PROCLAMATION

Declaring

National Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder
Awareness Month
June 2025

- WHEREAS, the month of June serves as a reminder of the remarkable resilience of the human mind, as well as its vulnerabilities. It affirms that experiencing emotional distress is a natural part of being human—and unlike machines, we possess not only the capacity to feel deeply, but also the ability to heal, especially when we support one another; and
- WHEREAS, trauma can present in many forms. "Big T" trauma refers to events involving actual or threatened death or serious injury, such as war, natural disasters, or physical assault. "Small T" trauma arises from distressing but non-life-threatening experiences, including divorce, financial hardship, or sudden relocation; and
- WHEREAS, while some individuals recover from post-traumatic stress within weeks or months, others may experience long-term symptoms requiring extended care. PTSD is a highly treatable condition; however, stigma and lack of awareness often prevent individuals from seeking the help they need; and
- WHEREAS, National PTSD Awareness Month aims to break down those barriers by educating the public, reducing stigma, and promoting effective treatments such as counseling, support groups, and medication; and
- WHEREAS, open dialogue about PTSD encourages understanding and compassion, making it more likely that those affected will reach out for support. The journey to recovery is unique for everyone, but healing is always possible.

NOW, THEREFORE, be it proclaimed on this 24th day of June, 2025, that I, Maria Davila, Mayor of the City of South Gate, on behalf of the City Council, do hereby declare June 2025 as National Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder Awareness Month and urge all citizens to learn about the signs, symptoms, and treatment options available to support those living with PTSD and other mental health challenges.
