L. DISCUSSION

L.1. Review of Findings on Secondary Scheduling and Equity | Presentation by Cheryl Hibbeln, President, IlluminatED Collective Referred to the Board by: Gary Storts, Superintendent

Storts provided background on the item, explaining that the purpose of the schedule review is to address feedback from students and staff regarding barriers created by the current bell schedules. He noted that during the most recent negotiation session, there was agreement to examine this issue. Storts emphasized that a master schedule is not neutral, as it can either reinforce or undermine district priorities, and stated that the goal of the review is to determine whether current structures need to be revisited or refined. Gary reviewed the purpose, scope of work, and desired outcomes of the review and introduced Cheryl Hibbeln, who provided an update to the Board.

Hibbeln addressed the Board and presented an overview of the role of instruction, culture, and structure in the design process. She described schedules as 10-month strategic roadmaps that organize and allocate resources in ways that protect site priorities, noting that improving outcomes requires alignment between intentions, actions, and results. She shared that the traditional six-period mastery model is no longer effective and reviewed standard graduation requirements, state mandates, and the balance between core courses and specialty electives. Hibbeln outlined her review process, which included artifact review, site and leadership discussions, SSDT engagement through meetings, surveys, and staff input, analysis of four bell schedule models, review of multiple data sources, and an overall schedule assessment.

Note: The Student Board Member exited the meeting at 6:14 p.m.

Hibbeln reviewed key findings from the schedule assessment, emphasizing the importance of building schedules that push services in rather than out. She discussed the impact of grading practices on scheduling, the need to establish alternative ways for students to meet graduation requirements, and opportunities to better align and expand CTE pathways and work-based learning experiences. She also reviewed snapshots of student input and high school and middle school staff feedback, key data highlights, and SSDT recommendations, including a review of various scheduling models. She noted that this phase of the process is intended to inform the Board of available options, with future phases focused on vetting options, design, and potential implementation.

Additional information was presented regarding middle school schedules, including a review of the current bell schedule and various alternative models, shared for comparison purposes. Hibbeln also reviewed proposed schedules, timelines, and support considerations, noting that additional vetting is needed. The Zoe schedule was reviewed along with a proposed new model developed in collaboration with Big Picture Learning, with an emphasis on engagement and hope as key drivers in an alternative school setting. Cost considerations for the different schedules were discussed, noting that ECS has historically been generous in staffing allocations.

L.2. Enrollment and Attendance Update
Referred to the Board by: Paul Ziegler, Assistant Superintendent of Business Services

Ziegler provided an update to the Board on enrollment and attendance, including a recap of CBEDS results, average daily attendance (ADA), and Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF) revenue per student.

L.3. Update on Governor's Proposal for the 2026-2027 State Budget
Referred to the Board by: Paul Ziegler, Assistant Superintendent of Business Services

Ziegler provided an update to the Board on the Governor's Proposal for the 2026–2027 State Budget. He reviewed key components that could impact ECS, including the cost-of-living adjustment (COLA), potential funding for community schools, and proposed one-time funding through a recovery emergency block grant. He also highlighted notable elements of the proposal, including a proposed settle-up mechanism to help balance the state budget and governance reform that would shift oversight from the California Department of Education to the State Board of Education, with leadership appointed by the Governor rather than the elected State Superintendent of Public Instruction. He noted that no new categorical programs are proposed.

L.4. Annual Eureka City School District English Learner Advisory Committee (DELAC) Report
Referred to the Board by: Jennifer Johnson, Assistant Superintendent of Educational Services

Johnson provided a review of the responsibilities of the District English Learner Advisory Committee (DELAC), including elections, bylaws, conducting districtwide needs assessments, establishing goals and objectives for English Learner programs and services, monitoring compliance, presenting to the Board, and providing input on the LCAP. CONSENT ITEM

WHAT:

The Governing Board is asked to approve the following Field Trip:

Zoe Barnum High School Trade School Tour

WHY (briefly explain why approval is important; and, if applicable, how it is connected to the Site, District or Strategic Plan):

The Northern California Trade School Tour is an important initiative for Zoe Barnum High School learners as it creates a direct link between academic instruction and tangible career pathways. By visiting regional technical institutions and interacting with professionals in fields like welding, electrical technology, and healthcare, students gain exposure to high-demand vocational careers that offer strong earning potential but do not require a traditional four-year college degree. This experience is vital for demystifying technical training and empowering all students to make well-informed, proactive choices regarding their post-secondary education and career goals.

This tour represents a strategic and impactful use of our Comprehensive Support and Improvement (CSI) funding from the CDE, directly supporting the core mission of enhancing student outcomes and increasing College and Career Readiness (CCR). The initiative addresses key CSI metrics by improving post-secondary options, particularly for students needing targeted support, thereby helping to close the achievement gap. Furthermore, by demonstrating the real-world relevance of classroom subjects like math and science, the tour boosts overall student engagement and motivation, which is a key factor in reducing chronic absenteeism.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING
PROGRAM YEAR 2025-2026

Program Description

The California Student Opportunity and Access Program (Cal-SOAP) is a statewide program of the California Student Aid Commission (CSAC) that provides information about postsecondary education and financial aid to secondary and post-secondary students. North Coast Cal-SOAP provides these services in Humboldt and Del Norte Counties with the support of Humboldt County Office of Education (HCOE) as the fiscal agent. Base funding for Cal-SOAP comes from CSAC and is matched with contributions from consortium partners and school placement sites.

General Terms

- This agreement will outline the responsibilities of both parties for the 2025-2026 program year (July 1, 2025 – June 30, 2026).
- Both parties will adhere to program goals, policies, and regulations stated in the Cal-SOAP Handbook.
- To qualify for Cal-SOAP, Success Coaches must be at least part-time college students, demonstrate need for financial aid, and not work more than 20 hours per week.
- Since Success Coaches are also college students, their schedule may change 2nd semester. Success Coaches have time off in accordance with their college calendars, which means they have a longer winter break, a different spring break, and may end their employment before the K-12 school year ends. However, we do encourage them to follow the K-12 calendar by offering a $3,000 scholarship/stipend if they complete 450 hours.

North Coast Cal-SOAP Responsibilities

- Provide Success Coach services as outlined in the job description.
- Recruit, interview, and screen Success Coach applicants (Live Scan/TB).
- Hire and payroll Success Coaches at $17.00-$19.00 per hour, provide statutory benefits, and offer three days of sick leave per year not to exceed 48 hours.
- Provide in-depth trainings, formal evaluation feedback, support and guidance, and serve as lead in any corrective action, if necessary.
- Provide customized Webgrants reports to counseling team to identify seniors who have not submitted a financial aid application, who have application errors or have been selected for verification, or who's GPAs have not been matched to a financial aid application.
- Provide multiple uAspire financial aid trainings for counseling staff.
- Provide option for one counselor from school to service on Cal-SOAP Governing Board.
- Write annual program application, report outcomes, write reports, and manage budget.

Partnering School Responsibilities and Timeline

General:

- Provide a workspace and designate a site supervisor who will establish a weekly meeting time and complete a performance evaluation of their Success Coach by the end of the first semester (form will be provided.)
- Provide Success Coach with school site orientation and school handbook.
- Promote & publicize Cal-SOAP Events and Success Coach services, including the Cal-SOAP logo.

Data Access:

- By September 15, 2025, assign Success Coach a school email and access to Student Information System (SIS) in order to facilitate individualized support to students (to determine CalGrant GPA eligibility, A-G coursework for college admissions, and class schedule for scheduling advising meetings.

- By October 1, 2025, upload GPAs into CSAC's Webgrants System for the current senior class and last year's senior class so that seniors can create their Webgrants4Students accounts during the first Cal-SOAP financial aid workshop presented in senior classes. Upload any new students individually into Webgrants throughout the year.
  - Education Code Section 69432.9(c)(2) requires current year senior GPAs to be uploaded into Webgrants by Oct.1, unless the student has opted out. High school students have a two-year window to qualify for a High School Entitlement Cal Grant—as seniors and one year after graduation. Although optional, it is a best practice to also submit GPAs for prior year graduates, to ensure that students who were not awarded a Cal Grant during senior year have a second chance at being awarded a Cal Grant using a recalculated GPA that includes grades earned during senior year.

- By October 1, 2025, in accordance with statewide grant requirements, provide Cal-SOAP with the following information for all Seniors:
  - First Name, Last Name, DOB, Gender, Grade, SSID (Student State ID Number), Graduation Year, Race, Ethnicity, Parent's Highest Educational Background, and Y/N if media/photo release is on file. Template will be provided.

- By May 30, 2026, provide email and phone contact for seniors so Cal-SOAP staff can continue to provide financial aid & college admissions support throughout the summer to combat summer melt.

- In August 2026, provide Cal-SOAP with student mailing addresses for all grades for the purpose of mailing home Save the Date postcards for the 2026 North Coast College & Career Expo and Financial Aid Information and Workshops for Seniors.

Matching Funds:

- Provide a cash match of $6,000 ($2,000 per Success Coach).
- Provide in-kind match documentation for supervision and workspace.
- Match is billed by Cal-SOAP by December and is typically not adjusted due to attrition or schedule changes as there are upfront costs of screening, training, and materials that are not charged to the school and Cal-SOAP attempts to refill positions whenever possible.

I have read and agree to the conditions set forth in this agreement.

Proposal

Proposal for BPL School Transformation Coaching & Support Services

This proposal outlines a partnership between Big Picture Learning (BPL) and Zoe Barnum High School / Eureka City Schools to support the school's continued transformation toward a more connected, personalized, and purpose-driven learning environment. The partnership is grounded in a shared vision that every student is known, challenged, and supported through meaningful relationships and relevant real-world experiences that prepare them for life beyond graduation.

BPL will provide structured coaching, professional learning, and strategic guidance to help Zoe Barnum High School:

- Establish a cohesive vision and culture centered on relevance, relationships, and real-world learning.
- Strengthen advisory as the central structure for personalization, student belonging, goal setting, and exploratory learning.
- Expand access to internships, projects, and exhibitions that connect learning to students' interests, aspirations, and community needs.
- Build staff and leadership capacity to design and assess learning through demonstrated competencies and authentic outcomes.
- Develop sustainable systems that align instruction, advisory, and community partnerships around student growth and opportunity.

The partnership is designed to move from foundational capacity, to systems strengthening and competency-based implementation, and ultimately to long-term sustainability and coherence between vision, practice, and community partnerships.

SCOPE OF WORK

Sessions may include one to one leadership coaching, advisor support, planning and problem solving, reflection on practice, or consultation around advisory, internships, competency based learning, assessment, and community partnerships. Sessions are responsive to current conditions and may be used for individual or small group support as needed. Quantity: 34 hours

AGENDA ITEM

Agenda Title:	Approval of Values-Aligned Joint Purchasing Agreement for School Food Authorities
Meeting Date:	February 12, 2026
Item:	Consent

WHAT (the board is asked to discuss, receive, approve, or adopt)
The Governing Board is asked to approve the Values-Aligned Joint Purchasing Agreement for School Food Authorities between Eureka City Schools (ECS), Del Norte Unified School District, McKinleyville Unified School District, and Arcata Elementary School District, with Humboldt County Office of Education (HCOE) serving as the Lead Agency.

WHY (briefly explain why the action or discussion is important; and if applicable, how it is connected to site, district, or strategic plans)
Creating a values-aligned purchasing collective through HCOE represents a strategic shift from simple transactional buying to a community-centered procurement model. By pooling resources, districts can leverage their combined influence to transform the local food system while improving their own operational efficiency. The collective can establish shared specifications that align with regional values (i.e. "Humboldt-Grown", organic, or antibiotic-free). This ensures that every product hitting the cafeteria tray meets a high baseline of quality agreed upon by the member districts. By volume-buying as a single entity, the collective hopes to negotiate significantly lower per-unit costs.

Strategic Design - Vision
Subject does not apply to a Strategic Framework

HISTORY (list previous staff or board action(s) with dates if possible)
There is no local precedent for this specific model in Humboldt / Del Norte County, but it is a strategy that has been successfully implemented in rural and isolated districts that share our logistical hurdles - high freight costs, limited vendor routes, and smaller student populations.

HOW MUCH (list the revenue amount $ and/or the expense amount $)
Unlike private Group Purchasing Organizations (GPOs) that often charge membership dues or percentage-based fees, this group would operate as a public-service partnership. There are no "buy-in" costs for districts to participate in the collective. The fiscal impact of the collective's combined purchasing power is undetermined.

WHO (list the name of the contact person(s), job title, and site location)
Paul Ziegler, Assistant Superintendent of Business Services

VALUES-ALIGNED JOINT PURCHASING AGREEMENT FOR SCHOOL FOOD AUTHORITIES

This Values-Aligned Joint Purchasing Agreement ("Agreement") is made and entered into as of 12/18/2025, by and between the following public school districts, each of which is a "School Food Authority" ("SFA") under 7 C.F.R. § 210.2:

Humboldt County Office of Education, a local educational agency that provides administrative, fiscal, and educational oversight and support to local public school districts and serves specific student populations, and is organized and existing under the laws of the State of California ("Lead Agency");

Del Norte Unified School District, a public school district organized and existing under the laws of the State of California (hereafter a "Participating District");

McKinleyville Unified School District, a public school district organized and existing under the laws of the State of California (hereafter a "Participating District");

Arcata Elementary School District, a public school district organized and existing under the laws of the State of California (hereafter a "Participating District");

Eureka City Schools, a public school district organized and existing under the laws of the State of California (hereafter a "Participating District").

Collectively, the parties are referred to as the "Parties."

RECITALS

WHEREAS, some Parties operate a nonprofit school food service program as an SFA, and desires to obtain values-aligned foods and supplies at the best available prices, quality, and service in the procurement of food and related supplies;

WHEREAS, pursuant to 2 C.F.R. § 200.318, each Party maintains and uses documented procedures for procurement transactions under a Federal award or subaward that are consistent with California and local laws and regulations and the standards identified in 2 C.F.R. §§ 200.317 through 200.327, as applicable;

WHEREAS, Education Code sections 17595 et seq. and Public Contract Code sections 10298, 10299, and 20118 authorize public school districts to engage in cooperative purchasing arrangements with other public agencies;

WHEREAS, the Parties desire to obtain the best available price, quality, and service in the procurement of values-aligned foods and supplies and seek to enhance their services to students including but not limited to more local, sustainable, climate smart and organic foods and goods while increasing procurement efficiency and achieving some level of cost savings:

WHEREAS, the Parties are dedicated to leveraging their collective purchasing power to prioritize values-aligned foods and supplies—deriving more favorable outcomes for SFAs, farmers/vendors, and students; enhancing districts' purchasing capacity; reducing procurement administrative burden; while achieving more robust supply chain reliability than they could independently and have come to work cooperatively under a Values-Aligned Purchasing Collective, as demonstrated by this Agreement.

WHEREAS, the Parties wish to cooperate in procuring values-aligned food and related items for their respective school nutrition programs through a shared solicitation and contracting process without creating a separate legal entity under the Joint Exercise of Powers Act (Gov. Code § 6500 et seq.).

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants contained in this Agreement, the Parties agree as follows:

AGREEMENT

1. Purpose.

The purpose of this Agreement is to establish a cooperative framework under which the Lead Agency will conduct solicitations and award contracts for food and related supplies, with a particular focus on but not limited to procuring sustainable products and incidental services in a manner that derives more favorable outcomes for SFAs, farmers/vendors, and students; enhances districts' purchasing capacity; reduces procurement administrative burden; while achieving more robust supply chain reliability for participating SFAs than they could independently when compared with similar products or incidental services.

2. Powers.

Each Party shall possess in its own name all powers granted to it by law, including but not limited to, any powers common to the Parties and the following enumerated powers:

A. To make and enter into contracts consistent with this Agreement, including, but not limited to, contracts to procure, provide, or share food, goods and related supplies and incidental services on behalf of or for the benefit of the Parties

B. To provide to the Parties such other information, data, or assistance as may be necessary to carry out cooperative procurement, contract management, compliance, or related programs as determined by each individual Party;

C. To appoint a Steering Committee, if it so chooses, and adopt rules, regulations, policies, bylaws, and procedures as necessary to govern the operation of the Parties' shared exercise of powers;

D. To add parties to this Agreement as specified herein;

E. To exercise such other powers and authority as are necessary and proper to carry out the purposes of this Agreement and as may be permitted under the Joint Exercise of Powers Act without the need to create a separate legal entity joint powers authority (Gov. Code § 6500 et seq.). Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to create a joint powers authority or entity, joint venture, partnership or agency relationship among the Parties, and no Party shall have authority to bind another. Nothing in this Agreement prohibits the Parties from creating a separate legal entity joint powers authority through a future amended agreement should they determine to do so.

3. Designation of Lead Agency.

The Parties hereby designate the Humboldt County Office of Education as the Lead Procurement Agency ("Lead Agency") responsible for preparing solicitations, evaluating bids and ensuring compliance for cooperative use.

4. Role of Participating District.

Each Participating District shall review the values-aligned solicitation documents, assist in the evaluation of submitted bids, execute its own participation agreements/vendor contracts or purchase orders, pay its invoices, and maintain its own procurement records.

Each Participating District reserves the right to make independent purchases without obligation to use the Values-Aligned Purchasing Collective's contracts.

Unless otherwise stated, the Values-Aligned Purchasing Collective actions shall be made by a simple majority vote of ⅔ of Parties (via electronic communication, in person voting or both) and shall constitute recommendations only to the Lead Agency.

5. No Joint Powers Authority Created.

This Agreement does not create a separate legal entity joint powers authority under Government Code § 6500 et seq. Each Party remains independent and expressly retains all rights and powers to finance, plan, procure, contract for, manage, and operate its own food service programs, facilities, and related activities as authorized by the laws governing it. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to impair or control any Party's independent authority, discretion, or responsibilities with respect to its own food service operations or procurement decisions. No Party shall be required to participate in, or purchase through, any procurement conducted by the Parties, or to provide additional personnel, equipment, or services to the Parties beyond those expressly set forth in this Agreement, without that Party's written consent. The debts, liabilities, and obligations of any individual Party shall not constitute debts, liabilities, or obligations of any other Party without that Party's written consent.

6. Term and Termination.

This Agreement shall become effective upon full execution by the Lead Agency and not less than one (1) other public school district ("Effective Date") and remain in effect for a period of three (3) years, unless terminated earlier by mutual agreement or with 60 days' written notice. The Agreement may be renewed thereafter by mutual written consent of all Parties.

In the event a Party terminates its participation in this Agreement, the terminating Party shall remain responsible for payment of any outstanding obligations or invoices incurred prior to the effective date of termination.

7. Compliance with Laws.

All procurements shall comply with applicable federal, state, and local laws, including 2 C.F.R. Part 200, 7 C.F.R. Part 210, Education Code §§ 17595–17596, and Public Contract Code §§ 10298, 10299, and 20118, as applicable.

8. Indemnification.

To the furthest extent permitted by California law, each Party (such Party providing indemnification, the "Indemnifying Party") shall, at its sole expense, indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the other Party and its governing board, trustees, officers, employees, and volunteers (collectively, the "Indemnified Parties") from any and all damages, demands, losses, liabilities, claims, suits, actions or injury ("Claims") of any kind, nature, and description, including, but not limited to, personal injury, death, property damage, and consultants' or attorneys' fees and costs, directly or indirectly arising out of, connected with, or resulting from the negligence or willful misconduct of the Indemnifying Party or its employees, officers, and volunteers, regarding this Agreement, to the extent caused by such negligence or willful misconduct. This obligation shall not extend to acts of fraud, corruption, or malice. The provisions of this section shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

9. Records and Audit.

Each Party shall maintain and provide access to records related to procurements conducted under this Agreement for at least three (3) years or longer if required by law. Financial records shall be retained and made available in accordance with each Party's applicable laws, regulations and policies governing records retention, and in compliance with applicable federal record-retention and audit rules (2 C.F.R. § 200.334; 2 C.F.R. Part 200, Subpart F).

10. Conflict of Interest and Ethical Compliance.

Each Party shall comply with its governing board's conflict of interest policies and applicable provisions of 2 C.F.R. § 200.318(c). No employee, officer, or agent shall participate in the selection, award, or administration of a contract where a conflict of interest exists (as defined by each Party's procurement procedures and code of conduct policies), including any financial interest, direct or indirect in violation of Government Code sections 1090 et seq., the Political Reform Act (Government Code sections 81000 et seq.), and 2 C.F.R. § 200.318(c)(1).

11. Cost Allocation.

The Lead Agency may recover administrative costs incurred in preparing and administering cooperative solicitations. Such costs shall be equitably apportioned among the Participating Districts as agreed in writing prior to solicitation release.

12. Cooperation.

The Parties shall fully cooperate with each other in conjunction with this Agreement and act reasonably in the exercise of any discretion to assure that they all continue to benefit from the Agreement. Each Party to this Agreement shall execute and deliver to all other Parties all instruments and documents as may be reasonably necessary to carry out this Agreement to provide and secure to each Party the full and complete enjoyment of its rights and privileges under this Agreement.

13. Withdrawal.

A Party may withdraw from participation in this Agreement upon sixty (60) days' written notice, provided that such withdrawal shall not affect solicitations or contracts already in progress unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Lead Agency.

14. Dispute Resolution.

Disputes arising under this Agreement shall first be submitted to the Lead Agency for informal resolution. If unresolved, the matter may be referred to the superintendents of the Participating Districts for mediation before any legal action is filed. Each Party shall bear its own costs and expenses, including attorney's fees, arising out of or relating to any grievance, dispute, or claim filed under this Agreement. The filing Party shall not be entitled to reimbursement from the other Parties for such costs.

15. Annual Review and Renewal.

Upon expiration of the Term, this Agreement may be renewed for additional one-year terms by mutual written consent of all Parties. The Parties shall conduct an annual review to evaluate performance of the Values-Aligned Purchasing Collective Project, solicitations issued as part of this Agreement and recommend adjustments if necessary.

16. New Party Admissions.

Additional school districts or other public agencies may become parties to this Agreement upon approval by two-thirds of the Values-Aligned Purchasing Collective membership and execution of a written joinder agreement.

17. Amendment.

This Agreement may be amended only in writing and signed by authorized representatives of each Party.

18. Notices.

Any notice required or permitted to be made hereunder shall be in writing and shall be delivered in the manner prescribed herein at the principal place of business of each party. The Party may give notice to the Lead Agency by:

- Personal delivery;
- U.S. Mail, first class postage prepaid;
- Electronic mail, if receipt is confirmed by reply or other written acknowledgment; or,
- Any other method mutually agreed upon by the Parties in advance.

At any time, by providing written notice to the other parties to this Agreement, any Party may change the place, or e-mail for giving notice. Notices shall be deemed given on the date of personal delivery, on the fifth business day after deposit in the U.S. mail, or on the date of confirmed electronic transmission.

19. Assignment.

No Party may assign any right, claim or interest it may have under this Agreement, and no creditor, assignee or third party beneficiary of any Party shall have any right, claim, or title to any part, share, interest, fund or asset of any other Party.

20. Governing Law.

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California.

21. Force Majeure.

A Party shall not be deemed to be in default where failure or delay in performance of any of its obligations (other than payment obligations) under this Agreement is caused by floods, earthquakes, other Acts of God, fires, wars, riots or similar hostilities, actions of legislative, judicial, executive, or regulatory government bodies, or other cause without fault and beyond the reasonable control of such Party (“Force Majeure”). If any such events shall occur, the time for performance by either Party of any of its obligations under this Agreement will be extended by the Parties for the period of time that such events prevented such performance. Upon the occurrence of an event of Force Majeure, the affected Party shall promptly notify the other Parties of such Force Majeure event, provide reasonable details relating to such Force Majeure event, and implement reasonable mitigation measures.

22. Representations and Warranties.

No representations or warranties are made or have been relied upon by either Party other than those expressly set forth in this Agreement, if any.

23. Waiver.

The waiver at any time by any Party of its rights with respect to any matter connected to this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver with respect to any subsequent matter.

24. Partial Invalidity.

If any term or provision of this Agreement is adjudged invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect to the extent permitted by law.

25. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and as if all Parties had signed the same instrument. Signatures transmitted by electronic means shall be deemed originals

26. Execution.

The governing body of each Party has authorized execution of this Agreement, as evidenced by the signatures below. A Party's signature is valid only after approval of its governing body.

27. Entire Agreement.

This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements or representations, whether oral or written, between the Parties regarding its subject matter and may be amended only by a written instrument executed by all Parties.

28. Recitals.

The above Recitals are incorporated solely for the purpose of describing the background and intent of the Parties. They shall not create any binding obligations or modify the operative provisions of this Agreement.

29. Non-Appropriation.

The obligations of each Party under this Agreement are contingent upon the availability of funds appropriated for that purpose. No Party shall be required to expend funds not appropriated or otherwise legally available.

The Parties hereby execute this Joint Purchasing Agreement as of the date(s) listed below by its proper duly authorized officers, as follows:

Areas of Pride/Accomplishments*

1. Social-Emotional & Behavioral Frameworks
PBIS Excellence: Full implementation of Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports (PBIS), creating a clear, reward-based roadmap for student conduct.

CharacterStrong Integration: Universal implementation of the CharacterStrong social-emotional and anti-bullying curriculum, providing students with the internal tools for empathy and self-regulation.

Restorative Practice Aide: Dedicated staff member to facilitate restorative circles and conversations, reducing the reliance on punitive discipline.

CPI Team Mastery: A fully developed Crisis Prevention Institute (CPI) team with an on-site trainer, ensuring staff are experts in de-escalation and supporting students with high-level needs.

Low Recidivism: A consistently low number of students with multiple behavioral offenses, indicating that Tier 2 and Tier 3 interventions are effectively changing behavior.

2. Competency-Based & Academic Innovation
Competency-Based District Transition: Moving toward a mastery-based model that prioritizes student growth over mere compliance.

Student Agency & Choice: Teachers provide student choice for projects, significantly increasing engagement and reducing the boredom-to-disruption pipeline.

Teacher-Led Consistency: Staff-created Codes of Conduct and Behavioral Rubrics that ensure expectations are consistent, transparent, and fair across every classroom.

Science of Reading & Core Excellence: All staff trained in the Science of Reading; students utilize Boost Reading and IXL Math (with a home component) to ensure academic success, which is a primary deterrent to acting-out behaviors.

Specialized Enrichment: High participation in Band, Strings, Theatre Arts, and the Spelling Bee, providing students with a strong sense of belonging and school pride.

3. Operational Safety & Preparedness
Incident Command Protocol Mastery: Staff have completed and reviewed standardized protocols, ensuring an organized and calm response to any emergency.

Safety Training: Regular, comprehensive safety training for all staff members beyond basic requirements.

Closed Campus Security: Maintaining a secure, closed campus that contributes to documented low crime rate data and limited "calls for service."

Graffiti & Property Care: Rapid removal of graffiti and maintenance of facilities to instill a sense of order and community respect.

4. Community & Family Engagement
Community School Liaison: Acts as a vital link between the school and families, providing resources that have contributed to the decrease in Chronic Absenteeism.

University Partnerships: Collaboration with Cal Poly Humboldt, bringing in student teachers and mentors who provide positive adult role models for K-5 students.

Service Learning: School-wide participation in service projects, teaching students to be proactive, contributing members of the Eureka community.

Active PTA Support: High levels of parent involvement through literacy nights, math nights, and social events (like the zoo ice cream social), which strengthens the "village" around the school.

Findings & Desired Improvements*

Targeted Attendance for English Learners (EL): While overall attendance has improved, chronic absenteeism remains high among EL students. We will utilize our Community School Liaison for bilingual outreach and "relational home visits" to address specific cultural or logistical barriers.

Instructional Grouping in Math: To reduce student frustration (a lead cause of classroom disruption), we will implement differentiated instruction grouping in Math. This allows students to work at their competency level, ensuring they feel successful rather than overwhelmed.

Behavioral Data Deep-Dive (SWIS): We will move beyond recording incidents to using SWIS data for "drill-down" analysis. By identifying exactly where and when incidents occur, the committee can implement targeted PBIS "hot spot" supervision.

Expanding Competency-Based Choice: To continue decreasing the number of students with multiple offenses, we will further increase student choice in projects. This mastery-based approach increases student agency and keeps them engaged in positive, self-directed learning.

After-Hours Emergency Readiness: While our daytime drills are effective, we need to schedule planned safety drills during after-school program hours to ensure all staff and students—including those in extracurriculars—are well-versed in Incident Command Protocols.

Priorities/Goals for Safe and Orderly Environment*

- Goal 1: Targeted Attendance Improvement By June 2026, decrease the chronic absenteeism rate for English Learner (EL) students by 5% through the implementation of bilingual outreach and relational home visits led by the Community School Liaison.

Goal 2: Academic Engagement & Behavioral Reduction By the end of the first semester, implement differentiated instructional grouping in Math and expand competency-based project choice school-wide to reduce classroom disruptions and office referrals caused by academic frustration.

Goal 3: Data-Driven Behavioral Intervention Starting in the Fall semester, the Safety Committee will conduct monthly SWIS data reviews to identify behavioral "hot spots." This data will be used to adjust PBIS Tier 2 interventions, aiming for a 10% reduction in students with multiple behavioral offenses.

Component 2: Physical Environment
Focus: Campus Security and Emergency Preparedness

Goal 4: Secure Access & Monitoring By December 2025, the school will enhance physical security by installing a dedicated security camera monitor in the front office and implementing a mandatory Staff ID badge policy to ensure 100% of personnel are identifiable on our closed campus.

Goal 5: After-School Safety Protocols By the end of the school year, the school will establish a secure gate-management protocol for the after-school program and conduct at least two "after-hours" emergency drills to ensure staff and families are proficient in Incident Command Protocols during pick-up times.

Overall Strategies for the 2025-2026 School Year are:

Component 1: School Climate
Focus: Social-Emotional Wellness, Engagement, and Attendance

Strategy 1: Targeted EL Attendance Outreach The Community School Liaison and Restorative Practice Aide will identify "at-risk" English Learner students using weekly attendance reports. They will conduct bilingual family wellness checks and "relational home visits" to remove barriers to attendance and connect families with school resources. Complete SART when needed, help reduce barriers for families, and create incentives for students.

Strategy 2: Competency-Based Engagement (Project Choice) Teachers will implement student-choice boards and differentiated math groupings within the competency-based framework. By allowing students to demonstrate mastery through high-interest projects, the school aims to eliminate "academic boredom" and "frustration," which are leading causes of office referrals.

Strategy 3: SWIS-Informed Restorative Practices The Safety Committee will utilize SWIS (School-Wide Information System) to generate "Big 5" reports (who, what, when, where, and why). The Restorative Practice Aide will then deploy targeted "push-in" support and restorative circles in the specific "hot spot" locations identified by the data. This will be shared with staff in our weekly bulletin and staff will dive deeper into the data at staff meetings.

Focus: Infrastructure, Identification, and Emergency Readiness

Strategy 4: Standardized Identification & Access Control Implement a universal Staff ID Badge requirement for all employees and long-term student teachers from Cal Poly Humboldt. Additionally, the site will install a dedicated monitor in the main office to provide real-time visibility of campus entry points, ensuring the "Closed Campus" policy is strictly maintained.

Strategy 5: Secure After-School Transition Protocols The site lead and after-school program coordinator will develop a Gate Access Schedule that ensures perimeter gates remain locked during program hours while utilizing a monitored "buzz-in" or "staff-assisted" entry for family pick-ups.

Strategy 6: Comprehensive Drill Expansion The Incident Command Team will facilitate expanded safety drills specifically scheduled during after-school hours. These drills will include the after-school program staff and will be followed by a "debrief" session to update the Incident Command Protocols based on findings.

Component 1 People and Programs (School Climate)

Restorative Practice Aide & Community Liaison Synergy: Our Restorative Practice Aide will lead daily "Community Circles" in classrooms to build trust. When conflicts arise, the Aide will facilitate formal "Restorative Conferences." Simultaneously, the Community School Liaison will engage families in these circles to ensure that the home-school connection remains strong.

Competency-Based "Codes of Conduct": Instead of a list of "don'ts," teachers and students will co-create Competency-Based Rubrics for Behavior. These rubrics will allow students to self-assess their growth in "Self-Management" and "Social Awareness" (aligned with CharacterStrong), giving them a clear path to mastery in social skills.
Parent Sessions: To strengthen parent engagement, we will host quarterly "Listen & Learn" sessions where families can share their ideas for school improvement. These will be timed with PTA events (like Literacy or Math Nights) to maximize attendance and ensure diverse voices are heard.

The SRO or Law Enforcement Liaison is included in at least one restorative training session to align school and police perspectives on de-escalation

Component 2 Places (Physical Environment)

Staff Competency Alignment: In the Fall, the Safety Committee will administer a Staff Strengths Questionnaire. Results will be used to assign specific roles within the Incident Command Protocol (e.g., matching a staff member with medical training to the First Aid station, or someone with high-stress communication skills to the Command Center).

Enhanced Surveillance & Supervision: To reduce "hot spot" incidents identified in SWIS data, we will increase active staff supervision during high-traffic times (breaks/lunch). This is supported by the installation of a dedicated security monitor in the front office, providing real-time oversight of all ingress/egress points.

After-Hours Security Policy: We will establish a formal protocol for the after-school program gate, ensuring it remains locked to outsiders but accessible to parents through a designated, staff-monitored checkpoint.

Advanced Emergency Training: All staff will participate in updated training for Active Shooter/Run-Hide-Fight scenarios and disaster procedures. This includes tabletop exercises to review the teacher-created "Codes of Conduct" in the context of a crisis.

Child Abuse Prevention and Reporting – BP/AR 5141.4

Original Adopted Date: 12/10/2015 | Last Revised Date: 12/11/2025 | Last Reviewed Date: 12/11/2025Status: ADOPTED

The Governing Board is committed to supporting the safety and well-being of district students and desires to facilitate the prevention of and response to child abuse and neglect. The Superintendent or designee shall develop and implement strategies for preventing, recognizing, and promptly reporting known or suspected child abuse and neglect.

The Superintendent or designee may provide a student who is a victim of abuse with school-based mental health services or other support services and/or may refer the student to resources available within the community as needed.

Child Abuse Prevention

The district's instructional program may provide age-appropriate and culturally sensitive child abuse prevention curriculum which explains students' right to live free of abuse, includes instruction in the skills and techniques needed to identify unsafe situations and react appropriately and promptly, informs students of available support resources, and teaches students how to obtain help and disclose incidents of abuse.

The district's program also may include age-appropriate instruction in sexual abuse and sexual assault awareness and prevention. Upon written request of a student's parent/guardian, the student shall be excused from taking such instruction. (Education Code 51900.6)

The Superintendent or designee may display posters, in areas on campus where students frequently congregate, notifying students of the appropriate telephone number to call to report child abuse or neglect. (Education Code 33133.5)

In addition, student identification cards for students in grades 7-12 shall include the National Domestic Violence Hotline telephone number. (Education Code 215.5)

The Superintendent or designee shall, to the extent feasible, seek to incorporate community resources into the district's child abuse prevention programs and may use these resources to provide parents/guardians with instruction in parenting skills and child abuse prevention.

Child Abuse Reporting

The Superintendent or designee shall establish procedures for the identification and reporting of known and suspected child abuse and neglect in accordance with law.

Procedures for reporting child abuse, as specified in Penal Code 11164-11174.3, shall be included in the district and/or school comprehensive safety plan. (Education Code 32282)

District employees who are mandated reporters, as defined by law and administrative regulation, are obligated to report all known or suspected incidents of child abuse and neglect.

(Penal Code 11165.7)

Reasonable suspicion means that it is objectively reasonable for a person to entertain a suspicion, based upon facts that could cause a reasonable person in a like position, drawing when appropriate on the person's training and experience, to suspect child abuse or neglect. However, reasonable suspicion does not require certainty that child abuse or neglect has occurred nor does it require a specific medical indication of child abuse or neglect. (Penal Code 11166)

Reportable Offenses

Using the procedures provided below, a mandated reporter shall make a report whenever the mandated reporter, while acting in a professional capacity or within the scope of employment, has knowledge of or observes a child whom the mandated reporter knows or reasonably suspects has been the victim of child abuse or neglect. (Penal Code 11166)

Any mandated reporter who has knowledge of or who reasonably suspects that a child is suffering serious emotional damage or is at a substantial risk of suffering serious emotional damage, based on evidence of severe anxiety, depression, withdrawal, or untoward aggressive behavior toward self or others, may make a report to the appropriate agency. (Penal Code 11165.9, 11166.05, 11167)

Any district employee who reasonably believes to have observed the commission of a murder, rape, or lewd or lascivious act by use of force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury against a victim who is a child under 14 years of age shall notify a peace officer. (Penal Code 152.3)

The fact that a child is experiencing homelessness or is classified as an unaccompanied minor, as defined in the federal McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act (42 USC 11434a), is not, in and of itself, a sufficient basis for reporting child abuse or neglect. (Penal Code 11165.15)

Responsibility for Reporting

The reporting duties of mandated reporters are individual and cannot be delegated to another person. (Penal Code 11166)

When two or more mandated reporters jointly have knowledge of a known or suspected instance of child abuse or neglect, the report may be made by a member of the team selected by mutual agreement and a single report may be made and signed by the selected member of the reporting team. Any member who has knowledge that the member designated to report has failed to do so shall thereafter make the report. (Penal Code 11166)

No supervisor or administrator shall impede or inhibit a mandated reporter from making a report. (Penal Code 11166)

Any person not identified as a mandated reporter who has knowledge of or observes a child whom the person knows or reasonably suspects has been a victim of child abuse or neglect may report the known or suspected instance of child abuse or neglect to the appropriate agency. (Penal Code 11166)

Reporting Procedures
Initial Telephone Report

Immediately or as soon as practicable after knowing or observing suspected child abuse or neglect, a mandated reporter shall make an initial report by telephone to any police department (excluding a district police/security department), sheriff's department, county probation department if designated by the county to receive such reports, or county welfare department. (Penal Code 11165.9, 11166)

Such reports shall be made to the following agency(ies):

When the initial telephone report is made, the mandated reporter shall note the name of the official contacted, the date and time contacted, and any instructions or advice received.

Written Report

Within 36 hours of knowing or observing the information concerning the incident, the mandated reporter shall prepare and either send, fax, or electronically transmit to the appropriate agency a written follow-up report, which includes a completed California Department of Justice (DOJ) form (BCIA 8572). (Penal Code 11166, 11168)

The DOJ form may be obtained from the district office or other appropriate agencies, such as the police department, sheriff's department, or county probation or welfare department.

Reports of suspected child abuse or neglect shall include, if known: (Penal Code 11167)

The name, business address, and telephone number of the person making the report and the capacity that makes the person a mandated reporter

The child's name and address, present location, and, where applicable, school, grade, and class

The names, addresses, and telephone numbers of the child's parents/guardians

The name, address, telephone number, and other relevant personal information about the person(s) who might have abused or neglected the child

The information that gave rise to the reasonable suspicion of child abuse or neglect and the source(s) of that information
The mandated reporter shall make a report even if some of this information is not known or is uncertain to the mandated reporter. (Penal Code 11167)

The mandated reporter may give to an investigator from an agency investigating the case, including a licensing agency, any information relevant to an incident of child abuse or neglect or to a report made for serious emotional damage pursuant to Penal Code 11166.05. (Penal Code 11167)

3. Internal Reporting

The mandated reporter shall not be required to disclose the mandated reporter's identity to a supervisor, the principal, or the Superintendent or designee. (Penal Code 11166)

However, employees reporting child abuse or neglect to an appropriate agency are encouraged, but not required, to notify the principal as soon as possible after the initial telephone report to the appropriate agency. When so notified, the principal shall inform the Superintendent or designee.

The principal so notified shall provide the mandated reporter with any assistance necessary to ensure that reporting procedures are carried out in accordance with law, Board policy, and administrative regulation. At the mandated reporter's request, the principal may assist in completing and filing the necessary forms.

Reporting the information to an employer, supervisor, principal, school counselor, co-worker, or other person shall not be a substitute for making a mandated report to the appropriate agency. (Penal Code 11166)

Training

Within the first six weeks of each school year, or within the first six weeks of employment if hired during the school year, the Superintendent or designee shall provide training on mandated reporting requirements to district employees and persons working on their behalf who are mandated reporters. (Education Code 44691; Penal Code 11165.7)

The Superintendent or designee shall use the online training module provided by the California Department of Social Services (CDSS). (Education Code 44691)

The training shall include, but not necessarily be limited to, training in identification and reporting of child abuse and neglect. Additionally, the training shall include information that failure to report an incident of known or reasonably suspected child abuse or neglect as required by law is a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment and/or a fine as specified. (Education Code 44691; Penal Code 11165.7)

In addition, the Superintendent or designee shall provide annual training on the prevention of abuse, including sexual abuse, of children on district property, by district staff, or in district-sponsored programs. (Education Code 44691)

The Superintendent or designee shall obtain and retain proof of each mandated reporter's completion of the training. (Education Code 44691)

Victim Interviews by Social Services

Whenever CDSS or another government agency is investigating suspected child abuse or neglect that occurred within the child's home or out-of-home care facility, the student may be interviewed by an agency representative during school hours, on school premises. The Superintendent or designee shall give the student the choice of being interviewed in private or in the presence of any adult school employee or volunteer aide selected by the student. (Penal Code 11174.3)

A staff member or volunteer aide selected by a child may decline to be present at the interview. If the selected person accepts, the principal or designee shall inform the person of the following requirements prior to the interview: (Penal Code 11174.3)
The purpose of the selected person's presence at the interview is to lend support to the child and enable the child to be as comfortable as possible

The selected person shall not participate in the interview

The selected person shall not discuss the facts or circumstances of the case with the child

The selected person is subject to the confidentiality requirements of the Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act, a violation of which is punishable as specified in Penal Code 11167.5
If a staff member agrees to be present, the interview shall be held at a time during school hours when it does not involve an expense to the school. (Penal Code 11174.3)

Release of Child to Peace Officer

When a child is released to a peace officer and taken into custody as a victim of suspected child abuse or neglect, the Superintendent or designee and/or principal shall not notify the parent/guardian, but rather shall provide the peace officer with the address and telephone number of the child's parent/guardian. (Education Code 48906)

Parent/Guardian Complaints

Upon request, the Superintendent or designee shall provide parents/guardians with procedures for reporting suspected child abuse occurring on district property to appropriate agencies. For parents/guardians whose primary language is not English, such procedures shall be in their primary language and, when communicating orally regarding those guidelines and/or procedures, an interpreter shall be provided.

To file a complaint against a district employee or other person suspected of child abuse or neglect on district property, parents/guardians may file a report by telephone, in person, or in writing with any appropriate agency identified above under "Reporting Procedures." If a parent/guardian makes a complaint about an employee to any other employee, the employee receiving the information shall notify the parent/guardian of procedures for filing a complaint with the appropriate agency. The employee shall also file a report when obligated to do so pursuant to Penal Code 11166 using the procedures described above for mandated reporters.

In addition, if the child is enrolled in special education, a separate complaint may be filed with the California Department of Education pursuant to 5 CCR 3200-3205.

Notifications

The Superintendent or designee shall provide to all new employees who are mandated reporters a statement that informs them of their status as mandated reporters, their reporting obligations under Penal Code 11166, and their confidentiality rights under Penal Code 11167. Additionally, the district shall provide these new employees with a copy of Penal Code 11165.7, 11166, and 11167. (Penal Code 11165.7, 11166.5)

Before beginning employment, any person who will be a mandated reporter by virtue of the person's position shall sign a statement indicating knowledge of the reporting obligations under Penal Code 11166 and compliance with such provisions. The signed statement shall be retained by the Superintendent or designee. (Penal Code 11166.5)

Employees who work with dependent adults shall be notified of legal responsibilities and reporting procedures pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code 15630-15637.

The Superintendent or designee also shall notify all employees that:
A mandated reporter who reports a known or suspected instance of child abuse or neglect shall not be held civilly or criminally liable for making a report and this immunity shall apply even if the mandated reporter acquired the knowledge or reasonable suspicion of child abuse or neglect outside of the mandated reporter's professional capacity or outside the scope of employment (Penal Code 11172)

Any other person making a report shall not incur civil or criminal liability unless it can be proven that the person knowingly made a false report or made a report with reckless disregard of the truth or falsity of the report. (Penal Code 11172)

If a mandated reporter fails to timely report an incident of known or reasonably suspected child abuse or neglect, the mandated reporter may be guilty of a crime punishable by a fine and/or imprisonment (Penal Code 11166)
No employee shall be subject to any sanction by the district for making a report unless it can be shown that the employee knowingly made a false report or made a report with reckless disregard of the truth or falsity of the report. (Penal Code 11166, 11172)

The Governing Board is committed to providing a safe, supportive, and positive school environment which is conducive to student learning and achievement and desires to prepare students for responsible citizenship by fostering self-discipline and personal responsibility. The Board believes that high expectations for student behavior, use of effective school and classroom management strategies, provision of appropriate intervention and support, and parent/guardian involvement can minimize the need for disciplinary measures that exclude students from instruction as a means for correcting student misbehavior.

The Superintendent or designee shall develop effective, age-appropriate strategies for maintaining a positive school climate and responding appropriately to student misbehavior at district schools. The strategies shall focus on providing students with needed supports; communicating clear, appropriate, and consistent expectations and consequences for student conduct; and ensuring equity and continuous improvement in the implementation of district discipline policies and practices.

In addition, the Superintendent or designee's strategies for responding to student misconduct shall reflect the Board's preference for the use of positive interventions and alternative disciplinary measures over exclusionary discipline measures.

Disciplinary measures that may result in loss of instructional time or cause students to be disengaged from school, such as detention, suspension, and expulsion, shall be imposed only when required or permitted by law or when other means of correction have been documented to have failed. (Education Code 48900.5)

School personnel and volunteers shall not allow any disciplinary action taken against a student to result in the denial or delay of a school meal. (Education Code 49557.5)

A student shall not be denied recess unless the student's participation poses an immediate threat to the physical safety of the student or to the physical safety of one or more of the student's peers. If, due to such immediate threat, a student is denied recess, staff shall make all reasonable efforts to resolve the threat and minimize the student's exclusion from recess, to the greatest extent practicable. (Education Code 49056)

Seclusion and behavioral restraint are prohibited as a means of discipline and shall not be used to correct student behavior except as permitted pursuant to Education Code 49005.4 and in accordance with district regulations. (Education Code 49005.2)

The Superintendent or designee shall create a model discipline matrix that lists violations and the consequences for each as allowed by law.

The principal or designee at each school may develop disciplinary rules to meet the school's particular needs consistent with law, Board policy, and administrative regulations. The Board, at an open meeting, may review the approved school discipline rules for consistency with Board policy and state law. Site-level disciplinary rules shall be included in the district's comprehensive safety plan. (Education Code 32282, 35291.5)

At all times, the safety of students and staff, providing interventions and supports to students, as well as the maintenance of an orderly school environment, shall be priorities in determining appropriate discipline. When misconduct occurs, staff shall attempt to identify the causes of the student's behavior and implement appropriate support and/or discipline. When choosing between different disciplinary strategies, staff shall consider the effect of each option on the student's health, well-being, and opportunity to learn.

Staff shall enforce disciplinary rules fairly, consistently, and in accordance with the district's nondiscrimination policies.

The Superintendent or designee shall provide professional development as necessary to assist staff in developing the skills needed to effectively and equitably implement the disciplinary strategies adopted for district schools, including, but not limited to, knowledge of school and classroom management skills and their consistent application, effective accountability and positive intervention techniques, and the tools to form strong, cooperative relationships with parents/guardians.

District goals for improving school climate, based on suspension and expulsion rates, surveys of students, staff, and parents/guardians regarding their sense of school safety and connectedness to the school community, and other local measures, shall be included in the district's local control and accountability plan, as required by law.

At the beginning of each school year, the Superintendent or designee may report to the Board regarding disciplinary strategies used in district schools in the immediately preceding school year and their effect on student learning.

Site-Level Rules

Site-level rules shall be consistent with state law and Board policies and administrative regulations. In developing site-level disciplinary rules, the principal or designee shall solicit the participation, views, and advice of one representative selected by each of the following groups: (Education Code 35291.5)
Parents/guardians

Teachers

School administrators

School security personnel, if any

Students in grades seven through twelve
Annually, site-level discipline rules shall be reviewed and, if necessary, updated to align with any changes in state law, district discipline policies and regulations, and/or goals for school safety and climate as specified in the district's local control and accountability plan. A copy of the rules shall be filed with the Superintendent or designee for inclusion in the comprehensive safety plan.

School rules shall be communicated to students clearly and in an age-appropriate manner.

It shall be the duty of each employee of the school to enforce the school rules on student discipline. (Education Code 35291.5)

Disciplinary Strategies

To the extent possible, staff shall use disciplinary strategies that keep students in school and participating in the instructional program. Except when students' presence causes a danger to themselves or others or they commit a single act of a grave nature or an offense for which suspension or expulsion is required by law, suspension, supervised suspension, or expulsion shall be used only when other means of correction have failed to bring about proper conduct. Disciplinary strategies may include, but are not limited to:
Discussion or conference between school staff, the student, and the student's parents/guardians

Referral of the student to the school counselor or other school support service personnel for case management and counseling

Convening of a study team, guidance team, resource panel, or other intervention-related team to assess the behavior and develop and implement an individual plan to address the behavior in partnership with the student and the student's parents/guardians

When applicable, referral for a comprehensive psychosocial or psychoeducational assessment, including for purposes of creating an individualized education program (IEP) or a Section 504 plan

Enrollment in a program for teaching prosocial behavior or anger management

Participation in a restorative justice program

A positive behavior support approach with tiered interventions that occur during the school day on campus

Participation in a social and emotional learning program that teaches students the ability to understand and manage emotions, develop caring and concern for others, make responsible decisions, establish positive relationships, and handle challenging situations capably

Participation in a program that is sensitive to the traumas experienced by students, focuses on students' behavioral health needs, and addresses those needs in a proactive manner

After-school programs that address specific behavioral issues or expose students to positive activities and behaviors, including, but not limited to, those operated in collaboration with local parent and community groups

Detention after school hours as provided in the section below entitled "Detention After School"

Community service as provided in the section below entitled "Community Service"

In accordance with Board policy and administrative regulation, restriction or disqualification from participation in extracurricular activities

Reassignment to an alternative educational environment

Suspension and expulsion in accordance with law, Board policy, and administrative regulation
When, by law or district policy, other means of correction are required to be implemented before a student could be suspended or expelled, any other means of correction implemented shall be documented and retained in the student's records. (Education Code 48900.5)

When a student has been suspended, or other means of correction have been implemented against the student, for an incident of racist bullying, harassment, or intimidation, the principal or designee shall engage both the victim and perpetrator in a restorative justice practice suitable to the needs of the students. The principal or designee shall also require the perpetrator to engage in a culturally sensitive program that promotes racial justice and equity and combats racism and ignorance and shall regularly check on the victim to ensure that the victim is not in danger of suffering from any long-lasting mental health issues. (Education Code 48900.5)

Staff shall enforce disciplinary rules fairly, consistently, and in accordance with the district's nondiscrimination policies.

When disciplining a student who has been identified for special education and related services, the procedures specified in Administrative Regulation 5144.2 - Suspension And Expulsion/Due Process (Students With Disabilities) shall be applied. If a student has not been identified as a student with a disability and the district suspects the behavior that resulted in discipline may be based in an unidentified disability, the district shall conduct an evaluation to determine if the student has a disability which requires an IEP or 504 plan. (U.S.C. 1412(a)(3))

Detention After School

Students may be detained for disciplinary reasons for up to one hour after the close of the maximum school day, or until the departure of the school bus to which they have been assigned if applicable. (5 CCR 307, 353)

The student shall not be detained unless the principal or designee notifies the parent/guardian.

Students shall remain under the supervision of a certificated employee during the period of detention.

Students may be offered the choice of serving their detention on Saturday rather than after school.

Community Service

As part of or instead of disciplinary action, the Board, Superintendent, principal, or principal's designee may require a student to perform community service during nonschool hours on school grounds or, with written permission of the student's parent/guardian, off school grounds. Such service may include, but is not limited to, community or school outdoor beautification, community or campus betterment, and teacher, peer, or youth assistance programs. (Education Code 48900.6)

This community service option is not available for a student who has been suspended, pending expulsion, pursuant to Education Code 48915. However, if the recommended expulsion is not implemented or the expulsion itself is suspended, then the student may be required to perform community service for the resulting suspension. (Education Code 48900.6)

Notice to Parents/Guardians and Students

At the beginning of the school year, the Superintendent or designee shall notify parents/guardians, in writing, about the availability of district rules related to discipline. (Education Code 35291, 48980)

Original Adopted Date: 09/13/2000 | Last Revised Date: 02/27/2020 | Last Reviewed Date: 02/27/2020

In cooperation with teachers, students, and parents/guardians, the principal or designee may establish school rules governing student dress and grooming which are consistent with law, Board policy, and administrative regulations. These school dress codes shall be regularly reviewed.

The following guidelines shall apply to all regular school activities:

Dress Code
Students must wear a shirt with pants or skirt, or the equivalent, and shoes.

Shirts and dresses must have fabric on the front and the sides.

The fabric covering the buttocks, genitals, and breasts must not be transparent (see-through).

Hats and other headwear must allow the face to be visible and not interfere with the line of sight of any student or staff. Hoodies must allow the student's face and ears to be visible to staff. No sunglasses may be worn indoors.

Clothing must be suitable for all scheduled classroom activities, including physical education, science labs, wood shop, and other activities where unique hazards exist. Specialized courses may require specialized attire, such as sports uniforms or safety gear.

Shoes must be worn at all times. Flip-flops, socks or sock-like footwear, slippers, backless shoes, or shoes with over a one-inch heel are not safe or appropriate for school. Toes must be covered.

Clothing may not depict, advertise or advocate the use of alcohol (excluding Humboldt County restaurants/family establishments), tobacco, or drugs.

Clothing may not reference genitals nor depict profanity, pornography, nudity, vulgarity, or sexual acts.

Clothing may not use or depict hate speech targeting any individual or group based on economics, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, intelligence, race, religious affiliation, sexual orientation, or any other protected group.

Clothing must not threaten the health or safety of any student or staff.

Clothing may not depict or advocate violence, criminal activity, race superiority, or hate speech.

Any attire identified as gang-related by local law enforcement is not allowed.

The dress code shall be modified as appropriate to accommodate a student's religious or cultural observance, health condition, or other circumstance deemed necessary by the principal or designee. In addition, the principal or designee may impose dress requirements to accommodate the needs of special school activities, physical education classes, athletic activities, and other extracurricular and cocurricular activities.

No grade of a student participating in a physical education class shall be adversely affected if the student does not wear standardized physical education apparel because of circumstances beyond the student's control. (Education Code 49066)

Students shall be allowed to wear sun-protective clothing, including but not limited to hats, for outdoor use during the school day. (Education Code 35183.5)

Gang-Related Apparel

At individual schools that have a dress code prohibiting gang-related apparel at school or school activities, the principal, staff, and parents/guardians participating in the development of the school safety plan shall define "gang-related apparel" and shall limit this definition to apparel that reasonably could be determined to threaten the health and safety of the school environment if it were worn or displayed on a school campus. (Education Code 32282)

Because gang-related symbols are constantly changing, definitions of gang-related apparel shall be reviewed annually and updated whenever related information is received. As necessary, the school shall collaborate with law enforcement agencies to update definitions of gang-related apparel.

This policy shall apply to all acts constituting bullying related to school activity or to school attendance occurring within a district school, to acts which occur off campus or outside of school-related or school-sponsored activities but which may have an impact or create a hostile environment at school, and to all acts of the Governing Board and the Superintendent in enacting policies and procedures that govern the district.

The Board recognizes the harmful effects of bullying on student well-being, student learning, and school attendance and desires to provide a welcoming, safe, and supportive school environment that protects students from physical, mental, and emotional harm. No individual or group shall, through physical, written, verbal, visual, or other means, harass, sexually harass, threaten, intimidate, cyberbully, cause bodily injury to, or commit hate violence against any student or school personnel, or retaliate against them for filing a complaint or participating in the complaint resolution process.

The Superintendent or designee shall develop strategies for addressing bullying in district schools with the involvement of students, parents/guardians, and staff. As appropriate, the Superintendent or designee may also collaborate with social services, mental health services, law enforcement, courts, and other agencies and community organizations in the development and implementation of effective strategies to promote safety in schools and the community.

Such strategies shall be incorporated into the comprehensive safety plan and, to the extent possible, into the local control and accountability plan and other applicable district and school plans.

Any complaint of bullying shall be investigated and, if determined to be discriminatory, resolved in accordance with law and the district's uniform complaint procedures specified in Administrative Regulation 1312.3. If, during the investigation, it is determined that a complaint is about nondiscriminatory bullying, the principal or designee shall inform the complainant and shall take all necessary actions to resolve the complaint.

If the Superintendent or designee believes it is in the best interest of a student who has been the victim of an act of bullying, as defined in Education Code 48900, the Superintendent or designee shall advise the student's parents/guardians that the student may transfer to another school. If the parents/guardians of a student who has been the victim of an act of bullying requests a transfer for the student pursuant to Education Code 46600, the Superintendent or designee shall allow the transfer in accordance with law and district policy on intradistrict or interdistrict transfer, as applicable.

District families are encouraged to model respectful behavior, contribute to a safe and supportive learning environment, and monitor potential causes of bullying.

Any employee who permits or engages in bullying or retaliation related to bullying shall be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal.

Examples of Prohibited Conduct
Bullying is an aggressive behavior that involves a real or perceived imbalance of power between individuals with the intent to cause emotional or physical harm. Bullying can be physical, verbal, or social/relational and may involve a single severe act or repetition or potential repetition of a deliberate act. Bullying includes, but is not limited to, any act described in Education Code 48900(r).

Cyberbullying includes the electronic creation or transmission of harassing communications, direct threats, or other harmful texts, sounds, or images, which may be shared, sent, or posted publicly. Cyberbullying may include, but is not limited to, personal or private information that causes humiliation, false or negative information to discredit or disparage, or threats of physical harm. Cyberbullying may also include breaking into another person's electronic account or assuming that person's online identity in order to damage that person's reputation.

