwise comply with the requirements of the Proposition. Recognizing that compliance with the Proposition comes at a price, Cal/EPA and the Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment (the lead agency for Proposition 65 implementation) have worked hard to minimize any unnecessary regulatory burdens and ensure that placement of a chemical on the list is done in accordance with rigorous science in an open public process.

What kinds of chemicals are on the list?

The list contains a wide range of chemicals, including dyes, solvents, pesticides, drugs, food additives, and byproducts of certain processes. These chemicals may be naturally occurring, or synthetic. Some of them are ingredients of common household products, others are specialty chemicals used in very specific industrial applications.

How does a chemical get listed?

The State of California relies upon information that already exists in the scientific literature when determining the threat of a chemical. A chemical is listed if the "state's qualified experts" two independent committees of scientists and health professionals appointed by the Governor find that the chemical has been clearly shown to cause cancer or birth defects or other reproductive harm.

In addition, a chemical can be listed if it has been classified as a carcinogen or as a reproductive toxicant by an organization that has been designated as "authoritative" for purposes of Proposition 65. For carcinogens, the organizations that have been designated as authoritative by OEHHA Science Advisory Board's Carcinogen Identification Committee (oehha.gov) are the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, U.S. Food and Drug Administration, National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health, the National Toxicology Program and the International Agency for Research on Cancer. The OEHHA Science Advisory Board's Developmental and Reproductive Toxicant Identification Committee have designated the following organizations as "authoritative bodies" for reproductive toxicants: the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, U.S. Food and Drug Administration, National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health and International Agency for Research on Cancer (limited only to transplacental carcinogenicity). A chemical can also be listed if it is required to be labeled or identified as a carcinogen or as a reproductive toxicant by an agency of the state or federal government.

Any company with ten or more employees that operates within the State or sells products in California must comply with the requirements of Proposition 65. Under Proposition 65, businesses are: 1) prohibited from knowingly discharging listed chemicals into sources of drinking water; and 2) required to provide a "clear and reasonable" warning before knowingly and intentionally exposing anyone to a listed chemical. This warning can be given by a variety of means, such as by labeling a consumer product, by posting signs at the workplace, or by publishing notices in a newspaper.

What Does A Warning Mean?

If you are given a warning or if a warning is posted in a workplace, a facility or an area in your community, this means that the business issuing the warning knows that one or more listed chemicals is present in its product, in its workplace, or in its emissions into the environment. Under the law, a warning must be given unless a business demonstrates that the exposure it causes poses no significant risk.

For a chemical that is listed as a carcinogen, the "no significant risk" level is defined as the level which is calculated to result in not more than one excess case of cancer in 100,000 individuals exposed over a Goodyear lifetime. In other words, if you are exposed to the chemical in question at this level every day for 70 years, theoretically it will increase your chances of getting cancer by no more than 1 case in 100,000 individuals so exposed.

For chemicals that are on the list as reproductive toxicants, the no significant risk level is defined as the level of exposure which, even if multiplied by 1,000, will not produce birth defects or other reproductive harm. That is, the level of exposure is below the observable effect level (NOEL), divided by 1,000. (The "no observable effect level" is the highest dose level which has not been associated with an observable reproductive harm in humans or test animals.)

When a warning is given by a business, it means one of two things: (1) the business has evaluated the exposure and has concluded that it exceeds the no significant risk level; or (2) the business has chosen to provide a warning simply based on its knowledge about the presence of a listed chemical, without attempting to evaluate the exposure. In these cases, exposure could be below the Proposition 65 level of concern, or could even be zero.

Since businesses do not file reports with the State regarding what warnings they have issued and why, the State is not able to provide further information about any particular warning which you may have received. The business issuing the warning is the appropriate party to contact if you seek more specific information about the warning, such as what chemicals are involved, in what manner these chemicals are present, and how exposures to those chemicals may or may not occur.

What has been accomplished as a result of Proposition 65?

Proposition 65 has provided an effective mechanism for reducing certain exposures that may not have been adequately controlled under existing federal or State laws. For example, a Proposition 65 enforcement action has resulted in the reduction of the amount of lead in ceramic tableware. Air emissions of certain chemicals including ethylene oxide, hexavalent chromium, and chloroform from facilities in California have been significantly reduced as a result of Proposition 65.

Certain chemicals on the list are no longer used as constituents of some commonly used products for example, trichloroethylene is no longer used in most correction fluids, toluene has been removed from many nail care products, and foil caps on wine bottles no longer contain lead.

Proposition 65 has resulted in the extensive dissemination of important information regarding the dangers to the unborn child of drinking alcoholic beverages during pregnancy. The warnings about alcoholic beverage consumption during pregnancy are perhaps the most widespread and visible type of warning issued as a result of Proposition 65.

REPAIRS AND REPLACEMENTS

Addendum to the Lease Agreement

During your tenancy, if the items below are not maintained in a satisfactory condition or working order, the following charges will be made. You will be responsible for these charges and billed directly. These bills are payable upon receipt. If the damages are discovered during the course of your move out inspection, the charges will be deducted from your security deposit.

If any items are missing or damaged to the point that they must be replaced when you move out, you will be charged the current cost of the item, plus labor and service charges.

You will be charged the list amount for each instance the item must be cleaned, repaired or replaced. Multiple charges will be made where appropriate. The prices given for the items listed below are average prices. If we incur a higher cost for repairing or replacing the item, you will be responsible for the higher cost.

Please be aware that this is not an all-inclusive list: you can be charged for cleaning, repairing or replacement items that are not on the list.

RESIDENT POLICIES AND "HOUSE RULES" ADDENDUM

I. GENERAL

1. This document is an Addendum and is part of the Rental/Lease Agreement, dated July 23, 2010 between Redus Woodland LLC (Owner/Agent) and Josefina Calderon, (Resident) for the premises at 201 E. O'Keefe Street #107, East Palo Alto, CA 94303.
2. New policies and rules or amendments to this document may be adopted by Owner/Agent upon giving 30 days' notice in writing to Resident.
3. Guests who stay more than 14 days in a year period may constitute a breach of the Rental/Lease Agreement. At the discretion of the Owner/Agent, guests may be required to go through the application process and, if approved, must sign a Rental/Lease Agreement.
4. Residents who lock themselves out of their units may be assessed a charge for the actual costs, including out of pocket expenses, incurred by the Owner/Agent.

II. NOISE AND CONDUCT

1. Residents and their guests shall not make or allow any excessive noise in the unit nor permit any actions which will interfere with the rights, comforts or conveniences of other persons.
2. Residents and their guests shall refrain from playing musical instruments, television sets, stereos, radios, and other devices at a volume which will disturb other persons.
3. Residents and their guests shall refrain, and shall ensure that Resident's guests likewise refrain, from activities and conduct outside of the unit (in common areas, parking areas, or recreation facilities) which are likely to annoy or disturb other persons.
4. Resident and their guests shall refrain from creating, or allowing to be created, any noise that is disturbing to other Residents between the hours of 10 pm and 8 am.

III. CLEANLINESS AND TRASH

1. Resident shall keep the unit clean, sanitary and free from objectionable odors at all times.
2. Resident shall ensure that papers, cigarette butts and trash are placed in appropriate receptacles so that litter is not created on or about Resident's unit.
3. Resident shall ensure that trash and other materials are not permitted to accumulate so as to cause a hazard or be in violation of any health, fire or safety ordinance or regulation.
4. Resident shall ensure that garbage is not permitted to accumulate and that it is placed on a daily basis in the trash containers provided for that purpose. Resident shall ensure that large boxes are broken apart before being placed in the trash containers. Resident shall be responsible, at Resident's expense, for hauling to the dump those items too large to fit in the trash containers.
5. Resident shall ensure that furniture is kept inside the unit and that unsightly items are kept out of view.
6. Resident shall refrain from leaving articles in the hallways or other common areas.
7. Resident shall refrain from shaking or hanging clothing, curtains, rugs, and other coverings and cloths outside of any window, ledge, or balcony.
8. Resident shall refrain from disposing of any combustible or hazardous material in trash containers or bins.

IV. SAFETY/SECURITY

1. Security is the responsibility of each Resident and each guest. Owner/Agent assumes no responsibility or liability, unless otherwise provided by law, for Resident's and guests' safety and security, or for injury or damage caused by the criminal acts of other persons.
2. Resident should ensure that all doors are locked during Resident's absence. Resident must notify Owner/Agent if locks become inoperable.
3. Resident should ensure that all appliances are turned off before departing from the premises.

4. When leaving for an extended period, Resident should notify Owner/Agent how long Resident will be away.
5. Prior to any planned absence from the unit, Resident shall give Owner/Agent authority to allow entry to the unit to any person or provide Owner/Agent with the name of any person or entity permitted by Resident to enter the unit.
6. Resident shall refrain from smoking in bed.
7. Resident shall refrain from using or storing gasoline, cleaning solvent or other combustibles in the unit.
8. Resident shall ensure that no personal belongings, including bicycles, play equipment or other items shall be left unattended in the halls, stairways or about the building.

V. MAINTENANCE, REPAIRS AND ALTERATIONS

1. Resident shall advise Owner/Agent of any items requiring repair, such as light switches or dripping faucets. Resident shall make repair requests as soon after the defect is noted as is practical.
2. Resident shall refrain from making service requests directly to maintenance personnel unless Resident is directed to do so by Owner/Agent.
3. Resident shall refrain from making any alterations or improvements to the unit without the consent of Owner/Agent. Resident shall refrain from using adhesives, glue or tape to affix pictures or decorations.
4. Resident shall refrain from using aluminum foil as a window covering and shall obtain the approval of Owner/Agent before using any window covering visible from the exterior of the building.
5. Costs of repair or clearance of stoppages in waste pipes or drains, water pipes or plumbing fixtures caused by Resident's negligence or improper usage are the responsibility of the Resident. Resident shall reimburse Owner/Agent for these costs on demand.

VI. PARKING

Protect Your Family From Lead In Your Home

United States Environmental Protection Agency

United States Consumer Product Safety Commission

United States Department of Housing and Urban Development

IMPORTANT!

Lead From Paint, Dust, and Soil Can Be Dangerous If Not Managed Properly

FACT: Lead exposure can harm young children and babies even before they are born.

FACT: Even children who seem healthy can have high levels of lead in their bodies.

FACT: People can get lead in their bodies by breathing or swallowing lead dust, or by eating soil or paint chips containing lead.

FACT: People have many options for reducing lead hazards. In most cases, lead-based paint that is in good condition is not a hazard.

FACT: Removing lead-based paint improperly can increase the danger to your family.

If you think your home might have lead hazards, read this pamphlet to learn some simple steps to protect your family.

Are You Planning To Buy, Rent, or Renovate a Home Built Before 1978?

Many houses and apartments built before 1978 have paint that containshigh levels of lead (called lead-based paint). Lead from paint, chips, and dust can pose serious health hazards if not taken care of properly.

OWNERS, BUYERS, and RENTERS are encouraged to check for lead (see page 6) before renting, buying, or renovating pre-1978 housing.

Federal law requires that individuals receive certain information before renting, buying, or renovating pre-1978 housing:

LANDLORDS have to disclose known information on lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards before leases take effect. Leases must include a disclosure about lead-based paint.

SELLERS have to disclose known information on lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards before selling a house. Sales contracts must include a disclosure form about lead-based paint. Buyers have up to 10 days to check for lead.

RENOVATORS disturbing more than 2 square feet of painted surfaces have to give you this pamphlet before starting work.

Lead Gets in the Body in Many Ways

Childhood lead poisoning remains a major environmental health problem in the U.S.

Even children who appear healthy can have dangerous levels of lead in their bodies.

People can get lead in their body if they:

- Breathe in lead dust (especially during renovations that disturb painted surfaces).
- Put their hands or other objects covered with lead dust in their mouths.
- Eat paint chips or soil that contains lead.

Lead is even more dangerous to children under the age of 6:

- At this age children's brains and nervous systems are more sensitive to the damaging effects of lead.
- Children's growing bodies absorb more lead.
- Babies and young children often put their hands and other objects in their mouths. These objects can have lead dust on them.

Lead is also dangerous to women of childbearing age:

- Women with a high lead level in their system prior to pregnancy would expose a fetus to lead through the placenta during fetal development.

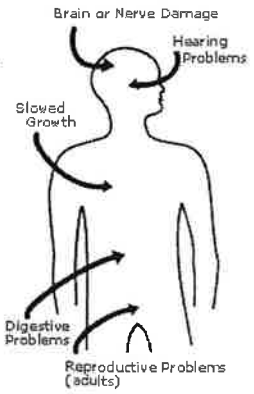
Lead's Effects

It is important to know that even exposure to low levels of lead can severely harm children.

In children, lead can cause:

- Nervous system and kidney damage.
- Learning disabilities, attention deficit disorder, and decreased intelligence.
- Speech, language, and behavior problems.
- Poor muscle coordination.
- Decreased muscle and bone growth.
- Hearing damage.

While low-lead exposure is most common, exposure to high levels of lead can have devastating effects on children, including seizures, unconsciousness, and in some cases, death.



Lead affects the body in many ways.

Although children are especially susceptible to lead exposure, lead can be dangerous for adults too.

In adults, lead can cause

- Increased chance of illness during pregnancy.
- Harm to a fetus, including brain damage or death.
- Fertility problems (in men and women).
- High blood pressure.
- Digestive problems.
- Nerve disorders.
- Memory and concentration problems.
- Muscle and joint pain.

Where Lead-Based Paint Is Found

In general, the older your home, the more likely it has lead-based paint.

Many homes built before 1978 have lead-based paint. The federal government banned lead-based paint from housing in 1978. Some states stopped its use even earlier. Lead can be found:

- In homes in the city, country, or suburbs.
- In apartments, single-family homes, and both private and public housing.
- Inside and outside of the house.
- In soil around a home. (Soil can pick up lead from exterior paint or other sources such as past use of leaded gas in cars.)

Checking Your Family for Lead

Get your children and home tested if you think your home has high levels of lead.

To reduce your child's exposure to lead, get your child checked, have your home tested (especially if your home has paint in poor condition and was built before 1978), and fix any hazards you may have. Children's blood lead levels tend to increase rapidly from 6 to 12 months of age, and tend to peak at 18 to 24 months of age.

Consult your doctor for advice on testing your children. A simple blood test can detect high levels of lead. Blood tests are usually recommended for:

- Children at ages 1 and 2.
- Children or other family members who have been exposed to high levels of lead.
- Children who should be tested under your state or local health screening plan.

Your doctor can explain what the test results mean and if more testing will be needed.

Identifying Lead Hazards

Lead from paint chips, which you can see, and lead dust, which you can't always see, can both be serious hazards.

Lead-based paint is usually not a hazard if it is in good condition, and it is not on an impact or friction surface, like a window. It is defined by the federal government as paint with lead levels greater than or equal to 1.0 milligram per square centimeter, or more than 0.5% by weight.

Deteriorating lead-based paint (peeling, chipping, chalking, cracking or damaged) is a hazard and needs immediate attention. It may also be a hazard when found on surfaces that children can chew or that get a lot of wear-and-tear, such as:

- Windows and window sills.
- Doors and door frames.
- Stairs, railings, banisters, and porches.

Lead dust can form when lead-based paint is scraped, sanded, or heated. Dust also forms when painted surfaces bump or rub together. Lead chips and dust can get on surfaces and objects that people touch. Settled lead dust can re-enter the air when people vacuum, sweep, or walk through it. The following two federal standards have been set for lead hazards in dust:

- 40 micrograms per square foot (?g/ft²) and higher for floors, including carpeted floors.
- 250 ?g/ft² and higher for interior window sills.

Lead in soil can be a hazard when children play in bare soil or when people bring soil into the house on their shoes. The following two federal standards have been set for lead hazards in residential soil:

- 400 parts per million (ppm) and higher in play areas or bare soil.
- 1,200 ppm (average) and higher in bare soil in the remainder of the yard.

The only way to find out if paint, dust and soil lead hazards exist is to test for them. The next page describes the most common methods used.

Checking Your Home for Lead

Just knowing that a home has lead-based paint may not tell you if there is a hazard.

You can get your home tested for lead in several different ways:

- A paint inspection tells you whether your home has lead-based paint and where it is located. It won't tell you whether or not your home currently has lead hazards.
- A risk assessment tells you if your home currently has any lead hazards from lead in paint, dust, or soil. It also tells you what actions to take to address any hazards.
- A combination risk assessment and inspection tells you if your home has any lead hazards and if your home has any lead-based paint, and where the lead-based paint is located.

Hire a trained and certified testing professional who will use a range of reliable methods when testing your home.

- Visual inspection of paint condition and location.
- A portable x-ray fluorescence (XRF) machine.
- Lab tests of paint, dust, and soil samples.

There are state and federal programs in place to ensure that testing is done safely, reliably, and effectively. Contact your state or local agency (see bottom of page 11) for more information, or call 1-800-424-LEAD (5323) for a list of contacts in your area.

Home test kits for lead are available, but studies suggest that they are not always accurate. Consumers should not rely on these tests before doing renovations or to assure safety.

NOTICE: Required notices and receipts to be given to the applicant(s) are included at the end of this printout.

You further acknowledge that you have read and that you agree to all of the provisions set forth in this Term Sheet and the Additional Lease Addenda.

You also acknowledge that you have received, or will receive, (separate from this Lease) a copy of the Resident Handbook and Community Policies and a copy of the Move-In/Move-Out Inspection Form. You acknowledge and agree that the provisions contained in these two documents are incorporated into this Lease and that you will abide by the policies and procedures set forth in these documents.

You specifically acknowledge that this Lease contains provisions extending the Lease Term if you stay beyond the Expiration Date set forth on the first page of this Term Sheet or if you fail to provide timely written notice of your intent to vacate the Premises at least 30 days prior to the Expiration Date.

RESIDENTIAL LEASE – TERMS AND CONDITIONS
(California)

These Terms and Conditions are attached to and incorporated by reference into the Residential Lease - Term Sheet signed by Resident ("you") and Lessor ("us") with respect to your rental of the Premises identified on the Term Sheet. The Term Sheet, these Terms and Conditions, the Resident Handbook and Community Policies, the Move-In/Move-Out Inspection Form, and all Lease addenda or other agreements that may be referenced on the Term Sheet or attached hereto, make up the Lease. The party executing this Lease as the Lessor is Equity Residential Management, L.L.C., which is acting as the managing agent for the owner of the Community. Each person living in the Premises that is 18 years of age or older must sign the Lease as a resident. All others living in the Premises must be designated as occupants. Each person signing the Lease is jointly and severally liable for all of the various resident obligations under the Lease. That means that every individual resident, including all co-residents, is responsible for the entire rental amount and other obligations, even if, as roommates, you have made arrangements among yourselves to allocate the rent or other payments among yourselves.

1. Lease Term: The initial term of this Lease is set forth in the Lease Term section of the Term Sheet. If you plan to move out at the end of your initial term, you must provide us with a written notice of your intent to vacate. We must receive this written notice within the time frame set forth in the Lease Term Expiration section of the Term Sheet. . If you move out without providing any notice at all, then, for the purposes of this paragraph, your move-out date will be considered to be your notice date. You understand that you have no right to terminate your Lease prior to the end of your initial term or any renewal term and, if you do, you will be in default of the Lease. Any early termination settlement option that we may offer to you must be addressed with us at the time you are planning to move out early. An early termination settlement option, if offered to you, cannot be exercised during the last full month of your Lease term. If you move out during the last full month of your Lease term but before the last day of your Lease term, you will be responsible for your rent and other charges through your lease end date, as well as your obligations related to notice of your intent to vacate and the condition of the Premises. At, or prior to, the end of the initial term of the Lease, we reserve the right to extend a renewal offer to you, allow you to stay on a month-to-month basis or terminate your lease.

At the end of the initial term, if you do not move out or you do not sign a renewal lease, this Lease will automatically renew on a month-to-month basis. If you fail to provide us with the required notice and you move out anyway, the Lease term will be automatically extended for an additional month, and you will be responsible for paying your current monthly apartment rent until (i) the end of the one month extension or (ii) the day a new resident moves into the Premises, whichever comes first.

2. Month-to-Month Tenancy: If you stay in the Premises on a month-to-month basis following the initial term of the Lease, you will pay the month-to-month rent amount included in the renewal offer we deliver to you. In addition to U.S. mail and personal delivery options, such renewal offer may be delivered to you via e-mail, text message and/or via a link to our resident website, My.EquityApartments.com. Once you become a month-to-month tenant, we reserve the right to increase the rental rate upon 30 days' notice to you. If the proposed increase, when combined with any other increases during the previous 12 months, is more than 10% of the Total Monthly Rent charged during the immediately preceding 12 month period, we will provide you with 60 days' notice of such increase, if required by law. In order to terminate a month-to-month tenancy, you must provide us with a written notice to vacate of at least 30 days. During the month-to-month tenancy, we can also give you a 60 days' notice to vacate. If you move out without giving us the amount of notice required, you will be responsible for paying rent until (i) one month following our receipt of your notice to vacate or (ii) the day a new resident moves into the Premises, whichever comes first. If you move out without providing any notice at all, then, for purposes of this paragraph, your move-out date will be considered to be your notice date.

3. Holding Over: If you don't move out on or before the date in a notice to vacate, you will be responsible for any damages caused by your failure to vacate the Premises, including alternate housing costs for other residents who were planning to move into the Premises but were prevented from doing so due to your failure to vacate.

4. Termination: Upon termination of the Lease, or the termination of your right to occupy the Premises, you agree to deliver all keys, access cards and remotes to us and to move out of the Premises, leaving them in substantially the same clean, undamaged, and ready-to-rent condition as existed when you took occupancy of the Premises, less ordinary wear and tear. If the Premises are not returned in such condition, we reserve the right to charge you for the costs to repair any damage and to put the Premises back in the condition they were in upon your move-in, less ordinary wear and tear. You are not responsible for ordinary wear and tear; however, you are responsible for replacement of any damaged or missing items and for payment of all costs to clean or repair any portion of the Premises, carpeting, flooring, wall coverings, paint, counters, trim, window treatments, doors, windows, or appliances which are damaged, dirty, or unsanitary. Cleaning and repair of any damage due to smoking of any kind are not considered ordinary wear and tear. You are responsible for removing all trash and other items of your personal property and, if you do not remove such items, you will be charged for the cost of removal. Your failure to clean the Premises or to remove your trash and personal property from the Premises when you move out will constitute a condition that exceeds ordinary wear and tear. You will not be considered as having moved out, vacated and surrendered possession of the Premises until you have removed all of your personal belongings from the Premises and returned all keys, access cards and remotes to us. If you move out and fail to return all keys, access cards and remotes to us, you agree that your move-out date will be determined by us in our reasonable judgment, and that you will be charged for any missing keys, access cards and remotes.

5. Rent: You agree to pay the amount shown in the Total Monthly Rent section of the Term Sheet and all additional rent (described below), in advance and without demand, on or before the first day of each calendar month. The management office is open Monday through Friday (excluding holidays) between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. The management office is also open for extended hours from time to time. Such extended office hours, if applicable, are posted outside the management office. All fees and charges described on the Term Sheet or in this Lease, including, but not limited to, late charges, returned item fees and utility bills that are payable to us or to our utilities billing vendor, shall be deemed to be "additional rent." Total Monthly Rent and additional rent are, together, referred to in this Lease as "rent." All rent must be paid in U.S. dollars and we reserve the right to require that payments be made in one lump sum, even if there are multiple residents listed on the Lease. We strongly encourage residents to use on-line or electronic payment methods. We may elect to centralize the collection sites for non-electronic payments and, if we do so, we will notify you in writing of the address to which you should send your payments, as well as the effective date for such change. If we designate an off site receivables location, you agree that all rent and other payments directed to that location must be received at the designated location on or before the due date. We do not accept cash, third party personal checks, or checks without a preprinted name and address of the account holder. If you pay by personal check, you are authorizing us to scan the check and convert it into a one-time electronic debit from the bank account against which the check was written. Unless prohibited by law, we reserve the right to refuse payments by personal check, automatic debit or other form of electronic payment if, for example, you have submitted previous checks or other payments to us that have failed to clear the bank. We are not required to re-deposit a dishonored check. If we serve a "three day" notice to pay rent or surrender possession of the Premises, any payment tendered following the service of such notice must be in the form of a cashier's check or money order.

6. Late Charges and Returned Item Fees: You acknowledge that if we do not receive your rent or other lease related charges on time, we will incur costs, the exact dollar amount of which is difficult or impracticable to determine. Such costs may include, among other things, lost use of funds, bank or other charges, costs incurred in connection with accounting for and attempting to collect late payments; collection expenses; and other administrative and accounting costs. As a result, if we do not receive your rent when it is due, we will assess late fees as described in the Late Fees section of the Term Sheet. Similarly, if any payment to us (electronic or otherwise) is returned or otherwise rejected by your financial institution for any reason, we will assess a returned item fee as described in the Returned Item Fees section of the Term Sheet, as well as all applicable late fees. The fees described in this paragraph are in addition to any other remedies we may have in the event of your default under the terms of this lease.

7. Application and Acceptance of Payments: Unless you notify us otherwise by written notation on your check or other form of payment, we will apply all of the payments you make to us in the order of priority we determine. We reserve the right to accept any amount less than the balance due at any given time and, if we do accept a lesser amount, such acceptance will not represent a waiver of any right we have to pursue you for the outstanding balance.

8. Security Deposit: Upon signing this Lease, you have agreed to give us deposits as set forth in the Total Deposits section of the Term Sheet. With the exception of any last month's rent that may be paid in advance, if allowed at the community, these Total Deposits are not prepaid rent, but, rather are a good faith deposit for your fulfillment of your Lease obligations, as well as a contingency against damages to the Premises. You will not receive interest on these Total Deposits unless we are otherwise required by law to pay interest to you. For example, in Berkeley and San Francisco, we will pay interest consistent with the requirements of local law. With the exception of any last month's rent that you may have paid in advance, you are not entitled to apply any part of your Total Deposits against rent or other Lease obligations during the time you are occupying the Premises. Consistent with the requirements of state law, after you move out, we will inspect the condition of the Premises, charge any damages beyond ordinary wear and tear, excessive cleaning or trash removal charges, the costs to repair, replace or restore personal property, and any outstanding balances you owe us against your Total Deposits, deduct your last month's rent, if paid in advance, and if any balance remains after applying all such charges, we will refund it to you. If the move-out charges and/or other unpaid amounts remaining on your resident account at the time you move out exceed the amount of the Total Deposits, you agree to pay us the difference. We reserve the right to charge pre-judgment interest on any balance owing after you move out. Such interest will begin to accrue when the balance, if any, shown on the Statement of Deposit Account we issue to you is not paid within 30 days following the date set forth on the Statement of Deposit Account. The interest charged on the outstanding balance will not exceed the rate of 18% per annum or the highest rate allowed by law, whichever is less, and will be reflected on the Statement of Deposit Account that will be issued to you after you move out. Within a reasonable time after receipt of either party's notice of intent to terminate this Lease, we will notify you of your option to request an initial inspection of the Premises. Upon your request, we will, not more than two weeks prior to the end of the Lease term, conduct an initial inspection of the Premises, provide you with an itemized statement specifying the repairs or cleaning proposed to be the basis of any potential deduction from the Total Deposits, and allow you an opportunity to remedy the identified deficiencies. We will make any refund check payable to all residents signing this Lease (unless all residents have authorized us to make the check payable to only some of you). Within the timeframe required by state law, we will mail the refund check to the forwarding address you provide to us or, if you fail to provide a forwarding address, we will send it to the address of the Premises.

9. One-time Fees: If you have paid other fees and charges as set forth in the Total Other Fees and Charges section of the Term Sheet, you acknowledge and understand that such other fees and charges are not refundable, are not considered to be a security deposit or part of the Total Deposits, and will not be applied as a credit toward any amounts owing by you at the time you move out.

10. Lease Concessions: If you received a Lease concession, you must fulfill all of your obligations under this Lease for the entire Lease term. Any concession that is designated on the Term Sheet as a one-time or upfront concession must be applied first toward your rent during the first month of the initial term and to consecutive months thereafter until the balance of the concession credit reaches zero. If this Lease is terminated early, you must repay a prorata portion of the total Lease concessions you received based on the number of days remaining in your Lease term after you move out. If the concession shown on the Term Sheet is designated as Rent Adj/Concession or is in the form of a recurring deduction from the Monthly Apartment Rent shown on the Term Sheet, and the Lease is terminated early, the rent that will be charged after you move-out will not include the deduction for the recurring concession.

11. Failure to Pay Deposits, Other Fees and Charges and First Month's Rent: If you fail to pay any deposits, other fees and charges and the first month's rent (or a prorated amount if the first month is a partial month) prior to moving in, you will be in default under the Lease and we can refuse to give you possession of the Premises until you pay such amounts.

12. Delay in Delivery of Possession: You are responsible for paying rent effective with the Commencement Date shown in the Lease Term section of the Term Sheet. If we are unable to give you possession of the Premises on the Commencement Date, we will abate the rent until we are able to do so. You agree that you will not seek reimbursement from us for any cost incurred by the delay of possession, including, but not limited to, storage or temporary lodging. Subject to applicable law, if we fail to deliver the Premises to you within 30 days from the date promised, either you or we may terminate the Lease by providing written notice to the other. Requirements for us to make repairs or clean the Premises that do not affect your ability to occupy them will not constitute a delay or entitle you to a rent abatement. If we are unable to deliver the Premises but offer you comparable accommodations at no additional cost, you will not be entitled to a rent abatement.

13. Rental Application and Resident Information Updates: You have provided certain information in your Application for Rental that we have relied on in connection with renting the Premises to you. You agree to promptly notify us if any of the information you provided changes. If any of the information you provided to us on your Application or in any subsequent updates is materially false, incomplete or misleading, or if you fail to notify us of any change or if you fail to update your information, you will be in default of your obligations under this Lease and this will be a non-curable breach of this Lease.

14. Disclosure of Information: To the extent permitted by applicable law, we may provide information about you, your co-residents, or any of your occupants to third parties such as law enforcement personnel, future landlords, mortgagees, attorneys, collection agencies, and consumer reporting agencies for law-enforcement, governmental, credit, rent payment history, or other business purposes. If we provide such information to third parties at your request, we reserve the right to charge an administrative service fee for doing so. If you and your co-residents have a guarantor, we may, without notifying you, provide information to the guarantor.

15. Utilities and Utility Cost Adjustments During the Lease Term: You are responsible for paying for all of the utilities identified on the Term Sheet that are checked, and any utilities that we have not specifically agreed to pay. In some cases, the utility service will be provided to you by the utility company and you will pay the utility company directly. In other cases, your utility bill may be calculated based on a submeter reading, an allocation method, or a flat fee (as more fully described in the Utilities Addendum attached to this Lease), in which case you will receive a bill for such utilities from our billing vendor and you will either pay us directly or send your payments to our billing vendor. The Utilities section of the Term Sheet identifies which utility bills are to be billed by and paid directly to the utility company and which utility bills are to be billed by our billing vendor and either paid to us directly or, in some cases, sent to our billing vendor. Amounts due for utility services that are billed by our billing vendor are considered additional rent, irrespective of whether you pay us directly or whether our billing vendor collects such amounts on our behalf. In all cases, your failure to pay the utilities in full when due shall be considered a default under the Lease. You will not allow utilities that are in your name to be disconnected for non-payment or any other reason. If you do not connect the utilities at the time you move in or, if you disconnect the utilities early before moving out, and the utilities remain in our name during such timeframes, we will bill you for the utility charges incurred for the days you were living in the Premises, along with an administrative fee of $50.00 for each utility bill we process on your behalf. You agree that this administrative fee is a liquidated damages provision and that such amount is a fair and reasonable estimate of the administrative costs we incur as a result of paying these bills on your behalf. We make no representation or warranty with respect to the amount of any estimated or actual utility costs associated with the provision of utility services to the Premises or the Community. To the extent we make a request of you in connection with any analysis of overall utility consumption at the Community, you authorize us, as your agent, to request and receive copies of your utility billing records directly from the utility billing provider. You acknowledge that we cannot be held responsible for any outages, interruptions or fluctuations in utility service that are provided to the Premises, and that you have no right to claim constructive eviction or to receive any offset or reduction of rent or diminished rental value of the Premises as a result of any such outages, interruptions, or fluctuations.

16. Right to Enter: We have the right to enter the Premises as allowed by applicable law, as follows: (i) in case of emergency; (ii) to make necessary or agreed upon repairs, decorations, alterations or improvements; (iii) to supply necessary or agreed upon services; (iv) to test smoke or carbon monoxide detectors; (v) to show the Premises to prospective or actual purchasers, mortgagees, residents, workmen, or contractors; or (vi) to make an inspection when you have abandoned or surrendered the Premises and pursuant to court order. We will notify you prior to entering unless: (i) entry is due to an emergency, surrender or abandonment of the Premises, or (ii) you and we have agreed orally to allow us entry in order to make agreed repairs or supply agreed services within one week following the oral agreement, or (iii) you are present and consent to our entry at the time of entry, or (iv) to exhibit the Premises to prospective or actual purchasers of the Community, provided that we have notified you in writing that the Community is for sale and that you may be contacted to allow for an inspection. If you submit a service request to us, such request for service will constitute your permission for us to enter the Premises to do the requested work.

17. Right to Exclude: We reserve the right to exclude from the Community you and any of your occupants or guests who violate this Lease or any of the Community's policies. We also reserve the right to exclude anyone who disturbs other residents or our employees and agents, as well as anyone we reasonably believe represents a potential threat to other residents or to our employees and agents. We may also exclude from the Community any person who refuses to show photo identification to us or to identify himself or herself as a resident, occupant or guest. We may deny you or any person access to the Premises, including by changing the locks, if any court or legal order restrains or bars you or such person from the Premises.

18. Liens or Sales by Lessor: This Lease is subject and subordinate to all present or future ground or underlying leases, loans, mortgages, deeds to secure debt or deeds of trust affecting the Premises and the Community which we or any subsequent owner of the Community may enter into. You hereby appoint us as attorney-in-fact to execute and deliver any and all necessary documents to evidence such subordination of the Lease. Foreclosure of any mortgage or any sale of the Community will not constitute a constructive eviction and, in the event of any such action, you will continue to pay your rent and perform your obligations under this Lease. Upon any foreclosure or sale, provided that we have given you notice of the name and address of the new owner, we will be released from all obligations under this Lease that accrue after the date of the foreclosure or sale and you will look solely to the then-current owner for the performance of Lessor's duties hereunder, including the return of any security deposits.

19. Criminal Activity: You agree that neither you, nor any of your occupants or guests will (i) engage in any criminal activity of any kind, including, without limitation, drug related criminal activity, prostitution or criminal street gang activity, on or near the Community, (ii) engage in any act intended to facilitate such criminal activity, (iii) use or permit the Premises to be used for, or to facilitate, any criminal activity, or (iv) engage in any acts of violence or intimidation or any threats of violence, verbal or otherwise, including, but not limited to, the discharge or brandishing of firearms or other weapons, on or near the Community or otherwise. For purposes of this section, "drug related criminal activity" means the use of or the manufacture, sale, distribution, dispensation or possession with intent to manufacture, sell, distribute, or dispense, marijuana or any other Controlled or Counterfeit Substance, as defined in the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 802), as amended from time to time. One or more violations of the provisions of this paragraph will be considered a breach of the Lease and good cause for the immediate termination of your tenancy and your eviction from the Premises. Unless otherwise provided by law, proof of a violation of this paragraph shall not require criminal conviction, but may be based on our reasonable suspicion and a preponderance of the evidence. In addition, if you or any of your occupants have engaged in any criminal activity during the Lease term or otherwise, we may take action to terminate the Lease and pursue eviction-related remedies.

20. Use and Occupancy: The Premises are to be occupied and used solely as a private residence. Therefore, conducting any kind of business in the Premises, or anywhere in the Community, is prohibited. However, a lawful business conducted "at home" by computer, mail or telephone is permissible if customers, clients, patients or other business associates do not come to the Premises for business purposes. Notwithstanding the above, you may operate a family day care in the Premises for children so long as: (i) day care is properly licensed by the State of California; and (ii) you provide us with at least 30 days' notice of your intent to operate a family day care in the Premises. If you elect to operate a family day care in the Premises, we may increase the Total Deposits that you are required to pay. Any such increase in the Total Deposit amount will be subject to requirements imposed by state law. We may also ask to be named as an additional insured under your insurance policy. The number of people living in the Premises is subject to applicable local occupancy standards. Only those residents and occupants identified on the Term Sheet, and, subject to the Community's occupancy standards, children born or adopted during the Lease term, may occupy the Premises without our prior written consent. If someone stays with you for more than fourteen days (consecutive or otherwise) in any one month, we will consider such person to be an unauthorized occupant and, in order to allow such person to continue residing in the Premises, we must consent. If the person is age 18 or older, we may require him/her to complete an Application for Rental and pay an application fee. If we consent to such person's occupancy in the Premises, we also require that such person, unless he/she is a full-time student residing with a parent or guardian, be named on the Lease as resident. You are responsible for your conduct, as well as the conduct of your occupants and guests. You, your occupants and all guests will: (i) show due consideration for neighbors and not interfere with, disturb or threaten the rights, comfort, health, safety, convenience, quiet enjoyment and use of the Community by us, other residents and occupants and any of their guests, agents or invitees; (ii) not engage in abusive, threatening or harassing conduct toward us or any employees, agents or representatives or unreasonably interfere with our management of the Community; (iii) exercise reasonable care in the use of the Premises and maintain the Premises in a clean, safe and undamaged condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted; (iv) comply with all of the policies and procedures contained in the Resident Handbook and Community Policies we delivered to you via My.EquityApartments.com or otherwise; and (v) comply with federal, state and local laws, regulations, statutes and ordinances which are applicable to the Premises and your tenancy. We reserve the right to be the sole judge of acceptable conduct and to determine the appropriate action necessary to deal with unacceptable conduct. If you elect to have a water bed or other water-filled furniture in the Premises, you must notify us and, notwithstanding the provisions of the Security Deposit paragraph above, we may increase the Total Deposits in an amount not exceeding one-half of the Monthly Apartment Rent shown on the Term Sheet. We may also require you to maintain additional insurance.

21. Assignment or Subletting by Resident: You may not assign this Lease or sublet the Premises without our prior written consent. If we do consent to any assignment or sublease, you will remain fully responsible and liable for the payment of the rent throughout the remainder of the Lease term.

22. Repair and Maintenance: You confirm that you have inspected the Premises, found them in a clean, rentable, and undamaged condition (other than items listed in the Move-In/Move-Out Inspection Form that you completed or will complete), and that you accept the Premises in "as is" condition. Damages and defects not itemized will be presumed to have first occurred during your occupancy of the Premises. You understand that you are responsible for keeping the Premises in a clean, sanitary and undamaged condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted. You are responsible for properly performing routine cleaning of all interior portions of the Premises. Your failure to perform cleaning (including, but not limited to dirt, filth, scum, grease, oil, mud, scuffs, holes, gouges, burns, stains, tears, cuts, rips, fleas, pests, foul scents or odors, surface mold on caulking at the sinks, tub, shower and other locations, and other conditions which could have been avoided by careful use and routine cleaning) constitutes either negligence or an intentional act that results in extraordinary damages to the Premises in excess of ordinary wear and tear, for which you are liable. You will be responsible for all such damage to the Premises caused by you, any of your occupants or guests, and your pets, and you will be responsible for all cleaning and trash removal charges we incur as a result of your use of the Premises. You also agree that you will notify us immediately if any part of the Premises is in need of maintenance or repair.

