6. Comments from Board Members

Chair Terry Vrabec: I hope staff are getting a break after all the impressive work done to make the Air Fair a successful event. It's a lot of work and you all do a wonderful job. Thank you.
Vice Chair Kathleen Rossetti: The Friends of the Library hosted a fundraiser called A Novel Evening with just under 90 attendees. It was a sit down dinner with a live auction and silent raffle. We've heard a lot of positive feedback. Our goal was to raise funds for the Summer Reading Program. Seeing all of the traffic box art bring a great sense of accomplishment. It's been a lot work and it's so nice to see it moving forward.
Jim Roth: The additional acreage for Skyline Park is very exciting. The Friday night event at the Air Fair was amazing; the pyro was such a great surprise. I'll be at Luke Days this weekend – you've set a high bar for them. I'm so excited to see all of the artwork being installed around the city. The new mural on Verrado is so impressive. It's been a lot of work, but it's also been a lot of fun.
Anastazia McMurray: Great information tonight. I enjoy being able to pick the art with everyone. I'm really looking forward to everything we are going to get done this year.
Garnett Sailor: Thank you CSD, for everything you do. My family enjoyed the air show and my guests were thoroughly impressed.
Holly Roehl: Our goal for A Novel Evening was to raise $10,000. I believe we met that, though we don't have official numbers yet. The dinner served was provided by the chef from Heritage restaurant and he did a wonderful job, bringing themed menu items. Our next big thing is the Friends of the Library spring book sale which opens to Friends members tomorrow, to the public on Friday, ending with a $3-5 bag sale on Saturday.
Jack Lynch: Thank you for the information about the artwork, it's all very impressive. Regarding the meeting schedule: I want to confirm our next meeting is May 20, and there is a special meeting June 10.
Riley Quinlan: Kudos on the Air Fair. Every year it gets better. There is always something new and fresh. I like the concept of the traffic box art, it's great. Having a mature art program is key for the city.