Examples of the types of conduct that may constitute bullying and are prohibited by the district include, but are not limited to:
Physical bullying: An act that inflicts harm upon a person's body or possessions, such as hitting, kicking, pinching, spitting, tripping, pushing, taking or breaking someone's possessions, or making cruel or rude hand gestures

Verbal bullying: An act that includes saying or writing hurtful things, such as teasing, name-calling, inappropriate sexual comments, taunting, or threats to cause harm

Social/relational bullying: An act that harms a person's reputation or relationships, such as leaving a person out of an activity on purpose, influencing others not to be friends with someone, spreading rumors, or embarrassing someone in public

Cyberbullying: An act that occurs on electronic devices such as computers, tablets, or cell phones, such as sending demeaning or hateful text messages, direct messages or public posts on social media apps, gaming forums, or emails, spreading rumors by email or by posting on social networking sites, shaming or humiliating by allowing others to view, participate in, or share disparaging or harmful content, or posting or sharing embarrassing photos, videos, website, or fake profiles
Measures to Prevent Bullying

The Superintendent or designee shall implement measures to prevent bullying in district schools, including, but not limited to, the following:
Developing a strategic plan for school connectedness and social skills with benchmark tracking, which may include providing regular opportunities and spaces for students to develop social skills and strengthen relationships and promoting adult support from family and school staff, peer-led programs, and partnerships with key community groups, implementing socially based educational techniques such as cooperative learning projects that can improve educational outcomes as well as peer relations, creating a supportive school environment that fosters belonging through equitable classroom management, mentoring, and peer support groups that allow students to lean on each other and learn from each other's experiences, and building social connection into health education courses including information on the consequences of social connection on physical and mental health, key risk and protective factors, and strategies for increasing social connection

Ensuring that each school establishes clear rules for student and staff conduct and implements strategies to promote a positive, supportive, and collaborative school climate

Providing information to students, through student handbooks, district and school websites and social media, and other age-appropriate means, about district and school rules related to bullying, mechanisms available for reporting incidents or threats, and the consequences for engaging in bullying

Encouraging students to notify school staff when they are being bullied or when they suspect that another student is being bullied, and providing means by which students may report threats or incidents confidentially and anonymously

Conducting an assessment of bullying incidents at each school and, if necessary, increasing supervision and security in areas where bullying most often occurs, such as playgrounds, hallways, restrooms, and cafeterias

Annually notifying district employees that, pursuant to Education Code 234.1, any school staff who witnesses an act of bullying against a student has a responsibility to immediately intervene to stop the incident when it is safe to do so

Staff Development

The Superintendent or designee shall annually make available to all certificated staff and to other employees who have regular interaction with students the California Department of Education (CDE) online training module on the dynamics of bullying and cyberbullying, including the identification of bullying and cyberbullying and the implementation of strategies to address bullying. (Education Code 32283.5)

The Superintendent or designee shall provide training to teachers and other school staff to raise their awareness about the legal obligation of the district and its employees to prevent discrimination, harassment, intimidation, and bullying of district students. Such training shall be designed to provide staff with the skills to:
Discuss the diversity of the student body and school community, including their varying immigration experiences

Discuss bullying prevention strategies with students, and teach students to recognize the behavior and characteristics of bullying perpetrators and victims

Identify the signs of bullying or harassing behavior

Take immediate corrective action when bullying is observed

Report incidents to the appropriate authorities, including law enforcement in instances of criminal behavior
Information and Resources

The Superintendent or designee shall post on the district's website, in a prominent location and in a manner that is easily accessible to students and parents/guardians, information on bullying and harassment prevention which includes the following: (Education Code 234.6)
The district's policy on student suicide prevention, including a reference to the policy's age appropriateness for students in grades K-6

The definition of sex discrimination and harassment as described in Education Code 230, including the rights set forth in Education Code 221.8

Title IX information included on the district's website pursuant to Education Code 221.61, and a link to the Title IX information included on CDE's website pursuant to Education Code 221.6

A section on social media bullying that includes all of the references described in Education Code 234.6 as possible forums for social media

A link to statewide resources, including community-based organizations, compiled by CDE pursuant to Education Code 234.5
Any additional information the Superintendent or designee deems important for preventing bullying and harassment
Student Instruction

As appropriate, the district shall provide students with instruction, in the classroom or other educational settings, that promotes social-emotional learning, effective communication and conflict resolution skills, character development, respect for cultural and individual differences, self-esteem development, assertiveness skills, digital and media literacy skills, and appropriate online behavior.

The district shall also educate students about the negative impact of bullying, discrimination, intimidation, and harassment based on actual or perceived immigration status, religious beliefs and customs, or any other individual bias or prejudice.

Students should be taught the difference between appropriate and inappropriate behaviors, how to advocate for themselves, how to help another student who is being bullied, and when to seek assistance from a trusted adult. As role models for students, staff are responsible for teaching and modeling respectful behavior and building safe and supportive learning environments, and are expected to demonstrate effective problem-solving and anger management skills.

To discourage cyberbullying, teachers may advise students to be cautious about sharing passwords, personal data, or private photos online and to consider the consequences of making negative comments about others online.

Reporting and Filing of Complaints

Any student, parent/guardian, or other individual who believes that a student has been subjected to bullying or who has witnessed bullying may report the incident to a teacher, the principal, a compliance officer, or any other available school employee.

When a report of bullying is submitted, the principal or a district compliance officer shall inform the student or parent/guardian of the right to file a formal written complaint in accordance with Administrative Regulation 1312.3 - Uniform Complaint Procedures. The student who is the alleged victim of the bullying shall be given an opportunity to describe the incident, identify witnesses who may have relevant information, and provide other evidence of bullying.

Within one business day of receiving such a report, a staff member shall notify the principal of the report, regardless of whether a uniform complaint is filed. In addition, any school employee who observes an incident of bullying involving a student shall, within one business day, report such observation to the principal or a district compliance officer, regardless of whether the alleged victim files a complaint.

Within two business days of receiving a report of bullying, the principal shall notify the district compliance officer identified in Administrative Regulation 1312.3.

Any individuals with information about cyberbullying activity shall save and print any electronic or digital messages that they feel constitute cyberbullying and shall notify a teacher, the principal, or other employee so that the matter may be investigated. When an investigation concludes that a student used a social networking site or service to bully or harass another student, the Superintendent or designee may report the cyberbullying to the social media platform and may request the material be removed.

Discipline/Corrective Actions

Corrective actions for a student who commits an act of bullying of any type may include counseling, behavioral intervention, and education, and, if the behavior is severe or pervasive as defined in Education Code 48900, may include suspension or expulsion in accordance with district policies and regulations.

When a student has been suspended, or other means of correction have been implemented against the student, for an incident of racist bullying, harassment, or intimidation, the principal or designee shall engage both the victim and perpetrator in a restorative justice practice suitable to the needs of the students. The principal or designee shall also require the perpetrator to engage in a culturally sensitive program that promotes racial justice and equity and combats racism and ignorance and shall regularly check on the victim to ensure that the victim is not in danger of suffering from any long-lasting mental health issues. (Education Code 48900.5)

When appropriate based on the severity or pervasiveness of the bullying, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the parents/guardians of victims and perpetrators and may contact law enforcement.

Support Services

The Superintendent, principal, or designee may refer a victim, witness, perpetrator, or other student affected by an act of bullying to a school counselor, school psychologist, social worker, child welfare attendance personnel, school nurse, or other school support service personnel for case management, counseling, and/or participation in a restorative justice program as appropriate. (Education Code 48900.9)

If any student involved in bullying exhibits warning signs of suicidal thought or intention or of intent to harm another person, the Superintendent or designee shall, as appropriate, implement district intervention protocols which may include, but are not limited to, referral to district or community mental health services, other health professionals, and/or law enforcement, in accordance with Board Policy and Administrative Regulation 5141.52 - Suicide Prevention.

Students shall not be suspended or expelled based solely on a student's truancy, tardiness, or absenteeism from assigned school activities. (Education Code 48900)

On-Campus Suspension

To ensure the proper supervision and ongoing learning of students who are suspended for any of the reasons enumerated in Education Code 48900 and 48900.2, but who pose no imminent danger or threat to anyone at school and for whom expulsion proceedings have not been initiated, the Superintendent or designee shall establish a supervised suspension classroom program which meets the requirements of law.

That other means of correction are not feasible or have repeatedly failed to bring about proper conduct

That due to the nature of the violation, the presence of the student causes a continuing danger to the physical safety of the student or others
A vote to expel a student shall be taken in an open session of a Board meeting. (Education Code 48918(j))

The Board may vote to suspend the enforcement of the expulsion order pursuant to the requirements of law and the accompanying administrative regulation. (Education Code 48917)

Based on the data, the Board shall address any identified disparities in the imposition of student discipline and shall determine whether and how the district is meeting its goals for improving school climate as specified in its local control and accountability plan.

A teacher may suspend a student from class for the remainder of the day and the following day for any of the acts specified in Education Code 48900 and listed as Items #1-19 under "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12" above or for disruption or willful defiance at any grade level. (Education Code 48910)

As soon as possible after the teacher has suspended the student, the teacher shall ask the student's parent/guardian to attend a parent-teacher conference regarding the suspension. Suspension by Superintendent, Principal or Principal's Designee

To implement disciplinary procedures at a school site, the principal may, in writing, designate as the principal's designee another administrator or, if the principal is the only administrator at the school site, a certificated employee. As necessary, the principal may, in writing, also designate another administrator or certificated employee as the secondary designee to assist with disciplinary procedures when the principal and the principal's primary designee are absent from the school site.

The Superintendent, principal, or designee shall immediately suspend any student found at school or at a school activity away from school to have committed any of the acts listed in the Board policy under "Authority to Expel" for which a recommendation of expulsion is required. (Education Code 48915(c))

For all other offenses, a student may be suspended only when the Superintendent or principal has determined that other means of correction have failed to bring about proper conduct. (Education Code 48900.5)

When other means of correction are implemented prior to imposing suspension upon a student, including supervised suspension, the Superintendent, principal, or designee shall document the other means of correction used and retain the documentation in the student's record. (Education Code 48900.5)

Length of Suspension

The Superintendent, principal, or designee may suspend a student from school for not more than five consecutive school days. (Education Code 48911)

A student may be suspended from school for not more than 20 school days in any school year. However, if a student enrolls in or is transferred to another regular school, an opportunity school or class, or continuation school or class for the purpose of adjustment, the student may be suspended for not more than 30 school days in a school year. The district may count suspensions that occur while a student is enrolled in another school district toward the maximum number of days for which the student may be suspended in any school year. (Education Code 48903, 48911, 48912)

These restrictions on the number of days of suspension shall not apply when the suspension is extended pending an expulsion. (Education Code 48911)

Due Process Procedures for Suspension

Suspensions shall be imposed in accordance with the following procedures:

Informal Conference: Suspension shall be preceded by an informal conference conducted by the Superintendent, principal, or designee with the student and, whenever practicable, the teacher, supervisor, or school employee who referred the student to the principal. At the conference, the student shall be informed of the reason for the disciplinary action, including the other means of correction that were attempted before the suspension as required pursuant to Education Code 48900.5, and the evidence against the student, and shall be given the opportunity to present the student's version and evidence in the student's defense. (Education Code 48911)

This conference may be omitted if the Superintendent, principal, or designee determines that an emergency situation exists involving a clear and present danger to the lives, safety, or health of students or school personnel. If a student is suspended without this conference, the student, the student's parent/guardian, or if the student is a foster youth, the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or if the student is an Indian child, the Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, county social worker, shall be notified of the student's right to a conference and the right to return to school for the purpose of the conference. The conference shall be held within two school days, unless the student waives the right to it or is physically unable to attend for any reason. In such a case, the conference shall be held as soon as the student is physically able to return to school for the conference. (Education Code 48911)

Administrative Actions: All requests for student suspension are to be processed by the principal or designee. A school employee shall report the suspension, including the name of the student and the cause for the suspension, to the Superintendent or designee. (Education Code 48911)

Notice to Parents/Guardians: At the time of the suspension, a school employee shall make a reasonable effort to contact the parent/guardian, or if the student is a foster youth, the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or if the student is an Indian child, the Indian child's tribal social worker, and, if applicable, the county social worker, in person, by email, or by telephone. Whenever a student is suspended, the parent/guardian, or, if applicable, the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or the Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, the county social worker, shall also be notified in writing of the suspension. (Education Code 48911)

This notice shall state the specific offense committed by the student. (Education Code 48900.8)

In addition, the notice shall state the date and time when the student may return to school.

Parent/Guardian Conference: Whenever a student is suspended, school officials may conduct a meeting with the parent/guardian to discuss the cause(s) and duration of the suspension, the school policy involved, and any other pertinent matter. (Education Code 48914)

If school officials request to meet with the parent/guardian, a foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or an Indian child's tribal social worker, and, if applicable, the county social worker, the notice may state that the law requires such individuals to respond to the request without delay. However, the student shall not be penalized for the failure of the parent/guardian, a foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or an Indian child's tribal social worker, and, if applicable, the county social worker, to attend such a conference. The student may not be denied reinstatement solely because such individuals failed to attend the conference. (Education Code 48911)

Extension of Suspension: If the Board is considering the expulsion of a suspended student from any school or the suspension of a student for the balance of the semester from continuation school, the Superintendent or designee may, in writing, extend the suspension until such time as the Board has made a decision, provided the following requirements are followed: (Education Code 48911)

The extension of the original period of suspension is preceded by notice of such extension with an offer to hold a conference concerning the extension, giving the student an opportunity to be heard

This conference may be held in conjunction with a meeting requested by the student or parent/guardian to challenge the original suspension.

The Superintendent or designee determines, following a meeting in which the student and the student's parent/guardian were invited to participate, that the student's presence at the school or at an alternative school would endanger persons or property or threaten to disrupt the instructional process

If the student involved is a foster youth or Indian child, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the district's educational liaison of the need to invite the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney and county social worker, or the Indian child's tribal social worker or, if applicable, the county social worker, to attend the meeting (Education Code 48853.5, 48911, 48918.1)

If the student involved is a child or youth experiencing homelessness, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the district liaison for homeless students (Education Code 48918.1)

In lieu of or in addition to suspending a student, the Superintendent, principal, or designee may provide services or require the student to participate in an alternative disciplinary program designed to correct the behavior and keep the student in school
Suspension by the Board

The Board may suspend a student for any of the acts listed under "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12," and "Additional Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades 4-12," above and within the limits specified under "Suspension by Superintendent, Principal, or Designee," above. (Education Code 48912)

The Board may suspend a student enrolled in a continuation school or class for a period not longer than the remainder of the semester. The suspension shall meet the requirements of Education Code 48915. (Education Code 48912.5)

When the Board is considering a suspension, disciplinary action, or any other action (except expulsion) against any student, it shall hold a closed session if a public hearing would lead to disclosure of information that would violate a student's right to privacy under Education Code 49073-49079. (Education Code 35146, 48912)

The Board shall provide the student and parent/guardian with written notice of the closed session by registered or certified mail or personal service. Upon receiving this notice, the student or parent/guardian may request a public meeting, and this request shall be granted if made in writing within 48 hours after receipt of the Board's notice. However, any discussion that conflicts with any other student's right to privacy still shall be held in closed session. (Education Code 35146, 48912)

On-Campus Suspension

A student for whom an expulsion action has not been initiated and who poses no imminent danger or threat to the school, students, or staff may be assigned to on-campus suspension in a separate classroom, building, or site for the entire period of suspension. The following conditions shall apply: (Education Code 48911.1)
The on-campus suspension classroom shall be staffed in accordance with law

The student shall have access to appropriate counseling services

The on-campus suspension classroom shall promote completion of schoolwork and tests missed by the student during the suspension

The student shall be responsible for contacting the student's teacher(s) to receive assignments to be completed in the supervised suspension classroom and the teacher(s) shall provide all assignments and tests that the student will miss while suspended

If no such work is assigned, the person supervising the suspension classroom shall assign schoolwork.
At the time a student is assigned to an on-campus suspension classroom, the principal or designee shall notify the student's parent/guardian, or if the student is a foster youth, the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or, if the student if an Indian child, the Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, county social worker, in person, by email, or by telephone. When the assignment is for longer than one class period, this notification shall be made in writing. (Education Code 48911.1)

Superintendent or Principal's Authority to Recommend Expulsion

Unless the Superintendent or principal determines that expulsion should not be recommended under the circumstances or that an alternative means of correction would address the conduct, the Superintendent or principal shall recommend a student's expulsion for any of the following acts: (Education Code 48915)
Causing serious physical injury to another person, except in self-defense

Possession of any knife or other dangerous object of no reasonable use to the student

Unlawful possession of any controlled substance as listed in Health and Safety Code 11053-11059, except for:

The first offense for the possession of not more than one ounce of marijuana, other than concentrated cannabis

The student's possession of over-the-counter medication for use by the student for medical purposes

Medication prescribed for the student by a physician

Robbery or extortion

Assault or battery, as defined in Penal Code 240 and 242, upon any school employee
In determining whether to recommend the expulsion of a student, the Superintendent, principal, or designee shall act as quickly as possible to ensure that the student does not lose instructional time. (Education Code 48915)

Student's Right to Expulsion Hearing

Any student recommended for expulsion shall be entitled to a hearing to determine whether the student should be expelled. The hearing shall be held within 30 school days after the Superintendent, principal, or designee determines that the student has committed the act(s) that form the basis for the expulsion recommendation. (Education Code 48918(a))

The student is entitled to at least one postponement of an expulsion hearing for a period of not more than 30 calendar days. The request for postponement shall be in writing. Any subsequent postponement may be granted at the Board's discretion. (Education Code 48918(a))

If the Board finds it impractical during the regular school year to comply with these time requirements for conducting an expulsion hearing, the Superintendent or designee may, for good cause, extend the time period by an additional five school days. Reasons for the extension shall be included as a part of the record when the expulsion hearing is held. (Education Code 48918(a))

If the Board finds it impractical to comply with the time requirements of the expulsion hearing due to a summer recess of Board meetings of more than two weeks, the days during the recess shall not be counted as school days. The days not counted during the recess may not exceed 20 school days, as defined in Education Code 48925. Unless the student requests in writing that the expulsion hearing be postponed, the hearing shall be held not later than 20 calendar days prior to the first day of the next school year. (Education Code 48918(a))

Once the hearing starts, all matters shall be pursued with reasonable diligence and concluded without unnecessary delay. (Education Code 48918(a))

Stipulated Expulsion

After a determination that a student has committed an offense for which the student may be expelled, the Superintendent, principal, or designee shall offer the student, the student's parent/guardian, or, when applicable, other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, the option to waive a hearing and stipulate to the expulsion or to a suspension of the expulsion under certain conditions. The offer shall be made only after written notice of the expulsion hearing pursuant to Education Code 48918 has been given.

The stipulation agreement shall be in writing and shall be signed by the student, the student's parent/guardian, or, when applicable, the person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student. The stipulation agreement shall include notice of all the rights that the student is waiving, including the waiving of the right to have a full hearing, to appeal the expulsion to the County Board of Education, and to consult legal counsel.

A stipulated expulsion agreed to by the student, the student's parent/guardian, or, when applicable, the person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, shall be effective upon approval by the Board.

Rights of Complaining Witness

An expulsion hearing involving allegations of sexual assault or sexual battery may be postponed for one school day in order to accommodate the special physical, mental, or emotional needs of a student who is the complaining witness. (Education Code 48918.5)

Whenever the Superintendent or designee recommends an expulsion hearing that addresses allegations of sexual assault or sexual battery, the Superintendent or designee shall give the complaining witness a copy of the district's suspension and expulsion policy and regulation and shall advise the witness of the right to: (Education Code 48918.5)
Receive five days' notice of the scheduled testimony at the hearing

Have up to two adult support persons present at the hearing at the time the witness testifies

Have a closed hearing during the time the witness testifies
Whenever any allegation of sexual assault or sexual battery is made, the Superintendent or designee shall immediately advise complaining witnesses and accused students to refrain from personal or telephone contact with each other during the time when an expulsion process is pending. (Education Code 48918.5)

Written Notice of the Expulsion Hearing

Written notice of the expulsion hearing shall be forwarded to the student and the student's parent/guardian at least 10 calendar days before the date of the hearing. The notice shall include: (Education Code 48900.8, 48918(b))
The date and place of the hearing

A statement of the specific facts, charges, and offense upon which the proposed expulsion is based

A copy of district disciplinary rules which relate to the alleged violation

Notification of the student's or parent/guardian's obligation, pursuant to Education Code 48915.1, to provide information about the student's status in the district to any other district in which the student seeks enrollment

This obligation applies when a student is expelled for acts other than those described in Education Code 48915(a) or (c).

The opportunity for the student or the student's parent/guardian to appear in person or be represented by legal counsel or by a nonattorney adviser

Legal counsel means an attorney or lawyer who is admitted to the practice of law in California and is an active member of the State Bar of California.

Nonattorney adviser means an individual who is not an attorney or lawyer, but who is familiar with the facts of the case and has been selected by the student or student's parent/guardian to provide assistance at the hearing.

The right to inspect and obtain copies of all documents to be used at the hearing

The opportunity to confront and question all witnesses who testify at the hearing

The opportunity to question all evidence presented and to present oral and documentary evidence on the student's behalf, including witnesses
Additional Notice of Expulsion Hearing for Foster Youth, Homeless Students, and Indian Children

If the student facing expulsion is a foster student or Indian child, the Superintendent or designee shall also send notice of the hearing to the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or the Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, county social worker, at least 10 calendar days prior to the hearing. (Education Code 48918.1)

If the student facing expulsion is a student experiencing homelessness, the Superintendent or designee shall also send notice of the hearing to the district liaison for homeless students at least 10 calendar days prior to the hearing. (Education Code 48918.1)

Any notice for these purposes may be provided by the most cost-effective method possible, including by email or a telephone call. (Education Code 48918.1)

Conduct of Expulsion Hearing

Closed Session: Notwithstanding Education Code 35145, the Board shall conduct a hearing to consider the expulsion of the student in a session closed to the public unless the student requests in writing at least five days prior to the hearing that the hearing be a public meeting. If such a request is made, the meeting shall be public to the extent that privacy rights of other students are not violated. (Education Code 48918)

Whether the expulsion hearing is held in closed or public session, the Board may meet in closed session to deliberate and determine whether the student should be expelled. If the Board admits any other person to this closed session, the parent/guardian, the student, and the counsel of the student also shall be allowed to attend the closed session. (Education Code 48918(c))

If a hearing that involves a charge of sexual assault or sexual battery is to be conducted in public, a complaining witness shall have the right to testify in closed session when testifying in public would threaten serious psychological harm to the witness and when there are no alternative procedures to avoid the threatened harm, including, but not limited to, a videotaped deposition or contemporaneous examination in another place communicated to the hearing room by closed-circuit television. (Education Code 48918(c)

Record of Hearing: A record of the hearing shall be made and may be maintained by any means, including electronic recording, as long as a reasonably accurate and complete written transcription of the proceedings can be made. (Education Code 48918(g))

Subpoenas: Before commencing a student expulsion hearing, the Board may issue subpoenas, at the request of either the student or the Superintendent or designee, for the personal appearance at the hearing of any person who actually witnessed the action that gave rise to the recommendation for expulsion. After the hearing has commenced, the Board or the hearing officer or administrative panel may issue such subpoenas at the request of the student or the County Superintendent of Schools or designee. All subpoenas shall be issued in accordance with Code of Civil Procedure 1985-1985.2 and enforced in accordance with Government Code 11455.20. (Education Code 48918(i))

Any objection raised by the student or the Superintendent or designee to the issuance of subpoenas may be considered by the Board in closed session, or in open session if so requested by the student, before the meeting. The Board's decision in response to such an objection shall be final and binding. (Education Code 48918(i))

If the Board determines, or if the hearing officer or administrative panel finds and submits to the Board, that a witness would be subject to unreasonable risk of harm by testifying at the hearing, a subpoena shall not be issued to compel the personal attendance of that witness at the hearing. However, that witness may be compelled to testify by means of a sworn declaration as described in Item #6 below. (Education Code 48918(i))

Presentation of Evidence: Technical rules of evidence shall not apply to the expulsion hearing, but relevant evidence may be admitted and used as proof only if it is the kind of evidence on which reasonable persons can rely in the conduct of serious affairs. The decision of the Board to expel shall be supported by substantial evidence that the student committed any of the acts pursuant to Education Code 48900 and listed in "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12," and "Additional Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades 4-12," above. (Education Code 48918(h))

Findings of fact shall be based solely on the evidence at the hearing. Although no finding shall be based solely on hearsay, sworn declarations may be admitted as testimony from witnesses whose disclosure of their identity or testimony at the hearing may subject them to an unreasonable risk of physical or psychological harm. (Education Code 48918(f))

In cases where a search of a student's person or property has occurred, evidence describing the reasonableness of the search shall be included in the hearing record.

Testimony by Complaining Witnesses: The following procedures shall be observed when a hearing involves allegations of sexual assault or sexual battery by a student: (Education Code 48918, 48918.5)

Any complaining witness shall be given five days' notice before being called to testify

Any complaining witness shall be entitled to have up to two adult support persons, including, but not limited to, a parent/guardian or legal counsel, present during the testimony

Before a complaining witness testifies, support persons shall be admonished that the hearing is confidential

The person presiding over the hearing may remove a support person who is disrupting the hearing

If one or both support persons are also witnesses, the hearing shall be conducted in accordance with Penal Code 868.5

Evidence of specific instances of prior sexual conduct of a complaining witness shall be presumed inadmissible and shall not be heard unless the person conducting the hearing determines that extraordinary circumstances require the evidence to be heard

Before such a determination is made, the complaining witness shall be given notice and an opportunity to oppose the introduction of this evidence. In the hearing on the admissibility of this evidence, the complaining witness shall be entitled to be represented by a parent/guardian, legal counsel, or other support person. Reputation or opinion evidence regarding the sexual behavior of a complaining witness shall not be admissible for any purpose.

In order to facilitate a free and accurate statement of the experiences of the complaining witness and to prevent discouragement of complaints, the district shall provide a nonthreatening environment

The district shall provide a room separate from the hearing room for the use of the complaining witness before and during breaks in testimony

At the discretion of the person conducting the hearing, the complaining witness shall be allowed reasonable periods of relief from examination and cross-examination during which the complaining witness may leave the hearing room

The person conducting the hearing may:

Arrange the seating within the hearing room so as to facilitate a less intimidating environment for the complaining witness

Limit the time for taking the testimony of a complaining witness to normal school hours, if there is no good cause to take the testimony during other hours

Decision: The Board's decision as to whether to expel a student shall be made within 40 school days after the student is removed from school, unless the student requests in writing that the decision be postponed. (Education Code 48918(a))
Alternative Expulsion Hearing: Hearing Officer or Administrative Panel

Instead of conducting an expulsion hearing itself, the Board may contract with the county hearing officer or with the Office of Administrative Hearings of the State of California for a hearing officer. The Board may also appoint an impartial administrative panel composed of three or more certificated personnel, none of whom shall be members of the Board or on the staff of the school in which the student is enrolled. (Education Code 48918)

A hearing conducted by the hearing officer or administrative panel shall conform to the same procedures applicable to a hearing conducted by the Board as specified above in "Conduct of Expulsion Hearing," including the requirement to issue a decision within 40 school days of the student's removal from school, unless the student requests that the decision be postponed. (Education Code 48918(a) and (d))

The hearing officer or administrative panel shall, within three school days after the hearing, determine whether to recommend expulsion of the student to the Board. If expulsion is not recommended, the expulsion proceeding shall be terminated and the student shall be immediately reinstated and permitted to return to the classroom instructional program from which the referral was made, unless another placement is requested in writing by the student's parent/guardian. Before the student's placement decision is made by the student's parent/guardian, the Superintendent or designee shall consult with the parent/guardian and district staff, including the student's teachers, regarding other placement options for the student in addition to the option to return to the classroom instructional program from which the student's expulsion referral was made. The decision to not recommend expulsion shall be final. (Education Code 48918(e))

If expulsion is recommended, findings of fact in support of the recommendation shall be prepared and submitted to the Board. All findings of fact and recommendations shall be based solely on the evidence presented at the hearing. The

Board may accept the recommendation based either upon a review of the findings of fact and recommendations submitted or upon the results of any supplementary hearing the Board may order. (Education Code 48918(f))

In accordance with Board policy, the hearing officer or administrative panel may recommend that the Board suspend the enforcement of the expulsion. If the hearing officer or administrative panel recommends that the Board expel a student but suspend the enforcement of the expulsion, the student shall not be reinstated and permitted to return to the classroom instructional program from which the referral was made until the Board has ruled on the recommendation. (Education Code 48917, 48918)

Final Action by the Board

Whether the expulsion hearing is conducted in closed or open session by the Board, a hearing officer, or an administrative panel or is waived through the signing of a stipulated expulsion agreement, the final action to expel shall be taken by the Board in public. (Education Code 48918(j))

The Board's decision is final. If the decision is to not expel, the student shall be reinstated immediately. If the decision is to suspend the enforcement of the expulsion, the student shall be reinstated under the conditions of the suspended expulsion.

Upon ordering an expulsion, the Board shall set a date when the student shall be reviewed for readmission to a school within the district. For a student expelled for any "mandatory recommendation and mandatory expulsion" act listed in "Authority to Expel" in the accompanying Board policy, this date shall be one year from the date the expulsion occurred, except that the Board may set an earlier date on a case-by-case basis. For a student expelled for other acts, this date shall be no later than the last day of the semester following the semester in which the expulsion occurred. If an expulsion is ordered during summer session or the intersession period of a year-round program, the Board shall set a date when the student shall be reviewed for readmission not later than the last day of the semester following the summer session or intersession period in which the expulsion occurred. (Education Code 48916)

At the time of the expulsion order, the Board shall recommend a plan for the student's rehabilitation, which may include: (Education Code 48916)
Periodic review, as well as assessment at the time of review, for readmission

Recommendations for improved academic performance, tutoring, special education assessments, job training, counseling, employment, community service, or other rehabilitative programs
With parent/guardian consent, students who have been expelled for reasons relating to controlled substances or alcohol may be required to enroll in a county-sponsored drug rehabilitation program before returning to school. (Education Code 48916.5)

Written Notice to Expel

The Superintendent or designee shall send written notice of the decision to expel to the student or parent/guardian. This notice shall include the following:
The specific offense committed by the student for any of the causes for suspension or expulsion listed above under "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12" or "Additional Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades 4-12" (Education Code 48900.8)

The fact that a description of readmission procedures will be made available to the student and parent/guardian (Education Code 48916)

Notice of the right to appeal the expulsion to the County Board (Education Code 48918)

Notice of the alternative educational placement to be provided to the student during the time of expulsion (Education Code 48918)

In accordance with Board policy, when deciding whether to suspend the enforcement of an expulsion order, the Board shall take into account the following criteria:
The student's pattern of behavior

The seriousness of the misconduct

The student's attitude toward the misconduct and willingness to follow a rehabilitation program
The suspension of the enforcement of an expulsion shall be governed by the following:
The Board may, as a condition of the suspension of enforcement, assign the student to a school, class, or program appropriate for the student's rehabilitation

This rehabilitation program may provide for the involvement of the student's parent/guardian in the student's education. However, a parent/guardian's refusal to participate in the rehabilitation program shall not be considered in the Board's determination as to whether the student has satisfactorily completed the rehabilitation program. (Education Code 48917)

During the period when enforcement of the expulsion order is suspended, the student shall be on probationary status (Education Code 48917)

The suspension of the enforcement of an expulsion order may be revoked by the Board if the student commits any of the acts listed under "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12" or "Additional Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades 4-12" above, or violates any of the district's rules and regulations governing student conduct (Education Code 48917)

Appeal

If a student is expelled from school, the student or parent/guardian is entitled to file an appeal of the Board's decision with the County Board. The appeal must be filed within 30 days of the Board's decision to expel, even if the expulsion order is suspended and the student is placed on probation. (Education Code 48919)

If the student submits a written request for a copy of the written transcripts and supporting documents from the district simultaneously with the filing of the notice of appeal with the County Board, the district shall provide the student with these documents within 10 school days following the student's written request. (Education Code 48919)

Notification to Law Enforcement Authorities

Prior to the suspension or expulsion of any student, the principal or designee shall notify appropriate city or county law enforcement authorities of any student acts of assault which may have violated Penal Code 245. (Education Code 48902)

The principal or designee shall notify appropriate city or county law enforcement authorities of any student acts which may involve the possession or sale of narcotics or of a controlled substance, or of any student acts involving the possession, sale, or furnishing of firearms, explosives, or other dangerous weapons in violation of Education Code 48915(c)(1) or (5) or Penal Code 626.9 and 626.10. (Education Code 48902)

Placement During Expulsion

The Board shall refer expelled students to a program of study that is: (Education Code 48915, 48915.01)
Appropriately prepared to accommodate students who exhibit discipline problems

Not provided at a comprehensive middle, junior, or senior high school or at any elementary school, unless the program is offered at a community day school established at any of these

Not housed at the school site attended by the student at the time of suspension
When the placement described above is not available and when the County Superintendent so certifies, students expelled for only acts described in Items #6-12 under "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12" and Items #1-3 under "Additional Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades 4-12" above may be referred to a program of study that is provided at another comprehensive middle, junior, or senior high school or at an elementary school. (Education Code 48915)

The program for a student expelled from any of grades K-6 shall not be combined or merged with programs offered to students in any of grades 7-12. (Education Code 48916.1)

Readmission After Expulsion

Prior to the date set by the Board for the student's readmission:
The Superintendent or designee shall hold a conference with the student's parent/guardian, or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, and the student

At the conference, the student's rehabilitation plan shall be reviewed and the Superintendent or designee shall verify that the provisions of this plan have been met. School regulations shall be reviewed and the student and the student's parent/guardian or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student shall be asked to indicate in writing their willingness to comply with these regulations.

The Superintendent or designee shall transmit to the Board a recommendation regarding readmission

The Board shall consider this recommendation in closed session. If a written request for open session is received from the student's parent/guardian or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, or adult student, it shall be honored to the extent that privacy rights of other students are not violated.

If the readmission is granted, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the student and the student's parent/guardian, or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, by registered mail, of the Board's decision regarding readmission

The Board may deny readmission only if it finds that the student has not satisfied the conditions of the rehabilitation plan or that the student continues to pose a danger to campus safety or to other district students or employees (Education Code 48916)

If the Board denies the readmission of a student, the Board shall determine either to continue the student's placement in the alternative educational program initially selected or to place the student in another program that serves expelled students, including placement in a county community school

The Board shall provide written notice to the expelled student and the student's parent/guardian, or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, describing the reasons for denying readmittance into the regular program

This notice shall indicate the Board's determination of the educational program which the Board has chosen. The student shall enroll in that program unless the parent/guardian chooses to enroll the student in another school district. No student shall be denied readmission into the district based solely on the student's arrest, adjudication by a juvenile court, formal or informal supervision by a probation officer, detention in a juvenile facility, enrollment in a juvenile court school, or other such contact with the juvenile justice system. (Education Code 48645.5)

Maintenance of Records

The district shall maintain a record of each suspension and expulsion, including its specific cause(s). (Education Code 48900.8)

When a student commits certain offenses that may endanger staff or others, the following procedures shall be implemented to notify staff members as appropriate:
Acts That Are Grounds for Suspension or Expulsion

The Superintendent or designee shall inform the teacher(s) of each student who, during the previous three school years, has engaged in or is reasonably suspected to have engaged in any act, except the possession or use of tobacco products, that would constitute a ground for suspension or expulsion as specified in Administrative Regulation 5144.1 - Suspension and Expulsion/Due Process (Education Code 49079)

Any court-initiated information that a teacher, counselor, or administrator receives shall be kept confidential and used only to rehabilitate the student and protect other students and staff (Welfare and Institutions Code 827)

When a student is removed from school as a result of an offense, the Superintendent shall hold the court's information in a separate confidential file until the student is returned to the district (Welfare and Institutions Code 827)

If the student is returned to a different district, the Superintendent shall transmit the information provided by the student's parole or probation officer to the superintendent of the new district of attendance. (Welfare and Institutions Code 827)

The Superintendent or designee shall engage in a timely, good faith, and interactive process with the employee to determine effective reasonable accommodations that do not pose an undue hardship on the district. In determining whether an accommodation is reasonable, the Superintendent or designee shall consider any exigent circumstance or danger facing the employee or their family member. (Government Code 12945.8)

Upon the request of the Superintendent or designee, an employee requesting a reasonable accommodation shall provide a written statement, signed by the employee or an individual acting on the employee's behalf, certifying that the accommodation is for an authorized purpose. The employee shall notify the Superintendent or designee if, due to changing circumstances, the employee needs a new accommodation or no longer needs an accommodation. If a new accommodation is needed, the Superintendent or designee shall follow the procedures described above when making the initial determination regarding effective reasonable accommodations. (Government Code 12945.8)

The district shall not discharge or retaliate against an employee because of the employee's status as a victim of crime or abuse or for requesting a reasonable accommodation, regardless of whether the request was granted. (Government Code 12945.8)

The Governing Board desires to provide a welcoming, safe, and supportive school environment that allows all students equal access to and opportunities in the district's academic, extracurricular, and other educational support programs, services, and activities.

This policy shall apply to all acts constituting unlawful discrimination or harassment related to district activity or attendance, to acts which occur off campus or outside of district-related or district-sponsored activities but which may have an impact or create a hostile environment at school, and to all acts of the Board and the Superintendent in enacting policies and procedures that govern the district.

The Board prohibits, at any district school or activity, unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, and bullying, against an individual or group based on one, or a combination of two or more, protected characteristics, which include, but may not be limited to, race or ethnicity; ancestry; color; ethnic group identification; nationality; national origin; immigration status; sex; sexual orientation; sex stereotypes; gender; gender identity; gender expression; religion; disability; medical condition; genetic information; pregnancy, false pregnancy, childbirth, termination of pregnancy, or related conditions or recovery; and parental, marital, and family status; a perception of one or more of such characteristics; or association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics. (Education Code 200, 210.1, 210.2, 212, 212.1, 220, 221.51, 230, 260; Government Code 11135, 12926; 20 USC 1681-1688, 42 USC 2000d-2000d-7)

Unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, or bullying, may result from physical, verbal, nonverbal, or written conduct based on any of the categories listed above. Unlawful discrimination also occurs when prohibited conduct is so severe, persistent, or pervasive that it affects a student's ability to participate in or benefit from an educational program or activity; creates an intimidating, threatening, hostile, or offensive educational environment; has the effect of substantially or unreasonably interfering with a student's academic performance; or otherwise adversely affects a student's educational opportunities.

Unlawful discrimination also includes disparate treatment of students based on one of the categories above with respect to the provision of opportunities to participate in district programs or activities or the provision or receipt of educational benefits or services.

Because unlawful discrimination could occur when disciplining students, including suspension and expulsion, the Superintendent or designee shall ensure that staff enforce discipline rules fairly, consistently and in a non-discriminatory manner, as specified in Board Policy and Administrative Regulation 5144 - Discipline, Board Policy and Administrative Regulation 5144.1 - Suspension and Expulsion/Due Process, and Administrative Regulation 5144.2 - Suspension and Expulsion/Due Process (Students With Disabilities).

The Board also prohibits any form of retaliation against any individual who reports or participates in the reporting of unlawful discrimination, files or participates in the filing of a complaint, or investigates, participates, or refuses to participate in the investigation of a complaint or report alleging unlawful discrimination. Retaliation complaints shall be investigated and resolved in the same manner as a discrimination complaint.

The Superintendent or designee shall facilitate students' access to the educational program by publicizing the district's nondiscrimination policy and related complaint procedures to students, parents/guardians, and employees. In addition,

the Superintendent or designee shall post the district's policies prohibiting discrimination, harassment, intimidation, and bullying and other required information on the district's website in a manner that is easily accessible to parents/guardians and students, in accordance with law and the accompanying administrative regulation. (Education Code 234.1, 234.6; 34 CFR 106.8)

The Superintendent or designee shall provide training and/or information on the scope and use of the policy and complaint procedures and take other measures designed to increase understanding of the requirements of law related to discrimination. The Superintendent or designee shall regularly review the implementation of the district's nondiscrimination policies and practices and, as necessary, shall take action to remove any identified barrier to student access to or participation in the district's educational program. The Superintendent or designee shall report the findings and recommendations to the Board after each review.

Regardless of whether a complainant complies with the writing, timeline, and/or other formal filing requirements, all complaints alleging unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, or bullying, shall be investigated and prompt action taken to stop the discrimination, prevent recurrence, and address any continuing effect on students.

Students who engage in unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, retaliation, or bullying, in violation of law, Board policy, or administrative regulation shall be subject to appropriate consequence or discipline, which may include suspension or expulsion when the behavior is severe or pervasive as defined in Education Code 48900.4. Any employee who permits or engages in prohibited discrimination related to a district activity, attendance, or district-related or district-sponsored activity, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, retaliation, or bullying, shall be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal.

When a student has been suspended, or other means of correction have been implemented against the student for an incident of racist bullying, harassment, or intimidation, the principal or designee may engage both the victim and perpetrator in a restorative justice practice suitable to the needs of the students. The principal or designee may also require the perpetrator to engage in a culturally sensitive program that promotes racial justice and equity and combats racism and ignorance and regularly check on the victim to ensure that the victim is not in danger of suffering from any long-lasting mental health issues. (Education Code 48900.5)

When appropriate based on the severity or pervasiveness of the bullying, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the parents/guardians of victims and perpetrators and may contact law enforcement.

Complaints alleging unlawful discrimination in district programs and activities shall be investigated and resolved in accordance with Board Policy 1312.3 - Uniform Complaint Procedures, when required by law. However, complaints alleging sexual harassment under Title IX shall be investigated and resolved in accordance with the procedures specified in Administrative Regulation 5145.71 - Title IX Sexual Harassment Complaint Procedures.

Record-Keeping

The Superintendent or designee shall maintain a record of all reported cases of unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, or bullying, to enable the district to monitor, address, and prevent repetitive prohibited behavior in district schools.

Support for Intersex, Nonbinary, Transgender and Gender-Nonconforming Students

Gender refers to a student's sex, and includes a student's gender identity and gender expression. (Education Code 210.7)

Gender identity refers to a student's gender-related identity, appearance, or behavior as determined from the student's internal sense, regardless of whether that gender-related identity, appearance, or behavior is different from that traditionally associated with the student's physiology or assigned sex at birth.

Gender expression refers to a student's gender-related appearance and behavior, regardless of whether stereotypically associated with the student's assigned sex at birth. (Education Code 210.7)

Gender transition refers to the process in which a student changes from living and identifying as the sex assigned to the student at birth to living and identifying as the sex that corresponds to the student's gender identity.

Gender-nonconforming refers to when a student's gender expression differs from stereotypical expectations.

Intersex refers to when a student has natural bodily variations in anatomy, hormones, chromosomes, and other traits that differ from expectations generally associated with female and male bodies.

Nonbinary refers to when a student's gender identity falls outside of the traditional conception of strictly either female or male, regardless of whether the student identifies as transgender, was born with intersex traits, uses gender-neutral pronouns, or uses agender, genderqueer, pangender, gender nonconforming, gender variant, or such other more specific term to describe their gender.

Sex refers to the biological condition of being a female or male human being. (5 CCR 4910)

Transgender refers to when a student's gender identity is different from the sex assigned at birth.

The district shall ensure that all students, regardless of sex, gender, gender identity or gender expression, are afforded the same rights, benefits, and protections provided to students by law and Board policy. To do so, the Superintendent or designee shall address each situation that arises on a case-by-case basis and in accordance with the following guidelines:

Acceptance of a Student's Gender Identity: The district shall accept the student's assertion of the student's gender identity and treat the student consistent with that gender identity unless district personnel present a credible and supportable basis for believing that the student's assertion is for an improper purpose

Use of Names and Pronouns: Upon request by a student, district personnel shall address the student by the requested name and pronoun(s), without the necessity of a court order or a change to the student's mandatory permanent student record

Inadvertent slips or honest mistakes by district personnel in the use of the student's name and/or pronouns may not constitute a violation of this administrative regulation or the accompanying Board policy.

Accessibility to Sex-Segregated Facilities, Programs, and Activities: When the district maintains sex-segregated facilities, such as restrooms and locker rooms, or offers sex-segregated programs and activities, such as physical education classes, intermural sports, and interscholastic athletic programs, students shall be permitted to access facilities and participate in programs and activities consistent with their gender identity

To address any student's privacy concerns in using sex-segregated facilities, the district shall consider offering a gender-neutral or single-use restroom or changing area, a bathroom stall with a door, an area in the locker room separated by a curtain or screen, or use of the locker room before or after the other students. However, in no case shall the district require a student to utilize these options because of the student's sex, gender, gender identify, or gender expression. A student's right to participate in a sex-segregated activity in accordance with the student's gender identity shall not render invalid or inapplicable any other eligibility rule established for participation in the activity.

Adherence to Uniforms/Dress Code: A student has the right to dress in a manner consistent with the student's gender identity, subject to any dress code adopted on a school site, which may not discriminate on the basis of sex, gender, gender identity or gender expression

Equal Access to Educational Programs and Activities: Upon request by a student based on the student's gender identity or gender expression, the Compliance Officer shall identify and develop strategies for ensuring that the student's access to educational programs and activities is maintained

The Compliance Officer shall consider the rights of all students and how those rights may affect and be affected by the rights of other students. Additionally, the Compliance Officer shall identify specific school site employee(s) to whom the student may report any problem related to the student's sex, gender, gender identity, or gender expression so that prompt action can be taken to address it. Alternatively, if appropriate and desired by the student, the school may form a support team for the student that will meet periodically to assess whether the arrangements for the student are providing equal access to programs and activities.

The district may only disclose such information to others when the disclosure is permitted by law, with the student's prior written consent, or when the district has compelling evidence that disclosure is necessary to preserve the student's physical or mental well-being. (Education Code 220.3, 220.5; 34 CFR 99.31, 99.36)

Student Records: A student's sex and legal name shall be maintained as part of a student's mandatory permanent student record as specified in 5 CCR 432 and shall only be changed with proper documentation (Education Code 49061-49072)

When a request to change a student's gender or name is submitted without proper documentation, any change to the student's gender or name shall be applied only to documents not included in the mandatory permanent student record such as attendance sheets, report cards, and school identification.

The Superintendent or designee shall follow this guideline such that it does not change or alter the obligations of the district to maintain student records in accordance with Board Policy/Administrative Regulation 5125 - Student Records, and to ensure access to such records in accordance with Board Policy/Administrative Regulation 1340 - Access to District Records.
The district prohibits any act of verbal, nonverbal, or physical aggression, intimidation, or hostility, including any such act based on sex, gender, gender identity, or gender expression, or that have the purpose or effect of producing a negative impact on the student's academic performance or of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive educational environment, regardless of whether the acts are sexual in nature, including, but not limited to:

Upon the request of the Superintendent or designee, an employee requesting a reasonable accommodation shall provide a written statement, signed by the employee or an individual acting on the employee's behalf, certifying that the accommodation is for an authorized purpose. Every six months after the date of the certification, the Superintendent or designee may request recertification of the employee's status as a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, other specified offense, or ongoing circumstances related to the crime or abuse. The employee shall notify the Superintendent or designee if, due to changing circumstances, the employee needs a new accommodation or no longer needs an accommodation. If a new accommodation is needed, the Superintendent or designee shall follow the procedures described above when making the initial determination regarding effective reasonable accommodations. (Government Code 12945.8)

The district shall not discharge or retaliate against an employee because of the employee's status as a victim of crime or abuse or for requesting a reasonable accommodation, regardless of whether the request was granted. (Government Code 12945.8)

Opioid Overdose Protocol – Melanie's Law

Current law (Education Code section 49414.3) allows schools to provide emergency opioid antagonist administration for individuals who may be experiencing symptoms of opioid drug poisoning. Opioid drug poisoning is a life-threatening condition that can be reversed with the administration of an opioid antagonist medication such as naloxone. Without immediate administration of an opioid antagonist and summoning Emergency Medical Services (911), death could occur.

This law allows for a school nurse or a trained volunteer to administer an opioid antagonist medication to an individual who is exhibiting potentially life-threatening symptoms of opioid drug poisoning. Training is provided to the volunteer on topics including but not limited to:

- Signs and symptoms of opioid drug poisoning
- How to administer the naloxone nasal spray (or other opioid antagonist)
- Calling EMS (911) and any follow up documentation or actions required.

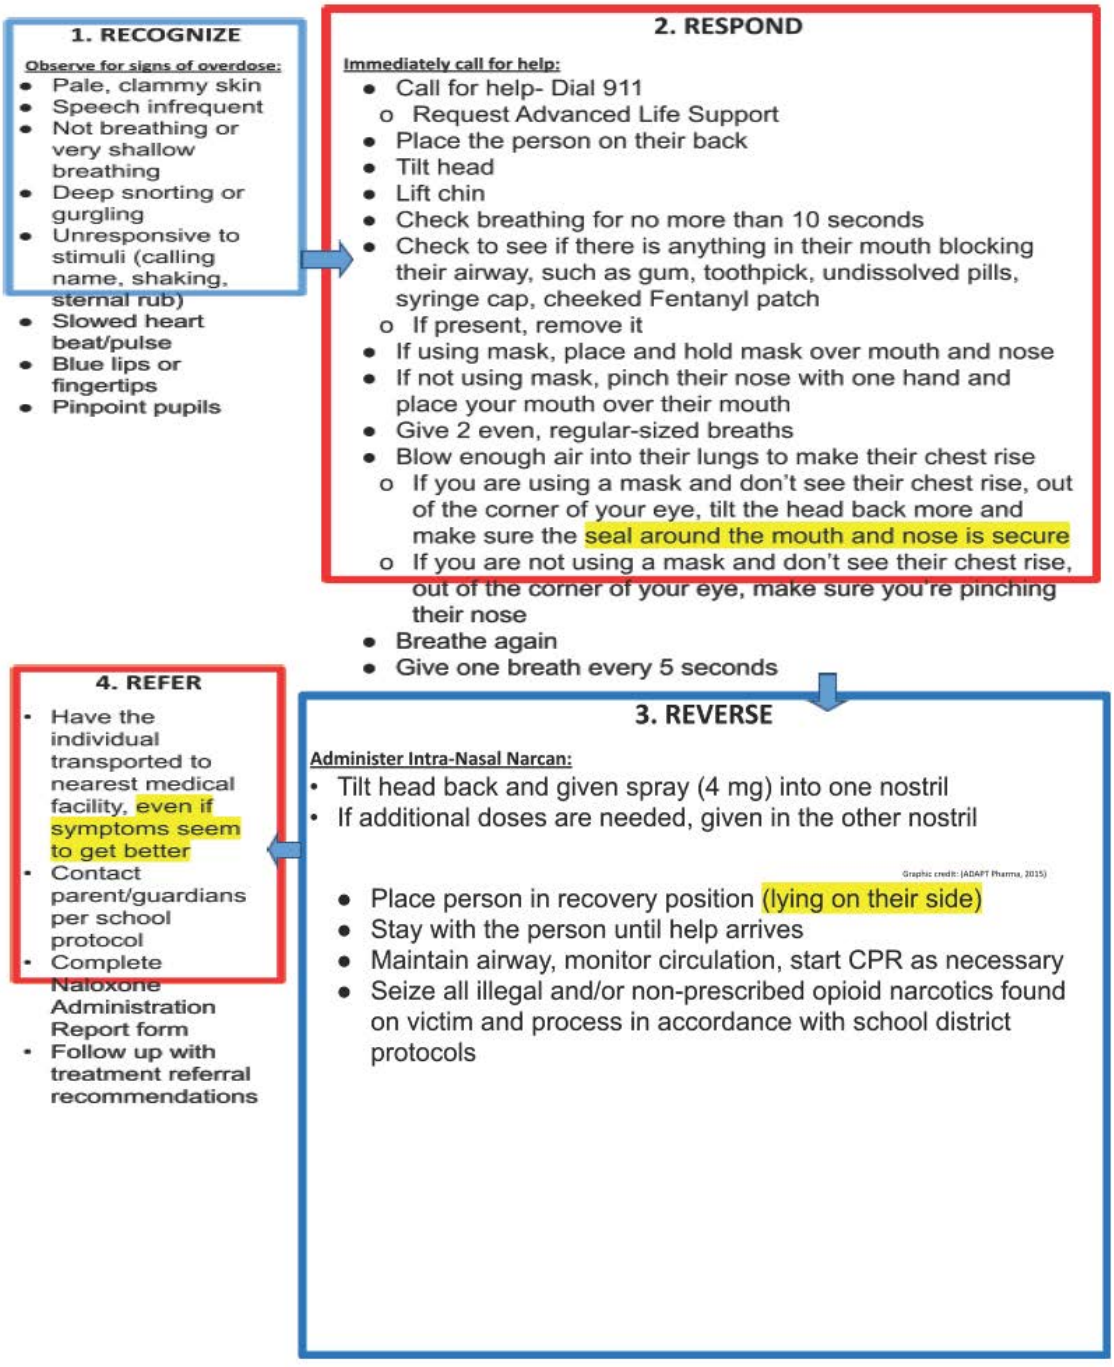
*CPR training is recommended but not required of persons trained to administer an opioid antagonist.

Staff members who volunteer to be trained are protected under the law and will be provided defense and indemnification by the District for any and all civil liability.

This notification is provided annually to all staff. If staff are willing to be identified as a volunteer and be trained, staff complete the volunteer form and submit it to their site administrator.

Employees who volunteer to be trained may rescind their offer to volunteer at any time. No benefit will be granted to or withheld from any individual based on his or her offer to volunteer. There will be no retaliation against any individual for rescinding his or her offer to volunteer, including after receiving training.

Narcan/Naloxone on School Sites:
Each school site is given Narcan/Naloxone packages for overdose or possible overdose events. These complete packages contain:



- Narcan Nasal Spay
- Narcan/Naloxone Quick Start Guide
- Gloves
- Face Mask
- Adult/Child CPR Rescue Mask Kit

o Alcohol Pads
o Rescue Mask Instructions

- Narcan/Naloxone Administration Report

(For additional supplies, please contact the District Office.)

Notification of Immigration Enforcement for Washington Elementary School

Protocol for Responding to ICE Agents on Campus
(Updated to reflect AB 49, SB 98, and CDE Guidance, September 2025)

This protocol is aligned with recommendations from the California School Board Association (CSBA), the California Department of Education (CDE), and recent legislation (AB 49 and SB 98). It is designed to uphold the law while protecting the rights and safety of students and staff.

Step 1: Remain Calm and Professional
Greet ICE agents respectfully.
Do not obstruct their actions physically or verbally.
Remember: Obstruction may result in legal consequences and loss of federal funding.

Step 2: Verify Access Requirements (AB 49)
Do not allow ICE agents into non-public areas of the school-site (classrooms, offices, buses, field trips, or other LEA-sponsored activities) without one of the following:

- A valid judicial warrant
- A judicial subpoena
- A court order
- A state or federal law requiring compliance

Politely ask:
1. “Do you have a judicial warrant, subpoena, or court order?”
2. “May I have your name and the names of the agents present?”
3. “May I call my principal to help assist in this process?”
4. “May I contact the superintendent/district office to ensure I follow Governing Board Policies correctly?”
5. “May I record this interaction?”

Step 3: Document the Interaction
Record:

- Names of agents
- Time and date of arrival
- Any documents presented
- Details of their requests or actions

Do not interpret legal documents yourself. Immediately forward warrants, subpoenas, or court orders to district-level personnel.

Step 4: Follow Standard Law Enforcement Procedures
Treat ICE agents as you would any other law enforcement officers (LEOs).
Verify credentials.
Ensure all interactions align with visitor management and safety protocols.

Step 5: Communication Protocol (SB 98)
Notify the following if ICE is present on a school site:

- Pupils
- Families
- Faculty and staff
- Other community members as appropriate

Use district-approved messaging channels to ensure clear, accurate, and timely communication.

Step 6: Prioritize Safety and Contact the District Office
Keep students and staff safe and calm.
If uncertain how to proceed, immediately contact the District Office for guidance.
Do not make independent legal determinations—defer to district leadership.
Key Reminders
Student and staff well-being comes first.
Never allow unauthorized access to non-public areas.
Always document interactions and escalate legal review.

Emergencies Disaster Preparedness Plan – BP/AR 3516

The Governing Board recognizes that all district staff and students must be prepared to respond quickly and responsibly to emergencies, disasters, and threats of disaster. The district shall take all reasonable steps to prevent and/or mitigate the impact of a disaster on district students, staff, and schools.

The Superintendent or designee shall develop and maintain a disaster preparedness plan which contains routine and emergency disaster procedures, including, but not limited to, earthquake emergency procedures, and adaptations for individuals with disabilities in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and Section 504 of the federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Such procedures shall be incorporated into the comprehensive school safety plan. (Education Code 32282)

In developing the disaster preparedness plan, the Superintendent or designee shall involve district staff at all levels, including administrators, district police or security officers, facilities managers, transportation managers, food services personnel, school psychologists, counselors, school nurses, teachers, classified employees, and public information officers. Bomb threat or actual detonation
Biological, radiological, chemical, and other activities, or heightened warning of such activities
Medical emergencies and quarantines, such as a pandemic influenza outbreak
Attack or threat of attack to the district's digital network and technology infrastructure

The Superintendent or designee shall ensure that the district's procedures include strategies and actions for prevention/mitigation, preparedness, response, and recovery, including, but not limited to, the following:
Regular inspection of school facilities and equipment, identification of risks, and implementation of strategies and measures to increase the safety and security of school facilities

Personal safety and security, including:
Identification of areas of responsibility for the supervision of students
Procedures for the evacuation of students and staff, including posting of evacuation routes

Procedures for the release of students, including a procedure to release students when reference to the emergency card is not feasible

Provision of a first aid kit to each classroom
Arrangements for students and staff with special needs
Upon notification that a pandemic situation exists, adjustment of attendance policies for students and sick leave policies for staff with known or suspected pandemic influenza or other infectious disease

Closure of schools, including an analysis of:

The Superintendent or designee shall assemble critical information that would be needed in an emergency. Such information may include, but is not limited to, a list of individuals and organizations who should be contacted for assistance in an emergency, current layouts and blueprints of school buildings, aerial photos of the campus, maps of evacuation routes and alternate routes, a roster of employees with their work locations, student photographs and their emergency contact information, a clearly labeled set of keys, location of first aid supplies, procedures and locations for turning off fire alarms, sprinklers, utilities, and other systems, information to access the district's technology infrastructure, and insurance information. Such information shall be stored in a box in a secure, easily accessible location, with a duplicate kept at another location in case the primary location is inaccessible.

Use of SEMS/NIMS *

The District uses the Incident Command System as identified in the Authorities and References section of this plan.

In the event of a major disaster, there is no guarantee emergency medical, or fire personnel will be able to immediately respond to school sites. Therefore, the school staff must be prepared to ensure the care and safety of students during the first several hours after a major disaster without outside assistance. It is critical to determine who does what, where, and how before such a disaster occurs.

Use the Standardized Emergency Management System as detailed in the California Emergency Services Act (Gov. Code Section 8607) and the supporting California Code of Regulations

Disaster Service Worker Status

Government Code 3100
It is hereby declared that the protection of the health and safety and preservation of the lives and property of the people of the state from the effects of natural, manmade, or war-caused emergencies which result in conditions of disaster or in extreme peril to life, property, and resources is of paramount state importance requiring the responsible efforts of public and private agencies and individual citizens. In furtherance of the exercise of the police power of the state in protection of its citizens and resources, all public employees are hereby declared to be disaster service workers subject to such disaster service activities as may be assigned to them by their supervisors or by law.
(Amended by Stats. 1971, Ch. 38.)