23. Fair Housing Accommodations/Modifications: We are firmly committed to the principles of Fair Housing. If you or any person residing in the Premises, as a result of a disability, requires accommodations to our rules, policies, practices or services, or a physical modification to the Premises and/or the common areas of the Community in order to provide you or your occupants with equal opportunity to use and enjoy the Premises, you will notify us. If you require physical modifications to the Premises, we may require you to enter into a modification agreement identifying the modifications to be made and any restoration obligations you may have.

a. If you become an active duty member of the United States Armed Forces during the Lease term, then, pursuant to the provisions of the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act ("SCRA") and other applicable laws, you may be released from your obligations under the Lease, without penalty, so long as you: (i) provide a copy of your official orders; (ii) provide at least 30 days' prior written notice of your anticipated move-out date; (iii) pay all outstanding balances and rent through your move-out date; and (iv) make satisfactory arrangements to pay all costs incurred by us to repair the damages caused by you, your occupants or guests, and pets, consistent with the Security Deposit paragraph above.

b. If you are an active duty member of the United States Armed Forces at the time you are signing this Lease, you affirm that the Lease end date does not extend beyond your anticipated discharge, retirement or release from the United States Armed Forces. Pursuant to the provisions of the SCRA and other applicable laws, you may be released from your obligations under the Lease, without penalty, so long as you: (i) provide a copy of your official permanent change-of-station orders or your official orders to deploy for a period of not less than 90 days; (ii) provide at least 30 days' written notice of your anticipated move-out date; (iii) pay all outstanding balances and rent through your move-out date; and (iv) make satisfactory arrangements to pay all costs incurred by us to repair the damages caused by you, your occupants or guests, and pets, consistent with the provisions of the Security Deposit paragraph above.

c. National Guard officers and enlisted members called or ordered into active state or federal service, or United States military reservists who are called to full-time active duty, may terminate this Lease if called into duty after entering into the Lease. Pursuant to the provisions of the SCRA and other applicable laws, you may be released from your obligations under the Lease, without penalty, so long as you: (i) provide a copy of your official orders; (ii) provide at least 30 days' written notice of your anticipated move-out date; (iii) pay all outstanding balances and rent through your move-out date; and (iv) make satisfactory arrangements to pay all costs incurred by us to repair the damages caused by you, your occupants or guests, and pets, consistent with the provisions of the Security Deposit paragraph above.

d. Notwithstanding the provisions of the Lease Concessions paragraph above, if you are exercising your right to terminate the Lease pursuant to the SCRA and this Military Clause paragraph, you will not be required to repay any portion of Lease concessions set forth on the Term Sheet. The release of any resident under this provision will not release any other resident or roommate unless the other resident is your spouse or dependent, as defined under the SCRA.

25. Resident Insurance. We strongly recommend that you secure a renters insurance policy covering your personal belongings, which also includes personal liability insurance covering your actions. Unless there is a prohibition imposed by affordability covenants or other restrictions applicable to the Premises, we require all residents to maintain a policy of liability insurance issued by an authorized insurance company that provides limits of liability in an amount of at least $100,000 per occurrence. Unless the box labeled "Renters Insurance Required" on the Term Sheet is unchecked, you must furnish proof of insurance to us on or before the commencement date of the Lease and, assuming you enter into renewal leases with us, you must continue to provide evidence of coverage for all subsequent renewal terms. You can obtain such insurance through Residential Insurance Agency, LLC or through the insurance agent of your choice. If you select an insurance company other than Residential Insurance Agency, LLC, you must name the Community as an Interested Party under your policy. Except where prohibited by law, if you fail to obtain and maintain liability insurance as required by this paragraph, you will be in violation of your lease obligations. In such event, we will send a written notice to you demanding that you cure the violation by procuring the insurance and supplying evidence of coverage to us. If you fail to supply evidence of such insurance to us on or before the date set forth in your notice, we reserve the right to procure liability only insurance coverage on your behalf, and to charge you for the amount of the premium paid to the insurance company, not to exceed $150.00 per year, along with an administrative fee of $40.00. You agree that this administrative fee is a liquidated damages provision and that such amount is a fair and reasonable estimate of the administrative costs we will incur as a result of procuring the liability insurance coverage for you. The premium payment made by us on your behalf, and the administrative fee we charge to procure the insurance for you, will be considered additional rent. If you fail to pay for the liability insurance and/or you allow the expiration or cancellation of any liability insurance policy during your tenancy, without substitute insurance being put in place, this will be considered a default under the Lease.

26. Corporate Units: If the name in the Resident section of the Term Sheet is a company or business (and not an individual person), then the company assumes all responsibility for damage to the Premises and any loss incurred by us or any third party that is caused by any person living in the Premises. The company also agrees to indemnify us for all claims, damages, losses and expenses related in any way to the occupancy of the Premises. The company agrees to identify all persons living in the Premises and to provide written authorization to us to release keys, key cards, and/or access cards to such occupants. The company will not allow the Premises to be used or occupied as a hotel. The company agrees to maintain, at its sole cost and expense, throughout the term of the Lease and any subsequent renewal terms, the following insurance: Commercial General Liability insurance on a form at least as broad as Insurance Services Office ("ISO") Commercial General Liability Coverage "occurrence" form CG 00 01 0196 or another ISO Commercial General Liability "occurrence" form providing equivalent coverage, providing broad form comprehensive general liability coverage, blanket contractual liability coverage, coverage for bodily injury (including death), property damage (including loss of use thereof), products and completed operations with an authorized insurance company with a rating of A X in a minimum amount of One Million Dollars

($1,000,000) per occurrence. The company must be named the insured and the company shall name the owner of the property, ERP Operating Limited Partnership, Equity Residential, Equity Residential Management, L.L.C., and their affiliates and agents (collectively, the "Lessor Entities") as additional insureds under the required policy. In the alternative, the company may purchase renters liability insurance for the Premises from an insurance company of company's choosing or through the program made available to residents at the Community through Residential Insurance Agency, LLC. If company elects to purchase such renters liability insurance through a company other than Residential Insurance Agency, LLC, the company must name the Community as an Interested Party under the policy. In any event, the company must, on or before the commencement date of the lease, deliver to us a certificate of insurance evidencing the coverage provided, and provide replacement certificates fifteen (15) days prior to the expiration of any required coverage. Except where prohibited by law, if the company fails to obtain and maintain the insurance as required by this paragraph, the company will be in violation of the Lease. In such event, we will send a written notice to the company demanding that it cure the violation by procuring the insurance and supplying evidence of coverage to us. If the company fails to supply evidence of such insurance to us on or before the date set forth in our notice, we may procure such insurance on the company's behalf and charge the company for the amount of the premium paid to the insurance company, not to exceed $150.00 per year, along with an administrative fee of $40.00. The company agrees that this administrative fee is a liquidated damages provision and that such amount is a fair and reasonable estimate of the administrative costs we will incur as a result of procuring the liability insurance coverage for the company. The premium payment made by us on the company's behalf, and the administrative fee we charge to procure the insurance for the company, will be considered additional rent. If the company fails to pay for the liability insurance and/or the company allows the expiration or cancellation of any liability insurance policy during the company's tenancy, without substitute insurance being put in place, this will be considered a default under the Lease.

27. Default Remedies: If you fail to perform any of your obligations under this Lease, we may exercise all of our rights under this Lease, at law or in equity. This may include giving you notice to correct or cure such default, taking action to recover possession of the Premises via the eviction process or otherwise, and/or terminating the Lease, all in accordance with applicable law. In addition, we can recover from you all damages, costs and expenses, including, among other things, damage to the Premises, cleaning and trash removal charges, the costs to repair, replace or restore personal property, delinquent Total Monthly Rent and additional rent (described in paragraph 5 above) such as utilities, late fees, and returned item fees, and the amount by which unpaid rent for the balance of the Lease term exceeds the amount of such rental loss that you prove could be reasonably avoided. We can also recover the costs of taking possession of and re-renting the Premises and other fees and charges we incur in enforcing this Lease and collecting outstanding amounts hereunder, even if we do not file formal litigation. The party that does not prevail in any litigation commenced under this Lease will pay all attorneys' fees and costs reasonably incurred by the prevailing party in prosecuting or defending such litigation, up to a maximum of $2,000. If the Lease is terminated early, you must also repay us a portion of the concessions you received as described in the Lease Concessions paragraph above. In all cases, we reserve the right to report your payment history, outstanding balances, returned item fees, late fees, defaults, and other payment-related activity to consumer reporting agencies who track such information.

28. Abandoned Property: You understand that if you leave personal property in the Premises after you move-out or if you put your property in areas of the Community that are not designated for your use, we can determine that such property has been abandoned and we can take steps to remove or dispose of the property consistent with applicable laws.

29. Notices: All notices that we provide to you will be considered delivered when (i) we personally hand them to you or, if you are absent from the Premises, personally hand them to a person of suitable age and discretion in the Premises, with a copy deposited the same day in the U.S. Mail and sent via first class mail addressed to the Premises; or, (ii) in the absence of anyone being present in the Premises, by attaching a copy to the outside of the door, with a copy deposited the same day in the U.S. Mail and sent via first class mail addressed to the Premises. When allowed by law, we may choose to serve notice on you by mail only. Additionally, by providing us with your e-mail address and cell phone number, you agree that we may communicate with you from time to time via e-mail and/or text message and via our resident website, My.EquityApartments.com. All notices from you will be considered delivered when you put them in the U.S. Mail addressed to the management office and send them via first class or certified mail, or when you personally deliver them to one of our employees at the management office during normal business hours. The person designated as the on-site manager for the Community is the person authorized to act on our behalf in connection with this Lease. More formal notices, including service of process on the owner or manager, can also be made by serving our registered service agent:

CT Corporation System
818 West Seventh Street
Los Angeles, CA 90017
Telephone Number: 800-888-9207

30. Liability: To the maximum extent permitted by law, you agree that you will look solely to the owner's interest in the Community for the recovery of any judgment against us and that the owner, the management company, and any of their related and affiliated entities (and any of their officers, directors, trustees, employees, partners, shareholders, insurers, agents and representatives) will never be personally liable for such judgment. Except to the extent prohibited by law, we will not be liable for any damage, loss or injury to persons or property occurring in the Premises or in other areas of the Community. To the fullest extent permitted by law, you agree to hold us harmless and to indemnify us from any such liability or claim.

31. Fire and Casualty: If you cannot occupy the Premises because of a fire, explosion, casualty or any other health/safety issue which is not a result of your negligence or intentional conduct (or the negligence or intentional conduct of any person living in the Premises or any guest of such person), we shall determine, in our sole discretion, whether the Premises or the building is damaged or destroyed, and we may elect, in our sole discretion, to repair or re-build the Premises. Rent shall remain due and owing unless we, in our sole discretion, determine that the Premises or the building is uninhabitable. No penalty shall accrue against us for any reasonable delay in repairing the Premises by reason of adjustment of insurance proceeds, labor disputes, or any other cause beyond our reasonable control. While we repair the Premises, the rent will be abated during the timeframe the repairs are being conducted. If we provide alternative accommodations at our expense during such repair, the rent will not be abated. Finally, if the damage to the Premises is caused by your negligence or intentional conduct (or the negligence or intentional conduct of any person living in the Premises or any guest), the rent for the Premises will not be abated, you will be responsible for paying rent on the Premises and for any costs we incur to repair the damage, and we will not provide alternative accommodations to you. If we elect to not repair the Premises or if the Premises are substantially or totally destroyed, we can elect to terminate this Lease.

32. Waivers: Our failure to insist upon strict compliance with the terms of this Lease or any delay by us in enforcing your obligations under the Lease will not constitute a waiver of our right to act on other breaches or to make demands on you to perform. Your obligation to pay rent during the Lease term or during your continued occupancy of the Premises will continue notwithstanding our issuance of any notice, demand for possession, notice of termination of tenancy, institution of any action or forcible detainer, or any other act which might result in the termination of your right to live in the Premises. Unless otherwise restricted by applicable law, our acceptance of rent from you after it falls due or after knowledge of your breach of any obligations under this Lease is not a waiver of our rights under this Lease nor is it an election to not proceed under any provision of this Lease or the law.

33. Severability: If any provision of this Lease is determined to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws which are in effect during the Lease term, then, we will substitute similar provisions or language that will make such clause or provision legal, valid, and enforceable. If substitute provisions are not available, then the illegal or unenforceable provision shall be removed from the Lease, but the remaining provisions in the Lease shall remain intact.

34. [Intentionally Omitted]

35. Laws Governing this Lease/Venue: This Lease shall be governed by the laws of the state in which the Community is located, and all legal action arising from this Lease shall be tried in the county where the Community is located.

36. Written Agreement: This Lease, which includes the Term Sheet, these Terms and Conditions, the Resident Handbook and Community Policies, the Move-In/Move-Out Inspection Form, and all Lease addenda or other agreements that may be referenced on the Term Sheet or attached hereto, contains our entire agreement. We both acknowledge that there are no oral understandings between us, and neither of us have relied on any representations, express or implied, that are not contained in this Lease.

37. Joint and Several Liability: Each resident, including all co-residents, is jointly and severally liable for each and every provision of this Lease.

38. General: You confirm that you are of legal age or capacity to enter into a binding Lease for lodging.

39. Additional State-Specific Requirements and Disclosures:

a. California Proposition 65: California Proposition 65, the Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986, requires that persons be warned about the presence of chemicals such as tobacco smoke known to the state of California to cause cancer, birth defects or other reproductive harm. Areas within the Community contain such chemicals.

b. Registered Sex Offenders Notice: The California Department of Justice, sheriff's departments, police departments serving jurisdictions of 200,000 or more people and many other local law enforcement authorities maintain for public access a data base of the locations of persons required to register. Pursuant to Section 290.46 of the Penal Code, information about specified registered sex offenders is made available to the public via an Internet Web site maintained by the Department of Justice at www.meganslaw.ca.gov. Depending on an offender's criminal history, this information will include either the address at which the offender resides or the community of residence and ZIP Code in which he or she resides.

c. Universal Waste Notice: Under the California Universal Waste Rule, universal waste, such as batteries, mercury thermostats, fluorescent lights, cathode ray tube devices (computer monitors, televisions), cell phones, mercury thermometers, and other products containing mercury or other heavy metals are hazardous wastes and are required to be disposed of according to the California Code of Regulations, Title 22, Division 4.5. A complete list of universal waste products, and information about disposal and recycling options, is available on the Department of Toxic Substances Control (DTSC) website at: www.dtsc.ca.gov/HazardousWaste/UniversalWaste/index.cfm. You understand that items considered to be universal waste under the law may not be disposed of in the garbage receptacles we provide at the Community. Rather, such items must be disposed of properly pursuant to the law. You also understand that your failure to properly dispose of your personal universal waste products may subject you to fines and penalties associated with non-compliance with the disposal requirements of the law.

UTILITIES ADDENDUM

This Utilities Addendum ("Addendum") is dated effective as of the date on the Residential Lease - Term Sheet (the "Term Sheet") to which this Addendum is attached and made a part of (the "Lease") by and between Lessor and Resident for the Premises at the Community identified in the Lease.

This Addendum provides additional information regarding those utilities for which the Community receives and pays the total utility bill (or bills) for the Community, and for which you either pay us or, in some cases, pay our billing vendor on our behalf. As noted in the Utilities section of the Term Sheet and the Utilities paragraph of the Terms and Conditions, the methods used to determine your portion of the costs for these utilities may be based on a submeter reading, an allocation method, or a flat fee, as described below. The Community's bills for these utilities may include additional fees or charges imposed by the utility company or municipality providing the service to the Community, in which case, such additional fees or charges may also be included in the bill you receive from our billing vendor. In some instances, these additional fees and charges will be itemized separately on the bill you receive from our billing vendor. You should also be advised that, in most cases, the Community's bills for these utilities will include the cost to provide these utility services in the common areas of the Community, which may include swimming pools, lawns and landscaped areas. As a result, your portion of such utility bills may include a portion of the cost to provide such utility services in the common areas.

1. If your Term Sheet indicates that a utility bill is based on a submeter reading, the reading will be used along with the Community's most recent actual bill for the utility to calculate your bill by either (i) dividing the Community's bill for the utility by the usage shown on the meters for all apartments in the Community and multiplying that number by the usage shown on your meter; or (ii) dividing the Community's bill for the utility by the total usage from the master meter(s) for the Community and multiplying that number by the usage shown on your meter; or (iii) using the actual rate shown on the Community's bill for the utility multiplied by the usage shown on your meter. If the utility company charges us a fixed fee or base charge for each apartment, we will pass that charge through to you. If the Premises has a submeter in place, you will allow us and our vendors to access the Premises from time to time to read the submeter or perform repairs. You also agree that you will not tamper with, adjust, or disconnect any submeter or other measuring device that is installed in the Premises. If we are unable to read the submeter, your charges may be estimated based on prior usage or an average consumption rate.

2. If your Term Sheet indicates that a utility is allocated based on square footage, your bill will be calculated by dividing the Community's most recent actual bill for the utility by the total square footage of the occupied apartments at the Community, multiplying that amount by the square footage of the Premises, and prorating that amount based on the number of days you had possession of the Premises during the billing period.

3. If your Term Sheet indicates that a utility is allocated based on number of occupants, your bill will be calculated by dividing the Community's most recent actual bill for the utility by the total number of occupants at the Community, multiplying that amount by the number of occupants in your Premises, and prorating that amount based on the number of days you had possession of the Premises during the billing period. Rather than using the actual number of occupants for this calculation, we may elect to use a ratio occupancy that results in multiple occupants being counted on a less than a "one-for-one" basis. By way of example, ratio occupancy might allow for one person in an apartment to count as one person in the allocation formula while two persons in an apartment may count as only 1.6 persons in the allocation formula.

4. If your Term Sheet indicates that a utility is allocated based on a combination of square footage and number of occupants, your bill will be calculated by dividing the Community's most recent actual bill for the utility, applying the square footage formula described in paragraph 2 above to a portion of the bill, applying the occupancy formula described in paragraph 3 above to the remainder of the bill, and adding the two results together.

5. If your Term Sheet indicates that a utility is allocated equally among the number of occupied units at the Community (regardless of square footage or number of occupants), then your bill will be calculated (i) by dividing the Community's most recent actual bill for the utility by the total number of occupied apartments in the Community during the billing period and prorating that amount based on the number of days you had possession of the Premises during the billing period; or (ii) in an amount that is based on the Community's average bills over a period of time, prorated based on the number of days you had possession of the Premises during the billing period.

©Equity Residential 2012. All Rights Reserved.

6. If your Term Sheet indicates that a utility charge is based on a flat monthly charge, then your charge for such utility will be fixed for the term of your Lease in an amount we communicate to you at Lease signing, and will either be reflected in the Total Monthly Rent section of the Term Sheet or on the bill you receive from our billing vendor.

7. Our billing vendor may charge us for account set-up fees, meter maintenance fees, monthly billing fees, and other fees and charges in connection with their billing services. If the billing vendor charges such fees, the billing vendor will include the fees on your bill and you will reimburse us for those amounts along with your payment to us for the utility charges.

8. The utility charges for the last billing period that you occupy the Premises will not be based on the Community's most recent actual bill for the utility but will, instead, be estimated by calculating the average of at least three months' of charges for the utility (as allocated to the Premises), dividing that average by the number of days in the billing period, and then multiplying that per diem charge by the number of days you had possession of the Premises since the last billing period ended. Where required, we will use the actual submeter reading for your last month's charge. Your charge for utilities for the final month you occupy the Premises will, if available, be communicated to you and are payable by you prior to move-out. If the charges for the utilities are not available at the time you move out, they will be included on the Statement of Deposit Account that is created and sent to you after you move out.

9. We reserve the right, upon written notice to you, to change the billing method for any utility. We may be required to change this billing method if, for example, the Premises contains submeters and the submeters are unable to be read, we elect to install submeters at the Community, we are required to modify the billing allocation method or formula as a result of legislative or legal requirements, or for other business reasons. By signing the Lease, you agree that we can do this.

10. We do not charge residents at the Community more than we pay for the utilities that are allocated according to these methods and, in some cases, if the actual bill for a utility in some months is significantly greater than the average bills for the utility, we may elect to calculate the residents' charges based on an amount that is less than the actual amount billed to the Community. If the Community's actual utility bill is for a billing period that is longer or shorter than our billing period (which is typically a calendar month), we may prorate the bill to reflect the number of days in our billing period.

11. You agree that it is impractical or extremely difficult to determine the exact amount of the utilities that you, your occupants and guests consume during the billing period and that the method used to determine your share of the Community's actual bill for the utility service, as described on the Term Sheet and in this Addendum, which may not reflect your actual usage, is fair and reasonable.

LEASE AGREEMENT

THIS LEASE AGREEMENT is made and entered into January 26, 2009 between 201 Okeefe, LLC "Owner/Agent", whose address and phone number are 5 Newell Court, East Palo Alto, CA 94303 (650) 324-6180, and Maria Guadalupe Villalon, Veronica Villalon, Carmen Gutierrez, and Jorge Lozano (Guarantor), "Resident."

THE PARTIES AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

1. PREMISES: Subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease Agreement, Owner rents to Resident and Resident rents from Owner, for residential use only, the premises ("Premises") located at 201 E. O'Keefe Street #202, East Palo Alto, CA 94303, The term "Property" in this Lease Agreement shall mean all the land, building(s) and common areas owned by Owner/Agent upon which the Rental Unit is located.

2. RENT AND UTILITIES: Rent is due on or before the 1st day of each and every month, whether or not the first day of the month falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, at $1,500.00 per month, beginning on February 1, 2009, payable at 5 Newell Court, East Palo Alto, CA 94303. Payments made in person may be delivered to Owner/Agent 9am and 5pm Monday through Friday. On weekends and holidays, payment may be placed at the drop box at: _____ . Acceptable methods of payment: ☒ Personal Check ☒ Cashier's Check ☒ Money Order ☒ EFT/Credit (see Owner/Agent for details) and ☐ Cash.

   (a) If in any month rent is paid after the 1st of the month, there will be a late charge of $100.00 assessed for such late payment if payment is not received in full of all charges prior to the 5th day of that month. The parties have deemed the foregoing late charge to be a reasonable estimate of the amount of damages suffered by Owner/Agent by reason of Resident's late payment of rent, as it would be impracticable or extremely difficult to determine the actual damages suffered by Owner/Agent in the event of such a late payment.

   (b) Pursuant to California law, if Resident passes a check on insufficient funds, Resident will be liable to Owner/Agent for the amount of the check and a service charge of $25.00, for the first check passed on insufficient funds, and $35.00 for each subsequent check passed on insufficient funds.

   (c) If Resident has previously attempted to pay Owner/Agent with a check drawn on insufficient funds or if Resident has instructed the drawee to stop payment on a check, draft, or order for the payment of money, Resident shall thereafter be required to use money orders or certified funds as the exclusive form of payment of rent or deposit of security.

   (d) Resident is responsible for delivering the rent on time. Failure of the U.S. Post Office or private carrier to deliver the rent on time will not result in a waiver of the breach of lease provisions contained herein.

   (e) UTILITIES: Resident shall pay for all utilities, services and other charges as set forth in Section 5 of this Lease Agreement and by the due date set forth in Section 5(e) of this Lease Agreement.

   (f) PARKING: Resident acknowledges and agrees that parking is not provided for under this Lease Agreement and is not included in Resident's rent. Should Resident desire to purchase a monthly parking permit for one or more vehicles from Owner (subject to availability thereof and with the express understanding there is no assurance that parking will be available), Resident must enter into a separate agreement (the "Parking Agreement") which will govern the purchase of the parking permit(s). While a Parking Agreement does not constitute a part of this Lease Agreement, a default under a Parking Agreement shall constitute a default under this Lease Agreement.

   (g) RENT CONTROL: If the Property is subject to rent control, Resident shall pay monthly its share of the then-current rent stabilization fee.

3. SECURITY DEPOSIT: Resident shall deposit with Owner/Agent, as a security deposit, the sum of $700.00 prior to taking possession of the unit, which sum shall not exceed the maximum permitted by California Civil Code Section 1950.5. During the term of tenancy, Resident agrees to replenish the security deposit upon three (3) days written notice, by an amount equal to the amount deducted by Owner, in Owner's sole and absolute discretion, to cover the cost of rectifying any damage and paying any expense for which Tenant is responsible. Resident shall not use the security deposit to pay any month's rent, nor shall it constitute a measure of Owner's damages in the event of Resident's default. The security deposit shall be applied and accounted for in accordance with California Civil Code Section 1950.5 and any other applicable statutes.

4. TERM: The term of this Lease Agreement is for 6 months, beginning on February 1, 2009 (the "Commencement Date") and ending on July 31, 2009 (the "Termination Date"), at which time this Lease Agreement shall terminate without further notice. Any holding over by Resident after the Termination Date shall result in Resident being liable to Owner/Agent for daily rental damages equal to the current market value of the unit, divided by 30. A "month-to-month" tenancy subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease Agreement shall be created only if Owner/Agent accepts rent from Resident thereafter, and if so accepted, Resident may terminate the tenancy by serving by Owner/Agent with a written 30-day Notice of Termination. Except as prohibited by law, Owner/Agent may terminate the month-to-month tenancy by serving Resident with a 30-day Notice of Termination (pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1946.1) if Resident has resided in the Premises for less than one year, or a 60-day Notice of Termination, if Resident has resided in the Premises for one year or more.

5. UTILITIES: Resident's monthly rent does not include any charges for the monthly utilities services provided to Resident, including, without limitation, sewer, water, trash, gas or electric services. Resident shall pay all monthly utilities charges pursuant to the terms of this Section 5.

   (a) SEWER, WATER AND TRASH SERVICES: Resident shall pay a flat monthly utilities charge for sewer, water and trash services (in addition to any charges for gas and electric services, as set forth in Section 5(b) below). The flat rate shall initially be $50.00 per month, but may be increased from time to time to reflect increases in costs for sewer, water and trash services. Further, the Premises may subsequently be separately metered (or Resident otherwise directly billed) for such services (in accordance with provisions substantively equivalent to the provisions of Sections 5(b)(2) and 5(b)(3), respectively, hereof), in which case Resident shall not be obligated to pay the flat rate, but must instead pay the amount billed for such services. Provided, however, if water services are separately metered, Resident must pay both the amount billed for water service and the flat rate. Resident shall immediately notify Owner of any water leak.

   (b) GAS AND ELECTRIC SERVICES: The monthly utilities charge for gas and electric services shall be calculated, billed and paid in accordance with this Section 5(b).

   (1) No Meter: Flat Rate: If the Premises is not separately metered for gas or electric services, Resident shall pay a flat monthly utilities charge for gas and electricity (in addition to any charges for sewer, water and trash services, as set forth in above). The flat rate shall initially be $50.00 per month if the Premises is not separately metered for either gas or electric services, or $25.00 per month if the Premises is separately metered for either gas or electric services, but not both. This flat rate may be increased from time to time to reflect increases in costs for gas and electric services. Further, the Premises may subsequently be separately metered for gas and/or electric services, in which case Resident shall pay the amount billed for such services (as set forth in Sections 5(b)(2) and 5(b)(3), below).

   (2) Separate Meter: Direct Billing by Utility Provider: If Resident is directly billed for gas or electricity services, Resident shall pay the entire amount due each month (as indicated on the utilities bill) to the utilities provider at the address set forth in the utilities bill. Resident acknowledges that failure to do so shall constitute a default under this Lease Agreement. Resident must transfer any directly billed service into their name before the Commencement Date. If Resident is directly billed for either gas or electricity services (but not both), Resident shall pay, in addition to the amount set forth on the utilities bill, the flat rate set forth in Section 5(b)(1) above for the utility service which is not separately metered. If Resident is directly billed for both gas and electricity services, Resident shall not be obligated to pay the flat rate set forth in Section 5(b)(1), but must pay the entire amount due each month to the utilities provider(s).

   (3) Separate Meter: Submetering: If separate gas or electricity submeters are installed and placed in operation at the Premises, at any time before or after the date of this Lease Agreement, Resident shall pay its proportionate share of the total monthly charges for gas and electric services, which will be calculated as set forth in this Section 5(b)(3). If either a gas or an electricity submeter is installed and placed in operation at the Premises (but not both), Resident shall pay, in addition to its proportionate share of the submetered utility service, the flat rate set forth in Section 5(b)(1) above for the utility service which is not submetered. If both gas and electricity submeters are installed and placed in operation at the Premises, Resident shall not be obligated to pay the flat rate set forth in Section 5(b)(1), but must pay its proportionate share of the submetered utility services.

      (i) Resident's monthly utility bill shall be based on actual readings as recorded by the energy allocation equipment and submeter for the Premises. Utilities shall be calculated at the average rate per therm or ccf (for gas utility services) or per kwh (for electricity services) at the time of consumption. Utilities shall be calculated as follows: the master metered utility provider's total monthly charges for utility service (less Premises base charges or customer service charges if applicable), divided by the total monthly consumption of that utility measured by the utility provider, multiplied by the Resident's total monthly consumption as recorded by the energy allocation equipment and submeter for the Premises.

      (ii) If any utility provider's rate structure includes a base charge, Resident shall be billed, and shall be responsible for paying, the base charge applicable to that Premises. If the utility provider's rate structure includes customer service charge(s), Resident shall be billed, and shall be responsible for paying, the amount of the customer service charge(s) divided by the total number of apartments, including vacant units, that can receive service through the master meter serving the Property. Resident hereby agrees to pay the monthly service charges or other administrative fees shown on the Resident's utility bill.

      (iii) Resident may receive an estimated utilities bill if a submeter becomes inoperative until repairs can be made, and Resident acknowledges that estimated utilities will be reconciled on future billings. Resident acknowledges that if, upon correction of an estimated utilities bill, the previous bill(s) overstated charges, Resident shall be entitled to an account credit reflecting the overstated charges and if, upon correction of an estimated utilities bill, the previous bill(s) understated charges, Resident shall be responsible for paying the amount of such underpayment.

(c) Resident acknowledges and agrees that the billing method for Resident's utility services may be modified from time to time to reflect the Premises' current utilities metering method (e.g. if Resident currently pays a flat rate for utilities services, one or more of the utilities may later be separately metered, submetered or directly billed to Resident, at which time Resident shall pay, in lieu of the flat rate or a portion thereof, the amount of those utilities separately metered, submetered or directly billed to Resident, in accordance with Section 5(b)(2) or 5(b)(3), respectively, above).

(d) Resident acknowledges that Owner cannot guarantee the level of charges for directly billed or submetered utilities services, which will vary over time depending on the Resident's usage characteristics, changes in the rates imposed by the utility provider that provides service to Owner and other factors.

(e) Resident hereby understands and agrees that Resident must deliver payment of the entire amount due each month to the Owner (or the utilities provider, if Resident is directly billed for either gas and/or electricity services) by the due date specified on the utility bill (or, for flat-rate charges, in advance on the 1st day of each and every month). Late payment charges and insufficient funds charges, as set forth in Section 2 of this Lease Agreement, shall be assessed if payment is not received when due.

6. OCCUPANTS: This Premises shall not be occupied by more persons than listed for the 2 Bed / 1 Bath, 800 sq. ft. apartment indicated in the "Maximum Number of Occupants."

Type of Apartment	Maximum Number of Occupants
Junior	3
One Bedroom	3
Two Bedroom	5
Three Bedroom	7

The Premises is a 2 Bed / 1 Bath, 800 sq. ft. apartment. The Premises shall be occupied only by the following named person(s):

Name	Birthdate
Maria Guadalupe Villalon	12/11/1980
Veronica Villalon	10/4/1972
Carmen Gutierrez	2/5/1951

Occupancy of the Premises by a person other than those persons listed above for a period exceeding 72 hours shall be a material breach of this Lease Agreement.

7. PROHIBITIONS: Without Owner/Agent's prior written permission, no pets or waterbeds shall be kept or allowed in or about the Premises.

8. QUIET ENJOYMENT: Resident shall not violate any criminal or civil law, ordinance or statute in the use and occupancy of the Premises (including laws governing the possession, use or sale of illegal drugs or laws governing prostitution), commit waste or nuisance, annoy, molest or interfere with any other Resident or neighbor. Any such action may result in the immediate termination of this Lease Agreement as provided herein and by law. Possession of any illegal drug (including marijuana, whether or not obtained with a prescription) either within Resident's unit or on Resident's possession while Resident is anywhere on the Property, shall be grounds for immediate eviction. Resident and Owner agree that such violation is a non-curable violation of this Lease Agreement, and that a breach of this prohibition is a "material" breach of this Agreement. Further, it shall be a non-curable breach of this Lease Agreement (and thus cause for immediate eviction) for Resident, any guest of Resident, or anyone who resides with Resident at the Premises, to do any of the following: (a) to have in their possession, or be under the influence of, any illegal drug (including marijuana, whether or not obtained with a prescription) while on or near the Property, or within the City of East Palo Alto; or (b) to engage in any drug-related or other criminal activity while on or near the Property, or within the City of East Palo Alto. Furthermore, it shall be a non-curable breach of this Lease Agreement (and thus cause for immediate eviction) for any guest of Resident to engage in any drug-related or other criminal activity while on the Property. Resident understands that Resident is strictly liable for the conduct of guests and will be evicted even if Resident did not know, could not foresee, or could not control behavior by the others mentioned in this paragraph. Resident shall also abide by the rules set forth in the Resident Policies Addendum attached hereto.

9. REPAIRS AND ALTERATIONS: Except as provided by law, no repairs, decorating or alterations shall be done by Resident without Owner/Agent's prior written consent. Resident must notify Owner/Agent in writing of any repairs, decorating, or alterations contemplated and must receive Owner/Agent's prior written consent befote making such repairs, decorating, or alterations. Decorations include, but are not limited to, painting and wallpapering. Resident shall hold Owner/Agent harmless and indemnify Owner/Agent as to any mechanics lien recordation or proceeding caused by Resident. Resident may not make any alterations to cable or telephone inside wiring (such as may occur when changing telecommunications providers or adding phone lines) without prior written consent of the Owner/Agent. The notice shall include the name, address, and telephone number of any new telecommunication provider. Resident agrees to pay all costs resulting from the alteration and agrees to pay to the Owner/Agent any costs associated with restoring the inside wiring to the condition at the time of move-in, except for reasonable wear and tear. Upon 24 hours' notice, Resident shall lend Owner the keys to the Premises for the purpose of having a duplicate made for Owner/Agent's use. Should the law require that Owner make alterations for the reasonable accommodations of Resident, such alterations shall be made at Resident's sole cost and expense. Any and all alterations, shall, upon Resident's move-out, become the property of Owner and remain on the Premises; provided, however, that Owner may remove any and all alterations made for or by Resident and Resident shall be responsible for the cost of (A) repairing all damage to the Premises caused by their removal and/or (B) returning the Premises to its original condition.

10. ACCEPTANCE OF PREMISES: Resident has inspected the Premises, furnishings and equipment, and has found them to be satisfactory and accepts them in their "as is" condition. All plumbing, heating and electrical systems are operative and deemed satisfactory. Owner/Agent makes no representations whatsoever regarding the condition of the Premises or the Property. Resident and Owner/Agent have noted the presence of certain personal property of Owner at the Premises as identified in the Move In/Move Out Addendum.

11. CARE, CLEANING, MAINTENANCE AND INSURANCE: Resident agrees to leave the Premises and furniture, furnishings and appliances, and fixtures, which are rented for Resident's exclusive use, in good order and condition and in the same condition as each was received, subject to reasonable wear and tear. Upon move-out, Resident agrees to return the Premises to the same level of cleanliness it was in at the inception of the tenancy ree of all trash and personal property not belonging to Owner. It is agreed that all dirt, holes, tears, burns and stains of any size or amount in the carpets, drapes, walls, fixture or any other part of the Premises do not constitute reasonable wear and tear. Any personal property left behind by Resident and not belonging to Owner may be thrown away by Owner without liability. Further, if Resident leaves large items in the unit or on the Property upon move out (or in or near the trash or elsewhere on the Property at any time), Resident shall be charged per Owner's move out schedule of costs as of the time of move-out, which is available upon move in and may be revised from time to time in Owner's sole and absolute discretion. Resident shall pay Owner/Agent for costs to repair, replace or rebuild any portion of the Premises damaged by the Resident, Resident's guests or invitees, including the charges specified in the Repairs and Replacements Addendum for any damaged property.

    Resident acknowledges that: (A) Owner's insurance may not cover loss from damage to Resident's personal property caused by plumbing leaks, fire, theft, rain, acts of God, acts of others, and/or any other causes, nor shall Owner be liable for such losses; and (B) Resident shall not hold Owner liable for any such losses, whether or not Owner's insurance covers the loss. Resident agrees to obtain Resident's own insurance to cover any losses to personal property. This paragraph does not intend to waive Owner's duty to guard against personal injury or property damage where that duty cannot be waived by Resident. However, since Resident's obtaining of insurance is considered additional consideration to Owner for this Lease Agreement, if Resident does not obtain a renter's policy for a minimum of $100,000 coverage, Resident waives any losses that would have been paid by such a policy, if Resident does not obtain said policy.

    Resident shall deposit all garbage in a clean and sanitary manner into the proper receptacles as provided and shall cooperate in keeping the trash container area neat and clean. Resident shall be responsible for keeping out of the kitchen sink bones, toothpicks, match sticks, celery, grease, metal vegetable ties, and all other items that may tend to cause stoppage of the sink and garbage disposal. Resident shall pay for the cleaning and/or clearing of any plumbing fixtures or water pipes, necessitated by the misuse or non-maintenance.

12. WAIVER OF BREACH: The waiver of either party of any breach shall not be construed to be a continuing waiver of any subsequent breach. The receipt by Owner/Agent of rent with the knowledge of any default by Resident of any breach of any term covenant or condition of this Lease Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of such breach r of any subsequent breaches. Owner's failure to require compliance with the terms of this Lease Agreement and to exercise any right granted by this Lease Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver by Owner of said term, condition and/or right; and shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any provision of this Lease Agreement. No waiver by either party of the provisions herein shall be deemed to have been made unless expressed in writing and signed by all parties to this Lease Agreement.

13. JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY: The undersigned Resident(s), whether or not in actual possession of the Premises, are jointly and severally liable for all obligations under this Lease Agreement, and shall indemnify Owner/Agent for liability arising prior to the termination of the Lease Agreement for personal injuries or property damage caused or permitted by Resident(s), their guests and invitees. This does not waive "Owner/Agent's duty of care" to prevent personal injury or property damage where that duty is imposed by law.

14. ENTRY: California law allows Owner/Agent or his/her employee(s) to enter the Premises for certain purposes during normal business hours. The Owner/Agent will provide written notice to the Resident prior to the entry of the dwelling unit whenever required by state law. (Civil Code Section 1954.) Resident's non-compliance with Owner/Agent's lawful request for entry is a material breach of this Lease Agreement that may be cause for immediate termination as provided herein and by law.

15. NO SUBLETTING OR ASSIGNMENT:
    (a) No portion of the Premises shall be sublet, licensed or otherwise rented to a person not a party to this Lease Agreement, nor shall this Lease Agreement be assigned. Any attempted subletting, licensing, rental or assignment by Resident shall, at the election of Owner/Agent, be an irremediable breach of this Lease Agreement and cause for immediate termination as provided herein and by law. Resident shall not take in or allow occupancy by any person, whether that person is deemed a boarder, lodger, roommate or guest; and furthermore said occupancy shall be deemed an illegal subtenancy.
    (b) In the event the rental unit is assigned or sublet by Resident, whether Resident permanently resides in the rental unit or not, then the rent for the Premises shall be increased by thirty-five (35%) without further notice from Owner. This provision is pursuant to Civil Code Section 1954.53(d). Owner shall elect the option of either collecting the increased rent or enforcing the provisions of Section 15(a), above. If Owner elects to enforce the provisions of Section 15(a), but a court of competent jurisdiction rules that Owner has waived the provisions for any reason, then Resident agrees to pay the 35% increased rent from the time that the assignment/subletting first occurred.

16. BREACH OF LEASE: In the event that Resident breaches this Lease Agreement, Owner/Agent shall be allowed at Owner/Agent's discretion, but not by way of limitation, to exercise any or all remedies provided Owner/Agent by California Civil Code Section 1951.2 and 1951.4. Damages Owner/Agent "may recover" include the worth at the time of the award of the amount by which the unpaid rent for the balance of the term after the time of award, or for any shorter period of time specified in the Lease Agreement, exceeds the amount of such rental loss for the same period that the Resident proves could be reasonably avoided. Resident's default under any "Additional Agreement" (as defined in Section 25 hereof) shall constitute a default under this Lease Agreement. There is no grace period with respect to the payment of rent. Accordingly, without limitation on any other obligation of Resident under this Lease Agreement, Resident's failure to pay rent on the first day of a month constitutes a breach of this Lease Agreement.

17. ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATE: Within ten (10) days after written request is mailed to Resident, including in the event of the sale, financing or restructuring of ownership of the Property, Resident agrees to execute and deliver to Owner an estoppel certificate on the form submitted by Owner: (A) acknowledging whether this Lease Agreement has been modified and, if so, stating all the modifications; (B) stating the amount of the current rent Resident is paying and the amount Resident has paid as prepaid rent and security deposit; (C) stating whether or not Resident is then aware of any violation of law in the operation of the building, and/or has any claim against Owner; and (D) stating requests for other information relevant to Resident's occupancy of the Premises. Failure to comply shall be deemed Resident's acknowledgement that the certificate as submitted by Owner/Agent is true and correct and may be relied upon by any lender or purchaser.

18. SMOKE DETECTION DEVICE: The Premises are equipped with a functioning smoke detection device(s), and Resident shall be responsible for testing the device weekly and immediately reporting any problems, maintenance or need for repairs to Owner/Agent. If battery operated, Resident is responsible for changing the detector's battery as necessary. Owner/Agent shall have a right to enter the Premises to check and maintain the smoke detection device as provided by law.

19. NOTICE: Pursuant to Section 290.46 of the Penal Code, information about specified registered sex offenders is made available to the public via an Internet Web site maintained by the Department of Justice at www.meganslaw.ca.gov. Depending on an offender's criminal history, this information will include either the address at which the offender resides or the community of residence and ZIP Code in which he or she resides.

20. ADDENDA: By initialing as provided, Resident acknowledges receipt of the following applicable addenda, as indicated, copies of which are attached hereto, and are incorporated as part of this Lease Agreement. Please note that any Parking Agreement is a separate agreement and is not an addenda hereto.

☒ Asbestos Addendum

☒ Lead Paint Disclosure
☒ Move-In/Move-Out Itemized Statement
☒ Pest Control Notice
☒ Resident Policies and House Rules Addendum
☒ California Proposition 65 Warning
☒ Lead Paint Booklet
☒ Move-In Summary
☒ Parking Agreement
☒ Repairs and Replacements
☒ Vehicle Registration

21. ENTIRE AGREEMENT: This Lease Agreement, which includes all attachments referred to above, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and cannot be modified except in writing and signed by all parties, except as permitted by applicable law. Neither Owner/Agent, nor any agent or employee of Owner/Agent has made any representations or promises other than those set forth herein. All determinations, consents and approvals by Owner/Agent in connection with this Lease shall be in its sole and absolute discretion.

22. CREDIT REPORTS: A negative credit report reflecting on your credit history may be submitted to a credit reporting agency if you fail to fulfill the terms of your credit obligations. Resident expressly authorizes Owner/Agent (including a collection agency) to obtain Resident's consumer credit report, which Owner/Agent may use if attempting to collect past due rent payments, late fees, or other charges from Resident, both during the term of the Lease Agreement and thereafter.

23. ATTORNEYS' FEES: If any legal action or proceeding is brought by either party to enforce any part of this Lease Agreement, each party's costs of said enforcement shall be the responsibilities of that respective party and no other party.

24. SATELLITE ANTENNA/DISHES: Resident shall not install, or permit any other person or entity to install, any kind of satellite dish or antenna on the Premises or anywhere on the Property.

25. ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS: From time to time during the term of this lease, any renewal, expansion or extension thereof or any month to month tenancy arising after the Termination Date, Resident may rent or purchase from Owner/Agent certain other services which are not included in Resident's rent. By way of example and without limitation, these services may include parking, cable television, concierge services, furniture rental and washer/dryer rental. Resident covenants and agrees to perform any and all of its obligations under any agreement executed in connection with those services (each an "Additional Agreement"), and acknowledges and agrees that a default by Resident under any Additional Agreement shall constitute a default under this Lease Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt and without limitation, a Parking Agreement constitutes an Additional Agreement.

26. RENT PAYMENT BY NON-TENANT: If Owner accepts rent from any person not a Resident, whether or not the person occupies the Premises, said acceptance: (A) shall not constitute a waiver or modification of Section 15 of this Lease Agreement, (B) shall not be used to establish said person's right to possession of the premises; and (C) shall be interpreted only as an accommodation to Resident.

27. RESPONSIBILITY/INDEMNIFICATION: The undersigned Resident is/are jointly and severally responsible and liable for all obligations under this Lease Agreement and shall indemnify Owner from any liability created by Resident's and/or Resident's guests' conduct. In addition, Resident shall indemnify and hold Owner free and harmless from any and all liability arising by reason of the death or injury of any person or damage to any property caused or allegedly caused by (A) some act or omission of Resident or any person in, on or about the Property with the permission of Resident; and (B) any matter connected with Resident's occupation and use of the Premises.

28. NO WAIVER DURING LITIGATION: In the event that Owner accepts rent from Resident while Owner and Resident are involved in litigated based on a 3 Day Notice to Pay Rent or Quit, acceptance of said rent by Owner shall not be considered a waiver by Owner of the default upon which the 3 Day Notice to Pay Rent or Quit was based. Rather, said rent payment shall be received by Owner in trust and shall be subject to jurisdiction of the court wherein said manner is pending. Owner shall be allowed to commingle said rent payment funds with Owner's regular funds as long as Owner keeps an accurate accounting of money received from Resident during litigation.

29. APPLICATION MISREPRESENTATION: Any material misrepresentation or omission made by Resident in Resident's rental application will constitute a material noncurable breach of this Lease Agreement.

30. LOCKING OF ENTRANCE DOORS: Owner reserves the right to close and keep locked all entrance and exit doors of the building during such hours as Owner may deem it advisable for the adequate protection of the Property and the personal property of Owner and Resident. It shall be a material breach of this Lease Agreement for any Resident to prop open any entrance or exit door.

31. LEAD DISCLOSURE: Many homes and apartments built before 1978 may have paint that contains lead (called lead-based paint). Lead from paint chips and dust can cause serious hazards if not taken care of properly. The law requires that Resident receive certain information before renting pre-1978 housing. By signing this Lease Agreement, Resident acknowledges that Owner has provided Resident with such information. Additionally, upon Resident's request, Owner will provide Resident with the EPA booklet entitled "Protect Your Family From Lead In Your Home." Any known lead-based paint or lead hazards at the Premises, if any, are hereby disclosed: _____ .

32. WAIVER OF PUNITIVE DAMAGES:

It is recognized that neither the Resident's nor the Owner's insurance company pays for an award of punitive damages. Thus, it is not possible for either party to insure against such a loss. Both parties feel it is in their best interest to mutually waive the right to collect punitive damages against the other and hereby elect to do so. Therefore, it is agreed that neither a judge nor a jury shall have the power or authority to award punitive or exemplary damages in any litigation between the parties, against either party. For purposes of establishing the enforceability of this waiver of punitive damages, the parties have elected to have federal law apply as a choice of law. Thus the legality of this waiver will be judged under federal law and not state or city laws. In the event that for any reason this mutual waiver of punitive damages is not upheld, then both parties agree that there should be a reasonable limit on the amount that either party shall recover against the other. Such limit shall be one (1) times the amount of actual damages awarded.

33. ATTORNEY'S ADVICE: Each of the parties hereto acknowledges that either (1) the terms of this Lease Agreement have been explained to them by their respective counsel and that they execute this Lease Agreement in reliance upon advice of their respective counsel, or (2) that they have been given the opportunity to consult an attorney and have decided not to do so; and warrant that they will not at a later time attempt to set this Lease Agreement aside because they were not represented by an attorney.

34. HEADINGS: The captions and headings used in this Lease Agreement are for convenience only and do not in any way limit, amplify or otherwise modify the provisions of this Lease Agreement.

The undersigned Resident(s) acknowledge(s) having read and understood the foregoing, and receipt of a duplicate original. Only may sign this Lease Agreement on behalf of Owner/Agent. If the signatory is not , this Lease Agreement is of no effect.

CALIFORNIA'S PROPOSITION 65 WARNING

California's Proposition 65 (Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986) requires businesses with 10 or more employees to provide warnings prior to exposing individuals to chemicals known to the State to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm.

These types of chemicals are found within this establishment. This brochure provides you with information on what chemicals are present and what your exposures to them might be.

Warning

This Facility Contains Chemicals Known to the State of California To Cause Cancer and/or Birth Defects Or Other Reproductive Harm.

Second Hand Tobacco Smoke and Tobacco Products.

Tobacco products and tobacco smoke and its by-products contain many chemicals that are known to the State of California to cause cancer, and birth defects or other reproductive harm. Smoking is permitted in certain common and private areas.

Furnishings, Hardware, and Electrical Components.

Room furnishings and building materials contain formaldehyde, which is known to the State of California to cause cancer. Furniture, foams, brass keys, electrical power cords, carpeting, carpet padding, wall coverings, wood surfaces, and vinyl, contain a number of chemicals, including lead, and formaldehyde, known to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm. Their presence in these materials can lead to exposures. Certain molds that may be present contain chemicals, including sterigmatocystin, known to the State of California to cause cancer.

Combustion Sources.

Combustion sources such as gas stoves, fireplaces, and barbeques contain or produce a large number chemicals, including acetaldehyde, benzene and carbon monoxide, known to the State of California to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm which are found in the air of this complex. Any time organic matter such as gas, charcoal or wood is burned, Proposition 65-listed chemicals are released into the air.

Construction and Maintenance Materials.

Construction and maintenance materials contain Proposition 65-listed chemicals, such as roofing materials manufactured with vinyl chloride monomer, benzene and ceramic fibers, which are known to cause cancer, or birth defects or other reproductive harm. Construction materials used in walls, floors, ceilings and outside cladding contain chemicals, such as formaldehyde resin, asbestos, arsenic, cadmium and creosote, which are released as gases or vapors during normal degradation or deterioration, and as dust or particulate when disturbed during repairs, maintenance or renovation, all of which can lead to exposures.

Certain Products Used In Cleaning And Related Activities.

Certain cleaning products used for special cleaning purposes such as graffiti removal and spot and stain lifters contain chlorinated solvents including perchloroethylene and urinal odor cakes contain paradichlorobenzene which are Proposition 65-listed chemicals known to cause cancer or birth defects or other reproductive harm.

Swimming Pools and Hot Tubs.

The use and maintenance of a variety of recreational activities and facilities such as swimming pools and hot tubs where chlorine and bromine are used in the disinfecting process can cause exposures to chloroform and bromoform which are chemicals known to the State of California to cause cancer.

Paint and Painted Surfaces.

Certain paints and painted surfaces contain chemicals, such as lead and crystalline silica, that are known to the State of California to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm. Lead-based paint chips may be ingested and crystalline silica may be released into the air and lead to exposures.

Engine Related Exposures.

The operation and maintenance of engines, including automobiles, vans, maintenance vehicles, recreational vehicles, and other small internal combustion engines are associated with this residential rental facility. Motor vehicle rental fuels and engine exhaust contain many Proposition 65-listed chemicals, including benzene, carbon monoxide and, for diesel engines, diesel exhaust, which are known to the State to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm. In parking structures and garages, exhaust fumes can concentrate, increasing your exposure to these chemicals.

Pest Control and Landscaping.

Pests control and landscaping products used to control insects and weeds contain resmethrin, mycobutonil, triforine and arsenic trioxide which are known to the State to cause cancer and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm.

Sources of Chemical Exposures

California's Proposition 65 has identified hundreds of chemicals known to the State of California to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm. The law requires that businesses with 10 or more employees warn you prior to knowingly and intentionally exposing you to any of these chemicals when the exposure is over a certain level. While many exposures are associated with industrial activities and chemicals, everyday items and even the air we breathe routinely contain many of these chemicals. This brochure provides warning and information regarding exposures to these chemicals that occur in this facility. In many instances, we do not have information specific to this facility. Instead we have relied upon experts in this field to tell us where and to which chemicals these exposures might occur. For other exposures to listed chemicals, enough is known to identify specific areas of exposure.

The regulations implementing Proposition 65 offer warnings for various circumstances. Some of those warnings you may see in this residential rental property include the following:

General - Warning: This Facility Contains Chemicals Known to the State of California To Cause Cancer, And Birth Defects Or Other Reproductive Harm.

Foods and Beverages - Warning: Chemicals Known To The State of California To Cause Cancer, Or Birth Defects Or Other Reproductive Harm May Be Present In Foods Or Beverages Sold Or Served Here.

Alcohol - Warning: Drinking Distilled Spirits, Beer, Coolers, Wine, And Other Alcoholic Beverages May Increase Cancer Risk, And, During Pregnancy, Can Cause Birth Defects.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURE INFORMATION FOR TENANTS

IN CASE OF FIRE USE STAIRWAY FOR EXIT DO NOT USE ELEVATOR

IF YOU ARE ABLE TO LEAVE YOUR ROOM

- Close your unit door, and take your unit key with you.
- If there is smoke, stay low to the ground.
- Use stairways to evacuate.
- Never use elevators during a fire. They could stop at floors that contain fire. Handicapped persons should proceed to stairwell for assistance.
- Pull the closest fire alarm and warn other people in the area.
- If there is a telephone available, dial 911.

IF TRAPPED IN YOUR ROOM

- If your front door is hot, don't open it.
- Call the Fire Department at 911.
- Wedge cloth material along the bottom of the door to keep smoke out.
- Close as many doors as possible between you and the fire.
- Block air conditioning vents if there is smoke coming in.
- Open windows cautiously so as not to allow outside smoke to enter the room. Remember, if you have broken the window, you cannot close it again if you need to.

Smoke detectors are provided for your personal safety. Anyone who willfully and maliciously tampers with, damages, breaks, or removes any required smoke detector shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person who willfully and maliciously sends, gives, transmits, or sounds any false alarm of fire is guilty of a misdemeanor.

TARGET HOUSING RENTAL AGREEMENT/LEASE ADDENDUM
DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION ON
LEAD-BASED PAINT AND LEAD-BASED PAINT HAZARDS

Lead Warning Statement

Housing built before 1978 may contain lead-based paint. Lead from paint, paint chips, and dust can pose health hazards if not taken care of properly. Lead exposure is especially harmful to young children and pregnant women. Before renting pre-1978 housing, landlords must disclose the presence of known lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards in the dwelling. Lessees must also receive a Federally approved pamphlet on lead poisoning prevention. NOTE: The existence of lead on the rental property is not, by itself, cause for termination of the tenancy. (Public Law 102-550 sec. 1018(c))

Lessor's Disclosure

(a) Presence of lead-based paint or lead-based paint hazards:

- ☒ Lessor has no knowledge of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing.
- ☐ Known lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards are present in the housing.

(b) Records and reports available to the Lessor:

- ☒ Lessor has no reports or records pertaining to lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing.
- ☐ Lessor has provided the Resident with all available records and reports pertaining to lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing.

PARKING AGREEMENT

THIS PARKING AGREEMENT is made and entered into this 1st day of February, 2009 between 201 Okeefe, LLC ("Owner"), whose address and phone number are 5 Newell Court, East Palo Alto, CA 94303, (650) 324-6180, and Maria Guadalupe Villalon, Veronica Villalon, Carmen Gutierrez, and Jorge Lozano (Guarantor) ("Permit Holder").

THE PARTIES AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

1. LOCATION. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Parking Agreement, Permit Holder agrees to purchase, and Owner agrees to sell to Permit Holder, one (1) monthly parking permits (the "Parking Permits") for use at the property located at 201 E. O'Keefe Street, East Palo Alto, California 94303 (the "Property").

2. MONTHLY FEE. Permit Holder shall pay $50.00 per month per Parking Permit (the "Permit Fee"). Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that this amount may be increased from time to time to reflect Owner's then-current rate for parking spaces charged by the Owner to new residents at Owner's apartment buildings or at any other rate in Owner's sole and absolute discretion.
   (a) Payment will be due in advance on or before the 1st of every month. If the Permit Fee is paid after the 5th of the month, there will be a late charge of $10.00 assessed for such late payment. There is no grace period with respect to the application of such late charge. The parties have deemed the foregoing late charge to be a reasonable estimate of the amount of damages suffered by Owner by reason of Permit Holder's late payment of rent, as it would be impracticable or extremely difficult to determine the actual damages suffered by Owner in the event of such a late payment.
   (b) Pursuant to California law, if Permit Holder passes a check on insufficient funds, Permit Holder will be liable to Owner for the amount of the check and a service charge of $25.00 for the first check passed on insufficient funds, and $35.00 for each subsequent check passed on insufficient funds.

3. PERMIT AND DESIGNATED PARKING SPACE. The Permit Holder must obtain one (1) Parking Permit for each vehicle the Permit Holder will park on the Property. The Parking Permit must be prominently displayed in the back window of the vehicle at all times. The vehicle may only be parked in its designated parking space (as indicated in the "Vehicle Information" section of this Parking Agreement). The Parking Permits are valid only for the vehicle's assigned space and only for current residents of the Property who are party to a valid apartment lease and not in default thereunder.

4. NON-RESIDENT PARKING. Subject to availability, unassigned guest parking may be provided at the Property for non-resident guests on a "first come, first served" basis. Unassigned guest parking spaces may be assigned to current tenants of the Property at any time and at Owner's sole and absolute discretion. Guest use of parking facilities is in accordance with the Property's Parking Rules and Regulations (as the same may be amended or modified from time to time in Owner's sole and absolute discretion, the "Parking Rules"). The maximum allowable duration for visitor parking is three (3) days.

5. TERMS AND CONDITIONS. Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that:
   (a) Resident's use of the Parking Permit and parking facilities is in accordance with the Parking Rules.
   (b) The term and amount of all Parking Permits may vary. The Parking Holder may or may not have any or all of its Parking Permits for the duration of the "Lease" (as defined below), nor may Permit Holder have all its Parking Permits for the same duration.
   (c) The parking provided herein is not a service under that certain Lease Agreement between Owner and Permit Holder with respect to the Property (the "Lease").
   (d) Parking Permits may be cancelled at any time, in Owner's sole and absolute discretion, upon thirty (30) days' notice by Owner.
   (e) Parking Permits shall remain the property of the Owner. Parking Permits must be displayed as set forth herein and may not be mutilated in any manner. The serial number, if any, of the Parking Permit may not be obliterated. Parking Permits are not transferable and any Parking Permit in the possession of an unauthorized holder will be void. If a Parking Permit is lost or otherwise must be replaced, Permit Holder must pay a replacement charge of $20.00 for each replacement Parking Permit.

6. DEFAULT AND FAILURE TO ADHERE TO CONDITIONS. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, a default under the Lease shall constitute a default under this Parking Agreement. Further, Permit Holder's failure to adhere to the terms, conditions and provisions of the Parking Agreement and the terms and conditions of the Parking Rules may result in Owner or its agent taking one or more of the following actions:
   (a) Towing of the vehicle without warning and at the vehicle owner's or Permit Holder's risk and expense;
   (b) The temporary suspension of Permit Holder's or its guest's parking privileges with no refund;

(c) Permanent revocation of the Parking Permit with no refund; or

(d) Permanent loss of all of Permit Holder's or its guest's parking privileges.

Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that Owner shall be in no way responsible for loss, theft or damage to any vehicle or other property due to collision, theft, burglary, vandalism, crime or otherwise caused by Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees, any vehicle operated or parked by Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees pursuant to or in violation of this Parking Agreement, any personal property left in such vehicle, or otherwise with respect to Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees. Permit Holder agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Owner with respect to any claim arising from such loss or damage.

Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that Permit Holder has been granted a license to park on the Property and that no bailment relationship between Owner and Permit Holder has been or will be created. Permit Holder is required to park and lock Permit Holder's vehicle, and must retain the vehicle's keys. In no event shall Owner or its agents be deemed to have acquired any dominion over the vehicle or any right to control the vehicle's removal (except for purposes of towing vehicles following a violation of the Parking Rules or the Permit Holder's Parking Agreement).

Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that there is no attendant at the parking lot and that Permit Holder parks the vehicle at the Property at Permit Holder's sole risk.

ADDENDUM:
PARKING RULES AND REGULATIONS

The following rules and regulations shall govern use of the parking facilities for the Property. Any vehicle found to be in violation of these rules will be towed at the vehicle owner's expense, without notice.

1. No vehicle may be parked in the fire lane and/or red zones.
2. No vehicle may be parked in a disabled-access space without a valid and prominently displayed disabled parking permit or placard issued by the State of California.
3. No vehicle may be parked without a valid monthly parking permit sticker (the "Parking Permit") properly displayed. Each Parking Permit is valid only for the vehicle's assigned space and only for current residents of the Property who are party to a valid apartment lease and not in default thereunder.
4. All vehicles must be currently registered to the holder of the Parking Permit (the "Permit Holder") (or validly leased by the Permit Holder) and in good working order. Vehicles must not drop excessive oil or fluids on the ground, present a health or safety hazard, or cause damage or the risk of damage to any part of the Property. Inoperable, dismantled or partially dismantled, or unregistered vehicles are subject to tow under California Vehicle Code §22658 and any applicable local laws and/or ordinances.
5. No vehicle washing, waxing, cleaning or servicing is permitted on the Property.
6. Permit Holder may not perform or have performed any mechanical work or vehicle repairs on any vehicle in the parking area including, without limitation, changing oil.
7. Vehicles must be parked in only their designated parking space, entirely within the painted stall lines and head-in. No back-in parking is permitted.
8. The Property owner ("Owner") is not responsible if the vehicle is impounded.
9. Owner reserves the right to refuse the sale of Parking Permits or other parking identification devices to any tenant or person and/or his agents or representatives who willfully refuse to comply with these Parking Rules or any applicable city, state or federal ordinances, laws or agreements, whether posted or unposted.
10. Loss or theft of Parking Permits or other parking identification devices from vehicles must be reported immediately to Owner. Owner has the right to exclude any vehicle from the parking facilities that does not have an identification device. Any Parking Permit or other parking identification devices reported lost or stolen found on any unauthorized vehicle will be confiscated and the illegal holder will be subject to prosecution.
11. All directional signs and arrows must be observed.
12. The speed limit within all parking areas shall be 5 miles per hour.
13. Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that Owner shall be in no way responsible for loss, theft or damage to any vehicle or other property due to collision, theft, burglary, vandalism, crime or otherwise caused by Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees, any vehicle operated or parked by Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees pursuant to or in violation of this Parking Agreement, any personal property left in such vehicle, or otherwise with respect to Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees. Permit Holder agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Owner with respect to any claim arising from such loss or damage.
14. Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that Permit Holder has been granted a license to park on the Property and that no bailment relationship between Owner and Permit Holder has been or will be created. Permit Holder is required to park and lock Permit Holder's vehicle, and must retain the vehicle's keys. In no event shall Owner or its agents be deemed to have acquired any dominion over the vehicle or any right to control the vehicle's removal (except for purposes of towing vehicles following a violation of the Parking Rules or the Permit Holder's Parking Agreement).
15. Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that there is no attendant at the parking lot and that Permit Holder parks the vehicle at the Property at Permit Holder's sole risk.
16. Owner reserves the right to modify and/or adopt such other reasonable rules and regulations for the parking facilities as it deems necessary for the operation of the parking facilities. Owner reserves the right at any time to grant similar reserved and/or non-exclusive use to other tenants at the Property, to promulgate additional rules and regulations relating to the use of such parking areas, including reasonable restrictions on parking by tenants and guests, and to make changes in parking layout from time to time.

PEST CONTROL NOTICE ADDENDUM

This document is an Addendum and is part of the Rental/Lease Agreement, dated January 26, 2009 between 201 Okeefe, LLC (Owner/Agent) and Maria Guadalupe Villalon, Veronica Villalon, Carmen Gutierrez, and Jorge Lozano (Guarantor), (Resident) for the premises located at 201 E. O'Keefe Street #202, East Palo Alto, CA 94303.

California law requires that an Owner/Agent of a residential dwelling unit provide each new tenant a copy of the notice provided by a registered pest control company if a contract for periodic pest control service has been executed.

The premises you are renting, or the common areas of the building are covered by such a contract for regular pest control service, so you are being notified pursuant to the law. The notice provided by the pest control company is attached to this Acknowledgment.

The undersigned Resident(s) acknowledge(s) having read and understood the foregoing and the referenced attachment. Only may sign this Lease Agreement on behalf of Owner/Agent. If the signatory is not , this Lease Agreement is of no effect.

REPAIRS AND REPLACEMENTS

Addendum to the Lease Agreement

During your tenancy, if the items below are not maintained in a satisfactory condition or working order, the following charges will be made. You will be responsible for these charges and billed directly. These bills are payable upon receipt. If the damages are discovered during the course of your move out inspection, the charges will be deducted from your security deposit.

If any items are missing or damaged to the point that they must be replaced when you move out, you will be charged the current cost of the item, plus labor and service charges.

You will be charged the list amount for each instance the item must be cleaned, repaired or replaced. Multiple charges will be made where appropriate. The prices given for the items listed below are average prices. If we incur a higher cost for repairing or replacing the item, you will be responsible for the higher cost.

Please be aware that this is not an all-inclusive list: you can be charged for cleaning, repairing or replacement items that are not on the list.

RESIDENT POLICIES AND "HOUSE RULES" ADDENDUM

I. GENERAL

1. This document is an Addendum and is part of the Rental/Lease Agreement, dated January 26, 2009 between 201 Okeefe, LLC (Owner/Agent) and Maria Guadalupe Villalon, Veronica Villalon, Carmen Gutierrez, and Jorge Lozano (Guarantor), (Resident) for the premises at 201 E. O'Keefe Street #202, East Palo Alto, CA 94303.
2. New policies and rules or amendments to this document may be adopted by Owner/Agent upon giving 30 days' notice in writing to Resident.
3. Guests who stay more than 14 days in a year period may constitute a breach of the Rental/Lease Agreement. At the discretion of the Owner/Agent, guests may be required to go through the application process and, if approved, must sign a Rental/Lease Agreement.
4. Residents who lock themselves out of their units may be assessed a charge for the actual costs, including out of pocket expenses, incurred by the Owner/Agent.

II. NOISE AND CONDUCT

1. Residents and their guests shall not make or allow any excessive noise in the unit nor permit any actions which will interfere with the rights, comforts or conveniences of other persons.
2. Residents and their guests shall refrain from playing musical instruments, television sets, stereos, radios, and other devices at a volume which will disturb other persons.
3. Residents and their guests shall refrain, and shall ensure that Resident's guests likewise refrain, from activities and conduct outside of the unit (in common areas, parking areas, or recreation facilities) which are likely to annoy or disturb other persons.
4. Resident and their guests shall refrain from creating, or allowing to be created, any noise that is disturbing to other Residents between the hours of 10 pm and 8 am.

III. CLEANLINESS AND TRASH

1. Resident shall keep the unit clean, sanitary and free from objectionable odors at all times.
2. Resident shall ensure that papers, cigarette butts and trash are placed in appropriate receptacles so that litter is not created on or about Resident's unit.
3. Resident shall ensure that trash and other materials are not permitted to accumulate so as to cause a hazard or be in violation of any health, fire or safety ordinance or regulation.
4. Resident shall ensure that garbage is not permitted to accumulate and that it is placed on a daily basis in the trash containers provided for that purpose. Resident shall ensure that large boxes are broken apart before being placed in the trash containers. Resident shall be responsible, at Resident's expense, for hauling to the dump those items too large to fit in the trash containers.
5. Resident shall ensure that furniture is kept inside the unit and that unsightly items are kept out of view.
6. Resident shall refrain from leaving articles in the hallways or other common areas.
7. Resident shall refrain from shaking or hanging clothing, curtains, rugs, and other coverings and cloths outside of any window, ledge, or balcony.
8. Resident shall refrain from disposing of any combustible or hazardous material in trash containers or bins.

IV. SAFETY/SECURITY

1. Security is the responsibility of each Resident and each guest. Owner/Agent assumes no responsibility or liability, unless otherwise provided by law, for Resident's and guests' safety and security, or for injury or damage caused by the criminal acts of other persons.
2. Resident should ensure that all doors are locked during Resident's absence. Resident must notify Owner/Agent if locks become inoperable.
3. Resident should ensure that all appliances are turned off before departing from the premises.

4. When leaving for an extended period, Resident should notify Owner/Agent how long Resident will be away.
5. Prior to any planned absence from the unit, Resident shall give Owner/Agent authority to allow entry to the unit to any person or provide Owner/Agent with the name of any person or entity permitted by Resident to enter the unit.
6. Resident shall refrain from smoking in bed.
7. Resident shall refrain from using or storing gasoline, cleaning solvent or other combustibles in the unit.
8. Resident shall refrain from using charcoal barbecues on porches, balconies or patios adjacent to buildings as such use would constitute a fire hazard. Use of barbecues or propane grills indoors is prohibited.
9. Resident shall ensure that no personal belongings, including bicycles, play equipment or other items shall be left unattended in the halls, stairways or about the building.

V. MAINTENANCE, REPAIRS AND ALTERATIONS

1. Resident shall advise Owner/Agent of any items requiring repair, such as light switches or dripping faucets. Resident shall make repair requests as soon after the defect is noted as is practical.
2. Resident shall refrain from making service requests directly to maintenance personnel unless Resident is directed to do so by Owner/Agent.
3. Resident shall refrain from making any alterations or improvements to the unit without the consent of Owner/Agent. Resident shall refrain from using adhesives, glue or tape to affix pictures or decorations.
4. Resident shall refrain from using aluminum foil as a window covering and shall obtain the approval of Owner/Agent before using any window covering visible from the exterior of the building.
5. Costs of repair or clearance of stoppages in waste pipes or drains, water pipes or plumbing fixtures caused by Resident's negligence or improper usage are the responsibility of the Resident. Payment for corrective action must be paid by Resident on demand.

VI. PARKING

1. Number of parking spaces assigned to Resident's unit 1 . Only one vehicle may be parked in each space.
2. Resident shall only use assigned parking spaces and shall ensure that guests park only in unassigned areas or designated guest parking areas. Resident shall ensure that posted and designated fire zones or "No Parking" areas remain clear of vehicles at all times. Resident shall refrain from parking in unauthorized areas or in another resident's designated parking space. (Vehicles parked in unauthorized areas or in another Resident's space may be towed away at the vehicle owner's expense.)
3. Only currently registered vehicles may be parked on the property. A vehicle that lacks an engine, transmission, wheels, tires, doors, windshield, or any other major part or equipment necessary to operate saftely on the highways, is subject to tow under California Vehicle Code 22658. Vehicles parked in violation of local laws/ordinance are subject to tow.

The undersigned Resident(s) ackowledge(s) having read and understood the foregoing.

LEASE AGREEMENT

THE PARTIES AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

1. PREMISES: Subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease Agreement, Owner rents to Resident and Resident rents from Owner, for residential use only, the premises ("Premises") located at 201 E. O'Keefe Street #201, E. Palo Alto, CA 94303, The term "Property" in this Lease Agreement shall mean all the land, building(s) and common areas owned by Owner/Agent upon which the Rental Unit is located.

2. RENT AND UTILITIES: Rent is due on or before the 1st day of each and every month, whether or not the first day of the month falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, at $1,295.00 per month, beginning on August 1, 2010, payable at 2041 Euclid ave. East Palo Alto, CA 94303. Payments made in person may be delivered to Owner/Agent 8am and 7pm Monday through Friday. On weekends and holidays, payment may be placed at the drop box at: _____ . Acceptable methods of payment: ☒ Personal Check ☒ Cashier's Check ☒ Money Order ☒ EFT/Credit (see Owner/Agent for details) and ☐ Cash.

   (a) If in any month rent is paid after the 1st of the month, there will be a late charge of $50.00 assessed for such late payment if payment is not received in full of all charges prior to the 5th day of that month. The parties have deemed the foregoing late charge to be a reasonable estimate of the amount of damages suffered by Owner/Agent by reason of Resident's late payment of rent, as it would be impracticable or extremely difficult to determine the actual damages suffered by Owner/Agent in the event of such a late payment.

   (b) Pursuant to California law, if Resident passes a check on insufficient funds, Resident will be liable to Owner/Agent for the amount of the check and a service charge of $25.00, for the first check passed on insufficient funds, and $35.00 for each subsequent check passed on insufficient funds.

   (c) If Resident has previously attempted to pay Owner/Agent with a check drawn on insufficient funds or if Resident has instructed the drawee to stop payment on a check, draft, or order for the payment of money, Resident shall thereafter be required to use money orders or certified funds as the exclusive form of payment of rent or deposit of security.

   (d) Resident is responsible for delivering the rent on time. Failure of the U.S. Post Office or private carrier to deliver the rent on time will not result in a waiver of the breach of lease provisions contained herein.

   (e) UTILITIES: Resident shall pay for all utilities, services and other charges as set forth in Section 5 of this Lease Agreement and by the due date set forth in Section 5(e) of this Lease Agreement.

   (f) PARKING: Resident acknowledges and agrees that parking is not provided for under this Lease Agreement and is not included in Resident's rent. Should Resident desire to purchase a monthly parking permit for one or more vehicles from Owner (subject to availability thereof and with the express understanding there is no assurance that parking will be available), Resident must enter into a separate agreement (the "Parking Agreement") which will govern the purchase of the parking permit(s). While a Parking Agreement does not constitute a part of this Lease Agreement, a default under a Parking Agreement shall constitute a default under this Lease Agreement.

   (g) RENT CONTROL: If the Property is subject to rent control, Resident shall pay monthly its share of the then-current rent stabilization fee. 5.63

GC AR 3. SECURITY DEPOSIT: Resident shall deposit with Owner/Agent, as a security deposit, the sum of $700.00 prior to taking possession of the unit, which sum shall not exceed the maximum permitted by California Civil Code Section 1950.5. During the term of tenancy, Resident agrees to replenish the security deposit upon three (3) days written notice, by an amount equal to the amount deducted by Owner, in Owner's sole and absolute discretion, to cover the cost of rectifying any damage and paying any expense for which Tenant is responsible. Resident shall not use the security deposit to pay any month's rent, nor shall it constitute a measure of Owner's damages in the event of Resident's default. The security deposit shall be applied and accounted for in accordance with California Civil Code Section 1950.5 and any other applicable statutes.

4. TERM: The term of this Lease Agreement is for 1 year, beginning on August 1, 2010 (the "Commencement Date") and ending on July 31, 2011 (the "Termination Date"), at which time this Lease Agreement will automatically renew month-to-month unless either party gives at least 30 days written notice of termination or intent not to renew the Lease Agreement prior to the expiration of this agreement. Any holding over by Resident after the Termination Date shall result in Resident being liable to Owner/Agent for daily rental damages equal to the current market value of the unit, divided by 30. A "month-to-month" tenancy subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease Agreement shall be created only if Owner/Agent accepts rent from Resident thereafter, and if so accepted, Resident may terminate the tenancy by serving by Owner/Agent with a written 30-day Notice of Termination. Except as prohibited by law, Owner/Agent may terminate the month-to-month tenancy by serving Resident with a 30-day Notice of Termination (pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1946.1) if Resident has resided in the Premises for less than one year, or a 60-day Notice of Termination, if Resident has resided in the Premises for one year or more.

5. UTILITIES: Resident's monthly rent does not include any charges for the monthly utilities services provided to Resident, including, without limitation, sewer, water, trash, gas or electric services. Resident shall pay all monthly utilities charges pursuant to the terms of this Section 5.

   (a) SEWER, WATER AND TRASH SERVICES: Resident shall pay a flat monthly utilities charge for sewer, water and trash services (in addition to any charges for gas and electric services, as set forth in Section 5(b) below). The flat rate shall initially be $0.00 per month, but may be increased from time to time to reflect increases in costs for sewer, water and trash services. Further, the Premises may subsequently be separately metered (or Resident otherwise directly billed) for such services (in accordance with provisions substantively equivalent to the provisions of Sections 5(b)(2) and 5(b)(3), respectively, hereof), in which case Resident shall not be obligated to pay the flat rate, but must instead pay the amount billed for such services. Provided, however, if water services are separately metered, Resident must pay both the amount billed for water service and the flat rate. Resident shall immediately notify Owner of any water leak.

   (b) GAS AND ELECTRIC SERVICES: The monthly utilities charge for gas and electric services shall be calculated, billed and paid in accordance with this Section 5(b).

   (1) No Meter: Flat Rate: If the Premises is not separately metered for gas or electric services, Resident shall pay a flat monthly utilities charge for gas and electricity (in addition to any charges for sewer, water and trash services, as set forth in above). The flat rate shall initially be $0.00 per month if the Premises is not separately metered for either gas or electric services, or $0.00 per month if the Premises is separately metered for either gas or electric services, but not both. This flat rate may be increased from time to time to reflect increases in costs for gas and electric services. Further, the Premises may subsequently be separately metered for gas and/or electric services, in which case Resident shall pay the amount billed for such services (as set forth in Sections 5(b)(2) and 5(b)(3), below).

   (2) Separate Meter: Direct Billing by Utility Provider: If Resident is directly billed for gas or electricity services, Resident shall pay the entire amount due each month (as indicated on the utilities bill) to the utilities provider at the address set forth in the utilities bill. Resident acknowledges that failure to do so shall constitute a default under this Lease Agreement. Resident must transfer any directly billed service into their name before the Commencement Date. If Resident is directly billed for either gas or electricity services (but not both), Resident shall pay, in addition to the amount set forth on the utilities bill, the flat rate set forth in Section 5(b)(1) above for the utility service which is not separately metered. If Resident is directly billed for both gas and electricity services, Resident shall not be obligated to pay the flat rate set forth in Section 5(b)(1), but must pay the entire amount due each month to the utilities provider(s).

   (3) Separate Meter: Submetering: If separate gas or electricity submeters are installed and placed in operation at the Premises, at any time before or after the date of this Lease Agreement, Resident shall pay its proportionate share of the total monthly charges for gas and electric services, which will be calculated as set forth in this Section 5(b)(3). If either a gas or an electricity submeter is installed and placed in operation at the Premises (but not both), Resident shall pay, in addition to its proportionate share of the submetered utility service, the flat rate set forth in Section 5(b)(1) above for the utility service which is not submetered. If both gas and electricity submeters are installed and placed in operation at the Premises, Resident shall not be obligated to pay the flat rate set forth in Section 5(b)(1), but must pay its proportionate share of the submetered utility services.

      (i) Resident's monthly utility bill shall be based on actual readings as recorded by the energy allocation equipment and submeter for the Premises. Utilities shall be calculated at the average rate per therm or ccf (for gas utility services) or per kwh (for electricity services) at the time of consumption. Utilities shall be calculated as follows: the master metered utility provider's total monthly charges for utility service (less Premises base charges or customer service charges if applicable), divided by the total monthly consumption of that utility measured by the utility provider, multiplied by the Resident's total monthly consumption as recorded by the energy allocation equipment and submeter for the Premises.

      (ii) If any utility provider's rate structure includes a base charge, Resident shall be billed, and shall be responsible for paying, the base charge applicable to that Premises. If the utility provider's rate structure includes customer service charge(s), Resident shall be billed, and shall be responsible for paying, the amount of the customer service charge(s) divided by the total number of apartments, including vacant units, that can receive service through the master meter serving the Property. Resident hereby agrees to pay the monthly service charges or other administrative fees shown on the Resident's utility bill.

      (iii) Resident may receive an estimated utilities bill if a submeter becomes inoperative until repairs can be made, and Resident acknowledges that estimated utilities will be reconciled on future billings. Resident acknowledges that if, upon correction of an estimated utilities bill, the previous bill(s) overstated charges, Resident shall be entitled to an account credit reflecting the overstated charges and if, upon correction of an estimated utilities bill, the previous bill(s) understated charges, Resident shall be responsible for paying the amount of such underpayment.