These laws have two ramifications: 1) public school employees may be pressed into service as Disaster Service Workers by their superiors and may be asked to do jobs other than their usual duties for periods of time exceeding their normal working hours; and 2) in those cases, their Worker's Compensation Coverage becomes the responsibility of the state government (CalOES). The district, however, pays their overtime pay. These circumstances apply only when a local or State emergency has been proclaimed.

Individualized Safety Plans

The Education Code requires school disaster procedures to also include adaptations for pupils with disabilities in accordance with the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act and Section 504 of the federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and would require the annual evaluation of the comprehensive school safety plan and the annual review of a charter school's school safety plan to also include ensuring that the plan includes appropriate adaptations for pupils with disabilities and address any concerns to individual plans, as specified.

The Board shall cooperate with such agencies in furnishing and maintaining whatever services the district may deem necessary to meet the community's needs. (Education Code 32282)

Emergency Procedures for People with Disabilities

The information contained in this document will assist school administrators, teachers, special education staff, parents, and students in planning for the support that may require for students with special needs in the event of an emergency. For the purposes of this section, students with special needs are those who cannot comfortably or safely access and use the standard resources offered in disaster preparedness, relief and recovery, whether their disability is chronic or temporary.

For individuals with special needs, physical environments may pose additional challenges. The ability to get to accessible exits and access personal items may be reduced. Communication may be impeded at a time when clear and rapid communication is crucial to safety and survival.
To comply with statutes involving students with special needs, individuals responsible for evacuation and emergency operation plans, notification protocols, shelter identification, emergency medical care and other emergency response and recovery programs must:

- Have sound working knowledge of the accessibility and nondiscrimination requirements applicable under Federal disability rights laws;
- Know the special needs demographics of the students attending classes on site;
- Involve students with different types of disabilities, staff, and teachers in identifying the communication and transportation needs, accommodations, support systems, equipment, services, and supplies that they will need during an emergency;
- Consider emergency accommodations for those with temporary disabilities.
- Identify existing resources within the school and local community that meet the special needs of these students;
- Develop new community partners and resources, as needed.
- Inform parents about the efforts to keep their child safe at school;
- Identify medical needs and make an appropriate plan;
- Determine transportation needs, special vans and buses for students;
- Identify any necessary tools such as personal response plans, evacuation equipment or visual aids;
- Include local responders and establish a relationship with individual students with disabilities and their teachers.

Mitigation Strategies (Before an Emergency Occurs)

- Learn about the types of hazards that may impact the school (e.g., earthquakes, floods, wildfires) and assure that emergency response procedures address each one.
- Identify a pre-evacuation site that is accessible to students with disabilities
- Plan a primary and secondary evacuation route from each location the student is in during the course of the day.
- Arrange sufficient transportation ahead of time to accommodate the entire special needs/staff population.
- Develop a schedule of daily activities and classes that identifies where a special needs student may be located each period of the day.
- Consider classroom location in placement of students with disabilities. Evaluate the handicap accessibility of nearby exits and proximity to the school nurse.
- Conduct a test of the family notification system to assure that contact information is up-to-date to help decrease parent anxiety during a disaster.

Tactical Response to Criminal Incidents

ACTIVE SHOOTER OR OTHER ACTIVE ASSAILANTS

All district sites adhere to the standardized procedures for Lockdown and Active Shooter and other Active Assailant listed in this plan if there is an active shooter, individual with a weapon on campus or other possible violent crime. For more details see Active Asailant, Threats , and Lock Down procedures.

Dangerous, Violent, Or Unlawful Activities

SB 671 requires a Comprehensive School Safety Plan to include procedures to assess and respond to reports of any dangerous, violent, or unlawful activity that is being conducted or threatened to be conducted at the school, at an activity sponsored by the school, or on a school bus serving the school.

Multidisciplinary Threat Assessment Team
Eureka City Schools uses a multidisciplinary threat assessment team consisting of the specific site administrator, a local law enforcement representative, the student services Director, mental health or behavioral specialist representative as needed, and other outside services as needed.

Assessment and Response
Prohibited and concerning behaviors are defined in California Education Code 48900 and 48915. Additionally, all threats of self-harm are assessed and acted upon, as needed. In cases where dangerous, violent, or unlawful activities are being conducted, Law Enforcement is notified at once and a call to 911 is made.

The threshold of law enforcement intervention is decided by the relevant administration in cooperation with the District and mutual aid if requested. In practice, we find if a real or possible threat is present. We evaluate the threat or possible threat based upon prohibited and concerning behaviors, responding appropriately to the incident.

Risk Management
Risk Management is notified in incidents where there is physical, property or damage to others. Additionally, Risk Management is involved if a security assessment or report is needed. There may be times, following a potential or real incident, that an after-action debrief might be conducted, including a written summary.

School Culture and Training
Eureka City Schools utilizes PBIS as outlined in our PBIS Handbook. Eureka City Schools School Climate Team created our PBIS handbook in consultation with Dr. Jeff Sprague. The purpose of this handbook is to guide and support ECS staff as we implement PBIS in our school. Our goal is to provide all of our students with safe and effective school environments where they can experience academic and social-behavioral success.

Eureka City Schools conducts an annual update to their Comprehensive Safe School Plan at each school site as required by the California Education Code.

Training for all stakeholders is conducted during annual site meetings by administrators and/or district representatives.

Reunification

Student release is a crucial part of emergency planning. During an emergency or disaster, the traditional student release procedure is often unsafe and therefore not operable. Accordingly, a comprehensive emergency plan needs to include certain procedures to accomplish the main priority of safety planning which is to ensure the safety of the students to every extent possible.

There are a wide variety of emergency situations that might require student/family reunification. Student/family reunification may be needed if the site is evacuated or closed as a result of a hazardous materials transportation accident, fire, natural gas leak, flooding, earthquake, tsunami, school violence, bomb threat, terrorist attack or other local hazard.

Student/Family reunification is part of the Incident Command System and is assigned to the Operations Area.

Threats of Violence

THREATS

If a threat is made or if there is a weapon found on campus, the Threat Assessment team (consisting of multi-disciplinary personnel, including but not limited administration, counselors, mental health professionals, Information Technology professionals and law enforcement) will conduct the following steps:

- Evaluate the threat

THEN

OTHER CRIMES

If other crimes are committed on campus such as thefts and vandalism school administration, risk management and other needed resources along with law enforcement will conduct an investigation. Depending on the investigation outcomes, administration will follow district procedures for discipline and will assist in any necessary prosecution procedures through the District Attorney's office.

FUNCTIONAL ANNEX

Accounting for all Persons

Attendance Records

It is our daily practice to maintain manual attendance records in the Administrative Office of each site. This includes Daily Attendance Records, Site Employee Logs, Visitor Logs, and Itinerant Employee Logs (such as food services, maintenance and operations, etc.). If there are contractors or contracted service workers on-site in a controlled location (such as fenced areas under construction) the employer of record should be advised to consider keeping their own records of employee locations.

Crisis or Incident Accounting

In the event of a crisis or incident, each site administrator will ensure there are 2 – 3 key employees (only one needs to have control of records at a time – additional staff are only for backup) who will have responsibility as scribes to collect all site attendance records from the administrative office.

These records are to be provided to the on-site incident commander upon request. It is the scribe's responsibility to maintain and protect these records.

In cases where students, staff, or visitors cannot be located, the name and description of the person(s) will be provided to Search and Rescue teams for more specific search. All records of searches and tracking of people on-site will be recorded in appropriate ICS log. The incident commander will be kept informed of attendance status and updated with changes.

Assembly Areas

All staff will report as soon as is possible to their predesignated assembly areas. Premade signs may be used and maintained in assembly kits to assist in identifying specific assembly areas and will be held so as to be easily identified. Assembly area facilitators will distribute/record the attendance of all individuals in their assembly area.

For shelter-in-place or any evacuation, either on-site or off-site, attendance will be taken at any assembly areas and a comparison made to the attendance logs as follows:

Student Daily Attendance
Site Employee Log
Visitor Log
Itinerant Employee Log

Student Release

Student release will be conducted in an orderly fashion as outlined in the Reunification Annex of this plan. Attendance records will be checked and recorded as students leave the site.

Communications

Purpose

The Communications Annex ensures the availability and coordinated use of our communications systems for the dissemination of disaster information, for the exchange of information between decision-makers, and for the coordination of communications with local response agencies.

Scope

When activated, the Communications annex coordinates and supports emergency response/recovery telecommunications requirements. This includes the interface between our District and other agencies and outside organizations, such as local, state, and federal government, private nonprofit organizations, and business/industry. Immediately report communications degradation, interruption, or failure by alternate means (e.g. cell phone) to the Communications Officer and/or the District's Emergency Operations Center (EOC) if activated.

Activation

The senior executive (or designee) determines whether to activate this annex based upon information from initial staff reports and local authorities. The local emergency communications plan will include:
Channel designations
Contingency communications procedures
Training in back-up communications equipment

Key Tasks/Responsibilities

Develop a local communications plan
Establish and maintain liaison with local response agencies, state agencies, commercial communications companies, and amateur radio organizations
Support communications equipment (radio, computer, fax, etc.) as needed
Provide communications capability
Maintain equipment inventory
Designate a centrally-located area (usually main office) easily identified by staff, media, and the public
Predetermine an alternate location in case the primary location is inaccessible
Establish communication with staff
Maintain telephone and radio communication with emergency services
Post rumor control and information on the internet and in an area accessible to our students and the community
Record emergency related incidents
Maintain communication with staff by whatever means available (SMS text messaging, audio alarm warning system, intercom, bullhorn, canned air horn, two-way radio, e-mail, written notices)

Internal Communications

Staff will be notified when an incident occurs and kept informed as additional information becomes available and as plans for management of the situation evolve. The following practices will be utilized to disseminate information internally when appropriate:

Alert Notifications (SMS Texting)

Staff will be notified when an incident occurs and kept informed as additional information becomes available and as plans for management of the situation evolve. The following practices will be utilized to disseminate information internally when appropriate:

Telephone Tree

A telephone tree is a simple, widely used system for notifying staff of an incident when they are not at their primary work location. The tree originates with the senior site official, who contacts the members of the Incident Management Team. Team members then, in turn, will contact groups of staff identified on their call list.

Staff Meetings

As appropriate, updated information about an incident will be presented at regularly scheduled staff meetings. In some cases, special staff meetings may be called as incident evolution requires. Staff will also have the opportunity to address any misinformation or rumors. Any new procedures or temporary changes will also be reviewed at this time.

Communication With the District Administrative Office

The Incident Commander will use the designated countywide Emergency Radio Network to notify the site administrator of our District's status/needs. The site administrator will notify the District office. The District office will notify the County Office of the status of all of the District's sites. He/she will designate staff member(s) to monitor all communications.

Activation

Concept of Operations

The senior executive (or designee) determines whether to activate this annex based upon information from initial staff reports and local authorities. When activated, the Communications annex coordinates and supports emergency response/recovery telecommunications requirements

Immediately report communications degradation, interruption, or failure by alternate means (e.g. cell phone) to our District's Emergency Operations Center (EOC) if activated or the Communications Officer

The local emergency communications plan will include channel designations, contingency communications procedures, and training in back-up communications equipment.

Continuity of Operations (COOP)

General

Continuity of Operations planning is a program that ensures continued performance of essential functions across a full range of potential emergencies, be they natural or man-made, when a significant interruption of operations occurs following a severe disaster or tragedy.

A COOP provides guidance and establishes responsibilities and procedures to ensure that essential functions are maintained. COOP is not the same as an Emergency Operations Plan or a Recovery Plan, but rather supplements it, in the event normal facility or human resources are not available.

A COOP provides a continuity infrastructure that through careful planning ensures:
Emergency delegation of authority and an orderly line of succession, as necessary.
Safekeeping of essential personnel, resources, facilities, and vital records.
Emergency acquisition of resources necessary for business resumption.
The capability to perform critical functions remotely until resumption of normal operations.

A District's COOP plan should allow for its implementation anytime, with or without warning, during normal and after-hours operations; providing full operational capability for essential functions no later than 12 hours after activation; and sustain essential functions for up to 30 days.

The purpose of these Continuity of Operations (COOP) procedures is to ensure that there are procedures in place to maintain or rapidly resume essential operations within the District after an incident that results in disruption of normal activities or services to the District. Failure to maintain these critical services would significantly affect the operations and/or service mission of the District in an adverse way.

Scope

It is the responsibility of the District's officials to protect students and staff from incidents and restore critical operations as soon as it is safe to do so. This responsibility involves identifying and mitigating hazards, preparing for and responding to incidents, and managing the recovery process.

The COOP procedures outline actions needed to maintain and/or rapidly resume essential operations, business, and physical services, when interrupted for an extended period of time following an incident.

Responsibilities

Designated District Staff, in conjunction with the affected administrator(s) and staff, will perform the essential functions as follows:

Senior Executive/Site Administrator

Determine when to close District, and/or send students/staff to alternate locations
Disseminate information internally to students and staff
Communicate with family, media, and the larger community
Identify a line of succession, including who is responsible for restoring which business functions for the District
Ensure systems are in place for rapid contract execution after an incident
Identify relocation areas for site and administrative operations
Create a system for registering students (off site or into alternative locations)
Brief and train staff regarding their additional responsibilities

Secure and provide needed personnel, equipment and supplies, facilities, resources, and services required for continued operations
Identify strategies to continue operations (e.g., using the Internet, providing alternatives to operational contingencies)
Work with local and state government officials to determine when it is safe for students and staff to return to the District's buildings and grounds
Manage the restoration of the District's buildings and grounds (e.g. debris removal, repairing, repainting, and/or landscaping)
Collaborate with private and public-sector service providers and contractors

Administrative Services, District Staff

Maintain inventory
Maintain essential records (and copies of records) including the District's insurance policy
Ensure redundancy of records is kept at a different physical location.
Secure District's equipment and materials in advance.
Restore administrative and recordkeeping functions such as payroll, accounting, and personnel records.
Retrieve, collect, and maintain personnel data
Provide accounts payable and cash management services

Administrative Support Staff

Establish necessary support services for students and staff
Implement additional response and recovery activities according to established protocols
Collaborate with public and private providers

Food Services Worker

Determine how food services will resume
Support staff and volunteers as much as possible

Transportation

Provide emergency transportation services as needed
Assess and implement alternative transportation services that may be necessitated

Evacuation

General

Evacuation is one means of protecting the staff, students and visitors from the effects of a hazard through the orderly movement of person(s) away from the hazard. The type and magnitude of the emergency will dictate the scale of an evacuation (i.e., evacuation area).

Concept of Operations

Evacuation orders are generally given by the following:
Local Police
Environmental Health & Safety
Facilities Services
Administrator, director, or building supervisor
Fire Department with jurisdiction
Any person identifying a hazard and by activating the fire alarm system via a fire alarm pull station

Evacuation Procedures

Evacuation will be initiated by means of the fire alarm system. Whenever the alarm is sounded all occupants of all buildings are to initiate the evacuation procedure.
Take the Incident Action packet/binder which has a current class list and a red/green 8½ x 11 card (red on one side and green on the other side)
Close all doors and windows. (DO NOT LOCK DOORS)
Follow the safest evacuation route to the assembly or safe dispersal area.
Teachers are to take roll and make certain no one reenters the building for any reason.
If all students are present with staff member, staff will hold up the GREEN sheet to acknowledge to responsible incident management person that all students are present.
Support staff who have regular schedules with students need to have a green and red card also. If all students who are regularly scheduled are in their care and custody, they are to raise the green card, so staff member and responsible incident management person can see.
Staff members are to raise the red card even if they think a student is with support staff so responsible incident management person can account for those students.
If a student is not present, the staff member will hold up the RED card and wait for the administration to contact him/her to see who is absent. The responsible incident management person will coordinate the search for the missing student.
Students should remain 30 – 50 feet away from any building.
Students are to remain in groups, until the all clear signal is given.

On-Site Evacuation

The Incident Commander or designee activates fire alarm.
All staff follow the Evacuation Procedures identified above.
Once assembled, building occupants remain in their designated assembly or safe dispersal area until further instructions are given.
Reentry is only authorized after it is determined that conditions and buildings are deemed safe by appropriate incident management staff.

Off-Site Evacuation

If it is determined that the buildings and area are not safe for occupation and that the On-Site Evacuation locations are also at risk, the appropriate incident management staff will initiate an Off-Site Evacuation.
The Incident Commander or designee determines safest method for evacuating the site. This may include use of buses or simply walking to designated off-site location.
Staff members secure the student roster when leaving the building and take attendance once group is assembled in pre-designated safe location.
Once assembled off-site, staff members and students stay in place until further instructions are given.
In the event clearance is received from appropriate agencies, Incident Commander may authorize students and staff to return to buildings.

Evacuating Students with Disabilities

Procedures and actions regarding the special needs' population should cover the evacuation, transportation and medical needs of students who will require extreme special handling in an emergency. In most cases, additional safeguards must be established regarding roles, responsibilities and procedures for students with physical, sensory, emotional and health disabilities.

The following are steps that cover the evacuation procedure of student(s) with disabilities:
Review all paths of travel and potential obstacles
Know the facility, grounds, paths, exits and potential obstacles
Determine the primary and secondary paths of exit to be used during emergencies
Individuals with mobility impairments will need a smooth, solid, level walking surface, an exit that avoids barriers such as stairs, narrow doors and elevators and guardrails that protect open sides of the path
Compile and distribute evacuation route information to be used during emergency operations
Include alternative evacuation route information, should the primary route be inaccessible due to damage or danger
Install appropriate signage and visual alarms
Place evacuation information indicating primary and secondary exits in all offices, rooms, multipurpose rooms, hallways/corridors, lobbies, bathrooms and cafeterias. For passages and doorways that might be mistaken for an exit, place visible signs that proclaim, "NOT AN EXIT"
Place emergency notification devices appropriate for each student
Post signage with the name and location of each area so that the students will know exactly where they are, in order to comply with ADA (American's with Disabilities Act) Accessibility

Buildings and Facilities Signage Requirements

Approximately 60 inches above the floor
In a location that is not obscured in normal operation such as a swinging door
In all primary function areas

Preparation and Planning

Identify the students and staff with special needs and the type of assistance they will require in an emergency
Allow visitors to self-identify on a sign-in log if they have special evacuation needs
Discuss evacuation issues with the staff members and caretakers of students with special needs, including individuals, who may be temporarily disabled (i.e. a student with a broken leg)
Train staff in general evacuation procedures

Review the areas of rescue, primary exits, evacuation techniques, and the locations and operation of emergency equipment
Provide in-depth training to those designated to evacuate students with special needs
Train the staff for proper lifting techniques when lifting a person for evacuation
Anyone can assist a student with a visual impairment
Check on each special needs student to assure he/she is accounted for during an evacuation
Review the plan with emergency response personal, including local police, fire and emergency medical technicians
Identify “areas of rescue” in our site for students to wait for evacuation assistance from emergency personnel
Before operations begin in the Fall, walk around the site with first responders so that they are familiar with the primary exits and all areas of rescue; these areas must meet specifications for fire resistance and ventilation
Ask the responders to conduct a special drill explaining how they will support the students and staff with special needs during an emergency
Complete all contracts and Statements of Understanding with key emergency support providers
Ensure that sufficient transportation capacity exists with transportation providers, partner agencies, and suppliers to effectively meet the demand in an emergency
Identify transportation contracts through the District in case of an emergency; Emergency response for special needs requires special vans and special equipment
Specify who will do what to address these transportation needs
Develop a list of District-owned vehicles, staff vehicles that are available and make prior arrangements for their use in the event of an emergency
Review the evacuation plan with students and staff to be familiar with the process and identify any problems
Practice implementation of special duck and cover actions by students with able-bodied partners
Students should be aware that evacuation by themselves may be difficult or impossible because of obstacles in their path or because electric dependent machines may not function (i.e. elevator)
Special pre-planned assistance must be provided and reviewed regularly

Lockdown

General

A District or school site lock down is necessary when the threat of violence or gunfire is identified or directed by law enforcement and it is necessary to prevent the perpetrator(s) from entering occupied areas. During lock down, students are to remain in rooms or designated locations at all times.

Instructions

If a lock down situation is required, the Site Administrator will make an announcement on the Public Address (PA) system. If the PA system is not available, the Site Administrator will use other means of communication (e.g., sending messengers to deliver instructions). The Site Administrator should be calm, convey reassuring comments that the situation is under control, and provide clear and consistent directions. Below is an example of an announcement to be made by the Site Administrator:

"YOUR ATTENTION PLEASE. WE HAVE AN EMERGENCY SITUATION. STAFF ARE TO LOCK ROOM DOORS UNTIL NOTIFIED BY AN ADMINISTRATOR OR LAW ENFORCEMENT. STUDENTS AND STAFF ARE TO PROCEED TO THE NEAREST ROOM OR BUILDING. PLEASE REMAIN INDOORS UNTIL FURTHER INSTRUCTIONS ARE PROVIDED."

If inside, staff should instruct students to lie on the floor, move away from doors and remain in the center of the room out of the line of fire, lock the doors (if possible), and close any shades or blinds if it appears safe to do so. Students and staff who are physically unable to lie on the ground should move away from doors and windows.
If outside, students should proceed to their rooms if it is safe to do so. If it is not safe, staff must direct students into nearby rooms or other District buildings (e.g., auditorium, library, cafeteria, and gymnasium).
District staff and students must remain in their room or secured area until further instructions are provided by the Site Administrator or law enforcement.
Landline phones should not be used. District staff should use cell phones and speak quietly.
All site entrances and exits must be locked, and no visitors other than appropriate law enforcement or emergency personnel are to be allowed on the site.

Public, Medical, and Mental Health

General

Establishment of public, medical, and mental health procedures, will assist the District in preparing for, responding to, and recovering from an incident that affects the health and safety of students, staff, and family. Furthermore, coordination with Public Health agencies, Emergency Medical Services (EMS), and Mental Health support services will broaden their capacity to deal with these incidents by providing the District with resources beyond their existing expertise and training.

Public Health

Procedures

Designate District Medical Manager and/or other key personnel as the individual(s) responsible for coordinating incidents such as disease outbreaks, bioterrorism, and natural disasters with local, State, and Federal Public Health agencies.
Coordinate with local, State, and Federal Public Health agencies on information sharing protocols.
Develop procedures for reporting information to local, State, and Federal Public Health agencies.
Contact local Public Health agency to determine notification procedures for students/family, staff, and public, if necessary.
Send out any required notification to students/family, staff and public as required.
Establish a dedicated contact phone number for questions and concerns.
Coordinate with local, State, and Federal Public Health agencies, for assistance with managing large scale incidents or incidents beyond the District's resources.

Medical Health

Procedures

Designate District Medical Manager and/or other key personnel as the individual(s) responsible for coordinating incidents involving students or staff injuries or illnesses
Provide CPR/First Aid/AED to all staff designated to work in medical capacity
Establish a triage area for injured students and staff
Separate walking wounded, critically injured and deceased individuals (Keep a log of names of these individuals)
Keep a record of students and staff that are transported off-site for treatment.
Coordinate with local Emergency Medical Services (EMS) agencies for assistance with large scale incidents or incidents beyond the District's resources.

Mental Health

Procedures

Designate crisis counselors and/or other key personnel as the individual(s) responsible for coordinating incidents with local, State, and Federal Mental Health agencies
Activate crisis counselors during the incident to begin identifying students and staff that require assistance
Keep a log of individuals counseled or that require counseling following the incident
Notify students, family, and staff of counseling services available
Coordinate with local, State, and Federal Mental Health agencies, for assistance with large scale incidents or incidents beyond the 's resources.

Psychological First Aid for Schools (PFA-S)

The field of school safety and emergency management has evolved significantly over the past decade. Tragically, acts of violence, natural disasters, and terrorist attacks have taught us many lessons. We also know that other types of emergencies can impact schools, including medical emergencies, transportation accidents, sports injuries, peer victimization, public health emergencies, and the sudden death of a member of the school community. We now recognize the need for school emergency management plans that are up-to-date and take an “all-hazards”approach with clear communication channels and procedures that effectively reunite parents and caregivers with students. We have also learned that preparing school administrators, teachers, and school partnering agencies before a critical event is crucial for effective response, the value of ongoing training and emergency exercises, and that having intervention models that address the public health, mental health, and psychosocial needs of students and staff is essential to a safe school environment and the resumption of learning. (excerpted from Psychological First Aid for Schools, Field Operations Guide, 2nd Edition)

Field Operations Guide (FOG)

We use the PFA-S FOG as-needed, to prepare and respond to critical incidents affecting the mental health of our students. https://www.nctsn.org/resources/psychological-first-aid-schools-pfa-s-field-operations-guide

Public Safety and Security

Purpose

The Public Safety and Security Annex integrates State public safety and security capabilities and resources to support the full range of incident management activities.

Scope

The Public Safety and Security Annex provides a mechanism for coordinating and providing support to local law enforcement authorities to include non-investigative/non-criminal law enforcement, public safety, and security capabilities and resources during incidents. The Public Safety and Security Annex capabilities support incident management requirements, including force and critical infrastructure protection, security planning and technical assistance, technology support, and public safety, in both pre-incident and post-incident situations. The Public Safety and Security Annex generally is activated in situations requiring extensive assistance to provide public safety and security.

Key Tasks/Responsibilities

Coordinate public safety and security support (including personnel and equipment) to any affected department/agency during preparation for, response to, and/or recovery from any real or potential incident.
County Sheriff's Office
Police Department
Other Law Enforcement Agencies
Private Security Companies

Coordinate critical information dissemination regarding public safety/security through mass warning/notification.

County Sheriff's Office
Police Department
Dispatch
County Emergency Management
Facilitate multi-function public safety activities such as evacuation, traffic, looting, and riot control
County Sheriff's Office
Police Department
Other Law Enforcement Agencies
Fire/EMS

Concept of Operations

Local law enforcement authorities have the primary responsibility for public safety and security and are the first line of response and support in these functional areas, utilizing the Incident Command System on-scene
In larger-scale incidents, additional resources should first be obtained through the activation of mutual aid agreements with neighboring jurisdictions and/or State authorities, which may require the management of incident operations through a Unified Command structure

Through the Public Safety and Security Annex, outside resources supplement local resources when requested or required, as appropriate, and are integrated into the incident command structure using National Incident Management System principles and protocols
The Public Safety and Security Annex activities should not be confused with the activities described in the Terrorism Incident Annex or other criminal investigative law enforcement activities

As the lead law enforcement official in the United States, the Attorney General, generally acting through the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), maintains the lead for criminal investigations of terrorist acts or terrorist threats by individuals or groups inside the United States
The Public Safety and Security Annex is activated when public safety and security capabilities and resources are needed to support incident operations
This includes threat or pre-incident as well as post-incident situations
When activated, the primary agencies assess public safety and security needs, and respond to requests for resources and planning/technical assistance from county agencies
The Public Safety and Security Annex manages support by coordinating the implementation of authorities related to public safety and security and protection of property, including critical infrastructure, and security resources and technologies and other assistance to support incident management operations and security capabilities and resources are needed to support incident operations
This includes threat or pre-incident as well as post-incident situations
The Public Safety and Security Annex maintains close coordination with Federal, State, and local officials to determine public safety and security support requirements and to jointly determine resource priorities
The primary agencies maintain communications with supporting agencies to determine capabilities, assess the availability of resources, and track resources that have been deployed

Recovery

General

When a disaster occurs, it is all too easy to get consumed by the urgent activities and emotions surrounding the event. That is understandable but don't allow the intensity of the incident to distract you from some extremely important actions you should be taking. Keep in mind that no financial assistance will occur until there is a declared disaster by the State and the Federal governments.

Tracking time and material (supplies and equipment specifically used for the disaster) should happen always, regardless of disaster declarations. There is no guarantee that we will get our expenses reimbursed. We are at the mercy of the State and Federal governments. In most cases, however, labor and materials specific to the disaster response get reimbursed. Losses already covered by our insurance are typically NOT reimbursed. For example, if an employee is injured our Workers' Compensation would cover the injured employee. If a building was damaged and our insurance does not cover that specific cause of loss there may be a chance it is reimbursable.

Before – Action Items

Establish relationships and contact information from our county Operational Area and Coordinating Council (OACC)
Create and maintain a current contact list with this information and other contact information essential to the Finance/Administration Section of our ICS structure
Train and practice the Start-up, Operation of, and the Closure of this ICS Section.
Modify and update our Emergency Operations Plan as necessary

During – Action Items

Within the very first moments of an incident, begin tracking every employee's and volunteer's time spent on the incident. (Be alert to any announcements from local or State government regarding "Public Assistance" requests or meetings.) Use the form designed for that purpose, the Activity Log (ICS 214). If not readily available, make sure each person is tracking the following:
Incident name
Date
Worker's name
Log each major activity and track start and end times
Don't be concerned with tracking too much – that can be sorted out after the event
This information will need to be transferred onto the Activity Log (ICS 214) before we can apply for Public Assistance funding (this is what they call the State and Federal reimbursement program)
Keep track of ANY disaster-related expenditures for supplies or equipment. It is best to retain copies of priced-out receipts and invoices for possible State and Federal reimbursement. For example, if our facilities may be used as a shelter and we are required to provide custodial services specific to the shelter, toilet paper, paper towels, cleaning material and chemicals would all likely be reimbursable. If our facility were being used as a medical care facility and the HVAC system required filters different than what we would normally use, the cost of the filters (and the labor to change them) are likely reimbursable.
Establish the Recovery Unit in the Finance/Administration Section of our Emergency Operations Center (EOC).
Have all sites or units collect information on their ability to sustain operations.
Develop staffing pattern for the Recovery Unit.

Collect information on damages, duration and impact from the following:
Utility Providers

Social, medical and health services
Transportation routes and services
Debris issues
County Government Operations
Private sector retail and wholesale providers
Others
Develop initial short term and long-term recovery objectives.
Refer to hazard/threat-specific annexes for information.
Develop information for the PIO on the recovery process and progress.
Develop a plan to assign personnel to sustain the recovery effort
Coordinate with the OACC, other local jurisdictions and the State on their recovery efforts.
While it is best if we already have an established relationship with our county Operational Area Coordinating Council (OACC) contact, we need to identify that individual and the means of communicating with them. We will want them to know who at our District will serve as the contact for emergency incidents. This will serve a couple of purposes:
It will keep our District "in the loop" and better informed when an incident affecting our District occurs
It will alert us to any notice of "Public Assistance" informational meetings to learn about getting Federal and State reimbursement for disaster related District activity
If our county's OACC is overwhelmed with an incident we should reach out directly to our Emergency Services Coordinator at the Governor's Office of Emergency Services Region Operational Area.
Ask them to put the District on the list for notification of "Public Assistance" informational meetings
There are forms that will be exchanged between our District and the OACC or the California Governor's Office of Emergency Services (they act as our liaison with FEMA)
If our employees and volunteers remain under our direction and control we are responsible for any costs associated with their activities. Should they perform work that they would not normally do and it is attributable to the disaster we will likely be able to reimburse the labor. Management costs are typically NOT reimbursable.
If our employees and volunteers, or our facilities, are tasked outside of our District we must only do so under the terms of a mutual aid agreement or memorandum of understanding to which the District have agreed, in writing. Make sure we understand when and if risk transfer occurs as it should be clear in these documents. These documents should identify, specifically, what is "covered" and by "whom." Examples for other agency usage of our facility might include the Fire Department using our facility as a command center for the incident.
Or, local hospitals may be "at-capacity" and need our facility to provide some form of medical or health services. In these cases, (like the case of sheltering) a written request for use of our facilities should be on file or requested prior to allowing the agency to use them. These documents should specify what they will and will not cover in terms of costs related to using the facility. Typically, if an outside agency damages the property or they cause a liability exposure, they are responsible for coverage.

When in doubt, ask for help.

After – Action Items

Begin closing the Recovery Unit
Assign any open or pending tasks, such as Public Assistance funding or other outstanding receivables or payables, to appropriate staff with specific checkup or due dates
Make sure all Activity Logs and equipment/supply records have been assembled and recorded into the request for Public Assistance from Cal OES and FEMA
Conduct an After-Action debrief within the Finance/Administration Section and include that in the main incident After-Action debrief held by the District
Review our EOP and include any lessons learned or altered actions into the plan for update and redistribution to the emergency management team
Participate in and debriefings provided by our ICS team and close the Recovery Unit

Reunification

General

Student release is a crucial part of emergency planning. During an emergency or disaster, the traditional student release procedure is often unsafe and therefore not operable. Accordingly, a comprehensive emergency plan needs to include certain procedures to accomplish the main priority of safety planning which is to ensure the safety of the students to every extent possible.

There are a wide variety of emergency situations that might require student/family reunification. Student/family reunification may be needed if the site is evacuated or closed as a result of a hazardous materials transportation accident, fire, natural gas leak, flooding, earthquake, tsunami, school violence, bomb threat, terrorist attack or other local hazard.

Student/Family reunification is part of the Incident Command System and is assigned to the Operations Area.

Reunification Procedures

In an emergency, sites must establish a safe area for family members to meet with students. This area must be away from the both the damage and the student's assembly area. In a typical release the following steps will be followed:

Family member will report to the assigned area and give the name of the student
Picture ID will normally be required by the person in charge to insure the person requesting a minor is a match to the name on the emergency release card
A runner will go to the student assembly area and get the minor requested by the parent or adult and escort the student back to the pick-up area
Parents will be asked to sign a form indicating they picked up the minor (the date and time will also be indicated on the pick-up form)
If the minor is in the first aid area, the parent will be escorted to that area for reunification with their child/children
Counselors, when available, will be located close to the first aid area in the event they are needed

Traffic Control

Traffic may be controlled by trained and authorized employees who meet the requirements outlined in the Manual on Uniform Traffic Control Devices (MUTCD) Part 7, Traffic Control for School Areas. In the absence of this condition, we must wait until local law enforcement is available and on scene at the site.
To every extent possible, two-way traffic will be maintained to allow for entry and exit of emergency vehicles
As the situation develops there may be time for barricades and other traffic control devices to be delivered and set up
It should be understood this will not occur at the beginning of the incident
When law enforcement arrives on the scene they will take charge and do whatever is necessary, including the towing of vehicles to manage the emergency or disaster

Maintaining the Procedures

Student rosters should be updated at least twice a year
If enrollment dictates this may be updated more frequently
Updated rosters should be stored in every room in an area easily identified by the both staff and substitutes.
Additional copies of the rosters should be distributed to the site administrator and placed in the back of the emergency plan binder

Emergency cards should be filled out at the beginning of the year
This card should include contact information on family members, as well as other adults who can be contacted if the family member is not available
The card should also indicate who the minor is permitted to leave site with, if necessary
DO NOT release students to people not listed on the student emergency card.
A well- intentioned friend may offer to take a minor home; however, District staff must be certain that students are only released to the appropriate people, so their families will know where they are
The card should also include all pertinent medical information such as allergies, medications, and doctor contact information
These cards should be stored in the front office in both hard copy and electronically, if possible

Things to Remember

Some family members will refuse to cooperate with the student/family reunification process
This situation can be diminished, to some degree, if family members are informed about the District's release procedures before the disaster or emergency occurs
They should be reminded that the safety of their student is our utmost priority
Family members may be emotional when arriving at the site
Have counselors available to deal with issues if needed
Shortly after the incident, the media will have a presence on our site
The Public Information Officer, part of the command staff operating under the Incident Command System, will deal with the media, however, it is important that family be sheltered from media representatives

Shelter-in-Place

General

This action is taken to place and/or keep students indoors in order to provide a greater level of protection from airborne contaminants in outside air. Shelter-in-place is implemented when there is a need to isolate students and staff from the outside environment and includes the shutdown of room and/or building air systems. During shelter-in-place, no one should be exposed to the outside air.

Description of Action

If an emergency occurs that requires students and staff to Shelter-in-Place, the Site Administrator will make an announcement on the PA system. If the PA system is not available, the Site Administrator will use other means of communication (e.g., sending messengers to deliver instructions). The Site Administrator should be calm, convey reassuring comments that the situation is under control, and provide clear and consistent directions. Below is an example of an announcement to be made by the Site Administrator:

"YOUR ATTENTION PLEASE. WE HAVE RECEIVED INFORMATION REGARDING A HAZARD IN THE COMMUNITY. WE ARE INSTITUTING SHELTER-IN-PLACE PROCEDURES. PLEASE REMAIN INSIDE THE BUILDING AWAY FROM OUTSIDE AIR WITH WINDOWS AND DOORS SECURELY CLOSED AND AIR CONDITIONING UNITS TURNED OFF. ALL STUDENTS AND STAFF THAT ARE OUTSIDE ARE TO IMMEDIATELY MOVE TO THE PROTECTION OF AN INSIDE ROOM. PLEASE REMAIN INDOORS UNTIL FURTHER INSTRUCTIONS ARE PROVIDED."

If inside, staff should keep students in their rooms until further instructions are given
If outside, students must proceed to their rooms if it is safe to do so
If it is determined to be unsafe, staff should direct students into nearby rooms or buildings (e.g., auditorium, library, cafeteria, and gymnasium)
Staff and students who were exposed to outside air should congregate in indoor locations away from individuals who were not exposed to outside air
Anyone who is exhibiting symptoms must be treated
Staff is responsible for securing individual rooms and for completing the following procedures as needed:
Shut down the room/building HVAC (Heating Ventilation and Air Conditioning) system
Turn off local fans in the area
Close and lock doors and windows

If necessary, seal gaps under doors and windows with wet towels or duct tape, seal vents with aluminum foil or plastic wrap, and turn off sources of ignition, such as pilot lights

Situational Awareness

In the U.S., every public agency is expected to address situational awareness and personnel security. Situational Awareness is the ability to identify, process, and comprehend the critical information about an incident. More simply, it is knowing what is going on around us.

Overview

Situational Awareness requires continuous monitoring of relevant sources of information regarding actual incidents and developing hazards. A common core function of Emergency Operations Centers (EOC) is gaining, maintaining, and sharing Situational Awareness and developing a Situational Picture (SitPic) that is shared between the Incident ICS, EOC, JIS, and field staff participants in the incident.

In the early stages of activation, the EOC will obtain Situational Awareness. This is important because accurate, timely information will enable more informed, effective decision-making. An excellent tool for developing and maintaining this condition of the OODA loop.

OODA Loop

The OODA loop is the cycle: observe–orient–decide–act, developed by military strategist and United States Air Force Colonel John Boyd in the 1960s. Boyd applied the concept to the combat operations process, often at the operational level during military campaigns. It is now also often applied to understand commercial operations and learning processes.
The OODA loop has become an important concept in emergency management. According to Boyd, decision-making occurs in a recurring cycle of observe–orient–decide–act. An entity (whether an individual or an organization) that can process this cycle quickly, observing and reacting to unfolding events more rapidly than an “opponent,” can thereby "get inside" the opponent's decision cycle and gain the advantage.

Observe – Sensing yourself and the world around you
Orient – What you believe: a complex set of filters of genetic heritage, cultural predispositions, personal experience, and knowledge
Decide – A review of alternative courses of action and the selection of the preferred course as a hypothesis to be tested.
Act – Testing the decision chosen for implementation.

Every employee is a critical link to situational awareness. This annex address the expectations of this District in establishing and maintaining a vital communication and informational internal network. Whether you are in an office environment, inside a building, in the field, or at home, what you observe and absorb are invaluable to our District.

Prepare

The following list includes the minimum expectations for every employee:
Develop and maintain a personal family communication plan
Use the Family Emergency Communication Plan – Wallet Sized provided by our District
The plan should be completed at hire and updated when any of the information changes but at least annually
Share our plan with your family
Review and familiarize yourself with the District’s Emergency Operations Plan (EOP)
Prepare a “Go-Bag” for yourself with a 3-day supply of food and water
See the “Go-Bag” guide for help in assembling and stocking
Keep a copy of the District’s Critical Incident Field Operations Guide (FOG) with you at all times during work hours

Field Protocol

Before, during, and after critical incidents there are some basic steps you should take to improve your situation and help others in need:

f you are operating a vehicle or other equipment, stop your activity as soon as is safely possible (If driving, follow safe driving practices and get maneuver your vehicle without endangering your own or the safety of others)
Assess the situation using the OODA loop and take appropriate action
Follow our District's Communication protocols as outlined in the EOP
If you are unable to proceed to your primary location (starting and ending shift worksite) find out if you can return to an alternate site
If returning to any of these sites proves unreasonable, proceed to the nearest public facility (police or fire station, hospital, local government office) and notify our District of your exact location
Provide our District's Emergency Operations Center (EOC) with as much detailed information as possible:
Time, Date, and Location of Critical Incident
Your condition (unaffected, injured, etc.) and the condition of your equipment
Describe the type of incident such as fire, hazmat, earthquake, etc.
Provide details on estimate impact in your area (how much loss or damage)

Disaster Service Worker

As a California public employee, you may be called upon to work as a Disaster Service Worker (DSW) in the event of an emergency. The information contained in the Disaster Service Worker website will help you understand your role and obligations as a disaster service worker, and what to do in an emergency (California Government Code Section 3100-3109).

Special Needs Population

Planning Needs and Assumptions

For individuals with special needs, physical environments become a great deal more hostile and difficult to deal with during and after an emergency. The ability to get to accessible exits and personal items may be reduced. Communication may be impeded at a time when clear and rapid communication is crucial to safety and survival.

To comply with statutes involving students with special needs, individuals responsible for evacuation and emergency operation plans, notification protocols, shelter identification, emergency medical care and other emergency response and recovery programs must:

Have sound working knowledge of the accessibility and nondiscrimination requirements applicable under Federal disability rights laws
Know the special needs demographics of the attending students on site
Involve students with different types of disabilities and staff in identifying the communication and transportation needs, accommodations, support systems, equipment, services, and supplies that they will need during an emergency
Consider emergency accommodations for those with temporary disabilities
Identify existing resources within the site and local community that meet the special needs of these students
Develop new community partners and resources, as needed
Inform family members about the efforts to keep students safe
Identify medical needs and make an appropriate plan
Determine transportation needs, special vans, and buses for students
Identify any necessary tools such as personal response plans, evacuation equipment or visual aids
Include local responders and establish a relationship with individual students with disabilities and staff

HAZARD/THREAT ANNEX

Hazard-Threat Assessment

A representative number of participants were selected to participate in the Hazard-Threat Assessment Survey (HTAS). This survey follows best practices in emergency management and is a very important part of updating our Emergency Operations Plan.

This survey was designed to help us prioritize possible threats or hazards we may face. It covers many possible scenarios but is not exhaustive in nature. The survey information generated is invaluable in helping our Emergency Operations Plan Collaborative Planning Team identify the hazards and threats most likely to impact us.

The Collaborative Planning team has selected the following Hazards/Threats to be included in this annex:
Active Assailant
Cyber Threat or Attack
Earthquake
Extreme Heat and Unhealthy Air Quality
Fire-Structural
Fire-Forest, Wildfire, or Urban Interface
Infectious Disease
Power and Utility Failure
Severe Weather
Tsunami

Active Assailant

Purpose

Active assailant situations are often over within 10 to 15 minutes, before law enforcement arrives on the scene. Individuals must be prepared both mentally and physically to deal with an active assailant situation.

This Annex will address current best practices for dealing with Active Assailants, Before, During, and After an incident.

Situation and Assumptions

An Active Assailant is an individual actively engaged in the killing or attempting to kill people in a confined and populated area. In most cases, active assailants use firearms and there is no pattern or method to their selection of victims.

Active Assailant situations are unpredictable and evolve quickly. Typically, the immediate deployment of law enforcement is required to stop the attack and mitigate harm to victims.

Continuity of Operations (Annex Specific)

Continuity of Operations is defined as the internal effort of an organization to assure that the capability exists to continue essential functions and services in response to a comprehensive array of potential emergencies or disasters.

In the case of an active assailant actions can be taken in advance to mitigate some of the outcome of the attack.

Organization and Assignment of Responsibilities

Refer to the Organization and Assignment of Responsibilities section located in the Basic Plan.

Plan Development

This annex is part of the Hazard and Threat Annex and was developed using current best practices

Incident Command Actions

Before

Threat and Physical Security Assessment of each site

Conducting periodic threat and physical security assessments will ensure that best practices are in place to control access to your campus.

- Appropriate perimeter fencing installation and maintenance
- Locks and closers on perimeter gates that prevent outsiders from opening the gate (mesh screen around gate area)
- Check for keyed exterior locksets of all classroom doors
- Make sure the lockset on the interior of the classroom door has a thumb lock or other quick-lock style lockset (see Figure 1- Interior Lock)
- Verify visitor access control is in place and works as intended
- Require classroom doors to be closed and locked when students are present

Student Education

- Educate students (age appropriate) through workshops, seminars, lectures, and any other opportunity to teach about the hazards of an active assailant/physical threat and ways each person can potentially react to such a situation
- Supplement in-person instructional elements with additional information to reinforce the training

Such material may be distributed in a variety of ways, including but not limited to web pages, social media, printed literature, radio/TV, etc.
Foster a respectful school community
Be aware of indications of violence and take remedial actions accordingly (i.e. If you see something, say something)

Behavioral Red Flags
Recognizing indicators for potential violence by an individual:
Increased use of alcohol and/or illegal drugs
Unexplained increase in absenteeism; vague physical complaints
Noticeable decrease in attention to appearance and hygiene
Depression/withdrawal
Resistance and overreaction to changes in policy and procedures
Repeated violations of District policies
Increased severe mood swings
Noticeably unstable, emotional responses
Explosive outbursts of anger or rage without provocation
Suicidal; comments about “putting things in order”
Behavior, which is suspect of paranoia, (“everybody is against me”)
Increasingly talks of personal problems
Talk of severe financial problems
Talk of previous incidents of violence
Empathy with individuals committing violence
Increase in unsolicited comments about firearms, other dangerous weapons, and violent crimes

Develop a positive behavioral intervention program that identifies at-risk behaviors early on and ensures administration is aware of these individuals
Decide upon communications and public information releases with your Public Information Officer prior to an incident
Develop model releases that provide well thought out and consistent messaging on behalf of the District
Discuss and decide upon Spontaneous Memorial practices including
Ease of public access
Minimize disruption of vehicular and pedestrian traffic
Monitored for appropriateness of items placed at the memorial
Prepared to announce the one location to the public and that it will be open from/to specific dates (typically no longer than 2-3 weeks)
Line-of-sight view by administration

During

Responding to an Active Assailant/Physical Threat

If you are in a situation where your safety is in question and you are at risk of harm from another person, you must quickly determine the most reasonable way to protect your own life.

Run (evacuate)

If there is an accessible escape path, attempt to evacuate the building/area. Be sure to:
Have an escape route and plan in mind
Evacuate regardless of whether others agree to follow
Leave your belongings behind
Help others escape, if possible
Prevent individuals from entering an area where the active assailant may be
Keep your hands visible, to prevent confusion to law enforcement
Follow the instructions of law enforcement personnel
Do not attempt to move wounded people
Notify Police when you are safe

Hide (lockdown)

If evacuation is not possible, find a place to hide where the active assailant is less likely to find you. Your hiding place should:
Be out of the active assailant's view
Provide protection if shots are fired in your direction (i.e. a room with a closed and locked door)
Not trap you or restrict your options for movement
Remember Cover vs. Concealment
Spread out to reduce target area
To prevent an active assailant from entering your hiding place:
Lock the door, if possible
Blockade the door with whatever is available – heavy furniture, door wedges, file cabinets, etc.
Cover any windows or openings that have a direct line of sight into a hallway
If the active assailant is nearby:
Lock the door, if possible
Close windows, shades and curtains.
Silence all cell phone and other electronic devices
Turn off any source of noise (i.e. radios, televisions, etc.)
Hide behind large items (i.e. cabinets, desks)
Remain silent

Do not sound the fire alarm
A fire alarm would signal the occupants to evacuate the building and thus place them in potential harm as they attempted to exit
Notify Police when it is safe to do so

Fight

If running and hiding are not possible:
Remain calm
Notify Police, if possible, to alert hem of the active assailant's location
If you cannot speak, leave the line open and allow the dispatcher to listen
As a last resort, and only when your life is in imminent danger, attempt to disrupt and/or incapacitate the active assailant by:
Acting as aggressively as possible against him/her
Throwing items and improvising weapons
Yelling
Committing to your actions

Law Enforcement

Law enforcement's purpose is to stop the active assailant as soon as possible. Officers will proceed directly to the area in which the last shots were heard.

While officers may prefer to team up, they are likely to deploy individually, upon arrival at the scene
Officers may wear regular patrol uniforms or external bulletproof vests, Kevlar helmets, and other tactical equipment
Officers may be armed with rifles, shotguns, handguns
Officers may use pepper spray or tear gas to control the situation
Officers may shout commands, and may push individuals to the ground for their safety
The first officers to arrive to the scene will not stop to help injured persons. Expect rescue teams comprised of additional officers and emergency medical personnel to follow the initial officers. These rescue teams will treat and remove any injured persons. They may also call upon able-bodied individuals to assist in removing the wounded from the premises.

While law enforcement personnel are still assessing the situation, uniformed security and/or police officers will move through the entire area to ensure the threat is over. For the safety of you and the officers, you may be handcuffed until the incident details are fully known.

How to react when law enforcement arrives:

Remain calm, and follow officers' instructions
Put down any items in your hands (i.e., cell phones, bags, jackets)
Immediately raise hands and spread fingers
Always keep hands visible
Avoid making quick movements toward officers such as holding on to them for safety
Avoid pointing, screaming and/or yelling
Do not stop to ask officers for help or direction when evacuating, just proceed in the direction from which officers are entering the premises

Once you have reached a safe location or an assembly point, you will likely be held in that area by law enforcement until the situation is under control, and all witnesses have been identified and questioned. Do not leave until law enforcement authorities have instructed you to do so.

Considerations
If a security threat is imminent or occurring, our personnel will take all reasonable and appropriate actions to minimize the hazard to the District's students and staff. If the perpetrator(s) is known, Incident Command will immediately deactivate the incident site's ID card(s) to prevent the individual(s) from entering a building/room equipped with card access.

For locations without electronic access control, incident personnel will make reasonable attempts to secure these doors as quickly as possible. The nature of the threat may make it unsafe for incident personnel to move from door-to-door, thus preventing these locations from being quickly secured.

If you become aware of an active assailant situation, immediately notify Police at 911. Information to provide to law enforcement or 911 operators:
Location of the active assailant
Number of assailants
Identity of the assailant(s), if known
Physical description of assailant(s)
Number and type of weapons held by the assailant(s)
Number of potential victims at the location

After

Good Practice for Coping
Good Practice for Coping
Be aware of your environment and any possible dangers
Take note of the two nearest exits in any facility you visit
If you are in an office, stay there and secure the door
If you are in a hallway, get into a room and secure the door
As a last resort, attempt to take the active assailant down. When the assailant is at close range and you cannot flee, your chance of survival is much greater if you try to incapacitate him/her.
Call 911 when it is safe to do so

Any time there is a significant security concern, we will make every reasonable attempt to immediately increase security on site. At the same time emergency personnel are responding to the emergency, public safety officials will communicate the hazard to the community via all available and appropriate means.

If you receive an official emergency communication notifying you of a hazardous situation where you must take immediate action to protect yourself, stay as calm as possible and follow these procedures. Only you will be able to determine the safest course of action that should be taken.

Bomb Threat Procedures and Checklist – DHS

BOMB THREAT PROCEDURES

This quick reference checklist is designed to help employees and decision makers of commercial facilities, schools, etc. respond to a bomb threat in an orderly and controlled manner with the first responders and other stakeholders.

Most bomb threats are received by phone. Bomb threats are serious until proven otherwise. Act quickly, but remain calm and obtain information with the checklist on the reverse of this card.

If a bomb threat is received by phone:

1. Remain calm. Keep the caller on the line for as long as possible. DO NOT HANG UP, even if the caller does.
2. Listen carefully. Be polite and show interest.
3. Try to keep the caller talking to learn more information.
4. If possible, write a note to a colleague to call the authorities or, as soon as the caller hangs up, immediately notify them yourself.
5. If your phone has a display, copy the number and/or letters on the window display.
6. Complete the Bomb Threat Checklist immediately. Write down as much detail as you can remember. Try to get exact words.
7. Immediately upon termination of call, DO NOT HANG UP, but from a different phone, contact authorities immediately with information and await instructions.

If a bomb threat is received by handwritten note:

- Call _____
- Handle note as minimally as possible.

If a bomb threat is received by e-mail:

- Call _____
- Do not delete the message.

Signs of a suspicious package:

- No return address
- Excessive postage
- Stains
- Strange odor
- Strange sounds
- Unexpected delivery
- Poorly handwritten
- Misspelled words
- Incorrect titles
- Foreign postage
- Restrictive notes

Refer to your local bomb threat emergency response plan for evacuation criteria

Cyber Threat or Attack

Purpose

Understanding the risks and motivations behind cyber threats or attacks is crucial in establishing and implementing this Cyber Threat or Attack annex. Technology continues to improve and develop at an amazing pace and with that advancement comes the challenges of protecting what we collect and manage using that technology.

Common criminals as well as hostile foreign actors have a couple of primary motivations when it comes to attacking your organization's cyber space. Both money and operational disruption are at the top of that list. For some hackers, they thrive on finding ways to access your information and then sell it, or threaten to disclose it asking for a "ransom," while freezing up your means of storing, accessing, or distributing information.

This annex will focus on the incident management perspective and address what to do before, during, and after an incident, following current best practices. These practices fall under the general category of cyber security.

Situation and Assumptions

Think of the cyber world as you would your own facilities. You provide appropriate fencing to ensure the security of those within its boundaries. The more access points you provide the more difficult it becomes to keep that site secure and safe. The cyber world is really the same way. Years ago we may have had only a handful of access points to our local area network. As technology improved, we added access. As we added access we provided more entry points for those who would seek our harm.

We are making some basic assumptions about systems and practices we should have in place:

- Installed and using modern firewall and antivirus software
- Conducting regular antivirus scanning
- Configured firewalls to prevent ransomware
- Keeping operating systems patches up-to-date
- Completing critical patching as expeditiously as possible
- Conducting employee cyber security awareness training including current best practices
- Keeping individual sites segregated
- Keeping user groups segregated (staff and student users segregated)
- Keeping privilege access management limited
- Using multi-factor authentication
- Implemented and using strong password policy
- Using off-site back up
- Providing email filtering to prevent spam reaching employees

Organization and Assignment of Responsibilities

Our IT department will have leadership over all aspects of our technology equipment and network spaces. They are the core of our Cyber Security Incident Response Team.

It is the responsibility of our Information Technology (IT) professionals to maintain a safe and secure cyber space. However, it is every network user's responsibility to follow best practices introduced by our IT professionals.

Glossary of Terms

Cyber Security Incident Response Team (CSIRT)

A group of experts that assesses, documents and responds to a cyber incident so that a network can not only recover quickly, but also avoid future incidents.

Denial-of-service attack

A denial-of-service attack floods systems, servers, or networks with traffic to exhaust resources and bandwidth. As a result, the system is unable to fulfill legitimate requests. Attackers can also use multiple compromised devices to launch this attack. This is known as a distributed-denial-of-service (DDoS) attack.

DNS Tunneling

DNS tunneling utilizes the DNS protocol to communicate non-DNS traffic over port 53. It sends HTTP and other protocol traffic over DNS. There are various, legitimate reasons to utilize DNS tunneling. However, there are also malicious reasons to use DNS Tunneling VPN services. They can be used to disguise outbound traffic as DNS, concealing data that is typically shared through an internet connection. For malicious use, DNS requests are manipulated to exfiltrate data from a compromised system to the attacker's infrastructure. It can also be used for command and control callbacks from the attacker's infrastructure to a compromised system.

Malware

Malware is a term used to describe malicious software, including spyware, ransomware, viruses, and worms. Malware breaches a network through a vulnerability, typically when a user clicks a dangerous link or email attachment that then installs risky software. Once inside the system, malware can do the following:

- Blocks access to key components of the network (ransomware)
- Installs malware or additional harmful software
- Covertly obtains information by transmitting data from the hard drive (spyware)
- Disrupts certain components and renders the system inoperable

Man-in-the-middle attack

Man-in-the-middle (MitM) attacks, also known as eavesdropping attacks, occur when attackers insert themselves into a two-party transaction. Once the attackers interrupt the traffic, they can filter and steal data.

Two common points of entry for MitM attacks:

- On unsecure public Wi-Fi, attackers can insert themselves between a visitor's device and the network. Without knowing, the visitor passes all information through the attacker.
- Once malware has breached a device, an attacker can install software to process all of the victim's information.

Phishing

Phishing is the practice of sending fraudulent communications that appear to come from a reputable source, usually through email. The goal is to steal sensitive data like credit card and login information or to install malware on the victim's machine. Phishing is an increasingly common cyberthreat.

SQL injection

A Structured Query Language (SQL) injection occurs when an attacker inserts malicious code into a server that uses SQL and forces the server to reveal information it normally would not. An attacker could carry out a SQL injection simply by submitting malicious code into a vulnerable website search box. Learn how to defend against SQL injection attacks.

Zero-day exploit

A zero-day exploit hits after a network vulnerability is announced but before a patch or solution is implemented. Attackers target the disclosed vulnerability during this window of time. Zero-day vulnerability threat detection requires constant awareness.

Incident Command Actions

Maintaining a best-practices approach to cyber security requires us to keep up to date on current trends and threats in the cyber world. Most of what we know comes from internet service providers who share this information to help us be better prepared.

Our cybersecurity response process recommendations by the SANS Institute, as defined in its Incident Handler's Handbook.