(c) Resident acknowledges and agrees that the billing method for Resident's utility services may be modified from time to time to reflect the Premises' current utilities metering method (e.g. if Resident currently pays a flat rate for utilities services, one or more of the utilities may later be separately metered, submetered or directly billed to Resident, at which time Resident shall pay, in lieu of the flat rate or a portion thereof, the amount of those utilities separately metered, submetered or directly billed to Resident, in accordance with Section 5(b)(2) or 5(b)(3), respectively, above).

(d) Resident acknowledges that Owner cannot guarantee the level of charges for directly billed or submetered utilities services, which will vary over time depending on the Resident's usage characteristics, changes in the rates imposed by the utility provider that provides service to Owner and other factors.

(e) Resident hereby understands and agrees that Resident must deliver payment of the entire amount due each month to the Owner (or the utilities provider, if Resident is directly billed for either gas and/or electricity services) by the due date specified on the utility bill (or, for flat-rate charges, in advance on the 1st day of each and every month). Late payment charges and insufficient funds charges, as set forth in Section 2 of this Lease Agreement, shall be assessed if payment is not received when due.

6. OCCUPANTS: This Premises shall not be occupied by more persons than listed for the 2 Bed / 1 Bath, 800 sq. ft. apartment indicated in the "Maximum Number of Occupants."

Type of Apartment	Maximum Number of Occupants
Junior	3
One Bedroom	3
Two Bedroom	5
Three Bedroom	7

The Premises is a 2 Bed / 1 Bath, 800 sq. ft. apartment. The Premises shall be occupied only by the following named person(s):

Name	Birthdate
Alma Hernandez	4/28/1982
Gilberto Cejas	12/27/1979
Alejandro Reyes	8/12/1985

Occupancy of the Premises by a person other than those persons listed above for a period exceeding 72 hours shall be a material breach of this Lease Agreement.

7. PROHIBITIONS: Without Owner/Agent's prior written permission, no pets or waterbeds shall be kept or allowed in or about the Premises.

8. QUIET ENJOYMENT: Resident shall not violate any criminal or civil law, ordinance or statute in the use and occupancy of the Premises (including laws governing the possession, use or sale of illegal drugs or laws governing prostitution), commit waste or nuisance, annoy, molest or interfere with any other Resident or neighbor. Any such action may result in the immediate termination of this Lease Agreement as provided herein and by law. Possession of any illegal drug (including marijuana, whether or not obtained with a prescription) either within Resident's unit or on Resident's possession while Resident is anywhere on the Property, shall be grounds for immediate eviction. Resident and Owner agree that such violation is a non-curable violation of this Lease Agreement, and that a breach of this prohibition is a "material" breach of this Agreement. Further, it shall be a non-curable breach of this Lease Agreement (and thus cause for immediate eviction) for Resident, any guest of Resident, or anyone who resides with Resident at the Premises, to do any of the following: (a) to have in their possession, or be under the influence of, any illegal drug (including marijuana, whether or not obtained with a prescription) while on or near the Property, or within the City of East Palo Alto; or (b) to engage in any drug-related or other criminal activity while on or near the Property, or within the City of East Palo Alto. Furthermore, it shall be a non-curable breach of this Lease Agreement (and thus cause for immediate eviction) for any guest of Resident to engage in any drug-related or other criminal activity while on the Property. Resident understands that Resident is strictly liable for the conduct of guests and will be evicted even if Resident did not know, could not foresee, or could not control behavior by the others mentioned in this paragraph. Resident shall also abide by the rules set forth in the Resident Policies Addendum attached hereto.

9. REPAIRS AND ALTERATIONS: Except as provided by law, no repairs, decorating or alterations shall be done by Resident without Owner/Agent's prior written consent. Resident must notify Owner/Agent in writing of any repairs, decorating, or alterations contemplated and must receive Owner/Agent's prior written consent befote making such repairs, decorating, or alterations. Decorations include, but are not limited to, painting and wallpapering. Any visable tenant modifications such as window coverings where the resident has purchased their own window coverings, the white blinds provided by owner shall be the only window covering permitted to be visable from the outside of the unit. Resident shall hold Owner/Agent harmless and indemnify Owner/Agent as to any mechanics lien recordation or proceeding caused by Resident. Resident may not make any alterations to cable or telephone inside wiring (such as may occur when changing telecommunications providers or adding phone lines) without prior written consent of the Owner/Agent. The notice shall include the name, address, and telephone number of any new telecommunication provider. Resident agrees to pay all costs resulting from the alteration and agrees to pay to the Owner/Agent any costs associated with restoring the inside wiring to the condition at the time of move-in, except for reasonable wear and tear. Upon 24 hours' notice, Resident shall lend Owner the keys to the Premises for the purpose of having a duplicate made for Owner/Agent's use. Should the law require that Owner make alterations for the reasonable accommodations of Resident, such alterations shall be made at Resident's sole cost and expense. Any and all alterations, shall, upon Resident's move-out, become the property of Owner and remain on the Premises; provided, however, that Owner may remove any and all alterations made for or by Resident and Resident shall be responsible for the cost of (A) repairing all damage to the Premises caused by their removal and/or (B) returning the Premises to its original condition.

10. ACCEPTANCE OF PREMISES: Resident has inspected the Premises, furnishings and equipment, and has found them to be satisfactory and accepts them in their "as is" condition. All plumbing, heating and electrical systems are operative and deemed satisfactory. Owner/Agent makes no representations whatsoever regarding the condition of the Premises or the Property. Resident and Owner/Agent have noted the presence of certain personal property of Owner at the Premises as identified in the Move In/Move Out Addendum.

11. CARE, CLEANING, MAINTENANCE AND INSURANCE: During tenancy, Resident agrees to keep the Premises in a safe and sanitary condition and to immediately reimburse landlord for any sums necessary to repair any item, fixture or appurtenance that needed service due to Resident's, or Resident's invitee, misuse or negligence. Where a repair is the responsibility of the landlord, Resident must notify landlord with a written notice stating what item needs servicing or repair. Resident must give landlord a reasonable opportunity to service or repair said item. Resident agrees to leave the Premises and furniture, furnishings and appliances, and fixtures, which are rented for Resident's exclusive use, in good order and condition and in the same condition as each was received, subject to reasonable wear and tear. Upon move-out, Resident agrees to return the Premises to the same level of cleanliness it was in at the inception of the tenancy ree of all trash and personal property not belonging to Owner. It is agreed that all dirt, holes, tears, burns and stains of any size or amount in the carpets, drapes, walls, fixture or any other part of the Premises do not constitute reasonable wear and tear. Any personal property left behind by Resident and not belonging to Owner may be thrown away by Owner without liability. Further, if Resident leaves large items in the unit or on the Property upon move out (or in or near the trash or elsewhere on the Property at any time), Resident shall be charged per Owner's move out schedule of costs as of the time of move-out, which is available upon move in and may be revised from time to time in Owner's sole and absolute discretion. Resident shall pay Owner/Agent for costs to repair, replace or rebuild any portion of the Premises damaged by the Resident, Resident's guests or invitees, including the charges specified in the Repairs and Replacements Addendum for any damaged property.

    Resident acknowledges that: (A) Owner's insurance may not cover loss from damage to Resident's personal property caused by plumbing leaks, fire, theft, rain, acts of God, acts of others, and/or any other causes, nor shall Owner be liable for such losses; and (B) Resident shall not hold Owner liable for any such losses, whether or not Owner's insurance covers the loss. Resident agrees to obtain Resident's own insurance to cover any losses to personal property. This paragraph does not intend to waive Owner's duty to guard against personal injury or property damage where that duty cannot be waived by Resident. However, since Resident's obtaining of insurance is considered additional consideration to Owner for this Lease Agreement, if Resident does not obtain a renter's policy for a minimum of $100,000 coverage, Resident waives any losses that would have been paid by such a policy, if Resident does not obtain said policy.

    Resident shall deposit all garbage in a clean and sanitary manner into the proper receptacles as provided and shall cooperate in keeping the trash container area neat and clean. Resident shall be responsible for keeping out of the kitchen sink bones, toothpicks, match sticks, celery, grease, metal vegetable ties, and all other items that may tend to cause stoppage of the sink and garbage disposal. Resident shall pay for the cleaning and/or clearing of any plumbing fixtures or water pipes, necessitated by the misuse or non-maintenance.

12. WAIVER OF BREACH: The waiver of either party of any breach shall not be construed to be a continuing waiver of any subsequent breach. The receipt by Owner/Agent of rent with the knowledge of any default by Resident of any breach of any term covenant or condition of this Lease Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of such breach r of any subsequent breaches. Owner's failure to require compliance with the terms of this Lease Agreement and to exercise any right granted by this Lease Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver by Owner of said term, condition and/or right; and shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any provision of this Lease Agreement. No waiver by either party of the provisions herein shall be deemed to have been made unless expressed in writing and signed by all parties to this Lease Agreement.

13. JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY: The undersigned Resident(s), whether or not in actual possession of the Premises, are jointly and severally liable for all obligations under this Lease Agreement, and shall indemnify Owner/Agent for liability arising prior to the termination of the Lease Agreement for personal injuries or property damage caused or permitted by Resident(s), their guests and invitees. This does not waive "Owner/Agent's duty of care" to prevent personal injury or property damage where that duty is imposed by law.

14. ENTRY: California law allows Owner/Agent or his/her employee(s) to enter the Premises for certain purposes during normal business hours. The Owner/Agent will provide written notice to the Resident prior to the entry of the dwelling unit whenever required by state law. (Civil Code Section 1954.) Resident's non-compliance with Owner/Agent's lawful request for entry is a material breach of this Lease Agreement that may be cause for immediate termination as provided herein and by law.

15. NO SUBLETTING OR ASSIGNMENT:

(a) No portion of the Premises shall be sublet, licensed or otherwise rented to a person not a party to this Lease Agreement, nor shall this Lease Agreement be assigned. Any attempted subletting, licensing, rental or assignment by Resident shall, at the election of Owner/Agent, be an irremediable breach of this Lease Agreement and cause for immediate termination as provided herein and by law. Resident shall not take in or allow occupancy by any person, whether that person is deemed a boarder, lodger, roommate or guest; and furthermore said occupancy shall be deemed an illegal subtenancy.

(b) In the event the rental unit is assigned or sublet by Resident, whether Resident permanently resides in the rental unit or not, then the rent for the Premises shall be increased by thirty-five (35%) without further notice from Owner. This provision is pursuant to Civil Code Section 1954.53(d). Owner shall elect the option of either collecting the increased rent or enforcing the provisions of Section 15(a), above. If Owner elects to enforce the provisions of Section 15(a), but a court of competent jurisdiction rules that Owner has waived the provisions for any reason, then Resident agrees to pay the 35% increased rent from the time that the assignment/subletting first occurred.

16. BREACH OF LEASE: In the event that Resident breaches this Lease Agreement, Owner/Agent shall be allowed at Owner/Agent's discretion, but not by way of limitation, to exercise any or all remedies provided Owner/Agent by California Civil Code Section 1951.2 and 1951.4. Damages Owner/Agent "may recover" include the worth at the time of the award of the amount by which the unpaid rent for the balance of the term after the time of award, or for any shorter period of time specified in the Lease Agreement, exceeds the amount of such rental loss for the same period that the Resident proves could be reasonably avoided. Resident's default under any "Additional Agreement" (as defined in Section 25 hereof) shall constitute a default under this Lease Agreement. There is no grace period with respect to the payment of rent. Accordingly, without limitation on any other obligation of Resident under this Lease Agreement, Resident's failure to pay rent on the first day of a month constitutes a breach of this Lease Agreement.

17. ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATE: Within ten (10) days after written request is mailed to Resident, including in the event of the sale, financing or restructuring of ownership of the Property, Resident agrees to execute and deliver to Owner an estoppel certificate on the form submitted by Owner: (A) acknowledging whether this Lease Agreement has been modified and, if so, stating all the modifications; (B) stating the amount of the current rent Resident is paying and the amount Resident has paid as prepaid rent and security deposit; (C) stating whether or not Resident is then aware of any violation of law in the operation of the building, and/or has any claim against Owner; and (D) stating requests for other information relevant to Resident's occupancy of the Premises. Failure to comply shall be deemed Resident's acknowledgement that the certificate as submitted by Owner/Agent is true and correct and may be relied upon by any lender or purchaser.

18. SMOKE DETECTION DEVICE: The Premises are equipped with a functioning smoke detection device(s), and Resident shall be responsible for testing the device weekly and immediately reporting any problems, maintenance or need for repairs to Owner/Agent. If battery operated, Resident is responsible for changing the detector's battery as necessary. Owner/Agent shall have a right to enter the Premises to check and maintain the smoke detection device as provided by law.

19. NOTICE: Pursuant to Section 290.46 of the Penal Code, information about specified registered sex offenders is made available to the public via an Internet Web site maintained by the Department of Justice at www.meganslaw.ca.gov.

Depending on an offender's criminal history, this information will include either the address at which the offender resides or the community of residence and ZIP Code in which he or she resides.

20. ADDENDA: By initialing as provided, Resident acknowledges receipt of the following applicable addenda, as indicated, copies of which are attached hereto, and are incorporated as part of this Lease Agreement. Please note that any Parking Agreement is a separate agreement and is not an addenda hereto.

- ☒ Asbestos Addendum
- ☒ California Proposition 65 Warning

21. ENTIRE AGREEMENT: This Lease Agreement, which includes all attachments referred to above, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and cannot be modified except in writing and signed by all parties, except as permitted by applicable law. Neither Owner/Agent, nor any agent or employee of Owner/Agent has made any representations or promises other than those set forth herein. All determinations, consents and approvals by Owner/Agent in connection with this Lease shall be in its sole and absolute discretion.

22. CREDIT REPORTS: A negative credit report reflecting on your credit history may be submitted to a credit reporting agency if you fail to fulfill the terms of your credit obligations. Resident expressly authorizes Owner/Agent (including a collection agency) to obtain Resident's consumer credit report, which Owner/Agent may use if attempting to collect past due rent payments, late fees, or other charges from Resident, both during the term of the Lease Agreement and thereafter.

23. ATTORNEYS' FEES: If any legal action or proceeding is brought by either party to enforce any part of this Lease Agreement, each party's costs of said enforcement shall be the responsibilities of that respective party and no other party.

24. SATELLITE ANTENNA/DISHES: Resident shall not install, or permit any other person or entity to install, any kind of satellite dish or antenna on the Premises or anywhere on the Property.

25. ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS: From time to time during the term of this lease, any renewal, expansion or extension thereof or any month to month tenancy arising after the Termination Date, Resident may rent or purchase from Owner/Agent certain other services which are not included in Resident's rent. By way of example and without limitation, these services may include parking, cable television, concierge services, furniture rental and washer/dryer rental. Resident covenants and agrees to perform any and all of its obligations under any agreement executed in connection with those services (each an "Additional Agreement"), and acknowledges and agrees that a default by Resident under any Additional Agreement shall constitute a default under this Lease Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt and without limitation, a Parking Agreement constitutes an Additional Agreement.

26. RENT PAYMENT BY NON-TENANT: If Owner accepts rent from any person not a Resident, whether or not the person occupies the Premises, said acceptance: (A) shall not constitute a waiver or modification of Section 15 of this Lease Agreement, (B) shall not be used to establish said person's right to possession of the premises; and (C) shall be interpreted only as an accommodation to Resident.

27. RESPONSIBILITY/INDEMNIFICATION: The undersigned Resident is/are jointly and severally responsible and liable for all obligations under this Lease Agreement and shall indemnify Owner from any liability created by Resident's and/or Resident's guests' conduct. In addition, Resident shall indemnify and hold Owner free and harmless from any and all liability arising by reason of the death or injury of any person or damage to any property caused or allegedly caused by (A) some act or omission of Resident or any person in, on or about the Property with the permission of Resident; and (B) any matter connected with Resident's occupation and use of the Premises.

28. NO WAIVER DURING LITIGATION: In the event that Owner accepts rent from Resident while Owner and Resident are involved in litigated based on a 3 Day Notice to Pay Rent or Quit, acceptance of said rent by Owner shall not be considered a waiver by Owner of the default upon which the 3 Day Notice to Pay Rent or Quit was based. Rather, said rent payment shall be received by Owner in trust and shall be subject to jurisdiction of the court wherein said manner is pending. Owner shall be allowed to commingle said rent payment funds with Owner's regular funds as long as Owner keeps an accurate accounting of money received from Resident during litigation.

29. APPLICATION MISREPRESENTATION: Any material misrepresentation or omission made by Resident in Resident's rental application will constitute a material noncurable breach of this Lease Agreement.

30. LOCKING OF ENTRANCE DOORS: Owner reserves the right to close and keep locked all entrance and exit doors of the building during such hours as Owner may deem it advisable for the adequate protection of the Property and the personal property of Owner and Resident. It shall be a material breach of this Lease Agreement for any Resident to prop open any entrance or exit door.

31. LEAD DISCLOSURE: Many homes and apartments built before 1978 may have paint that contains lead (called lead-based paint). Lead from paint chips and dust can cause serious hazards if not taken care of properly. The law requires that Resident receive certain information before renting pre-1978 housing. By signing this Lease Agreement, Resident acknowledges that Owner has provided Resident with such information. Additionally, upon Resident's request, Owner will provide Resident with the EPA booklet entitled "Protect Your Family From Lead In Your Home." Any known lead-based paint or lead hazards at the Premises, if any, are hereby disclosed: _____ .

32. WAIVER OF PUNITIVE DAMAGES:

(This paragraph is applicable only if initialed below by the parties.)

It is recognized that neither the Resident's nor the Owner's insurance company pays for an award of punitive damages. Thus, it is not possible for either party to insure against such a loss. Both parties feel it is in their best interest to mutually waive the right to collect punitive damages against the other and hereby elect to do so. Therefore, it is agreed that neither a judge nor a jury shall have the power or authority to award punitive or exemplary damages in any litigation between the parties, against either party. For purposes of establishing the enforceability of this waiver of punitive damages, the parties have elected to have federal law apply as a choice of law. Thus the legality of this waiver will be judged under federal law and not state or city laws. In the event that for any reason this mutual waiver of punitive damages is not upheld, then both parties agree that there should be a reasonable limit on the amount that either party shall recover against the other. Such limit shall be one (1) times the amount of actual damages awarded.

CALIFORNIA'S PROPOSITION 65 WARNING

California's Proposition 65 (Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986) requires businesses with 10 or more employees to provide warnings prior to exposing individuals to chemicals known to the State to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm.

These types of chemicals are found within this establishment. This brochure provides you with information on what chemicals are present and what your exposures to them might be.

Warning

This Facility Contains Chemicals Known to the State of California To Cause Cancer and/or Birth Defects Or Other Reproductive Harm.

Second Hand Tobacco Smoke and Tobacco Products.

Tobacco products and tobacco smoke and its by-products contain many chemicals that are known to the State of California to cause cancer, and birth defects or other reproductive harm. Smoking is permitted in certain common and private areas.

Furnishings, Hardware, and Electrical Components.

Room furnishings and building materials contain formaldehyde, which is known to the State of California to cause cancer. Furniture, foams, brass keys, electrical power cords, carpeting, carpet padding, wall coverings, wood surfaces, and vinyl, contain a number of chemicals, including lead, and formaldehyde, known to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm. Their presence in these materials can lead to exposures. Certain molds that may be present contain chemicals, including sterigmatocystin, known to the State of California to cause cancer.

Combustion Sources.

Combustion sources such as gas stoves, fireplaces, and barbeques contain or produce a large number chemicals, including acetaldehyde, benzene and carbon monoxide, known to the State of California to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm which are found in the air of this complex. Any time organic matter such as gas, charcoal or wood is burned, Proposition 65-listed chemicals are released into the air.

Construction and Maintenance Materials.

Construction and maintenance materials contain Proposition 65-listed chemicals, such as roofing materials manufactured with vinyl chloride monomer, benzene and ceramic fibers, which are known to cause cancer, or birth defects or other reproductive harm. Construction materials used in walls, floors, ceilings and outside cladding contain chemicals, such as formaldehyde resin, asbestos, arsenic, cadmium and creosote, which are released as gases or vapors during normal degradation or deterioration, and as dust or particulate when disturbed during repairs, maintenance or renovation, all of which can lead to exposures.

Certain Products Used In Cleaning And Related Activities.

Certain cleaning products used for special cleaning purposes such as graffiti removal and spot and stain lifters contain chlorinated solvents including perchloroethylene and urinal odor cakes contain paradichlorobenzene which are Proposition 65-listed chemicals known to cause cancer or birth defects or other reproductive harm.

Swimming Pools and Hot Tubs.

The use and maintenance of a variety of recreational activities and facilities such as swimming pools and hot tubs where chlorine and bromine are used in the disinfecting process can cause exposures to chloroform and bromoform which are chemicals known to the State of California to cause cancer.

Paint and Painted Surfaces.

Certain paints and painted surfaces contain chemicals, such as lead and crystalline silica, that are known to the State of California to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm. Lead-based paint chips may be ingested and crystalline silica may be released into the air and lead to exposures.

Engine Related Exposures.

The operation and maintenance of engines, including automobiles, vans, maintenance vehicles, recreational vehicles, and other small internal combustion engines are associated with this residential rental facility. Motor vehicle rental fuels and engine exhaust contain many Proposition 65-listed chemicals, including benzene, carbon monoxide and, for diesel engines, diesel exhaust, which are known to the State to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm. In parking structures and garages, exhaust fumes can concentrate, increasing your exposure to these chemicals.

Pest Control and Landscaping.

Pests control and landscaping products used to control insects and weeds contain resmethrin, mycobutonil, triforine and arsenic trioxide which are known to the State to cause cancer and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm.

Sources of Chemical Exposures

California's Proposition 65 has identified hundreds of chemicals known to the State of California to cause cancer, and/or birth defects or other reproductive harm. The law requires that businesses with 10 or more employees warn you prior to knowingly and intentionally exposing you to any of these chemicals when the exposure is over a certain level. While many exposures are associated with industrial activities and chemicals, everyday items and even the air we breathe routinely contain many of these chemicals. This brochure provides warning and information regarding exposures to these chemicals that occur in this facility. In many instances, we do not have information specific to this facility. Instead we have relied upon experts in this field to tell us where and to which chemicals these exposures might occur. For other exposures to listed chemicals, enough is known to identify specific areas of exposure.

The regulations implementing Proposition 65 offer warnings for various circumstances. Some of those warnings you may see in this residential rental property include the following:

General - Warning: This Facility Contains Chemicals Known to the State of California To Cause Cancer, And Birth Defects Or Other Reproductive Harm.

Foods and Beverages - Warning: Chemicals Known To The State of California To Cause Cancer, Or Birth Defects Or Other Reproductive Harm May Be Present In Foods Or Beverages Sold Or Served Here.

Alcohol - Warning: Drinking Distilled Spirits, Beer, Coolers, Wine, And Other Alcoholic Beverages May Increase Cancer Risk, And, During Pregnancy, Can Cause Birth Defects.

TARGET HOUSING RENTAL AGREEMENT/LEASE ADDENDUM
DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION ON
LEAD-BASED PAINT AND LEAD-BASED PAINT HAZARDS

Resident is renting from Owner/Agent the premises located at: 201 E. O'Keefe Street #201, E. Palo Alto, CA 94303.

Lead Warning Statement

Housing built before 1978 may contain lead-based paint. Lead from paint, paint chips, and dust can pose health hazards if not taken care of properly. Lead exposure is especially harmful to young children and pregnant women. Before renting pre-1978 housing, landlords must disclose the presence of known lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards in the dwelling. Lessees must also receive a Federally approved pamphlet on lead poisoning prevention. NOTE: The existence of lead on the rental property is not, by itself, cause for termination of the tenancy. (Public Law 102-550 sec. 1018(c))

Lessor's Disclosure

(a) Presence of lead-based paint or lead-based paint hazards:

- ☒ Lessor has no knowledge of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing.
- ☐ Known lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards are present in the housing.

(b) Records and reports available to the Lessor:

- ☒ Lessor has no reports or records pertaining to lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing.
- ☐ Lessor has provided the Resident with all available records and reports pertaining to lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing.

Agent's* Acknowledgment (initial)

(c) GC Agent has informed the Lessor of his/her obligations under 42 U.S.C. 4852(d), and the Agent is aware of his/her responsibility to ensure compliance.

* The term Agent is defined as any party who enters into a contract with a representative of the Lessor, including anyone who enters into a contract with a representative of the Lessor for the purpose of leasing housing. An on-site resident manager may act as the Agent if authorized to do so by either the Lessor or the property management company.

Lessee's Acknowledgment (initial)

(d) _____ _____ _____ Lessee has received copies of all information listed above.

(e) _____ _____ _____ Lessee has received the pamphlet Protect Your Family from Lead in Your Home.

According to state law:

Any security shall be held by the landlord for the tenant who is party to the lease or agreement. The claim of a tenant to the security shall be prior to the claim of any creditor for the landlord. (Civil Code Section 1950.5(d))

According to Civil Code Section 1950.5(b), the security deposit may be used by the owner for any purpose, including, but not limited to, any of the following:

(1) The compensation of a landlord for a tenant's default in the payment of rent.
(2) The repair of damages to the premises, exclusive of ordinary wear and tear caused by the tenant or by a guest or licensee of the tenant.
(3) The cleaning of the premises upon termination of the tenancy necessary to return the unit to the same level of cleanliness it was in at the inception of the tenancy. The amendments to this paragraph enacted by the act adding this sentence shall apply only to tenancies for which the tenant's right to occupy begins after January 1, 2003. (Amendment underlined)
(4) To remedy future defaults by the tenant in any obligation under this rental agreement to restore, replace, or return personal property or appurtenances, exclusive of wear and tear, if the security deposit is authorized to be applied thereto by the rental agreement.

From the time of the initial inspection until the termination of the tenancy, the tenant may remedy the deficiencies identified in the initial inspection, in a manner consistent with the rights and obligations of the parties under the rental agreement, in order to avoid deductions from the security deposit.

The law allows the Owner/Agent to use the security deposit for legal deductions itemized in this statement that are not corrected by the Resident prior to the termination of the tenancy or that were not identified due to the presence of the Resident's possessions during the time of the initial inspection. It also allows Owner/Agent to use the security deposit to correct any damages that occur to the unit/property between the time of the initial inspection and the termination of the tenancy.

A final itemized statement will be sent to you within 3 weeks of the termination of your tenancy.

PARKING AGREEMENT

THIS PARKING AGREEMENT is made and entered into this 1st day of August, 2010 between Redus Woodland LLC ("Owner"), whose address and phone number are 2041 Euclid ave, East Palo Alto, CA 94303, (650) 566-2030, and Alma Hernandez, Gilberto Cejas, and Alejandro Reyes ("Permit Holder").

THE PARTIES AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

1. LOCATION. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Parking Agreement, Permit Holder agrees to purchase, and Owner agrees to sell to Permit Holder, one (1) monthly parking permits (the "Parking Permits") for use at the property located at 201 E. O'Keefe Street, East Palo Alto, California 94303 (the "Property").

2. MONTHLY FEE. Permit Holder shall pay $25.00 per month per Parking Permit (the "Permit Fee"). Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that this amount may be increased from time to time to reflect Owner's then-current rate for parking spaces charged by the Owner to new residents at Owner's apartment buildings or at any other rate in Owner's sole and absolute discretion.
   (a) Payment will be due in advance on or before the 1st of every month. If the Permit Fee is paid after the 5th of the month, there will be a late charge of $10.00 assessed for such late payment. There is no grace period with respect to the application of such late charge. The parties have deemed the foregoing late charge to be a reasonable estimate of the amount of damages suffered by Owner by reason of Permit Holder's late payment of rent, as it would be impracticable or extremely difficult to determine the actual damages suffered by Owner in the event of such a late payment.
   (b) Pursuant to California law, if Permit Holder passes a check on insufficient funds, Permit Holder will be liable to Owner for the amount of the check and a service charge of $25.00 for the first check passed on insufficient funds, and $35.00 for each subsequent check passed on insufficient funds.

3. PERMIT AND DESIGNATED PARKING SPACE. The Permit Holder must obtain one (1) Parking Permit for each vehicle the Permit Holder will park on the Property. The Parking Permit must be prominently displayed in the back window of the vehicle at all times. The vehicle may only be parked in its designated parking space (as indicated in the "Vehicle Information" section of this Parking Agreement). The Parking Permits are valid only for the vehicle's assigned space and only for current residents of the Property who are party to a valid apartment lease and not in default thereunder.

4. NON-RESIDENT PARKING. Subject to availability, unassigned guest parking may be provided at the Property for non-resident guests on a "first come, first served" basis. Unassigned guest parking spaces may be assigned to current tenants of the Property at any time and at Owner's sole and absolute discretion. Guest use of parking facilities is in accordance with the Property's Parking Rules and Regulations (as the same may be amended or modified from time to time in Owner's sole and absolute discretion, the "Parking Rules"). The maximum allowable duration for visitor parking is three (3) days.

5. TERMS AND CONDITIONS. Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that:
   (a) Resident's use of the Parking Permit and parking facilities is in accordance with the Parking Rules.
   (b) The term and amount of all Parking Permits may vary. The Parking Holder may or may not have any or all of its Parking Permits for the duration of the "Lease" (as defined below), nor may Permit Holder have all its Parking Permits for the same duration.
   (c) The parking provided herein is not a service under that certain Lease Agreement between Owner and Permit Holder with respect to the Property (the "Lease").
   (d) Parking Permits may be cancelled at any time, in Owner's sole and absolute discretion, upon thirty (30) days' notice by Owner.
   (e) Parking Permits shall remain the property of the Owner. Parking Permits must be displayed as set forth herein and may not be mutilated in any manner. The serial number, if any, of the Parking Permit may not be obliterated. Parking Permits are not transferable and any Parking Permit in the possession of an unauthorized holder will be void. If a Parking Permit is lost or otherwise must be replaced, Permit Holder must pay a replacement charge of $20.00 for each replacement Parking Permit.

6. DEFAULT AND FAILURE TO ADHERE TO CONDITIONS. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, a default under the Lease shall constitute a default under this Parking Agreement. Further, Permit Holder's failure to adhere to the terms, conditions and provisions of the Parking Agreement and the terms and conditions of the Parking Rules may result in Owner or its agent taking one or more of the following actions:
   (a) Towing of the vehicle without warning and at the vehicle owner's or Permit Holder's risk and expense;
   (b) The temporary suspension of Permit Holder's or its guest's parking privileges with no refund;

(c) Permanent revocation of the Parking Permit with no refund; or

(d) Permanent loss of all of Permit Holder's or its guest's parking privileges.

Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that Owner shall be in no way responsible for loss, theft or damage to any vehicle or other property due to collision, theft, burglary, vandalism, crime or otherwise caused by Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees, any vehicle operated or parked by Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees pursuant to or in violation of this Parking Agreement, any personal property left in such vehicle, or otherwise with respect to Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees. Permit Holder agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Owner with respect to any claim arising from such loss or damage.

Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that Permit Holder has been granted a license to park on the Property and that no bailment relationship between Owner and Permit Holder has been or will be created. Permit Holder is required to park and lock Permit Holder's vehicle, and must retain the vehicle's keys. In no event shall Owner or its agents be deemed to have acquired any dominion over the vehicle or any right to control the vehicle's removal (except for purposes of towing vehicles following a violation of the Parking Rules or the Permit Holder's Parking Agreement).

Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that there is no attendant at the parking lot and that Permit Holder parks the vehicle at the Property at Permit Holder's sole risk.

ADDENDUM:
PARKING RULES AND REGULATIONS

The following rules and regulations shall govern use of the parking facilities for the Property. Any vehicle found to be in violation of these rules will be towed at the vehicle owner's expense, without notice.

1. No vehicle may be parked in the fire lane and/or red zones.
2. No vehicle may be parked in a disabled-access space without a valid and prominently displayed disabled parking permit or placard issued by the State of California.
3. No vehicle may be parked without a valid monthly parking permit sticker (the "Parking Permit") properly displayed. Each Parking Permit is valid only for the vehicle's assigned space and only for current residents of the Property who are party to a valid apartment lease and not in default thereunder.
4. All vehicles must be currently registered to the holder of the Parking Permit (the "Permit Holder") (or validly leased by the Permit Holder) and in good working order. Vehicles must not drop excessive oil or fluids on the ground, present a health or safety hazard, or cause damage or the risk of damage to any part of the Property. Inoperable, dismantled or partially dismantled, or unregistered vehicles are subject to tow under California Vehicle Code §22658 and any applicable local laws and/or ordinances.
5. No vehicle washing, waxing, cleaning or servicing is permitted on the Property.
6. Permit Holder may not perform or have performed any mechanical work or vehicle repairs on any vehicle in the parking area including, without limitation, changing oil.
7. Vehicles must be parked in only their designated parking space, entirely within the painted stall lines and head-in. No back-in parking is permitted.
8. The Property owner ("Owner") is not responsible if the vehicle is impounded.
9. Owner reserves the right to refuse the sale of Parking Permits or other parking identification devices to any tenant or person and/or his agents or representatives who willfully refuse to comply with these Parking Rules or any applicable city, state or federal ordinances, laws or agreements, whether posted or unposted.
10. Loss or theft of Parking Permits or other parking identification devices from vehicles must be reported immediately to Owner. Owner has the right to exclude any vehicle from the parking facilities that does not have an identification device. Any Parking Permit or other parking identification devices reported lost or stolen found on any unauthorized vehicle will be confiscated and the illegal holder will be subject to prosecution.
11. All directional signs and arrows must be observed.
12. The speed limit within all parking areas shall be 5 miles per hour.
13. Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that Owner shall be in no way responsible for loss, theft or damage to any vehicle or other property due to collision, theft, burglary, vandalism, crime or otherwise caused by Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees, any vehicle operated or parked by Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees pursuant to or in violation of this Parking Agreement, any personal property left in such vehicle, or otherwise with respect to Permit Holder, its guests, agents or licensees. Permit Holder agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Owner with respect to any claim arising from such loss or damage.
14. Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that Permit Holder has been granted a license to park on the Property and that no bailment relationship between Owner and Permit Holder has been or will be created. Permit Holder is required to park and lock Permit Holder's vehicle, and must retain the vehicle's keys. In no event shall Owner or its agents be deemed to have acquired any dominion over the vehicle or any right to control the vehicle's removal (except for purposes of towing vehicles following a violation of the Parking Rules or the Permit Holder's Parking Agreement).
15. Permit Holder acknowledges and agrees that there is no attendant at the parking lot and that Permit Holder parks the vehicle at the Property at Permit Holder's sole risk.
16. Owner reserves the right to modify and/or adopt such other reasonable rules and regulations for the parking facilities as it deems necessary for the operation of the parking facilities. Owner reserves the right at any time to grant similar reserved and/or non-exclusive use to other tenants at the Property, to promulgate additional rules and regulations relating to the use of such parking areas, including reasonable restrictions on parking by tenants and guests, and to make changes in parking layout from time to time.

PEST CONTROL NOTICE ADDENDUM

This document is an Addendum and is part of the Rental/Lease Agreement, dated July 23, 2010 between Redus Woodland LLC (Owner/Agent) and Alma Hernandez, Gilberto Cejas, and Alejandro Reyes, (Resident) for the premises located at 201 E. O'Keefe Street #201, E. Palo Alto, CA 94303.

California law requires that an Owner/Agent of a residential dwelling unit provide each new tenant a copy of the notice provided by a registered pest control company if a contract for periodic pest control service has been executed.

The premises you are renting, or the common areas of the building are covered by such a contract for regular pest control service, so you are being notified pursuant to the law. The notice provided by the pest control company is attached to this Acknowledgment.

The undersigned Resident(s) acknowledge(s) having read and understood the foregoing and the referenced attachment. Only may sign this Lease Agreement on behalf of Owner/Agent. If the signatory is not , this Lease Agreement is of no effect.

PROPOSITION 65 WARNING AND Q & A ADDENDUM TO RENTAL AGREEMENT/LEASE AGREEMENT

WARNING:
This Property Contains Chemicals Known To The State of California To Cause Cancer and Birth Defects or Other Reproductive Harm.

Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment
Proposition 65 in Plain Language

What Is Proposition 65?

In November 1986, California voters overwhelmingly approved an initiative to address growing concerns about exposures to toxic chemicals. That initiative became The Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986, better known by its original name.

What does Proposition 65 Require?

Proposition 65 requires the Governor to publish a list of chemicals that are known to the State of California to cause cancer, birth defects or other reproductive harm. Agents that cause cancer are called carcinogens; those that cause birth defects or other reproductive harm are called reproductive toxicants. This list must be updated at least once a year. Over 700 chemicals have been listed as of March 10, 2000.

Proposition 65 imposes certain controls that apply to chemicals that appear on this list. These controls are designed to protect California's drinking water sources from contamination by these chemicals, to allow California consumers to make informed choices about the products they purchase, and to enable residents or workers to take whatever action they deem appropriate to protect themselves from exposures to these harmful chemicals.

Thus, Proposition 65 also provides a market-based incentive for manufacturers to remove listed chemicals from their products.

The benefits of the Proposition have their costs. Businesses have incurred expenses to test products, develop alternatives, reduce discharges, provide warnings and otherwise comply with the requirements of the Proposition. Recognizing that compliance with the Proposition comes at a price, Cal/EPA and the Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment (the lead agency for Proposition 65 implementation) have worked hard to minimize any unnecessary regulatory burdens and ensure that placement of a chemical on the list is done in accordance with rigorous science in an open public process.

What kinds of chemicals are on the list?

The list contains a wide range of chemicals, including dyes, solvents, pesticides, drugs, food additives, and byproducts of certain processes. These chemicals may be naturally occurring, or synthetic. Some of them are ingredients of common household products, others are specialty chemicals used in very specific industrial applications.

How does a chemical get listed?

The State of California relies upon information that already exists in the scientific literature when determining the threat of a chemical. A chemical is listed if the "state's qualified experts" two independent committees of scientists and health professionals appointed by the Governor find that the chemical has been clearly shown to cause cancer or birth defects or other reproductive harm.

In addition, a chemical can be listed if it has been classified as a carcinogen or as a reproductive toxicant by an organization that has been designated as "authoritative" for purposes of Proposition 65. For carcinogens, the organizations that have been designated as authoritative by OEHHA Science Advisory Board's Carcinogen Identification Committee (oehha.gov) are the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, U.S. Food and Drug Administration, National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health, the National Toxicology Program and the International Agency for Research on Cancer. The OEHHA Science Advisory Board's Developmental and Reproductive Toxicant Identification Committee have designated the following organizations as "authoritative bodies" for reproductive toxicants: the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, U.S. Food and Drug Administration, National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health and International Agency for Research on Cancer (limited only to transplacental carcinogenicity). A chemical can also be listed if it is required to be labeled or identified as a carcinogen or as a reproductive toxicant by an agency of the state or federal government.

Any company with ten or more employees that operates within the State or sells products in California must comply with the requirements of Proposition 65. Under Proposition 65, businesses are: 1) prohibited from knowingly discharging listed chemicals into sources of drinking water; and 2) required to provide a "clear and reasonable" warning before knowingly and intentionally exposing anyone to a listed chemical. This warning can be given by a variety of means, such as by labeling a consumer product, by posting signs at the workplace, or by publishing notices in a newspaper.

What Does A Warning Mean?

If you are given a warning or if a warning is posted in a workplace, a facility or an area in your community, this means that the business issuing the warning knows that one or more listed chemicals is present in its product, in its workplace, or in its emissions into the environment. Under the law, a warning must be given unless a business demonstrates that the exposure it causes poses no significant risk.

For a chemical that is listed as a carcinogen, the "no significant risk" level is defined as the level which is calculated to result in not more than one excess case of cancer in 100,000 individuals exposed over a Goodyear lifetime. In other words, if you are exposed to the chemical in question at this level every day for 70 years, theoretically it will increase your chances of getting cancer by no more than 1 case in 100,000 individuals so exposed.

For chemicals that are on the list as reproductive toxicants, the no significant risk level is defined as the level of exposure which, even if multiplied by 1,000, will not produce birth defects or other reproductive harm. That is, the level of exposure is below the observable effect level (NOEL), divided by 1,000. (The "no observable effect level" is the highest dose level which has not been associated with an observable reproductive harm in humans or test animals.)