Before

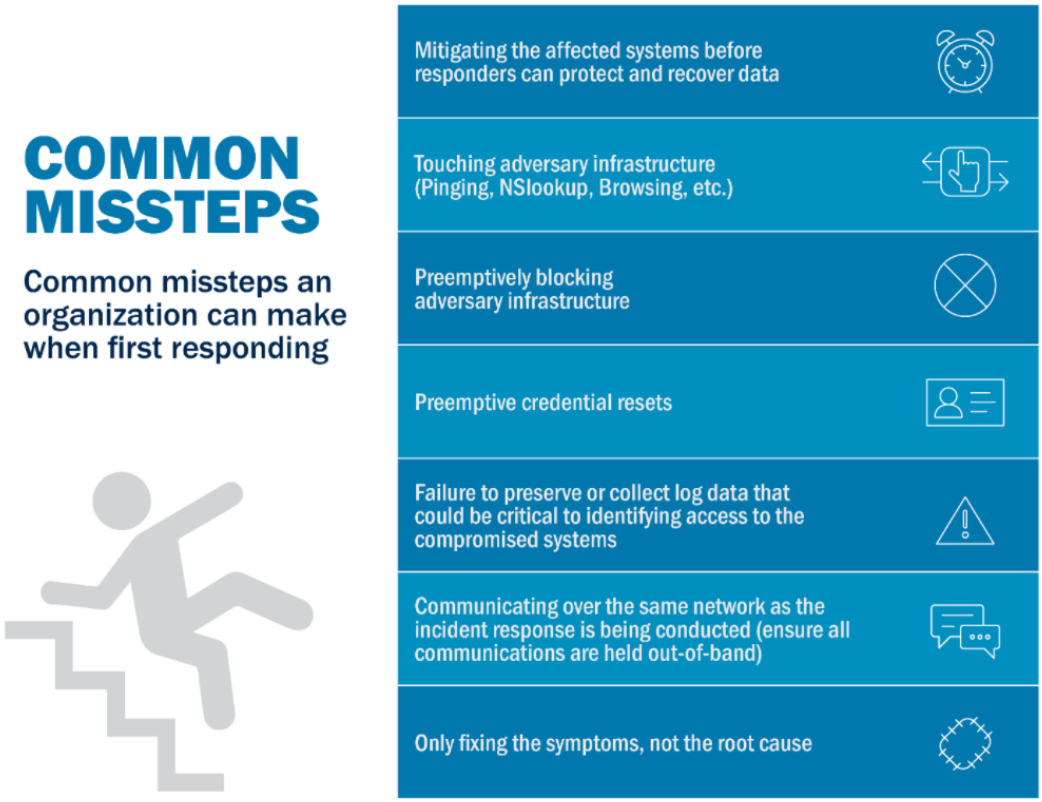
Preparation

- Define, develop, and implement an Information Security policy and procedures that addresses current and possible future risks to cyber information handing and protection
- Conduct regular and periodic training for our staff to ensure they have the tools they need to preserve our cyber security. This may include hands-on virtual or email tests and scenarios designed to reinforce safe cyber practices and protect our digital/cyber foot print.
- Perform regular security assessments and intrusion testing
- Provide a trained staff Cybersecurity Incident Response Team (CSIRT)

During

Identification

- Monitor IT systems and detect deviations from normal operations and see if they represent actual security incidents
- Establish type and severity
- Log actions and responses
- Collect evidence



Containment

- Isolate impacted system(s)
- Implement temporary workarounds to maintain operations

Eradication

- Identify the root cause
- Remove malicious software from all affected systems
- Take action to prevent root cause from recurring

Caution

After

Recovery

- Bring affected systems back online
- Test, verify, and monitor affected systems to ensure they are operating normally

After-Action Report

- Finalized incident documentation
- Perform a retrospective of the incident to determine what was effective and what was not to identify lessons learned
- Modify and update this annex and any policy or procedure identified as insufficient or failed in the after-action debrief and report

Earthquake

Duck, Cover, and Hold

This action is used to protect students and staff from flying or falling debris. Upon the first indication of an earthquake, staff should direct students to Duck, Cover, and Hold.

The Incident Commander will make the following announcement on the PA System:

"ATTENTION PLEASE. DUCK, COVER AND HOLD. DUCK, COVER, AND HOLD. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION TO FOLLOW."

Note: If the PA system is not available, use other means of communication, i.e. send messengers to deliver instructions, email, etc.

Description of Action

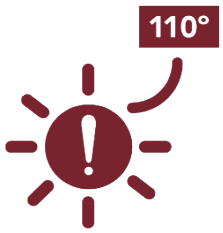
If inside

Drop to knees
Get under desk and remain facing away from windows
Clasp both hands behind neck
Bury face in arms
Make body as small as possible
Close eyes and cover ears with forearms.

If outside

Drop to knees
Clasp both hands behind neck
Bury face in arms
Make body as small as possible
Close eyes and cover ears with forearms.
Avoid glass and falling objects

Procedures



Avoid glass and falling objects. Move away from windows, heavy suspended light fixtures, and other overhead hazards.
When the shaking stops, the Incident Commander will issue the All Clear Response
Use prescribed routes and proceed directly to the Assembly Area. Teachers shall notify the Student Attendance/Release Team of missing students.
The Incident Commander to direct the Security Team to post guards a safe distance away from building entrances to prevent access.
Warn all personnel to avoid touching fallen electrical wires.
First Aid Team will check for injuries and provide appropriate first aid.
The Incident Commander will direct the Facility Team to turn off water, gas, and electrical and to alert appropriate utility company of damages, if appropriate.
If the area appears safe, the Search and Rescue team will be cleared by the Incident Commander to make an initial inspection of the District's buildings, if needed.
The Incident Commander will contact the Superintendent to determine if additional actions are deemed necessary.

During Non-Operating Hours

The Incident Commander and Identified Maintenance/Facilities Personnel will assess damages to determine needed corrective actions. For apparent damages, contact the Superintendent to determine if the District should be closed. If the District must be closed, notify staff and students as identified in District Closure Response Procedure.

Extreme Heat and Unhealthy Air Quality

Purpose

The purpose of this annex is to ensure that staff is advised of hazardous conditions caused by extreme heat conditions and/or unhealthy air quality and to minimize exposure to those conditions. Governmental agencies, such as the Air Quality Management District (AQMD), the National Weather Service (NWS-NOAA), the Center for Disease Control (CDC) and others provide guidance in how to respond to unhealthful air quality and extreme heat conditions.

Actions

The Incident Commander monitors air quality and heat conditions to provide recommended actions during an unhealthful air quality or extreme heat event. The Incident Commander will keep the Senior Executive or designee informed of these conditions and activate this annex. Upon activation, site administrators will perform the following:

Notify students and staff when unhealthful air quality or extreme heat conditions exist.
Modify District programs and work assignments for the protection of students and staff.
Adhere to the Unhealthful Air Quality and Extreme Heat Plan to correspond with current recommendations of both the AQMD and the NWS.
Cooperate with other governmental agencies and with the total community in matters of critical concern regarding unhealthful air quality and extreme heat.

District Activities and What To Do During Extreme Heat Conditions.

The National Weather Service (NOAA) provides information on responding to extreme heat conditions. The Incident Commander monitors temperature and humidity in the District and the National Weather Service website to ensure that our District sites are notified upon attainment of an extreme heat condition.
Always provide adequate amounts of water to students and staff to maintain appropriate hydration, use areas shaded from the direct sunlight, and:
When the Heat Index reaches the range of 90 to 105 degrees Fahrenheit, sunstroke, heat cramps, and heat exhaustion are possible. Everyone shall minimize prolonged, vigorous outdoor activity.
When the Heat Index reaches the range of 105 to 130 degrees Fahrenheit, sunstroke and heat exhaustion are likely and heat stroke is possible. Everyone shall discontinue prolonged, vigorous outdoor activity.
When the Heat Index reaches or exceeds 130 degrees Fahrenheit, heat stroke is highly likely with continued exposure. Everyone shall discontinue all vigorous outdoor activity.

Fire - Structural

The following procedure addresses the necessary actions that should be taken if a fire is discovered in or on the District's facilities. A timely response to this situation is critical to prevent injuries and further property damage.

Procedure

NOTE – There are cases during Active Assailant incidents where the assailant may trigger the fire alarm. This is done as a means to induce students and staff to evacuate which may provide the assailant with more "targets." Modified responses to a fire alarm should be discussed with your local fire and law enforcement jurisdictions to coordinate best practices for your district.
If a fire is discovered on site, the administrative staff will immediately signal the fire alarm and direct students out of the building.
The Incident Commander will call 911 and provide the location and nature of the incident
The Incident Commander will immediately initiate the Off-Site Evacuation Procedures
Staff and students will evacuate buildings using pre-designated routes or other safe routes and convene at the Assembly Area
Site staff members must bring their student rosters and take attendance at the Assembly Area to account for all students
Staff will notify the Incident Commander of any missing students
If safe to do so, staff will use fire extinguishers to suppress the fire until the local fire department arrives
All fires, regardless of size, which are extinguished by site personnel, require a call to the responding Fire Department to indicate "the fire is out"
The Incident Commander will secure the area to prevent unauthorized entry and keep access roads clear for emergency vehicles
The Incident Commander will notify the Senior Executive of the fire. The Senior Executive should work with the Public Information Officer
Outreach and Communication to disseminate information
In the event that students need to be released from the school site, refer to the Reunification Annex for reunification procedures
If necessary, the Incident Commander will notify appropriate Transportation official to request transportation for student and staff evacuation.

Any affected areas will not be reopened until the Fire Department or the appropriate agency provides clearance and the Incident Commander issues authorization to do so. For fires during non-school hours, the Incident Commander and the Senior Executive will determine if the school site will open the following day.

Fire - Forest, Wildfire, or Urban Interface

General

Fires can happen in almost any place, at any time, in almost any condition or circumstance as long as there is fuel, oxygen, and heat. While District's are required to have regularly scheduled fire drills by California law it is easy to overlook the risks associated with poor housekeeping, excessive and dried wildland shrubs and trees close to the District sites and many other factors. The damage caused by fire is real and serious, but the potential hazard of smoke can sometimes be even worse.

Fire in Surrounding Area

The following procedure addresses actions that should be taken in the event that a fire is discovered in an area nearby District grounds. The initiated response actions should take into consideration the location and size of the fire, its proximity to the District site, and the likelihood that the fire may affect the District.

Incident Command Actions

Before

Review and update the "Recovery" Annex located in your Functional Annex following current State and Federal "Best Practices" guidelines
Locate and participate in CSTI's course, "Recovery From Disasters: The Local Community Role (G-205)
Identify and include your "whole community" in strengthening your Pre-Disaster Recovery framework

During

Call 911 if you see a fire or flames.
Activate and follow your Emergency Operations Plan.
Use your internal Emergency Management Alert System to communicate with staff, students and parents.
Always follow instructions from your local emergency agencies (Fire and Law Enforcement).
If trapped, call 911 and give your location, but be aware that emergency response could be delayed or impossible. Turn of HVAC and natural gas. Turn on lights to help rescuers find you if you have power. Fill sinks and tubs with water and keep windows and doors unlocked.
Ensure you have a representative designated to be in contact with Cal OES (may be specific to your region) and your local EOC
You might consider predesignating a representative to be an active member of the Recovery task force.
If your site is a designated shelter or evacuation point, follow the instructions of the organization or agency that is managing the site (ie: American Red Cross).
Follow the Cal/OSHA Protection from Wildfire Smoke regulation, Title 8, Section 5141.1 for use of N95 respirators. https://www.dir.ca.gov/title8/5141_1.html. and you can find resources on wildfire smoke safety in this Cal/OSHA link. https://www.dir.ca.gov/dosh/Worker-Health-and-Safety-in-Wildfire-Regions.html
Monitor the Air Quality Index (AQI) at www.airnow.gov and enter the zip code of the location where you will be working. The current AQI is also available from the U.S. Forest Service at https://tools.airfire.org/ or a local air district, which can be located at www.arb.ca.gov/capcoa/dismap.htm
Listen to EAS, NOAA Weather Radio, or local alerting systems for current emergency information and instructions.

If you are not ordered to evacuate but smoky conditions exist, stay inside in a safe location or go to a location where smoke levels are lower, if possible.
Avoid vigorous activities outdoors and if travelling in a vehicle in the areas affected, close windows and make sure air is on "re-circulate" mode.

After

Continue to follow your EOP Recovery Annex
Listen to authorities to find out when it is safe to return and whether water is safe to drink.
Avoid hot ash, charred trees, smoldering debris, and live embers. The ground may contain heat pockets that can burn you or spark another fire. Consider the danger to pets and livestock.
Avoid downed power lines.
Send text messages or use social media to reach out to family and friends. Phone systems are often busy following a disaster. Make calls only in emergencies.
For those that are part of the damage assessment team, ensure training on personal protective equipment (PPE) use is conducted.
Continue to monitor the Air Quality Index (AQI) at www.airnow.gov and enter the zip code of the location where you will be working. The current AQI is also available from the U.S. Forest Service at https://tools.airfire.org/ or a local air district, which can be located at www.arb.ca.gov/capcoa/dismap.htm
Contact your insurance company/insurance pool/JPA for assistance.
Document everything you do related to the fire. For more details on this process, refer to the IMReady FEMA document.
Wildfires dramatically change landscape and ground conditions, which can lead to increased risk of flooding due to heavy rains, flash flooding and mudflows. Flood risk remains significantly higher until vegetation is restored — up to 5 years after a wildfire.
Be prepared to provide emotional and wellbeing services and resources for students and staff. Mental and physical fatigue are common in these situations .
https://www.cdc.gov/disasters/wildfires/afterfire.html and https://emergency.cdc.gov/coping/index.asp and www.NCTSN.org.

Any responsible person who observes a fire in the area outside of the District should immediately call 911 and notify the Incident Commander
The Incident Commander will initiate the appropriate Immediate Response Actions, which may include Shelter-in-Place, On-Site Evacuation, or Off-Site Evacuation
The Incident Commander will call 911 (to verify – good redundancy) and provide the location and nature of the incident
The Incident Commander will act to prevent students from approaching the fire and keep routes open for emergency vehicles
The Incident Commander will work with responding emergency personnel to determine if District grounds are threatened by the fire, smoke, or other hazardous conditions
If the Incident Commander issues the On-Site Evacuation procedure, staff and students will evacuate the affected building(s) using pre-designated routes or other safe routes and convene at the Assembly Area
All District staff members must bring their student rosters and take attendance at the Assembly Area to account for all students. Staff will notify the Incident Commander of any missing students
The Incident Commander should monitor local radio stations for emergency information.
The Incident Commander will notify the Senior Executive of the emergency situation
The office of the Senior Executive should work with the Office of Public Information and Communication to disseminate information
If necessary, the Incident Commander will notify the appropriate Transportation official to request transportation for staff and student evacuation
The Incident Commander will initiate Off-Site Evacuation procedures, as described in the Evacuation Annex, if warranted by changes in conditions
• In the event that students need to be released from the District site, refer to the Reunification Annex for reunification procedures

Infectious Disease

Purpose

The purpose of the Infectious Disease annex is to help equip our organization to be ready for the unexpected – before, during, and after an infectious disease outbreak. This annex does note replace the required Injury and Illness Prevention Program (IIPP) or other health and safety orders relevant to California Occupational Safety and Health Administration (Cal OSHA) or California Department of Public Health (CDPH)requirements.

Following are two current and specific requirements:

- COVID-19 Safety Plan (CSP) – The CSP is outlined in the CDPH Guidance and Framework for K-12 schools dated January 14, 2021
- The COVID-19 Prevention Plan (CPP) – The CPP is a requirement of the Cal/OSHA COVID -19 Prevention emergency temporary standard.

Infectious diseases occur, often with little or no warning. Essentials that need to be considered include the following:
EOPs may have to be activated with community partners if there is an infectious disease outbreak;
Rapid evolution and dissemination of information about an infectious disease incident will likely require activation of the Communication Annex;
Extensive absences may cause normal operations to close for days or weeks, calling for the activation of the Continuity of Operations (COOP) Annex;
Depending on the disease, there may potentially be some deaths in the community; and,
If handled poorly, community trust in our organization is likely to be shaken.

Disease Sources

Infectious diseases are illnesses that are transmitted from one person to another through various routes. These infectious diseases can be viral, bacterial, or fungal. Some of the more common infectious diseases that may affect us are:
Gastroenteritis; norovirus; influenza; chicken pox; and hand, foot, and mouth, which are all caused by a viral infection, Bacterial infections that can cause E. Coli, MRSA, and strep throat, and Fungal infections, like ringworm.

Influenza, one of the most common infectious diseases, is a highly contagious viral disease. Pandemic influenza differs from both seasonal influenza (flu) and avian influenza in the following aspects:
It is a rare global outbreak which can affect populations around the world.
It is caused by a new influenza virus to which people do not have immunity
Depending upon the specific virus, it can cause more severe illness than regular flu
Influenza can affect young healthy people more so than older, sick people. The Department of Health and Human Services will take the lead in mobilizing a local response to pandemic influenza. Public health alerts will be reported to our organization and the community. Individual rooms, hallways or, if necessary, entire sites may be closed temporarily to contain spread of the virus.

While influenza is the most common infectious disease there are others that can greatly affect our operations, including reduction in work force size to levels that make it difficult to fulfill organizational or operational mission objectives. The “Historical Information” section of this annex identifies some of the major infectious diseases that have affected us in the near past.

Rate of Spread

Infectious diseases may be categorized according to the rate at which they infect the population. The U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) categorizes the rate at which diseases are spread as a continuum from smallest to largest: case, outbreak, epidemic, and pandemic.

Case

A case is defined as an individual with the disease.

Outbreak

An outbreak is defined as a localized, as opposed to a generalized, epidemic. This term is also used synonymously with epidemic, and is sometimes the preferred word, as it may prevent sensationalism associated with the word epidemic.

Epidemic

An epidemic is defined as the occurrence of more cases of disease than expected in a given area or among a specific group of people over a period.

Pandemic

A pandemic is defined as an epidemic occurring over a very wide area (several countries or continents) and usually affecting a large proportion of the population.

Situation and Assumptions

The World Health Organization (WHO) provides an influenza pandemic alert system, with a scale ranging from Phase 1 (a low risk of a flu pandemic) to Phase 6 (a full-blown pandemic). See Figure 1, below.
Phase 1: A virus in animals has caused no known infections in humans.
Phase 2: An animal flu virus has caused infection in humans.
Phase 3: Sporadic cases or small clusters of disease occur in humans. Human-to-human transmission, if any, is insufficient to cause community-level outbreaks.
Phase 4: The risk for a pandemic is greatly increased but not certain.
Phase 5: Spread of disease between humans is occurring in more than one country of one WHO region.
Phase 6: Community-level outbreaks are in at least one additional country in a different WHO region from phase 5. A global pandemic is under way.

Concept of Operations

We monitor the following levels of activation for our EOP and Emergency Operations Center:

Level 3 (lowest level):

This level implies that, with modest augmentation, the lead agency or program can address the primary needs of the response. In the United States, many small natural disasters or environmental responses fall into this activation level.

Level 2 (intermediate level):

This level implies substantial augmentation is required for the lead agency or program to meet response requirements.

Level 1 (highest level):

This level requires an agency wide response and often includes domestic and international partners. As an example, there have been five Level 1 activations since 2005: Hurricane Katrina (2005), influenza A (H1N1) pandemic (2009–10), Ebola virus disease outbreak (2014–2016), Zika virus outbreak (2016–2017), and Coronavirus Disease 2019 (2019-202?).

Continuity of Operations (Annex Specific)

Important Notice

Occupational Health and Safety standards impose additional requirements on employers to protect employees from airborne infectious diseases like COVID-19 and pathogens transmitted by aerosols. Under section 3203 of California's general industry safety regulations, employers must establish, implement, and maintain an effective Injury and Illness Prevention Program (IIPP) to protect employees from workplace hazards. Employers are required to determine if the infectious disease is a hazard in their workplace. If it is a workplace hazard, then employers must implement infection control measures, including applicable and relevant recommendations from federal, state and local guidelines. It is the employer's responsibility to maintain a current and relevant IIPP.

All staff are to be informed regarding protective actions and/or modifications related to this plan. Messaging and risk communications during an emerging infectious disease or pandemic will be conducted by our Emergency Operations Center. Guidance and instructions on established infection control measures such as social distancing, personnel protective equipment and telework polices are provided by our Emergency Operations Center to assist in limiting the spread of influenza at the primary and alternate worksites.

Within the workplace, social distancing measures could take the form of:

Modifying the frequency and type of face-to-face employee encounters (e.g., placing moratoriums on hand-shaking, substituting teleconferences for face-to-face meetings, staggering breaks, posting infection control guidelines);
Establishing flexible work hours or worksite, (e.g., telecommuting);
Promoting social distancing between employees and those with whom they interact to maintain six-feet spatial separation between individuals; and
Implementing strategies that request and enable employees with influenza to stay home at the first sign of symptoms.

Frequent, daily contact is important to keep our employees informed about developments in our response, impacts on the workforce, and to reassure employees that we are continuing to function as usual.
When necessary, our planners and pandemic response teams will include deliberate methods to measure, monitor, and adjust actions to changing conditions and improved protection strategies.

Implement a formal worker and workplace protection strategy with metrics for assessing worker conformance and workplace cleanliness.
Monitor and periodically test protection methods.
Track and implement changes in approved or recommended protection measures.
Pre-position material and equipment onsite.
Ensure essential personnel are at the primary worksite.
Reaffirm that essential suppliers have their material and personnel on-hand and can respond, and support as planned.
Coordinate with local public health and emergency response points of contact to ensure open, adequate communications.

Organization and Assignment of Responsibilities

We utilize the Standardized Emergency Management System (SEMS) which incorporates the Incident Command System (ICS) as the method of managing a crisis or event until operations return to “normal.” This includes activation, when necessary, of incident command posts and the activation of our EOC.

Plan Development

During the health crisis it is vital that we capture lessons learned and alternative practices to our operations as they occur
Maintain a central depository for this information to use it following the crisis to update this annex and our EOP in general
It is our intent to review our EOP and annexes at least annually and update as necessary to maintain a best-practices EOP
We will share this annex periodically with our Health partners to ensure it has captured the most current trends and practices

Authorities and References

In the United States, the responsibility for public health rests primarily with city or county and state public health agencies. All states and many large counties and cities have their own public health departments. Although many public health investigations are conducted with local resources, a city, county, or state health department can request field epidemiologic or laboratory assistance from the next higher-level public health agency in response to a large or complex outbreak or problem that requires additional staff, expertise, or other resources.

In the United States, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) is the highest-level public health agency. Federal prisons, military bases, and tribal reservations have their own independent health systems but also can request assistance from CDC. Globally, countries can request assistance for field investigations from the World Health Organization, which coordinates with its members for needed resources. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (cdc.gov) contains the most current and relevant information on specific exposures and the appropriate practices and protocols.

Before

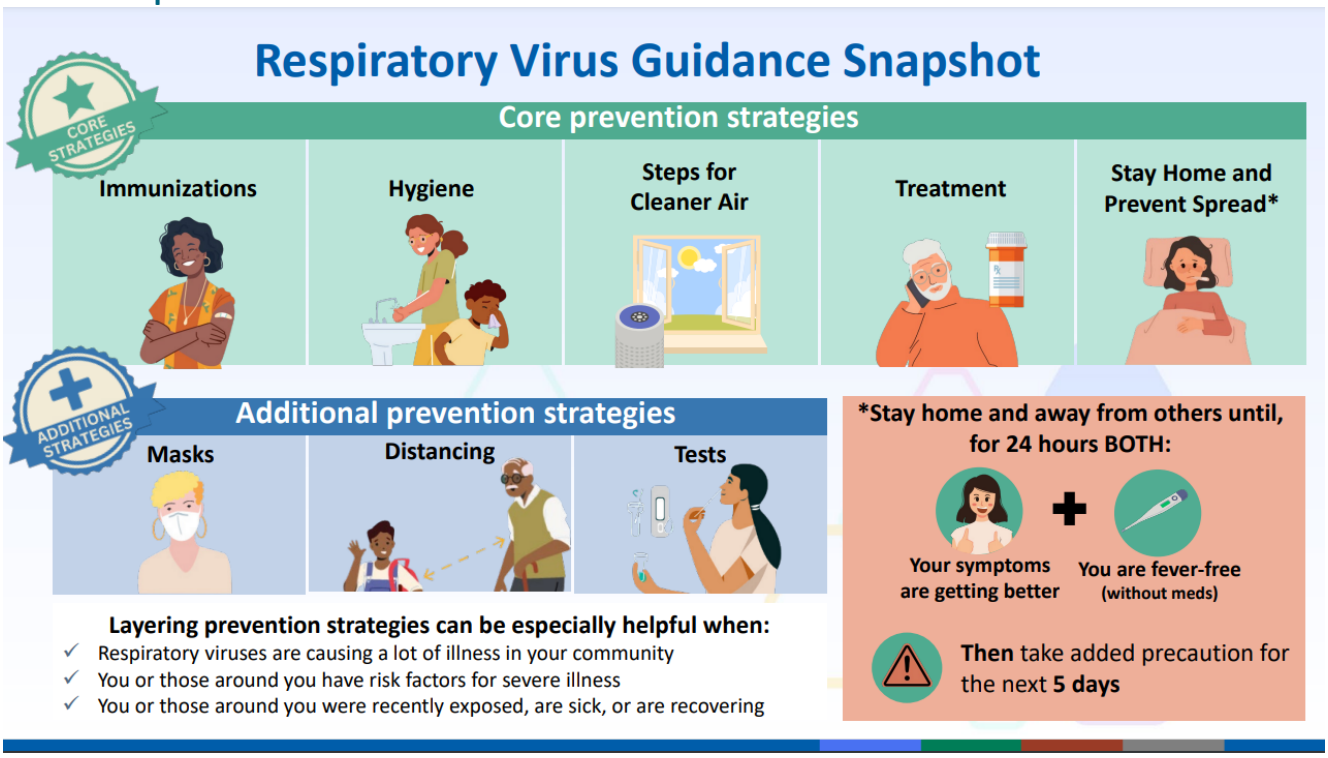
One of the best things to do prior to an infectious disease incident is to identify, collect, and maintain current and relevant contact information of organizations and agencies that will be important to our ongoing operations. These should include local, state, and federal public health jurisdictions such as:
Your local health department contact
(Searchable database https://www.naccho.org/membership/lhd-directory)
California Department of Public Health – https://www.cdph.ca.gov/
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) - https://www.cdc.gov/

Building and maintaining relationships with local health officials cannot be over emphasized. This effort before an infectious disease outbreak will prove invaluable as we seek support and guidance in maintaining, shutting down, and resuming operations.

In addition to this practice it is important to identify and document operational norms and standards that you maintain on an ongoing basis. These records will greatly help you resume operations following a major infectious disease event.

During

We activate our Emergency Operations Plan at a level sufficient to stay ahead of issues as much as possible including the activation of:
Communication annex
Continuity of Operations Plan (COOP) annex



Additional actions include:
Maintain contact with our local Health Department and coordinate our actions based upon their recommendations
Collect preventive informational flyers and documents and disseminate to staff and/or students, as relevant
Activate heightened surveillance of illness within our sites. Gather data on symptoms of all students and/or staff who are sick at home.
Insure those who are ill stay home
Send the sick home immediately
Provide fact sheets and guidelines for families to make them aware of symptoms and remind them of respiratory hygiene etiquette
Monitor bulletins and alerts from the Department of Health and Human Services
Keep staff and students informed of developing issues
Assist the Department of Health and Human Services in monitoring outbreaks
Respond to media inquiries regarding organization attendance status
Implement telework procedures, if necessary, so that staff can stay home

Maintain surveillance after the initial epidemic in the event a second wave passes through the community

After

As with any major crisis or incident the major goal of our institution is to get things back to “normal.” This means restoration of our primary operations back to pre-incident or event levels. This is most effectively accomplished when there are accurate and well-maintained records and practices in place that help us on this recovery journey. Following are key concepts and actions that should be considered in getting back to “normal.”

COVID-19 Specific Guidance

Power and Utility Failure

Extended power outages may impact the whole community and the economy. A power outage is when the electrical power goes out unexpectedly. A power outage may:
Disrupt communications, water, and transportation
Close retail businesses, grocery stores, gas stations, ATMs, banks, and other services
Cause food spoilage and water contamination
Prevent use of medical devices

Protect Students And Staff During A Power Outage

Keep freezers and refrigerators closed
Only use generators outdoors and away from windows or air intakes
Do not use gas appliances for heating
Disconnect appliances and electronics to avoid damage from electrical surges
Have alternate plans for refrigerating medicines or using power-dependent medical devices
If safe, go to an alternate location for heat or cooling

Electrical Systems

The M&O Department should identify the location of all electrical main and subpanels throughout the site
Use a clean and clear site map of each site and label the map “Electrical Systems Field Operations Guide” (known as the Electrical Systems FOG)
Indicate the locations of the main electrical shut-off and each sub-panel main shut-off in the Electrical Systems FOG
Include a photo of each panel and label the photos corresponding to the panel numbers
If panels do not have a numeric identifier, consider adding that at all panel locations
Label the site main and subpanel main shut-off for each panel so as to minimize confusion
Laminate or plastic-protect the Electrical Systems FOG and provide to designated and trained employee(s) who will be responsible for emergency shutdown and restoration following an electrical failure

Backup Supplies and Other Resources

Identify all of the items needed that rely on electricity
Identify and have emergency plans for students or staff relying upon medical devices powered by electricity and refrigerated medicines
Find out how long medication can be stored at higher temperatures and get specific guidance for any medications that are critical for life
Plan for batteries and other alternatives to meet our needs when the power goes out
Sign up for local alerts and warning systems. Monitor weather reports
Ensure that any carbon monoxide detectors are in working order and that battery backups are available
Determine whether the phone system will work in a power outage and how long battery backup will last
Review the supplies that are available in case of a power outage
Have flashlights with extra batteries available for individual rooms or offices without exterior light sources
Maintain an inventory of nonperishable food and water
Regularly check the thermometer in the refrigerator and freezer so that we can know the temperature when the power is restored. Throw out food if the temperature is 40 degrees or higher
Keep mobile phones and other electric equipment charged and gas tanks full

Survive During

When power goes out, a trained and responsible employee should:
Keep freezers and refrigerators closed. The refrigerator will keep food cold for about four hours. A full freezer will keep the temperature for about 48 hours. Use coolers with ice if necessary. Monitor temperatures with a thermometer.
Maintain food supplies that do not require refrigeration
Avoid carbon monoxide poisoning. Generators and any fuel or gas-powered devices should always be used outdoors and at least 20 feet away from windows
Turn off or disconnect all appliances, equipment, or electronics. Power may return with momentary “surges” or “spikes” that can cause damage

Power Restoration

When in doubt, throw it out! Throw away any food that has been exposed to temperatures 40 degrees or higher for two hours or more, or that has an unusual odor, color, or texture
If the power is out for more than a day, discard any medication that should be refrigerated, unless the drug’s label says otherwise. If a life depends on the refrigerated drugs, consult a doctor or pharmacist and use medicine only until a new supply is available

Purpose

The State of California is vulnerable to a variety of severe weather hazards. This incident annex addresses the hazards associated with severe weather. When severe weather occurs, the impacts can be devastating and may affect isolated locations or multiple jurisdictions simultaneously.

When the impacts exceed the capabilities of local jurisdictions, the State must respond in a prompt, organized, and efficient manner to save lives, mitigate property damage, and restore a sense of normalcy to the community. This response is coordinated through the Governor's Office of Emergency Services (OES) in concert with local, state, Federal, volunteer, and private sector partners.

Situation and Assumptions

El Niño

During El Niño, trade winds weaken. Warm water is pushed back east, toward the west coast of the Americas. El Niño means Little Boy in Spanish. South American fishermen first noticed periods of unusually warm water in the Pacific Ocean in the 1600s. The full name they used was El Niño de Navidad because El Niño typically peaks around December.

El Niño can affect our weather significantly. The warmer waters cause the Pacific jet stream to move south of its neutral position. With this shift, areas in the northern U.S. and Canada are dryer and warmer than usual. But in the U.S. Gulf Coast and Southeast, these periods are wetter than usual and have increased flooding.

Hail

Hail is considered severe when it reaches 1 inch in diameter. Hail can reach sizes much larger than the severe threshold size. Hail causes close to $1 billion in damage to property and crops each year in the U.S. While property is typically at greatest risk for hail damage, the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) estimate that 24 people are injured from hail each year.

Thunderstorms

The National Weather Service (NWS) defines a severe thunderstorm as any storm that produces one or more of the following: a tornado, damaging wind speeds of 58 mph (50 knots) or greater, and/or hail 1 inch in diameter or larger.

Continuity of Operations (Annex Specific)

The goal of emergency management is to restore operations of any organization back to its primary purpose, or "normal." In some cases, restoration of operations may have to be a new normal.

Organization and Assignment of Responsibilities

This organization follows SEMS/NIMS requirements, specifically incorporating the Incident Command System into emergency and incident operations.

Plan Development

This annex was selected for inclusion in this Emergency Operations Plan (EOP) following best practices Hazard/Threat Analysis and is reviewed annually for currency and applicability.
Severe weather-related hazards can occur at any time throughout the year

Local jurisdictions adversely affected by severe weather may declare local State of Emergency upon being affected
Local jurisdictions adversely affected by severe weather may use mutual aid agreements as part of their response to the disaster
Local jurisdictions affected by severe weather may request resources from the State as the situation evolves

			Discussion Items Dashboard exercise led by August Deshais, HCOE Historical context of LCAP was presented. The Dashboard was presented as a resource. Mr. Deshais presented data. The team was given the opportunity to review the ELA data to make observations and ask questions. De Mario noticed that "Students with Disabilities" were in the red and scored the least, declined year over year. Mr. Blackburn asked for clarification about any differentiation for that subgroup. Stephanie Brown asked about the accommodations and how those are accessed in testing. The team was given an opportunity to study the math data. "Students with Disabilities" were again noted as being in the red, below standard, and having declined year over year. English Learner Progress was presented and examined. Recently Reclassified EL did better than peers on the ELA Data and also were closer to standard for Math. Chronic Absenteeism was discussed. Winship has declined 5.4%. Independent study and Saturday Workshop as mitigation strategies were discussed. "Homeless" and "Socioeconomically Disadvantaged" had the highest rate. Suspension Rate data was examined. The rate was discussed as to how it is determined B. CSSP Presentation Edwin Garcia presented the CSSP.

			Jerry Blackburn asked about the entrance to school and how we could possibly make it safer for pedestrians as there are often multiple vehicles speeding each morning. Mr. Garcia relayed information received from Supervisor Bohn about speed humps, signage, and other ideas that were discussed at the public hearing. Rachel De Mario asked about the accuracy of the detailed morning monitoring by PE and custodial personnel. Mr. Garcia verified. No further discussion. Dakota Boyd motioned to accept the CSSP as presented. Tiffany Marmon seconded the motion. Motion passed. Adjournment: 6:28

The district's program also may include age-appropriate instruction in sexual abuse and sexual assault awareness and prevention. Upon written request of a student's parent/guardian, the student shall be excused from taking such instruction. (Education Code 51900.6)

The Superintendent or designee may display posters, in areas on campus where students frequently congregate, notifying students of the appropriate telephone number to call to report child abuse or neglect. (Education Code 33133.5)

In addition, student identification cards for students in grades 7-12 shall include the National Domestic Violence Hotline telephone number. (Education Code 215.5)

The Superintendent or designee shall, to the extent feasible, seek to incorporate community resources into the district's child abuse prevention programs and may use these resources to provide parents/guardians with instruction in parenting skills and child abuse prevention.

Reasonable suspicion means that it is objectively reasonable for a person to entertain a suspicion, based upon facts that could cause a reasonable person in a like position, drawing when appropriate on the person's training and experience, to suspect child abuse or neglect. However, reasonable suspicion does not require certainty that child abuse or neglect has occurred nor does it require a specific medical indication of child abuse or neglect. (Penal Code 11166)

Reportable Offenses

Using the procedures provided below, a mandated reporter shall make a report whenever the mandated reporter, while acting in a professional capacity or within the scope of employment, has knowledge of or observes a child whom the mandated reporter knows or reasonably suspects has been the victim of child abuse or neglect. (Penal Code 11166)

Any district employee who reasonably believes to have observed the commission of a murder, rape, or lewd or lascivious act by use of force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury against a victim who is a child under 14 years of age shall notify a peace officer. (Penal Code 152.3)

The fact that a child is experiencing homelessness or is classified as an unaccompanied minor, as defined in the federal McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act (42 USC 11434a), is not, in and of itself, a sufficient basis for reporting child abuse or neglect. (Penal Code 11165.15)

Responsibility for Reporting

The reporting duties of mandated reporters are individual and cannot be delegated to another person. (Penal Code 11166)

When two or more mandated reporters jointly have knowledge of a known or suspected instance of child abuse or neglect, the report may be made by a member of the team selected by mutual agreement and a single report may be made and signed by the selected member of the reporting team. Any member who has knowledge that the member designated to report has failed to do so shall thereafter make the report. (Penal Code 11166)

No supervisor or administrator shall impede or inhibit a mandated reporter from making a report. (Penal Code 11166)

Any person not identified as a mandated reporter who has knowledge of or observes a child whom the person knows or reasonably suspects has been a victim of child abuse or neglect may report the known or suspected instance of child abuse or neglect to the appropriate agency. (Penal Code 11166)

Reporting Procedures
Initial Telephone Report

Immediately or as soon as practicable after knowing or observing suspected child abuse or neglect, a mandated reporter shall make an initial report by telephone to any police department (excluding a district police/security department), sheriff's department, county probation department if designated by the county to receive such reports, or county welfare department. Within 36 hours of knowing or observing the information concerning the incident, the mandated reporter shall prepare and either send, fax, or electronically transmit to the appropriate agency a written follow-up report, which includes a completed California Department of Justice (DOJ) form (BCIA 8572). (Penal Code 11166, 11168)

The DOJ form may be obtained from the district office or other appropriate agencies, such as the police department, sheriff's department, or county probation or welfare department.

Reports of suspected child abuse or neglect shall include, if known: (Penal Code 11167)

The name, business address, and telephone number of the person making the report and the capacity that makes the person a mandated reporter

The child's name and address, present location, and, where applicable, school, grade, and class

The names, addresses, and telephone numbers of the child's parents/guardians

The name, address, telephone number, and other relevant personal information about the person(s) who might have abused or neglected the child

The mandated reporter shall make a report even if some of this information is not known or is uncertain to the mandated reporter. (Penal Code 11167)

The mandated reporter may give to an investigator from an agency investigating the case, including a licensing agency, any information relevant to an incident of child abuse or neglect or to a report made for serious emotional damage pursuant to Penal Code 11166.05. (Penal Code 11167)

The mandated reporter shall not be required to disclose the mandated reporter's identity to a supervisor, the principal, or the Superintendent or designee. (Penal Code 11166)

However, employees reporting child abuse or neglect to an appropriate agency are encouraged, but not required, to notify the principal as soon as possible after the initial telephone report to the appropriate agency. When so notified, the principal shall inform the Superintendent or designee.

The principal so notified shall provide the mandated reporter with any assistance necessary to ensure that reporting procedures are carried out in accordance with law, Board policy, and administrative regulation. At the mandated reporter's request, the principal may assist in completing and filing the necessary forms.

Reporting the information to an employer, supervisor, principal, school counselor, co-worker, or other person shall not be a substitute for making a mandated report to the appropriate agency. (Penal Code 11166)

Training

Within the first six weeks of each school year, or within the first six weeks of employment if hired during the school year, the Superintendent or designee shall provide training on mandated reporting requirements to district employees and persons working on their behalf who are mandated reporters. (Education Code 44691; Penal Code 11165.7)

The Superintendent or designee shall use the online training module provided by the California Department of Social Services (CDSS). (Education Code 44691)

The training shall include, but not necessarily be limited to, training in identification and reporting of child abuse and neglect. (Education Code 44691; Penal Code 11165.7)

In addition, the Superintendent or designee shall provide annual training on the prevention of abuse, including sexual abuse, of children on district property, by district staff, or in district-sponsored programs. (Education Code 44691)

The Superintendent or designee shall obtain and retain proof of each mandated reporter's completion of the training. (Education Code 44691)

Victim Interviews by Social Services

Whenever CDSS or another government agency is investigating suspected child abuse or neglect that occurred within the child's home or out-of-home care facility, the student may be interviewed by an agency representative during school hours, on school premises. The Superintendent or designee shall give the student the choice of being interviewed in private or in the presence of any adult school employee or volunteer aide selected by the student. (Penal Code 11174.3)

A staff member or volunteer aide selected by a child may decline to be present at the interview. If the selected person accepts, the principal or designee shall inform the person of the following requirements prior to the interview: (Penal Code 11174.3)
The purpose of the selected person's presence at the interview is to lend support to the child and enable the child to be as comfortable as possible

The selected person shall not participate in the interview

The selected person shall not discuss the facts or circumstances of the case with the child

The selected person is subject to the confidentiality requirements of the Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act, a violation of which is punishable as specified in Penal Code 11167.5
If a staff member agrees to be present, the interview shall be held at a time during school hours when it does not involve an expense to the school. (Penal Code 11174.3)

Release of Child to Peace Officer

When a child is released to a peace officer and taken into custody as a victim of suspected child abuse or neglect, the Superintendent or designee and/or principal shall not notify the parent/guardian, but rather shall provide the peace officer with the address and telephone number of the child's parent/guardian. (Education Code 48906)

Parent/Guardian Complaints

Upon request, the Superintendent or designee shall provide parents/guardians with procedures for reporting suspected child abuse occurring on district property to appropriate agencies. For parents/guardians whose primary language is not English, such procedures shall be in their primary language and, when communicating orally regarding those guidelines and/or procedures, an interpreter shall be provided.

To file a complaint against a district employee or other person suspected of child abuse or neglect on district property, parents/guardians may file a report by telephone, in person, or in writing with any appropriate agency identified above under "Reporting Procedures." If a parent/guardian makes a complaint about an employee to any other employee, the employee receiving the information shall notify the parent/guardian of procedures for filing a complaint with the appropriate agency. The employee shall also file a report when obligated to do so pursuant to Penal Code 11166 using the procedures described above for mandated reporters.

In addition, if the child is enrolled in special education, a separate complaint may be filed with the California Department of Education pursuant to 5 CCR 3200-3205.

The Superintendent or designee shall provide to all new employees who are mandated reporters a statement that informs them of their status as mandated reporters, their reporting obligations under Penal Code 11166, and their confidentiality rights under Penal Code 11167. Additionally, the district shall provide these new employees with a copy of Penal Code 11165.7, 11166, and 11167. (Penal Code 11165.7, 11166.5)

The signed statement shall be retained by the Superintendent or designee. (Penal Code 11166.5)

Employees who work with dependent adults shall be notified of legal responsibilities and reporting procedures pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code 15630-15637.

The Superintendent or designee also shall notify all employees that:
A mandated reporter who reports a known or suspected instance of child abuse or neglect shall not be held civilly or criminally liable for making a report and this immunity shall apply even if the mandated reporter acquired the knowledge or reasonable suspicion of child abuse or neglect outside of the mandated reporter's professional capacity or outside the scope of employment (Penal Code 11172)

Any other person making a report shall not incur civil or criminal liability unless it can be proven that the person knowingly made a false report or made a report with reckless disregard of the truth or falsity of the report. (Penal Code 11172)

If a mandated reporter fails to timely report an incident of known or reasonably suspected child abuse or neglect, the mandated reporter may be guilty of a crime punishable by a fine and/or imprisonment (Penal Code 11166)

Discipline – BP/AR 5144

The Governing Board is committed to providing a safe, supportive, and positive school environment which is conducive to student learning and achievement and desires to prepare students for responsible citizenship by fostering self-discipline and personal responsibility. The Board believes that high expectations for student behavior, use of effective school and classroom management strategies, provision of appropriate intervention and support, and parent/guardian involvement can minimize the need for disciplinary measures that exclude students from instruction as a means for correcting student misbehavior.

The Superintendent or designee shall develop effective, age-appropriate strategies for maintaining a positive school climate and responding appropriately to student misbehavior at district schools. The strategies shall focus on providing students with needed supports; communicating clear, appropriate, and consistent expectations and consequences for student conduct; and ensuring equity and continuous improvement in the implementation of district discipline policies and practices.

In addition, the Superintendent or designee's strategies for responding to student misconduct shall reflect the Board's preference for the use of positive interventions and alternative disciplinary measures over exclusionary discipline measures.

Disciplinary measures that may result in loss of instructional time or cause students to be disengaged from school, such as detention, suspension, and expulsion, shall be imposed only when required or permitted by law or when other means of correction have been documented to have failed. (Education Code 48900.5)

School personnel and volunteers shall not allow any disciplinary action taken against a student to result in the denial or delay of a school meal. (Education Code 49557.5)

A student shall not be denied recess unless the student's participation poses an immediate threat to the physical safety of the student or to the physical safety of one or more of the student's peers. If, due to such immediate threat, a student is denied recess, staff shall make all reasonable efforts to resolve the threat and minimize the student's exclusion from recess, to the greatest extent practicable. (Education Code 49056)

Seclusion and behavioral restraint are prohibited as a means of discipline and shall not be used to correct student behavior except as permitted pursuant to Education Code 49005.4 and in accordance with district regulations. (Education Code 49005.2)

The Superintendent or designee shall create a model discipline matrix that lists violations and the consequences for each as allowed by law.

The principal or designee at each school may develop disciplinary rules to meet the school's particular needs consistent with law, Board policy, and administrative regulations. The Board, at an open meeting, may review the approved school discipline rules for consistency with Board policy and state law. Site-level disciplinary rules shall be included in the district's comprehensive safety plan. (Education Code 32282, 35291.5)

At all times, the safety of students and staff, providing interventions and supports to students, as well as the maintenance of an orderly school environment, shall be priorities in determining appropriate discipline. When misconduct occurs, staff shall attempt to identify the causes of the student's behavior and implement appropriate support and/or discipline. When choosing between different disciplinary strategies, staff shall consider the effect of each option on the student's health, well-being, and opportunity to learn.

Staff shall enforce disciplinary rules fairly, consistently, and in accordance with the district's nondiscrimination policies.

The Superintendent or designee shall provide professional development as necessary to assist staff in developing the skills needed to effectively and equitably implement the disciplinary strategies adopted for district schools, including, but not limited to, knowledge of school and classroom management skills and their consistent application, effective accountability and positive intervention techniques, and the tools to form strong, cooperative relationships with parents/guardians.

District goals for improving school climate, based on suspension and expulsion rates, surveys of students, staff, and parents/guardians regarding their sense of school safety and connectedness to the school community, and other local measures, shall be included in the district's local control and accountability plan, as required by law.

At the beginning of each school year, the Superintendent or designee may report to the Board regarding disciplinary strategies used in district schools in the immediately preceding school year and their effect on student learning.

Parents/guardians

Teachers

School administrators

School security personnel, if any

Students in grades seven through twelve
Annually, site-level discipline rules shall be reviewed and, if necessary, updated to align with any changes in state law, district discipline policies and regulations, and/or goals for school safety and climate as specified in the district's local control and accountability plan. A copy of the rules shall be filed with the Superintendent or designee for inclusion in the comprehensive safety plan.

School rules shall be communicated to students clearly and in an age-appropriate manner.

It shall be the duty of each employee of the school to enforce the school rules on student discipline. (Education Code 35291.5)

Disciplinary Strategies

To the extent possible, staff shall use disciplinary strategies that keep students in school and participating in the instructional program. Except when students' presence causes a danger to themselves or others or they commit a single act of a grave nature or an offense for which suspension or expulsion is required by law, suspension, supervised suspension, or expulsion shall be used only when other means of correction have failed to bring about proper conduct. Disciplinary strategies may include, but are not limited to:
Discussion or conference between school staff, the student, and the student's parents/guardians

Referral of the student to the school counselor or other school support service personnel for case management and counseling

Convening of a study team, guidance team, resource panel, or other intervention-related team to assess the behavior and develop and implement an individual plan to address the behavior in partnership with the student and the student's parents/guardians

When applicable, referral for a comprehensive psychosocial or psychoeducational assessment, including for purposes of creating an individualized education program (IEP) or a Section 504 plan

Enrollment in a program for teaching prosocial behavior or anger management

Participation in a restorative justice program

A positive behavior support approach with tiered interventions that occur during the school day on campus

Participation in a social and emotional learning program that teaches students the ability to understand and manage emotions, develop caring and concern for others, make responsible decisions, establish positive relationships, and handle challenging situations capably

Participation in a program that is sensitive to the traumas experienced by students, focuses on students' behavioral health needs, and addresses those needs in a proactive manner

After-school programs that address specific behavioral issues or expose students to positive activities and behaviors, including, but not limited to, those operated in collaboration with local parent and community groups

Detention after school hours as provided in the section below entitled "Detention After School"

Community service as provided in the section below entitled "Community Service"

In accordance with Board policy and administrative regulation, restriction or disqualification from participation in extracurricular activities

Reassignment to an alternative educational environment

Suspension and expulsion in accordance with law, Board policy, and administrative regulation
When, by law or district policy, other means of correction are required to be implemented before a student could be suspended or expelled, any other means of correction implemented shall be documented and retained in the student's records. (Education Code 48900.5)

When a student has been suspended, or other means of correction have been implemented against the student, for an incident of racist bullying, harassment, or intimidation, the principal or designee shall engage both the victim and perpetrator in a restorative justice practice suitable to the needs of the students. The principal or designee shall also require the perpetrator to engage in a culturally sensitive program that promotes racial justice and equity and combats racism and ignorance and shall regularly check on the victim to ensure that the victim is not in danger of suffering from any long-lasting mental health issues. (Education Code 48900.5)

Staff shall enforce disciplinary rules fairly, consistently, and in accordance with the district's nondiscrimination policies.

When disciplining a student who has been identified for special education and related services, the procedures specified in Administrative Regulation 5144.2 - Suspension And Expulsion/Due Process (Students With Disabilities) shall be applied. If a student has not been identified as a student with a disability and the district suspects the behavior that resulted in discipline may be based in an unidentified disability, the district shall conduct an evaluation to determine if the student has a disability which requires an IEP or 504 plan. (U.S.C. 1412(a)(3))

Detention After School

Students may be detained for disciplinary reasons for up to one hour after the close of the maximum school day, or until the departure of the school bus to which they have been assigned if applicable. (5 CCR 307, 353)

The student shall not be detained unless the principal or designee notifies the parent/guardian.

Students shall remain under the supervision of a certificated employee during the period of detention.

Students may be offered the choice of serving their detention on Saturday rather than after school.

Community Service

As part of or instead of disciplinary action, the Board, Superintendent, principal, or principal's designee may require a student to perform community service during nonschool hours on school grounds or, with written permission of the student's parent/guardian, off school grounds. Such service may include, but is not limited to, community or school outdoor beautification, community or campus betterment, and teacher, peer, or youth assistance programs. (Education Code 48900.6)

This community service option is not available for a student who has been suspended, pending expulsion, pursuant to Education Code 48915. However, if the recommended expulsion is not implemented or the expulsion itself is suspended, then the student may be required to perform community service for the resulting suspension. (Education Code 48900.6)

Notice to Parents/Guardians and Students

At the beginning of the school year, the Superintendent or designee shall notify parents/guardians, in writing, about the availability of district rules related to discipline. (Education Code 35291, 48980)

The Superintendent or designee shall also provide written notice of disciplinary rules to parents/guardians of transfer students at the time of their enrollment in the district.

Original Adopted Date: 09/13/2000 | Last Revised Date: 02/27/2020 | Last Reviewed Date: 02/27/2020

In cooperation with teachers, students, and parents/guardians, the principal or designee may establish school rules governing student dress and grooming which are consistent with law, Board policy, and administrative regulations. These school dress codes shall be regularly reviewed.

The following guidelines shall apply to all regular school activities:

Dress Code
Students must wear a shirt with pants or skirt, or the equivalent, and shoes.

Shirts and dresses must have fabric on the front and the sides.

The fabric covering the buttocks, genitals, and breasts must not be transparent (see-through).

Hats and other headwear must allow the face to be visible and not interfere with the line of sight of any student or staff. Hoodies must allow the student's face and ears to be visible to staff. No sunglasses may be worn indoors.

Clothing must be suitable for all scheduled classroom activities, including physical education, science labs, wood shop, and other activities where unique hazards exist. Specialized courses may require specialized attire, such as sports uniforms or safety gear.

Shoes must be worn at all times. Flip-flops, socks or sock-like footwear, slippers, backless shoes, or shoes with over a one-inch heel are not safe or appropriate for school. Toes must be covered.

Clothing may not depict, advertise or advocate the use of alcohol (excluding Humboldt County restaurants/family establishments), tobacco, or drugs.

Clothing may not reference genitals nor depict profanity, pornography, nudity, vulgarity, or sexual acts.

Clothing may not use or depict hate speech targeting any individual or group based on economics, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, intelligence, race, religious affiliation, sexual orientation, or any other protected group.

Clothing must not threaten the health or safety of any student or staff.

Clothing may not depict or advocate violence, criminal activity, race superiority, or hate speech.

Any attire identified as gang-related by local law enforcement is not allowed.

The dress code shall be modified as appropriate to accommodate a student's religious or cultural observance, health condition, or other circumstance deemed necessary by the principal or designee. In addition, the principal or designee may impose dress requirements to accommodate the needs of special school activities, physical education classes, athletic activities, and other extracurricular and cocurricular activities.

No grade of a student participating in a physical education class shall be adversely affected if the student does not wear standardized physical education apparel because of circumstances beyond the student's control. (Education Code 49066)

Students shall be allowed to wear sun-protective clothing, including but not limited to hats, for outdoor use during the school day. (Education Code 35183.5)

Gang-Related Apparel

At individual schools that have a dress code prohibiting gang-related apparel at school or school activities, the principal, staff, and parents/guardians participating in the development of the school safety plan shall define "gang-related apparel" and shall limit this definition to apparel that reasonably could be determined to threaten the health and safety of the school environment if it were worn or displayed on a school campus. (Education Code 32282)

Because gang-related symbols are constantly changing, definitions of gang-related apparel shall be reviewed annually and updated whenever related information is received. As necessary, the school shall collaborate with law enforcement agencies to update definitions of gang-related apparel.

This policy shall apply to all acts constituting bullying related to school activity or to school attendance occurring within a district school, to acts which occur off campus or outside of school-related or school-sponsored activities but which may have an impact or create a hostile environment at school, and to all acts of the Governing Board and the Superintendent in enacting policies and procedures that govern the district.

The Board recognizes the harmful effects of bullying on student well-being, student learning, and school attendance and desires to provide a welcoming, safe, and supportive school environment that protects students from physical, mental, and emotional harm. No individual or group shall, through physical, written, verbal, visual, or other means, harass, sexually harass, threaten, intimidate, cyberbully, cause bodily injury to, or commit hate violence against any student or school personnel, or retaliate against them for filing a complaint or participating in the complaint resolution process.

The Superintendent or designee shall develop strategies for addressing bullying in district schools with the involvement of students, parents/guardians, and staff. As appropriate, the Superintendent or designee may also collaborate with social services, mental health services, law enforcement, courts, and other agencies and community organizations in the development and implementation of effective strategies to promote safety in schools and the community.

Such strategies shall be incorporated into the comprehensive safety plan and, to the extent possible, into the local control and accountability plan and other applicable district and school plans.

Any complaint of bullying shall be investigated and, if determined to be discriminatory, resolved in accordance with law and the district's uniform complaint procedures specified in Administrative Regulation 1312.3. If, during the investigation, it is determined that a complaint is about nondiscriminatory bullying, the principal or designee shall inform the complainant and shall take all necessary actions to resolve the complaint.

If the Superintendent or designee believes it is in the best interest of a student who has been the victim of an act of bullying, as defined in Education Code 48900, the Superintendent or designee shall advise the student's parents/guardians that the student may transfer to another school. If the parents/guardians of a student who has been the victim of an act of bullying requests a transfer for the student pursuant to Education Code 46600, the Superintendent or designee shall allow the transfer in accordance with law and district policy on intradistrict or interdistrict transfer, as applicable.

District families are encouraged to model respectful behavior, contribute to a safe and supportive learning environment, and monitor potential causes of bullying.

Any employee who permits or engages in bullying or retaliation related to bullying shall be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal.

Examples of Prohibited Conduct
Bullying is an aggressive behavior that involves a real or perceived imbalance of power between individuals with the intent to cause emotional or physical harm. Bullying can be physical, verbal, or social/relational and may involve a single severe act or repetition or potential repetition of a deliberate act. Bullying includes, but is not limited to, any act described in Education Code 48900(r).

Cyberbullying includes the electronic creation or transmission of harassing communications, direct threats, or other harmful texts, sounds, or images, which may be shared, sent, or posted publicly. Cyberbullying may include, but is not limited to, personal or private information that causes humiliation, false or negative information to discredit or disparage, or threats of physical harm. Cyberbullying may also include breaking into another person's electronic account or assuming that person's online identity in order to damage that person's reputation.

Examples of the types of conduct that may constitute bullying and are prohibited by the district include, but are not limited to:
Physical bullying: An act that inflicts harm upon a person's body or possessions, such as hitting, kicking, pinching, spitting, tripping, pushing, taking or breaking someone's possessions, or making cruel or rude hand gestures

Verbal bullying: An act that includes saying or writing hurtful things, such as teasing, name-calling, inappropriate sexual comments, taunting, or threats to cause harm

Social/relational bullying: An act that harms a person's reputation or relationships, such as leaving a person out of an activity on purpose, influencing others not to be friends with someone, spreading rumors, or embarrassing someone in public

Cyberbullying: An act that occurs on electronic devices such as computers, tablets, or cell phones, such as sending demeaning or hateful text messages, direct messages or public posts on social media apps, gaming forums, or emails, spreading rumors by email or by posting on social networking sites, shaming or humiliating by allowing others to view, participate in, or share disparaging or harmful content, or posting or sharing embarrassing photos, videos, website, or fake profiles

The Superintendent or designee shall implement measures to prevent bullying in district schools, including, but not limited to, the following:
Developing a strategic plan for school connectedness and social skills with benchmark tracking, which may include providing regular opportunities and spaces for students to develop social skills and strengthen relationships and promoting adult support from family and school staff, peer-led programs, and partnerships with key community groups, implementing socially based educational techniques such as cooperative learning projects that can improve educational outcomes as well as peer relations, creating a supportive school environment that fosters belonging through equitable classroom management, mentoring, and peer support groups that allow students to lean on each other and learn from each other's experiences, and building social connection into health education courses including information on the consequences of social connection on physical and mental health, key risk and protective factors, and strategies for increasing social connection

Ensuring that each school establishes clear rules for student and staff conduct and implements strategies to promote a positive, supportive, and collaborative school climate

Providing information to students, through student handbooks, district and school websites and social media, and other age-appropriate means, about district and school rules related to bullying, mechanisms available for reporting incidents or threats, and the consequences for engaging in bullying

Encouraging students to notify school staff when they are being bullied or when they suspect that another student is being bullied, and providing means by which students may report threats or incidents confidentially and anonymously

Conducting an assessment of bullying incidents at each school and, if necessary, increasing supervision and security in areas where bullying most often occurs, such as playgrounds, hallways, restrooms, and cafeterias

Annually notifying district employees that, pursuant to Education Code 234.1, any school staff who witnesses an act of bullying against a student has a responsibility to immediately intervene to stop the incident when it is safe to do so

The Superintendent or designee shall annually make available to all certificated staff and to other employees who have regular interaction with students the California Department of Education (CDE) online training module on the dynamics of bullying and cyberbullying, including the identification of bullying and cyberbullying and the implementation of strategies to address bullying. (Education Code 32283.5)

The Superintendent or designee shall provide training to teachers and other school staff to raise their awareness about the legal obligation of the district and its employees to prevent discrimination, harassment, intimidation, and bullying of district students. Such training shall be designed to provide staff with the skills to:
Discuss the diversity of the student body and school community, including their varying immigration experiences

Discuss bullying prevention strategies with students, and teach students to recognize the behavior and characteristics of bullying perpetrators and victims

Identify the signs of bullying or harassing behavior

Take immediate corrective action when bullying is observed

Report incidents to the appropriate authorities, including law enforcement in instances of criminal behavior
Information and Resources

The Superintendent or designee shall post on the district's website, in a prominent location and in a manner that is easily accessible to students and parents/guardians, information on bullying and harassment prevention which includes the following: (Education Code 234.6)
The district's policy on student suicide prevention, including a reference to the policy's age appropriateness for students in grades K-6

The definition of sex discrimination and harassment as described in Education Code 230, including the rights set forth in Education Code 221.8

Title IX information included on the district's website pursuant to Education Code 221.61, and a link to the Title IX information included on CDE's website pursuant to Education Code 221.6

District policies on student sexual harassment, prevention and response to hate violence, discrimination, harassment, intimidation, bullying, and cyberbullying

A section on social media bullying that includes all of the references described in Education Code 234.6 as possible forums for social media

A link to statewide resources, including community-based organizations, compiled by CDE pursuant to Education Code 234.5
Any additional information the Superintendent or designee deems important for preventing bullying and harassment
Student Instruction

As appropriate, the district shall provide students with instruction, in the classroom or other educational settings, that promotes social-emotional learning, effective communication and conflict resolution skills, character development, respect for cultural and individual differences, self-esteem development, assertiveness skills, digital and media literacy skills, and appropriate online behavior.