When a warning is given by a business, it means one of two things: (1) the business has evaluated the exposure and has concluded that it exceeds the no significant risk level; or (2) the business has chosen to provide a warning simply based on its knowledge about the presence of a listed chemical, without attempting to evaluate the exposure. In these cases, exposure could be below the Proposition 65 level of concern, or could even be zero.

Since businesses do not file reports with the State regarding what warnings they have issued and why, the State is not able to provide further information about any particular warning which you may have received. The business issuing the warning is the appropriate party to contact if you seek more specific information about the warning, such as what chemicals are involved, in what manner these chemicals are present, and how exposures to those chemicals may or may not occur.

What has been accomplished as a result of Proposition 65?

Proposition 65 has provided an effective mechanism for reducing certain exposures that may not have been adequately controlled under existing federal or State laws. For example, a Proposition 65 enforcement action has resulted in the reduction of the amount of lead in ceramic tableware. Air emissions of certain chemicals including ethylene oxide, hexavalent chromium, and chloroform from facilities in California have been significantly reduced as a result of Proposition 65.

Certain chemicals on the list are no longer used as constituents of some commonly used products for example, trichloroethylene is no longer used in most correction fluids, toluene has been removed from many nail care products, and foil caps on wine bottles no longer contain lead.

Proposition 65 has resulted in the extensive dissemination of important information regarding the dangers to the unborn child of drinking alcoholic beverages during pregnancy. The warnings about alcoholic beverage consumption during pregnancy are perhaps the most widespread and visible type of warning issued as a result of Proposition 65.

RESIDENT POLICIES AND "HOUSE RULES" ADDENDUM

I. GENERAL

1. This document is an Addendum and is part of the Rental/Lease Agreement, dated July 23, 2010 between Redus Woodland LLC (Owner/Agent) and Alma Hernandez, Gilberto Cejas, and Alejandro Reyes, (Resident) for the premises at 201 E. O'Keefe Street #201, E. Palo Alto, CA 94303.
2. New policies and rules or amendments to this document may be adopted by Owner/Agent upon giving 30 days' notice in writing to Resident.
3. Guests who stay more than 14 days in a year period may constitute a breach of the Rental/Lease Agreement. At the discretion of the Owner/Agent, guests may be required to go through the application process and, if approved, must sign a Rental/Lease Agreement.
4. Residents who lock themselves out of their units may be assessed a charge for the actual costs, including out of pocket expenses, incurred by the Owner/Agent.

II. NOISE AND CONDUCT

1. Residents and their guests shall not make or allow any excessive noise in the unit nor permit any actions which will interfere with the rights, comforts or conveniences of other persons.
2. Residents and their guests shall refrain from playing musical instruments, television sets, stereos, radios, and other devices at a volume which will disturb other persons.
3. Residents and their guests shall refrain, and shall ensure that Resident's guests likewise refrain, from activities and conduct outside of the unit (in common areas, parking areas, or recreation facilities) which are likely to annoy or disturb other persons.
4. Resident and their guests shall refrain from creating, or allowing to be created, any noise that is disturbing to other Residents between the hours of 10 pm and 8 am.

III. CLEANLINESS AND TRASH

1. Resident shall keep the unit clean, sanitary and free from objectionable odors at all times.
2. Resident shall ensure that papers, cigarette butts and trash are placed in appropriate receptacles so that litter is not created on or about Resident's unit.
3. Resident shall ensure that trash and other materials are not permitted to accumulate so as to cause a hazard or be in violation of any health, fire or safety ordinance or regulation.
4. Resident shall ensure that garbage is not permitted to accumulate and that it is placed on a daily basis in the trash containers provided for that purpose. Resident shall ensure that large boxes are broken apart before being placed in the trash containers. Resident shall be responsible, at Resident's expense, for hauling to the dump those items too large to fit in the trash containers.
5. Resident shall ensure that furniture is kept inside the unit and that unsightly items are kept out of view.
6. Resident shall refrain from leaving articles in the hallways or other common areas.
7. Resident shall refrain from shaking or hanging clothing, curtains, rugs, and other coverings and cloths outside of any window, ledge, or balcony.
8. Resident shall refrain from disposing of any combustible or hazardous material in trash containers or bins.

IV. SAFETY/SECURITY

1. Security is the responsibility of each Resident and each guest. Owner/Agent assumes no responsibility or liability, unless otherwise provided by law, for Resident's and guests' safety and security, or for injury or damage caused by the criminal acts of other persons.
2. Resident should ensure that all doors are locked during Resident's absence. Resident must notify Owner/Agent if locks become inoperable.
3. Resident should ensure that all appliances are turned off before departing from the premises.

4. When leaving for an extended period, Resident should notify Owner/Agent how long Resident will be away.
5. Prior to any planned absence from the unit, Resident shall give Owner/Agent authority to allow entry to the unit to any person or provide Owner/Agent with the name of any person or entity permitted by Resident to enter the unit.
6. Resident shall refrain from smoking in bed.
7. Resident shall refrain from using or storing gasoline, cleaning solvent or other combustibles in the unit.
8. Resident shall ensure that no personal belongings, including bicycles, play equipment or other items shall be left unattended in the halls, stairways or about the building.

V. MAINTENANCE, REPAIRS AND ALTERATIONS

1. Resident shall advise Owner/Agent of any items requiring repair, such as light switches or dripping faucets. Resident shall make repair requests as soon after the defect is noted as is practical.
2. Resident shall refrain from making service requests directly to maintenance personnel unless Resident is directed to do so by Owner/Agent.
3. Resident shall refrain from making any alterations or improvements to the unit without the consent of Owner/Agent. Resident shall refrain from using adhesives, glue or tape to affix pictures or decorations.
4. Resident shall refrain from using aluminum foil as a window covering and shall obtain the approval of Owner/Agent before using any window covering visible from the exterior of the building.
5. Costs of repair or clearance of stoppages in waste pipes or drains, water pipes or plumbing fixtures caused by Resident's negligence or improper usage are the responsibility of the Resident. Resident shall reimburse Owner/Agent for these costs on demand.

VI. PARKING

1. Number of parking spaces assigned to Resident's unit 1 . Only one vehicle may be parked in each space.
2. Resident shall only use assigned parking spaces and shall ensure that guests park only in unassigned areas or designated guest parking areas. Resident shall ensure that posted and designated fire zones or "No Parking" areas remain clear of vehicles at all times. Resident shall refrain from parking in unauthorized areas or in another resident's designated parking space. (Vehicles parked in unauthorized areas or in another Resident's space may be towed away at the vehicle owner's expense.)
3. Only currently registered vehicles may be parked on the property. A vehicle that lacks an engine, transmission, wheels, tires, doors, windshield, or any other major part or equipment necessary to operate saftely on the highways, is subject to tow under California Vehicle Code 22658. Vehicles parked in violation of local laws/ordinance are subject to tow.

The undersigned Resident(s) ackowledge(s) having read and understood the foregoing.

This Lease is entered into on the date signed, by and between the above-named parties (collectively, "Parties"). The party executing this Lease as the Landlord's Agent is acting as the managing agent for the owner of Woodland Park (the "Community"). Each person living in the Premises that is 18 years of age or older must sign the Lease as a resident. Each Resident states that they are of legal age to enter into a binding Lease for lodging. All others living in the Premises must be designated as Occupants. Each person signing the Lease is jointly and severally liable for all the various resident obligations under the Lease. Every individual resident, including all co-residents, is responsible for the entire rental amount and other obligations, even if, as roommates, individual residents have made arrangements among themselves to allocate the rent or other payments or obligations.

Landlord hereby leases and Resident hereby hires and takes the Premises for the term specified and subject to all of the terms and provisions set forth herein.

A. TERM OF LEASE

7. INITIAL TERM: The initial term of this Lease shall commence on the Start Date and end on the End Date as outlined in Section 3 and shall automatically continue as a tenancy from month-to-month upon expiration of the initial term.

8. LEASE EXPIRATION: Either party may terminate this Lease on the End Date or after the initial term by giving the other party at least thirty (30) days' written notice of its intention to terminate the tenancy, subject to California Civil Code sections 1946, et seq. In the absence of written notice of termination, or a new lease, after the expiration of the initial term, the tenancy shall become month-to-month subject to a rental increase and applicable fees as allowed under local and state law. Resident agrees to pay all rent up to and including the end of any thirty (30) day (or, as applicable, sixty (60) day) notice period (which may not occur before the end of the initial Lease term) or until the Premises are re-occupied, whichever occurs first.

9. FAILURE TO VACATE AFTER NOTICE: If Resident gives written notice to vacate the Premises and fails to completely vacate prior to the expiration of the notice, Landlord shall be entitled to commence legal proceedings to recover possession of the Premises and Resident shall be liable, unless otherwise prohibited by law, in addition to all other damages provided for under this Lease, for the daily rent based on a pro-ration of the monthly rent for each day Resident remains in the Premises. In addition, Landlord may collect costs for loss suffered from future resident losses, legal costs, lost rent, and other expenses, and any other amount allowed by law.

10. OPTION FOR EARLY TERMINATION: Resident is expected to remain a Resident for the entire initial term. If Resident fails to do so, Resident will be responsible to Landlord for all damages provided by law, including (but not limited to) rent due through the end of the initial term, minus rents paid by a replacement resident (if any). This amount will vary depending upon how long it takes Landlord to find a replacement resident which typically cannot be determined in advance of move-out.

To avoid this uncertainty, Resident may choose to exercise an Early Termination Option. Resident understands and acknowledges that Landlord is not legally obligated to allow early termination of the Lease unless provided for pursuant to law. To exercise this option, Resident must deliver to Landlord:

i. A written notice stating that Resident has elected to exercise the Early Termination Option;
ii. An early termination option payment of $1,592.52;
iii. An executed agreement for repayment of concessions received prior to the early termination (if applicable, see Concession Addendum); and
iv. Payment of rent and other amounts due through the new End Date.

When Landlord has (1) received the written notice and the Early Termination Option payment and (2) signed the notice, the End Date will be amended. The new End Date will be the date specified in the notice which must be at least thirty days after the written election and payment are given to Landlord. Exercise of the Early Termination Option will affect only Resident's rent obligations after the new End Date. Resident must comply with all other Lease obligations.

The notice will not move the End Date forward if:

i. Resident is in default under the Lease at the time that Resident gives notice of Resident's exercise of the option;
ii. Resident provides the notice unaccompanied by the Early Termination Option payment; or

iii. Resident does not properly exercise the Early Termination Option by following the procedures specified above, but vacates the Premises before the End Date specified in the Lease.

11. EARLY TERMINATION: In the event Resident vacates the Premises before the End Date, and fails to exercise the Early Termination Option as specified above. Resident shall be liable for all rent owed for the remainder of the initial term minus amounts paid by a replacement resident (if any), plus any other amounts as specified by law.

12. DELAY OF POSSESSION: If the Landlord, for any reason, cannot deliver the possession of the Premises to Resident at the Move-In Date, this Lease shall not be void or voidable, nor shall Landlord be liable to Resident for any loss or damages resulting therefrom; but in that event there shall be a per diem deduction of rent covering the period between the Move-In Date and the time when Landlord can deliver possession.

13. FAILURE TO MAKE PAYMENTS PRIOR TO COMMENCEMENT: If Resident fails to make any payment due prior to the Start Date of Lease shown in Section 3, Landlord has no duty to provide possession of the Premises, and Landlord may apply any and all previously made payments to amounts due to Landlord.

B. PAYMENTS, DEPOSITS, AND FEES

14. MONTHLY RENT PAYMENT: The total rent is set forth in Section 4.
    i. All rent payments are due in advance on or before the 1st day of each month. It is Resident's responsibility to be certain that each payment is actually received by Landlord on or before its due date. Use of a rental payment drop box is for Resident's convenience - the risk of receipt of funds by Landlord when such box is used is Resident's risk, and not Landlord's risk. If any rent payment is made late, it will be subject to all applicable charges and may be rejected by Landlord.
    ii. Initial payment due for move in must be made in the form of a cashier's check. Except as otherwise provided, all subsequent rent payments shall be made by check, cashier's check, money order, or through the online payment portal. No cash or post-dated checks will be accepted.
    iii. Payments must be made payable to Woodland Park and may be personally delivered to the Business Manager, Assistant Business Manager or Sales Associate at 5 Newell Court or at 2041 Euclid Ave., East Palo Alto, CA 94303. On non-holidays, the business hours, which remain subject to change, when rent payments may be made personally are: Mon and Wed, 9AM - 6PM, Tues 10AM - 6PM, Thurs and Fri 9AM - 7PM, Sat and Sun 10AM - 5PM.
    iv. Unless Resident notifies Landlord otherwise by written notation on the rent payment, Landlord shall apply all of the payments made in the order of priority Landlord determines. Landlord reserves the right at any time to change payment procedures and policies.
    v. If Resident makes any payment by check, it may be converted into an electronic funds transfer ("EFT"). This means Landlord will copy the check and use the account information on it to electronically debit Resident's account for the amount of the check. The debit from Resident's account will usually occur within 24 hours, and may occur as early as the same day as Landlord receives payment. The debit will be shown on Resident's regular account statement. Resident will not receive the original check back. Landlord will destroy the original check, but will keep a copy of it to the extent required by applicable laws. If the EFT cannot be processed for technical reasons, Resident authorizes Landlord to process the copy in place of the original check. If the EFT cannot be completed because of insufficient funds, Landlord may require payment in certified funds as required below.
    vi. If the Start Date occurs on other than the first day of a calendar month or the End Date occurs on other than the last day of a calendar month, then the rent for that month shall be prorated on a daily basis.

15. LATE CHARGE AND NSF CHARGE: Landlord and Resident agree that when Resident fails to pay rent on time, or when Resident pays rent by a check which payment is subsequently dishonored by the bank, the actual cost to Landlord is difficult or impossible to ascertain, but the Parties agree that Landlord does, in the event of late payment or in the event of a dishonored check, incur certain costs, including without limitation, communication with Resident, additional bookkeeping and administrative charges, bank charges, and lost opportunity costs of the late payment. After making a reasonable endeavor to estimate accurately the approximate costs associated with such a breach, which the Parties agree is difficult or impossible to ascertain, the Parties agree that, any time the rent for any given month is paid after the 4th day of such month, Resident will in that month pay to Landlord, as additional rent due with the late payment, a late charge in the sum of 35.00 and further agree that, in the event of a dishonored check, Resident will pay to Landlord, as additional rent due with the payment required to replace the dishonored check, an NSF fee in the sum of $25.00. The Parties agree that the payment of these sums does not constitute a license to pay rent late nor does it constitute a license to pay by dishonored check. Rent remains due on the first day of the month and there is no grace period for the payment of rent. A three-day notice to pay rent or quit may be served at any time after the first day of the month irrespective of the existence of the late charges as set forth in this section. If such notice is served after the 10th day of the month, it may include the late charge and NSF charge, if applicable, which charges, as set forth above, are payable as additional rent. Furthermore, if Resident does not pay by the end of the 10th day of the month, Resident may only pay by cashier's check or electronic payment (if offered). Landlord will not accept a personal check after the 10th day of the month, or in response to a notice to pay rent or quit, or a notice to perform covenant or quit requiring payment. Landlord may terminate this Lease for failure to pay late charges and may terminate this Lease for non-payment of rent. If Resident gives Landlord two payments that are returned for nonpayment during the term of this Lease, then the future rent shall be payable by cashier's check for the remainder of the term.

16. SECURITY DEPOSITS:
    i. Resident shall pay to Landlord, as security, the amount set forth in Section 5, which sum shall not exceed the maximum permitted by California Civil Code Section 1950.5. This sum shall be applied and accounted for in accordance with the provisions of California Civil Code Section 1950.5 and any other applicable statutes. Landlord shall not be obligated to pay Resident interest in connection with such security deposit, unless specifically required by applicable law.
    ii. It is understood that the security deposit is applicable to all Residents jointly, and Landlord does not account for it until the passing of the permissible statutory period after all Residents have vacated the Premises. Any refund due may be made payable jointly to all Residents and it shall be the responsibility of all Residents to work out between themselves the manner of dividing said security deposit. If Landlord chooses to make the refund to any one of the Residents individually, in legal contemplation the payment shall be deemed to have been made to all Residents and Landlord shall have no liability to any one or group of Residents for failure of any Resident to divide such refund equitably.
    iii. If the security deposit is later increased by agreement of the Parties for any reason (such as the installation of a waterbed or relating to a pet), the additional security deposit will be disbursed by Landlord in accordance with this section at the end of the statutory period following the end of Resident's tenancy. Removal of the waterbed or pet, or whatever caused the increase in the deposit, will not be grounds for early disbursement of the security deposit.

C. RESIDENT DEFAULT

17. DEFAULT BY RESIDENT: Resident shall be guilty of material breach of this Lease if Resident: (a) fails to pay any rent or other sums payable under this Lease on the date it becomes due; (b) defaults in the performance of or breach of any other provision, term, covenant or condition of this Lease; (c) vacates or abandons the Premises before expiration of the full term of this Lease, or any extension of the term; (d) permits the leasehold interest of Resident to be levied upon or attached by process of law; or (e) makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors.

18. REMEDIES: Upon the occurrence of any default by Resident, Landlord may exercise any right or remedy which Landlord may have at law or in equity, each and all of which are cumulative and nonexclusive. This may include giving Resident notice to correct or cure such default, taking action to recover possession of the Premises via the eviction process or otherwise, and/or terminating the Lease, all in accordance with applicable law. Additionally, Landlord shall be entitled to recover from Resident all damages incurred by Landlord by reason of Resident's default. Without limitation on the foregoing, upon the occurrence of any event of default by Resident, Landlord shall have the option to pursue any one or more of the following remedies, each and all of which shall be cumulative and nonexclusive:
    i. Terminate this Lease and Resident's right to possession of the Premises and recover from Resident all damages allowed at law or in equity, including those allowed under Civil Code Section 1951.2 including:
        a. The worth at the time of award of the unpaid rent which had been earned at time of termination;
        b. The worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid rent which would have been earned after termination until the time of award exceeds the amount of such rental loss that the Resident proves could have been reasonably avoided;
        c. Subject to subsection (iii), the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid rent for the balance of the term after the time of award exceeds the amount of such rental loss that the Resident proves could be reasonably avoided; and
        d. Any other amount necessary to compensate the Landlord for all the detriment proximately caused by the Resident's failure to perform Resident's obligations under the Lease or which in the ordinary course of things would be likely to result therefrom.
    ii. The "worth at the time of award" of the amounts referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (i) is computed by allowing interest at 10% per year, but no greater than the maximum interest rate permitted by law. The worth at the time of award of the amount referred to in paragraph (c) of subsection (i) is computed by discounting such amount at the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco at the time of award plus 1 percent.
    iii. Landlord may recover damages that include the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid rent of the balance of the term after the time of award, exceeds the amount of rental loss for the same period Resident proves could be reasonably avoided.
    iv. Efforts by the Landlord to mitigate the damages caused by the Resident's breach of the Lease do not waive the Landlord's rights to recover damages under this section.
    v. Nothing in this section affects the right of the Landlord under a Lease to indemnification for liability arising prior to the termination of the Lease for personal injuries or property damage where the Lease provides for such indemnification.
    vi. Landlord has the remedy described in California Civil Code Section 1951.4 (Landlord may continue Lease in effect after Resident's breach and abandonment and recover rent as it becomes due, if Resident has the right to sublet or assign, subject only to reasonable limitations). Accordingly, if Landlord does not elect to terminate this Lease on account of any default by Resident, Landlord may, from time to time, without terminating this Lease, enforce all of its rights and remedies under this Lease, including the right to recover all rent as it becomes due.

19. DAMAGE BY RESIDENT: If any damage or destruction to the Premises, building, or Community is caused by Resident, Occupants, guests or invitees, such damage shall be considered a breach of Lease. Resident further agrees to pay rent for the period the Premises is damaged whether or not habitable, if such damage is caused by Resident, Occupants, guests or invitees. Any such damage or destruction of the Premises caused by Resident, Occupants, guests or invitees constitutes grounds for termination of the Lease; additionally such actions will not create any right of rent reduction. Resident shall pay for any expenses, including the costs of repairing such damage or destruction.

20. RESIDENT INFORMATION: If Resident has supplied information to Landlord by means of a rental application or similar instrument, Landlord has relied upon the statements set forth in said application or instrument in deciding to rent the Premises to Resident. Resident covenants that all such information is accurate and was given voluntarily and knowingly by Resident. It is agreed that, if Landlord subsequently discovers any misstatements of fact in the application or instrument, any such misstatements shall be deemed a material breach of this Lease. In the event that Resident submits information to verify Resident's income, Resident hereby certifies the accuracy of such information and further agrees that accurate information regarding family income, family composition and any other related eligibility requirements shall be deemed substantial and material obligations of Resident's tenancy; that Resident will comply with all requests for information with respect thereto from Landlord or any mortgagee; that Resident's failure to provide accurate information shall be a default by Resident, which shall entitle Landlord to pursue all rights and remedies set forth in the "DEFAULT BY RESIDENT" section or otherwise permitted by law, and that Resident's failure to furnish accurate and current information could subject Resident to civil liability.

21. COMPLIANCE WITH APPLICABLE LAWS: Resident agrees not to engage in or permit unlawful activities in the Premises, in the common areas or on the grounds of the Community or permit the Premises or Community to be used for any purpose which violates local, state or federal law. Resident, Occupants, guests or invitees and any other person under Resident's control shall not engage in or facilitate criminal activity, including drug-related criminal activity, on or near the Premises. "Drug-related criminal activity" means illegal manufacture, sale, distribution, use or possession with intent to manufacture, sell, distribute, or use a controlled substance (as defined in Section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 802)). Resident, Occupants, guests or invitees or other person under Resident's control shall not engage in any act of violence or threats of violence, including, but not limited to, the unlawful discharge of firearms, on or near the Premises. Resident agrees to reimburse and indemnify Landlord for all fines or other penalties incurred by Landlord as a result of Resident's violation of any statute, ordinance, regulation or other governmental restriction. This provision constitutes written notice to cease any breach of this section, including, without limitation, being so disorderly as to destroy the peace, quiet, comfort, or safety of the Landlord or other tenants of the building or Community or, where the Premises are a single family dwelling, the peace, quiet, comfort or safety of the owner or residents of an adjacent property. Such disorderly conduct includes violations of state and federal criminal law that destroy the peace, quiet, comfort, or safety of the landlord or other tenants of the building or Community containing the rental unit, or, where the Premises are a single family dwelling, the peace, quiet, comfort or safety of the owner or residents of an adjacent property.

22. COMPLIANCE WITH POLICIES: If indicated on the last page of this Lease with respect to Attachments/Addenda, Resident acknowledges receipt of a copy of the Community Policies, which Community Policies are incorporated into and made a part of this Lease, Resident agrees to abide by said Community Policies in all respects. Any Community Policies may be changed with thirty days' notice and Resident agrees to abide by any such changes. Failure to comply with the Community Policies shall be deemed a breach of this Lease.

D. PREMISES:

23. CONDITION OF PREMISES: Resident has inspected the Premises and acknowledges that the Premises are in good and habitable order and repair with all appliances and equipment in good working order at the time Resident is given occupancy. Resident also agrees that Landlord has made no promise to decorate, alter, repair or improve the Premises, except as listed on the Move In/Move Out Inspection Form.

24. RESTRICTIONS ON ALTERATIONS: Without the prior written consent of Landlord, Resident agrees not to make any alterations or improvements to the Premises, including, without limitation (i) changing or removing any part of the appliances, fixtures, or equipment; (ii) painting, installing wallpaper, or adhering contact paper; (iii) installing appliances including washing machines, dishwashers, dryers, fans, heaters, or air conditioners; or (iv) adding window coverings, foil draperies, or non-standard window coverings. In no event can any personal property, alterations, or improvements block entrance to or egress from the Premises, create a health or safety hazard or interfere with walkways or utility service equipment. All additions, fixtures and improvements shall be Landlord's property and shall remain upon the Premises after the termination of the Lease unless Landlord, as a condition to allowing Resident to make such alteration, requires that the Premises be restored to the condition existing prior to such alteration or addition.

25. MAINTENANCE: Resident is responsible to notify Landlord in writing, delivered personally or submitted online (except in the event of an emergency, in which case by telephone), if maintenance issues arise in or around the Premises. Maintenance requests will be handled after office hours only in an emergency. The on-duty maintenance associate will determine the appropriate course of action. Resident shall replace light bulbs and replace broken, damaged, or missing articles that Landlord has furnished.
    To maintain the Premises, Resident agrees to:
    i. Keep the Premises clean.
    ii. Use all appliances, fixtures, and equipment in a safe manner and only for the purposes for which they are intended.
    iii. Refrain from destroying, defacing, damaging or removing any part of the Premises, common areas, Community or grounds.
    iv. Refrain from making any repairs without Landlord's prior written consent.
    v. Maintain a minimum of 50 degrees inside the Premises at all times to prevent water lines from freezing during winter months.
    vi. Dispose of all garbage, waste and recyclable materials in designated containers and/or designated areas and in accordance with applicable law and Landlord's instructions. Large items may not be disposed of in garbage containers or common areas.
    vii. Keep all ingress and egress routes clear and unobstructed and at all times.
    viii. Practice safe use of electrical cords, outlets, and appliances.

26. DUTY TO CLEAN AND VENTILATE: Resident hereby acknowledges that mold and mildew can grow in the Premises if the Premises are not properly ventilated and maintained. Resident acknowledges that it is important that Resident regularly allow air to circulate in the Premises. Resident agrees to regularly allow air to circulate in the Premises by using bathroom fan(s), using ceiling fans, where available, and regularly opening the windows and/or sliding doors where available. Since it is common for mold and mildew to grow even if a small amount of moisture builds up, Resident agrees to regularly wipe down areas where moisture sometimes accumulates and clean all toilets, sinks, countertops, bathroom walls, windows, windowsills, patio doors, showers, bathtubs and tile or linoleum floors with a household cleaner on at least a bi-weekly basis. Resident further agrees to notify Landlord immediately whenever Resident learns of any condition which could lead to a build-up of moisture in the Premises, including, but not limited to plumbing leaks, broken window or door seals, accumulation of rainwater or other moisture around windows or doors, broken water lines or sprinklers, inoperable fans, doors, or windows, and any failure or malfunction in the heating, ventilation, or air-conditioning system, if any, in the Premises, storage room, garage, or common area. If Resident notices mold, mildew, or other organic growth in the Premises, Resident agrees to notify Landlord, in writing, immediately. Resident agrees to take the following steps to prevent the growth of mildew, mold, and organic growth in the Premises:
    i. In damp or rainy weather, keep windows and doors closed.
    ii. If possible, maintain a temperature of between 50° and 80° Fahrenheit within the Premises at all times.
    iii. Use the pre-installed bathroom fan or alternative ventilation when bathing or showering and allow the fan to run until all excess moisture has vented from the bathroom.
    iv. Use the exhaust fan in the kitchen when cooking or while the dishwasher is running. Allow the fan to run until all excess moisture has vented from the kitchen.
    v. Use care when watering houseplants. If spills occur, dry up excess water immediately.
    vi. When washing clothes in warm or hot water, watch to make sure condensation does not build up within the washer and dryer closet. If condensation does accumulate, dry with a fan or towel.
    vii. Thoroughly dry any spills on carpeting.
    viii. Do not allow damp or moist stacks of clothes or other cloth materials to lie in piles for an extended period of time.
    ix. Do not overfill closets or storage areas to allow for proper ventilation.
    x. Do not overfill the Premises or block with personal property ventilation from fans, windows, or doors.
    xi. Vacuum and dust the Premises on a regular basis to remove household dirt and debris that contribute to mold growth.

    Any failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall be deemed a material breach of this Lease. In addition, Resident shall be liable to Landlord for any damage resulting from Resident's failure to comply with the requirements of this section.

27. PESTS AND PEST CONTROL:
    i. The Premises and/or the common areas may be covered by a contract for periodic pest control by a registered structural pest control company. If so, pursuant to applicable law, concurrently with signing this Lease, Resident is being provided with a copy of the legally required notice provided by the registered pest control company under Business and Professions Code §8538 and California Civil Code §1940.8. Resident accepts all risks and hazards associated with chemicals used on the Premises that are stated in the notice attached to this Lease.
    ii. Resident and Landlord have inspected the Premises prior to leasing and acknowledge there is no visible evidence of the presence or infestation of insects or vermin, including bedbugs, in the Premises. Resident agrees to inspect all personal belongings for signs of bedbugs or other insects or vermin prior to bringing personal belongings into the apartment and further agrees not to bring into the Premises any belongings which Resident suspects may be infested with bedbugs, insects, or other vermin.
    iii. Resident agrees to maintain the Premises in a manner that prevents the occurrence of an infestation of insects and vermin, including bedbugs, and comply with policies relating to the prevention of infestations. Resident further agrees to report any signs of bedbugs, ants, fleas, roaches, or other insects or vermin immediately to Landlord.
    iv. If Resident allows individuals or items carrying bedbugs, fleas, roaches, or other insects or vermin into the Premises, or has an infestation that cannot be traced to another source, such infestation will be deemed damage to the Premises and Resident will be responsible for all costs of treatment to the Premises, Resident's personal belongings, and neighboring units as necessary to eradicate the infestation. Resident will also be responsible for any damages caused to the Premises or to any of Resident's personal property, including without limitation furniture, clothing, and personal belongings, caused by pests or the treatment of pests. The choice of treatment shall be at the discretion of Landlord in consultation with Landlord's pest control vendor, if any.

v. Resident agrees to cooperate with all pest control efforts at and within the Premises and the Community. Resident shall follow all instructions from Landlord and/or Landlord's pest control vendor, if any, with respect to treatment and eradication of pests, whether infestation is within the Premises, a neighboring unit, or elsewhere in the Community. The Premises must be properly prepared for any treatment. Resident acknowledges that preparations for treatments can be time consuming and difficult. Resident nonetheless agrees to fully prepare the Premises in a timely manner at its own cost and expense for the treatment and eradication of pests until the pest infestation is fully abated. Resident further agrees to coordinate the cleaning and/or disposal of Resident's personal property with the treatment being performed, so as to protect against a re-infestation of any pests. Resident agrees to follow the recommended readiness procedures, including allowing full access for treatment(s). Resident agrees that the choice of pest control vendors, if any, and the implementation of a treatment plan, including the application of pesticides, is exclusively that of Landlord. Resident agrees not to treat the Premises, building, or Community with pesticides without the written authorization of Landlord.

vi. Resident is required to report, in writing, any suspected infestations to Landlord immediately after discovery. Resident shall report any signs of any infestations, including, but not limited to any household member experiencing any bites, seeing any insects or vermin within the Premises, or seeing any feces or other detritus relating to insects.

vii. Resident represents to Landlord that Resident is not aware that bed bugs were present in Resident's last residence and that if bed bugs were present in any of their furniture, clothing, or other personal property, the bed bugs have been eradicated. Resident agrees that this representation to Landlord is a material inducement to Landlord leasing the Premises to Resident.

28. KEYS, LOCKS, AND ACCESS DEVICES:

i. Keys and Locks: Resident agrees not to change or add any locks or gates on any doors or windows to the Premises without prior written consent of Landlord. If Landlord, in its sole discretion, approves a request to install locks, Resident agrees to immediately provide Landlord with a key for each lock. On or before the end of the term, Resident agrees to return all keys to the Premises to Landlord. Landlord may charge Resident $25.00 for each key that is lost or not returned.

ii. Access: Resident agrees to promptly notify Landlord in writing of any problem, defect, malfunction or failure of door locks, window latches, controlled access gates, intrusion alarms, and any other security device. Resident agrees to be responsible for all fines, penalties and other charges resulting from or attributable to the alarm, including false alarm charges. It is understood that Landlord is not responsible for providing access to the Premises after office hours. Resident is responsible for contacting a locksmith, at Resident's expense, to gain access to the Premises in the event of lockout. If Resident has called a locksmith, Landlord must be notified and then change locks at Resident's expense.

iii. Access Devices: If Resident has received gate cards, fitness, restroom and/or entry gate keys as indicated in Section 6 of this Lease, Resident understands that if any of these items are lost or not returned upon move out, that the following fees will apply: Gate Access Device $0.00 Key Fob $0.00 Entry Gate Key $50.00

29. LOCATION: Upon reasonable notice, Landlord shall have the right to transfer Resident to another unit that is comparable to the Premises, upon which transfer the other unit shall automatically become the Premises under this Lease, which shall remain in full force and effect. Resident acknowledges and agrees that such comparable unit shall be deemed to provide the same housing services as the original Premises and that such transfer is not an eviction.

30. CONDITION UPON TERMINATION: Upon termination of the Lease, or the termination of Resident's right to occupy the Premises, Resident shall deliver all keys, access cards, and remotes to Landlord and move out of the Premises, leaving them in substantially the same clean, undamaged, and ready-to-rent condition as existed on the Start Date, less ordinary wear and tear. If the Premises are not returned in such condition, Landlord may charge Resident for the costs to repair any damage and to put the Premises back in the condition they were in upon the Start Date, less ordinary wear and tear. Resident is responsible for replacement of any damaged or missing items and for payment of all costs to clean or repair any portion of the Premises, carpeting, flooring, wall coverings, paint, counters, trim, window treatment, doors, windows, or appliances which are damaged, dirty, or unsanitary. Cleaning and repair of any damage due to smoking of any kind is not considered ordinary wear and tear. Resident is responsible for removing all trash and other items of personal property from the Premises. Failure to do so will constitute a condition that exceeds ordinary wear and tear. Resident will not be considered as having moved out, vacated and surrendered possession of the Premises until Resident has removed all personal belongings from the Premises and returned all keys, access cards and remotes. If Resident moves out and fails to return all keys, access cards and remotes, Resident agrees that the move-out date shall be determined by Landlord in Landlord's reasonable judgment and that Resident will be charged for any missing keys, access cards and remotes. If Resident leaves personal property in the Premises after move-out or if Resident places personal property in areas of the Community not designated for Resident's exclusive use, Landlord can determine that such property has been abandoned and can take steps to remove or dispose of the property consistent with applicable laws.

31. ENTRY: Landlord has the right to enter the Premises as allowed by law, including, without limitation, in case of emergency, to make desired, necessary or agreed repairs, decorations, alterations, renovations, or improvements, to supply necessary or agreed services, to test smoke detectors, to exhibit the dwelling unit to prospective or actual purchasers, mortgagees, tenants, workmen or contractors, or for any other purposes permitted by California Civil Code section 1954 (and any other applicable statutes or amendments which might be enacted subsequent to the execution of this Lease). Landlord also has the right to enter the Premises in order to make an inspection pursuant to subdivision (f) of Civil Code section 1950.5 when Resident has abandoned or surrendered the Premises and pursuant to court order. Resident agrees that if Resident denies Landlord access to the Premises when Landlord is in compliance with statutory requirements and entitled to access, any such denial of access shall be deemed a material breach of this Lease. The Parties agree that 24 hours' notice is presumed reasonable, although the Parties acknowledge that a shorter time period may also be reasonable under some circumstances. Landlord will serve Resident with written notice before entry unless:

i. Entry is due to an emergency, surrender or abandonment of the Premises, or

ii. Resident and Landlord agree orally to an entry to make agreed repairs or supply agreed services at an approximate day and time within one week of the oral agreement, or

iii. Resident is present and consents to entry at the time of entry, or

iv. To exhibit the Premises to prospective or actual purchasers of the property, provided that Landlord has notified Resident in writing within 120 days of the oral notice that the property is for sale and that Resident may be contacted to allow for an inspection.

32. SMOKE DETECTORS: The Premises have been equipped with smoke detectors. The smoke detectors have been tested prior to Resident's move in to ensure they are operational. Resident agrees not to interfere with the presence or operability of any smoke detector and to report immediately to Landlord, in writing, any defects in the condition of any smoke detectors. Resident agrees that if a smoke detector is battery operated, pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1942.1, as part of the consideration of the rental, Resident assumes responsibility to: (a) ensure the battery is in operating condition at all times; and (b) replace the battery as needed. Under no circumstances shall Resident remove the battery of a smoke detector without immediately replacing the battery with a new one.

33. CARBON-MONOXIDE DEVICES: If a carbon-monoxide device has been installed within the Premises, Resident acknowledges that the carbon-monoxide device was operable at the time Resident took possession of the Premises. Resident is responsible for notifying Landlord if Resident becomes aware of an inoperable or deficient carbon-monoxide device within the Premises. Landlord shall correct any reported deficiencies or inoperabilities in the carbon-monoxide device. Resident further agrees that, if the carbon-monoxide device is battery operated, pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1942.1, as part of the consideration of the rental, Resident assumes responsibility to: (a) ensure the battery is in operating condition at all times; and (b) replace the battery as needed. Under no circumstances shall Resident remove the battery of a carbon-monoxide device without immediately replacing the battery with a new one.

34. SATELLITE DISHES: If satellite dishes are allowed in the Community they must be one meter or less in size and may not be affixed to the patio or balcony of the Premises. Resident is specifically prohibited from making physical modifications to the Premises and is prohibited from installing said satellite dish in the common areas of the Community, including, but not limited to, outside walls, roofs, window sills, common balconies or stairways. Resident will be responsible for damages caused by the satellite dish, including the cost of removal if in any violation of any satellite guidelines. Resident shall install, use, maintain and remove a satellite dish in a manner which is consistent with industry standards and shall be liable for any damage or injury sustained as a result of the negligent installation, maintenance, use or removal of said satellite dish. Allowable locations may not provide an optimal signal or any signal at all.

35. WATERBEDS AND AQUARIUMS: Waterbeds and water tanks holding 30 or more gallons may only be installed in the Premises with prior written consent from Landlord. Prior to installation, a valid waterbed insurance policy or certificate of insurance for property damage must be obtained. The policy shall be issued by a company licensed to do business in California and possessing a Best's Insurance Report rating of "B" or higher. The insurance policy shall be maintained in full force and effect until the waterbed/water tank is permanently removed from the Premises. The policy shall be written for no less than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00) of coverage. The policy shall cover, up to the limits of the policy, replacement value of all property damage, including loss of use, incurred by the Landlord or other residents caused by or arising out of the ownership, maintenance, use, or removal of the waterbed/water tank, except for any damage caused intentionally or at the direction of the insured, or for any damage caused by or resulting from fire. Landlord may require Resident to produce evidence of insurance at any time. The insurance carrier shall give Landlord notice of cancellation or non renewal 10 days prior to this action. The waterbed/tank shall conform to the pounds-per-square foot weight limitation and placement as dictated by the floor load capacity of the Premises. The weight shall be distributed on a pedestal or frame which is equivalent to the dimensions of the mattress itself. Resident shall install, maintain and remove the waterbed/tank, including, but not limited to, the mattress and frame, according to standard methods of installation, maintenance, and removal as prescribed by the manufacturer, retailer, or state law, whichever provides the higher degree of safety. Resident shall notify Landlord in writing of the intent to install, remove, or move the waterbed/tank. The notice shall be delivered at least 24 hours prior to the installation, removal, or movement. The Landlord has the right to be present at the time of installation, removal, or movement. If the waterbed/water tank is installed or moved by any person other than Resident, Resident shall deliver to Landlord a written installation receipt stating the installer's name, address, and business affiliation.

E. LIMITATION ON LIABILITY:

36. LIABILITY: Landlord shall not be liable to Resident, Occupants, or to any guests or invitees of Resident for any damage or losses to person or property arising from any cause including, but not limited to, theft, burglary, assault, vandalism, fire, flood, water leaks, rain, hail, ice, snow, smoke, lightning, wind, explosion, interruption of utilities, earthquake, or any other condition over which the Landlord has no control. To the extent allowed by law, Resident agrees to assume all risk of harm, and waive all claims against Landlord, resulting from use of common area amenities. To the extent allowed by law, use of the common area amenities is at the sole risk of Resident, Occupants, guests or invitees.

37. INDEMNITY/HOLD HARMLESS: Resident and Occupants agree to indemnify and hold Landlord harmless, from any claims arising out of any death or injury to any person, or any damage to property, if such injury or damage is caused directly or indirectly by the act, omission, negligence, or fault of Resident, Occupants, or Resident's guests or invitee(s).

38. HOUSING SERVICES: The furnishing by Landlord to Resident of any storage space, use of laundry, electronic access controls and gates, or any other common area facilities outside the Premises shall be deemed to be furnished gratuitously and Landlord makes no representations or guarantees as to the availability, adequacy, or fitness of such space, service, or facilities. Resident acknowledges that Landlord will not provide lifeguard service at swimming facilities, if any, and Resident agrees to take adequate and reasonable care in use of all recreational facilities to ensure the safety of Resident, Occupants, guests or invitees. All guests and invitees must be accompanied by a Resident or Occupant to use recreational facilities and amenities. Resident, Occupants, guests, and invitees shall comply with all signs posted by Landlord in and around the common areas and Community. Landlord may ban any Resident, Occupant, guest or invitee from using any amenity at the Community if such persons fail to abide by posted signs or rules relating to those areas and Resident shall not be entitled to any rent reduction or offset if the loss of amenity privileges is the result of the conduct of Resident, Occupants, guests or invitees. Landlord makes no representations, warranties or guarantees express or implied, regarding the presence or quality of reception of electronic communication or information retrieving devices within the Premises or Community.

39. EMINENT DOMAIN OR CONDEMNATION: Should the land wheron the building containing the Premises is situated, or any part thereof, or any portion of the Community, be condemned or taken for public use, then, in that event, upon the taking of the same for such public use, this Lease, at the option of Landlord, shall be deemed null and void, and the term shall cease and come to an end, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, and without apportionment of the award. Resident shall not be entitled to receive any sum, or portion thereof, constituting any award arising out of any such eminent domain or condemnation.

40. SIGNIFICANT DAMAGE TO OR DESTRUCTION OF PREMISES:
    i. If the Premises or property are damaged by fire, flood or other casualty, necessitating repairs that require Resident to vacate the Premises for any length of time, in the sole and absolute discretion of Landlord, Landlord shall have the option either (1) to repair the damage or otherwise restore the Premises, with this Agreement continuing in full force and effect, or (2) give notice to Resident, at any time after such damage occurs or repairs become necessary, terminating this Agreement as of a date to be specified in such notice. Landlord shall not be required to repair any damage by fire or other cause or to make any repairs of any property installed in the Premises by Resident.
    ii. If Landlord elects to terminate, this Lease shall expire and all interest of the Resident in the Premises shall terminate and Landlord shall have no obligation to pay lodging costs or other expenses to Resident after the termination date. If Landlord elects to repair the damage and/or make the significant repairs and continue this Lease in full force and effect, the "Duty to Cooperate" and "Significant Repairs" sections, below, shall apply.

41. SIGNIFICANT REPAIRS:
   i. If the Premises require significant renovations, improvements or repairs (such as, by way of example only and not by way of any limitation, tenting for termites, treating for pests or other vermin, replacing plumbing or electrical wiring, repairing fire damage, etc.) which require Resident to vacate the Premises for any length of time, Resident must vacate the Premises as needed and otherwise cooperate with Landlord in its efforts to perform the work. To the extent possible, Landlord shall give Resident at least ten days written notice of the need to vacate the Premises, which notice shall include Landlord's best estimation of the length of time Landlord anticipates Resident will need to be absent from the Premises.
   ii. Resident agrees to vacate the Premises for the time necessary for the work to be completed and, if Resident needs to be absent from the Premises for more than 8 hours in any 24 hour period, relocate to alternative housing of the Landlord's choosing. Landlord shall be responsible to pay for the alternative housing; however, Resident will remain responsible for all rent while Landlord is paying for alternative accommodations. If Resident elects to relocate temporarily to lodging other than that designated by Landlord, then Landlord shall have no obligation to pay the cost of such housing, which shall be at Resident's sole cost and expense; although Resident shall have no obligation to pay rent during the time the Premises are not available to Resident during the repairs if Landlord is not paying for the alternative lodging, except as provided below. Resident shall return to the Premises once Landlord advises Resident that the work has been completed. Landlord shall have no obligation to pay for alternative housing or waive rent after Landlord has advised Resident that Resident may return to the Premises.
   iii. If the work or repairs are required because of the conduct of Resident or the conduct of Occupants, invitees or guests (such as misuse of plumbing, causing a fire, etc.), then Landlord shall be relieved of its obligation to pay for alternative accommodations set forth above and Resident shall remain responsible for both rent and the cost of alternative lodging during the time when Resident must vacate the Premises for any work to be completed.

42. DUTY TO COOPERATE: Failure to vacate the Premises or otherwise cooperate with Landlord's efforts to conduct repairs, renovations or other improvements in the Community is a material breach of this Lease and grounds for termination of this Agreement.

43. SAFETY CONCERNS:
   i. Landlord makes no representations or guarantees to Resident concerning the security of the Premises or the Community. Landlord is under no obligation to Resident to provide any security measure or take any action not required by statute. The presence of courtesy patrols, patrol cars, access gates, surveillance cameras or other deterrents do not guarantee that crime can or will be prevented. Landlord reserves the right to reduce, modify or eliminate any such measures (other than those statutorily required) at any time; and Resident agrees that such action shall not be a breach of any obligation or warranty on the part of Landlord. All such measures are subject to personnel absenteeism, human error, mechanical malfunctions and tampering. Resident is responsible for planning and taking action with respect to the safety of Resident and personal property as if such systems and deterrents did not exist.
   ii. Landlord may install surveillance cameras in some common areas. These cameras may or may not be monitored and the footage recorded by these cameras may or may not be kept by Landlord for any length of time. Landlord may remove such cameras, or install additional cameras, at any time without notice to Resident. Footage from any cameras belongs to Landlord and shall not be released to any resident although such footage may be released to law enforcement personnel, insurance adjusters or others with legitimate business needs for such footage in the sole discretion of Landlord and without the consent of any individuals recorded by such footage.
   iii. Landlord has no obligation to obtain criminal background checks on any residents and bears no responsibility or liability related to the criminal background or actions (whether past, present or future) of any person, even if Landlord has actually run a criminal background check on applicants. Resident agrees to hold Landlord harmless from claims arising out of criminal acts of other residents or third parties. Resident shall not rely on the fact that Landlord may have run a criminal background check on residents or any other applicant when deciding whether to enter into this Lease. Background checks are limited to the information actually reviewed and are not a guarantee that a person with a criminal background does not reside at the Community or that someone living in the Community will not commit a crime in the future. Landlord has not made and does not make any representations as to the background of any existing or future resident and Landlord is under no obligation to run background checks on any existing resident or future applicant.
   iv. Resident agrees to report immediately all suspected or actual criminal activity to the appropriate local law enforcement agencies and, after doing so, to Landlord, and shall provide Landlord with such law enforcement agency's incident report number upon request. If Resident receives a copy of any law enforcement agency's incident report for an incident that occurred on the property and said incident impacted the Premises, the Community or other residents in the Community, Resident shall provide a copy of said incident report to Landlord upon request.

44. INSURANCE: Landlord does not maintain insurance to cover (a) Resident's personal injury, (b) loss or damage to Resident's personal property, or (c) Resident's liability for injury, loss or damage caused to others by Resident (or Occupants or guests). Resident is not a co-insured, a beneficiary, or an implied beneficiary under any insurance policy maintained by Landlord. Unless prior to the Start Date, Resident provides Landlord with written proof of a policy of liability insurance issued by an authorized insurance company that provides Resident with a minimum policy coverage amount of $100,000 per occurrence and names Landlord as an Interested Party, Resident hereby elects for Landlord to enroll Resident in a service program administered by Landlord and backed by a liability coverage program administered by an insurance company selected by Landlord. Resident agrees to reimburse Landlord for the actual cost of such program. The premium payment made by Landlord on Resident's behalf will be considered rent. Landlord reserves the right to hold Resident liable for any loss in excess of the insurance proceeds paid by the insurer. If Resident maintains its own liability insurance, Resident shall provide proof of such insurance to Landlord upon Landlord's request. Resident's failure to provide such proof within three days of a request therefor shall constitute an election by Resident for Landlord to enroll Resident in the service program specified above, at the then-current actual cost of the service program.

45. MEGAN'S LAW: Pursuant to Section 290.46 of the Penal Code, information about specified registered sex offenders is made available to the public via internet web site maintained by the Department of Justice at www.meganslaw.ca.gov. Depending on an offender's criminal history, this information will include either the address at which the offender resides or the community of residence and the zip code in which the offender resides. Since the information is equally available to residents and Landlord, and Landlord cannot discriminate against registered sex offenders pursuant to Penal Code Section 290.46 et seq., Landlord has not made any inquiry of any applicant or resident as to whether he or she is a registered sex offender. Resident is advised to take whatever reasonable and lawful actions Resident believes necessary to protect household members or guests against any potential harm. This includes talking to any children or individuals with a diminished capacity about how to deal with strangers and similar topics. Resident is advised that Landlord may not notify Resident if Landlord learns or is advised that a registered sex offender is living in the Community.

46. ENVIRONMENTAL INDEMNIFICATION: To the extent allowed by law, Resident expressly assumes and accepts any and all risks involved or related to the presence in the Premises, common areas, and Community of any and all health affecting substances, and any power lines in the vicinity of the Premises. Resident waives all claims and causes of action of any kind or nature, at law or in equity, including, but not limited to, claims or causes of action arising by statute, ordinance, rule, regulation or similar provision, against Landlord and Landlord's agents, principals, employees, legal representatives, affiliates, assignees, successors in title, partners, shareholders, officers, directors, parents, members and managers (herein collectively called the "Landlord Affiliates") with respect to any health hazard occurring in connection with the presence in the Premises, common areas, or Community of materials containing potentially health affecting substances, and claims arising out of or based upon any potentially health affecting substances brought, or allowed to be brought, into the Premises, common areas, or Community by any Resident, Occupant, guest, or invitee. Resident agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Landlord Affiliates against and from any and all actions, causes of action, claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages and expenses of whatsoever kind, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees at both the trial and appellate levels, that any or all of the Landlord Affiliates may at any time sustain or incur by reason of any and all claims asserted against them arising out of potentially health affecting substances brought or allowed to be brought into the Community by any Resident, Occupant, guest, or invitee.

47. PROPOSITION 65 WARNING: The Premises, common areas, and Community may contain chemicals known to the State of California to cause cancer, birth defects, and other reproductive harm. These chemicals may be contained in emissions and fumes from building materials, products and materials used to maintain the property, and emissions, fumes, and smoke from Resident and guest activities, including but not limited to the use of motor vehicles, barbecues, and tobacco products. These chemicals may include, but are not limited to carbon monoxide, formaldehyde, tobacco smoke, unleaded gasoline, soot, tars, and mineral oils.

    For more information please contact OEHHA at (916) 445-6900 or visit http://www.oehha.org/prop65/pdf/Prop65tenants.pdf for additional information from the California Environmental Protection Agency's Office of Environmental Health Hazard.

48. LEAD-BASED PAINT WARNING: Housing built before 1978 may contain lead-based paint. Lead from paint chips and dust can pose health hazards if not managed properly. Lead exposure is especially harmful to young children and pregnant women. Lead poisoning in young children may produce permanent neurological damage, including learning disabilities, reduced intelligence quotient, behavioral problems, and impaired memory. Before renting pre-1978 housing, Landlords must disclose the presence of known lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the Unit. Residents must also receive a federally approved pamphlet on lead poisoning prevention. By Resident signing this Lease, they acknowledge receipt of Protect Your Family from Lead in Your Home pamphlet.
    i. Presence of lead-based paint or lead-based paint hazards: Known lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards are present in the housing.
    ii. Landlord has reports or records pertaining to lead-based and/or lead-based paint hazards in the Premises and has made available to Resident all available records and reports upon Resident's request.

49. ASBESTOS DISCLOSURE: Before 1981, asbestos was commonly used in construction. This Community was built before 1981 and asbestos may be present. Asbestos is a chemical known to cause cancer. Asbestos may be present in sprayed on acoustical ceiling material, insulation, fire proofing and floor tiles in the Premises and/or buildings of the Community. Disturbing or damaging certain interior Premises, common areas, and/or Community surfaces may increase the potential exposure to asbestos. Resident may not pierce, damage, disturb, or remove any portions of the Premises, common areas, and/or Community known or suspected to contain asbestos. Resident must notify Landlord immediately in writing if any portion of the Premises, common areas, and/or Community known or suspected to contain asbestos are pierced, damaged, disturbed or removed. Landlord has instituted an operations and maintenance program directed at maintaining the Community in accordance with any applicable federal and state safety requirements regarding asbestos-containing material. This program is designed (among other things) to prevent release of asbestos fibers into the air; minimize disturbance of damage to asbestos-containing materials; monitor the conditions of materials and air in the building; and regulate maintenance, renovation and construction activities. No matter how small the percentage of such material may be, Resident, Occupants, guests, or invitees shall comply with such rules and regulations as Landlord from time to time may prescribe in connection with Landlord's operations and maintenance program, including without limitation to the following:
    i. Hazardous Materials: Resident shall not take or allow any action which in any way damages or disturbs all or part of the ceiling, flooring, walls, insulation in the Premises, including but not limited to: Piercing the surface of the ceiling, flooring, walls or insulation by drilling or any other method; hanging plants, mobiles, or other objects from the ceiling; allowing any objects to come into contact with the ceiling; permitting water or any other liquid to come into contact with the ceiling; painting or undertaking any repairs or improvements with respect to the ceiling or floor tiles; or undertaking any activity which results in building vibration which may damage the ceiling.
    ii. Resident shall notify Landlord immediately in writing: If there is any damage to or deterioration of the ceiling, flooring, walls or insulation of the Premises, including (without limitation) loose, cracking, hanging, or dislodged material, water leaks, or stains in the ceiling, flooring, walls or insulation.

50. CREDIT REPORTING: Resident is notified that Resident's performance as a tenant of this Community may be reported to credit reporting agencies.

51. SOCIAL MEDIA: Landlord maintains an online presence through its website and social media. This online presence includes, but is not limited to, displaying images from community events organized by Landlord. From time to time Landlord will capture still ("photo") and moving ("video") images at these events. Resident hereby acknowledges that by attending these events Resident accepts and agrees to the potential of being depicted in those images and further agrees to permit Landlord to use Resident's, Occupants', guests' or invitees' likenesses, without compensation, for the limited purpose of Landlord's online presence. Please note that Landlord respects Resident's privacy and at Resident's written request Landlord will remove any image depicting Resident, Occupants, guests or invitees.

F. COMMUNITY CONSIDERATION

52. USE OF PREMISES: Resident agrees to use the Premises solely as a private residence. Storage areas, parking areas, balconies, patios, outdoor areas, and decks shall not be used for occupancy. Resident shall not use the Premises as a business address, nor shall Resident conduct business activities on the Premises. Conducting business activities includes, without limitation, using the Premises as a mailing address for a business enterprise, having a business telephone line in the Premises, having business clients meet with Resident at the Premises, having business stationery setting forth the address of the Premises as a business address, assembling or manufacturing any product upon the Premises, or otherwise holding out the Premises as the address of any business. Resident may, however, insofar as it is consistent with the restrictions set forth in this section, and with the written consent of Landlord, use a portion of the Premises as a "home office." Nothing set forth herein shall be deemed as disallowing any use of the Premises that cannot be

53. CONDUCT OF RESIDENT: Resident agrees not to harass, annoy, or endanger any other resident, neighbor, or other person, or create or maintain a nuisance, or disturb the peace or solitude or quiet enjoyment of any other resident, neighbor or other person, or commit waste in or about the Premises. Resident further agrees not to harass, verbally abuse, denigrate or otherwise disrespect Landlord's employees, agents and/or contractors or interfere with the operations of the Community or the work of Landlord's employees or agents. Resident agrees to keep the volume of any activity, radio, stereo, electronic equipment, television or musical instrument at such a level which will not disturb the other residents at any time. Any noise, disturbance, or activity which would, in the sole and absolute discretion of Landlord, be reasonably likely to annoy or disturb other residents is strictly prohibited. 53. Certain acts are considered to be contrary to the safety, well-being, peace, and enjoyment of the other residents of the Community. These include, but are not limited to, the use, possession or sale of illegal drugs or controlled substances and the carrying or exhibiting of firearms in the Community. Such acts are prohibited. The carrying or exhibiting of firearms may be permitted with written consent of Landlord if doing so is required by law or job necessity. Resident shall not deface or damage any part of the Premises or the common areas or the Community or permit the same to be done. Resident shall not keep in the Community any flammable or explosive materials or any substance considered dangerous, hazardous, or toxic under any governmental law or regulation. Resident shall not do or permit anything to be done in the Premises that may be deemed hazardous or which will cause a cancellation of or an increase in the premiums for any insurance for the Community. Resident is responsible for the conduct of Occupants, guests, and invitees, including without limitation any minors, while they are in the Premises and in the Community. A Resident conducting any of the activities set forth in this section, or who allows Occupants, guests, or invitees to conduct any of said activities shall be deemed in violation of this Agreement, and said activity shall be grounds for termination of this Agreement. This provision constitutes written notice to cease any breach of this section, including, without limitation, committing or permitting to exist a nuisance in the Premises, building, or Community.

54. PARKING: Resident, Occupants, guests, and invitees shall follow the Parking Rules and Regulations, as the same may be amended from time to time. Landlord shall not be liable for any damage or loss to motor vehicles, the contents of motor vehicles, or personal property of Residents, Occupants, guests, or invitees. Failure to follow the Parking Rules and Regulations and posted signs relating to parking and operation of vehicles will result in the towing of the offending vehicle at the cost of the vehicle owner.

55. OCCUPANTS: Any person staying in the Premises for longer than two weeks or 20 nonconsecutive days out of the year shall be considered to be occupying the Premises. The Premises shall be occupied only by the person(s) indicated in Section 2. No other persons have permission to occupy the Premises unless such permission is in writing and signed by Landlord. Landlord's acceptance of rent from any other individual shall be deemed to be the payment of rent on behalf of the Resident and shall not constitute permission for the person making the payment to occupy the Premises. Should any person not named in Section 2 make any claim of right to possession of the Premises, any such person shall be deemed to be the guest or invitee of the named Resident and their claim to right of possession shall be denied. Any Occupant, named in Section 2, who is not a signatory to this Lease shall be deemed to be an invitee of Resident, who is a signatory to this Lease. Accordingly, if any such Occupant is not named in any unlawful detailer action to regain possession of the Premises, and if any such individual thereafter makes a claim to right of possession of the Premises, that claim shall be denied on the basis that said individual is the invitee of the named Resident and does not have an independent claim to right of possession of the Premises.

56. GUESTS: Any person occupying the Premises shall be considered an unauthorized occupant in violation of this Lease unless that person has completed a rental application, been approved, and been added to the Lease.

57. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING: Resident shall not assign this Lease nor sublet all or any part of the Premises without Landlord's written consent. Resident shall not sublet all or any part of the Premises on a short-term basis, including without limitation through Air BNB or any other short-term rental program. Permitting any person not named as an Occupant or as a Resident in this Lease to occupy the Premises shall be deemed an improper subletting of the Premises and shall subject the tenancy to termination. This provision constitutes written notice to cease any breach of this section, which breach is incurable pursuant to state law. Any attempted subletting or assignment in violation of this provision shall be void. In the event that no original Resident remains in residency at the Premises, Landlord may reset the rent in accordance with the Civil Code and Rent Stabilization Ordinance.

58. PETS: No pets are permitted in the Premises without the prior written consent of the Landlord through an Animal Addendum to this Lease. Permission to keep a pet may be granted, denied, or revoked in Landlord's sole discretion. Except to the extent written permission has been given, pets may not be brought upon the Premises, whether such pets belong to Resident or to any other person. The presence of any pets for which written permission has not been given and is not currently in force, even if such pets are "just visiting" shall be deemed a material breach of this Lease. This policy does not apply to accommodation or service animals. A disabled individual who requires an animal in order to be able to use and enjoy the Premises or the Community should contact Landlord before bringing the animal onto the Premises and request an accommodation to this Lease provision. All accommodation requests will be processed in accordance with applicable laws. Resident is responsible for reimbursing Landlord for the costs of repairing damage to the Premises, common areas, or Community caused by animal(s) under the control of or visiting Resident. Resident must promptly notify Landlord of any damage caused by animals.

59. CLOTHESLINES/DRYING RACKS: If the Premises has a private patio, deck, or balcony, which is enclosed by a fence, railing, or other structure, Resident is permitted to hang clothing, blankets or other laundry on the patio, deck, or balcony subject to the following rules and conditions:
    - i. No more than two drying lines/racks may be in use at any one time.
    - ii. Items may not be left on the drying lines/racks for more than 24 hours (i.e., all items must be removed within 24 hours of being put out on the drying lines/racks).
    - iii. Drying lines/racks must be free standing.
    - iv. No drying lines or racks may be attached or affixed in any manner to any portion of the building, fence, railing, wall, building support structure, or light fixtures.
    - v. Drying lines/racks cannot be higher than the patio, balcony, or deck fence or railing.
    - vi. Drying lines/racks cannot be clearly visible from the sidewalk or street.
    - vii. Drying lines/racks cannot block entrance to or egress from the Premises, create a health or safety hazard or interfere with walkways or utility service equipment.
    - viii. Drying lines/racks cannot interfere with the maintenance of the Community.
    - ix. Clothes may not be draped over fence or balcony railings, or hung from any building fixtures.

    If the private patio or balcony is not enclosed by a fence, railing, or other structure, Resident is not permitted to hang clothing, blankets, or any other laundry on the patio, deck, or balcony.

G. UTILITIES AND HOT WATER

60. UTILITIES: Utility services shall be provided directly from the utility provider or, at the sole discretion of Landlord, on a sub-metering, square footage, or other allocation basis. Landlord reserves the right to modify the method by which the utilities are furnished to the Premises or billed to Resident during the term of this Lease and may modify billing Resident for utilities previously included in the rent by giving Resident a 30 day written notice.

The following terms shall apply:

i. Resident agrees to pay all charges for utilities for the Premises for the term of the Lease. Charges may be assessed by the utility provider or Landlord or Landlord's designated Billing Party in the case of utilities billed to Resident by Landlord in connection with Resident's use of utilities.

ii. Resident shall not use any utility in a wasteful, unreasonable, or hazardous manner and agrees to comply with all utility conservation efforts implemented by Landlord.

iii. Landlord is not liable for claims arising from utility service outages, interruptions, or fluctuations in utilities provided to the Premises not reasonably within Landlord's control.

iv. For any utility which Resident is responsible for paying directly to the utility provider, Resident must contact the utility company prior to move-in to have the services placed in Resident's name no later than ten (10) business day following move-in. Resident shall continue to contract with the utility provider throughout the term for continuous utility service. Resident's failure to make necessary arrangements for Resident's utility service may result in an interruption of services and Resident's failure to transfer utility services to Resident's name or failure to have continuous utility service may be, at Landlord's discretion, considered a material breach of this Lease and will permit Landlord to terminate the Lease. If Resident fails to pay any utility charges that are to be paid by Resident, Landlord may, at its option, pay such charges to retain continuing utilities service. If Landlord does so, any such charges may be billed to Resident by Landlord and said billing shall become due and payable, in full, as additional rent together with the regular monthly rent payment on the first day of the month next following the date of such billing. Resident will also be subject to an additional charge of $50.00 for each billing cycle during which Resident has failed to become the customer of record with the utility provider(s).

v. Resident shall not use any utilities in the common areas for their own personal use without written consent of the Landlord.

vi. Resident agrees not to disturb, tamper, adjust, or disconnect any utility service, sub-metering device or system.

61. HOT WATER: The following will apply.

i. The water temperature in the Premises is set at 120 degrees Fahrenheit or below. When the water temperature is 120 degrees Fahrenheit, or below, bacteria may enter the water heater or associated plumbing and accumulate. If Resident desires the thermostat to remain at 120 degrees Fahrenheit, or below, Resident assumes any and all risks associated with any bacterial growth in the water heater or associated plumbing.

ii. Resident should be aware that some units may be equipped with an HVAC heating system which operates on hot water. To achieve full heating potential, it may be necessary to increase the temperature of the water heater during the colder months of the year. Resident should also be aware that some units operate on centralized hot water systems which service multiple units and as such individual adjustments in temperatures will not be possible.

iii. If Resident desires the water temperature in the Premises to be higher than 120 degrees Fahrenheit and the Premises has an individual hot water heater, Resident will request, in writing, the temperature of the hot water heater to be adjusted by Landlord, and Resident shall specify the desired temperature at which Landlord is requested to set the thermostat.

iv. Resident understands that if the temperature is set above 120 degrees Fahrenheit, that the water released from the taps in the Premises may scald or burn anyone using water, and potentially cause severe injury.

v. Resident may not tamper with, or adjust the water temperature thermostat in the Premises in any way without written authorization from Landlord.

vi. Resident agrees to indemnify and hold Landlord harmless in any action involving any injury related to the temperature of the water, the water system or the associated plumbing in the Premises.

H. ADDITIONAL TERMS

62. REQUESTS FOR ACCOMMODATIONS OR MODIFICATIONS: A disabled person shall be provided reasonable accommodations or reasonable modifications to the extent necessary to provide the disabled person with an opportunity to use and occupy the Premises in a manner equal to that of a non-disabled person. If Resident believes Resident, Occupant, or a member of Resident's household requires an accommodation or modification as a result of a disability, Resident should contact Landlord to begin the interactive process.

63. MILITARY: Military personnel on active duty may terminate this lease under Federal law if:

i. Resident becomes a member of the Armed Forces of the United States after Resident enters into the Lease; or

ii. Resident is or becomes a member of the Armed Forces of the United States and receives:

a. Orders for a permanent change of station; or

b. Orders to deploy for a period of at least 90 days.

Landlord fully supports its residents who are active-duty or reserve military personnel. Resident must give Landlord written notice of termination. For rentals when rent is paid monthly, the termination becomes effective 30 days after the first date on which the next rent payment is due after the termination notice is delivered and no further rent will be owed following the expiration of the notice period (or the actual move-out date, if later). Resident must furnish the Landlord with proof to establish that Resident qualifies for this limited exception. Proof may consist of any official military orders, or any notification, certification, or verification from the service member's commanding officer, with respect to the service member's current or future military duty status. Military permission for base housing does not constitute a permanent change-of-station order.

64. OFFICE OF FOREIGN ASSETS CONTROL: Resident represents and warrants that Resident and each person or entity owning an interest in Resident is

i. Not currently identified on the Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons List maintained by the Office of Foreign Assets Control, Department of the Treasury ("OFAC") and/or on any other similar list maintained by OFAC pursuant to any authorizing statute, executive order or regulation (collectively, the "List").

ii. Not a person or entity with whom a citizen of the United States is prohibited to engage in transactions by any trade embargo, economic sanction, or other prohibition of United States law, regulation, or Executive Order of the President of the United States.

iii. None of the funds or other assets of Resident constitute property of, or are beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, by any Embargoed Person (as hereinafter defined).
iv. No Embargoed Person has any interest of any nature whatsoever in Resident (whether directly or indirectly).
v. None of the funds of Resident have been derived from any unlawful activity with the result that the investment in Resident is prohibited by law or that the Lease is in violation of law.
vi. Resident has implemented procedures, and will consistently apply those procedures, to ensure the foregoing representations and warranties remain true and correct at all times. The term "Embargoed Person" means any person, entity or government subject to trade restrictions under U.S. law, including but not limited to, the International Emergency Economic Powers Act, 50 U.S.C. § 1701 et seq., The Trading with the Enemy Act, 50 U.S.C. App. 1 at seq., and any Executive Orders or regulations promulgated there under with the result that the investment in Resident is prohibited by law or Resident is in violation of law.

Resident covenants and agree(s):

i. To comply with all requirements of law relating to money laundering, anti-terrorism, trade embargo and economic sanctions, now or hereafter in effect.
ii. To immediately notify Landlord in writing if any of the representations, warranties or covenants set forth in this section or the preceding section are no longer true or have been breached or if Landlord has a reasonable basis to believe that they may no longer be true or have been breached.
iii. Not to use funds from any "Prohibited Person" (as such term is defined in the September 24, 2001, Executive Order Blocking Property and Prohibiting Transactions with Persons Who Commit, Threaten to Commit, or Support Terrorism) to make any payment due to Landlord.
iv. At the request of Landlord, Resident may be asked to provide such information to determine Resident's compliance with the terms hereof.
v. Resident hereby acknowledges and agrees that Resident's inclusion on the List at any time during the lease term shall be a material default of the Lease. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Resident shall not permit the Premises or any portion thereof to be used or occupied by any person or entity on the List or by any Embargoed Person (on a permanent, temporary or transient basis), and any such use or occupancy of the Premises by any such person or entity shall be a material default of the Lease.

65. NON-DISCRIMINATION: There shall be no discrimination against or segregation of, any persons on account of race, color, national origin, ancestry, creed, religion, gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, genetic information, marital status, familial status, age, source of income, handicap, disability, citizenship status, immigration status, primary language spoken or any other protected classification under state or federal law, in the sale, lease, sublease, transfer, use, occupancy, tenure or enjoyment of the Premises, nor shall the Landlord or any person claiming under or through Landlord, establish or permit any such practice or practices of discrimination or segregation with reference to the selection, location, number, use or occupancy of tenants, lessees, or vendees of the Premises.

66. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE: Time is of the essence with respect to the provisions of this Lease. This provision shall be interpreted in its strictest sense irrespective of the relative hardship to the Parties.

67. SUCCESSORS: If the property is sold or the ownership interest otherwise transferred, the successor in interest of Landlord shall be deemed the assignee of all rights arising under this Lease, and shall be entitled to enforce the provisions of this Lease against Resident. Nothing in this provision shall be construed as conflicting or superseding the foregoing subordination or as requiring a continuation of the tenancy in the event of a foreclosure or other involuntary transfer of ownership.

68. SUBORDINATION: This Lease shall, without further act on the part of Resident, be subject and subordinate to the lien of any mortgage and/or any deed of trust or other encumbrance which may now exist, upon, or which may hereafter be placed by Landlord upon, the leased Premises or property including the Premises.

69. ATTORNMENT: Resident hereby agrees that Resident will recognize as its Landlord under this Lease and shall attorn to any person succeeding to the interest of Landlord in respect of the land and the buildings on or in which the Premises is contained upon any foreclosure of any mortgage upon such land or buildings or upon the execution of any deed in lieu of such foreclosure in respect of such mortgage. If requested, Resident shall execute and deliver an instrument or instruments confirming its attornment as provided for herein; provided, however, that no such mortgagee or successor-in-interest shall be bound by any payment of rent for more than one 1 month in advance, or any amendment or modification of this Lease made without the express written consent of such mortgagee.

70. ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATE: Resident agrees that within five (5) days of Landlord's request, Resident must execute and deliver to Landlord a written statement certifying that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if modified, describing the modification). Any prospective or actual property purchaser may rely upon Resident's written statement. Should Resident fail to deliver a statement within the specified time, it will be conclusively presumed that the Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect, except as otherwise indicated, and there are no uncured defaults in Landlord's performance, and any other details specified by Landlord originally requested of Resident.

71. CONTENTS OF THIS LEASE: The failure of Landlord to insist upon strict performance of any of the covenants and agreements of this Lease or any addenda thereto, or to exercise any rights arising under this Lease, shall not be construed to be a waiver of Landlord's right to subsequently enforce any such provision or to insist upon any such right. The fact that Landlord may have accepted late payment(s) on one or more occasions shall not be deemed a waiver of Landlord's right to insist upon timely payment or rent or to exercise any remedy available for late payment of rent. Acceptance of rent following a breach of this Agreement shall not be deemed to constitute a waiver of such breach. No custom or practice which may develop between the Parties in the course of the tenancy shall be construed to waive the right of Landlord to enforce any provision of this Lease.

72. SEVERABILITY AND PROVISIONS REQUIRED BY LAW: If a provision or section of this Lease is legally invalid, or declared by a court to be unenforceable, such provision or section will be deemed deleted and the rest of this Lease will remain in effect. To the extent any provision of this Lease is in direct conflict with any provisions of applicable law, such provision is hereby deleted. Any provision specifically required by applicable law which is not included in this Lease is hereby inserted as an additional provision of this Lease, but only to the extent required by applicable law and then only so long as the provision of the applicable law is not repealed or held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction.

73. ENTIRE AGREEMENT: This Lease, including all addenda executed by both Parties, sets forth the entire agreement among the Parties with respect to the matters set forth in it. It shall not be altered nor modified unless such alteration or modification is in writing and signed by all signatories to this Lease. No verbal agreements or representations have been made or relied upon by either party or any agent or employee of either party, and neither party nor any agent or employee of either party is entitled to alter any provisions of this Lease by any verbal representations or agreements to be made subsequent to the execution of this Lease. The foregoing notwithstanding, if Resident holds over after the expiration of the Lease term on a month-to-month basis, Landlord may change any provision of this Lease without the consent of Resident in the manner prescribed by California Civil Code Section 827.

74. SECTION HEADINGS: The section headings are inserted only for convenience and are not intended to define or limit the scope or intent of any clause.

75. NOTICES:
   i. Any notice that Landlord gives to Resident shall be deemed properly served (whether or not actually received by Resident) if served in the manner prescribed in Code of Civil Procedure Section 1162. Except as prohibited by law, if Landlord fails to serve the notice in accordance with the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure Section 1162, but Resident actually receives the notice, the actual receipt shall be deemed to cure any defects in the manner of service and the notice shall be deemed properly and personally served. Service upon any Resident of the Premises shall be deemed valid service upon all Residents - it is not necessary to serve each Resident individually unless otherwise required by law.
   ii. Any notice that Resident gives to Landlord shall be given to the business manager, assistant business manager, or sales associates, who are authorized to manage the Premises, at the management office(s) located at 5 Newell Court or at 2041 Euclid Ave., East Palo Alto, CA 94303 during normal business hours. The telephone number is (650) 566-2000. On non-holidays, the business hours, which remain subject to change, are: Mon and Wed, 9AM - 6PM, Tues 10AM - 6PM, Thurs and Fri 9AM - 7PM, Sat and Sun 10AM - 5PM.
   iii. The persons designated above are the persons authorized by the owner to act for an on behalf of the owner for the purpose of service of process and for the purpose of receiving and giving receipts for all notices and demands.

76. JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY AND AUTHORITY: In the event of more than one Resident, each Resident is jointly and severally liable for each provision of this Lease and service of any notice or demand upon one shall constitute notice to each other Resident. All persons signing this Lease as Resident shall remain jointly and severally liable for all obligations arising under it, whether or not they remain in actual possession of the Premises. The giving by any individual Resident of a notice of termination of tenancy shall not terminate the Lease as to that Resident unless all Residents vacate the Premises by the agreed date. Landlord may, however, treat any such notice as a notice binding against all Residents of the Premises, and may institute unlawful detainer proceedings against all Residents if they do not restore possession of the Premises to Landlord on or before the end of the notice period. Conversely, Landlord may, at its sole option, if one or more Resident gives notice, but all Residents do not return possession of the Premises to Landlord within the notice period, continue the tenancy in effect and, if Landlord does so, all Residents, including the Resident giving notice, shall remain fully liable for all obligations arising hereunder whether or not they remain in occupancy of the Premises.

77. ELECTRONIC SIGNATURES: The Parties agree that they may enter into this Lease by electronic means, although traditional hard copies with wet signatures may be used instead at the option of Landlord. Resident agrees and acknowledges that if Resident is entering into this Lease with Landlord by electronic means, doing so is not conditioned on Resident's agreement to conduct the leasing transaction electronically.

78. ATTACHMENTS/ADDENDA: Resident(s) acknowledges receipt of a copy of the attachments/addenda listed in this section, which are incorporated into and made part of this Lease. Resident(s) agrees to abide by said attachments/addenda in all respects. Any failure to comply with any of the attachments shall be deemed a breach of this Lease. If there is a conflict between these policies and the Lease, the Lease shall govern.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT RE USE OF MEDICAL MARIJUANA

Resident acknowledges receipt and understanding of the attached policies concerning use of Medical Marijuana. If applicable, Resident agrees to complete the Addendum for any Resident, Occupant, invitee, or guest who requires a Medical Marijuana Accommodation. If the accommodation is not applicable, Resident is not required to complete the Addendum and it will remain solely as an informative section of the lease, not an Acknowledgment of any sort.

ADDENDUM RE USE OF MEDICAL MARIJUANA

This document is an addendum to the Lease Agreement dated October 19, 2020 between Elibeth L. Pereda and Woodland Park for the Unit # 207 located at 201 East OKeefe Street East Palo Alto, CA 94303.

I have read the following and agree to adhere to the below rules and regulations for Medical Marijuana use at the Community:

1. I have a physical or mental impairment that limits one (or more) major life activity. As a result of my disability, I require the use of Medical Marijuana. A copy of the Medical Marijuana Card is attached and incorporated by reference into this Addendum. I agree to notify Landlord if the Medical Marijuana Card is revoked or expires and understand that this Agreement terminates immediately upon revocation or expiration of the Medical Marijuana Card.
2. The Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment and the California Environmental Protection Agency list marijuana smoke as a carcinogen. In 2009, the Carcinogen Identification Committee determined that marijuana smoke was shown to cause cancer, and was added to the Proposition 65 list, pursuant to Title 27, California Code of Regulations, section 25305(a)(1) (formerly Title 22, California Code of Regulations, section 12305(a)(1)).
3. I UNDERSTAND THAT ANY SECONDHAND MARIJUANA SMOKE THAT DRIFTS INTO THE WINDOWS OF OTHER UNITS, THROUGH THE VENTS, UNDER ANOTHER RESIDENT'S DOOR, ONTO A BALCONY, OR IN A COMMON AREA (INCLUDING FITNESS CENTER AND POOL/SPA) IS PROHIBITED. I AGREE TO CONFINE THE SMOKE TO MY PREMISES AND AGREE THAT ANY SMOKE THAT AFFECTS A NEIGHBORING RESIDENT WILL BE DEEMED A NUISANCE. I UNDERSTAND THAT I WILL BE REQUIRED TO TAKE THE MEDICATION IN AN ALTERNATE MEANS AND/OR SMOKE IN AN ALTERNATE LOCATION IF THE SMOKE DISTURBS ANY NEIGHBORING RESIDENT.
4. I understand that there are reasonable alternate means to take the medication, including (among others) edibles, tinctures, beverages, cannabis oils, and pills. Landlord understands that each individual's medical situation is different and will address the specific situation and alternate means to take the medication with advice from the prescribing physician.
5. The distribution and/or sale of marijuana or any other narcotic or illegal substance is a violation of the Lease and basis for termination of tenancy.
6. Resident is prohibited from making any unauthorized modifications to the Premises, including indoor irrigation systems or any other alteration that may increase the moisture and/or humidity levels or risk of fire in the Premises, building or Community.
7. This Addendum may be modified for any reason at any time without Resident's approval in accordance with State and Federal law.
8. Except as expressly modified hereunder, the remaining terms and conditions of the Lease as previously amended shall remain in full force and effect.
9. Resident hereby acknowledges that this addendum is incorporated into the Lease.
10. The Parties hereto represent and acknowledge that in executing this Agreement they do not rely upon and have not relied upon any representation made by the other party with regard to the subject matter of this Addendum, or its effects, other than those representations specifically set forth herein. No supplement, modification, or amendment of this Addendum shall be binding unless executed in writing by both Parties.

This Addendum may be executed in counterparts and facsimile copies of same shall be admissible for all purposes and shall be deemed an original.