The district shall also educate students about the negative impact of bullying, discrimination, intimidation, and harassment based on actual or perceived immigration status, religious beliefs and customs, or any other individual bias or prejudice.

Students should be taught the difference between appropriate and inappropriate behaviors, how to advocate for themselves, how to help another student who is being bullied, and when to seek assistance from a trusted adult. As role models for students, staff are responsible for teaching and modeling respectful behavior and building safe and supportive learning environments, and are expected to demonstrate effective problem-solving and anger management skills.

To discourage cyberbullying, teachers may advise students to be cautious about sharing passwords, personal data, or private photos online and to consider the consequences of making negative comments about others online.

Reporting and Filing of Complaints

Any student, parent/guardian, or other individual who believes that a student has been subjected to bullying or who has witnessed bullying may report the incident to a teacher, the principal, a compliance officer, or any other available school employee.

When a report of bullying is submitted, the principal or a district compliance officer shall inform the student or parent/guardian of the right to file a formal written complaint in accordance with Administrative Regulation 1312.3 - Uniform Complaint Procedures. The student who is the alleged victim of the bullying shall be given an opportunity to describe the incident, identify witnesses who may have relevant information, and provide other evidence of bullying.

Within one business day of receiving such a report, a staff member shall notify the principal of the report, regardless of whether a uniform complaint is filed. In addition, any school employee who observes an incident of bullying involving a student shall, within one business day, report such observation to the principal or a district compliance officer, regardless of whether the alleged victim files a complaint.

Within two business days of receiving a report of bullying, the principal shall notify the district compliance officer identified in Administrative Regulation 1312.3.

Any individuals with information about cyberbullying activity shall save and print any electronic or digital messages that they feel constitute cyberbullying and shall notify a teacher, the principal, or other employee so that the matter may be investigated. When an investigation concludes that a student used a social networking site or service to bully or harass another student, the Superintendent or designee may report the cyberbullying to the social media platform and may request the material be removed.

Discipline/Corrective Actions

Corrective actions for a student who commits an act of bullying of any type may include counseling, behavioral intervention, and education, and, if the behavior is severe or pervasive as defined in Education Code 48900, may include suspension or expulsion in accordance with district policies and regulations.

When a student has been suspended, or other means of correction have been implemented against the student, for an incident of racist bullying, harassment, or intimidation, the principal or designee shall engage both the victim and perpetrator in a restorative justice practice suitable to the needs of the students. The principal or designee shall also require the perpetrator to engage in a culturally sensitive program that promotes racial justice and equity and combats racism and ignorance and shall regularly check on the victim to ensure that the victim is not in danger of suffering from any long-lasting mental health issues. (Education Code 48900.5)

When appropriate based on the severity or pervasiveness of the bullying, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the parents/guardians of victims and perpetrators and may contact law enforcement.

Support Services

The Superintendent, principal, or designee may refer a victim, witness, perpetrator, or other student affected by an act of bullying to a school counselor, school psychologist, social worker, child welfare attendance personnel, school nurse, or other school support service personnel for case management, counseling, and/or participation in a restorative justice program as appropriate. (Education Code 48900.9)

If any student involved in bullying exhibits warning signs of suicidal thought or intention or of intent to harm another person, the Superintendent or designee shall, as appropriate, implement district intervention protocols which may include, but are not limited to, referral to district or community mental health services, other health professionals, and/or law enforcement, in accordance with Board Policy and Administrative Regulation 5141.52 - Suicide Prevention.

The grounds for suspension and expulsion and the procedures for considering, recommending, and/or implementing suspension and expulsion shall be only those specified in law, in this policy, and in the accompanying administrative regulation.

Except when otherwise permitted by law, a student may be suspended or expelled only when the behavior is related to a school activity or school attendance occurring within any district school or another school district, regardless of when it occurs, including, but not limited to, the following: (Education Code 48900(s))

A student's parents/guardians shall be notified as soon as possible when there is an escalating pattern of misbehavior that could lead to on-campus or off-campus suspension.

No student may be suspended for disruption or willful defiance, except by a teacher pursuant to Education Code 48910. (Education Code 48900)

Students shall not be suspended or expelled based solely on a student's truancy, tardiness, or absenteeism from assigned school activities. (Education Code 48900)

On-Campus Suspension

To ensure the proper supervision and ongoing learning of students who are suspended for any of the reasons enumerated in Education Code 48900 and 48900.2, but who pose no imminent danger or threat to anyone at school and for whom expulsion proceedings have not been initiated, the Superintendent or designee shall establish a supervised suspension classroom program which meets the requirements of law.

Possessing an explosive as defined in 18 USC 921
For all other violations listed in the accompanying administrative regulation, the Superintendent or principal shall have the discretion to recommend expulsion of a student. If expulsion is recommended, the Board shall order the student expelled only if it makes a finding of either or both of the following: (Education Code 48915(b) and (e))
That other means of correction are not feasible or have repeatedly failed to bring about proper conduct

That due to the nature of the violation, the presence of the student causes a continuing danger to the physical safety of the student or others
A vote to expel a student shall be taken in an open session of a Board meeting. (Education Code 48918(j))

The Board may vote to suspend the enforcement of the expulsion order pursuant to the requirements of law and the accompanying administrative regulation. (Education Code 48917)

Based on the data, the Board shall address any identified disparities in the imposition of student discipline and shall determine whether and how the district is meeting its goals for improving school climate as specified in its local control and accountability plan.

A teacher may suspend a student from class for the remainder of the day and the following day for any of the acts specified in Education Code 48900 and listed as Items #1-19 under "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12" above or for disruption or willful defiance at any grade level. If that action requires the continuing presence of the student at school, the student shall be appropriately supervised during the class periods from which the student has been suspended. (Education Code 48910)

As soon as possible after the teacher has suspended the student, the teacher shall ask the student's parent/guardian to attend a parent-teacher conference regarding the suspension. Suspension by Superintendent, Principal or Principal's Designee

To implement disciplinary procedures at a school site, the principal may, in writing, designate as the principal's designee another administrator or, if the principal is the only administrator at the school site, a certificated employee. As necessary, the principal may, in writing, also designate another administrator or certificated employee as the secondary designee to assist with disciplinary procedures when the principal and the principal's primary designee are absent from the school site.

The Superintendent, principal, or designee shall immediately suspend any student found at school or at a school activity away from school to have committed any of the acts listed in the Board policy under "Authority to Expel" for which a recommendation of expulsion is required. (Education Code 48915(c))

For all other offenses, a student may be suspended only when the Superintendent or principal has determined that other means of correction have failed to bring about proper conduct. (Education Code 48900.5)

When other means of correction are implemented prior to imposing suspension upon a student, including supervised suspension, the Superintendent, principal, or designee shall document the other means of correction used and retain the documentation in the student's record. (Education Code 48900.5)

The Superintendent, principal, or designee may suspend a student from school for not more than five consecutive school days. (Education Code 48911)

A student may be suspended from school for not more than 20 school days in any school year. However, if a student enrolls in or is transferred to another regular school, an opportunity school or class, or continuation school or class for the purpose of adjustment, the student may be suspended for not more than 30 school days in a school year. The district may count suspensions that occur while a student is enrolled in another school district toward the maximum number of days for which the student may be suspended in any school year. (Education Code 48903, 48911, 48912)

These restrictions on the number of days of suspension shall not apply when the suspension is extended pending an expulsion. (Education Code 48911)

Due Process Procedures for Suspension

Suspensions shall be imposed in accordance with the following procedures:

Informal Conference: Suspension shall be preceded by an informal conference conducted by the Superintendent, principal, or designee with the student and, whenever practicable, the teacher, supervisor, or school employee who referred the student to the principal. At the conference, the student shall be informed of the reason for the disciplinary action, including the other means of correction that were attempted before the suspension as required pursuant to Education Code 48900.5, and the evidence against the student, and shall be given the opportunity to present the student's version and evidence in the student's defense. (Education Code 48911)

This conference may be omitted if the Superintendent, principal, or designee determines that an emergency situation exists involving a clear and present danger to the lives, safety, or health of students or school personnel. If a student is suspended without this conference, the student, the student's parent/guardian, or if the student is a foster youth, the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or if the student is an Indian child, the Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, county social worker, shall be notified of the student's right to a conference and the right to return to school for the purpose of the conference. The conference shall be held within two school days, unless the student waives the right to it or is physically unable to attend for any reason. In such a case, the conference shall be held as soon as the student is physically able to return to school for the conference. (Education Code 48911)

Administrative Actions: All requests for student suspension are to be processed by the principal or designee. A school employee shall report the suspension, including the name of the student and the cause for the suspension, to the Superintendent or designee. (Education Code 48911)

Notice to Parents/Guardians: At the time of the suspension, a school employee shall make a reasonable effort to contact the parent/guardian, or if the student is a foster youth, the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or if the student is an Indian child, the Indian child's tribal social worker, and, if applicable, the county social worker, in person, by email, or by telephone. Whenever a student is suspended, the parent/guardian, or, if applicable, the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or the Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, the county social worker, shall also be notified in writing of the suspension. (Education Code 48911)

This notice shall state the specific offense committed by the student. (Education Code 48900.8)

In addition, the notice shall state the date and time when the student may return to school.

Parent/Guardian Conference: Whenever a student is suspended, school officials may conduct a meeting with the parent/guardian to discuss the cause(s) and duration of the suspension, the school policy involved, and any other pertinent matter. (Education Code 48914)

If school officials request to meet with the parent/guardian, a foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or an Indian child's tribal social worker, and, if applicable, the county social worker, the notice may state that the law requires such individuals to respond to the request without delay. However, the student shall not be penalized for the failure of the parent/guardian, a foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or an Indian child's tribal social worker, and, if applicable, the county social worker, to attend such a conference. The student may not be denied reinstatement solely because such individuals failed to attend the conference. (Education Code 48911)

Extension of Suspension: If the Board is considering the expulsion of a suspended student from any school or the suspension of a student for the balance of the semester from continuation school, the Superintendent or designee may, in writing, extend the suspension until such time as the Board has made a decision, provided the following requirements are followed: (Education Code 48911)

The extension of the original period of suspension is preceded by notice of such extension with an offer to hold a conference concerning the extension, giving the student an opportunity to be heard

This conference may be held in conjunction with a meeting requested by the student or parent/guardian to challenge the original suspension.

The Superintendent or designee determines, following a meeting in which the student and the student's parent/guardian were invited to participate, that the student's presence at the school or at an alternative school would endanger persons or property or threaten to disrupt the instructional process

If the student involved is a foster youth or Indian child, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the district's educational liaison of the need to invite the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney and county social worker, or the Indian child's tribal social worker or, if applicable, the county social worker, to attend the meeting (Education Code 48853.5, 48911, 48918.1)

If the student involved is a child or youth experiencing homelessness, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the district liaison for homeless students (Education Code 48918.1)

In lieu of or in addition to suspending a student, the Superintendent, principal, or designee may provide services or require the student to participate in an alternative disciplinary program designed to correct the behavior and keep the student in school
Suspension by the Board

The Board may suspend a student for any of the acts listed under "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12," and "Additional Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades 4-12," above and within the limits specified under "Suspension by Superintendent, Principal, or Designee," above. (Education Code 48912)

The Board may suspend a student enrolled in a continuation school or class for a period not longer than the remainder of the semester. The suspension shall meet the requirements of Education Code 48915. (Education Code 48912.5)

When the Board is considering a suspension, disciplinary action, or any other action (except expulsion) against any student, it shall hold a closed session if a public hearing would lead to disclosure of information that would violate a student's right to privacy under Education Code 49073-49079. (Education Code 35146, 48912)

The Board shall provide the student and parent/guardian with written notice of the closed session by registered or certified mail or personal service. Upon receiving this notice, the student or parent/guardian may request a public meeting, and this request shall be granted if made in writing within 48 hours after receipt of the Board's notice. However, any discussion that conflicts with any other student's right to privacy still shall be held in closed session. (Education Code 35146, 48912)

On-Campus Suspension

A student for whom an expulsion action has not been initiated and who poses no imminent danger or threat to the school, students, or staff may be assigned to on-campus suspension in a separate classroom, building, or site for the entire period of suspension. The following conditions shall apply: (Education Code 48911.1)
The on-campus suspension classroom shall be staffed in accordance with law

The student shall have access to appropriate counseling services

The on-campus suspension classroom shall promote completion of schoolwork and tests missed by the student during the suspension

The student shall be responsible for contacting the student's teacher(s) to receive assignments to be completed in the supervised suspension classroom and the teacher(s) shall provide all assignments and tests that the student will miss while suspended

If no such work is assigned, the person supervising the suspension classroom shall assign schoolwork.
At the time a student is assigned to an on-campus suspension classroom, the principal or designee shall notify the student's parent/guardian, or if the student is a foster youth, the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or, if the student if an Indian child, the Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, county social worker, in person, by email, or by telephone. When the assignment is for longer than one class period, this notification shall be made in writing. (Education Code 48911.1)

Superintendent or Principal's Authority to Recommend Expulsion

Unless the Superintendent or principal determines that expulsion should not be recommended under the circumstances or that an alternative means of correction would address the conduct, the Superintendent or principal shall recommend a student's expulsion for any of the following acts: (Education Code 48915)
Causing serious physical injury to another person, except in self-defense

Possession of any knife or other dangerous object of no reasonable use to the student

Unlawful possession of any controlled substance as listed in Health and Safety Code 11053-11059, except for:

The first offense for the possession of not more than one ounce of marijuana, other than concentrated cannabis

The student's possession of over-the-counter medication for use by the student for medical purposes

Medication prescribed for the student by a physician

Robbery or extortion

Assault or battery, as defined in Penal Code 240 and 242, upon any school employee
In determining whether to recommend the expulsion of a student, the Superintendent, principal, or designee shall act as quickly as possible to ensure that the student does not lose instructional time. (Education Code 48915)

Student's Right to Expulsion Hearing

Any student recommended for expulsion shall be entitled to a hearing to determine whether the student should be expelled. The hearing shall be held within 30 school days after the Superintendent, principal, or designee determines that the student has committed the act(s) that form the basis for the expulsion recommendation. (Education Code 48918(a))

The student is entitled to at least one postponement of an expulsion hearing for a period of not more than 30 calendar days. The request for postponement shall be in writing. Any subsequent postponement may be granted at the Board's discretion. (Education Code 48918(a))

If the Board finds it impractical during the regular school year to comply with these time requirements for conducting an expulsion hearing, the Superintendent or designee may, for good cause, extend the time period by an additional five school days. Reasons for the extension shall be included as a part of the record when the expulsion hearing is held. (Education Code 48918(a))

If the Board finds it impractical to comply with the time requirements of the expulsion hearing due to a summer recess of Board meetings of more than two weeks, the days during the recess shall not be counted as school days. The days not counted during the recess may not exceed 20 school days, as defined in Education Code 48925. Unless the student requests in writing that the expulsion hearing be postponed, the hearing shall be held not later than 20 calendar days prior to the first day of the next school year. (Education Code 48918(a))

Once the hearing starts, all matters shall be pursued with reasonable diligence and concluded without unnecessary delay. (Education Code 48918(a))

Stipulated Expulsion

After a determination that a student has committed an offense for which the student may be expelled, the Superintendent, principal, or designee shall offer the student, the student's parent/guardian, or, when applicable, other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, the option to waive a hearing and stipulate to the expulsion or to a suspension of the expulsion under certain conditions. The offer shall be made only after written notice of the expulsion hearing pursuant to Education Code 48918 has been given.

The stipulation agreement shall be in writing and shall be signed by the student, the student's parent/guardian, or, when applicable, the person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student. The stipulation agreement shall include notice of all the rights that the student is waiving, including the waiving of the right to have a full hearing, to appeal the expulsion to the County Board of Education, and to consult legal counsel.

A stipulated expulsion agreed to by the student, the student's parent/guardian, or, when applicable, the person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, shall be effective upon approval by the Board.

An expulsion hearing involving allegations of sexual assault or sexual battery may be postponed for one school day in order to accommodate the special physical, mental, or emotional needs of a student who is the complaining witness. (Education Code 48918.5)

Whenever the Superintendent or designee recommends an expulsion hearing that addresses allegations of sexual assault or sexual battery, the Superintendent or designee shall give the complaining witness a copy of the district's suspension and expulsion policy and regulation and shall advise the witness of the right to: (Education Code 48918.5)
Receive five days' notice of the scheduled testimony at the hearing

Have up to two adult support persons present at the hearing at the time the witness testifies

Have a closed hearing during the time the witness testifies
Whenever any allegation of sexual assault or sexual battery is made, the Superintendent or designee shall immediately advise complaining witnesses and accused students to refrain from personal or telephone contact with each other during the time when an expulsion process is pending. (Education Code 48918.5)

Written Notice of the Expulsion Hearing

Written notice of the expulsion hearing shall be forwarded to the student and the student's parent/guardian at least 10 calendar days before the date of the hearing. The notice shall include: (Education Code 48900.8, 48918(b))
The date and place of the hearing

A statement of the specific facts, charges, and offense upon which the proposed expulsion is based

A copy of district disciplinary rules which relate to the alleged violation

Notification of the student's or parent/guardian's obligation, pursuant to Education Code 48915.1, to provide information about the student's status in the district to any other district in which the student seeks enrollment

This obligation applies when a student is expelled for acts other than those described in Education Code 48915(a) or (c).

The opportunity for the student or the student's parent/guardian to appear in person or be represented by legal counsel or by a nonattorney adviser

Legal counsel means an attorney or lawyer who is admitted to the practice of law in California and is an active member of the State Bar of California.

Nonattorney adviser means an individual who is not an attorney or lawyer, but who is familiar with the facts of the case and has been selected by the student or student's parent/guardian to provide assistance at the hearing.

The right to inspect and obtain copies of all documents to be used at the hearing

The opportunity to confront and question all witnesses who testify at the hearing

The opportunity to question all evidence presented and to present oral and documentary evidence on the student's behalf, including witnesses
Additional Notice of Expulsion Hearing for Foster Youth, Homeless Students, and Indian Children

If the student facing expulsion is a foster student or Indian child, the Superintendent or designee shall also send notice of the hearing to the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or the Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, county social worker, at least 10 calendar days prior to the hearing. (Education Code 48918.1)

If the student facing expulsion is a student experiencing homelessness, the Superintendent or designee shall also send notice of the hearing to the district liaison for homeless students at least 10 calendar days prior to the hearing. (Education Code 48918.1)

Any notice for these purposes may be provided by the most cost-effective method possible, including by email or a telephone call. (Education Code 48918.1)

Conduct of Expulsion Hearing

Closed Session: Notwithstanding Education Code 35145, the Board shall conduct a hearing to consider the expulsion of the student in a session closed to the public unless the student requests in writing at least five days prior to the hearing that the hearing be a public meeting. If such a request is made, the meeting shall be public to the extent that privacy rights of other students are not violated. (Education Code 48918)

Whether the expulsion hearing is held in closed or public session, the Board may meet in closed session to deliberate and determine whether the student should be expelled. If the Board admits any other person to this closed session, the parent/guardian, the student, and the counsel of the student also shall be allowed to attend the closed session. (Education Code 48918(c))

If a hearing that involves a charge of sexual assault or sexual battery is to be conducted in public, a complaining witness shall have the right to testify in closed session when testifying in public would threaten serious psychological harm to the witness and when there are no alternative procedures to avoid the threatened harm, including, but not limited to, a videotaped deposition or contemporaneous examination in another place communicated to the hearing room by closed-circuit television. (Education Code 48918(c)

Record of Hearing: A record of the hearing shall be made and may be maintained by any means, including electronic recording, as long as a reasonably accurate and complete written transcription of the proceedings can be made. (Education Code 48918(g))

Subpoenas: Before commencing a student expulsion hearing, the Board may issue subpoenas, at the request of either the student or the Superintendent or designee, for the personal appearance at the hearing of any person who actually witnessed the action that gave rise to the recommendation for expulsion. After the hearing has commenced, the Board or the hearing officer or administrative panel may issue such subpoenas at the request of the student or the County Superintendent of Schools or designee. All subpoenas shall be issued in accordance with Code of Civil Procedure 1985-1985.2 and enforced in accordance with Government Code 11455.20. (Education Code 48918(i))

Any objection raised by the student or the Superintendent or designee to the issuance of subpoenas may be considered by the Board in closed session, or in open session if so requested by the student, before the meeting. The Board's decision in response to such an objection shall be final and binding. (Education Code 48918(i))

If the Board determines, or if the hearing officer or administrative panel finds and submits to the Board, that a witness would be subject to unreasonable risk of harm by testifying at the hearing, a subpoena shall not be issued to compel the personal attendance of that witness at the hearing. However, that witness may be compelled to testify by means of a sworn declaration as described in Item #6 below. (Education Code 48918(i))

Presentation of Evidence: Technical rules of evidence shall not apply to the expulsion hearing, but relevant evidence may be admitted and used as proof only if it is the kind of evidence on which reasonable persons can rely in the conduct of serious affairs. The decision of the Board to expel shall be supported by substantial evidence that the student committed any of the acts pursuant to Education Code 48900 and listed in "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12," and "Additional Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades 4-12," above. (Education Code 48918(h))

Findings of fact shall be based solely on the evidence at the hearing. Although no finding shall be based solely on hearsay, sworn declarations may be admitted as testimony from witnesses whose disclosure of their identity or testimony at the hearing may subject them to an unreasonable risk of physical or psychological harm. (Education Code 48918(f))

In cases where a search of a student's person or property has occurred, evidence describing the reasonableness of the search shall be included in the hearing record.

Testimony by Complaining Witnesses: The following procedures shall be observed when a hearing involves allegations of sexual assault or sexual battery by a student: (Education Code 48918, 48918.5)

Any complaining witness shall be given five days' notice before being called to testify

Any complaining witness shall be entitled to have up to two adult support persons, including, but not limited to, a parent/guardian or legal counsel, present during the testimony

Before a complaining witness testifies, support persons shall be admonished that the hearing is confidential

The person presiding over the hearing may remove a support person who is disrupting the hearing

If one or both support persons are also witnesses, the hearing shall be conducted in accordance with Penal Code 868.5

Evidence of specific instances of prior sexual conduct of a complaining witness shall be presumed inadmissible and shall not be heard unless the person conducting the hearing determines that extraordinary circumstances require the evidence to be heard

Before such a determination is made, the complaining witness shall be given notice and an opportunity to oppose the introduction of this evidence. In the hearing on the admissibility of this evidence, the complaining witness shall be entitled to be represented by a parent/guardian, legal counsel, or other support person. Reputation or opinion evidence regarding the sexual behavior of a complaining witness shall not be admissible for any purpose.

In order to facilitate a free and accurate statement of the experiences of the complaining witness and to prevent discouragement of complaints, the district shall provide a nonthreatening environment

The district shall provide a room separate from the hearing room for the use of the complaining witness before and during breaks in testimony

At the discretion of the person conducting the hearing, the complaining witness shall be allowed reasonable periods of relief from examination and cross-examination during which the complaining witness may leave the hearing room

The person conducting the hearing may:

Arrange the seating within the hearing room so as to facilitate a less intimidating environment for the complaining witness

Limit the time for taking the testimony of a complaining witness to normal school hours, if there is no good cause to take the testimony during other hours

(Permit one of the support persons to accompany the complaining witness to the witness stand

Decision: The Board's decision as to whether to expel a student shall be made within 40 school days after the student is removed from school, unless the student requests in writing that the decision be postponed. (Education Code 48918(a))
Alternative Expulsion Hearing: Hearing Officer or Administrative Panel

Instead of conducting an expulsion hearing itself, the Board may contract with the county hearing officer or with the Office of Administrative Hearings of the State of California for a hearing officer. The Board may also appoint an impartial administrative panel composed of three or more certificated personnel, none of whom shall be members of the Board or on the staff of the school in which the student is enrolled. (Education Code 48918)

A hearing conducted by the hearing officer or administrative panel shall conform to the same procedures applicable to a hearing conducted by the Board as specified above in "Conduct of Expulsion Hearing," including the requirement to issue a decision within 40 school days of the student's removal from school, unless the student requests that the decision be postponed. (Education Code 48918(a) and (d))

The hearing officer or administrative panel shall, within three school days after the hearing, determine whether to recommend expulsion of the student to the Board. If expulsion is not recommended, the expulsion proceeding shall be terminated and the student shall be immediately reinstated and permitted to return to the classroom instructional program from which the referral was made, unless another placement is requested in writing by the student's parent/guardian. Before the student's placement decision is made by the student's parent/guardian, the Superintendent or designee shall consult with the parent/guardian and district staff, including the student's teachers, regarding other placement options for the student in addition to the option to return to the classroom instructional program from which the student's expulsion referral was made. The decision to not recommend expulsion shall be final. (Education Code 48918(e))

If expulsion is recommended, findings of fact in support of the recommendation shall be prepared and submitted to the Board. All findings of fact and recommendations shall be based solely on the evidence presented at the hearing. The

Board may accept the recommendation based either upon a review of the findings of fact and recommendations submitted or upon the results of any supplementary hearing the Board may order. (Education Code 48918(f))

In accordance with Board policy, the hearing officer or administrative panel may recommend that the Board suspend the enforcement of the expulsion. If the hearing officer or administrative panel recommends that the Board expel a student but suspend the enforcement of the expulsion, the student shall not be reinstated and permitted to return to the classroom instructional program from which the referral was made until the Board has ruled on the recommendation. (Education Code 48917, 48918)

Final Action by the Board

Whether the expulsion hearing is conducted in closed or open session by the Board, a hearing officer, or an administrative panel or is waived through the signing of a stipulated expulsion agreement, the final action to expel shall be taken by the Board in public. (Education Code 48918(j))

The Board's decision is final. If the decision is to not expel, the student shall be reinstated immediately. If the decision is to suspend the enforcement of the expulsion, the student shall be reinstated under the conditions of the suspended expulsion.

Upon ordering an expulsion, the Board shall set a date when the student shall be reviewed for readmission to a school within the district. For a student expelled for any "mandatory recommendation and mandatory expulsion" act listed in "Authority to Expel" in the accompanying Board policy, this date shall be one year from the date the expulsion occurred, except that the Board may set an earlier date on a case-by-case basis. For a student expelled for other acts, this date shall be no later than the last day of the semester following the semester in which the expulsion occurred. If an expulsion is ordered during summer session or the intersession period of a year-round program, the Board shall set a date when the student shall be reviewed for readmission not later than the last day of the semester following the summer session or intersession period in which the expulsion occurred. (Education Code 48916)

The suspension of the enforcement of an expulsion shall be governed by the following:
The Board may, as a condition of the suspension of enforcement, assign the student to a school, class, or program appropriate for the student's rehabilitation

This rehabilitation program may provide for the involvement of the student's parent/guardian in the student's education. However, a parent/guardian's refusal to participate in the rehabilitation program shall not be considered in the Board's determination as to whether the student has satisfactorily completed the rehabilitation program. (Education Code 48917)

During the period when enforcement of the expulsion order is suspended, the student shall be on probationary status (Education Code 48917)

The suspension of the enforcement of an expulsion order may be revoked by the Board if the student commits any of the acts listed under "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12" or "Additional Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades 4-12" above, or violates any of the district's rules and regulations governing student conduct (Education Code 48917)

Appeal

If a student is expelled from school, the student or parent/guardian is entitled to file an appeal of the Board's decision with the County Board. The appeal must be filed within 30 days of the Board's decision to expel, even if the expulsion order is suspended and the student is placed on probation. (Education Code 48919)

If the student submits a written request for a copy of the written transcripts and supporting documents from the district simultaneously with the filing of the notice of appeal with the County Board, the district shall provide the student with these documents within 10 school days following the student's written request. (Education Code 48919)

(Education Code 48902)

Placement During Expulsion

The Board shall refer expelled students to a program of study that is: (Education Code 48915, 48915.01)
Appropriately prepared to accommodate students who exhibit discipline problems

Not provided at a comprehensive middle, junior, or senior high school or at any elementary school, unless the program is offered at a community day school established at any of these

Not housed at the school site attended by the student at the time of suspension
When the placement described above is not available and when the County Superintendent so certifies, students expelled for only acts described in Items #6-12 under "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12" and Items #1-3 under "Additional Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades 4-12" above may be referred to a program of study that is provided at another comprehensive middle, junior, or senior high school or at an elementary school. (Education Code 48915)

The program for a student expelled from any of grades K-6 shall not be combined or merged with programs offered to students in any of grades 7-12. (Education Code 48916.1)

Prior to the date set by the Board for the student's readmission:
The Superintendent or designee shall hold a conference with the student's parent/guardian, or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, and the student

At the conference, the student's rehabilitation plan shall be reviewed and the Superintendent or designee shall verify that the provisions of this plan have been met. School regulations shall be reviewed and the student and the student's parent/guardian or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student shall be asked to indicate in writing their willingness to comply with these regulations.

The Superintendent or designee shall transmit to the Board a recommendation regarding readmission

The Board shall consider this recommendation in closed session. If a written request for open session is received from the student's parent/guardian or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, or adult student, it shall be honored to the extent that privacy rights of other students are not violated.

If the readmission is granted, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the student and the student's parent/guardian, or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, by registered mail, of the Board's decision regarding readmission

The Board may deny readmission only if it finds that the student has not satisfied the conditions of the rehabilitation plan or that the student continues to pose a danger to campus safety or to other district students or employees (Education Code 48916)

If the Board denies the readmission of a student, the Board shall determine either to continue the student's placement in the alternative educational program initially selected or to place the student in another program that serves expelled students, including placement in a county community school

The Board shall provide written notice to the expelled student and the student's parent/guardian, or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, describing the reasons for denying readmittance into the regular program

This notice shall indicate the Board's determination of the educational program which the Board has chosen. The student shall enroll in that program unless the parent/guardian chooses to enroll the student in another school district. No student shall be denied readmission into the district based solely on the student's arrest, adjudication by a juvenile court, formal or informal supervision by a probation officer, detention in a juvenile facility, enrollment in a juvenile court school, or other such contact with the juvenile justice system. Acts That Are Grounds for Suspension or Expulsion

The Superintendent or designee shall inform the teacher(s) of each student who, during the previous three school years, has engaged in or is reasonably suspected to have engaged in any act, except the possession or use of tobacco products, that would constitute a ground for suspension or expulsion as specified in Administrative Regulation 5144.1 - Suspension and Expulsion/Due Process (Education Code 49079)

Any court-initiated information that a teacher, counselor, or administrator receives shall be kept confidential and used only to rehabilitate the student and protect other students and staff (Welfare and Institutions Code 827)

The Superintendent or designee shall engage in a timely, good faith, and interactive process with the employee to determine effective reasonable accommodations that do not pose an undue hardship on the district. In determining whether an accommodation is reasonable, the Superintendent or designee shall consider any exigent circumstance or danger facing the employee or their family member. (Government Code 12945.8)

Upon the request of the Superintendent or designee, an employee requesting a reasonable accommodation shall provide a written statement, signed by the employee or an individual acting on the employee's behalf, certifying that the accommodation is for an authorized purpose. The Governing Board desires to provide a welcoming, safe, and supportive school environment that allows all students equal access to and opportunities in the district's academic, extracurricular, and other educational support programs, services, and activities.

This policy shall apply to all acts constituting unlawful discrimination or harassment related to district activity or attendance, to acts which occur off campus or outside of district-related or district-sponsored activities but which may have an impact or create a hostile environment at school, and to all acts of the Board and the Superintendent in enacting policies and procedures that govern the district.

The Board prohibits, at any district school or activity, unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, and bullying, against an individual or group based on one, or a combination of two or more, protected characteristics, which include, but may not be limited to, race or ethnicity; ancestry; color; ethnic group identification; nationality; national origin; immigration status; sex; sexual orientation; sex stereotypes; gender; gender identity; gender expression; religion; disability; medical condition; genetic information; pregnancy, false pregnancy, childbirth, termination of pregnancy, or related conditions or recovery; and parental, marital, and family status; a perception of one or more of such characteristics; or association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics. (Education Code 200, 210.1, 210.2, 212, 212.1, 220, 221.51, 230, 260; Government Code 11135, 12926; 20 USC 1681-1688, 42 USC 2000d-2000d-7)

Unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, or bullying, may result from physical, verbal, nonverbal, or written conduct based on any of the categories listed above. Unlawful discrimination also occurs when prohibited conduct is so severe, persistent, or pervasive that it affects a student's ability to participate in or benefit from an educational program or activity; creates an intimidating, threatening, hostile, or offensive educational environment; has the effect of substantially or unreasonably interfering with a student's academic performance; or otherwise adversely affects a student's educational opportunities.

Unlawful discrimination also includes disparate treatment of students based on one of the categories above with respect to the provision of opportunities to participate in district programs or activities or the provision or receipt of educational benefits or services.

Because unlawful discrimination could occur when disciplining students, including suspension and expulsion, the Superintendent or designee shall ensure that staff enforce discipline rules fairly, consistently and in a non-discriminatory manner, as specified in Board Policy and Administrative Regulation 5144 - Discipline, Board Policy and Administrative Regulation 5144.1 - Suspension and Expulsion/Due Process, and Administrative Regulation 5144.2 - Suspension and Expulsion/Due Process (Students With Disabilities).

The Board also prohibits any form of retaliation against any individual who reports or participates in the reporting of unlawful discrimination, files or participates in the filing of a complaint, or investigates, participates, or refuses to participate in the investigation of a complaint or report alleging unlawful discrimination. Retaliation complaints shall be investigated and resolved in the same manner as a discrimination complaint.

The Superintendent or designee shall facilitate students' access to the educational program by publicizing the district's nondiscrimination policy and related complaint procedures to students, parents/guardians, and employees. In addition,

the Superintendent or designee shall post the district's policies prohibiting discrimination, harassment, intimidation, and bullying and other required information on the district's website in a manner that is easily accessible to parents/guardians and students, in accordance with law and the accompanying administrative regulation. (Education Code 234.1, 234.6; 34 CFR 106.8)

The Superintendent or designee shall provide training and/or information on the scope and use of the policy and complaint procedures and take other measures designed to increase understanding of the requirements of law related to discrimination. The Superintendent or designee shall regularly review the implementation of the district's nondiscrimination policies and practices and, as necessary, shall take action to remove any identified barrier to student access to or participation in the district's educational program. The Superintendent or designee shall report the findings and recommendations to the Board after each review.

Regardless of whether a complainant complies with the writing, timeline, and/or other formal filing requirements, all complaints alleging unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, or bullying, shall be investigated and prompt action taken to stop the discrimination, prevent recurrence, and address any continuing effect on students.

Students who engage in unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, retaliation, or bullying, in violation of law, Board policy, or administrative regulation shall be subject to appropriate consequence or discipline, which may include suspension or expulsion when the behavior is severe or pervasive as defined in Education Code 48900.4. Any employee who permits or engages in prohibited discrimination related to a district activity, attendance, or district-related or district-sponsored activity, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, retaliation, or bullying, shall be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal.

When a student has been suspended, or other means of correction have been implemented against the student for an incident of racist bullying, harassment, or intimidation, the principal or designee may engage both the victim and perpetrator in a restorative justice practice suitable to the needs of the students. The principal or designee may also require the perpetrator to engage in a culturally sensitive program that promotes racial justice and equity and combats racism and ignorance and regularly check on the victim to ensure that the victim is not in danger of suffering from any long-lasting mental health issues. (Education Code 48900.5)

When appropriate based on the severity or pervasiveness of the bullying, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the parents/guardians of victims and perpetrators and may contact law enforcement.

Complaints alleging unlawful discrimination in district programs and activities shall be investigated and resolved in accordance with Board Policy 1312.3 - Uniform Complaint Procedures, when required by law. However, complaints alleging sexual harassment under Title IX shall be investigated and resolved in accordance with the procedures specified in Administrative Regulation 5145.71 - Title IX Sexual Harassment Complaint Procedures.

Record-Keeping

The Superintendent or designee shall maintain a record of all reported cases of unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, or bullying, to enable the district to monitor, address, and prevent repetitive prohibited behavior in district schools.

Gender-nonconforming refers to when a student's gender expression differs from stereotypical expectations.

Intersex refers to when a student has natural bodily variations in anatomy, hormones, chromosomes, and other traits that differ from expectations generally associated with female and male bodies.

Nonbinary refers to when a student's gender identity falls outside of the traditional conception of strictly either female or male, regardless of whether the student identifies as transgender, was born with intersex traits, uses gender-neutral pronouns, or uses agender, genderqueer, pangender, gender nonconforming, gender variant, or such other more specific term to describe their gender.

Sex refers to the biological condition of being a female or male human being. (5 CCR 4910)

Transgender refers to when a student's gender identity is different from the sex assigned at birth.

The district shall ensure that all students, regardless of sex, gender, gender identity or gender expression, are afforded the same rights, benefits, and protections provided to students by law and Board policy. To do so, the Superintendent or designee shall address each situation that arises on a case-by-case basis and in accordance with the following guidelines:

Acceptance of a Student's Gender Identity: The district shall accept the student's assertion of the student's gender identity and treat the student consistent with that gender identity unless district personnel present a credible and supportable basis for believing that the student's assertion is for an improper purpose

Use of Names and Pronouns: Upon request by a student, district personnel shall address the student by the requested name and pronoun(s), without the necessity of a court order or a change to the student's mandatory permanent student record

Inadvertent slips or honest mistakes by district personnel in the use of the student's name and/or pronouns may not constitute a violation of this administrative regulation or the accompanying Board policy.

Accessibility to Sex-Segregated Facilities, Programs, and Activities: When the district maintains sex-segregated facilities, such as restrooms and locker rooms, or offers sex-segregated programs and activities, such as physical education classes, intermural sports, and interscholastic athletic programs, students shall be permitted to access facilities and participate in programs and activities consistent with their gender identity

Additionally, a student shall be permitted to participate in accordance with the student's gender identity in other circumstances where students are separated by sex, such as for class discussions, yearbook pictures, and field trips.

To address any student's privacy concerns in using sex-segregated facilities, the district shall consider offering a gender-neutral or single-use restroom or changing area, a bathroom stall with a door, an area in the locker room separated by a curtain or screen, or use of the locker room before or after the other students. However, in no case shall the district require a student to utilize these options because of the student's sex, gender, gender identify, or gender expression. A student's right to participate in a sex-segregated activity in accordance with the student's gender identity shall not render invalid or inapplicable any other eligibility rule established for participation in the activity.

Beginning July 1, 2026, each school shall provide and maintain at least one all-gender restroom for student use that meets the requirements of Education Code 35292.5.

Adherence to Uniforms/Dress Code: A student has the right to dress in a manner consistent with the student's gender identity, subject to any dress code adopted on a school site, which may not discriminate on the basis of sex, gender, gender identity or gender expression

Equal Access to Educational Programs and Activities: Upon request by a student based on the student's gender identity or gender expression, the Compliance Officer shall identify and develop strategies for ensuring that the student's access to educational programs and activities is maintained

The Compliance Officer shall consider the rights of all students and how those rights may affect and be affected by the rights of other students. Additionally, the Compliance Officer shall identify specific school site employee(s) to whom the student may report any problem related to the student's sex, gender, gender identity, or gender expression so that prompt action can be taken to address it. Alternatively, if appropriate and desired by the student, the school may form a support team for the student that will meet periodically to assess whether the arrangements for the student are providing equal access to programs and activities.

The district may only disclose such information to others when the disclosure is permitted by law, with the student's prior written consent, or when the district has compelling evidence that disclosure is necessary to preserve the student's physical or mental well-being. (Education Code 220.3, 220.5; 34 CFR 99.31, 99.36)

Student Records: A student's sex and legal name shall be maintained as part of a student's mandatory permanent student record as specified in 5 CCR 432 and shall only be changed with proper documentation (Education Code 49061-49072)

When a request to change a student's gender or name is submitted without proper documentation, any change to the student's gender or name shall be applied only to documents not included in the mandatory permanent student record such as attendance sheets, report cards, and school identification.

The Superintendent or designee shall follow this guideline such that it does not change or alter the obligations of the district to maintain student records in accordance with Board Policy/Administrative Regulation 5125 - Student Records, and to ensure access to such records in accordance with Board Policy/Administrative Regulation 1340 - Access to District Records.
The district prohibits any act of verbal, nonverbal, or physical aggression, intimidation, or hostility, including any such act based on sex, gender, gender identity, or gender expression, or that have the purpose or effect of producing a negative impact on the student's academic performance or of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive educational environment, regardless of whether the acts are sexual in nature, including, but not limited to:
Refusing to address or refer to a student in a manner consistent with the student's gender identity

Disciplining a student or excluding the student from participating in activities, for behavior or appearance that is consistent with the student's gender identity or that does not conform to stereotypical notions of masculinity or femininity

Blocking, prohibiting, or restricting a student's entry to the restroom that corresponds to the student's gender identity

Disclosing student records that reveal a student's gender identity to individuals who do not have a legitimate need for the information except as permitted by law

Verbally or physically assaulting a student because of the student's sex, gender, gender identity, or gender expression, including, but not limited to, causing, attempting to cause, threatening to cause, or participating in an act of hate violence on the basis of sex, gender, gender identity, or gender expression

This Safe Ingress and Egress Procedures Plan for a normal day at Winship Middle School is designed to prioritize student safety, streamline traffic flow, and ensure a secure campus environment through consistent supervision and clear protocols.

1. Student Drop-off and Pick-Up Procedures:
To ensure a safe and efficient flow of traffic, all drivers must adhere to the designated patterns during peak hours. Designated Locations: The primary drop-off and pick-up zone is located at the Front Curb (Main Entrance).Traffic Flow Pattern: * Vehicles must enter the campus via the Cypress Entrance and proceed in a single-file line. Drivers are required to pull forward as far as possible to the end of the "Loading Zone" to prevent street backups. Strict No-Idle Policy: To keep traffic moving, drivers must remain in their vehicles. Students should have bags ready to exit/enter quickly on the passenger side only. Alternative Pedestrian Route: Students walking or biking should enter through the Pedestrian Gate to avoid vehicle intersections.

2. Supervision Assignments:
Winship Middle School utilizes a "High-Visibility" model to monitor student safety during transitions. Supervision Post/Assigned Personnel/Primary Responsibility
A) Main Entrance & Bus Loop/Administrator & Campus Supervisor/Monitor bus unloading and crosswalk safety.
B) Drop-Off Loading Zone/Assigned Faculty (Rotating)/Assisting student movement and managing vehicle flow.
C) Back Field & Locker Area/Monitors and Custodial/Ensuring students move directly to the quad & classrooms.
D) West Pedestrian Gate/Campus Security/ Monitoring bike & pedestrian entry and vetting late arrivals.

3. Supervision Schedule:
Supervision is active throughout the school day to maintain a secure campus climate. Arrival: 7:45 AM – 8:36 AM (All gates and perimeter posts).Nutrition Break: 10:50 AM – 11:02 AM (Quad, Cafeteria, and Hallways).Lunch Period: 12:56 PM – 1:26 PM (Cafeteria, Outdoor Courts, and Field). Dismissal: 3:19 PM – 3:35 PM (Staging areas and all exit gates).

4. Visitor Access Protocols:
Winship Middle School maintains a "Closed Campus" policy for the safety of our students.
Single Point of Entry: All visitors must enter through the Main Front Office. All other perimeter gates remain locked during school hours.
Verification: Visitors must present a valid government-issued photo ID upon entry. Badge Issuance: IDs are processed through the visitor management system, and a printed photo badge will be issued.
Requirements: Badges must be worn prominently on the upper torso at all times. Visitors must sign out in the front office before departing.

5. Gate Access Procedures:
Securing the campus perimeter is a critical component of our daily safety routine.
Unlocking: The Lead Custodian is responsible for unlocking all perimeter and pedestrian gates at 7:30 AM.
School access thereafter is through to the Main Office.
Locking (End of Day): The Evening Custodial Crew performs a final perimeter sweep and double-locks all gates by 11:00 PM.

6. Additional Safety Measures:
Bus Loading/Unloading: The North Bus Loop is strictly off-limits to private vehicles during arrival and dismissal.
Staff Safety Patrols: Instructional leaders are stationed at interior hallway intersections to encourage "walk, don't run" behaviors and assist peers in finding their classrooms.

This emergency plan is designed to ensure a structured, calm, and efficient movement of people and vehicles during an evacuation. By separating pedestrian paths from vehicle routes, we minimize the risk of accidents and ensure emergency responders have clear access.

1. Primary Vehicle Routes:
The goal of primary routing is to provide the most direct access for Emergency Medical Services (EMS) while allowing for a one-way flow for parents. Emergency Responders: The Main Entrance Gate is designated exclusively for police, fire, and ambulance arrivals. No civilian traffic is permitted through this gate once an evacuation is triggered.

2. Alternate Vehicle Routes:
In the event that the parking lot is blocked, emergency vehicles will use the road adjacent to the logging track on the east side of campus.
3. Pedestrian Evacuation Paths:
Student safety relies on keeping foot traffic entirely separate from moving vehicles. Main Assembly Point: Students will exit classrooms and proceed to the Lower Turf Field. Off-Campus Walking Route: If the campus itself is unsafe (e.g., a gas leak), students will move via the Forestry Trail located behind the gymnasium. This path leads directly to the Community Community Center (0.5 miles away), which serves as our secondary reunification site. Mobility Assistance: Students with physical disabilities will be escorted via the ADA-compliant ramp at Hallway B, leading to the designated "Safe Zone" in the South Lot for immediate transport.

4. Estimated Pick-Up Times:
The following estimates are based on a student body of 400 and assume a "Staggered Release" protocol:
Stage Action Estimated Time
Initial Alert Emergency services arrive; staff secure students in assembly areas.10–15 minutes
Wave 1 Pickup Immediate family of students in Grades K-2 and those with special needs.20–30 minutes
Wave 2 Pickup General student population pickup via the South Maple loop.45–60 minutes
Full Clearance: Final sweep of campus and accountability check.90 minutes total
Note: These times may vary significantly based on the time of day and the nature of the emergency. Real-time updates will be sent via the school's SMS alert system.

The Superintendent or designee shall engage in a timely, good faith, and interactive process with the employee to determine effective reasonable accommodations that do not pose an undue hardship on the district. In determining whether an accommodation is reasonable, the Superintendent or designee shall consider any exigent circumstance or danger facing the employee or their family member. (Government Code 12945.8)

Upon the request of the Superintendent or designee, an employee requesting a reasonable accommodation shall provide a written statement, signed by the employee or an individual acting on the employee's behalf, certifying that the accommodation is for an authorized purpose. The Superintendent or designee may also request that the employee provide certification of the employee's status as a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, or other qualifying act of violence. The employee shall be notified before any authorized disclosure. (Government Code 12945.8)

Every six months after the date of the certification, the Superintendent or designee may request recertification of the employee's status as a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, other specified offense, or ongoing circumstances related to the crime or abuse. The employee shall notify the Superintendent or designee if, due to changing circumstances, the employee needs a new accommodation or no longer needs an accommodation. If a new accommodation is needed, the Superintendent or designee shall follow the procedures described above when making the initial determination regarding effective reasonable accommodations. (Government Code 12945.8)

The district shall not discharge or retaliate against an employee because of the employee's status as a victim of crime or abuse or for requesting a reasonable accommodation, regardless of whether the request was granted. (Government Code 12945.8)

Opioid Overdose Protocol – Melanie's Law

Current law (Education Code section 49414.3) allows schools to provide emergency opioid antagonist administration for individuals who may be experiencing symptoms of opioid drug poisoning. Opioid drug poisoning is a life-threatening condition that can be reversed with the administration of an opioid antagonist medication such as naloxone. Without immediate administration of an opioid antagonist and summoning Emergency Medical Services (911), death could occur.

This law allows for a school nurse or a trained volunteer to administer an opioid antagonist medication to an individual who is exhibiting potentially life-threatening symptoms of opioid drug poisoning. Training is provided to the volunteer on topics including but not limited to:

- Signs and symptoms of opioid drug poisoning
- How to administer the naloxone nasal spray (or other opioid antagonist)
- Calling EMS (911) and any follow up documentation or actions required.

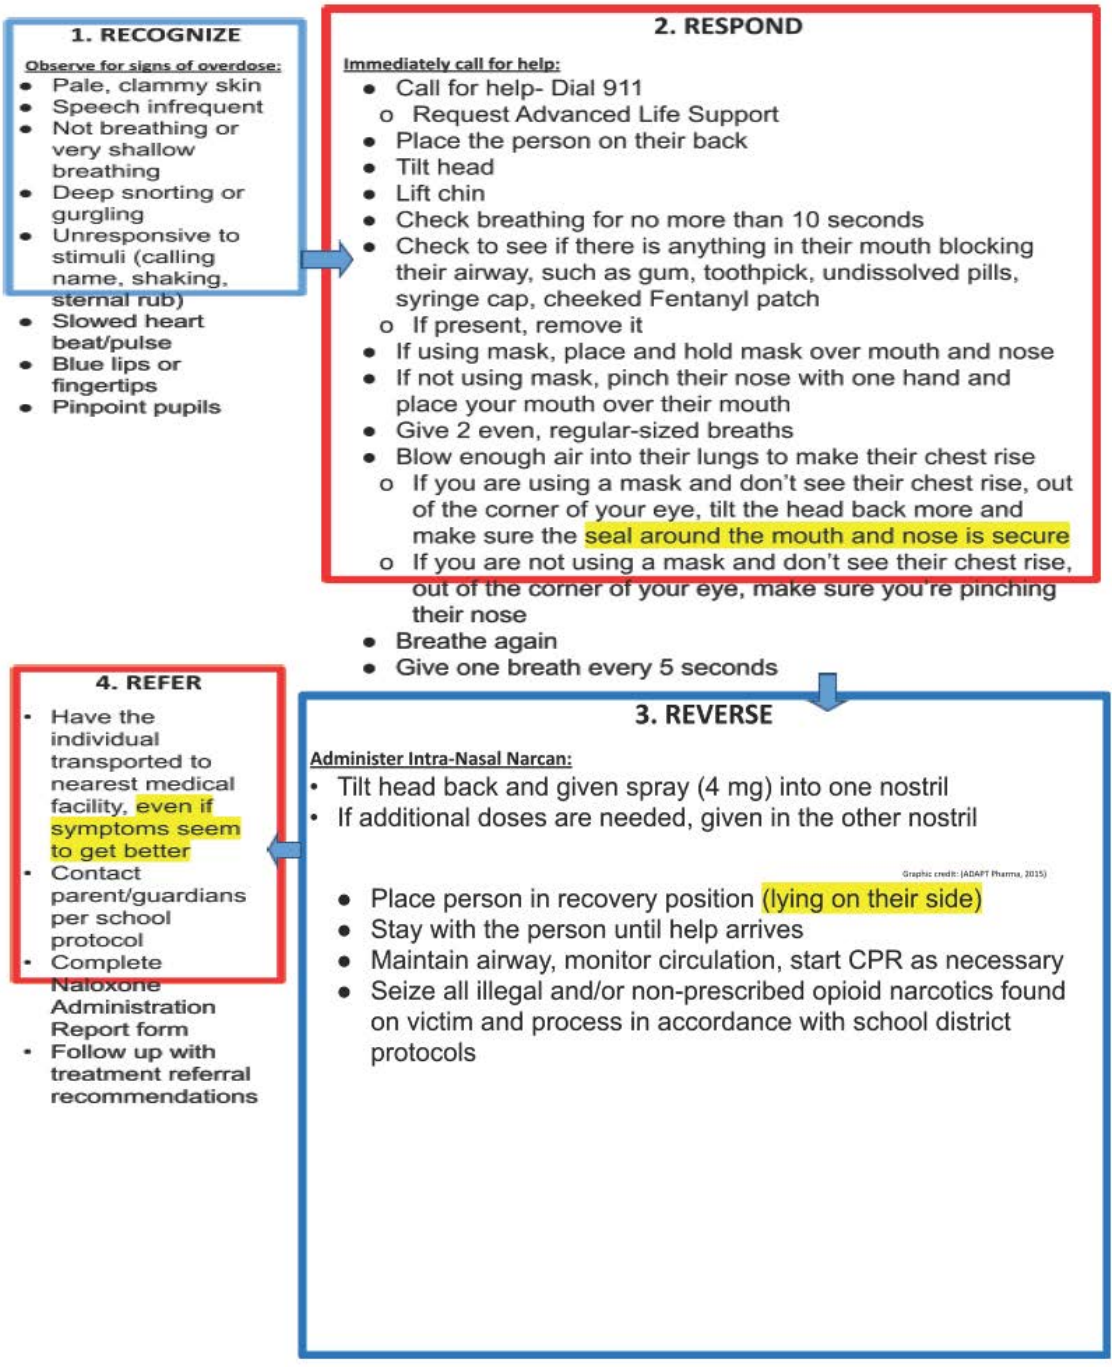
*CPR training is recommended but not required of persons trained to administer an opioid antagonist.

Staff members who volunteer to be trained are protected under the law and will be provided defense and indemnification by the District for any and all civil liability.

This notification is provided annually to all staff. If staff are willing to be identified as a volunteer and be trained, staff complete the volunteer form and submit it to their site administrator.

Employees who volunteer to be trained may rescind their offer to volunteer at any time. No benefit will be granted to or withheld from any individual based on his or her offer to volunteer. There will be no retaliation against any individual for rescinding his or her offer to volunteer, including after receiving training.

Narcan/Naloxone on School Sites:
Each school site is given Narcan/Naloxone packages for overdose or possible overdose events. These complete packages contain:



- Narcan Nasal Spay
- Narcan/Naloxone Quick Start Guide
- Gloves
- Face Mask
- Adult/Child CPR Rescue Mask Kit

o Alcohol Pads
o Rescue Mask Instructions

- Narcan/Naloxone Administration Report

(For additional supplies, please contact the District Office.)

Notification of Immigration Enforcement for Winship Middle School

Protocol for Responding to ICE Agents on Campus
(Updated to reflect AB 49, SB 98, and CDE Guidance, September 2025)

This protocol is aligned with recommendations from the California School Board Association (CSBA), the California Department of Education (CDE), and recent legislation (AB 49 and SB 98). It is designed to uphold the law while protecting the rights and safety of students and staff.

Step 1: Remain Calm and Professional
Greet ICE agents respectfully.
Do not obstruct their actions physically or verbally.
Remember: Obstruction may result in legal consequences and loss of federal funding.

Step 2: Verify Access Requirements (AB 49)
Do not allow ICE agents into non-public areas of the school-site (classrooms, offices, buses, field trips, or other LEA-sponsored activities) without one of the following:

- A valid judicial warrant
- A judicial subpoena
- A court order
- A state or federal law requiring compliance

Politely ask:
1. “Do you have a judicial warrant, subpoena, or court order?”
2. “May I have your name and the names of the agents present?”
3. “May I call my principal to help assist in this process?”
4. “May I contact the superintendent/district office to ensure I follow Governing Board Policies correctly?”
5. “May I record this interaction?”

Step 3: Document the Interaction
Record:

- Names of agents
- Time and date of arrival
- Any documents presented
- Details of their requests or actions

Do not interpret legal documents yourself. Immediately forward warrants, subpoenas, or court orders to district-level personnel.

Step 4: Follow Standard Law Enforcement Procedures
Treat ICE agents as you would any other law enforcement officers (LEOs).
Verify credentials.
Ensure all interactions align with visitor management and safety protocols.

Step 5: Communication Protocol (SB 98)
Notify the following if ICE is present on a school site:

- Pupils
- Families
- Faculty and staff
- Other community members as appropriate

Use district-approved messaging channels to ensure clear, accurate, and timely communication.

Step 6: Prioritize Safety and Contact the District Office
Keep students and staff safe and calm.
If uncertain how to proceed, immediately contact the District Office for guidance.
Do not make independent legal determinations—defer to district leadership.
Key Reminders
Student and staff well-being comes first.
Never allow unauthorized access to non-public areas.
Always document interactions and escalate legal review.

Emergencies Disaster Preparedness Plan – BP/AR 3516

The Governing Board recognizes that all district staff and students must be prepared to respond quickly and responsibly to emergencies, disasters, and threats of disaster. The district shall take all reasonable steps to prevent and/or mitigate the impact of a disaster on district students, staff, and schools.

The Superintendent or designee shall develop and maintain a disaster preparedness plan which contains routine and emergency disaster procedures, including, but not limited to, earthquake emergency procedures, and adaptations for individuals with disabilities in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and Section 504 of the federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Biological, radiological, chemical, and other activities, or heightened warning of such activities
Attack or threat of attack to the district's digital network and technology infrastructure

The Superintendent or designee shall ensure that the district's procedures include strategies and actions for prevention/mitigation, preparedness, response, and recovery, including, but not limited to, the following:
Regular inspection of school facilities and equipment, identification of risks, and implementation of strategies and measures to increase the safety and security of school facilities

Provision of a first aid kit to each classroom
Arrangements for students and staff with special needs
Upon notification that a pandemic situation exists, adjustment of attendance policies for students and sick leave policies for staff with known or suspected pandemic influenza or other infectious disease

The Superintendent or designee shall assemble critical information that would be needed in an emergency. Such information may include, but is not limited to, a list of individuals and organizations who should be contacted for assistance in an emergency, current layouts and blueprints of school buildings, aerial photos of the campus, maps of evacuation routes and alternate routes, a roster of employees with their work locations, student photographs and their emergency contact information, a clearly labeled set of keys, location of first aid supplies, procedures and locations for turning off fire alarms, sprinklers, utilities, and other systems, information to access the district's technology infrastructure, and insurance information. Such information shall be stored in a box in a secure, easily accessible location, with a duplicate kept at another location in case the primary location is inaccessible.

Use of SEMS/NIMS *

The District uses the Incident Command System as identified in the Authorities and References section of this plan.

In the event of a major disaster, there is no guarantee emergency medical, or fire personnel will be able to immediately respond to school sites. Therefore, the school staff must be prepared to ensure the care and safety of students during the first several hours after a major disaster without outside assistance. It is critical to determine who does what, where, and how before such a disaster occurs.

Use the Standardized Emergency Management System as detailed in the California Emergency Services Act (Gov. Code Section 8607) and the supporting California Code of Regulations

Disaster Service Worker Status

Government Code 3100
It is hereby declared that the protection of the health and safety and preservation of the lives and property of the people of the state from the effects of natural, manmade, or war-caused emergencies which result in conditions of disaster or in extreme peril to life, property, and resources is of paramount state importance requiring the responsible efforts of public and private agencies and individual citizens. In furtherance of the exercise of the police power of the state in protection of its citizens and resources, all public employees are hereby declared to be disaster service workers subject to such disaster service activities as may be assigned to them by their supervisors or by law.
(Amended by Stats. 1971, Ch. 38.)

These laws have two ramifications: 1) public school employees may be pressed into service as Disaster Service Workers by their superiors and may be asked to do jobs other than their usual duties for periods of time exceeding their normal working hours; and 2) in those cases, their Worker's Compensation Coverage becomes the responsibility of the state government (CalOES). The district, however, pays their overtime pay. These circumstances apply only when a local or State emergency has been proclaimed.

Individualized Safety Plans

The Education Code requires school disaster procedures to also include adaptations for pupils with disabilities in accordance with the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act and Section 504 of the federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and would require the annual evaluation of the comprehensive school safety plan and the annual review of a charter school's school safety plan to also include ensuring that the plan includes appropriate adaptations for pupils with disabilities and address any concerns to individual plans, as specified.

Winship Middle School Individualized Plans

None Requested/Required

CSSP and Emergency Operations Training

Staff at Winship Middle School are trained through a multi-layered approach that combines digital learning, hands-on practice, and specialized in-person seminars. Because Winship is part of the Eureka City Schools (ECS) district, their training follows both California state law (Education Code 32280) and specific district-wide safety initiatives. The training process is broken down into the following key components:

1. Annual "Keenan Safe Schools" Online Training:
All certificated and classified staff are required to complete a suite of online modules via the Keenan Safe Schools (or similar RESIG) platform. These courses ensure that every employee has a baseline understanding of safety protocols and legal requirements. Key modules include:
Mandated Reporter Training: Identifying and reporting child abuse and neglect.
Harassment Prevention: Protocols for preventing and responding to sexual harassment and bullying.
Bloodborne Pathogens: Safety procedures for handling medical emergencies or injuries.

2. Regular Practice Drills:
Training is not just theoretical; staff are required to lead and participate in tactical drills throughout the school year. These drills reinforce the "muscle memory" needed to execute the Comprehensive School Safety Plan (CSSP) during a real crisis.
Fire Drills: Conducted regularly to practice evacuation routes.
Earthquake Drills: Focused on "Drop, Cover, and Hold On" procedures and post-shaking evacuation.
Lockdown Drills: Practiced to prepare for potential campus threats or active assailants. For example, Winship schedules specific dates for these, such as the lockdown drill held in late October.

3. Specialized CPI team:
Five Winship staff members are trained and certified in specialized body positioning and safe holds to prevent harm in situations of immediate danger.

4. Professional Development (PD) Days:
Winship allocates roughly 6 days per year specifically to staff development and continuous improvement. During these sessions, safety is a recurring theme:
Monday Collaboration Days: Teachers meet on Monday afternoons to review school achievement data and safety protocols.
PBIS (Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports): Staff are trained in PBIS strategies to foster a safe and orderly school climate, which is a required component of the CSSP.
Crisis Response Teams: Specific staff members serve as "Crisis Response/Safety Representatives" and receive additional training on coordinating with local law enforcement and fire departments.
Key Safety Personnel at Winship: Role/Responsibility
Principal/Designee Leads the School Site Council in annually updating the CSSP.
Safety Planning Committee/Includes teachers, parents, and classified staff who review and approve safety goals.
School Resource Officers (SROs)Local law enforcement partners who participate in drills and plan reviews.
District Safety and Security Coordinator participates in drills and provides feedback.

The Board shall cooperate with such agencies in furnishing and maintaining whatever services the district may deem necessary to meet the community's needs. (Education Code 32282)

Emergency Procedures for People with Disabilities

The information contained in this document will assist school administrators, teachers, special education staff, parents, and students in planning for the support that may require for students with special needs in the event of an emergency. For the purposes of this section, students with special needs are those who cannot comfortably or safely access and use the standard resources offered in disaster preparedness, relief and recovery, whether their disability is chronic or temporary.

For individuals with special needs, physical environments may pose additional challenges. The ability to get to accessible exits and access personal items may be reduced. Communication may be impeded at a time when clear and rapid communication is crucial to safety and survival.
To comply with statutes involving students with special needs, individuals responsible for evacuation and emergency operation plans, notification protocols, shelter identification, emergency medical care and other emergency response and recovery programs must:

- Have sound working knowledge of the accessibility and nondiscrimination requirements applicable under Federal disability rights laws;
- Know the special needs demographics of the students attending classes on site;
- Involve students with different types of disabilities, staff, and teachers in identifying the communication and transportation needs, accommodations, support systems, equipment, services, and supplies that they will need during an emergency;
- Consider emergency accommodations for those with temporary disabilities.
- Identify existing resources within the school and local community that meet the special needs of these students;
- Develop new community partners and resources, as needed.
- Inform parents about the efforts to keep their child safe at school;
- Identify medical needs and make an appropriate plan;
- Determine transportation needs, special vans and buses for students;
- Identify any necessary tools such as personal response plans, evacuation equipment or visual aids;
- Include local responders and establish a relationship with individual students with disabilities and their teachers.

Mitigation Strategies (Before an Emergency Occurs)

- Learn about the types of hazards that may impact the school (e.g., earthquakes, floods, wildfires) and assure that emergency response procedures address each one.
- Identify a pre-evacuation site that is accessible to students with disabilities
- Plan a primary and secondary evacuation route from each location the student is in during the course of the day.
- Arrange sufficient transportation ahead of time to accommodate the entire special needs/staff population.
- Develop a schedule of daily activities and classes that identifies where a special needs student may be located each period of the day.
- Consider classroom location in placement of students with disabilities. Evaluate the handicap accessibility of nearby exits and proximity to the school nurse.
- Conduct a test of the family notification system to assure that contact information is up-to-date to help decrease parent anxiety during a disaster.

Tactical Response to Criminal Incidents

ACTIVE SHOOTER OR OTHER ACTIVE ASSAILANTS

All district sites adhere to the standardized procedures for Lockdown and Active Shooter and other Active Assailant listed in this plan if there is an active shooter, individual with a weapon on campus or other possible violent crime. For more details see Active Asailant, Threats , and Lock Down procedures.

SB 671 requires a Comprehensive School Safety Plan to include procedures to assess and respond to reports of any dangerous, violent, or unlawful activity that is being conducted or threatened to be conducted at the school, at an activity sponsored by the school, or on a school bus serving the school.

Multidisciplinary Threat Assessment Team
Eureka City Schools uses a multidisciplinary threat assessment team consisting of the specific site administrator, a local law enforcement representative, the student services Director, mental health or behavioral specialist representative as needed, and other outside services as needed.

Assessment and Response
Prohibited and concerning behaviors are defined in California Education Code 48900 and 48915. Additionally, all threats of self-harm are assessed and acted upon, as needed. In cases where dangerous, violent, or unlawful activities are being conducted, Law Enforcement is notified at once and a call to 911 is made.

The threshold of law enforcement intervention is decided by the relevant administration in cooperation with the District and mutual aid if requested. In practice, we find if a real or possible threat is present. We evaluate the threat or possible threat based upon prohibited and concerning behaviors, responding appropriately to the incident.

Risk Management
Risk Management is notified in incidents where there is physical, property or damage to others. Additionally, Risk Management is involved if a security assessment or report is needed. There may be times, following a potential or real incident, that an after-action debrief might be conducted, including a written summary.

School Culture and Training
Eureka City Schools utilizes PBIS as outlined in our PBIS Handbook. Eureka City Schools School Climate Team created our PBIS handbook in consultation with Dr. Jeff Sprague. The purpose of this handbook is to guide and support ECS staff as we implement PBIS in our school. Our goal is to provide all of our students with safe and effective school environments where they can experience academic and social-behavioral success.

Eureka City Schools conducts an annual update to their Comprehensive Safe School Plan at each school site as required by the California Education Code.

Training for all stakeholders is conducted during annual site meetings by administrators and/or district representatives.

Reunification

Student release is a crucial part of emergency planning. During an emergency or disaster, the traditional student release procedure is often unsafe and therefore not operable. Accordingly, a comprehensive emergency plan needs to include certain procedures to accomplish the main priority of safety planning which is to ensure the safety of the students to every extent possible.

There are a wide variety of emergency situations that might require student/family reunification. Student/family reunification may be needed if the site is evacuated or closed as a result of a hazardous materials transportation accident, fire, natural gas leak, flooding, earthquake, tsunami, school violence, bomb threat, terrorist attack or other local hazard.

Student/Family reunification is part of the Incident Command System and is assigned to the Operations Area.

Threats of Violence

THREATS

If a threat is made or if there is a weapon found on campus, the Threat Assessment team (consisting of multi-disciplinary personnel, including but not limited administration, counselors, mental health professionals, Information Technology professionals and law enforcement) will conduct the following steps:

- Evaluate the threat

THEN

- Decide if the threat is clearly transient and respond to the transient threat

o Contact student's parents if necessary.
o Notify intended victim's parents if necessary.
o See that threat is resolved through explanation, apology or making amends.
o Consult with Risk Management & Security Manager or law enforcement if necessary.
o Refer for conflict mediation, restorative justice or counseling to resolve problem as appropriate.
o Follow discipline procedures as per BP/AR.
o Develop Behavior Intervention Plan or Behavior Contract as appropriate.

OR

o Decide if the substantive threat is serious and respond to the serious substantive threat.
o Mobilize threat assessment team members as needed.
o Contact student's parents.
o Notify intended victim's parents.
o Protect and notify intended victim and parents of victim.
o Caution the student about the consequences of carrying out the threat.
o Provide direct supervision of student until parents assume control
o Consult with Risk Management and law enforcement.
o Refer for conflict mediation, restorative justice or counseling to resolve problem is appropriate
o Follow discipline procedures as per BP/AR
o Develop Behavior Intervention Plan

OR

- Decide if the substantive threat is very serious and respond to the very serious substantive threat

o Mobilize threat assessment team members as needed.
o Contact student's parents
o Notify intended victim's parents
o Protect and notify intended victim and parents of victim
o Caution the student about the consequences of carrying out the threat
o Provide direct supervision of student until parents assume control
o Consult with Risk Management & Security Manager and Law Enforcement
o Conduct mental health assessment
o Follow discipline procedures as per BP/AR
o Develop Behavior Intervention Plan

AND

- Implement a safety plan

OTHER CRIMES

If other crimes are committed on campus such as thefts and vandalism school administration, risk management and other needed resources along with law enforcement will conduct an investigation. Depending on the investigation outcomes, administration will follow district procedures for discipline and will assist in any necessary prosecution procedures through the District Attorney's office.

FUNCTIONAL ANNEX

Accounting for all Persons

Attendance Records

It is our daily practice to maintain manual attendance records in the Administrative Office of each site. This includes Daily Attendance Records, Site Employee Logs, Visitor Logs, and Itinerant Employee Logs (such as food services, maintenance and operations, etc.). If there are contractors or contracted service workers on-site in a controlled location (such as fenced areas under construction) the employer of record should be advised to consider keeping their own records of employee locations.

Crisis or Incident Accounting

In the event of a crisis or incident, each site administrator will ensure there are 2 – 3 key employees (only one needs to have control of records at a time – additional staff are only for backup) who will have responsibility as scribes to collect all site attendance records from the administrative office.

These records are to be provided to the on-site incident commander upon request. It is the scribe's responsibility to maintain and protect these records.

In cases where students, staff, or visitors cannot be located, the name and description of the person(s) will be provided to Search and Rescue teams for more specific search. All records of searches and tracking of people on-site will be recorded in appropriate ICS log. The incident commander will be kept informed of attendance status and updated with changes.

Assembly Areas

All staff will report as soon as is possible to their predesignated assembly areas. Premade signs may be used and maintained in assembly kits to assist in identifying specific assembly areas and will be held so as to be easily identified. Assembly area facilitators will distribute/record the attendance of all individuals in their assembly area.

For shelter-in-place or any evacuation, either on-site or off-site, attendance will be taken at any assembly areas and a comparison made to the attendance logs as follows:

Student Daily Attendance
Site Employee Log
Visitor Log
Itinerant Employee Log

Student Release

Student release will be conducted in an orderly fashion as outlined in the Reunification Annex of this plan. Attendance records will be checked and recorded as students leave the site.

Communications

Purpose

The Communications Annex ensures the availability and coordinated use of our communications systems for the dissemination of disaster information, for the exchange of information between decision-makers, and for the coordination of communications with local response agencies.

Scope

When activated, the Communications annex coordinates and supports emergency response/recovery telecommunications requirements. This includes the interface between our District and other agencies and outside organizations, such as local, state, and federal government, private nonprofit organizations, and business/industry. Immediately report communications degradation, interruption, or failure by alternate means (e.g. cell phone) to the Communications Officer and/or the District's Emergency Operations Center (EOC) if activated.

Activation

The senior executive (or designee) determines whether to activate this annex based upon information from initial staff reports and local authorities. The local emergency communications plan will include:
Channel designations
Contingency communications procedures
Training in back-up communications equipment

Key Tasks/Responsibilities

Develop a local communications plan
Establish and maintain liaison with local response agencies, state agencies, commercial communications companies, and amateur radio organizations
Support communications equipment (radio, computer, fax, etc.) as needed
Provide communications capability
Maintain equipment inventory
Designate a centrally-located area (usually main office) easily identified by staff, media, and the public
Predetermine an alternate location in case the primary location is inaccessible
Establish communication with staff
Maintain telephone and radio communication with emergency services
Post rumor control and information on the internet and in an area accessible to our students and the community
Record emergency related incidents
Maintain communication with staff by whatever means available (SMS text messaging, audio alarm warning system, intercom, bullhorn, canned air horn, two-way radio, e-mail, written notices)

Internal Communications

Staff will be notified when an incident occurs and kept informed as additional information becomes available and as plans for management of the situation evolve. The following practices will be utilized to disseminate information internally when appropriate:

Alert Notifications (SMS Texting)

Staff will be notified when an incident occurs and kept informed as additional information becomes available and as plans for management of the situation evolve. The following practices will be utilized to disseminate information internally when appropriate:

Telephone Tree

A telephone tree is a simple, widely used system for notifying staff of an incident when they are not at their primary work location. The tree originates with the senior site official, who contacts the members of the Incident Management Team. Team members then, in turn, will contact groups of staff identified on their call list.

Staff Meetings

As appropriate, updated information about an incident will be presented at regularly scheduled staff meetings. In some cases, special staff meetings may be called as incident evolution requires. Staff will also have the opportunity to address any misinformation or rumors. Any new procedures or temporary changes will also be reviewed at this time.

Communication With the District Administrative Office

The Incident Commander will use the designated countywide Emergency Radio Network to notify the site administrator of our District's status/needs. The site administrator will notify the District office. The District office will notify the County Office of the status of all of the District's sites. He/she will designate staff member(s) to monitor all communications.

Activation

Concept of Operations

The senior executive (or designee) determines whether to activate this annex based upon information from initial staff reports and local authorities. When activated, the Communications annex coordinates and supports emergency response/recovery telecommunications requirements

Immediately report communications degradation, interruption, or failure by alternate means (e.g. cell phone) to our District's Emergency Operations Center (EOC) if activated or the Communications Officer

The local emergency communications plan will include channel designations, contingency communications procedures, and training in back-up communications equipment.

Continuity of Operations (COOP)

General

Continuity of Operations planning is a program that ensures continued performance of essential functions across a full range of potential emergencies, be they natural or man-made, when a significant interruption of operations occurs following a severe disaster or tragedy.

A COOP provides guidance and establishes responsibilities and procedures to ensure that essential functions are maintained. COOP is not the same as an Emergency Operations Plan or a Recovery Plan, but rather supplements it, in the event normal facility or human resources are not available.

A COOP provides a continuity infrastructure that through careful planning ensures:
Emergency delegation of authority and an orderly line of succession, as necessary.
Safekeeping of essential personnel, resources, facilities, and vital records.
Emergency acquisition of resources necessary for business resumption.
The capability to perform critical functions remotely until resumption of normal operations.

A District's COOP plan should allow for its implementation anytime, with or without warning, during normal and after-hours operations; providing full operational capability for essential functions no later than 12 hours after activation; and sustain essential functions for up to 30 days.

The purpose of these Continuity of Operations (COOP) procedures is to ensure that there are procedures in place to maintain or rapidly resume essential operations within the District after an incident that results in disruption of normal activities or services to the District. Failure to maintain these critical services would significantly affect the operations and/or service mission of the District in an adverse way.

Scope

It is the responsibility of the District's officials to protect students and staff from incidents and restore critical operations as soon as it is safe to do so. This responsibility involves identifying and mitigating hazards, preparing for and responding to incidents, and managing the recovery process.

The COOP procedures outline actions needed to maintain and/or rapidly resume essential operations, business, and physical services, when interrupted for an extended period of time following an incident.

Responsibilities

Designated District Staff, in conjunction with the affected administrator(s) and staff, will perform the essential functions as follows:

Senior Executive/Site Administrator

Determine when to close District, and/or send students/staff to alternate locations
Disseminate information internally to students and staff
Communicate with family, media, and the larger community
Identify a line of succession, including who is responsible for restoring which business functions for the District
Ensure systems are in place for rapid contract execution after an incident
Identify relocation areas for site and administrative operations
Create a system for registering students (off site or into alternative locations)
Brief and train staff regarding their additional responsibilities

Secure and provide needed personnel, equipment and supplies, facilities, resources, and services required for continued operations
Identify strategies to continue operations (e.g., using the Internet, providing alternatives to operational contingencies)
Work with local and state government officials to determine when it is safe for students and staff to return to the District's buildings and grounds
Manage the restoration of the District's buildings and grounds (e.g. debris removal, repairing, repainting, and/or landscaping)
Collaborate with private and public-sector service providers and contractors

Administrative Services, District Staff

Maintain inventory
Maintain essential records (and copies of records) including the District's insurance policy
Ensure redundancy of records is kept at a different physical location.
Secure District's equipment and materials in advance.
Restore administrative and recordkeeping functions such as payroll, accounting, and personnel records.
Retrieve, collect, and maintain personnel data
Provide accounts payable and cash management services

Administrative Support Staff

Establish necessary support services for students and staff
Implement additional response and recovery activities according to established protocols
Collaborate with public and private providers

Food Services Worker

Determine how food services will resume
Support staff and volunteers as much as possible

Transportation

Provide emergency transportation services as needed
Assess and implement alternative transportation services that may be necessitated

Evacuation

General

Evacuation is one means of protecting the staff, students and visitors from the effects of a hazard through the orderly movement of person(s) away from the hazard. The type and magnitude of the emergency will dictate the scale of an evacuation (i.e., evacuation area).

Concept of Operations

Evacuation orders are generally given by the following:
Local Police
Environmental Health & Safety
Facilities Services
Administrator, director, or building supervisor
Fire Department with jurisdiction
Any person identifying a hazard and by activating the fire alarm system via a fire alarm pull station

Evacuation Procedures

Evacuation will be initiated by means of the fire alarm system. Whenever the alarm is sounded all occupants of all buildings are to initiate the evacuation procedure.
Take the Incident Action packet/binder which has a current class list and a red/green 8½ x 11 card (red on one side and green on the other side)
Close all doors and windows. (DO NOT LOCK DOORS)
Follow the safest evacuation route to the assembly or safe dispersal area.
Teachers are to take roll and make certain no one reenters the building for any reason.
If all students are present with staff member, staff will hold up the GREEN sheet to acknowledge to responsible incident management person that all students are present.
Support staff who have regular schedules with students need to have a green and red card also. If all students who are regularly scheduled are in their care and custody, they are to raise the green card, so staff member and responsible incident management person can see.
Staff members are to raise the red card even if they think a student is with support staff so responsible incident management person can account for those students.
If a student is not present, the staff member will hold up the RED card and wait for the administration to contact him/her to see who is absent. The responsible incident management person will coordinate the search for the missing student.
Students should remain 30 – 50 feet away from any building.
Students are to remain in groups, until the all clear signal is given.

On-Site Evacuation

The Incident Commander or designee activates fire alarm.
All staff follow the Evacuation Procedures identified above.
Once assembled, building occupants remain in their designated assembly or safe dispersal area until further instructions are given.
Reentry is only authorized after it is determined that conditions and buildings are deemed safe by appropriate incident management staff.

Off-Site Evacuation

If it is determined that the buildings and area are not safe for occupation and that the On-Site Evacuation locations are also at risk, the appropriate incident management staff will initiate an Off-Site Evacuation.
The Incident Commander or designee determines safest method for evacuating the site. This may include use of buses or simply walking to designated off-site location.
Staff members secure the student roster when leaving the building and take attendance once group is assembled in pre-designated safe location.
Once assembled off-site, staff members and students stay in place until further instructions are given.
In the event clearance is received from appropriate agencies, Incident Commander may authorize students and staff to return to buildings.

Evacuating Students with Disabilities

Procedures and actions regarding the special needs' population should cover the evacuation, transportation and medical needs of students who will require extreme special handling in an emergency. In most cases, additional safeguards must be established regarding roles, responsibilities and procedures for students with physical, sensory, emotional and health disabilities.

The following are steps that cover the evacuation procedure of student(s) with disabilities:
Review all paths of travel and potential obstacles
Know the facility, grounds, paths, exits and potential obstacles
Determine the primary and secondary paths of exit to be used during emergencies
Individuals with mobility impairments will need a smooth, solid, level walking surface, an exit that avoids barriers such as stairs, narrow doors and elevators and guardrails that protect open sides of the path
Compile and distribute evacuation route information to be used during emergency operations
Include alternative evacuation route information, should the primary route be inaccessible due to damage or danger
Install appropriate signage and visual alarms
Place evacuation information indicating primary and secondary exits in all offices, rooms, multipurpose rooms, hallways/corridors, lobbies, bathrooms and cafeterias. For passages and doorways that might be mistaken for an exit, place visible signs that proclaim, "NOT AN EXIT"
Place emergency notification devices appropriate for each student
Post signage with the name and location of each area so that the students will know exactly where they are, in order to comply with ADA (American's with Disabilities Act) Accessibility

Buildings and Facilities Signage Requirements

Approximately 60 inches above the floor
In a location that is not obscured in normal operation such as a swinging door
In all primary function areas

Preparation and Planning

Identify the students and staff with special needs and the type of assistance they will require in an emergency
Allow visitors to self-identify on a sign-in log if they have special evacuation needs
Discuss evacuation issues with the staff members and caretakers of students with special needs, including individuals, who may be temporarily disabled (i.e. a student with a broken leg)
Train staff in general evacuation procedures

Review the areas of rescue, primary exits, evacuation techniques, and the locations and operation of emergency equipment
Provide in-depth training to those designated to evacuate students with special needs
Train the staff for proper lifting techniques when lifting a person for evacuation
Anyone can assist a student with a visual impairment
Check on each special needs student to assure he/she is accounted for during an evacuation
Review the plan with emergency response personal, including local police, fire and emergency medical technicians
Identify “areas of rescue” in our site for students to wait for evacuation assistance from emergency personnel
Before operations begin in the Fall, walk around the site with first responders so that they are familiar with the primary exits and all areas of rescue; these areas must meet specifications for fire resistance and ventilation
Ask the responders to conduct a special drill explaining how they will support the students and staff with special needs during an emergency
Complete all contracts and Statements of Understanding with key emergency support providers
Ensure that sufficient transportation capacity exists with transportation providers, partner agencies, and suppliers to effectively meet the demand in an emergency
Identify transportation contracts through the District in case of an emergency; Emergency response for special needs requires special vans and special equipment
Specify who will do what to address these transportation needs
Develop a list of District-owned vehicles, staff vehicles that are available and make prior arrangements for their use in the event of an emergency
Review the evacuation plan with students and staff to be familiar with the process and identify any problems
Practice implementation of special duck and cover actions by students with able-bodied partners
Students should be aware that evacuation by themselves may be difficult or impossible because of obstacles in their path or because electric dependent machines may not function (i.e. elevator)
Special pre-planned assistance must be provided and reviewed regularly

Lockdown

General

A District or school site lock down is necessary when the threat of violence or gunfire is identified or directed by law enforcement and it is necessary to prevent the perpetrator(s) from entering occupied areas. During lock down, students are to remain in rooms or designated locations at all times.

Instructions

If a lock down situation is required, the Site Administrator will make an announcement on the Public Address (PA) system. If the PA system is not available, the Site Administrator will use other means of communication (e.g., sending messengers to deliver instructions). The Site Administrator should be calm, convey reassuring comments that the situation is under control, and provide clear and consistent directions. Below is an example of an announcement to be made by the Site Administrator:

"YOUR ATTENTION PLEASE. WE HAVE AN EMERGENCY SITUATION. STAFF ARE TO LOCK ROOM DOORS UNTIL NOTIFIED BY AN ADMINISTRATOR OR LAW ENFORCEMENT. STUDENTS AND STAFF ARE TO PROCEED TO THE NEAREST ROOM OR BUILDING. PLEASE REMAIN INDOORS UNTIL FURTHER INSTRUCTIONS ARE PROVIDED."

If inside, staff should instruct students to lie on the floor, move away from doors and remain in the center of the room out of the line of fire, lock the doors (if possible), and close any shades or blinds if it appears safe to do so. Students and staff who are physically unable to lie on the ground should move away from doors and windows.
If outside, students should proceed to their rooms if it is safe to do so. If it is not safe, staff must direct students into nearby rooms or other District buildings (e.g., auditorium, library, cafeteria, and gymnasium).
District staff and students must remain in their room or secured area until further instructions are provided by the Site Administrator or law enforcement.
Landline phones should not be used. District staff should use cell phones and speak quietly.
All site entrances and exits must be locked, and no visitors other than appropriate law enforcement or emergency personnel are to be allowed on the site.

Public, Medical, and Mental Health

General

Establishment of public, medical, and mental health procedures, will assist the District in preparing for, responding to, and recovering from an incident that affects the health and safety of students, staff, and family. Furthermore, coordination with Public Health agencies, Emergency Medical Services (EMS), and Mental Health support services will broaden their capacity to deal with these incidents by providing the District with resources beyond their existing expertise and training.

Public Health

Procedures

Designate District Medical Manager and/or other key personnel as the individual(s) responsible for coordinating incidents such as disease outbreaks, bioterrorism, and natural disasters with local, State, and Federal Public Health agencies.
Coordinate with local, State, and Federal Public Health agencies on information sharing protocols.
Develop procedures for reporting information to local, State, and Federal Public Health agencies.
Contact local Public Health agency to determine notification procedures for students/family, staff, and public, if necessary.
Send out any required notification to students/family, staff and public as required.
Establish a dedicated contact phone number for questions and concerns.
Coordinate with local, State, and Federal Public Health agencies, for assistance with managing large scale incidents or incidents beyond the District's resources.

Medical Health

Procedures

Designate District Medical Manager and/or other key personnel as the individual(s) responsible for coordinating incidents involving students or staff injuries or illnesses
Provide CPR/First Aid/AED to all staff designated to work in medical capacity
Establish a triage area for injured students and staff
Separate walking wounded, critically injured and deceased individuals (Keep a log of names of these individuals)
Keep a record of students and staff that are transported off-site for treatment.
Coordinate with local Emergency Medical Services (EMS) agencies for assistance with large scale incidents or incidents beyond the District's resources.

Mental Health

Procedures

Designate crisis counselors and/or other key personnel as the individual(s) responsible for coordinating incidents with local, State, and Federal Mental Health agencies
Activate crisis counselors during the incident to begin identifying students and staff that require assistance
Keep a log of individuals counseled or that require counseling following the incident
Notify students, family, and staff of counseling services available
Coordinate with local, State, and Federal Mental Health agencies, for assistance with large scale incidents or incidents beyond the 's resources.

Psychological First Aid for Schools (PFA-S)

The field of school safety and emergency management has evolved significantly over the past decade. Tragically, acts of violence, natural disasters, and terrorist attacks have taught us many lessons. We also know that other types of emergencies can impact schools, including medical emergencies, transportation accidents, sports injuries, peer victimization, public health emergencies, and the sudden death of a member of the school community. We now recognize the need for school emergency management plans that are up-to-date and take an “all-hazards”approach with clear communication channels and procedures that effectively reunite parents and caregivers with students. We have also learned that preparing school administrators, teachers, and school partnering agencies before a critical event is crucial for effective response, the value of ongoing training and emergency exercises, and that having intervention models that address the public health, mental health, and psychosocial needs of students and staff is essential to a safe school environment and the resumption of learning. (excerpted from Psychological First Aid for Schools, Field Operations Guide, 2nd Edition)

Field Operations Guide (FOG)

We use the PFA-S FOG as-needed, to prepare and respond to critical incidents affecting the mental health of our students. https://www.nctsn.org/resources/psychological-first-aid-schools-pfa-s-field-operations-guide

Public Safety and Security

Purpose

The Public Safety and Security Annex integrates State public safety and security capabilities and resources to support the full range of incident management activities.

Scope

The Public Safety and Security Annex provides a mechanism for coordinating and providing support to local law enforcement authorities to include non-investigative/non-criminal law enforcement, public safety, and security capabilities and resources during incidents. The Public Safety and Security Annex capabilities support incident management requirements, including force and critical infrastructure protection, security planning and technical assistance, technology support, and public safety, in both pre-incident and post-incident situations. The Public Safety and Security Annex generally is activated in situations requiring extensive assistance to provide public safety and security.

Key Tasks/Responsibilities

Coordinate public safety and security support (including personnel and equipment) to any affected department/agency during preparation for, response to, and/or recovery from any real or potential incident.
County Sheriff's Office
Police Department
Other Law Enforcement Agencies
Private Security Companies

Coordinate critical information dissemination regarding public safety/security through mass warning/notification.

County Sheriff's Office
Police Department
Dispatch
County Emergency Management
Facilitate multi-function public safety activities such as evacuation, traffic, looting, and riot control
County Sheriff's Office
Police Department
Other Law Enforcement Agencies
Fire/EMS

Concept of Operations

Local law enforcement authorities have the primary responsibility for public safety and security and are the first line of response and support in these functional areas, utilizing the Incident Command System on-scene
In larger-scale incidents, additional resources should first be obtained through the activation of mutual aid agreements with neighboring jurisdictions and/or State authorities, which may require the management of incident operations through a Unified Command structure

Through the Public Safety and Security Annex, outside resources supplement local resources when requested or required, as appropriate, and are integrated into the incident command structure using National Incident Management System principles and protocols
The Public Safety and Security Annex activities should not be confused with the activities described in the Terrorism Incident Annex or other criminal investigative law enforcement activities

As the lead law enforcement official in the United States, the Attorney General, generally acting through the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), maintains the lead for criminal investigations of terrorist acts or terrorist threats by individuals or groups inside the United States
The Public Safety and Security Annex is activated when public safety and security capabilities and resources are needed to support incident operations
This includes threat or pre-incident as well as post-incident situations
When activated, the primary agencies assess public safety and security needs, and respond to requests for resources and planning/technical assistance from county agencies
The Public Safety and Security Annex manages support by coordinating the implementation of authorities related to public safety and security and protection of property, including critical infrastructure, and security resources and technologies and other assistance to support incident management operations and security capabilities and resources are needed to support incident operations
This includes threat or pre-incident as well as post-incident situations
The Public Safety and Security Annex maintains close coordination with Federal, State, and local officials to determine public safety and security support requirements and to jointly determine resource priorities
The primary agencies maintain communications with supporting agencies to determine capabilities, assess the availability of resources, and track resources that have been deployed

Recovery

General

When a disaster occurs, it is all too easy to get consumed by the urgent activities and emotions surrounding the event. That is understandable but don't allow the intensity of the incident to distract you from some extremely important actions you should be taking. Keep in mind that no financial assistance will occur until there is a declared disaster by the State and the Federal governments.

Tracking time and material (supplies and equipment specifically used for the disaster) should happen always, regardless of disaster declarations. There is no guarantee that we will get our expenses reimbursed. We are at the mercy of the State and Federal governments. In most cases, however, labor and materials specific to the disaster response get reimbursed. Losses already covered by our insurance are typically NOT reimbursed. For example, if an employee is injured our Workers' Compensation would cover the injured employee. If a building was damaged and our insurance does not cover that specific cause of loss there may be a chance it is reimbursable.

Before – Action Items

Establish relationships and contact information from our county Operational Area and Coordinating Council (OACC)
Create and maintain a current contact list with this information and other contact information essential to the Finance/Administration Section of our ICS structure
Train and practice the Start-up, Operation of, and the Closure of this ICS Section.
Modify and update our Emergency Operations Plan as necessary

During – Action Items

Within the very first moments of an incident, begin tracking every employee's and volunteer's time spent on the incident. (Be alert to any announcements from local or State government regarding "Public Assistance" requests or meetings.) Use the form designed for that purpose, the Activity Log (ICS 214). If not readily available, make sure each person is tracking the following:
Incident name
Date
Worker's name
Log each major activity and track start and end times
Don't be concerned with tracking too much – that can be sorted out after the event
This information will need to be transferred onto the Activity Log (ICS 214) before we can apply for Public Assistance funding (this is what they call the State and Federal reimbursement program)
Keep track of ANY disaster-related expenditures for supplies or equipment. It is best to retain copies of priced-out receipts and invoices for possible State and Federal reimbursement. For example, if our facilities may be used as a shelter and we are required to provide custodial services specific to the shelter, toilet paper, paper towels, cleaning material and chemicals would all likely be reimbursable. If our facility were being used as a medical care facility and the HVAC system required filters different than what we would normally use, the cost of the filters (and the labor to change them) are likely reimbursable.
Establish the Recovery Unit in the Finance/Administration Section of our Emergency Operations Center (EOC).
Have all sites or units collect information on their ability to sustain operations.
Develop staffing pattern for the Recovery Unit.

Collect information on damages, duration and impact from the following:
Utility Providers

Social, medical and health services
Transportation routes and services
Debris issues
County Government Operations
Private sector retail and wholesale providers
Others
Develop initial short term and long-term recovery objectives.
Refer to hazard/threat-specific annexes for information.
Develop information for the PIO on the recovery process and progress.
Develop a plan to assign personnel to sustain the recovery effort
Coordinate with the OACC, other local jurisdictions and the State on their recovery efforts.
While it is best if we already have an established relationship with our county Operational Area Coordinating Council (OACC) contact, we need to identify that individual and the means of communicating with them. We will want them to know who at our District will serve as the contact for emergency incidents. This will serve a couple of purposes:
It will keep our District "in the loop" and better informed when an incident affecting our District occurs
It will alert us to any notice of "Public Assistance" informational meetings to learn about getting Federal and State reimbursement for disaster related District activity
If our county's OACC is overwhelmed with an incident we should reach out directly to our Emergency Services Coordinator at the Governor's Office of Emergency Services Region Operational Area.
Ask them to put the District on the list for notification of "Public Assistance" informational meetings
There are forms that will be exchanged between our District and the OACC or the California Governor's Office of Emergency Services (they act as our liaison with FEMA)
If our employees and volunteers remain under our direction and control we are responsible for any costs associated with their activities. Should they perform work that they would not normally do and it is attributable to the disaster we will likely be able to reimburse the labor. Management costs are typically NOT reimbursable.
If our employees and volunteers, or our facilities, are tasked outside of our District we must only do so under the terms of a mutual aid agreement or memorandum of understanding to which the District have agreed, in writing. Make sure we understand when and if risk transfer occurs as it should be clear in these documents. These documents should identify, specifically, what is "covered" and by "whom." Examples for other agency usage of our facility might include the Fire Department using our facility as a command center for the incident.
Or, local hospitals may be "at-capacity" and need our facility to provide some form of medical or health services. In these cases, (like the case of sheltering) a written request for use of our facilities should be on file or requested prior to allowing the agency to use them. These documents should specify what they will and will not cover in terms of costs related to using the facility. Typically, if an outside agency damages the property or they cause a liability exposure, they are responsible for coverage.

When in doubt, ask for help.

After – Action Items

Begin closing the Recovery Unit
Assign any open or pending tasks, such as Public Assistance funding or other outstanding receivables or payables, to appropriate staff with specific checkup or due dates
Make sure all Activity Logs and equipment/supply records have been assembled and recorded into the request for Public Assistance from Cal OES and FEMA
Conduct an After-Action debrief within the Finance/Administration Section and include that in the main incident After-Action debrief held by the District
Review our EOP and include any lessons learned or altered actions into the plan for update and redistribution to the emergency management team
Participate in and debriefings provided by our ICS team and close the Recovery Unit

Reunification

General

Student release is a crucial part of emergency planning. During an emergency or disaster, the traditional student release procedure is often unsafe and therefore not operable. Accordingly, a comprehensive emergency plan needs to include certain procedures to accomplish the main priority of safety planning which is to ensure the safety of the students to every extent possible.

There are a wide variety of emergency situations that might require student/family reunification. Student/family reunification may be needed if the site is evacuated or closed as a result of a hazardous materials transportation accident, fire, natural gas leak, flooding, earthquake, tsunami, school violence, bomb threat, terrorist attack or other local hazard.

Student/Family reunification is part of the Incident Command System and is assigned to the Operations Area.

Reunification Procedures

In an emergency, sites must establish a safe area for family members to meet with students. This area must be away from the both the damage and the student's assembly area. In a typical release the following steps will be followed:

Family member will report to the assigned area and give the name of the student
Picture ID will normally be required by the person in charge to insure the person requesting a minor is a match to the name on the emergency release card
A runner will go to the student assembly area and get the minor requested by the parent or adult and escort the student back to the pick-up area
Parents will be asked to sign a form indicating they picked up the minor (the date and time will also be indicated on the pick-up form)
If the minor is in the first aid area, the parent will be escorted to that area for reunification with their child/children
Counselors, when available, will be located close to the first aid area in the event they are needed

Traffic Control

Traffic may be controlled by trained and authorized employees who meet the requirements outlined in the Manual on Uniform Traffic Control Devices (MUTCD) Part 7, Traffic Control for School Areas. In the absence of this condition, we must wait until local law enforcement is available and on scene at the site.
To every extent possible, two-way traffic will be maintained to allow for entry and exit of emergency vehicles
As the situation develops there may be time for barricades and other traffic control devices to be delivered and set up
It should be understood this will not occur at the beginning of the incident
When law enforcement arrives on the scene they will take charge and do whatever is necessary, including the towing of vehicles to manage the emergency or disaster

Maintaining the Procedures

Student rosters should be updated at least twice a year
If enrollment dictates this may be updated more frequently
Updated rosters should be stored in every room in an area easily identified by the both staff and substitutes.
Additional copies of the rosters should be distributed to the site administrator and placed in the back of the emergency plan binder

Emergency cards should be filled out at the beginning of the year
This card should include contact information on family members, as well as other adults who can be contacted if the family member is not available
The card should also indicate who the minor is permitted to leave site with, if necessary
DO NOT release students to people not listed on the student emergency card.
A well- intentioned friend may offer to take a minor home; however, District staff must be certain that students are only released to the appropriate people, so their families will know where they are
The card should also include all pertinent medical information such as allergies, medications, and doctor contact information
These cards should be stored in the front office in both hard copy and electronically, if possible

Things to Remember

Some family members will refuse to cooperate with the student/family reunification process
This situation can be diminished, to some degree, if family members are informed about the District's release procedures before the disaster or emergency occurs
They should be reminded that the safety of their student is our utmost priority
Family members may be emotional when arriving at the site
Have counselors available to deal with issues if needed
Shortly after the incident, the media will have a presence on our site
The Public Information Officer, part of the command staff operating under the Incident Command System, will deal with the media, however, it is important that family be sheltered from media representatives

Shelter-in-Place

General

This action is taken to place and/or keep students indoors in order to provide a greater level of protection from airborne contaminants in outside air. Shelter-in-place is implemented when there is a need to isolate students and staff from the outside environment and includes the shutdown of room and/or building air systems. During shelter-in-place, no one should be exposed to the outside air.

Description of Action

If an emergency occurs that requires students and staff to Shelter-in-Place, the Site Administrator will make an announcement on the PA system. If the PA system is not available, the Site Administrator will use other means of communication (e.g., sending messengers to deliver instructions). The Site Administrator should be calm, convey reassuring comments that the situation is under control, and provide clear and consistent directions. Below is an example of an announcement to be made by the Site Administrator:

"YOUR ATTENTION PLEASE. WE HAVE RECEIVED INFORMATION REGARDING A HAZARD IN THE COMMUNITY. WE ARE INSTITUTING SHELTER-IN-PLACE PROCEDURES. PLEASE REMAIN INSIDE THE BUILDING AWAY FROM OUTSIDE AIR WITH WINDOWS AND DOORS SECURELY CLOSED AND AIR CONDITIONING UNITS TURNED OFF. ALL STUDENTS AND STAFF THAT ARE OUTSIDE ARE TO IMMEDIATELY MOVE TO THE PROTECTION OF AN INSIDE ROOM. PLEASE REMAIN INDOORS UNTIL FURTHER INSTRUCTIONS ARE PROVIDED."

If inside, staff should keep students in their rooms until further instructions are given
If outside, students must proceed to their rooms if it is safe to do so
If it is determined to be unsafe, staff should direct students into nearby rooms or buildings (e.g., auditorium, library, cafeteria, and gymnasium)
Staff and students who were exposed to outside air should congregate in indoor locations away from individuals who were not exposed to outside air
Anyone who is exhibiting symptoms must be treated
Staff is responsible for securing individual rooms and for completing the following procedures as needed:
Shut down the room/building HVAC (Heating Ventilation and Air Conditioning) system
Turn off local fans in the area
Close and lock doors and windows

If necessary, seal gaps under doors and windows with wet towels or duct tape, seal vents with aluminum foil or plastic wrap, and turn off sources of ignition, such as pilot lights

Situational Awareness

In the U.S., every public agency is expected to address situational awareness and personnel security. Situational Awareness is the ability to identify, process, and comprehend the critical information about an incident. More simply, it is knowing what is going on around us.

Overview

Situational Awareness requires continuous monitoring of relevant sources of information regarding actual incidents and developing hazards. A common core function of Emergency Operations Centers (EOC) is gaining, maintaining, and sharing Situational Awareness and developing a Situational Picture (SitPic) that is shared between the Incident ICS, EOC, JIS, and field staff participants in the incident.

In the early stages of activation, the EOC will obtain Situational Awareness. This is important because accurate, timely information will enable more informed, effective decision-making. An excellent tool for developing and maintaining this condition of the OODA loop.

OODA Loop

The OODA loop is the cycle: observe–orient–decide–act, developed by military strategist and United States Air Force Colonel John Boyd in the 1960s. Boyd applied the concept to the combat operations process, often at the operational level during military campaigns. It is now also often applied to understand commercial operations and learning processes.
The OODA loop has become an important concept in emergency management. According to Boyd, decision-making occurs in a recurring cycle of observe–orient–decide–act. An entity (whether an individual or an organization) that can process this cycle quickly, observing and reacting to unfolding events more rapidly than an “opponent,” can thereby "get inside" the opponent's decision cycle and gain the advantage.

Observe – Sensing yourself and the world around you
Orient – What you believe: a complex set of filters of genetic heritage, cultural predispositions, personal experience, and knowledge
Decide – A review of alternative courses of action and the selection of the preferred course as a hypothesis to be tested.
Act – Testing the decision chosen for implementation.

Every employee is a critical link to situational awareness. This annex address the expectations of this District in establishing and maintaining a vital communication and informational internal network. Whether you are in an office environment, inside a building, in the field, or at home, what you observe and absorb are invaluable to our District.

Prepare

The following list includes the minimum expectations for every employee:
Develop and maintain a personal family communication plan
Use the Family Emergency Communication Plan – Wallet Sized provided by our District
The plan should be completed at hire and updated when any of the information changes but at least annually
Share our plan with your family
Review and familiarize yourself with the District’s Emergency Operations Plan (EOP)
Prepare a “Go-Bag” for yourself with a 3-day supply of food and water
See the “Go-Bag” guide for help in assembling and stocking
Keep a copy of the District’s Critical Incident Field Operations Guide (FOG) with you at all times during work hours

Field Protocol

Before, during, and after critical incidents there are some basic steps you should take to improve your situation and help others in need:

f you are operating a vehicle or other equipment, stop your activity as soon as is safely possible (If driving, follow safe driving practices and get maneuver your vehicle without endangering your own or the safety of others)
Assess the situation using the OODA loop and take appropriate action
Follow our District's Communication protocols as outlined in the EOP
If you are unable to proceed to your primary location (starting and ending shift worksite) find out if you can return to an alternate site
If returning to any of these sites proves unreasonable, proceed to the nearest public facility (police or fire station, hospital, local government office) and notify our District of your exact location
Provide our District's Emergency Operations Center (EOC) with as much detailed information as possible:
Time, Date, and Location of Critical Incident
Your condition (unaffected, injured, etc.) and the condition of your equipment
Describe the type of incident such as fire, hazmat, earthquake, etc.
Provide details on estimate impact in your area (how much loss or damage)

Disaster Service Worker

As a California public employee, you may be called upon to work as a Disaster Service Worker (DSW) in the event of an emergency. The information contained in the Disaster Service Worker website will help you understand your role and obligations as a disaster service worker, and what to do in an emergency (California Government Code Section 3100-3109).

Special Needs Population

Planning Needs and Assumptions

For individuals with special needs, physical environments become a great deal more hostile and difficult to deal with during and after an emergency. The ability to get to accessible exits and personal items may be reduced. Communication may be impeded at a time when clear and rapid communication is crucial to safety and survival.

To comply with statutes involving students with special needs, individuals responsible for evacuation and emergency operation plans, notification protocols, shelter identification, emergency medical care and other emergency response and recovery programs must:

Have sound working knowledge of the accessibility and nondiscrimination requirements applicable under Federal disability rights laws
Know the special needs demographics of the attending students on site
Involve students with different types of disabilities and staff in identifying the communication and transportation needs, accommodations, support systems, equipment, services, and supplies that they will need during an emergency
Consider emergency accommodations for those with temporary disabilities
Identify existing resources within the site and local community that meet the special needs of these students
Develop new community partners and resources, as needed
Inform family members about the efforts to keep students safe
Identify medical needs and make an appropriate plan
Determine transportation needs, special vans, and buses for students
Identify any necessary tools such as personal response plans, evacuation equipment or visual aids
Include local responders and establish a relationship with individual students with disabilities and staff

HAZARD/THREAT ANNEX

Hazard-Threat Assessment

A representative number of participants were selected to participate in the Hazard-Threat Assessment Survey (HTAS). This survey follows best practices in emergency management and is a very important part of updating our Emergency Operations Plan.

This survey was designed to help us prioritize possible threats or hazards we may face. It covers many possible scenarios but is not exhaustive in nature. The survey information generated is invaluable in helping our Emergency Operations Plan Collaborative Planning Team identify the hazards and threats most likely to impact us.

The Collaborative Planning team has selected the following Hazards/Threats to be included in this annex:
Active Assailant
Cyber Threat or Attack
Earthquake
Extreme Heat and Unhealthy Air Quality
Fire-Structural
Fire-Forest, Wildfire, or Urban Interface
Infectious Disease
Power and Utility Failure
Severe Weather
Tsunami

Active Assailant

Purpose

Active assailant situations are often over within 10 to 15 minutes, before law enforcement arrives on the scene. Individuals must be prepared both mentally and physically to deal with an active assailant situation.

This Annex will address current best practices for dealing with Active Assailants, Before, During, and After an incident.

Situation and Assumptions

An Active Assailant is an individual actively engaged in the killing or attempting to kill people in a confined and populated area. In most cases, active assailants use firearms and there is no pattern or method to their selection of victims.

Active Assailant situations are unpredictable and evolve quickly. Typically, the immediate deployment of law enforcement is required to stop the attack and mitigate harm to victims.

Continuity of Operations (Annex Specific)

Continuity of Operations is defined as the internal effort of an organization to assure that the capability exists to continue essential functions and services in response to a comprehensive array of potential emergencies or disasters.

In the case of an active assailant actions can be taken in advance to mitigate some of the outcome of the attack.

Organization and Assignment of Responsibilities

Refer to the Organization and Assignment of Responsibilities section located in the Basic Plan.

Plan Development

This annex is part of the Hazard and Threat Annex and was developed using current best practices

Incident Command Actions

Before

Threat and Physical Security Assessment of each site

Conducting periodic threat and physical security assessments will ensure that best practices are in place to control access to your campus.

- Appropriate perimeter fencing installation and maintenance
- Locks and closers on perimeter gates that prevent outsiders from opening the gate (mesh screen around gate area)
- Check for keyed exterior locksets of all classroom doors
- Make sure the lockset on the interior of the classroom door has a thumb lock or other quick-lock style lockset (see Figure 1- Interior Lock)
- Verify visitor access control is in place and works as intended
- Require classroom doors to be closed and locked when students are present

Student Education

- Educate students (age appropriate) through workshops, seminars, lectures, and any other opportunity to teach about the hazards of an active assailant/physical threat and ways each person can potentially react to such a situation
- Supplement in-person instructional elements with additional information to reinforce the training

Such material may be distributed in a variety of ways, including but not limited to web pages, social media, printed literature, radio/TV, etc.
Foster a respectful school community
Be aware of indications of violence and take remedial actions accordingly (i.e. If you see something, say something)

Behavioral Red Flags
Recognizing indicators for potential violence by an individual:
Increased use of alcohol and/or illegal drugs
Unexplained increase in absenteeism; vague physical complaints
Noticeable decrease in attention to appearance and hygiene
Depression/withdrawal
Resistance and overreaction to changes in policy and procedures
Repeated violations of District policies
Increased severe mood swings
Noticeably unstable, emotional responses
Explosive outbursts of anger or rage without provocation
Suicidal; comments about “putting things in order”
Behavior, which is suspect of paranoia, (“everybody is against me”)
Increasingly talks of personal problems
Talk of severe financial problems
Talk of previous incidents of violence
Empathy with individuals committing violence
Increase in unsolicited comments about firearms, other dangerous weapons, and violent crimes

Develop a positive behavioral intervention program that identifies at-risk behaviors early on and ensures administration is aware of these individuals
Decide upon communications and public information releases with your Public Information Officer prior to an incident
Develop model releases that provide well thought out and consistent messaging on behalf of the District
Discuss and decide upon Spontaneous Memorial practices including
Ease of public access
Minimize disruption of vehicular and pedestrian traffic
Monitored for appropriateness of items placed at the memorial
Prepared to announce the one location to the public and that it will be open from/to specific dates (typically no longer than 2-3 weeks)
Line-of-sight view by administration

During

Responding to an Active Assailant/Physical Threat

If you are in a situation where your safety is in question and you are at risk of harm from another person, you must quickly determine the most reasonable way to protect your own life.

Run (evacuate)

If there is an accessible escape path, attempt to evacuate the building/area. Be sure to:
Have an escape route and plan in mind
Evacuate regardless of whether others agree to follow
Leave your belongings behind
Help others escape, if possible
Prevent individuals from entering an area where the active assailant may be
Keep your hands visible, to prevent confusion to law enforcement
Follow the instructions of law enforcement personnel
Do not attempt to move wounded people
Notify Police when you are safe

Hide (lockdown)

If evacuation is not possible, find a place to hide where the active assailant is less likely to find you. Your hiding place should:
Be out of the active assailant's view
Provide protection if shots are fired in your direction (i.e. a room with a closed and locked door)
Not trap you or restrict your options for movement
Remember Cover vs. Concealment
Spread out to reduce target area
To prevent an active assailant from entering your hiding place:
Lock the door, if possible
Blockade the door with whatever is available – heavy furniture, door wedges, file cabinets, etc.
Cover any windows or openings that have a direct line of sight into a hallway
If the active assailant is nearby:
Lock the door, if possible
Close windows, shades and curtains.
Silence all cell phone and other electronic devices
Turn off any source of noise (i.e. radios, televisions, etc.)
Hide behind large items (i.e. cabinets, desks)
Remain silent

Do not sound the fire alarm
A fire alarm would signal the occupants to evacuate the building and thus place them in potential harm as they attempted to exit
Notify Police when it is safe to do so

Fight

If running and hiding are not possible:
Remain calm
Notify Police, if possible, to alert hem of the active assailant's location
If you cannot speak, leave the line open and allow the dispatcher to listen
As a last resort, and only when your life is in imminent danger, attempt to disrupt and/or incapacitate the active assailant by:
Acting as aggressively as possible against him/her
Throwing items and improvising weapons
Yelling
Committing to your actions

Law Enforcement

Law enforcement's purpose is to stop the active assailant as soon as possible. Officers will proceed directly to the area in which the last shots were heard.

While officers may prefer to team up, they are likely to deploy individually, upon arrival at the scene
Officers may wear regular patrol uniforms or external bulletproof vests, Kevlar helmets, and other tactical equipment
Officers may be armed with rifles, shotguns, handguns
Officers may use pepper spray or tear gas to control the situation
Officers may shout commands, and may push individuals to the ground for their safety
The first officers to arrive to the scene will not stop to help injured persons. Expect rescue teams comprised of additional officers and emergency medical personnel to follow the initial officers. These rescue teams will treat and remove any injured persons. They may also call upon able-bodied individuals to assist in removing the wounded from the premises.

While law enforcement personnel are still assessing the situation, uniformed security and/or police officers will move through the entire area to ensure the threat is over. For the safety of you and the officers, you may be handcuffed until the incident details are fully known.

How to react when law enforcement arrives:

Remain calm, and follow officers' instructions
Put down any items in your hands (i.e., cell phones, bags, jackets)
Immediately raise hands and spread fingers
Always keep hands visible
Avoid making quick movements toward officers such as holding on to them for safety
Avoid pointing, screaming and/or yelling
Do not stop to ask officers for help or direction when evacuating, just proceed in the direction from which officers are entering the premises

Once you have reached a safe location or an assembly point, you will likely be held in that area by law enforcement until the situation is under control, and all witnesses have been identified and questioned. Do not leave until law enforcement authorities have instructed you to do so.

Considerations
If a security threat is imminent or occurring, our personnel will take all reasonable and appropriate actions to minimize the hazard to the District's students and staff. If the perpetrator(s) is known, Incident Command will immediately deactivate the incident site's ID card(s) to prevent the individual(s) from entering a building/room equipped with card access.

For locations without electronic access control, incident personnel will make reasonable attempts to secure these doors as quickly as possible. The nature of the threat may make it unsafe for incident personnel to move from door-to-door, thus preventing these locations from being quickly secured.

If you become aware of an active assailant situation, immediately notify Police at 911. Information to provide to law enforcement or 911 operators:
Location of the active assailant
Number of assailants
Identity of the assailant(s), if known
Physical description of assailant(s)
Number and type of weapons held by the assailant(s)
Number of potential victims at the location

After

Good Practice for Coping
Good Practice for Coping
Be aware of your environment and any possible dangers
Take note of the two nearest exits in any facility you visit
If you are in an office, stay there and secure the door
If you are in a hallway, get into a room and secure the door
As a last resort, attempt to take the active assailant down. When the assailant is at close range and you cannot flee, your chance of survival is much greater if you try to incapacitate him/her.
Call 911 when it is safe to do so

Any time there is a significant security concern, we will make every reasonable attempt to immediately increase security on site. At the same time emergency personnel are responding to the emergency, public safety officials will communicate the hazard to the community via all available and appropriate means.

If you receive an official emergency communication notifying you of a hazardous situation where you must take immediate action to protect yourself, stay as calm as possible and follow these procedures. Only you will be able to determine the safest course of action that should be taken.

Bomb Threat Procedures and Checklist – DHS

BOMB THREAT PROCEDURES

This quick reference checklist is designed to help employees and decision makers of commercial facilities, schools, etc. respond to a bomb threat in an orderly and controlled manner with the first responders and other stakeholders.

Most bomb threats are received by phone. Bomb threats are serious until proven otherwise. Act quickly, but remain calm and obtain information with the checklist on the reverse of this card.

If a bomb threat is received by phone:

1. Remain calm. Keep the caller on the line for as long as possible. DO NOT HANG UP, even if the caller does.
2. Listen carefully. Be polite and show interest.
3. Try to keep the caller talking to learn more information.
4. If possible, write a note to a colleague to call the authorities or, as soon as the caller hangs up, immediately notify them yourself.
5. If your phone has a display, copy the number and/or letters on the window display.
6. Complete the Bomb Threat Checklist immediately. Write down as much detail as you can remember. Try to get exact words.
7. Immediately upon termination of call, DO NOT HANG UP, but from a different phone, contact authorities immediately with information and await instructions.

If a bomb threat is received by handwritten note:

- Call _____
- Handle note as minimally as possible.

If a bomb threat is received by e-mail:

- Call _____
- Do not delete the message.

Signs of a suspicious package:

- No return address
- Excessive postage
- Stains

Cyber Threat or Attack

Purpose

Understanding the risks and motivations behind cyber threats or attacks is crucial in establishing and implementing this Cyber Threat or Attack annex. Technology continues to improve and develop at an amazing pace and with that advancement comes the challenges of protecting what we collect and manage using that technology.

Common criminals as well as hostile foreign actors have a couple of primary motivations when it comes to attacking your organization's cyber space. Both money and operational disruption are at the top of that list. For some hackers, they thrive on finding ways to access your information and then sell it, or threaten to disclose it asking for a "ransom," while freezing up your means of storing, accessing, or distributing information.

This annex will focus on the incident management perspective and address what to do before, during, and after an incident, following current best practices. These practices fall under the general category of cyber security.

Situation and Assumptions

Think of the cyber world as you would your own facilities. You provide appropriate fencing to ensure the security of those within its boundaries. The more access points you provide the more difficult it becomes to keep that site secure and safe. The cyber world is really the same way. Years ago we may have had only a handful of access points to our local area network. As technology improved, we added access. As we added access we provided more entry points for those who would seek our harm.

We are making some basic assumptions about systems and practices we should have in place:

- Installed and using modern firewall and antivirus software
- Conducting regular antivirus scanning
- Configured firewalls to prevent ransomware
- Keeping operating systems patches up-to-date
- Completing critical patching as expeditiously as possible
- Conducting employee cyber security awareness training including current best practices
- Keeping individual sites segregated
- Keeping user groups segregated (staff and student users segregated)
- Keeping privilege access management limited
- Using multi-factor authentication
- Implemented and using strong password policy
- Using off-site back up
- Providing email filtering to prevent spam reaching employees

Organization and Assignment of Responsibilities

Our IT department will have leadership over all aspects of our technology equipment and network spaces. They are the core of our Cyber Security Incident Response Team.