BECAUSE WE CARE

At Woodland Park, we care about our residents' safety. We would like you to be aware of some important guidelines for your safety and protecting your personal property. Keep in mind that security is provided by local law enforcement agencies, much as it is for the other communities in the surrounding area. You should always proceed as if safety systems do not exist. The best safety measures you can take are the ones you can perform yourself as a matter of common sense. We have worked with local law enforcement agencies to develop a list of their recommendations for prudent practices regarding your personal safety. We provide this list as a convenience to you, without making any representation or warranty, and subject to the Lessee Security Notice & Acknowledgement:

PERSONAL SAFETY/INSIDE YOUR HOME

1. Lock your doors and windows, even when you're home.
2. If you have a deadbolt or night latch, use them even when you're home.
3. Never answer your door unless you know who is on the other side by looking through a peephole or window. If you don't know the person, talk to them without opening the door, and don't open the door unless you're satisfied with their identity.
4. If you are worried because you have lost a key, ask the management to rekey the locks. You have the right to do so, provided that you pay the cost of rekeying in advance.
5. Keep the telephone numbers for the police and emergency medical services handy.
6. Check your smoke detector periodically to ensure it is working.
7. Report to the management (in writing, dated and signed) any malfunction of safety devices outside your home such as broken gatelocks, burned-out stairwell and parking lot lights, etc.
8. Close your curtains or blinds at night.
9. Let friends know when you're going to be gone for an extended period of time. Ask your neighbors to keep an eye on your home, because the management cannot assume that responsibility.
10. Mark or engrave valuable personal possessions for identification.
11. Be careful to whom you lend or give your keys.
12. When lighting candles, always use holders that are sturdy to avoid tipping and keep candles 12" away from flammable objects such as curtains or pillows. Never leave a candle unattended. Extinguish them prior to sleeping or leaving your home.
13. Do not leave cooking items unattended. If a grease fire should break out, place a metal lid over the flames. Do not use glass since the heat from the fire could cause the glass to break. Smother the fire with a liberal amount of baking soda if it is relatively small and contained. Do NOT attempt to extinguish a grease fire with water; this will only cause the burning oil to splash and spread the flames.

PERSONAL SAFETY/OUTSIDE YOUR HOME

1. Lock your doors while you're gone. That means dead bolts too!
2. Leave a radio playing very softly when you're not at home.
3. Close and lock your windows when you're gone. Don't forget the sliding glass doors. Purchase a lamp timer at the hardware store, and set the time when you're not home in the evening or when you're on vacation.
4. Try not to walk outside alone at night.
5. Don't hide your front door key under the doormat. It's usually the first place a burglar will look.
6. If you have an entry code, don't give your code to guests or strangers.
7. Arrange for your newspaper delivery to be stopped when you're on vacation.

PERSONAL SAFETY/USING YOUR CAR

1. Lock your car doors when you're driving. Lock the doors and roll up the windows when you leave the car parked.
2. Don't leave visible items in the car, such as purses, briefcases, packages, money, etc.
3. Don't leave your keys in the car.
4. No matter where you are, always carry your key ring in your hand when you walk to the car. Don't ever stand by the car fumbling for keys.

5. Look in the back seat before you get in the car.
6. Don't stop alone at night at an automatic teller or gas station.

COMMUNITY POLICIES

This document is an addendum to the California Lease Agreement ("Lease") dated October 19, 2020 between Elibeth L. Pereda ("Resident") and Woodland Park ("Landlord") for the Unit #207 ("Premises") located at 201 East OKeefe Street, East Palo Alto, CA 94303.

In order to maintain and promote the Community, Landlord has established the following policies for the comfort and convenience of all residents. These Community Policies may be modified by written notice to residents.

1. Service Requests: All requests for service should be made in writing, delivered personally, sent via electronic mail, or submitted to the online resident portal. In an emergency, call 911 directly for help. Notify the Landlord immediately after.

2. Laundry Facilities: Laundry facilities are for the exclusive use by Resident and Occupants during the hours posted. Items should not be left unattended in the laundry area. Landlord is not responsible for loss or damage to personal items and clothing. To ensure the washers and dryers are working when needed, please follow the posted operating instructions carefully and treat the machines with care. If any of the laundry machines are not working properly, please notify Landlord immediately, so service can be arranged. A few additional tips:
   i. Do not put plastic items in the dryer.
   ii. Always clean the lint screen prior to use.
   iii. Never operate the dryer without a lint screen,
   iv. Refrain from overloading the washing machine or dryer. Do not use laundry facilities to wash or dry bulky items such as comforters.
   v. We recommend leaving washer door open after cycle for better ventilation.
   vi. Always clean the lint screen prior to using the dryer and never operate it without a lint filter.
   vii. Never dry items that have come into contact with flammable substances like cooking oil, gasoline, paint thinner, or alcohol.

3. Appliances: The following policies must be followed with regard to appliances.
   i. Appliances shall not be removed from the Premises, common areas, or Community.
   ii. The disposal should only be used for the purpose for which it was designed. The following items should not be put in the disposal: metal, string, grease, coffee grounds, nut shells, fruit pits, corn on the cob, and potato peel.
   iii. The bathroom fixtures should only be used for the purpose for which they were designed. The following items should not be disposed of in the toilets: diapers, paper towels, sanitary napkins, tampons, food, baby wipes and rags. Resident shall be held responsible for any repairs or damage resulting from the disposal of such items in the toilet. If Resident puts any other foreign objects in bathroom or plumbing fixtures, Resident shall reimburse Landlord for any repairs or damage caused by the same.
   iv. Dishwashers should not be overloaded and only detergents made for automatic dishwashers should be used. We recommend using a rinse agent to improve drying and reduce spots and build up in dishwasher.
   v. To keep the oven clean, use mild detergents following each use and do not use hard abrasives on chrome or glass parts of the oven.
   vi. On the stove, never place foil under the burner pans.

4. Interior Alterations: Resident must obtain the prior written approval of Landlord before making any interior alteration. Any expenses incurred to restore the Premises will be at Resident's expense. Resident may not use nails when hanging pictures, mirrors, or other wall hangings. Please use adhesive hangers.

5. Window Coverings and Signs: Resident shall not use blankets, sheets, foil or non-standard window coverings in place of draperies or blinds. Except as permitted by law, Residents shall not place objects on window or window sill which are visible from the outside.

6. Community Equipment and Facilities: Recreational facilities may include business centers, fitness rooms, swimming pools and community rooms. Residents, Occupants, guests and invitees shall abide by all rules and regulations for the use of the recreational facilities. Resident, Occupants, guests and invitees will avoid conduct that Landlord deems inappropriate or disruptive. Any person in violation of these rules will be asked to vacate the area immediately. Failure to adhere strictly to the posted rules and regulations is acknowledged as grounds for suspension of privileges or termination of the tenancy in accordance with law. Landlord may change the rules and regulations at Landlord's discretion. Exercise care when enjoying the recreation facilities/equipment. Landlord is not responsible for physical injuries that result from the use of the recreational facilities/equipment. Any damages to any of the recreational facilities/equipment caused by Resident, Occupants, guests or invitees will result in Resident being responsible for the cost of repairing the damages. Take caution to lock/close common area doors and gates. No pets are allowed in any of the recreational facilities.

7. Communities with Pools: Resident is required to limit guests to no more than two at a time and accompany them to the pool. Visitors not accompanied by Resident will be asked to leave. Glass containers are not allowed in the pool area. Please help keep the pool area clean. Proper pool attire, such as bathing suits and swim trunks, is required. Children who are not toilet trained must wear a swim diaper. Cut-off jeans, T-shirts and non-swim diapers are not allowed. Additional pool policies and hours are posted by the pool. For safety reasons, do not swim alone.

8. Patios and Balconies: Resident shall comply with the following rules:

i. Patios and balconies are to be kept neat and orderly at all times.

ii. The installation of sunshades, blinds or hanging fabrics is not allowed.

iii. The construction of walls, ceilings, or other permanent attachments to the patio or balcony is not permitted.

iv. Patios and balconies may not be used as bedrooms.

v. No storage of any personal property or trash containers is allowed.

vi. All plants must be free-standing and have saucers underneath them. Hanging plants are not permitted.

vii. No motorcycles are allowed to be kept on any patios or balconies at any time.

viii. Unapproved bike hooks are not permitted and will be removed.

ix. Only furniture designed for outdoor use is permitted.

9. Trash Removal: Containers are located at various places throughout the Community. Residents shall secure trash and place it in a designated container. Residents shall not place trash on the ground if dumpster is full and should proceed to the next closest container to dispose of the trash. Resident shall not place large articles, such as furniture, for trash removal and Resident shall make alternate arrangements with a private disposal service to pick up such item at Resident's expense. Recyclable materials shall be separated from trash and disposed of in the recycling receptacles. Boxes should be recycled and broken down before disposal. Resident shall not dispose of hazardous materials in any container or other location at the Community. Resident shall only dispose of refuse in compliance with applicable laws. Resident may be charged a fee for not following these guidelines. Do not store trash on porches, balconies or in the hallways unless it is an approved container provided by the Landlord and is served regularly by the Landlord or a third party vendor.

10. Recycling: Resident agrees to comply with all present and future Community policies, laws, orders and regulations of all state, federal, municipal and local governments regarding the collection, sorting, separation, and recycling of waste products, garbage, refuse and trash.

11. Barbeques: The use or storage of any charcoal burner, liquid petroleum, gas fueled or any other open flame cooking devices are prohibited in the Premises, including on any patio or balcony.

12. Loitering: No unnecessary loitering in laundry facilities, recreation areas, leasing office, amenity areas, parking areas, or other common areas.

13. Recreational Equipment: Skateboards, motorcycles, bicycles and similar vehicles may not be stored in entry ways or under stairs without prior written permission from Landlord. Skateboards, roller-blades or other similar recreational equipment usage in Premises and in common areas is prohibited.

14. Posting Flyers: Resident is not authorized to distribute advertising, information or any other type of flyer, door-to-door, on cars, anywhere else in the building or throughout the Community, except as authorized by law. Landlord may designate a place for such items to be displayed and remove items that are not in keeping with the nature of the Community, as determined by Landlord.

15. Garage and Storage: Parking areas may only be used to park the Resident's registered, operational personal vehicle(s) in accordance with the Lease and Parking Rules and Regulations. Resident shall not use any parking area as storage for equipment, personal items, containers, vehicle parts or inoperable vehicles. In addition, Resident will not under any circumstances use any parking area or storage space to store flammable or toxic chemicals and/or waste. The parking area and storage space may not be used for occupancy. If Resident violates these requirements Resident agrees to immediately reimburse the Landlord for any costs associated with the removal of the unauthorized materials and immediately vacate the parking area or storage. Resident further agrees to be liable for any and all damage caused by Resident's carelessness or negligent driving, which may result in the destruction of the storage space and/or parking area or to any other vehicle near garage or storage space. The Landlord shall not be liable for any loss, theft, damages and or destruction of any personal property contained in any parking area or storage space. Nor shall the Landlord be held liable for or held responsible for any injury to any Resident, Occupant, guest or invitee resulting from the use of any parking area and/or storage space.

16. Solicitors and Salespeople: Solicitors are not allowed in the Community, except as authorized by law. Residents shall report all solicitors or salespeople to the Landlord immediately.

17. Car Wash and Repair: Vehicle repairs, including oil changes, and washing of vehicles are prohibited in the common areas and Community unless there is a designated area provided by Landlord.

18. Moving of Furniture: Landlord may designate the time and method for moving items to and from the Premises such as any furniture, merchandise, goods, freight or other such items. Residents may not move furniture to and from the Premises through the lobby, patio doors, or through the use of elevators (if available) without Landlord's permission. If elevators are installed at the Community, Landlord does not guaranty that the elevators will be available for use by Resident nor shall Landlord be liable for any loss resulting from the unavailability of elevator service.

19. Notification of Changes: Resident shall notify Landlord immediately in writing with any change to Resident's employer, employer telephone number, alternate phone numbers, emergency contact and other pertinent information.

Resident and Landlord represent that they have read this Addendum, understand the terms and conditions contained herein, and agree to the terms and conditions contained herein.

INFORMATION ABOUT BEDBUGS AND PEST CONTROL POLICIES

This document is an addendum to the Lease Agreement dated October 19, 2020 between Elibeth L. Pereda and Woodland Park for the Unit #207 located at 201 East OKeefe Street, East Palo Alto, CA 94303.

1. In recent times, bed bugs have become a re-emerging problem nationwide. One reason for these increasing problems is that it is easy for persons to spread the problem unknowingly. Bed bugs readily hide in small crevices and are notorious hitch-hikers. Bed bugs are often transferred by purchasing used furniture and through travel in luggage and in hotel beds and linens.

2. Landlord provides the following information about bedbugs pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1954.603:

   a) Bed Bug Appearance: Bed bugs have six legs. Adult bed bugs have flat bodies about 1/4 of an inch in length. Their color can vary from red and brown to copper colored. Young bed bugs are very small. Their bodies are about 1/16 of an inch in length. They have almost no color. When a bed bug feeds, its body swells, may lengthen, and becomes bright red, sometimes making it appear to be a different insect. Bed bugs do not fly. They can either crawl or be carried from place to place on objects, people, or animals. Bed bugs can be hard to find and identify because they are tiny and try to stay hidden.

   b) Life Cycle and Reproduction: An average bed bug lives for about 10 months. Female bed bugs lay one to five eggs per day. Bed bugs grow to full adulthood in about 21 days.

   c) Bed bugs can survive for months without feeding.

   d) Bed bug Bites: Because bed bugs usually feed at night, most people are bitten in their sleep and do not realize they were bitten. A person's reaction to insect bites is an immune response and so varies from person to person. Sometimes the red welts caused by the bites will not be noticed until many days after a person was bitten, if at all.

   e) Common signs and symptoms of a possible bed bug infestation:

      - Small red to reddish brown fecal spots on mattresses, box springs, bed frames, mattresses, linens, upholstery, or walls.
      - Molted bed bug skins, white, sticky eggs, or empty eggshells.
      - Very heavily infested areas may have a characteristically sweet odor.
      - Red, itchy bite marks, especially on the legs, arms, and other body parts exposed while sleeping. However, some people do not show bed bug lesions on their bodies even though bed bugs may have fed on them.

   f) For more information, see the Internet Web sites of the United States Environmental Protection Agency and the National Pest Management Association.

3. The best strategy for effective pest control is prevention. The following are recommended steps in the prevention of infestations by insects and vermin, including bed bugs: (1) Clean Premises regularly, including vacuuming mattresses; (2) Clean up clutter to help reduce the number of places insects like bed bugs can hide; (3) Carefully and thoroughly inspect used furniture or clothes you acquire and bring into the Premises; Ask the person from whom you acquire the items if the items were checked and treated for bed bugs; (4) Do not bring discarded furniture, mattresses or clothing into the Premises; and (5) When traveling or staying in hotels, avoid places which do not appear to be cleaned regularly.

4. If the Premises or neighboring Premises are infested with vermin or insects, including bed bugs, Landlord may hire a pest control professional to develop a treatment plan and apply pesticides. The Premises must be properly prepared for any treatment and Resident must cooperate with the implementation of the treatment plan.

Resident and Landlord represent that they have read this Addendum, understands the terms and conditions contained herein, and agree to the terms and conditions contained herein.

NOTICE OF ORDINANCE AT COMMENCEMENT OF TENANCY

Section 6 of the East Palo Alto Rent Stabilization and Just Cause of Eviction Ordinance of 2010 requires landlords provide residential tenants with a written notice of this Ordinance at the commencement of any tenancy.

RENTS AND RENT INCREASES

How Much Can Rents be Increased Each Year:

The Rent Stabilization Board determines the percentage increase each year, the Annual General Adjustment ("AGA"), that landlords can raise rents for tenants in regulated rental units. The percentage of rent increase allowed, including for all fees for regulated housing services, for the 2020-2021 program year is 2.3%.

Landlords, who are in compliance with the Ordinance, may increase rents between July 1 and June 30 of each program year by the amount of the AGA after giving a proper 30-day notice to a tenant. A landlord is eligible to increase rents using AGAs only if the landlord:

1. Registers all units in the same property with the Rent Stabilization Program;
2. Substantially complies with the Rent Stabilization Ordinance and/or orders or regulations issued under the Ordinance, including not charging more than the maximum allowed rent; and
3. Ensures the rental unit complies with the implied warranty of habitability; and completes all repairs ordered by the City.

Fees paid to a landlord for regulated housing services such as parking or utilities are generally part of the rent. An increase in fees for housing services, or charges for additional services that were not included in a tenant's initial rental agreement, are generally considered rent increases and must conform to the requirements for raising rents.

Accumulating AGAs for Future Rent Increases:

Landlords may raise rents by a lesser amount than allowed by the AGA or choose not to raise rents in any given year, and in that event, they may apply the AGA for future use to raise a tenant's rent. However, rent increases may not exceed 10% in any 12-month period.

Certificate of Maximum Allowable Rent ("MAR"):

Certificates are issued upon Initial Registration of a rental unit, upon occupancy by a new tenant, and upon individual request. They are not issued every year. Based on information submitted by landlords, the Rent Stabilization Administrator calculates the Maximum Allowable Rent in the Certificates issued for rental units that have been properly registered with the City. A tenant cannot be charged rent, including any fees for regulated housing services, that exceeds the MAR for the timeframe specified in the Certificate issued for their unit.

RIGHT TO PETITION FOR VIOLATIONS OF ORDINANCE

A tenant can file petition A, B and/or C when their landlord violates the requirements of the City's Rent Stabilization Ordinance. A tenant may file a petition seeking a rent reduction or a rebate for rent already paid for the following reasons:

File Petition A for a Rent Reduction and Rebate for Maximum Allowable Rent Violations: This petition may be filed when rent is being charged over the Maximum Allowable Rent for a regulated rental unit. A tenant can also file Petition A if their landlord failed to properly register the unit.

File Petition B for Rent Reduction and Rebate for Housing Service Reductions, including Maintenance and Breach of Implied Warranty of Habitability: This petition may be filed when the tenant experiences habitability and/or maintenance problems, and/or reductions in services that have not been corrected in a reasonable time.

File Petition C for Approval to Withhold Rent for Landlord's Failure to Register a Unit with the Rent Stabilization Program: Tenants may contact the Rent Program to find out if their rental unit is properly registered and for more information about this provision in the Ordinance.

PROTECTIONS AGAINST EVICTONS WITHOUT CAUSE

Evictions are only permitted for the specific reasons cited in the Ordinance. Evictions not meeting these requirements can be contested in any action to recover possession of a rental unit in court.

Landlords must specify at least one of the permitted grounds for eviction listed in the Ordinance in a written notice of termination of tenancy. Permitted grounds for eviction include failing to pay rent, violating the lease, or engaging in disorderly or destructive conduct, among other reasons.

The landlord must file with the Rent Board a copy of any termination of tenancy and unlawful detainer action within five calendar days after the tenant has been served with such a notice.

TENANT PROTECTION ORDINANCE (Codified in Section 14.02 of the Municipal Code):
In May 2014, the City Council adopted the Tenant Protection Ordinance ("TPO") to further protect tenants. The TPO requires landlords to provide tenants a tenant rights information sheet, to give keys to every adult occupant in the rental unit, and to replace locks before a new tenancy begins. The TPO prohibits landlords from discriminating against families with children or based on the student or non-student status of housing applicants and tenants. It also prohibits landlords from harassing or taking retaliatory action against tenants. The TPO confirms tenants' rights to organize and to distribute literature related to tenancy issues. The TPO also provides for relocation assistance when units are to be demolished or removed or tenants have to temporarily relocate due to necessary repairs.

PARKING RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Each resident may only use the assigned parking space associated with that resident's lease and parking permit. Any vehicle parked in a parking space other than the assigned space is subject to immediate tow at the owner's expense. If you are not sure which space is yours, please ask the Management Office.
2. Every vehicle, including motorcycles, parked in an assigned Woodland Park parking space must have a visible, valid Woodland Park parking permit.
3. The Woodland Park Management Office at 5 Newell Court, East Palo Alto, CA 94303 issues parking permits. Generally, one parking permit will be issued for each assigned parking space. The make, model, color, and license plate number for each vehicle must be provided to obtain a parking permit.
4. The parking permit, including the permit identification number, must be fully visible at all times that the vehicle is parked at Woodland Park. Be sure not to cover the permit identification number.
5. If a resident's vehicle information changes or there are any other changes affecting the parking permit, the Management Office will reissue the parking permit. Upon reissue, the original parking permit will no longer be valid. All updated information must be provided to the Management Office.
6. If a parking permit must be reissued due to loss or theft, the resident will be charged a replacement fee for reissuance of the permit. Upon reissue, the original parking permit will no longer be valid. If the original parking permit is found in any vehicle parked at Woodland Park, that vehicle will be subject to immediate tow at the owner's expense. Reproduction or alteration of a parking permit is a direct violation of the Parking Rules. Any vehicle parked at Woodland Park with a reproduced or altered parking permit will be subject to immediate tow at the owner's expense.
7. No vehicle may be parked at any time in a fire lane, red zone, or any other area marked "NO PARKING." No vehicle may be parked so as to block any other parking space, sidewalk, driveway, or garage entrance. Any vehicle parked in violation of these rules is subject to immediate tow at the owner's expense.
8. Certain parking spaces are marked as guest and visitor parking spaces. Vehicles cannot be parked in guest and visitor spaces for more than 72 hours, unless the Management Office has provided prior written approval. An unapproved vehicle parked in a guest or visitor space for more than 72 hours is subject to immediate tow at the owner's expense. It is the resident's responsibility to advise guests and visitors of the Parking Rules.
9. Residents and their guests and visitors may park their vehicles in the parking spaces marked "Woodland Park Management Office" outside of Management Office hours; however, these vehicles must be moved during Management Office hours (signs are posted with the times). Any vehicle parked in the Management Office parking spaces during office hours are subject to immediate tow at the owner's expense.
10. Motorcycles must be parked in parking spaces. Motorcycles must affix the parking permit so that it is visible on the front area of the vehicle. Motorcycles may not be stored in units, on walkways, in courtyards, or on balconies. All parking rules and regulations apply to motorcycles.
11. All vehicles parked at Woodland Park must be in good operating condition and currently registered and licensed. Vehicles leaking any fluids will be subject to clean up fees. Any vehicle that is lacking any part or equipment necessary to operate safely, including without limitation, an engine, transmission, wheels, tires, doors, or windshield is subject to tow at the owner's expense. Management will attempt to provide 72 hours of notice before towing any such vehicle. Vehicle repair and maintenance in parking spaces and driveways is strictly prohibited.
12. Storage of personal property is not allowed in parking spaces. Management reserves the right to remove personal property left in parking spaces with no prior warning. Parking spaces and adjacent areas are to be neat and clean at all times.
13. Vehicles are not to be covered. Management will remove and discard covers.
14. Management is not responsible for theft or damage to any vehicle or personal property in the parking areas.
15. Boats, large trucks, RV's or trailers are not to be parked in the parking areas.
16. Bicycles must be parked in designated bicycle racks or inside a Resident's unit. Bicycles may not be stored or parked in common walkways or by the resident's front door.

Please remember to always lock your vehicle and never leave valuables in your car. Management is not responsible for loss or damage. Park at your own risk.

IF YOUR VEHICLE IS TOWED...

You have rights if your vehicle gets towed. Please consult the California Vehicle Code to fully understand your rights, as this is only an overview and the law may change at any time.

Generally, prior to paying any towing and storage-related fees, you have the right to:

- Receive an itemized invoice of actual charges.
- Receive your personal property, at no charge, during normal business hours.
- Retrieve your vehicle during the first 72 hours of storage and not pay a lien fee.
- Request a copy of the Towing Fees and Access Notice.
- Pay by cash or valid bank credit card
- Inspect your vehicle or have your insurance carrier inspect your vehicle at the storage facility, at no charge, during normal business hours.

You generally have the right to have the vehicle released to you upon (1) payment of all towing and storage-related fees, (2) presentation of a valid photo identification, (3) presentation of reliable documentation showing that you are the owner of the vehicle or that the owner has authorized you to take possession of the vehicle, and (4), if applicable, presentation of any required police or law enforcement release documents.

If you do not pay the towing and storage-related fees or you abandon your vehicle at the towing company, the towing company may sell your vehicle and any money received will be applied to towing and storage-related fees that have accumulated against your vehicle. You are still responsible for paying the towing company any outstanding balance due on any of these fees once the sale is complete.

If your vehicle was damaged during storage or towing, the owner of the vehicle may recover for any damage to the vehicle resulting from any intentional or negligent act of a person causing the removal of, or removing, the vehicle.

If the towing company violates the law, you may be able to bring a lawsuit in court, generally in small claims court. The towing company may be civilly liable for damages up to two times the amount charged, not to exceed $500, and possibly more for certain violations.

PET ADDENDUM

This document is an addendum to the California Lease Agreement ("Lease") dated October 19, 2020 between Elibeth L. Pereda ("Resident") and Woodland Park ("Landlord") for the Unit # 207 ("Premises") located at 201 East OKeefe Street, East Palo Alto, CA 94303.

Pets, including unauthorized or visiting pets, are not permitted on the Premises without prior written consent from Landlord. This addendum constitutes written consent for the pet(s) described below in the "Pet Description."

Pet Description

Resident and Landlord agree as follows:

1. Resident agrees to pay $0.00 per month per pet in Pet Rent per month on or before the first of each month with Monthly Rent. Pet Rent is additional "rent" for all purposes.
2. If a pet is added during the lease term, Resident agrees to pay $0.00 in Pet Rent per pet per month and will be required to pay an additional deposit of $500.00.
3. The additional deposit shall be subject to full inspection of the Premises upon Resident's move out and shall be considered an additional deposit pursuant to the Lease terms.
4. Resident shall be liable for all damages to Premises, common areas, or Community and all expenses caused by or in connection with pet, including without limitation the presence of fleas.
5. Pet will not be permitted outside the Premises unless restrained by a leash. Resident must control pet activity while in the Premises.
6. Pets may not be left or tied on balconies, porches, or patios and these areas must be kept clean and free of pet waste.
7. Resident is responsible for immediate and proper cleaning up and disposal of pet waste. Please note that landscape pesticides and chemicals are used on the grounds of the Community and therefore special care should be taken when walking pets.
8. If pet is a cat, an appropriate litter box shall be maintained and a scratching post should be provided. Resident must place soiled cat litter in a securely tied trash bag for disposal.
9. If Resident does not clean up after pet, Resident will be fined $50.00 per occurrence.
10. Pets shall not weigh over 50 Pounds full grown.
11. The number of pets per unit is limited to 2.
12. Resident shall not permit and represents that pet will not cause any damage, discomfort, annoyance, nuisance or in any way inconvenience, or cause complaints from, any other resident.
13. All pets must have all current, required vaccinations. Upon request from Landlord, Resident must provide proof of vaccinations to Landlord.
14. It is strongly recommended that all pets have an identification tag showing current address and telephone number on their collar. Dogs are required to have a current license and an identification tag at all times.
15. Resident agrees to comply with all applicable ordinances, regulations and laws governing pets.
16. In addition, Resident shall comply with the following policies:
    - i. Except as further restricted by law, the following types of pets are permissible: cats, dogs, hamsters, guinea pigs, rabbits, birds, fish, non-poisonous or non-venomous amphibians, and non-poisonous or non-venomous reptiles. Permitted birds must be kept caged and permitted fish, amphibians, and reptiles must remain in in a tank/aquarium at all times.
    - ii. All pets must be spayed/neutered.
    - iii. Resident shall prevent any fleas or other infestation of the Premises, building and Community.
    - iv. Birds shall not be let out of cages.
    - v. Resident must obtain prior written consent from Landlord to have fish tanks over 30 gallons. Fish tanks must be placed in a safe area inside of the Premises.
    - vi. Dangerous, illegal, exotic or poisonous animals (as determined solely by Landlord) are not permitted on the Premises.
    - vii. Residents are not allowed to keep endangered species.
    - viii. Feral animals cannot be fed or kept on the Premises, common areas, or Community.
    - ix. Resident shall not allow any pet in the Community that has exhibited any sign of aggressive behavior or aggressive tendencies towards any person.
    - x. Resident shall not allow any pet in the Community that is a Restricted Breed. Restricted Breeds are Alaskan Malamute, Boxer, Chow Chow, Dalmatian, Doberman Pinscher, German Shepperd, Belgian Malinois, Husky breeds, Pit-Bull breeds, Staffordshire Terrier, Presa Canario, Rottweiler and wolf hybrids..

17. This addendum shall terminate without affecting the Lease or Resident's responsibilities under the Lease and Resident shall remove the pet immediately if any of the following occurs:

    i. Payment of Pet Rent is delinquent.

    ii. The pet displays aggressive behavior.

    iii. Landlord perceives the pet to be dangerous or disruptive to premises, common areas, or Community, other residents, guest or employees.

    iv. Resident fails to provide proof of current, required vaccinations upon request from Landlord.

    v. Upon thirty (30) days' notice by either party to the other of intent to terminate this Addendum.

18. Companion and/or Service Animal: Landlord will review any request for accommodation to the pet policies, including the need for a companion or service animal. Additional information may be requested while engaging in the interactive process to determine the need for the accommodation. If a companion or service animal is required, the Resident will be provided a Companion Animal and/or Service Animal Addendum & Agreement detailing the terms and conditions.

19. Resident agrees to hold harmless and indemnify Landlord from all liability pertaining to pets on the property and Resident shall hold Landlord harmless and indemnify Landlord for any and all damages or costs in connection with pet.

Resident and Landlord represent that they have read this Addendum, understand the terms and conditions contained herein, and agree to the terms and conditions contained herein.

RESIDENT SECURITY
NOTICE & ACKNOWLEDGMENT

NOTICE TO RESIDENT: Landlord does not promise, warrant, or guarantee the safety or security of the Resident, Occupants, or their personal property against the criminal actions of other residents or third parties. Each Resident has the responsibility to protect himself or herself and to maintain appropriate insurance to protect his or her belongings.

It is a fact that no security system, courtesy patrol or electronic security device can guarantee protection against crime. Even elaborate security systems are subject to mechanical malfunction, tampering, human error or personnel absenteeism, and can be defeated or avoided by clever criminals. Therefore, Lessees should always proceed on the assumption that no security systems exist. The best safety measures are those precautions that can be performed as a matter of common sense and habit.

If security systems, security devices, or walk-through/drive-through services are employed at this community, no representation is being made that they will be effective to prevent injury, theft or vandalism. Such personnel, if provided, cannot physically be every place at every moment. Usually, such personnel are unarmed independent contractors and have no greater authority under the law to restrain or arrest criminals than the ordinary citizen. Therefore, Landlord does not warrant that any security systems, security devices, or services employed at this community will discourage or prevent breaches of security, intrusions, thefts, or incidents of violent crime. Further, Landlord reserves the right to reduce, modify or eliminate any security system, security devices or services (other than those statutorily required) at any time; and Resident agrees that such action shall not be a breach of any obligation or warranty on the part of Landlord.

Resident agrees to promptly notify Landlord in writing of any problem, defect, malfunction or failure of door locks, window latches, controlled access gates, intrusion alarms, and any other security-related device. If Resident's home is equipped with an intrusion alarm, Resident agrees to be responsible for all fines, penalties and other charges resulting from or attributable to the alarm, including false alarm charges.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT BY RESIDENT: I have read, understood and agree with the above notice. I have received no representation or warranties, either express or implied, as to any security or any security system on the property. Landlord has not in any way stated or implied to me that security of person or property was provided, promised, or guaranteed or that the Community was or will be free from crime. I further acknowledge that Landlord is not obligated under any circumstances to respond to any signal from an intrusion alarm system. The responsibility for protecting me, my property, and my family, guests and invitees from acts of crime is the sole responsibility of myself and law enforcement agencies.

I agree to release and hold harmless Landlord from claims arising out of criminal acts of other residents and third parties. I agree that Landlord shall not be liable to me based upon any claim that security was not provided, subject to Landlord's compliance with state statutes regarding door locks and window latches. Resident acknowledges that the foregoing shall also be binding upon Resident's heirs, successors, and assigns.

Representatives of Landlord have no authority to make changes or modifications in the terms of this document, except when in writing and signed.

UTILITIES WAIVER

This document is an addendum to the California Lease Agreement dated October 29, 2020 between Elibeth L. Pereda and Woodland Park for the Unit #207 located at 201 East OKeefe Street, East Palo Alto, CA 94303.

In order to allow my community to track our whole building utility data, which will be used to determine what upgrades can be done to reduce utility expenses in each unit, I hereby grant authority for Woodland Park Property Owner, LLC doing business as Woodland Park Communities, the owner of Woodland Park to obtain the usage and utility detail for my utility accounts during my tenancy at this location for the sole purpose of benchmarking through the Energy Star® Portfolio Manager system. In order to do this, I agree to grant my Landlord the right to sign my account up to electronically receive utility data, where necessary, and to receive my account details as necessary to accomplish such benchmarking. Where available, such details will be collected in aggregate so that no unit information is available, and no unit information will be distributed except as required by law, nor used for any marketing purposes.

Therefore, I hereby authorize any utility provider serving my Premises, located at 201 East OKeefe Street #207, East Palo Alto, CA 94303 to provide such utility details and history about the accounts tied to my Premises upon request through the term of this Lease, and including up to the 24 months prior to the signing of this agreement.

I understand that by signing below I am waiving my right to privacy, both actual and perceived, under Federal, State and Local statutes regarding the release of my utility data and agree to hold all parties involved harmless from any potential right to privacy violations.

Resident(s) acknowledges to have read this Addendum and understands the terms and conditions contained herein.

SECURITY DEPOSIT AGREEMENT

This Agreement is made this day, October 19, 2020, by and between Woodland Park (hereinafter referred to as "Lessor"), Lessor of the complex in which the "Premises", as hereinafter defined, are located, acting pursuant to express written authority given by the owner of such complex, and Elibeth L. Pereda (hereinafter referred to as "Lessee"), in connection with the Lease Agreement (the "Lease") between Lessor and Lessee for: Woodland Park (the "Premises").

1. Security Deposit. Lessor hereby acknowledges receipt from Lessee of the sum of: $600.00 (Security Deposit) which represents the security deposit payment under the Lease, which shall hereinafter be defined as "Security Deposit". Lessor will hold the Security Deposit for the faithful performance by Lessee of his/her obligations under the Lease, including payment of rent, and cleaning and repair of the Premises after its surrender.
2. Refund of Security Deposit. Lessor shall deduct from the Security Deposit all monies expended as a result of any breach of the lease or this agreement, including but not limited to the following:
   - A. Vacate completely the entire Premises by Lessee on or before the date specified in the required written 30 day move-out notice.
   - B. Expiration of the term of the Lease, or termination or cancellation of the Lease in accordance with the express provisions thereof.
   - C. Payment by Lessee of all rental required under the Lease, up to and including the date of expiration or termination of the term of the Lease, or the full move-out notice period, whichever is longer.
   - D. The Premises, including all kitchen appliances (refrigerator, oven, range, dishwasher, and microwave) and including all baths, closets, storage areas, patios/balconies, etc. have been thoroughly cleaned, so as to be in the same condition as they were in on the commencement date of the term of Lease, normal wear and tear excepted.
   - E. No defects or damage to the Premises, whether caused by Lessee, pets, or otherwise, unless shown on a written list of damages and defects signed by Lessee at the commencement of the Lease term.
   - F. Observance and performance by Lessee of all of the other covenants and obligations to be kept or performed by Lessee under the Lease up to and including the date of expiration or termination of the Lease term.
   - G. Observation and performance by Lessee of all rules and regulations to be kept and performed by Lessee under the Lease, including, without limitation, those rules and regulations pertaining to pets.
   - H. LESSEE has given LESSOR thirty days written notice prior to the date of expiration or termination of the term of the Lease.
   - I. Lessee has provided Lessor with a written copy of the forwarding address of Lessee.
3. Deductions. Within twenty-one (21) days after Lessee has vacated the Premises, Lessor shall furnish Lessee with an itemized written statement of the basis for, and the amount of, any security received and the disposition of such security to Lessee.
4. Move-Out Procedures. When Lessee moves out of the Premises, an inspection of the condition of same shall be made after all of the personal effects of Lessee have been removed. Lessee should accompany Lessor during said inspection to help resolve any problems that may arise. Failure of Lessee to do so shall constitute a concurrence by Lessee in Lessor's assessment of charges for damages or cleaning. After inspection by Lessor, appropriate charges will be assessed by Lessor for any missing items; damages or repairs to the Premises, or its contents (normal wear and tear excepted) with the exception of those items listed on the Move-In/Move-Out Inspection Report attached to this agreement; insufficient light bulbs; scratches, burns, or holes in the walls, doors, floors, draperies, carpets and/or furniture; and for cleaning the Premises (including all kitchen appliances). Lessee shall be charged for each unreturned key (mail-box key and garage remote), and charged for replacing locks if all door keys to the Premises are not returned to Lessor.

Additional Lease Addenda
Residential Lease - Terms and Conditions Utilities Addendum

By signing this Term Sheet, you acknowledge that each of the Additional Lease Addenda are attached to this term Sheet and are therefore made a part of the Lease. You further acknowledge that you have read and that you agree to all of the provisions set forth in this Term Sheet and the Additional Lease Addenda.

You also acknowledge that you have received, or will receive, (separate from this Lease) a copy of the Resident Handbook and Community Policies and a copy of the Move-In/Move-Out Inspection Form. You acknowledge and agree that the provisions contained in these two documents are incorporated into this Lease and that you will abide by the policies and procedures set forth in these documents.

You specifically acknowledge that this Lease contains provisions extending the Lease Term if you stay beyond the Expiration Date set forth on the first page of this Term Sheet or if you fail to provide timely written notice of your intent to vacate the Premises at least 30 days prior to the Expiration Date.

RESIDENTIAL LEASE – TERMS AND CONDITIONS
(California)

These Terms and Conditions are attached to and incorporated by reference into the Residential Lease - Term Sheet signed by Resident ("you") and Lessor ("us") with respect to your rental of the Premises identified on the Term Sheet. The Term Sheet, these Terms and Conditions, the Resident Handbook and Community Policies, the Move-In/Move-Out Inspection Form, and all Lease addenda or other agreements that may be referenced on the Term Sheet or attached hereto, make up the Lease. The party executing this Lease as the Lessor is Equity Residential Management, L.L.C., which is acting as the managing agent for the owner of the Community. Each person living in the Premises that is 18 years of age or older must sign the Lease as a resident. All others living in the Premises must be designated as occupants. Each person signing the Lease is jointly and severally liable for all of the various resident obligations under the Lease. That means that every individual resident, including all co-residents, is responsible for the entire rental amount and other obligations, even if, as roommates, you have made arrangements among yourselves to allocate the rent or other payments among yourselves.

1. Lease Term: The initial term of this Lease is set forth in the Lease Term section of the Term Sheet. If you plan to move out at the end of your initial term, you must provide us with a written notice of your intent to vacate. We must receive this written notice within the time frame set forth in the Lease Term Expiration section of the Term Sheet. . If you move out without providing any notice at all, then, for the purposes of this paragraph, your move-out date will be considered to be your notice date. You understand that you have no right to terminate your Lease prior to the end of your initial term or any renewal term and, if you do, you will be in default of the Lease. Any early termination settlement option that we may offer to you must be addressed with us at the time you are planning to move out early. An early termination settlement option, if offered to you, cannot be exercised during the last full month of your Lease term. If you move out during the last full month of your Lease term but before the last day of your Lease term, you will be responsible for your rent and other charges through your lease end date, as well as your obligations related to notice of your intent to vacate and the condition of the Premises. At, or prior to, the end of the initial term of the Lease, we reserve the right to extend a renewal offer to you, allow you to stay on a month-to-month basis or terminate your lease.

At the end of the initial term, if you do not move out or you do not sign a renewal lease, this Lease will automatically renew on a month-to-month basis. If you fail to provide us with the required notice and you move out anyway, the Lease term will be automatically extended for an additional month, and you will be responsible for paying your current monthly apartment rent until (i) the end of the one month extension or (ii) the day a new resident moves into the Premises, whichever comes first.