It is the responsibility of our Information Technology (IT) professionals to maintain a safe and secure cyber space. However, it is every network user's responsibility to follow best practices introduced by our IT professionals.

Glossary of Terms

Cyber Security Incident Response Team (CSIRT)

A group of experts that assesses, documents and responds to a cyber incident so that a network can not only recover quickly, but also avoid future incidents.

Denial-of-service attack

A denial-of-service attack floods systems, servers, or networks with traffic to exhaust resources and bandwidth. As a result, the system is unable to fulfill legitimate requests. Attackers can also use multiple compromised devices to launch this attack. This is known as a distributed-denial-of-service (DDoS) attack.

DNS Tunneling

DNS tunneling utilizes the DNS protocol to communicate non-DNS traffic over port 53. It sends HTTP and other protocol traffic over DNS. There are various, legitimate reasons to utilize DNS tunneling. However, there are also malicious reasons to use DNS Tunneling VPN services. They can be used to disguise outbound traffic as DNS, concealing data that is typically shared through an internet connection. For malicious use, DNS requests are manipulated to exfiltrate data from a compromised system to the attacker's infrastructure. It can also be used for command and control callbacks from the attacker's infrastructure to a compromised system.

Malware

Malware is a term used to describe malicious software, including spyware, ransomware, viruses, and worms. Malware breaches a network through a vulnerability, typically when a user clicks a dangerous link or email attachment that then installs risky software. Once inside the system, malware can do the following:

- Blocks access to key components of the network (ransomware)
- Installs malware or additional harmful software
- Covertly obtains information by transmitting data from the hard drive (spyware)
- Disrupts certain components and renders the system inoperable

Man-in-the-middle attack

Man-in-the-middle (MitM) attacks, also known as eavesdropping attacks, occur when attackers insert themselves into a two-party transaction. Once the attackers interrupt the traffic, they can filter and steal data.

Two common points of entry for MitM attacks:

- On unsecure public Wi-Fi, attackers can insert themselves between a visitor's device and the network. Without knowing, the visitor passes all information through the attacker.
- Once malware has breached a device, an attacker can install software to process all of the victim's information.

Phishing

Phishing is the practice of sending fraudulent communications that appear to come from a reputable source, usually through email. The goal is to steal sensitive data like credit card and login information or to install malware on the victim's machine. Phishing is an increasingly common cyberthreat.

SQL injection

A Structured Query Language (SQL) injection occurs when an attacker inserts malicious code into a server that uses SQL and forces the server to reveal information it normally would not. An attacker could carry out a SQL injection simply by submitting malicious code into a vulnerable website search box. Learn how to defend against SQL injection attacks.

Zero-day exploit

A zero-day exploit hits after a network vulnerability is announced but before a patch or solution is implemented. Attackers target the disclosed vulnerability during this window of time. Zero-day vulnerability threat detection requires constant awareness.

Incident Command Actions

Maintaining a best-practices approach to cyber security requires us to keep up to date on current trends and threats in the cyber world. Most of what we know comes from internet service providers who share this information to help us be better prepared.

Our cybersecurity response process recommendations by the SANS Institute, as defined in its Incident Handler's Handbook.

Before

Preparation

- Define, develop, and implement an Information Security policy and procedures that addresses current and possible future risks to cyber information handing and protection
- Conduct regular and periodic training for our staff to ensure they have the tools they need to preserve our cyber security. This may include hands-on virtual or email tests and scenarios designed to reinforce safe cyber practices and protect our digital/cyber foot print.
- Perform regular security assessments and intrusion testing
- Provide a trained staff Cybersecurity Incident Response Team (CSIRT)

During

Identification

- Monitor IT systems and detect deviations from normal operations and see if they represent actual security incidents
- Establish type and severity
- Log actions and responses
- Collect evidence

Containment

- Isolate impacted system(s)
- Implement temporary workarounds to maintain operations

Eradication

- Identify the root cause
- Remove malicious software from all affected systems
- Take action to prevent root cause from recurring

Caution

Earthquake

Duck, Cover, and Hold

This action is used to protect students and staff from flying or falling debris. Upon the first indication of an earthquake, staff should direct students to Duck, Cover, and Hold.

The Incident Commander will make the following announcement on the PA System:

"ATTENTION PLEASE. DUCK, COVER AND HOLD. DUCK, COVER, AND HOLD. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION TO FOLLOW."

Note: If the PA system is not available, use other means of communication, i.e. send messengers to deliver instructions, email, etc.

Description of Action

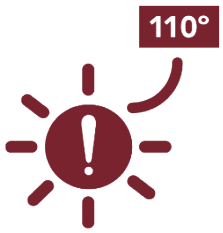
If inside

Drop to knees
Get under desk and remain facing away from windows
Clasp both hands behind neck
Bury face in arms
Make body as small as possible
Close eyes and cover ears with forearms.

If outside

Drop to knees
Clasp both hands behind neck
Bury face in arms
Make body as small as possible
Close eyes and cover ears with forearms.
Avoid glass and falling objects

Procedures



Avoid glass and falling objects. Move away from windows, heavy suspended light fixtures, and other overhead hazards.
When the shaking stops, the Incident Commander will issue the All Clear Response
Use prescribed routes and proceed directly to the Assembly Area. Teachers shall notify the Student Attendance/Release Team of missing students.
The Incident Commander to direct the Security Team to post guards a safe distance away from building entrances to prevent access.
Warn all personnel to avoid touching fallen electrical wires.
First Aid Team will check for injuries and provide appropriate first aid.
The Incident Commander will direct the Facility Team to turn off water, gas, and electrical and to alert appropriate utility company of damages, if appropriate.
If the area appears safe, the Search and Rescue team will be cleared by the Incident Commander to make an initial inspection of the District's buildings, if needed.
The Incident Commander will contact the Superintendent to determine if additional actions are deemed necessary.

During Non-Operating Hours

The Incident Commander and Identified Maintenance/Facilities Personnel will assess damages to determine needed corrective actions. For apparent damages, contact the Superintendent to determine if the District should be closed. If the District must be closed, notify staff and students as identified in District Closure Response Procedure.

Extreme Heat and Unhealthy Air Quality

Purpose

The purpose of this annex is to ensure that staff is advised of hazardous conditions caused by extreme heat conditions and/or unhealthy air quality and to minimize exposure to those conditions. Governmental agencies, such as the Air Quality Management District (AQMD), the National Weather Service (NWS-NOAA), the Center for Disease Control (CDC) and others provide guidance in how to respond to unhealthful air quality and extreme heat conditions.

Actions

The Incident Commander monitors air quality and heat conditions to provide recommended actions during an unhealthful air quality or extreme heat event. The Incident Commander will keep the Senior Executive or designee informed of these conditions and activate this annex. Upon activation, site administrators will perform the following:

Notify students and staff when unhealthful air quality or extreme heat conditions exist.
Modify District programs and work assignments for the protection of students and staff.
Adhere to the Unhealthful Air Quality and Extreme Heat Plan to correspond with current recommendations of both the AQMD and the NWS.
Cooperate with other governmental agencies and with the total community in matters of critical concern regarding unhealthful air quality and extreme heat.

District Activities and What To Do During Extreme Heat Conditions.

The National Weather Service (NOAA) provides information on responding to extreme heat conditions. The Incident Commander monitors temperature and humidity in the District and the National Weather Service website to ensure that our District sites are notified upon attainment of an extreme heat condition.
Always provide adequate amounts of water to students and staff to maintain appropriate hydration, use areas shaded from the direct sunlight, and:
When the Heat Index reaches the range of 90 to 105 degrees Fahrenheit, sunstroke, heat cramps, and heat exhaustion are possible. Everyone shall minimize prolonged, vigorous outdoor activity.
When the Heat Index reaches the range of 105 to 130 degrees Fahrenheit, sunstroke and heat exhaustion are likely and heat stroke is possible. Everyone shall discontinue prolonged, vigorous outdoor activity.
When the Heat Index reaches or exceeds 130 degrees Fahrenheit, heat stroke is highly likely with continued exposure. Everyone shall discontinue all vigorous outdoor activity.

Fire - Structural

The following procedure addresses the necessary actions that should be taken if a fire is discovered in or on the District's facilities. A timely response to this situation is critical to prevent injuries and further property damage.

Procedure

NOTE – There are cases during Active Assailant incidents where the assailant may trigger the fire alarm. This is done as a means to induce students and staff to evacuate which may provide the assailant with more "targets." Modified responses to a fire alarm should be discussed with your local fire and law enforcement jurisdictions to coordinate best practices for your district.
If a fire is discovered on site, the administrative staff will immediately signal the fire alarm and direct students out of the building.
The Incident Commander will call 911 and provide the location and nature of the incident
The Incident Commander will immediately initiate the Off-Site Evacuation Procedures
Staff and students will evacuate buildings using pre-designated routes or other safe routes and convene at the Assembly Area
Site staff members must bring their student rosters and take attendance at the Assembly Area to account for all students
Staff will notify the Incident Commander of any missing students
If safe to do so, staff will use fire extinguishers to suppress the fire until the local fire department arrives
All fires, regardless of size, which are extinguished by site personnel, require a call to the responding Fire Department to indicate "the fire is out"
The Incident Commander will secure the area to prevent unauthorized entry and keep access roads clear for emergency vehicles
The Incident Commander will notify the Senior Executive of the fire. The Senior Executive should work with the Public Information Officer
Outreach and Communication to disseminate information
In the event that students need to be released from the school site, refer to the Reunification Annex for reunification procedures
If necessary, the Incident Commander will notify appropriate Transportation official to request transportation for student and staff evacuation.

Any affected areas will not be reopened until the Fire Department or the appropriate agency provides clearance and the Incident Commander issues authorization to do so. For fires during non-school hours, the Incident Commander and the Senior Executive will determine if the school site will open the following day.

Fire - Forest, Wildfire, or Urban Interface

General

Fires can happen in almost any place, at any time, in almost any condition or circumstance as long as there is fuel, oxygen, and heat. While District's are required to have regularly scheduled fire drills by California law it is easy to overlook the risks associated with poor housekeeping, excessive and dried wildland shrubs and trees close to the District sites and many other factors. The damage caused by fire is real and serious, but the potential hazard of smoke can sometimes be even worse.

Fire in Surrounding Area

The following procedure addresses actions that should be taken in the event that a fire is discovered in an area nearby District grounds. The initiated response actions should take into consideration the location and size of the fire, its proximity to the District site, and the likelihood that the fire may affect the District.

Incident Command Actions

Before

Review and update the "Recovery" Annex located in your Functional Annex following current State and Federal "Best Practices" guidelines
Locate and participate in CSTI's course, "Recovery From Disasters: The Local Community Role (G-205)
Identify and include your "whole community" in strengthening your Pre-Disaster Recovery framework

During

Call 911 if you see a fire or flames.
Activate and follow your Emergency Operations Plan.
Use your internal Emergency Management Alert System to communicate with staff, students and parents.
Always follow instructions from your local emergency agencies (Fire and Law Enforcement).
If trapped, call 911 and give your location, but be aware that emergency response could be delayed or impossible. Turn of HVAC and natural gas. Turn on lights to help rescuers find you if you have power. Fill sinks and tubs with water and keep windows and doors unlocked.
Ensure you have a representative designated to be in contact with Cal OES (may be specific to your region) and your local EOC
You might consider predesignating a representative to be an active member of the Recovery task force.
If your site is a designated shelter or evacuation point, follow the instructions of the organization or agency that is managing the site (ie: American Red Cross).
Follow the Cal/OSHA Protection from Wildfire Smoke regulation, Title 8, Section 5141.1 for use of N95 respirators. https://www.dir.ca.gov/title8/5141_1.html. and you can find resources on wildfire smoke safety in this Cal/OSHA link. https://www.dir.ca.gov/dosh/Worker-Health-and-Safety-in-Wildfire-Regions.html
Monitor the Air Quality Index (AQI) at www.airnow.gov and enter the zip code of the location where you will be working. The current AQI is also available from the U.S. Forest Service at https://tools.airfire.org/ or a local air district, which can be located at www.arb.ca.gov/capcoa/dismap.htm
Listen to EAS, NOAA Weather Radio, or local alerting systems for current emergency information and instructions.

If you are not ordered to evacuate but smoky conditions exist, stay inside in a safe location or go to a location where smoke levels are lower, if possible.
Avoid vigorous activities outdoors and if travelling in a vehicle in the areas affected, close windows and make sure air is on "re-circulate" mode.

After

Continue to follow your EOP Recovery Annex
Listen to authorities to find out when it is safe to return and whether water is safe to drink.
Avoid hot ash, charred trees, smoldering debris, and live embers. The ground may contain heat pockets that can burn you or spark another fire. Consider the danger to pets and livestock.
Avoid downed power lines.
Send text messages or use social media to reach out to family and friends. Phone systems are often busy following a disaster. Make calls only in emergencies.
For those that are part of the damage assessment team, ensure training on personal protective equipment (PPE) use is conducted.
Continue to monitor the Air Quality Index (AQI) at www.airnow.gov and enter the zip code of the location where you will be working. The current AQI is also available from the U.S. Forest Service at https://tools.airfire.org/ or a local air district, which can be located at www.arb.ca.gov/capcoa/dismap.htm
Contact your insurance company/insurance pool/JPA for assistance.
Document everything you do related to the fire. For more details on this process, refer to the IMReady FEMA document.
Wildfires dramatically change landscape and ground conditions, which can lead to increased risk of flooding due to heavy rains, flash flooding and mudflows. Flood risk remains significantly higher until vegetation is restored — up to 5 years after a wildfire.
Be prepared to provide emotional and wellbeing services and resources for students and staff. Mental and physical fatigue are common in these situations .
https://www.cdc.gov/disasters/wildfires/afterfire.html and https://emergency.cdc.gov/coping/index.asp and www.NCTSN.org.

Any responsible person who observes a fire in the area outside of the District should immediately call 911 and notify the Incident Commander
The Incident Commander will initiate the appropriate Immediate Response Actions, which may include Shelter-in-Place, On-Site Evacuation, or Off-Site Evacuation
The Incident Commander will call 911 (to verify – good redundancy) and provide the location and nature of the incident
The Incident Commander will act to prevent students from approaching the fire and keep routes open for emergency vehicles
The Incident Commander will work with responding emergency personnel to determine if District grounds are threatened by the fire, smoke, or other hazardous conditions
If the Incident Commander issues the On-Site Evacuation procedure, staff and students will evacuate the affected building(s) using pre-designated routes or other safe routes and convene at the Assembly Area
All District staff members must bring their student rosters and take attendance at the Assembly Area to account for all students. Staff will notify the Incident Commander of any missing students
The Incident Commander should monitor local radio stations for emergency information.
The Incident Commander will notify the Senior Executive of the emergency situation
The office of the Senior Executive should work with the Office of Public Information and Communication to disseminate information
If necessary, the Incident Commander will notify the appropriate Transportation official to request transportation for staff and student evacuation
The Incident Commander will initiate Off-Site Evacuation procedures, as described in the Evacuation Annex, if warranted by changes in conditions
• In the event that students need to be released from the District site, refer to the Reunification Annex for reunification procedures

Infectious Disease

Purpose

The purpose of the Infectious Disease annex is to help equip our organization to be ready for the unexpected – before, during, and after an infectious disease outbreak. This annex does note replace the required Injury and Illness Prevention Program (IIPP) or other health and safety orders relevant to California Occupational Safety and Health Administration (Cal OSHA) or California Department of Public Health (CDPH)requirements.

Following are two current and specific requirements:

- COVID-19 Safety Plan (CSP) – The CSP is outlined in the CDPH Guidance and Framework for K-12 schools dated January 14, 2021
- The COVID-19 Prevention Plan (CPP) – The CPP is a requirement of the Cal/OSHA COVID -19 Prevention emergency temporary standard.

Infectious diseases occur, often with little or no warning. Essentials that need to be considered include the following:
EOPs may have to be activated with community partners if there is an infectious disease outbreak;
Rapid evolution and dissemination of information about an infectious disease incident will likely require activation of the Communication Annex;
Extensive absences may cause normal operations to close for days or weeks, calling for the activation of the Continuity of Operations (COOP) Annex;
Depending on the disease, there may potentially be some deaths in the community; and,
If handled poorly, community trust in our organization is likely to be shaken.

Disease Sources

Infectious diseases are illnesses that are transmitted from one person to another through various routes. These infectious diseases can be viral, bacterial, or fungal. Some of the more common infectious diseases that may affect us are:
Gastroenteritis; norovirus; influenza; chicken pox; and hand, foot, and mouth, which are all caused by a viral infection, Bacterial infections that can cause E. Coli, MRSA, and strep throat, and Fungal infections, like ringworm.

Influenza, one of the most common infectious diseases, is a highly contagious viral disease. Pandemic influenza differs from both seasonal influenza (flu) and avian influenza in the following aspects:
It is a rare global outbreak which can affect populations around the world.
It is caused by a new influenza virus to which people do not have immunity
Depending upon the specific virus, it can cause more severe illness than regular flu
Influenza can affect young healthy people more so than older, sick people. The Department of Health and Human Services will take the lead in mobilizing a local response to pandemic influenza. Public health alerts will be reported to our organization and the community. Individual rooms, hallways or, if necessary, entire sites may be closed temporarily to contain spread of the virus.

While influenza is the most common infectious disease there are others that can greatly affect our operations, including reduction in work force size to levels that make it difficult to fulfill organizational or operational mission objectives. The “Historical Information” section of this annex identifies some of the major infectious diseases that have affected us in the near past.

Rate of Spread

Infectious diseases may be categorized according to the rate at which they infect the population. The U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) categorizes the rate at which diseases are spread as a continuum from smallest to largest: case, outbreak, epidemic, and pandemic.

Case
A case is defined as an individual with the disease.

Outbreak
An outbreak is defined as a localized, as opposed to a generalized, epidemic. This term is also used synonymously with epidemic, and is sometimes the preferred word, as it may prevent sensationalism associated with the word epidemic.

Epidemic
An epidemic is defined as the occurrence of more cases of disease than expected in a given area or among a specific group of people over a period.

Pandemic
A pandemic is defined as an epidemic occurring over a very wide area (several countries or continents) and usually affecting a large proportion of the population.

Situation and Assumptions
The World Health Organization (WHO) provides an influenza pandemic alert system, with a scale ranging from Phase 1 (a low risk of a flu pandemic) to Phase 6 (a full-blown pandemic). See Figure 1, below.
Phase 1: A virus in animals has caused no known infections in humans.
Phase 2: An animal flu virus has caused infection in humans.
Phase 3: Sporadic cases or small clusters of disease occur in humans. Human-to-human transmission, if any, is insufficient to cause community-level outbreaks.
Phase 4: The risk for a pandemic is greatly increased but not certain.
Phase 5: Spread of disease between humans is occurring in more than one country of one WHO region.
Phase 6: Community-level outbreaks are in at least one additional country in a different WHO region from phase 5. A global pandemic is under way.

Concept of Operations

We monitor the following levels of activation for our EOP and Emergency Operations Center:

Level 3 (lowest level):

This level implies that, with modest augmentation, the lead agency or program can address the primary needs of the response. In the United States, many small natural disasters or environmental responses fall into this activation level.

Level 2 (intermediate level):

This level implies substantial augmentation is required for the lead agency or program to meet response requirements.

Level 1 (highest level):

This level requires an agency wide response and often includes domestic and international partners. As an example, there have been five Level 1 activations since 2005: Hurricane Katrina (2005), influenza A (H1N1) pandemic (2009–10), Ebola virus disease outbreak (2014–2016), Zika virus outbreak (2016–2017), and Coronavirus Disease 2019 (2019-202?).

Continuity of Operations (Annex Specific)

Important Notice

Occupational Health and Safety standards impose additional requirements on employers to protect employees from airborne infectious diseases like COVID-19 and pathogens transmitted by aerosols. Under section 3203 of California's general industry safety regulations, employers must establish, implement, and maintain an effective Injury and Illness Prevention Program (IIPP) to protect employees from workplace hazards. Employers are required to determine if the infectious disease is a hazard in their workplace. If it is a workplace hazard, then employers must implement infection control measures, including applicable and relevant recommendations from federal, state and local guidelines. It is the employer's responsibility to maintain a current and relevant IIPP.

All staff are to be informed regarding protective actions and/or modifications related to this plan. Messaging and risk communications during an emerging infectious disease or pandemic will be conducted by our Emergency Operations Center. Guidance and instructions on established infection control measures such as social distancing, personnel protective equipment and telework polices are provided by our Emergency Operations Center to assist in limiting the spread of influenza at the primary and alternate worksites.

Within the workplace, social distancing measures could take the form of:

Modifying the frequency and type of face-to-face employee encounters (e.g., placing moratoriums on hand-shaking, substituting teleconferences for face-to-face meetings, staggering breaks, posting infection control guidelines);
Establishing flexible work hours or worksite, (e.g., telecommuting);
Promoting social distancing between employees and those with whom they interact to maintain six-feet spatial separation between individuals; and
Implementing strategies that request and enable employees with influenza to stay home at the first sign of symptoms.

Frequent, daily contact is important to keep our employees informed about developments in our response, impacts on the workforce, and to reassure employees that we are continuing to function as usual.
When necessary, our planners and pandemic response teams will include deliberate methods to measure, monitor, and adjust actions to changing conditions and improved protection strategies.

Implement a formal worker and workplace protection strategy with metrics for assessing worker conformance and workplace cleanliness.
Monitor and periodically test protection methods.
Track and implement changes in approved or recommended protection measures.
Pre-position material and equipment onsite.
Ensure essential personnel are at the primary worksite.
Reaffirm that essential suppliers have their material and personnel on-hand and can respond, and support as planned.
Coordinate with local public health and emergency response points of contact to ensure open, adequate communications.

Organization and Assignment of Responsibilities

We utilize the Standardized Emergency Management System (SEMS) which incorporates the Incident Command System (ICS) as the method of managing a crisis or event until operations return to “normal.” This includes activation, when necessary, of incident command posts and the activation of our EOC.

Plan Development

During the health crisis it is vital that we capture lessons learned and alternative practices to our operations as they occur
Maintain a central depository for this information to use it following the crisis to update this annex and our EOP in general
It is our intent to review our EOP and annexes at least annually and update as necessary to maintain a best-practices EOP
We will share this annex periodically with our Health partners to ensure it has captured the most current trends and practices

Authorities and References

In the United States, the responsibility for public health rests primarily with city or county and state public health agencies. All states and many large counties and cities have their own public health departments. Although many public health investigations are conducted with local resources, a city, county, or state health department can request field epidemiologic or laboratory assistance from the next higher-level public health agency in response to a large or complex outbreak or problem that requires additional staff, expertise, or other resources.

In the United States, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) is the highest-level public health agency. Federal prisons, military bases, and tribal reservations have their own independent health systems but also can request assistance from CDC. Globally, countries can request assistance for field investigations from the World Health Organization, which coordinates with its members for needed resources. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (cdc.gov) contains the most current and relevant information on specific exposures and the appropriate practices and protocols.

Incident Command Actions

Before

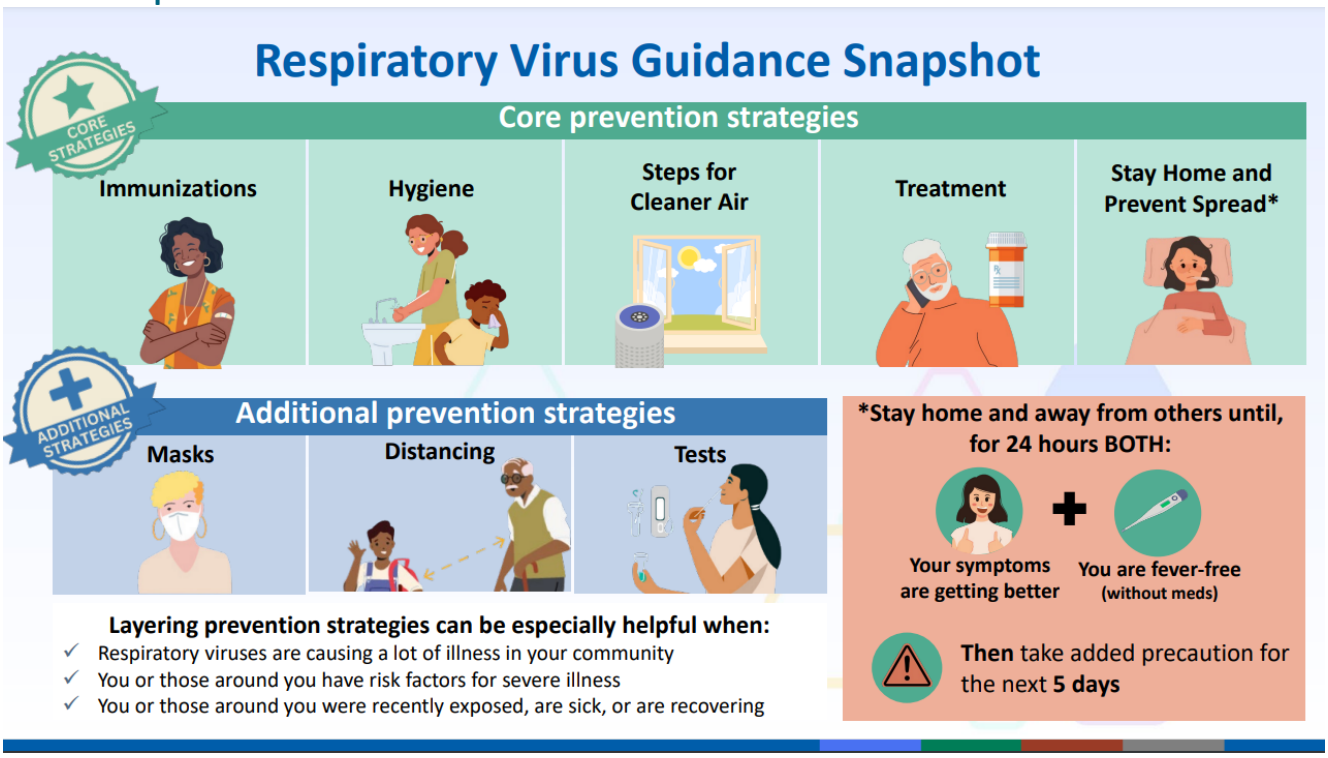
One of the best things to do prior to an infectious disease incident is to identify, collect, and maintain current and relevant contact information of organizations and agencies that will be important to our ongoing operations. These should include local, state, and federal public health jurisdictions such as:
Your local health department contact
(Searchable database https://www.naccho.org/membership/lhd-directory)
California Department of Public Health – https://www.cdph.ca.gov/
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) - https://www.cdc.gov/

Building and maintaining relationships with local health officials cannot be over emphasized. This effort before an infectious disease outbreak will prove invaluable as we seek support and guidance in maintaining, shutting down, and resuming operations.

In addition to this practice it is important to identify and document operational norms and standards that you maintain on an ongoing basis. These records will greatly help you resume operations following a major infectious disease event.

During

We activate our Emergency Operations Plan at a level sufficient to stay ahead of issues as much as possible including the activation of:
Communication annex
Continuity of Operations Plan (COOP) annex



Additional actions include:
Maintain contact with our local Health Department and coordinate our actions based upon their recommendations
Collect preventive informational flyers and documents and disseminate to staff and/or students, as relevant
Activate heightened surveillance of illness within our sites. Gather data on symptoms of all students and/or staff who are sick at home.
Insure those who are ill stay home
Send the sick home immediately
Provide fact sheets and guidelines for families to make them aware of symptoms and remind them of respiratory hygiene etiquette
Monitor bulletins and alerts from the Department of Health and Human Services
Keep staff and students informed of developing issues
Assist the Department of Health and Human Services in monitoring outbreaks
Respond to media inquiries regarding organization attendance status
Implement telework procedures, if necessary, so that staff can stay home

Maintain surveillance after the initial epidemic in the event a second wave passes through the community

After

As with any major crisis or incident the major goal of our institution is to get things back to “normal.” This means restoration of our primary operations back to pre-incident or event levels. This is most effectively accomplished when there are accurate and well-maintained records and practices in place that help us on this recovery journey. Following are key concepts and actions that should be considered in getting back to “normal.”

COVID-19 Specific Guidance

Power and Utility Failure

Extended power outages may impact the whole community and the economy. A power outage is when the electrical power goes out unexpectedly. A power outage may:
Disrupt communications, water, and transportation
Close retail businesses, grocery stores, gas stations, ATMs, banks, and other services
Cause food spoilage and water contamination
Prevent use of medical devices

Protect Students And Staff During A Power Outage

Keep freezers and refrigerators closed
Only use generators outdoors and away from windows or air intakes
Do not use gas appliances for heating
Disconnect appliances and electronics to avoid damage from electrical surges
Have alternate plans for refrigerating medicines or using power-dependent medical devices
If safe, go to an alternate location for heat or cooling

Electrical Systems

The M&O Department should identify the location of all electrical main and subpanels throughout the site
Use a clean and clear site map of each site and label the map “Electrical Systems Field Operations Guide” (known as the Electrical Systems FOG)
Indicate the locations of the main electrical shut-off and each sub-panel main shut-off in the Electrical Systems FOG
Include a photo of each panel and label the photos corresponding to the panel numbers
If panels do not have a numeric identifier, consider adding that at all panel locations
Label the site main and subpanel main shut-off for each panel so as to minimize confusion
Laminate or plastic-protect the Electrical Systems FOG and provide to designated and trained employee(s) who will be responsible for emergency shutdown and restoration following an electrical failure

Backup Supplies and Other Resources

Identify all of the items needed that rely on electricity
Identify and have emergency plans for students or staff relying upon medical devices powered by electricity and refrigerated medicines
Find out how long medication can be stored at higher temperatures and get specific guidance for any medications that are critical for life
Plan for batteries and other alternatives to meet our needs when the power goes out
Sign up for local alerts and warning systems. Monitor weather reports
Ensure that any carbon monoxide detectors are in working order and that battery backups are available
Determine whether the phone system will work in a power outage and how long battery backup will last
Review the supplies that are available in case of a power outage
Have flashlights with extra batteries available for individual rooms or offices without exterior light sources
Maintain an inventory of nonperishable food and water
Regularly check the thermometer in the refrigerator and freezer so that we can know the temperature when the power is restored. Throw out food if the temperature is 40 degrees or higher
Keep mobile phones and other electric equipment charged and gas tanks full

Survive During

When power goes out, a trained and responsible employee should:
Keep freezers and refrigerators closed. The refrigerator will keep food cold for about four hours. A full freezer will keep the temperature for about 48 hours. Use coolers with ice if necessary. Monitor temperatures with a thermometer.
Maintain food supplies that do not require refrigeration
Avoid carbon monoxide poisoning. Generators and any fuel or gas-powered devices should always be used outdoors and at least 20 feet away from windows
Turn off or disconnect all appliances, equipment, or electronics. Power may return with momentary “surges” or “spikes” that can cause damage

Power Restoration

When in doubt, throw it out! Throw away any food that has been exposed to temperatures 40 degrees or higher for two hours or more, or that has an unusual odor, color, or texture
If the power is out for more than a day, discard any medication that should be refrigerated, unless the drug’s label says otherwise. If a life depends on the refrigerated drugs, consult a doctor or pharmacist and use medicine only until a new supply is available

Purpose

The State of California is vulnerable to a variety of severe weather hazards. This incident annex addresses the hazards associated with severe weather. When severe weather occurs, the impacts can be devastating and may affect isolated locations or multiple jurisdictions simultaneously.

When the impacts exceed the capabilities of local jurisdictions, the State must respond in a prompt, organized, and efficient manner to save lives, mitigate property damage, and restore a sense of normalcy to the community. This response is coordinated through the Governor's Office of Emergency Services (OES) in concert with local, state, Federal, volunteer, and private sector partners.

Situation and Assumptions

El Niño

During El Niño, trade winds weaken. Warm water is pushed back east, toward the west coast of the Americas. El Niño means Little Boy in Spanish. South American fishermen first noticed periods of unusually warm water in the Pacific Ocean in the 1600s. The full name they used was El Niño de Navidad because El Niño typically peaks around December.

El Niño can affect our weather significantly. The warmer waters cause the Pacific jet stream to move south of its neutral position. With this shift, areas in the northern U.S. and Canada are dryer and warmer than usual. But in the U.S. Gulf Coast and Southeast, these periods are wetter than usual and have increased flooding.

Hail

Hail is considered severe when it reaches 1 inch in diameter. Hail can reach sizes much larger than the severe threshold size. Hail causes close to $1 billion in damage to property and crops each year in the U.S. While property is typically at greatest risk for hail damage, the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) estimate that 24 people are injured from hail each year.

Thunderstorms

The National Weather Service (NWS) defines a severe thunderstorm as any storm that produces one or more of the following: a tornado, damaging wind speeds of 58 mph (50 knots) or greater, and/or hail 1 inch in diameter or larger.

Continuity of Operations (Annex Specific)

The goal of emergency management is to restore operations of any organization back to its primary purpose, or "normal." In some cases, restoration of operations may have to be a new normal.

Organization and Assignment of Responsibilities

This organization follows SEMS/NIMS requirements, specifically incorporating the Incident Command System into emergency and incident operations.

Plan Development

This annex was selected for inclusion in this Emergency Operations Plan (EOP) following best practices Hazard/Threat Analysis and is reviewed annually for currency and applicability.
Severe weather-related hazards can occur at any time throughout the year

Local jurisdictions adversely affected by severe weather may declare local State of Emergency upon being affected
Local jurisdictions adversely affected by severe weather may use mutual aid agreements as part of their response to the disaster
Local jurisdictions affected by severe weather may request resources from the State as the situation evolves

The Superintendent or designee may provide a student who is a victim of abuse with school-based mental health services or other support services and/or may refer the student to resources available within the community as needed.

Child Abuse Prevention

The district's instructional program may provide age-appropriate and culturally sensitive child abuse prevention curriculum which explains students' right to live free of abuse, includes instruction in the skills and techniques needed to identify unsafe situations and react appropriately and promptly, informs students of available support resources, and teaches students how to obtain help and disclose incidents of abuse.

The district's program also may include age-appropriate instruction in sexual abuse and sexual assault awareness and prevention. Upon written request of a student's parent/guardian, the student shall be excused from taking such instruction. (Education Code 51900.6)

The Superintendent or designee may display posters, in areas on campus where students frequently congregate, notifying students of the appropriate telephone number to call to report child abuse or neglect. (Education Code 33133.5)

In addition, student identification cards for students in grades 7-12 shall include the National Domestic Violence Hotline telephone number. (Education Code 215.5)

The Superintendent or designee shall, to the extent feasible, seek to incorporate community resources into the district's child abuse prevention programs and may use these resources to provide parents/guardians with instruction in parenting skills and child abuse prevention.

Child Abuse Reporting

The Superintendent or designee shall establish procedures for the identification and reporting of known and suspected child abuse and neglect in accordance with law.

Procedures for reporting child abuse, as specified in Penal Code 11164-11174.3, shall be included in the district and/or school comprehensive safety plan. (Education Code 32282)

District employees who are mandated reporters, as defined by law and administrative regulation, are obligated to report all known or suspected incidents of child abuse and neglect.

The Superintendent or designee shall provide training regarding the duties of mandated reporters as required by law and as specified in the accompanying administrative regulation. (Education Code 44691; Penal Code 11165.7)

The information that gave rise to the reasonable suspicion of child abuse or neglect and the source(s) of that information
The mandated reporter shall make a report even if some of this information is not known or is uncertain to the mandated reporter. (Penal Code 11167)

The mandated reporter may give to an investigator from an agency investigating the case, including a licensing agency, any information relevant to an incident of child abuse or neglect or to a report made for serious emotional damage pursuant to Penal Code 11166.05. (Penal Code 11167)

3. Internal Reporting

The mandated reporter shall not be required to disclose the mandated reporter's identity to a supervisor, the principal, or the Superintendent or designee. (Penal Code 11166)

However, employees reporting child abuse or neglect to an appropriate agency are encouraged, but not required, to notify the principal as soon as possible after the initial telephone report to the appropriate agency. When so notified, the principal shall inform the Superintendent or designee.

The principal so notified shall provide the mandated reporter with any assistance necessary to ensure that reporting procedures are carried out in accordance with law, Board policy, and administrative regulation. At the mandated reporter's request, the principal may assist in completing and filing the necessary forms.

Reporting the information to an employer, supervisor, principal, school counselor, co-worker, or other person shall not be a substitute for making a mandated report to the appropriate agency. (Penal Code 11166)

Training

Within the first six weeks of each school year, or within the first six weeks of employment if hired during the school year, the Superintendent or designee shall provide training on mandated reporting requirements to district employees and persons working on their behalf who are mandated reporters. (Education Code 44691; Penal Code 11165.7)

The Superintendent or designee shall use the online training module provided by the California Department of Social Services (CDSS). (Education Code 44691)

The training shall include, but not necessarily be limited to, training in identification and reporting of child abuse and neglect. (Education Code 44691; Penal Code 11165.7)

In addition, the Superintendent or designee shall provide annual training on the prevention of abuse, including sexual abuse, of children on district property, by district staff, or in district-sponsored programs. (Education Code 44691)

Victim Interviews by Social Services

Whenever CDSS or another government agency is investigating suspected child abuse or neglect that occurred within the child's home or out-of-home care facility, the student may be interviewed by an agency representative during school hours, on school premises. The Superintendent or designee shall give the student the choice of being interviewed in private or in the presence of any adult school employee or volunteer aide selected by the student. (Penal Code 11174.3)

A staff member or volunteer aide selected by a child may decline to be present at the interview. If the selected person accepts, the principal or designee shall inform the person of the following requirements prior to the interview: (Penal Code 11174.3)
The purpose of the selected person's presence at the interview is to lend support to the child and enable the child to be as comfortable as possible

The selected person shall not participate in the interview

The selected person shall not discuss the facts or circumstances of the case with the child

The selected person is subject to the confidentiality requirements of the Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act, a violation of which is punishable as specified in Penal Code 11167.5
If a staff member agrees to be present, the interview shall be held at a time during school hours when it does not involve an expense to the school. (Penal Code 11174.3)

Release of Child to Peace Officer

When a child is released to a peace officer and taken into custody as a victim of suspected child abuse or neglect, the Superintendent or designee and/or principal shall not notify the parent/guardian, but rather shall provide the peace officer with the address and telephone number of the child's parent/guardian. (Education Code 48906)

Parent/Guardian Complaints

Upon request, the Superintendent or designee shall provide parents/guardians with procedures for reporting suspected child abuse occurring on district property to appropriate agencies. For parents/guardians whose primary language is not English, such procedures shall be in their primary language and, when communicating orally regarding those guidelines and/or procedures, an interpreter shall be provided.

To file a complaint against a district employee or other person suspected of child abuse or neglect on district property, parents/guardians may file a report by telephone, in person, or in writing with any appropriate agency identified above under "Reporting Procedures." If a parent/guardian makes a complaint about an employee to any other employee, the employee receiving the information shall notify the parent/guardian of procedures for filing a complaint with the appropriate agency. The employee shall also file a report when obligated to do so pursuant to Penal Code 11166 using the procedures described above for mandated reporters.

In addition, if the child is enrolled in special education, a separate complaint may be filed with the California Department of Education pursuant to 5 CCR 3200-3205.

Notifications

The Superintendent or designee shall provide to all new employees who are mandated reporters a statement that informs them of their status as mandated reporters, their reporting obligations under Penal Code 11166, and their confidentiality rights under Penal Code 11167. Additionally, the district shall provide these new employees with a copy of Penal Code 11165.7, 11166, and 11167. (Penal Code 11165.7, 11166.5)

The signed statement shall be retained by the Superintendent or designee. (Penal Code 11166.5)

Employees who work with dependent adults shall be notified of legal responsibilities and reporting procedures pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code 15630-15637.

The Superintendent or designee also shall notify all employees that:
A mandated reporter who reports a known or suspected instance of child abuse or neglect shall not be held civilly or criminally liable for making a report and this immunity shall apply even if the mandated reporter acquired the knowledge or reasonable suspicion of child abuse or neglect outside of the mandated reporter's professional capacity or outside the scope of employment (Penal Code 11172)

Any other person making a report shall not incur civil or criminal liability unless it can be proven that the person knowingly made a false report or made a report with reckless disregard of the truth or falsity of the report. (Penal Code 11172)

If a mandated reporter fails to timely report an incident of known or reasonably suspected child abuse or neglect, the mandated reporter may be guilty of a crime punishable by a fine and/or imprisonment (Penal Code 11166)
No employee shall be subject to any sanction by the district for making a report unless it can be shown that the employee knowingly made a false report or made a report with reckless disregard of the truth or falsity of the report. (Penal Code 11166, 11172)

The Governing Board is committed to providing a safe, supportive, and positive school environment which is conducive to student learning and achievement and desires to prepare students for responsible citizenship by fostering self-discipline and personal responsibility. The Board believes that high expectations for student behavior, use of effective school and classroom management strategies, provision of appropriate intervention and support, and parent/guardian involvement can minimize the need for disciplinary measures that exclude students from instruction as a means for correcting student misbehavior.

The Superintendent or designee shall develop effective, age-appropriate strategies for maintaining a positive school climate and responding appropriately to student misbehavior at district schools. The strategies shall focus on providing students with needed supports; communicating clear, appropriate, and consistent expectations and consequences for student conduct; and ensuring equity and continuous improvement in the implementation of district discipline policies and practices.

In addition, the Superintendent or designee's strategies for responding to student misconduct shall reflect the Board's preference for the use of positive interventions and alternative disciplinary measures over exclusionary discipline measures.

Disciplinary measures that may result in loss of instructional time or cause students to be disengaged from school, such as detention, suspension, and expulsion, shall be imposed only when required or permitted by law or when other means of correction have been documented to have failed. (Education Code 48900.5)

School personnel and volunteers shall not allow any disciplinary action taken against a student to result in the denial or delay of a school meal. (Education Code 49557.5)

A student shall not be denied recess unless the student's participation poses an immediate threat to the physical safety of the student or to the physical safety of one or more of the student's peers. If, due to such immediate threat, a student is denied recess, staff shall make all reasonable efforts to resolve the threat and minimize the student's exclusion from recess, to the greatest extent practicable. (Education Code 49056)

Seclusion and behavioral restraint are prohibited as a means of discipline and shall not be used to correct student behavior except as permitted pursuant to Education Code 49005.4 and in accordance with district regulations. (Education Code 49005.2)

The Superintendent or designee shall create a model discipline matrix that lists violations and the consequences for each as allowed by law.

The principal or designee at each school may develop disciplinary rules to meet the school's particular needs consistent with law, Board policy, and administrative regulations. The Board, at an open meeting, may review the approved school discipline rules for consistency with Board policy and state law. Site-level disciplinary rules shall be included in the district's comprehensive safety plan. (Education Code 32282, 35291.5)

At all times, the safety of students and staff, providing interventions and supports to students, as well as the maintenance of an orderly school environment, shall be priorities in determining appropriate discipline. When misconduct occurs, staff shall attempt to identify the causes of the student's behavior and implement appropriate support and/or discipline. When choosing between different disciplinary strategies, staff shall consider the effect of each option on the student's health, well-being, and opportunity to learn.

Staff shall enforce disciplinary rules fairly, consistently, and in accordance with the district's nondiscrimination policies.

The Superintendent or designee shall provide professional development as necessary to assist staff in developing the skills needed to effectively and equitably implement the disciplinary strategies adopted for district schools, including, but not limited to, knowledge of school and classroom management skills and their consistent application, effective accountability and positive intervention techniques, and the tools to form strong, cooperative relationships with parents/guardians.

District goals for improving school climate, based on suspension and expulsion rates, surveys of students, staff, and parents/guardians regarding their sense of school safety and connectedness to the school community, and other local measures, shall be included in the district's local control and accountability plan, as required by law.

At the beginning of each school year, the Superintendent or designee may report to the Board regarding disciplinary strategies used in district schools in the immediately preceding school year and their effect on student learning.

Site-Level Rules

Site-level rules shall be consistent with state law and Board policies and administrative regulations. In developing site-level disciplinary rules, the principal or designee shall solicit the participation, views, and advice of one representative selected by each of the following groups: (Education Code 35291.5)
Parents/guardians

Teachers

School administrators

School security personnel, if any

Students in grades seven through twelve
Annually, site-level discipline rules shall be reviewed and, if necessary, updated to align with any changes in state law, district discipline policies and regulations, and/or goals for school safety and climate as specified in the district's local control and accountability plan. A copy of the rules shall be filed with the Superintendent or designee for inclusion in the comprehensive safety plan.

School rules shall be communicated to students clearly and in an age-appropriate manner.

It shall be the duty of each employee of the school to enforce the school rules on student discipline. (Education Code 35291.5)

Disciplinary Strategies

To the extent possible, staff shall use disciplinary strategies that keep students in school and participating in the instructional program. Except when students' presence causes a danger to themselves or others or they commit a single act of a grave nature or an offense for which suspension or expulsion is required by law, suspension, supervised suspension, or expulsion shall be used only when other means of correction have failed to bring about proper conduct. Disciplinary strategies may include, but are not limited to:
Discussion or conference between school staff, the student, and the student's parents/guardians

Referral of the student to the school counselor or other school support service personnel for case management and counseling

Convening of a study team, guidance team, resource panel, or other intervention-related team to assess the behavior and develop and implement an individual plan to address the behavior in partnership with the student and the student's parents/guardians

When applicable, referral for a comprehensive psychosocial or psychoeducational assessment, including for purposes of creating an individualized education program (IEP) or a Section 504 plan

Enrollment in a program for teaching prosocial behavior or anger management

Participation in a restorative justice program

A positive behavior support approach with tiered interventions that occur during the school day on campus

Participation in a social and emotional learning program that teaches students the ability to understand and manage emotions, develop caring and concern for others, make responsible decisions, establish positive relationships, and handle challenging situations capably

Participation in a program that is sensitive to the traumas experienced by students, focuses on students' behavioral health needs, and addresses those needs in a proactive manner

After-school programs that address specific behavioral issues or expose students to positive activities and behaviors, including, but not limited to, those operated in collaboration with local parent and community groups

Detention after school hours as provided in the section below entitled "Detention After School"

Community service as provided in the section below entitled "Community Service"

In accordance with Board policy and administrative regulation, restriction or disqualification from participation in extracurricular activities

Reassignment to an alternative educational environment

Suspension and expulsion in accordance with law, Board policy, and administrative regulation
When, by law or district policy, other means of correction are required to be implemented before a student could be suspended or expelled, any other means of correction implemented shall be documented and retained in the student's records. (Education Code 48900.5)

When a student has been suspended, or other means of correction have been implemented against the student, for an incident of racist bullying, harassment, or intimidation, the principal or designee shall engage both the victim and perpetrator in a restorative justice practice suitable to the needs of the students. The principal or designee shall also require the perpetrator to engage in a culturally sensitive program that promotes racial justice and equity and combats racism and ignorance and shall regularly check on the victim to ensure that the victim is not in danger of suffering from any long-lasting mental health issues. (Education Code 48900.5)

Staff shall enforce disciplinary rules fairly, consistently, and in accordance with the district's nondiscrimination policies.

When disciplining a student who has been identified for special education and related services, the procedures specified in Administrative Regulation 5144.2 - Suspension And Expulsion/Due Process (Students With Disabilities) shall be applied. If a student has not been identified as a student with a disability and the district suspects the behavior that resulted in discipline may be based in an unidentified disability, the district shall conduct an evaluation to determine if the student has a disability which requires an IEP or 504 plan. (U.S.C. 1412(a)(3))

Detention After School

Students may be detained for disciplinary reasons for up to one hour after the close of the maximum school day, or until the departure of the school bus to which they have been assigned if applicable. (5 CCR 307, 353)

The student shall not be detained unless the principal or designee notifies the parent/guardian.

Students shall remain under the supervision of a certificated employee during the period of detention.

Students may be offered the choice of serving their detention on Saturday rather than after school.

Community Service

As part of or instead of disciplinary action, the Board, Superintendent, principal, or principal's designee may require a student to perform community service during nonschool hours on school grounds or, with written permission of the student's parent/guardian, off school grounds. Such service may include, but is not limited to, community or school outdoor beautification, community or campus betterment, and teacher, peer, or youth assistance programs. (Education Code 48900.6)

This community service option is not available for a student who has been suspended, pending expulsion, pursuant to Education Code 48915. However, if the recommended expulsion is not implemented or the expulsion itself is suspended, then the student may be required to perform community service for the resulting suspension. (Education Code 48900.6)

Notice to Parents/Guardians and Students

At the beginning of the school year, the Superintendent or designee shall notify parents/guardians, in writing, about the availability of district rules related to discipline. (Education Code 35291, 48980)

The Superintendent or designee shall also provide written notice of disciplinary rules to parents/guardians of transfer students at the time of their enrollment in the district.

In cooperation with teachers, students, and parents/guardians, the principal or designee may establish school rules governing student dress and grooming which are consistent with law, Board policy, and administrative regulations. These school dress codes shall be regularly reviewed.

The following guidelines shall apply to all regular school activities:

Dress Code
Students must wear a shirt with pants or skirt, or the equivalent, and shoes.

Shirts and dresses must have fabric on the front and the sides.

The fabric covering the buttocks, genitals, and breasts must not be transparent (see-through).

Hats and other headwear must allow the face to be visible and not interfere with the line of sight of any student or staff. Hoodies must allow the student's face and ears to be visible to staff. No sunglasses may be worn indoors.

Clothing must be suitable for all scheduled classroom activities, including physical education, science labs, wood shop, and other activities where unique hazards exist. Specialized courses may require specialized attire, such as sports uniforms or safety gear.

Shoes must be worn at all times. Flip-flops, socks or sock-like footwear, slippers, backless shoes, or shoes with over a one-inch heel are not safe or appropriate for school. Toes must be covered.

Clothing may not depict, advertise or advocate the use of alcohol (excluding Humboldt County restaurants/family establishments), tobacco, or drugs.

Clothing may not reference genitals nor depict profanity, pornography, nudity, vulgarity, or sexual acts.

Clothing may not use or depict hate speech targeting any individual or group based on economics, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, intelligence, race, religious affiliation, sexual orientation, or any other protected group.

Clothing must not threaten the health or safety of any student or staff.

Clothing may not depict or advocate violence, criminal activity, race superiority, or hate speech.

Any attire identified as gang-related by local law enforcement is not allowed.

The dress code shall be modified as appropriate to accommodate a student's religious or cultural observance, health condition, or other circumstance deemed necessary by the principal or designee. In addition, the principal or designee may impose dress requirements to accommodate the needs of special school activities, physical education classes, athletic activities, and other extracurricular and cocurricular activities.

No grade of a student participating in a physical education class shall be adversely affected if the student does not wear standardized physical education apparel because of circumstances beyond the student's control. (Education Code 49066)

Students shall be allowed to wear sun-protective clothing, including but not limited to hats, for outdoor use during the school day. (Education Code 35183.5)

Gang-Related Apparel

At individual schools that have a dress code prohibiting gang-related apparel at school or school activities, the principal, staff, and parents/guardians participating in the development of the school safety plan shall define "gang-related apparel" and shall limit this definition to apparel that reasonably could be determined to threaten the health and safety of the school environment if it were worn or displayed on a school campus. (Education Code 32282)

Because gang-related symbols are constantly changing, definitions of gang-related apparel shall be reviewed annually and updated whenever related information is received. As necessary, the school shall collaborate with law enforcement agencies to update definitions of gang-related apparel.

Original Adopted Date: 10/22/2018 | Last Revised Date: 06/27/2024 | Last Reviewed Date: 06/27/2024Status: ADOPTED

This policy shall apply to all acts constituting bullying related to school activity or to school attendance occurring within a district school, to acts which occur off campus or outside of school-related or school-sponsored activities but which may have an impact or create a hostile environment at school, and to all acts of the Governing Board and the Superintendent in enacting policies and procedures that govern the district.

The Board recognizes the harmful effects of bullying on student well-being, student learning, and school attendance and desires to provide a welcoming, safe, and supportive school environment that protects students from physical, mental, and emotional harm. Examples of Prohibited Conduct
Bullying is an aggressive behavior that involves a real or perceived imbalance of power between individuals with the intent to cause emotional or physical harm. Bullying can be physical, verbal, or social/relational and may involve a single severe act or repetition or potential repetition of a deliberate act. Bullying includes, but is not limited to, any act described in Education Code 48900(r).

Cyberbullying includes the electronic creation or transmission of harassing communications, direct threats, or other harmful texts, sounds, or images, which may be shared, sent, or posted publicly. Cyberbullying may include, but is not limited to, personal or private information that causes humiliation, false or negative information to discredit or disparage, or threats of physical harm. Cyberbullying may also include breaking into another person's electronic account or assuming that person's online identity in order to damage that person's reputation.

Examples of the types of conduct that may constitute bullying and are prohibited by the district include, but are not limited to:
Physical bullying: An act that inflicts harm upon a person's body or possessions, such as hitting, kicking, pinching, spitting, tripping, pushing, taking or breaking someone's possessions, or making cruel or rude hand gestures

Measures to Prevent Bullying

The Superintendent or designee shall implement measures to prevent bullying in district schools, including, but not limited to, the following:
Developing a strategic plan for school connectedness and social skills with benchmark tracking, which may include providing regular opportunities and spaces for students to develop social skills and strengthen relationships and promoting adult support from family and school staff, peer-led programs, and partnerships with key community groups, implementing socially based educational techniques such as cooperative learning projects that can improve educational outcomes as well as peer relations, creating a supportive school environment that fosters belonging through equitable classroom management, mentoring, and peer support groups that allow students to lean on each other and learn from each other's experiences, and building social connection into health education courses including information on the consequences of social connection on physical and mental health, key risk and protective factors, and strategies for increasing social connection

Ensuring that each school establishes clear rules for student and staff conduct and implements strategies to promote a positive, supportive, and collaborative school climate

Providing information to students, through student handbooks, district and school websites and social media, and other age-appropriate means, about district and school rules related to bullying, mechanisms available for reporting incidents or threats, and the consequences for engaging in bullying

Encouraging students to notify school staff when they are being bullied or when they suspect that another student is being bullied, and providing means by which students may report threats or incidents confidentially and anonymously

Conducting an assessment of bullying incidents at each school and, if necessary, increasing supervision and security in areas where bullying most often occurs, such as playgrounds, hallways, restrooms, and cafeterias

Annually notifying district employees that, pursuant to Education Code 234.1, any school staff who witnesses an act of bullying against a student has a responsibility to immediately intervene to stop the incident when it is safe to do so

Staff Development

The Superintendent or designee shall annually make available to all certificated staff and to other employees who have regular interaction with students the California Department of Education (CDE) online training module on the dynamics of bullying and cyberbullying, including the identification of bullying and cyberbullying and the implementation of strategies to address bullying. (Education Code 32283.5)

The Superintendent or designee shall provide training to teachers and other school staff to raise their awareness about the legal obligation of the district and its employees to prevent discrimination, harassment, intimidation, and bullying of district students. Such training shall be designed to provide staff with the skills to:
Discuss the diversity of the student body and school community, including their varying immigration experiences

Discuss bullying prevention strategies with students, and teach students to recognize the behavior and characteristics of bullying perpetrators and victims

Identify the signs of bullying or harassing behavior

Take immediate corrective action when bullying is observed

Report incidents to the appropriate authorities, including law enforcement in instances of criminal behavior

As appropriate, the district shall provide students with instruction, in the classroom or other educational settings, that promotes social-emotional learning, effective communication and conflict resolution skills, character development, respect for cultural and individual differences, self-esteem development, assertiveness skills, digital and media literacy skills, and appropriate online behavior.

The district shall also educate students about the negative impact of bullying, discrimination, intimidation, and harassment based on actual or perceived immigration status, religious beliefs and customs, or any other individual bias or prejudice.

Students should be taught the difference between appropriate and inappropriate behaviors, how to advocate for themselves, how to help another student who is being bullied, and when to seek assistance from a trusted adult. As role models for students, staff are responsible for teaching and modeling respectful behavior and building safe and supportive learning environments, and are expected to demonstrate effective problem-solving and anger management skills.

To discourage cyberbullying, teachers may advise students to be cautious about sharing passwords, personal data, or private photos online and to consider the consequences of making negative comments about others online.

Reporting and Filing of Complaints

Any student, parent/guardian, or other individual who believes that a student has been subjected to bullying or who has witnessed bullying may report the incident to a teacher, the principal, a compliance officer, or any other available school employee.

When a report of bullying is submitted, the principal or a district compliance officer shall inform the student or parent/guardian of the right to file a formal written complaint in accordance with Administrative Regulation 1312.3 - Uniform Complaint Procedures. The student who is the alleged victim of the bullying shall be given an opportunity to describe the incident, identify witnesses who may have relevant information, and provide other evidence of bullying.

Any individuals with information about cyberbullying activity shall save and print any electronic or digital messages that they feel constitute cyberbullying and shall notify a teacher, the principal, or other employee so that the matter may be investigated. When an investigation concludes that a student used a social networking site or service to bully or harass another student, the Superintendent or designee may report the cyberbullying to the social media platform and may request the material be removed.

Discipline/Corrective Actions

Corrective actions for a student who commits an act of bullying of any type may include counseling, behavioral intervention, and education, and, if the behavior is severe or pervasive as defined in Education Code 48900, may include suspension or expulsion in accordance with district policies and regulations.

When a student has been suspended, or other means of correction have been implemented against the student, for an incident of racist bullying, harassment, or intimidation, the principal or designee shall engage both the victim and perpetrator in a restorative justice practice suitable to the needs of the students. The principal or designee shall also require the perpetrator to engage in a culturally sensitive program that promotes racial justice and equity and combats racism and ignorance and shall regularly check on the victim to ensure that the victim is not in danger of suffering from any long-lasting mental health issues. (Education Code 48900.5)

When appropriate based on the severity or pervasiveness of the bullying, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the parents/guardians of victims and perpetrators and may contact law enforcement.