2. Month-to-Month Tenancy: If you stay in the Premises on a month-to-month basis following the initial term of the Lease, you will pay the month-to-month rent amount included in the renewal offer we deliver to you. In addition to U.S. mail and personal delivery options, such renewal offer may be delivered to you via e-mail, text message and/or via a link to our resident website, My.EquityApartments.com. Once you become a month-to-month tenant, we reserve the right to increase the rental rate upon 30 days' notice to you. If the proposed increase, when combined with any other increases during the previous 12 months, is more than 10% of the Total Monthly Rent charged during the immediately preceding 12 month period, we will provide you with 60 days' notice of such increase, if required by law. In order to terminate a month-to-month tenancy, you must provide us with a written notice to vacate of at least 30 days. During the month-to-month tenancy, we can also give you a 60 days' notice to vacate. If you move out without giving us the amount of notice required, you will be responsible for paying rent until (i) one month following our receipt of your notice to vacate or (ii) the day a new resident moves into the Premises, whichever comes first. If you move out without providing any notice at all, then, for purposes of this paragraph, your move-out date will be considered to be your notice date.

3. Holding Over: If you don't move out on or before the date in a notice to vacate, you will be responsible for any damages caused by your failure to vacate the Premises, including alternate housing costs for other residents who were planning to move into the Premises but were prevented from doing so due to your failure to vacate.

4. Termination: Upon termination of the Lease, or the termination of your right to occupy the Premises, you agree to deliver all keys, access cards and remotes to us and to move out of the Premises, leaving them in substantially the same clean, undamaged, and ready-to-rent condition as existed when you took occupancy of the Premises, less ordinary wear and tear. If the Premises are not returned in such condition, we reserve the right to charge you for the costs to repair any damage and to put the Premises back in the condition they were in upon your move-in, less ordinary wear and tear. You are not responsible for ordinary wear and tear; however, you are responsible for replacement of any damaged or missing items and for payment of all costs to clean or repair any portion of the Premises, carpeting, flooring, wall coverings, paint, counters, trim, window treatments, doors, windows, or appliances which are damaged, dirty, or unsanitary. Cleaning and repair of any damage due to smoking of any kind are not considered ordinary wear and tear. You are responsible for removing all trash and other items of your personal property and, if you do not remove such items, you will be charged for the cost of removal. Your failure to clean the Premises or to remove your trash and personal property from the Premises when you move out will constitute a condition that exceeds ordinary wear and tear. You will not be considered as having moved out, vacated and surrendered possession of the Premises until you have removed all of your personal belongings from the Premises and returned all keys, access cards and remotes to us. If you move out and fail to return all keys, access cards and remotes to us, you agree that your move-out date will be determined by us in our reasonable judgment, and that you will be charged for any missing keys, access cards and remotes.

5. Rent: You agree to pay the amount shown in the Total Monthly Rent section of the Term Sheet and all additional rent (described below), in advance and without demand, on or before the first day of each calendar month. The management office is open Monday through Friday (excluding holidays) between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. The management office is also open for extended hours from time to time. Such extended office hours, if applicable, are posted outside the management office. All fees and charges described on the Term Sheet or in this Lease, including, but not limited to, late charges, returned item fees and utility bills that are payable to us or to our utilities billing vendor, shall be deemed to be "additional rent." Total Monthly Rent and additional rent are, together, referred to in this Lease as "rent." All rent must be paid in U.S. dollars and we reserve the right to require that payments be made in one lump sum, even if there are multiple residents listed on the Lease. We strongly encourage residents to use on-line or electronic payment methods. We may elect to centralize the collection sites for non-electronic payments and, if we do so, we will notify you in writing of the address to which you should send your payments, as well as the effective date for such change. If we designate an off site receivables location, you agree that all rent and other payments directed to that location must be received at the designated location on or before the due date. We do not accept cash, third party personal checks, or checks without a preprinted name and address of the account holder. If you pay by personal check, you are authorizing us to scan the check and convert it into a one-time electronic debit from the bank account against which the check was written. Unless prohibited by law, we reserve the right to refuse payments by personal check, automatic debit or other form of electronic payment if, for example, you have submitted previous checks or other payments to us that have failed to clear the bank. We are not required to re-deposit a dishonored check. If we serve a "three day" notice to pay rent or surrender possession of the Premises, any payment tendered following the service of such notice must be in the form of a cashier's check or money order.

6. Late Charges and Returned Item Fees: You acknowledge that if we do not receive your rent or other lease related charges on time, we will incur costs, the exact dollar amount of which is difficult or impracticable to determine. Such costs may include, among other things, lost use of funds, bank or other charges, costs incurred in connection with accounting for and attempting to collect late payments; collection expenses; and other administrative and accounting costs. As a result, if we do not receive your rent when it is due, we will assess late fees as described in the Late Fees section of the Term Sheet. Similarly, if any payment to us (electronic or otherwise) is returned or otherwise rejected by your financial institution for any reason, we will assess a returned item fee as described in the Returned Item Fees section of the Term Sheet, as well as all applicable late fees. The fees described in this paragraph are in addition to any other remedies we may have in the event of your default under the terms of this lease.

7. Application and Acceptance of Payments: Unless you notify us otherwise by written notation on your check or other form of payment, we will apply all of the payments you make to us in the order of priority we determine. We reserve the right to accept any amount less than the balance due at any given time and, if we do accept a lesser amount, such acceptance will not represent a waiver of any right we have to pursue you for the outstanding balance.

8. Security Deposit: Upon signing this Lease, you have agreed to give us deposits as set forth in the Total Deposits section of the Term Sheet. With the exception of any last month's rent that may be paid in advance, if allowed at the community, these Total Deposits are not prepaid rent, but, rather are a good faith deposit for your fulfillment of your Lease obligations, as well as a contingency against damages to the Premises. You will not receive interest on these Total Deposits unless we are otherwise required by law to pay interest to you. For example, in Berkeley and San Francisco, we will pay interest consistent with the requirements of local law. With the exception of any last month's rent that you may have paid in advance, you are not entitled to apply any part of your Total Deposits against rent or other Lease obligations during the time you are occupying the Premises. Consistent with the requirements of state law, after you move out, we will inspect the condition of the Premises, charge any damages beyond ordinary wear and tear, excessive cleaning or trash removal charges, the costs to repair, replace or restore personal property, and any outstanding balances you owe us against your Total Deposits, deduct your last month's rent, if paid in advance, and if any balance remains after applying all such charges, we will refund it to you. If the move-out charges and/or other unpaid amounts remaining on your resident account at the time you move out exceed the amount of the Total Deposits, you agree to pay us the difference. We reserve the right to charge pre-judgment interest on any balance owing after you move out. Such interest will begin to accrue when the balance, if any, shown on the Statement of Deposit Account we issue to you is not paid within 30 days following the date set forth on the Statement of Deposit Account. The interest charged on the outstanding balance will not exceed the rate of 18% per annum or the highest rate allowed by law, whichever is less, and will be reflected on the Statement of Deposit Account that will be issued to you after you move out. Within a reasonable time after receipt of either party's notice of intent to terminate this Lease, we will notify you of your option to request an initial inspection of the Premises. Upon your request, we will, not more than two weeks prior to the end of the Lease term, conduct an initial inspection of the Premises, provide you with an itemized statement specifying the repairs or cleaning proposed to be the basis of any potential deduction from the Total Deposits, and allow you an opportunity to remedy the identified deficiencies. We will make any refund check payable to all residents signing this Lease (unless all residents have authorized us to make the check payable to only some of you). Within the timeframe required by state law, we will mail the refund check to the forwarding address you provide to us or, if you fail to provide a forwarding address, we will send it to the address of the Premises.

9. One-time Fees: If you have paid other fees and charges as set forth in the Total Other Fees and Charges section of the Term Sheet, you acknowledge and understand that such other fees and charges are not refundable, are not considered to be a security deposit or part of the Total Deposits, and will not be applied as a credit toward any amounts owing by you at the time you move out.

10. Lease Concessions: If you received a Lease concession, you must fulfill all of your obligations under this Lease for the entire Lease term. Any concession that is designated on the Term Sheet as a one-time or upfront concession must be applied first toward your rent during the first month of the initial term and to consecutive months thereafter until the balance of the concession credit reaches zero. If this Lease is terminated early, you must repay a prorata portion of the total Lease concessions you received based on the number of days remaining in your Lease term after you move out. If the concession shown on the Term Sheet is designated as Rent Adj/Concession or is in the form of a recurring deduction from the Monthly Apartment Rent shown on the Term Sheet, and the Lease is terminated early, the rent that will be charged after you move-out will not include the deduction for the recurring concession.

11. Failure to Pay Deposits, Other Fees and Charges and First Month's Rent: If you fail to pay any deposits, other fees and charges and the first month's rent (or a prorated amount if the first month is a partial month) prior to moving in, you will be in default under the Lease and we can refuse to give you possession of the Premises until you pay such amounts.

12. Delay in Delivery of Possession: You are responsible for paying rent effective with the Commencement Date shown in the Lease Term section of the Term Sheet. If we are unable to give you possession of the Premises on the Commencement Date, we will abate the rent until we are able to do so. You agree that you will not seek reimbursement from us for any cost incurred by the delay of possession, including, but not limited to, storage or temporary lodging. Subject to applicable law, if we fail to deliver the Premises to you within 30 days from the date promised, either you or we may terminate the Lease by providing written notice to the other. Requirements for us to make repairs or clean the Premises that do not affect your ability to occupy them will not constitute a delay or entitle you to a rent abatement. If we are unable to deliver the Premises but offer you comparable accommodations at no additional cost, you will not be entitled to a rent abatement.

13. Rental Application and Resident Information Updates: You have provided certain information in your Application for Rental that we have relied on in connection with renting the Premises to you. You agree to promptly notify us if any of the information you provided changes. If any of the information you provided to us on your Application or in any subsequent updates is materially false, incomplete or misleading, or if you fail to notify us of any change or if you fail to update your information, you will be in default of your obligations under this Lease and this will be a non-curable breach of this Lease.

14. Disclosure of Information: To the extent permitted by applicable law, we may provide information about you, your co-residents, or any of your occupants to third parties such as law enforcement personnel, future landlords, mortgagees, attorneys, collection agencies, and consumer reporting agencies for law-enforcement, governmental, credit, rent payment history, or other business purposes. If we provide such information to third parties at your request, we reserve the right to charge an administrative service fee for doing so. If you and your co-residents have a guarantor, we may, without notifying you, provide information to the guarantor.

15. Utilities and Utility Cost Adjustments During the Lease Term: You are responsible for paying for all of the utilities identified on the Term Sheet that are checked, and any utilities that we have not specifically agreed to pay. In some cases, the utility service will be provided to you by the utility company and you will pay the utility company directly. In other cases, your utility bill may be calculated based on a submeter reading, an allocation method, or a flat fee (as more fully described in the Utilities Addendum attached to this Lease), in which case you will receive a bill for such utilities from our billing vendor and you will either pay us directly or send your payments to our billing vendor. The Utilities section of the Term Sheet identifies which utility bills are to be billed by and paid directly to the utility company and which utility bills are to be billed by our billing vendor and either paid to us directly or, in some cases, sent to our billing vendor. Amounts due for utility services that are billed by our billing vendor are considered additional rent, irrespective of whether you pay us directly or whether our billing vendor collects such amounts on our behalf. In all cases, your failure to pay the utilities in full when due shall be considered a default under the Lease. You will not allow utilities that are in your name to be disconnected for non-payment or any other reason. If you do not connect the utilities at the time you move in or, if you disconnect the utilities early before moving out, and the utilities remain in our name during such timeframes, we will bill you for the utility charges incurred for the days you were living in the Premises, along with an administrative fee of $50.00 for each utility bill we process on your behalf. You agree that this administrative fee is a liquidated damages provision and that such amount is a fair and reasonable estimate of the administrative costs we incur as a result of paying these bills on your behalf. We make no representation or warranty with respect to the amount of any estimated or actual utility costs associated with the provision of utility services to the Premises or the Community. To the extent we make a request of you in connection with any analysis of overall utility consumption at the Community, you authorize us, as your agent, to request and receive copies of your utility billing records directly from the utility billing provider. You acknowledge that we cannot be held responsible for any outages, interruptions or fluctuations in utility service that are provided to the Premises, and that you have no right to claim constructive eviction or to receive any offset or reduction of rent or diminished rental value of the Premises as a result of any such outages, interruptions, or fluctuations.

16. Right to Enter: We have the right to enter the Premises as allowed by applicable law, as follows: (i) in case of emergency; (ii) to make necessary or agreed upon repairs, decorations, alterations or improvements; (iii) to supply necessary or agreed upon services; (iv) to test smoke or carbon monoxide detectors; (v) to show the Premises to prospective or actual purchasers, mortgagees, residents, workmen, or contractors; or (vi) to make an inspection when you have abandoned or surrendered the Premises and pursuant to court order. We will notify you prior to entering unless: (i) entry is due to an emergency, surrender or abandonment of the Premises, or (ii) you and we have agreed orally to allow us entry in order to make agreed repairs or supply agreed services within one week following the oral agreement, or (iii) you are present and consent to our entry at the time of entry, or (iv) to exhibit the Premises to prospective or actual purchasers of the Community, provided that we have notified you in writing that the Community is for sale and that you may be contacted to allow for an inspection. If you submit a service request to us, such request for service will constitute your permission for us to enter the Premises to do the requested work.

17. Right to Exclude: We reserve the right to exclude from the Community you and any of your occupants or guests who violate this Lease or any of the Community's policies. We also reserve the right to exclude anyone who disturbs other residents or our employees and agents, as well as anyone we reasonably believe represents a potential threat to other residents or to our employees and agents. We may also exclude from the Community any person who refuses to show photo identification to us or to identify himself or herself as a resident, occupant or guest. We may deny you or any person access to the Premises, including by changing the locks, if any court or legal order restrains or bars you or such person from the Premises.

18. Liens or Sales by Lessor: This Lease is subject and subordinate to all present or future ground or underlying leases, loans, mortgages, deeds to secure debt or deeds of trust affecting the Premises and the Community which we or any subsequent owner of the Community may enter into. You hereby appoint us as attorney-in-fact to execute and deliver any and all necessary documents to evidence such subordination of the Lease. Foreclosure of any mortgage or any sale of the Community will not constitute a constructive eviction and, in the event of any such action, you will continue to pay your rent and perform your obligations under this Lease. Upon any foreclosure or sale, provided that we have given you notice of the name and address of the new owner, we will be released from all obligations under this Lease that accrue after the date of the foreclosure or sale and you will look solely to the then-current owner for the performance of Lessor's duties hereunder, including the return of any security deposits.

19. Criminal Activity: You agree that neither you, nor any of your occupants or guests will (i) engage in any criminal activity of any kind, including, without limitation, drug related criminal activity, prostitution or criminal street gang activity, on or near the Community, (ii) engage in any act intended to facilitate such criminal activity, (iii) use or permit the Premises to be used for, or to facilitate, any criminal activity, or (iv) engage in any acts of violence or intimidation or any threats of violence, verbal or otherwise, including, but not limited to, the discharge or brandishing of firearms or other weapons, on or near the Community or otherwise. For purposes of this section, "drug related criminal activity" means the use of or the manufacture, sale, distribution, dispensation or possession with intent to manufacture, sell, distribute, or dispense, marijuana or any other Controlled or Counterfeit Substance, as defined in the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 802), as amended from time to time. One or more violations of the provisions of this paragraph will be considered a breach of the Lease and good cause for the immediate termination of your tenancy and your eviction from the Premises. Unless otherwise provided by law, proof of a violation of this paragraph shall not require criminal conviction, but may be based on our reasonable suspicion and a preponderance of the evidence. In addition, if you or any of your occupants have engaged in any criminal activity during the Lease term or otherwise, we may take action to terminate the Lease and pursue eviction-related remedies.

20. Use and Occupancy: The Premises are to be occupied and used solely as a private residence. Therefore, conducting any kind of business in the Premises, or anywhere in the Community, is prohibited. However, a lawful business conducted "at home" by computer, mail or telephone is permissible if customers, clients, patients or other business associates do not come to the Premises for business purposes. Notwithstanding the above, you may operate a family day care in the Premises for children so long as: (i) day care is properly licensed by the State of California; and (ii) you provide us with at least 30 days' notice of your intent to operate a family day care in the Premises. If you elect to operate a family day care in the Premises, we may increase the Total Deposits that you are required to pay. Any such increase in the Total Deposit amount will be subject to requirements imposed by state law. We may also ask to be named as an additional insured under your insurance policy. The number of people living in the Premises is subject to applicable local occupancy standards. Only those residents and occupants identified on the Term Sheet, and, subject to the Community's occupancy standards, children born or adopted during the Lease term, may occupy the Premises without our prior written consent. If someone stays with you for more than fourteen days (consecutive or otherwise) in any one month, we will consider such person to be an unauthorized occupant and, in order to allow such person to continue residing in the Premises, we must consent. If the person is age 18 or older, we may require him/her to complete an Application for Rental and pay an application fee. If we consent to such person's occupancy in the Premises, we also require that such person, unless he/she is a full-time student residing with a parent or guardian, be named on the Lease as resident. You are responsible for your conduct, as well as the conduct of your occupants and guests. You, your occupants and all guests will: (i) show due consideration for neighbors and not interfere with, disturb or threaten the rights, comfort, health, safety, convenience, quiet enjoyment and use of the Community by us, other residents and occupants and any of their guests, agents or invitees; (ii) not engage in abusive, threatening or harassing conduct toward us or any employees, agents or representatives or unreasonably interfere with our management of the Community; (iii) exercise reasonable care in the use of the Premises and maintain the Premises in a clean, safe and undamaged condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted; (iv) comply with all of the policies and procedures contained in the Resident Handbook and Community Policies we delivered to you via My.EquityApartments.com or otherwise; and (v) comply with federal, state and local laws, regulations, statutes and ordinances which are applicable to the Premises and your tenancy. We reserve the right to be the sole judge of acceptable conduct and to determine the appropriate action necessary to deal with unacceptable conduct. If you elect to have a water bed or other water-filled furniture in the Premises, you must notify us and, notwithstanding the provisions of the Security Deposit paragraph above, we may increase the Total Deposits in an amount not exceeding one-half of the Monthly Apartment Rent shown on the Term Sheet. We may also require you to maintain additional insurance.

21. Assignment or Subletting by Resident: You may not assign this Lease or sublet the Premises without our prior written consent. If we do consent to any assignment or sublease, you will remain fully responsible and liable for the payment of the rent throughout the remainder of the Lease term.

22. Repair and Maintenance: You confirm that you have inspected the Premises, found them in a clean, rentable, and undamaged condition (other than items listed in the Move-In/Move-Out Inspection Form that you completed or will complete), and that you accept the Premises in "as is" condition. Damages and defects not itemized will be presumed to have first occurred during your occupancy of the Premises. You understand that you are responsible for keeping the Premises in a clean, sanitary and undamaged condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted. You are responsible for properly performing routine cleaning of all interior portions of the Premises. Your failure to perform cleaning (including, but not limited to dirt, filth, scum, grease, oil, mud, scuffs, holes, gouges, burns, stains, tears, cuts, rips, fleas, pests, foul scents or odors, surface mold on caulking at the sinks, tub, shower and other locations, and other conditions which could have been avoided by careful use and routine cleaning) constitutes either negligence or an intentional act that results in extraordinary damages to the Premises in excess of ordinary wear and tear, for which you are liable. You will be responsible for all such damage to the Premises caused by you, any of your occupants or guests, and your pets, and you will be responsible for all cleaning and trash removal charges we incur as a result of your use of the Premises. You also agree that you will notify us immediately if any part of the Premises is in need of maintenance or repair.

23. Fair Housing Accommodations/Modifications: We are firmly committed to the principles of Fair Housing. If you or any person residing in the Premises, as a result of a disability, requires accommodations to our rules, policies, practices or services, or a physical modification to the Premises and/or the common areas of the Community in order to provide you or your occupants with equal opportunity to use and enjoy the Premises, you will notify us. If you require physical modifications to the Premises, we may require you to enter into a modification agreement identifying the modifications to be made and any restoration obligations you may have.

24. Military Clause:

a. If you become an active duty member of the United States Armed Forces during the Lease term, then, pursuant to the provisions of the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act ("SCRA") and other applicable laws, you may be released from your obligations under the Lease, without penalty, so long as you: (i) provide a copy of your official orders; (ii) provide at least 30 days' prior written notice of your anticipated move-out date; (iii) pay all outstanding balances and rent through your move-out date; and (iv) make satisfactory arrangements to pay all costs incurred by us to repair the damages caused by you, your occupants or guests, and pets, consistent with the Security Deposit paragraph above.

b. If you are an active duty member of the United States Armed Forces at the time you are signing this Lease, you affirm that the Lease end date does not extend beyond your anticipated discharge, retirement or release from the United States Armed Forces. Pursuant to the provisions of the SCRA and other applicable laws, you may be released from your obligations under the Lease, without penalty, so long as you: (i) provide a copy of your official permanent change-of-station orders or your official orders to deploy for a period of not less than 90 days; (ii) provide at least 30 days' written notice of your anticipated move-out date; (iii) pay all outstanding balances and rent through your move-out date; and (iv) make satisfactory arrangements to pay all costs incurred by us to repair the damages caused by you, your occupants or guests, and pets, consistent with the provisions of the Security Deposit paragraph above.

c. National Guard officers and enlisted members called or ordered into active state or federal service, or United States military reservists who are called to full-time active duty, may terminate this Lease if called into duty after entering into the Lease. Pursuant to the provisions of the SCRA and other applicable laws, you may be released from your obligations under the Lease, without penalty, so long as you: (i) provide a copy of your official orders; (ii) provide at least 30 days' written notice of your anticipated move-out date; (iii) pay all outstanding balances and rent through your move-out date; and (iv) make satisfactory arrangements to pay all costs incurred by us to repair the damages caused by you, your occupants or guests, and pets, consistent with the provisions of the Security Deposit paragraph above.

d. Notwithstanding the provisions of the Lease Concessions paragraph above, if you are exercising your right to terminate the Lease pursuant to the SCRA and this Military Clause paragraph, you will not be required to repay any portion of Lease concessions set forth on the Term Sheet. The release of any resident under this provision will not release any other resident or roommate unless the other resident is your spouse or dependent, as defined under the SCRA.

25. Resident Insurance. We strongly recommend that you secure a renters insurance policy covering your personal belongings, which also includes personal liability insurance covering your actions. Unless there is a prohibition imposed by affordability covenants or other restrictions applicable to the Premises, we require all residents to maintain a policy of liability insurance issued by an authorized insurance company that provides limits of liability in an amount of at least $100,000 per occurrence. Unless the box labeled "Renters Insurance Required" on the Term Sheet is unchecked, you must furnish proof of insurance to us on or before the commencement date of the Lease and, assuming you enter into renewal leases with us, you must continue to provide evidence of coverage for all subsequent renewal terms. You can obtain such insurance through Residential Insurance Agency, LLC or through the insurance agent of your choice. If you select an insurance company other than Residential Insurance Agency, LLC, you must name the Community as an Interested Party under your policy. Except where prohibited by law, if you fail to obtain and maintain liability insurance as required by this paragraph, you will be in violation of your lease obligations. In such event, we will send a written notice to you demanding that you cure the violation by procuring the insurance and supplying evidence of coverage to us. If you fail to supply evidence of such insurance to us on or before the date set forth in your notice, we reserve the right to procure liability only insurance coverage on your behalf, and to charge you for the amount of the premium paid to the insurance company, not to exceed $150.00 per year, along with an administrative fee of $40.00. You agree that this administrative fee is a liquidated damages provision and that such amount is a fair and reasonable estimate of the administrative costs we will incur as a result of procuring the liability insurance coverage for you. The premium payment made by us on your behalf, and the administrative fee we charge to procure the insurance for you, will be considered additional rent. If you fail to pay for the liability insurance and/or you allow the expiration or cancellation of any liability insurance policy during your tenancy, without substitute insurance being put in place, this will be considered a default under the Lease.

26. Corporate Units: If the name in the Resident section of the Term Sheet is a company or business (and not an individual person), then the company assumes all responsibility for damage to the Premises and any loss incurred by us or any third party that is caused by any person living in the Premises. The company also agrees to indemnify us for all claims, damages, losses and expenses related in any way to the occupancy of the Premises. The company agrees to identify all persons living in the Premises and to provide written authorization to us to release keys, key cards, and/or access cards to such occupants. The company will not allow the Premises to be used or occupied as a hotel. The company agrees to maintain, at its sole cost and expense, throughout the term of the Lease and any subsequent renewal terms, the following insurance: Commercial General Liability insurance on a form at least as broad as Insurance Services Office ("ISO") Commercial General Liability Coverage "occurrence" form CG 00 01 0196 or another ISO Commercial General Liability "occurrence" form providing equivalent coverage, providing broad form comprehensive general liability coverage, blanket contractual liability coverage, coverage for bodily injury (including death), property damage (including loss of use thereof), products and completed operations with an authorized insurance company with a rating of A X in a minimum amount of One Million Dollars

($1,000,000) per occurrence. The company must be named the insured and the company shall name the owner of the property, ERP Operating Limited Partnership, Equity Residential, Equity Residential Management, L.L.C., and their affiliates and agents (collectively, the "Lessor Entities") as additional insureds under the required policy. In the alternative, the company may purchase renters liability insurance for the Premises from an insurance company of company's choosing or through the program made available to residents at the Community through Residential Insurance Agency, LLC. If company elects to purchase such renters liability insurance through a company other than Residential Insurance Agency, LLC, the company must name the Community as an Interested Party under the policy. In any event, the company must, on or before the commencement date of the lease, deliver to us a certificate of insurance evidencing the coverage provided, and provide replacement certificates fifteen (15) days prior to the expiration of any required coverage. Except where prohibited by law, if the company fails to obtain and maintain the insurance as required by this paragraph, the company will be in violation of the Lease. In such event, we will send a written notice to the company demanding that it cure the violation by procuring the insurance and supplying evidence of coverage to us. If the company fails to supply evidence of such insurance to us on or before the date set forth in our notice, we may procure such insurance on the company's behalf and charge the company for the amount of the premium paid to the insurance company, not to exceed $150.00 per year, along with an administrative fee of $40.00. The company agrees that this administrative fee is a liquidated damages provision and that such amount is a fair and reasonable estimate of the administrative costs we will incur as a result of procuring the liability insurance coverage for the company. The premium payment made by us on the company's behalf, and the administrative fee we charge to procure the insurance for the company, will be considered additional rent. If the company fails to pay for the liability insurance and/or the company allows the expiration or cancellation of any liability insurance policy during the company's tenancy, without substitute insurance being put in place, this will be considered a default under the Lease.

27. Default Remedies: If you fail to perform any of your obligations under this Lease, we may exercise all of our rights under this Lease, at law or in equity. This may include giving you notice to correct or cure such default, taking action to recover possession of the Premises via the eviction process or otherwise, and/or terminating the Lease, all in accordance with applicable law. In addition, we can recover from you all damages, costs and expenses, including, among other things, damage to the Premises, cleaning and trash removal charges, the costs to repair, replace or restore personal property, delinquent Total Monthly Rent and additional rent (described in paragraph 5 above) such as utilities, late fees, and returned item fees, and the amount by which unpaid rent for the balance of the Lease term exceeds the amount of such rental loss that you prove could be reasonably avoided. We can also recover the costs of taking possession of and re-renting the Premises and other fees and charges we incur in enforcing this Lease and collecting outstanding amounts hereunder, even if we do not file formal litigation. The party that does not prevail in any litigation commenced under this Lease will pay all attorneys' fees and costs reasonably incurred by the prevailing party in prosecuting or defending such litigation, up to a maximum of $2,000. If the Lease is terminated early, you must also repay us a portion of the concessions you received as described in the Lease Concessions paragraph above. In all cases, we reserve the right to report your payment history, outstanding balances, returned item fees, late fees, defaults, and other payment-related activity to consumer reporting agencies who track such information.

28. Abandoned Property: You understand that if you leave personal property in the Premises after you move-out or if you put your property in areas of the Community that are not designated for your use, we can determine that such property has been abandoned and we can take steps to remove or dispose of the property consistent with applicable laws.

29. Notices: All notices that we provide to you will be considered delivered when (i) we personally hand them to you or, if you are absent from the Premises, personally hand them to a person of suitable age and discretion in the Premises, with a copy deposited the same day in the U.S. Mail and sent via first class mail addressed to the Premises; or, (ii) in the absence of anyone being present in the Premises, by attaching a copy to the outside of the door, with a copy deposited the same day in the U.S. Mail and sent via first class mail addressed to the Premises. When allowed by law, we may choose to serve notice on you by mail only. Additionally, by providing us with your e-mail address and cell phone number, you agree that we may communicate with you from time to time via e-mail and/or text message and via our resident website, My.EquityApartments.com. All notices from you will be considered delivered when you put them in the U.S. Mail addressed to the management office and send them via first class or certified mail, or when you personally deliver them to one of our employees at the management office during normal business hours. The person designated as the on-site manager for the Community is the person authorized to act on our behalf in connection with this Lease. More formal notices, including service of process on the owner or manager, can also be made by serving our registered service agent:

CT Corporation System
818 West Seventh Street
Los Angeles, CA 90017
Telephone Number: 800-888-9207

30. Liability: To the maximum extent permitted by law, you agree that you will look solely to the owner's interest in the Community for the recovery of any judgment against us and that the owner, the management company, and any of their related and affiliated entities (and any of their officers, directors, trustees, employees, partners, shareholders, insurers, agents and representatives) will never be personally liable for such judgment. Except to the extent prohibited by law, we will not be liable for any damage, loss or injury to persons or property occurring in the Premises or in other areas of the Community. To the fullest extent permitted by law, you agree to hold us harmless and to indemnify us from any such liability or claim.

31. Fire and Casualty: If you cannot occupy the Premises because of a fire, explosion, casualty or any other health/safety issue which is not a result of your negligence or intentional conduct (or the negligence or intentional conduct of any person living in the Premises or any guest of such person), we shall determine, in our sole discretion, whether the Premises or the building is damaged or destroyed, and we may elect, in our sole discretion, to repair or re-build the Premises. Rent shall remain due and owing unless we, in our sole discretion, determine that the Premises or the building is uninhabitable. No penalty shall accrue against us for any reasonable delay in repairing the Premises by reason of adjustment of insurance proceeds, labor disputes, or any other cause beyond our reasonable control. While we repair the Premises, the rent will be abated during the timeframe the repairs are being conducted. If we provide alternative accommodations at our expense during such repair, the rent will not be abated. Finally, if the damage to the Premises is caused by your negligence or intentional conduct (or the negligence or intentional conduct of any person living in the Premises or any guest), the rent for the Premises will not be abated, you will be responsible for paying rent on the Premises and for any costs we incur to repair the damage, and we will not provide alternative accommodations to you. If we elect to not repair the Premises or if the Premises are substantially or totally destroyed, we can elect to terminate this Lease.

32. Waivers: Our failure to insist upon strict compliance with the terms of this Lease or any delay by us in enforcing your obligations under the Lease will not constitute a waiver of our right to act on other breaches or to make demands on you to perform. Your obligation to pay rent during the Lease term or during your continued occupancy of the Premises will continue notwithstanding our issuance of any notice, demand for possession, notice of termination of tenancy, institution of any action or forcible detainer, or any other act which might result in the termination of your right to live in the Premises. Unless otherwise restricted by applicable law, our acceptance of rent from you after it falls due or after knowledge of your breach of any obligations under this Lease is not a waiver of our rights under this Lease nor is it an election to not proceed under any provision of this Lease or the law.

33. Severability: If any provision of this Lease is determined to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws which are in effect during the Lease term, then, we will substitute similar provisions or language that will make such clause or provision legal, valid, and enforceable. If substitute provisions are not available, then the illegal or unenforceable provision shall be removed from the Lease, but the remaining provisions in the Lease shall remain intact.

34. [Intentionally Omitted]

35. Laws Governing this Lease/Venue: This Lease shall be governed by the laws of the state in which the Community is located, and all legal action arising from this Lease shall be tried in the county where the Community is located.

36. Written Agreement: This Lease, which includes the Term Sheet, these Terms and Conditions, the Resident Handbook and Community Policies, the Move-In/Move-Out Inspection Form, and all Lease addenda or other agreements that may be referenced on the Term Sheet or attached hereto, contains our entire agreement. We both acknowledge that there are no oral understandings between us, and neither of us have relied on any representations, express or implied, that are not contained in this Lease.

37. Joint and Several Liability: Each resident, including all co-residents, is jointly and severally liable for each and every provision of this Lease.

38. General: You confirm that you are of legal age or capacity to enter into a binding Lease for lodging.

39. Additional State-Specific Requirements and Disclosures:

a. California Proposition 65: California Proposition 65, the Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986, requires that persons be warned about the presence of chemicals such as tobacco smoke known to the state of California to cause cancer, birth defects or other reproductive harm. Areas within the Community contain such chemicals.

b. Registered Sex Offenders Notice: The California Department of Justice, sheriff's departments, police departments serving jurisdictions of 200,000 or more people and many other local law enforcement authorities maintain for public access a data base of the locations of persons required to register. Pursuant to Section 290.46 of the Penal Code, information about specified registered sex offenders is made available to the public via an Internet Web site maintained by the Department of Justice at www.meganslaw.ca.gov. Depending on an offender's criminal history, this information will include either the address at which the offender resides or the community of residence and ZIP Code in which he or she resides.

c. Universal Waste Notice: Under the California Universal Waste Rule, universal waste, such as batteries, mercury thermostats, fluorescent lights, cathode ray tube devices (computer monitors, televisions), cell phones, mercury thermometers, and other products containing mercury or other heavy metals are hazardous wastes and are required to be disposed of according to the California Code of Regulations, Title 22, Division 4.5. A complete list of universal waste products, and information about disposal and recycling options, is available on the Department of Toxic Substances Control (DTSC) website at: www.dtsc.ca.gov/HazardousWaste/UniversalWaste/index.cfm. You understand that items considered to be universal waste under the law may not be disposed of in the garbage receptacles we provide at the Community. Rather, such items must be disposed of properly pursuant to the law. You also understand that your failure to properly dispose of your personal universal waste products may subject you to fines and penalties associated with non-compliance with the disposal requirements of the law.

UTILITIES ADDENDUM

This Utilities Addendum ("Addendum") is dated effective as of the date on the Residential Lease - Term Sheet (the "Term Sheet") to which this Addendum is attached and made a part of (the "Lease") by and between Lessor and Resident for the Premises at the Community identified in the Lease.

This Addendum provides additional information regarding those utilities for which the Community receives and pays the total utility bill (or bills) for the Community, and for which you either pay us or, in some cases, pay our billing vendor on our behalf. As noted in the Utilities section of the Term Sheet and the Utilities paragraph of the Terms and Conditions, the methods used to determine your portion of the costs for these utilities may be based on a submeter reading, an allocation method, or a flat fee, as described below. The Community's bills for these utilities may include additional fees or charges imposed by the utility company or municipality providing the service to the Community, in which case, such additional fees or charges may also be included in the bill you receive from our billing vendor. In some instances, these additional fees and charges will be itemized separately on the bill you receive from our billing vendor. You should also be advised that, in most cases, the Community's bills for these utilities will include the cost to provide these utility services in the common areas of the Community, which may include swimming pools, lawns and landscaped areas. As a result, your portion of such utility bills may include a portion of the cost to provide such utility services in the common areas.

1. If your Term Sheet indicates that a utility bill is based on a submeter reading, the reading will be used along with the Community's most recent actual bill for the utility to calculate your bill by either (i) dividing the Community's bill for the utility by the usage shown on the meters for all apartments in the Community and multiplying that number by the usage shown on your meter; or (ii) dividing the Community's bill for the utility by the total usage from the master meter(s) for the Community and multiplying that number by the usage shown on your meter; or (iii) using the actual rate shown on the Community's bill for the utility multiplied by the usage shown on your meter. If the utility company charges us a fixed fee or base charge for each apartment, we will pass that charge through to you. If the Premises has a submeter in place, you will allow us and our vendors to access the Premises from time to time to read the submeter or perform repairs. You also agree that you will not tamper with, adjust, or disconnect any submeter or other measuring device that is installed in the Premises. If we are unable to read the submeter, your charges may be estimated based on prior usage or an average consumption rate.

2. If your Term Sheet indicates that a utility is allocated based on square footage, your bill will be calculated by dividing the Community's bill for the utility by the total square footage of the apartments at the Community, multiplying that amount by the square footage of the Premises, and prorating that amount based on the number of days you had possession of the Premises during the billing period.

3. If your Term Sheet indicates that a utility is allocated based on number of occupants, your bill will be calculated by dividing the Community's bill for the utility by the total number of occupants at the Community, multiplying that amount by the number of occupants in your Premises, and prorating that amount based on the number of days you had possession of the Premises during the billing period. Rather than using the actual number of occupants for this calculation, we may elect to use a ratio occupancy that results in multiple occupants being counted on a less than a "one-for-one" basis. By way of example, ratio occupancy might allow for one person in an apartment to count as one person in the allocation formula while two persons in an apartment may count as only 1.6 persons in the allocation formula.

4. If your Term Sheet indicates that a utility is allocated based on a combination of square footage and number of occupants, your bill will be calculated by dividing the Community's bill for the utility, applying the square footage formula described in paragraph 2 above to a portion of the bill, applying the occupancy formula described in paragraph 3 above to the remainder of the bill, and adding the two results together.

5. If your Term Sheet indicates that a utility is allocated equally among the number of occupied units at the Community (regardless of square footage or number of occupants), then your bill will be calculated (i) by dividing the Community's bill for the utility by the total number of occupied apartments in the Community during the billing period and prorating that amount based on the number of days you had possession of the Premises during the billing period; or (ii) in an amount that is based on the Community's average bills over a period of time, prorated based on the number of days you had possession of the Premises during the billing period.

©Equity Residential 2010. All Rights Reserved.

6. If your Term Sheet indicates that a utility charge is based on a flat monthly charge, then your charge for such utility will be fixed for the term of your Lease in an amount we communicate to you at Lease signing, and will either be reflected in the Total Monthly Rent section of the Term Sheet or on the bill you receive from our billing vendor.

7. Our billing vendor may charge us for account set-up fees, meter maintenance fees, monthly billing fees, and other fees and charges in connection with their billing services. If the billing vendor charges such fees, the billing vendor will include the fees on your bill and you will reimburse us for those amounts along with your payment to us for the utility charges.

8. The utility charges for the last billing period that you occupy the Premises will not be based on the Community's most recent actual bill for the utility but will, instead, be estimated by calculating the average of at least three months' of charges for the utility (as allocated to the Premises), dividing that average by the number of days in the billing period, and then multiplying that per diem charge by the number of days you had possession of the Premises since the last billing period ended. Where required, we will use the actual submeter reading for your last month's charge. Your charge for utilities for the final month you occupy the Premises will, if available, be communicated to you and are payable by you prior to move-out. If the charges for the utilities are not available at the time you move out, they will be included on the Statement of Deposit Account that is created and sent to you after you move out.

9. We reserve the right, upon written notice to you, to change the billing method for any utility. We may be required to change this billing method if, for example, the Premises contains submeters and the submeters are unable to be read, we elect to install submeters at the Community, we are required to modify the billing allocation method or formula as a result of legislative or legal requirements, or for other business reasons. By signing the Lease, you agree that we can do this.

10. We do not charge residents at the Community more than we pay for the utilities that are allocated according to these methods and, in some cases, if the actual bill for a utility in some months is significantly greater than the average bills for the utility, we may elect to calculate the residents' charges based on an amount that is less than the actual amount billed to the Community. If the Community's actual utility bill is for a billing period that is longer or shorter than our billing period (which is typically a calendar month), we may prorate the bill to reflect the number of days in our billing period.

11. You agree that it is impractical or extremely difficult to determine the exact amount of the utilities that you, your occupants and guests consume during the billing period and that the method used to determine your share of the Community's actual bill for the utility service, as described on the Term Sheet and in this Addendum, which may not reflect your actual usage, is fair and reasonable.