However, if a student enrolls in or is transferred to another regular school, an opportunity school or class, or continuation school or class for the purpose of adjustment, the student may be suspended for not more than 30 school days in a school year. The district may count suspensions that occur while a student is enrolled in another school district toward the maximum number of days for which the student may be suspended in any school year. (Education Code 48903, 48911, 48912)

These restrictions on the number of days of suspension shall not apply when the suspension is extended pending an expulsion. (Education Code 48911)

Due Process Procedures for Suspension

Suspensions shall be imposed in accordance with the following procedures:

Informal Conference: Suspension shall be preceded by an informal conference conducted by the Superintendent, principal, or designee with the student and, whenever practicable, the teacher, supervisor, or school employee who referred the student to the principal. At the conference, the student shall be informed of the reason for the disciplinary action, including the other means of correction that were attempted before the suspension as required pursuant to Education Code 48900.5, and the evidence against the student, and shall be given the opportunity to present the student's version and evidence in the student's defense. (Education Code 48911)

This conference may be omitted if the Superintendent, principal, or designee determines that an emergency situation exists involving a clear and present danger to the lives, safety, or health of students or school personnel. If a student is suspended without this conference, the student, the student's parent/guardian, or if the student is a foster youth, the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or if the student is an Indian child, the Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, county social worker, shall be notified of the student's right to a conference and the right to return to school for the purpose of the conference. The conference shall be held within two school days, unless the student waives the right to it or is physically unable to attend for any reason. In such a case, the conference shall be held as soon as the student is physically able to return to school for the conference. (Education Code 48911)

Administrative Actions: All requests for student suspension are to be processed by the principal or designee. A school employee shall report the suspension, including the name of the student and the cause for the suspension, to the Superintendent or designee. (Education Code 48911)

Notice to Parents/Guardians: At the time of the suspension, a school employee shall make a reasonable effort to contact the parent/guardian, or if the student is a foster youth, the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or if the student is an Indian child, the Indian child's tribal social worker, and, if applicable, the county social worker, in person, by email, or by telephone. Whenever a student is suspended, the parent/guardian, or, if applicable, the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or the Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, the county social worker, shall also be notified in writing of the suspension. (Education Code 48911)

This notice shall state the specific offense committed by the student. (Education Code 48900.8)

In addition, the notice shall state the date and time when the student may return to school.

Parent/Guardian Conference: Whenever a student is suspended, school officials may conduct a meeting with the parent/guardian to discuss the cause(s) and duration of the suspension, the school policy involved, and any other pertinent matter. (Education Code 48914)

If school officials request to meet with the parent/guardian, a foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or an Indian child's tribal social worker, and, if applicable, the county social worker, the notice may state that the law requires such individuals to respond to the request without delay. However, the student shall not be penalized for the failure of the parent/guardian, a foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or an Indian child's tribal social worker, and, if applicable, the county social worker, to attend such a conference. The student may not be denied reinstatement solely because such individuals failed to attend the conference. (Education Code 48911)

Extension of Suspension: If the Board is considering the expulsion of a suspended student from any school or the suspension of a student for the balance of the semester from continuation school, the Superintendent or designee may, in writing, extend the suspension until such time as the Board has made a decision, provided the following requirements are followed: (Education Code 48911)

The extension of the original period of suspension is preceded by notice of such extension with an offer to hold a conference concerning the extension, giving the student an opportunity to be heard

This conference may be held in conjunction with a meeting requested by the student or parent/guardian to challenge the original suspension.

The Superintendent or designee determines, following a meeting in which the student and the student's parent/guardian were invited to participate, that the student's presence at the school or at an alternative school would endanger persons or property or threaten to disrupt the instructional process

If the student involved is a foster youth or Indian child, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the district's educational liaison of the need to invite the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney and county social worker, or the Indian child's tribal social worker or, if applicable, the county social worker, to attend the meeting (Education Code 48853.5, 48911, 48918.1)

If the student involved is a child or youth experiencing homelessness, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the district liaison for homeless students (Education Code 48918.1)

In lieu of or in addition to suspending a student, the Superintendent, principal, or designee may provide services or require the student to participate in an alternative disciplinary program designed to correct the behavior and keep the student in school
Suspension by the Board

The Board may suspend a student for any of the acts listed under "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12," and "Additional Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades 4-12," above and within the limits specified under "Suspension by Superintendent, Principal, or Designee," above. (Education Code 48912)

The Board may suspend a student enrolled in a continuation school or class for a period not longer than the remainder of the semester. The suspension shall meet the requirements of Education Code 48915. (Education Code 48912.5)

When the Board is considering a suspension, disciplinary action, or any other action (except expulsion) against any student, it shall hold a closed session if a public hearing would lead to disclosure of information that would violate a student's right to privacy under Education Code 49073-49079. (Education Code 35146, 48912)

The Board shall provide the student and parent/guardian with written notice of the closed session by registered or certified mail or personal service. Upon receiving this notice, the student or parent/guardian may request a public meeting, and this request shall be granted if made in writing within 48 hours after receipt of the Board's notice. However, any discussion that conflicts with any other student's right to privacy still shall be held in closed session. (Education Code 35146, 48912)

On-Campus Suspension

A student for whom an expulsion action has not been initiated and who poses no imminent danger or threat to the school, students, or staff may be assigned to on-campus suspension in a separate classroom, building, or site for the entire period of suspension. The following conditions shall apply: (Education Code 48911.1)
The on-campus suspension classroom shall be staffed in accordance with law

The student shall have access to appropriate counseling services

The on-campus suspension classroom shall promote completion of schoolwork and tests missed by the student during the suspension

The student shall be responsible for contacting the student's teacher(s) to receive assignments to be completed in the supervised suspension classroom and the teacher(s) shall provide all assignments and tests that the student will miss while suspended

If no such work is assigned, the person supervising the suspension classroom shall assign schoolwork.
At the time a student is assigned to an on-campus suspension classroom, the principal or designee shall notify the student's parent/guardian, or if the student is a foster youth, the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or, if the student if an Indian child, the Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, county social worker, in person, by email, or by telephone. When the assignment is for longer than one class period, this notification shall be made in writing. (Education Code 48911.1)

Superintendent or Principal's Authority to Recommend Expulsion

Unless the Superintendent or principal determines that expulsion should not be recommended under the circumstances or that an alternative means of correction would address the conduct, the Superintendent or principal shall recommend a student's expulsion for any of the following acts: (Education Code 48915)
Causing serious physical injury to another person, except in self-defense

Possession of any knife or other dangerous object of no reasonable use to the student

Unlawful possession of any controlled substance as listed in Health and Safety Code 11053-11059, except for:

The first offense for the possession of not more than one ounce of marijuana, other than concentrated cannabis

The student's possession of over-the-counter medication for use by the student for medical purposes

Medication prescribed for the student by a physician

Robbery or extortion

Assault or battery, as defined in Penal Code 240 and 242, upon any school employee
In determining whether to recommend the expulsion of a student, the Superintendent, principal, or designee shall act as quickly as possible to ensure that the student does not lose instructional time. (Education Code 48915)

Student's Right to Expulsion Hearing

Any student recommended for expulsion shall be entitled to a hearing to determine whether the student should be expelled. The hearing shall be held within 30 school days after the Superintendent, principal, or designee determines that the student has committed the act(s) that form the basis for the expulsion recommendation. (Education Code 48918(a))

The student is entitled to at least one postponement of an expulsion hearing for a period of not more than 30 calendar days. The request for postponement shall be in writing. Any subsequent postponement may be granted at the Board's discretion. (Education Code 48918(a))

If the Board finds it impractical during the regular school year to comply with these time requirements for conducting an expulsion hearing, the Superintendent or designee may, for good cause, extend the time period by an additional five school days. Reasons for the extension shall be included as a part of the record when the expulsion hearing is held. (Education Code 48918(a))

If the Board finds it impractical to comply with the time requirements of the expulsion hearing due to a summer recess of Board meetings of more than two weeks, the days during the recess shall not be counted as school days. The days not counted during the recess may not exceed 20 school days, as defined in Education Code 48925. Unless the student requests in writing that the expulsion hearing be postponed, the hearing shall be held not later than 20 calendar days prior to the first day of the next school year. (Education Code 48918(a))

Once the hearing starts, all matters shall be pursued with reasonable diligence and concluded without unnecessary delay. (Education Code 48918(a))

Stipulated Expulsion

After a determination that a student has committed an offense for which the student may be expelled, the Superintendent, principal, or designee shall offer the student, the student's parent/guardian, or, when applicable, other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, the option to waive a hearing and stipulate to the expulsion or to a suspension of the expulsion under certain conditions. The offer shall be made only after written notice of the expulsion hearing pursuant to Education Code 48918 has been given.

The stipulation agreement shall be in writing and shall be signed by the student, the student's parent/guardian, or, when applicable, the person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student. The stipulation agreement shall include notice of all the rights that the student is waiving, including the waiving of the right to have a full hearing, to appeal the expulsion to the County Board of Education, and to consult legal counsel.

A stipulated expulsion agreed to by the student, the student's parent/guardian, or, when applicable, the person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, shall be effective upon approval by the Board.

Rights of Complaining Witness

An expulsion hearing involving allegations of sexual assault or sexual battery may be postponed for one school day in order to accommodate the special physical, mental, or emotional needs of a student who is the complaining witness. (Education Code 48918.5)

Whenever the Superintendent or designee recommends an expulsion hearing that addresses allegations of sexual assault or sexual battery, the Superintendent or designee shall give the complaining witness a copy of the district's suspension and expulsion policy and regulation and shall advise the witness of the right to: (Education Code 48918.5)
Receive five days' notice of the scheduled testimony at the hearing

Have up to two adult support persons present at the hearing at the time the witness testifies

Have a closed hearing during the time the witness testifies
Whenever any allegation of sexual assault or sexual battery is made, the Superintendent or designee shall immediately advise complaining witnesses and accused students to refrain from personal or telephone contact with each other during the time when an expulsion process is pending. (Education Code 48918.5)

Written Notice of the Expulsion Hearing

Written notice of the expulsion hearing shall be forwarded to the student and the student's parent/guardian at least 10 calendar days before the date of the hearing. The notice shall include: (Education Code 48900.8, 48918(b))
The date and place of the hearing

A statement of the specific facts, charges, and offense upon which the proposed expulsion is based

A copy of district disciplinary rules which relate to the alleged violation

Notification of the student's or parent/guardian's obligation, pursuant to Education Code 48915.1, to provide information about the student's status in the district to any other district in which the student seeks enrollment

This obligation applies when a student is expelled for acts other than those described in Education Code 48915(a) or (c).

The opportunity for the student or the student's parent/guardian to appear in person or be represented by legal counsel or by a nonattorney adviser

Legal counsel means an attorney or lawyer who is admitted to the practice of law in California and is an active member of the State Bar of California.

Nonattorney adviser means an individual who is not an attorney or lawyer, but who is familiar with the facts of the case and has been selected by the student or student's parent/guardian to provide assistance at the hearing.

The right to inspect and obtain copies of all documents to be used at the hearing

The opportunity to confront and question all witnesses who testify at the hearing

The opportunity to question all evidence presented and to present oral and documentary evidence on the student's behalf, including witnesses
Additional Notice of Expulsion Hearing for Foster Youth, Homeless Students, and Indian Children

If the student facing expulsion is a foster student or Indian child, the Superintendent or designee shall also send notice of the hearing to the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or the Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, county social worker, at least 10 calendar days prior to the hearing. (Education Code 48918.1)

If the student facing expulsion is a student experiencing homelessness, the Superintendent or designee shall also send notice of the hearing to the district liaison for homeless students at least 10 calendar days prior to the hearing. (Education Code 48918.1)

Any notice for these purposes may be provided by the most cost-effective method possible, including by email or a telephone call. (Education Code 48918.1)

Conduct of Expulsion Hearing

Closed Session: Notwithstanding Education Code 35145, the Board shall conduct a hearing to consider the expulsion of the student in a session closed to the public unless the student requests in writing at least five days prior to the hearing that the hearing be a public meeting. If such a request is made, the meeting shall be public to the extent that privacy rights of other students are not violated. (Education Code 48918)

Whether the expulsion hearing is held in closed or public session, the Board may meet in closed session to deliberate and determine whether the student should be expelled. If the Board admits any other person to this closed session, the parent/guardian, the student, and the counsel of the student also shall be allowed to attend the closed session. (Education Code 48918(c))

If a hearing that involves a charge of sexual assault or sexual battery is to be conducted in public, a complaining witness shall have the right to testify in closed session when testifying in public would threaten serious psychological harm to the witness and when there are no alternative procedures to avoid the threatened harm, including, but not limited to, a videotaped deposition or contemporaneous examination in another place communicated to the hearing room by closed-circuit television. (Education Code 48918(c)

Record of Hearing: A record of the hearing shall be made and may be maintained by any means, including electronic recording, as long as a reasonably accurate and complete written transcription of the proceedings can be made. (Education Code 48918(g))

Subpoenas: Before commencing a student expulsion hearing, the Board may issue subpoenas, at the request of either the student or the Superintendent or designee, for the personal appearance at the hearing of any person who actually witnessed the action that gave rise to the recommendation for expulsion. After the hearing has commenced, the Board or the hearing officer or administrative panel may issue such subpoenas at the request of the student or the County Superintendent of Schools or designee. All subpoenas shall be issued in accordance with Code of Civil Procedure 1985-1985.2 and enforced in accordance with Government Code 11455.20. (Education Code 48918(i))

Any objection raised by the student or the Superintendent or designee to the issuance of subpoenas may be considered by the Board in closed session, or in open session if so requested by the student, before the meeting. The Board's decision in response to such an objection shall be final and binding. (Education Code 48918(i))

If the Board determines, or if the hearing officer or administrative panel finds and submits to the Board, that a witness would be subject to unreasonable risk of harm by testifying at the hearing, a subpoena shall not be issued to compel the personal attendance of that witness at the hearing. However, that witness may be compelled to testify by means of a sworn declaration as described in Item #6 below. (Education Code 48918(i))

Presentation of Evidence: Technical rules of evidence shall not apply to the expulsion hearing, but relevant evidence may be admitted and used as proof only if it is the kind of evidence on which reasonable persons can rely in the conduct of serious affairs. The decision of the Board to expel shall be supported by substantial evidence that the student committed any of the acts pursuant to Education Code 48900 and listed in "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12," and "Additional Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades 4-12," above. (Education Code 48918(h))

Findings of fact shall be based solely on the evidence at the hearing. Although no finding shall be based solely on hearsay, sworn declarations may be admitted as testimony from witnesses whose disclosure of their identity or testimony at the hearing may subject them to an unreasonable risk of physical or psychological harm. (Education Code 48918(f))

In cases where a search of a student's person or property has occurred, evidence describing the reasonableness of the search shall be included in the hearing record.

Testimony by Complaining Witnesses: The following procedures shall be observed when a hearing involves allegations of sexual assault or sexual battery by a student: (Education Code 48918, 48918.5)

Any complaining witness shall be given five days' notice before being called to testify

Any complaining witness shall be entitled to have up to two adult support persons, including, but not limited to, a parent/guardian or legal counsel, present during the testimony

Before a complaining witness testifies, support persons shall be admonished that the hearing is confidential

The person presiding over the hearing may remove a support person who is disrupting the hearing

If one or both support persons are also witnesses, the hearing shall be conducted in accordance with Penal Code 868.5

Evidence of specific instances of prior sexual conduct of a complaining witness shall be presumed inadmissible and shall not be heard unless the person conducting the hearing determines that extraordinary circumstances require the evidence to be heard

Before such a determination is made, the complaining witness shall be given notice and an opportunity to oppose the introduction of this evidence. In the hearing on the admissibility of this evidence, the complaining witness shall be entitled to be represented by a parent/guardian, legal counsel, or other support person. Reputation or opinion evidence regarding the sexual behavior of a complaining witness shall not be admissible for any purpose.

In order to facilitate a free and accurate statement of the experiences of the complaining witness and to prevent discouragement of complaints, the district shall provide a nonthreatening environment

The district shall provide a room separate from the hearing room for the use of the complaining witness before and during breaks in testimony

At the discretion of the person conducting the hearing, the complaining witness shall be allowed reasonable periods of relief from examination and cross-examination during which the complaining witness may leave the hearing room

The person conducting the hearing may:

Arrange the seating within the hearing room so as to facilitate a less intimidating environment for the complaining witness

Limit the time for taking the testimony of a complaining witness to normal school hours, if there is no good cause to take the testimony during other hours

(Permit one of the support persons to accompany the complaining witness to the witness stand

Decision: The Board's decision as to whether to expel a student shall be made within 40 school days after the student is removed from school, unless the student requests in writing that the decision be postponed. (Education Code 48918(a))
Alternative Expulsion Hearing: Hearing Officer or Administrative Panel

Instead of conducting an expulsion hearing itself, the Board may contract with the county hearing officer or with the Office of Administrative Hearings of the State of California for a hearing officer. The Board may also appoint an impartial administrative panel composed of three or more certificated personnel, none of whom shall be members of the Board or on the staff of the school in which the student is enrolled. (Education Code 48918)

A hearing conducted by the hearing officer or administrative panel shall conform to the same procedures applicable to a hearing conducted by the Board as specified above in "Conduct of Expulsion Hearing," including the requirement to issue a decision within 40 school days of the student's removal from school, unless the student requests that the decision be postponed. (Education Code 48918(a) and (d))

The hearing officer or administrative panel shall, within three school days after the hearing, determine whether to recommend expulsion of the student to the Board. If expulsion is not recommended, the expulsion proceeding shall be terminated and the student shall be immediately reinstated and permitted to return to the classroom instructional program from which the referral was made, unless another placement is requested in writing by the student's parent/guardian. Before the student's placement decision is made by the student's parent/guardian, the Superintendent or designee shall consult with the parent/guardian and district staff, including the student's teachers, regarding other placement options for the student in addition to the option to return to the classroom instructional program from which the student's expulsion referral was made. The decision to not recommend expulsion shall be final. (Education Code 48918(e))

If expulsion is recommended, findings of fact in support of the recommendation shall be prepared and submitted to the Board. All findings of fact and recommendations shall be based solely on the evidence presented at the hearing. The

Board may accept the recommendation based either upon a review of the findings of fact and recommendations submitted or upon the results of any supplementary hearing the Board may order. (Education Code 48918(f))

In accordance with Board policy, the hearing officer or administrative panel may recommend that the Board suspend the enforcement of the expulsion. If the hearing officer or administrative panel recommends that the Board expel a student but suspend the enforcement of the expulsion, the student shall not be reinstated and permitted to return to the classroom instructional program from which the referral was made until the Board has ruled on the recommendation. (Education Code 48917, 48918)

Final Action by the Board

Whether the expulsion hearing is conducted in closed or open session by the Board, a hearing officer, or an administrative panel or is waived through the signing of a stipulated expulsion agreement, the final action to expel shall be taken by the Board in public. (Education Code 48918(j))

The Board's decision is final. If the decision is to not expel, the student shall be reinstated immediately. If the decision is to suspend the enforcement of the expulsion, the student shall be reinstated under the conditions of the suspended expulsion.

Upon ordering an expulsion, the Board shall set a date when the student shall be reviewed for readmission to a school within the district. For a student expelled for any "mandatory recommendation and mandatory expulsion" act listed in "Authority to Expel" in the accompanying Board policy, this date shall be one year from the date the expulsion occurred, except that the Board may set an earlier date on a case-by-case basis. For a student expelled for other acts, this date shall be no later than the last day of the semester following the semester in which the expulsion occurred. If an expulsion is ordered during summer session or the intersession period of a year-round program, the Board shall set a date when the student shall be reviewed for readmission not later than the last day of the semester following the summer session or intersession period in which the expulsion occurred. (Education Code 48916)

At the time of the expulsion order, the Board shall recommend a plan for the student's rehabilitation, which may include: (Education Code 48916)
Periodic review, as well as assessment at the time of review, for readmission

Recommendations for improved academic performance, tutoring, special education assessments, job training, counseling, employment, community service, or other rehabilitative programs
With parent/guardian consent, students who have been expelled for reasons relating to controlled substances or alcohol may be required to enroll in a county-sponsored drug rehabilitation program before returning to school. (Education Code 48916.5)

Written Notice to Expel

The Superintendent or designee shall send written notice of the decision to expel to the student or parent/guardian. This notice shall include the following:
The specific offense committed by the student for any of the causes for suspension or expulsion listed above under "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12" or "Additional Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades 4-12" (Education Code 48900.8)

The fact that a description of readmission procedures will be made available to the student and parent/guardian (Education Code 48916)

Notice of the right to appeal the expulsion to the County Board (Education Code 48918)

Notice of the alternative educational placement to be provided to the student during the time of expulsion (Education Code 48918)

Notice of the student's or parent/guardian's obligation to inform any new district in which the student seeks to enroll of the student's status with the expelling district, pursuant to Education Code 48915.1 (Education Code 48918)
Decision to Suspend Expulsion Order

In accordance with Board policy, when deciding whether to suspend the enforcement of an expulsion order, the Board shall take into account the following criteria:
The student's pattern of behavior

The seriousness of the misconduct

The student's attitude toward the misconduct and willingness to follow a rehabilitation program
The suspension of the enforcement of an expulsion shall be governed by the following:
The Board may, as a condition of the suspension of enforcement, assign the student to a school, class, or program appropriate for the student's rehabilitation

This rehabilitation program may provide for the involvement of the student's parent/guardian in the student's education. However, a parent/guardian's refusal to participate in the rehabilitation program shall not be considered in the Board's determination as to whether the student has satisfactorily completed the rehabilitation program. (Education Code 48917)

During the period when enforcement of the expulsion order is suspended, the student shall be on probationary status (Education Code 48917)

The suspension of the enforcement of an expulsion order may be revoked by the Board if the student commits any of the acts listed under "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12" or "Additional Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades 4-12" above, or violates any of the district's rules and regulations governing student conduct (Education Code 48917)

When the suspension of enforcement of an expulsion order is revoked, a student may be expelled under the terms of the original expulsion order (Education Code 48917)

Upon satisfactory completion of the rehabilitation assignment, the Board shall reinstate the student in a district school

Upon reinstatement, the Board may order the expunging of any or all records of the expulsion proceedings. (Education Code 48917)

The Superintendent or designee shall send written notice of any decision to suspend the enforcement of an expulsion order during a period of probation to the student or parent/guardian

The notice shall inform the parent/guardian of the right to appeal the expulsion to the County Board, the alternative educational placement to be provided to the student during the period of expulsion, and the student's or parent/guardian's obligation to inform any new district in which the student seeks to enroll of the student's status with the expelling district, pursuant to Education Code 48915.1(b). (Education Code 48918(j))

Suspension of the enforcement of an expulsion order shall not affect the time period and requirements for the filing of an appeal of the expulsion order with the County Board (Education Code 48917)
Appeal

If a student is expelled from school, the student or parent/guardian is entitled to file an appeal of the Board's decision with the County Board. The appeal must be filed within 30 days of the Board's decision to expel, even if the expulsion order is suspended and the student is placed on probation. (Education Code 48919)

If the student submits a written request for a copy of the written transcripts and supporting documents from the district simultaneously with the filing of the notice of appeal with the County Board, the district shall provide the student with these documents within 10 school days following the student's written request. (Education Code 48919)

Notification to Law Enforcement Authorities

Prior to the suspension or expulsion of any student, the principal or designee shall notify appropriate city or county law enforcement authorities of any student acts of assault which may have violated Penal Code 245. (Education Code 48902)

The principal or designee shall notify appropriate city or county law enforcement authorities of any student acts which may involve the possession or sale of narcotics or of a controlled substance, or of any student acts involving the possession, sale, or furnishing of firearms, explosives, or other dangerous weapons in violation of Education Code 48915(c)(1) or (5) or Penal Code 626.9 and 626.10. (Education Code 48902)

Within one school day after a student's suspension or expulsion, the principal or designee shall notify appropriate county or district law enforcement authorities, by telephone or other appropriate means, of any student acts which may violate Education Code 48900(c) or (d), relating to the possession, use, offering, or sale of controlled substances, alcohol, or intoxicants of any kind. (Education Code 48902)

Placement During Expulsion

The Board shall refer expelled students to a program of study that is: (Education Code 48915, 48915.01)
Appropriately prepared to accommodate students who exhibit discipline problems

Not provided at a comprehensive middle, junior, or senior high school or at any elementary school, unless the program is offered at a community day school established at any of these

Not housed at the school site attended by the student at the time of suspension
When the placement described above is not available and when the County Superintendent so certifies, students expelled for only acts described in Items #6-12 under "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12" and Items #1-3 under "Additional Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades 4-12" above may be referred to a program of study that is provided at another comprehensive middle, junior, or senior high school or at an elementary school. (Education Code 48915)

The program for a student expelled from any of grades K-6 shall not be combined or merged with programs offered to students in any of grades 7-12. (Education Code 48916.1)

Readmission After Expulsion

Prior to the date set by the Board for the student's readmission:
The Superintendent or designee shall hold a conference with the student's parent/guardian, or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, and the student

At the conference, the student's rehabilitation plan shall be reviewed and the Superintendent or designee shall verify that the provisions of this plan have been met. School regulations shall be reviewed and the student and the student's parent/guardian or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student shall be asked to indicate in writing their willingness to comply with these regulations.

The Superintendent or designee shall transmit to the Board a recommendation regarding readmission

The Board shall consider this recommendation in closed session. If a written request for open session is received from the student's parent/guardian or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, or adult student, it shall be honored to the extent that privacy rights of other students are not violated.

If the readmission is granted, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the student and the student's parent/guardian, or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, by registered mail, of the Board's decision regarding readmission

The Board may deny readmission only if it finds that the student has not satisfied the conditions of the rehabilitation plan or that the student continues to pose a danger to campus safety or to other district students or employees (Education Code 48916)

If the Board denies the readmission of a student, the Board shall determine either to continue the student's placement in the alternative educational program initially selected or to place the student in another program that serves expelled students, including placement in a county community school

The Board shall provide written notice to the expelled student and the student's parent/guardian, or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, describing the reasons for denying readmittance into the regular program

This notice shall indicate the Board's determination of the educational program which the Board has chosen. The student shall enroll in that program unless the parent/guardian chooses to enroll the student in another school district. (Government Code 12945.8)

Upon the request of the Superintendent or designee, an employee requesting a reasonable accommodation shall provide a written statement, signed by the employee or an individual acting on the employee's behalf, certifying that the accommodation is for an authorized purpose. The district shall not discharge or retaliate against an employee because of the employee's status as a victim of crime or abuse or for requesting a reasonable accommodation, regardless of whether the request was granted. (Government Code 12945.8)

Nondiscrimination/Harassment and Hate Crime Reporting– BP/AR BP 5145.3

Original Adopted Date: 10/22/2018 | Last Revised Date: 10/09/2025 | Last Reviewed Date: 10/09/2025Status: ADOPTED

The Governing Board desires to provide a welcoming, safe, and supportive school environment that allows all students equal access to and opportunities in the district's academic, extracurricular, and other educational support programs, services, and activities.

This policy shall apply to all acts constituting unlawful discrimination or harassment related to district activity or attendance, to acts which occur off campus or outside of district-related or district-sponsored activities but which may have an impact or create a hostile environment at school, and to all acts of the Board and the Superintendent in enacting policies and procedures that govern the district.

The Board prohibits, at any district school or activity, unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, and bullying, against an individual or group based on one, or a combination of two or more, protected characteristics, which include, but may not be limited to, race or ethnicity; ancestry; color; ethnic group identification; nationality; national origin; immigration status; sex; sexual orientation; sex stereotypes; gender; gender identity; gender expression; religion; disability; medical condition; genetic information; pregnancy, false pregnancy, childbirth, termination of pregnancy, or related conditions or recovery; and parental, marital, and family status; a perception of one or more of such characteristics; or association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics. (Education Code 200, 210.1, 210.2, 212, 212.1, 220, 221.51, 230, 260; Government Code 11135, 12926; 20 USC 1681-1688, 42 USC 2000d-2000d-7)

Unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, or bullying, may result from physical, verbal, nonverbal, or written conduct based on any of the categories listed above. Unlawful discrimination also occurs when prohibited conduct is so severe, persistent, or pervasive that it affects a student's ability to participate in or benefit from an educational program or activity; creates an intimidating, threatening, hostile, or offensive educational environment; has the effect of substantially or unreasonably interfering with a student's academic performance; or otherwise adversely affects a student's educational opportunities.

Unlawful discrimination also includes disparate treatment of students based on one of the categories above with respect to the provision of opportunities to participate in district programs or activities or the provision or receipt of educational benefits or services.

Because unlawful discrimination could occur when disciplining students, including suspension and expulsion, the Superintendent or designee shall ensure that staff enforce discipline rules fairly, consistently and in a non-discriminatory manner, as specified in Board Policy and Administrative Regulation 5144 - Discipline, Board Policy and Administrative Regulation 5144.1 - Suspension and Expulsion/Due Process, and Administrative Regulation 5144.2 - Suspension and Expulsion/Due Process (Students With Disabilities).

The Board also prohibits any form of retaliation against any individual who reports or participates in the reporting of unlawful discrimination, files or participates in the filing of a complaint, or investigates, participates, or refuses to participate in the investigation of a complaint or report alleging unlawful discrimination. Retaliation complaints shall be investigated and resolved in the same manner as a discrimination complaint.

The Superintendent or designee shall facilitate students' access to the educational program by publicizing the district's nondiscrimination policy and related complaint procedures to students, parents/guardians, and employees. In addition,

the Superintendent or designee shall post the district's policies prohibiting discrimination, harassment, intimidation, and bullying and other required information on the district's website in a manner that is easily accessible to parents/guardians and students, in accordance with law and the accompanying administrative regulation. (Education Code 234.1, 234.6; 34 CFR 106.8)

The Superintendent or designee shall provide training and/or information on the scope and use of the policy and complaint procedures and take other measures designed to increase understanding of the requirements of law related to discrimination. The Superintendent or designee shall regularly review the implementation of the district's nondiscrimination policies and practices and, as necessary, shall take action to remove any identified barrier to student access to or participation in the district's educational program. The Superintendent or designee shall report the findings and recommendations to the Board after each review.

Regardless of whether a complainant complies with the writing, timeline, and/or other formal filing requirements, all complaints alleging unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, or bullying, shall be investigated and prompt action taken to stop the discrimination, prevent recurrence, and address any continuing effect on students.

Students who engage in unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, retaliation, or bullying, in violation of law, Board policy, or administrative regulation shall be subject to appropriate consequence or discipline, which may include suspension or expulsion when the behavior is severe or pervasive as defined in Education Code 48900.4. Any employee who permits or engages in prohibited discrimination related to a district activity, attendance, or district-related or district-sponsored activity, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, retaliation, or bullying, shall be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal.

When a student has been suspended, or other means of correction have been implemented against the student for an incident of racist bullying, harassment, or intimidation, the principal or designee may engage both the victim and perpetrator in a restorative justice practice suitable to the needs of the students. The principal or designee may also require the perpetrator to engage in a culturally sensitive program that promotes racial justice and equity and combats racism and ignorance and regularly check on the victim to ensure that the victim is not in danger of suffering from any long-lasting mental health issues. (Education Code 48900.5)

When appropriate based on the severity or pervasiveness of the bullying, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the parents/guardians of victims and perpetrators and may contact law enforcement.

Complaints alleging unlawful discrimination in district programs and activities shall be investigated and resolved in accordance with Board Policy 1312.3 - Uniform Complaint Procedures, when required by law. However, complaints alleging sexual harassment under Title IX shall be investigated and resolved in accordance with the procedures specified in Administrative Regulation 5145.71 - Title IX Sexual Harassment Complaint Procedures.

Record-Keeping

The Superintendent or designee shall maintain a record of all reported cases of unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, or bullying, to enable the district to monitor, address, and prevent repetitive prohibited behavior in district schools.

Support for Intersex, Nonbinary, Transgender and Gender-Nonconforming Students

Gender refers to a student's sex, and includes a student's gender identity and gender expression. (Education Code 210.7)

Gender identity refers to a student's gender-related identity, appearance, or behavior as determined from the student's internal sense, regardless of whether that gender-related identity, appearance, or behavior is different from that traditionally associated with the student's physiology or assigned sex at birth.

Gender expression refers to a student's gender-related appearance and behavior, regardless of whether stereotypically associated with the student's assigned sex at birth. (Education Code 210.7)

Gender transition refers to the process in which a student changes from living and identifying as the sex assigned to the student at birth to living and identifying as the sex that corresponds to the student's gender identity.

Gender-nonconforming refers to when a student's gender expression differs from stereotypical expectations.

Intersex refers to when a student has natural bodily variations in anatomy, hormones, chromosomes, and other traits that differ from expectations generally associated with female and male bodies.

Nonbinary refers to when a student's gender identity falls outside of the traditional conception of strictly either female or male, regardless of whether the student identifies as transgender, was born with intersex traits, uses gender-neutral pronouns, or uses agender, genderqueer, pangender, gender nonconforming, gender variant, or such other more specific term to describe their gender.

Sex refers to the biological condition of being a female or male human being. (5 CCR 4910)

Transgender refers to when a student's gender identity is different from the sex assigned at birth.

The district shall ensure that all students, regardless of sex, gender, gender identity or gender expression, are afforded the same rights, benefits, and protections provided to students by law and Board policy. To do so, the Superintendent or designee shall address each situation that arises on a case-by-case basis and in accordance with the following guidelines:

Acceptance of a Student's Gender Identity: The district shall accept the student's assertion of the student's gender identity and treat the student consistent with that gender identity unless district personnel present a credible and supportable basis for believing that the student's assertion is for an improper purpose

Use of Names and Pronouns: Upon request by a student, district personnel shall address the student by the requested name and pronoun(s), without the necessity of a court order or a change to the student's mandatory permanent student record

Inadvertent slips or honest mistakes by district personnel in the use of the student's name and/or pronouns may not constitute a violation of this administrative regulation or the accompanying Board policy.

Accessibility to Sex-Segregated Facilities, Programs, and Activities: When the district maintains sex-segregated facilities, such as restrooms and locker rooms, or offers sex-segregated programs and activities, such as physical education classes, intermural sports, and interscholastic athletic programs, students shall be permitted to access facilities and participate in programs and activities consistent with their gender identity

Additionally, a student shall be permitted to participate in accordance with the student's gender identity in other circumstances where students are separated by sex, such as for class discussions, yearbook pictures, and field trips.

To address any student's privacy concerns in using sex-segregated facilities, the district shall consider offering a gender-neutral or single-use restroom or changing area, a bathroom stall with a door, an area in the locker room separated by a curtain or screen, or use of the locker room before or after the other students. However, in no case shall the district require a student to utilize these options because of the student's sex, gender, gender identify, or gender expression. A student's right to participate in a sex-segregated activity in accordance with the student's gender identity shall not render invalid or inapplicable any other eligibility rule established for participation in the activity.

Beginning July 1, 2026, each school shall provide and maintain at least one all-gender restroom for student use that meets the requirements of Education Code 35292.5.

Adherence to Uniforms/Dress Code: A student has the right to dress in a manner consistent with the student's gender identity, subject to any dress code adopted on a school site, which may not discriminate on the basis of sex, gender, gender identity or gender expression

Equal Access to Educational Programs and Activities: Upon request by a student based on the student's gender identity or gender expression, the Compliance Officer shall identify and develop strategies for ensuring that the student's access to educational programs and activities is maintained

The Compliance Officer shall consider the rights of all students and how those rights may affect and be affected by the rights of other students. Additionally, the Compliance Officer shall identify specific school site employee(s) to whom the student may report any problem related to the student's sex, gender, gender identity, or gender expression so that prompt action can be taken to address it. Alternatively, if appropriate and desired by the student, the school may form a support team for the student that will meet periodically to assess whether the arrangements for the student are providing equal access to programs and activities.

Right to privacy: A student's sex, gender, gender identity, and gender status is private information

The district may only disclose such information to others when the disclosure is permitted by law, with the student's prior written consent, or when the district has compelling evidence that disclosure is necessary to preserve the student's physical or mental well-being. (Education Code 220.3, 220.5; 34 CFR 99.31, 99.36)

Student Records: A student's sex and legal name shall be maintained as part of a student's mandatory permanent student record as specified in 5 CCR 432 and shall only be changed with proper documentation (Education Code 49061-49072)

When a request to change a student's gender or name is submitted without proper documentation, any change to the student's gender or name shall be applied only to documents not included in the mandatory permanent student record such as attendance sheets, report cards, and school identification.

The Superintendent or designee shall follow this guideline such that it does not change or alter the obligations of the district to maintain student records in accordance with Board Policy/Administrative Regulation 5125 - Student Records, and to ensure access to such records in accordance with Board Policy/Administrative Regulation 1340 - Access to District Records.
The district prohibits any act of verbal, nonverbal, or physical aggression, intimidation, or hostility, including any such act based on sex, gender, gender identity, or gender expression, or that have the purpose or effect of producing a negative impact on the student's academic performance or of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive educational environment, regardless of whether the acts are sexual in nature, including, but not limited to:
Refusing to address or refer to a student in a manner consistent with the student's gender identity

Disciplining a student or excluding the student from participating in activities, for behavior or appearance that is consistent with the student's gender identity or that does not conform to stereotypical notions of masculinity or femininity

Blocking, prohibiting, or restricting a student's entry to the restroom that corresponds to the student's gender identity

Disclosing student records that reveal a student's gender identity to individuals who do not have a legitimate need for the information except as permitted by law

Verbally or physically assaulting a student because of the student's sex, gender, gender identity, or gender expression, including, but not limited to, causing, attempting to cause, threatening to cause, or participating in an act of hate violence on the basis of sex, gender, gender identity, or gender expression

Any verbal or written statement, police or court record, or other documentation identifying an employee, or a family member of the employee, as a victim shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed by the district except as required by federal or state law or as necessary to protect the employee's safety in the workplace. The employee shall be notified before any authorized disclosure. (Government Code 12945.8)

Every six months after the date of the certification, the Superintendent or designee may request recertification of the employee's status as a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, other specified offense, or ongoing circumstances related to the crime or abuse. The employee shall notify the Superintendent or designee if, due to changing circumstances, the employee needs a new accommodation or no longer needs an accommodation. If a new accommodation is needed, the Superintendent or designee shall follow the procedures described above when making the initial determination regarding effective reasonable accommodations. (Government Code 12945.8)

The district shall not discharge or retaliate against an employee because of the employee's status as a victim of crime or abuse or for requesting a reasonable accommodation, regardless of whether the request was granted. (Government Code 12945.8)

Opioid Overdose Protocol – Melanie's Law

Current law (Education Code section 49414.3) allows schools to provide emergency opioid antagonist administration for individuals who may be experiencing symptoms of opioid drug poisoning. Opioid drug poisoning is a life-threatening condition that can be reversed with the administration of an opioid antagonist medication such as naloxone. Without immediate administration of an opioid antagonist and summoning Emergency Medical Services (911), death could occur.

This law allows for a school nurse or a trained volunteer to administer an opioid antagonist medication to an individual who is exhibiting potentially life-threatening symptoms of opioid drug poisoning. Training is provided to the volunteer on topics including but not limited to:

- Signs and symptoms of opioid drug poisoning
- How to administer the naloxone nasal spray (or other opioid antagonist)
- Calling EMS (911) and any follow up documentation or actions required.

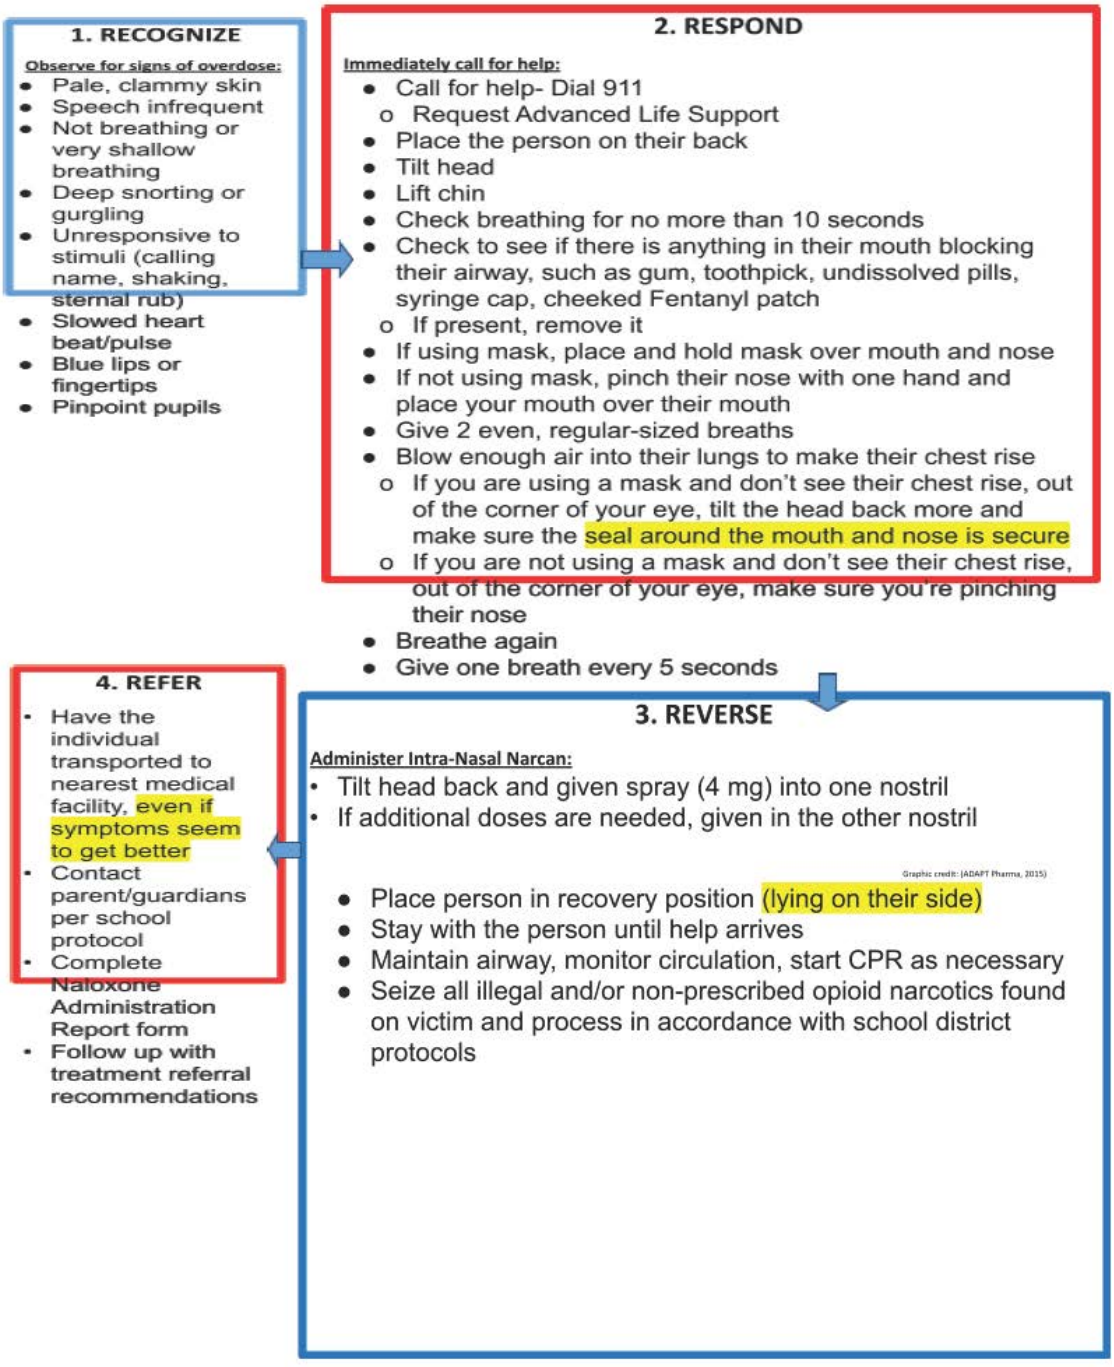
*CPR training is recommended but not required of persons trained to administer an opioid antagonist.

Staff members who volunteer to be trained are protected under the law and will be provided defense and indemnification by the District for any and all civil liability.

This notification is provided annually to all staff. If staff are willing to be identified as a volunteer and be trained, staff complete the volunteer form and submit it to their site administrator.

Employees who volunteer to be trained may rescind their offer to volunteer at any time. No benefit will be granted to or withheld from any individual based on his or her offer to volunteer. There will be no retaliation against any individual for rescinding his or her offer to volunteer, including after receiving training.

Narcan/Naloxone on School Sites:
Each school site is given Narcan/Naloxone packages for overdose or possible overdose events. These complete packages contain:



- Narcan Nasal Spay
- Narcan/Naloxone Quick Start Guide
- Gloves
- Face Mask
- Adult/Child CPR Rescue Mask Kit

o Alcohol Pads
o Rescue Mask Instructions

- Narcan/Naloxone Administration Report

(For additional supplies, please contact the District Office.)

Notification of Immigration Enforcement for Winzler Children's Center

Protocol for Responding to ICE Agents on Campus
(Updated to reflect AB 49, SB 98, and CDE Guidance, September 2025)

This protocol is aligned with recommendations from the California School Board Association (CSBA), the California Department of Education (CDE), and recent legislation (AB 49 and SB 98). It is designed to uphold the law while protecting the rights and safety of students and staff.

Step 1: Remain Calm and Professional
Greet ICE agents respectfully.
Do not obstruct their actions physically or verbally.
Remember: Obstruction may result in legal consequences and loss of federal funding.

Step 2: Verify Access Requirements (AB 49)
Do not allow ICE agents into non-public areas of the school-site (classrooms, offices, buses, field trips, or other LEA-sponsored activities) without one of the following:

- A valid judicial warrant
- A judicial subpoena
- A court order
- A state or federal law requiring compliance

Politely ask:
1. “Do you have a judicial warrant, subpoena, or court order?”
2. “May I have your name and the names of the agents present?”
3. “May I call my principal to help assist in this process?”
4. “May I contact the superintendent/district office to ensure I follow Governing Board Policies correctly?”
5. “May I record this interaction?”

Step 3: Document the Interaction
Record:

- Names of agents
- Time and date of arrival
- Any documents presented
- Details of their requests or actions

Do not interpret legal documents yourself. Immediately forward warrants, subpoenas, or court orders to district-level personnel.

Step 4: Follow Standard Law Enforcement Procedures
Treat ICE agents as you would any other law enforcement officers (LEOs).
Verify credentials.
Ensure all interactions align with visitor management and safety protocols.

Step 5: Communication Protocol (SB 98)
Notify the following if ICE is present on a school site:

- Pupils
- Families
- Faculty and staff
- Other community members as appropriate

Use district-approved messaging channels to ensure clear, accurate, and timely communication.

Step 6: Prioritize Safety and Contact the District Office
Keep students and staff safe and calm.
If uncertain how to proceed, immediately contact the District Office for guidance.
Do not make independent legal determinations—defer to district leadership.
Key Reminders
Student and staff well-being comes first.
Never allow unauthorized access to non-public areas.
Always document interactions and escalate legal review.

Emergencies Disaster Preparedness Plan – BP/AR 3516

The Governing Board recognizes that all district staff and students must be prepared to respond quickly and responsibly to emergencies, disasters, and threats of disaster. The district shall take all reasonable steps to prevent and/or mitigate the impact of a disaster on district students, staff, and schools.

The Superintendent or designee shall develop and maintain a disaster preparedness plan which contains routine and emergency disaster procedures, including, but not limited to, earthquake emergency procedures, and adaptations for individuals with disabilities in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and Section 504 of the federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Provision of a first aid kit to each classroom
Upon notification that a pandemic situation exists, adjustment of attendance policies for students and sick leave policies for staff with known or suspected pandemic influenza or other infectious disease

The Superintendent or designee shall assemble critical information that would be needed in an emergency. Such information may include, but is not limited to, a list of individuals and organizations who should be contacted for assistance in an emergency, current layouts and blueprints of school buildings, aerial photos of the campus, maps of evacuation routes and alternate routes, a roster of employees with their work locations, student photographs and their emergency contact information, a clearly labeled set of keys, location of first aid supplies, procedures and locations for turning off fire alarms, sprinklers, utilities, and other systems, information to access the district's technology infrastructure, and insurance information. Such information shall be stored in a box in a secure, easily accessible location, with a duplicate kept at another location in case the primary location is inaccessible.

Use of SEMS/NIMS *

The District uses the Incident Command System as identified in the Authorities and References section of this plan.

In the event of a major disaster, there is no guarantee emergency medical, or fire personnel will be able to immediately respond to school sites. Therefore, the school staff must be prepared to ensure the care and safety of students during the first several hours after a major disaster without outside assistance. It is critical to determine who does what, where, and how before such a disaster occurs.

Use the Standardized Emergency Management System as detailed in the California Emergency Services Act (Gov. Code Section 8607) and the supporting California Code of Regulations

Disaster Service Worker Status

Government Code 3100
It is hereby declared that the protection of the health and safety and preservation of the lives and property of the people of the state from the effects of natural, manmade, or war-caused emergencies which result in conditions of disaster or in extreme peril to life, property, and resources is of paramount state importance requiring the responsible efforts of public and private agencies and individual citizens. In furtherance of the exercise of the police power of the state in protection of its citizens and resources, all public employees are hereby declared to be disaster service workers subject to such disaster service activities as may be assigned to them by their supervisors or by law.
(Amended by Stats. 1971, Ch. 38.)

These laws have two ramifications: 1) public school employees may be pressed into service as Disaster Service Workers by their superiors and may be asked to do jobs other than their usual duties for periods of time exceeding their normal working hours; and 2) in those cases, their Worker's Compensation Coverage becomes the responsibility of the state government (CalOES). The district, however, pays their overtime pay. These circumstances apply only when a local or State emergency has been proclaimed.

Individualized Safety Plans

The Education Code requires school disaster procedures to also include adaptations for pupils with disabilities in accordance with the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act and Section 504 of the federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and would require the annual evaluation of the comprehensive school safety plan and the annual review of a charter school's school safety plan to also include ensuring that the plan includes appropriate adaptations for pupils with disabilities and address any concerns to individual plans, as specified.

The Board shall cooperate with such agencies in furnishing and maintaining whatever services the district may deem necessary to meet the community's needs. (Education Code 32282)

Emergency Procedures for People with Disabilities

The information contained in this document will assist school administrators, teachers, special education staff, parents, and students in planning for the support that may require for students with special needs in the event of an emergency. For the purposes of this section, students with special needs are those who cannot comfortably or safely access and use the standard resources offered in disaster preparedness, relief and recovery, whether their disability is chronic or temporary.

For individuals with special needs, physical environments may pose additional challenges. The ability to get to accessible exits and access personal items may be reduced. Communication may be impeded at a time when clear and rapid communication is crucial to safety and survival.
To comply with statutes involving students with special needs, individuals responsible for evacuation and emergency operation plans, notification protocols, shelter identification, emergency medical care and other emergency response and recovery programs must:

- Have sound working knowledge of the accessibility and nondiscrimination requirements applicable under Federal disability rights laws;
- Know the special needs demographics of the students attending classes on site;
- Involve students with different types of disabilities, staff, and teachers in identifying the communication and transportation needs, accommodations, support systems, equipment, services, and supplies that they will need during an emergency;
- Consider emergency accommodations for those with temporary disabilities.
- Identify existing resources within the school and local community that meet the special needs of these students;
- Develop new community partners and resources, as needed.
- Inform parents about the efforts to keep their child safe at school;
- Identify medical needs and make an appropriate plan;
- Determine transportation needs, special vans and buses for students;
- Identify any necessary tools such as personal response plans, evacuation equipment or visual aids;
- Include local responders and establish a relationship with individual students with disabilities and their teachers.

Mitigation Strategies (Before an Emergency Occurs)

- Learn about the types of hazards that may impact the school (e.g., earthquakes, floods, wildfires) and assure that emergency response procedures address each one.
- Identify a pre-evacuation site that is accessible to students with disabilities
- Plan a primary and secondary evacuation route from each location the student is in during the course of the day.
- Arrange sufficient transportation ahead of time to accommodate the entire special needs/staff population.
- Develop a schedule of daily activities and classes that identifies where a special needs student may be located each period of the day.
- Consider classroom location in placement of students with disabilities. Evaluate the handicap accessibility of nearby exits and proximity to the school nurse.
- Conduct a test of the family notification system to assure that contact information is up-to-date to help decrease parent anxiety during a disaster.

Tactical Response to Criminal Incidents

ACTIVE SHOOTER OR OTHER ACTIVE ASSAILANTS

All district sites adhere to the standardized procedures for Lockdown and Active Shooter and other Active Assailant listed in this plan if there is an active shooter, individual with a weapon on campus or other possible violent crime. For more details see Active Asailant, Threats , and Lock Down procedures.

Dangerous, Violent, Or Unlawful Activities

SB 671
SB 671 requires a Comprehensive School Safety Plan to include procedures to assess and respond to reports of any dangerous, violent, or unlawful activity that is being conducted or threatened to be conducted at the school, at an activity sponsored by the school, or on a school bus serving the school.

Multidisciplinary Threat Assessment Team
Eureka City Schools uses a multidisciplinary threat assessment team consisting of the specific site administrator, a local law enforcement representative, the student services Director, mental health or behavioral specialist representative as needed, and other outside services as needed.

Assessment and Response
Prohibited and concerning behaviors are defined in California Education Code 48900 and 48915. Additionally, all threats of self-harm are assessed and acted upon, as needed. In cases where dangerous, violent, or unlawful activities are being conducted, Law Enforcement is notified at once and a call to 911 is made.

The threshold of law enforcement intervention is decided by the relevant administration in cooperation with the District and mutual aid if requested. In practice, we find if a real or possible threat is present. We evaluate the threat or possible threat based upon prohibited and concerning behaviors, responding appropriately to the incident.

Risk Management
Risk Management is notified in incidents where there is physical, property or damage to others. Additionally, Risk Management is involved if a security assessment or report is needed. There may be times, following a potential or real incident, that an after-action debrief might be conducted, including a written summary.

School Culture and Training
Eureka City Schools utilizes PBIS as outlined in our PBIS Handbook. Eureka City Schools School Climate Team created our PBIS handbook in consultation with Dr. Jeff Sprague. The purpose of this handbook is to guide and support ECS staff as we implement PBIS in our school. Our goal is to provide all of our students with safe and effective school environments where they can experience academic and social-behavioral success.

Eureka City Schools conducts an annual update to their Comprehensive Safe School Plan at each school site as required by the California Education Code.

Training for all stakeholders is conducted during annual site meetings by administrators and/or district representatives.

Reunification

Student release is a crucial part of emergency planning. During an emergency or disaster, the traditional student release procedure is often unsafe and therefore not operable. Accordingly, a comprehensive emergency plan needs to include certain procedures to accomplish the main priority of safety planning which is to ensure the safety of the students to every extent possible.

There are a wide variety of emergency situations that might require student/family reunification. Student/family reunification may be needed if the site is evacuated or closed as a result of a hazardous materials transportation accident, fire, natural gas leak, flooding, earthquake, tsunami, school violence, bomb threat, terrorist attack or other local hazard.

Student/Family reunification is part of the Incident Command System and is assigned to the Operations Area.

Threats of Violence

THREATS

If a threat is made or if there is a weapon found on campus, the Threat Assessment team (consisting of multi-disciplinary personnel, including but not limited administration, counselors, mental health professionals, Information Technology professionals and law enforcement) will conduct the following steps:

- Evaluate the threat

THEN

- Decide if the threat is clearly transient and respond to the transient threat

o Contact student's parents if necessary.
o Notify intended victim's parents if necessary.
o See that threat is resolved through explanation, apology or making amends.
o Consult with Risk Management & Security Manager or law enforcement if necessary.
o Refer for conflict mediation, restorative justice or counseling to resolve problem as appropriate.
o Follow discipline procedures as per BP/AR.
o Develop Behavior Intervention Plan or Behavior Contract as appropriate.

OR

o Decide if the substantive threat is serious and respond to the serious substantive threat.
o Mobilize threat assessment team members as needed.
o Contact student's parents.
o Notify intended victim's parents.
o Protect and notify intended victim and parents of victim.
o Caution the student about the consequences of carrying out the threat.
o Provide direct supervision of student until parents assume control
o Consult with Risk Management and law enforcement.
o Refer for conflict mediation, restorative justice or counseling to resolve problem is appropriate
o Follow discipline procedures as per BP/AR
o Develop Behavior Intervention Plan

OR

- Decide if the substantive threat is very serious and respond to the very serious substantive threat

o Mobilize threat assessment team members as needed.
o Contact student's parents
o Notify intended victim's parents
o Protect and notify intended victim and parents of victim
o Caution the student about the consequences of carrying out the threat
o Provide direct supervision of student until parents assume control
o Consult with Risk Management & Security Manager and Law Enforcement
o Conduct mental health assessment
o Follow discipline procedures as per BP/AR
o Develop Behavior Intervention Plan

AND

- Implement a safety plan

OTHER CRIMES

If other crimes are committed on campus such as thefts and vandalism school administration, risk management and other needed resources along with law enforcement will conduct an investigation. Depending on the investigation outcomes, administration will follow district procedures for discipline and will assist in any necessary prosecution procedures through the District Attorney's office.

FUNCTIONAL ANNEX

Accounting for all Persons

Attendance Records

It is our daily practice to maintain manual attendance records in the Administrative Office of each site. This includes Daily Attendance Records, Site Employee Logs, Visitor Logs, and Itinerant Employee Logs (such as food services, maintenance and operations, etc.). If there are contractors or contracted service workers on-site in a controlled location (such as fenced areas under construction) the employer of record should be advised to consider keeping their own records of employee locations.

Crisis or Incident Accounting

In the event of a crisis or incident, each site administrator will ensure there are 2 – 3 key employees (only one needs to have control of records at a time – additional staff are only for backup) who will have responsibility as scribes to collect all site attendance records from the administrative office.

These records are to be provided to the on-site incident commander upon request. It is the scribe's responsibility to maintain and protect these records.

In cases where students, staff, or visitors cannot be located, the name and description of the person(s) will be provided to Search and Rescue teams for more specific search. All records of searches and tracking of people on-site will be recorded in appropriate ICS log. The incident commander will be kept informed of attendance status and updated with changes.

Assembly Areas

All staff will report as soon as is possible to their predesignated assembly areas. Premade signs may be used and maintained in assembly kits to assist in identifying specific assembly areas and will be held so as to be easily identified. Assembly area facilitators will distribute/record the attendance of all individuals in their assembly area.

For shelter-in-place or any evacuation, either on-site or off-site, attendance will be taken at any assembly areas and a comparison made to the attendance logs as follows:

Student Daily Attendance
Site Employee Log
Visitor Log
Itinerant Employee Log

Student Release

Student release will be conducted in an orderly fashion as outlined in the Reunification Annex of this plan. Attendance records will be checked and recorded as students leave the site.

Communications

Purpose

The Communications Annex ensures the availability and coordinated use of our communications systems for the dissemination of disaster information, for the exchange of information between decision-makers, and for the coordination of communications with local response agencies.

Scope

When activated, the Communications annex coordinates and supports emergency response/recovery telecommunications requirements. This includes the interface between our District and other agencies and outside organizations, such as local, state, and federal government, private nonprofit organizations, and business/industry. Immediately report communications degradation, interruption, or failure by alternate means (e.g. cell phone) to the Communications Officer and/or the District's Emergency Operations Center (EOC) if activated.

Activation

The senior executive (or designee) determines whether to activate this annex based upon information from initial staff reports and local authorities. The local emergency communications plan will include:
Channel designations
Contingency communications procedures
Training in back-up communications equipment

Key Tasks/Responsibilities

Develop a local communications plan
Establish and maintain liaison with local response agencies, state agencies, commercial communications companies, and amateur radio organizations
Support communications equipment (radio, computer, fax, etc.) as needed
Provide communications capability
Maintain equipment inventory
Designate a centrally-located area (usually main office) easily identified by staff, media, and the public
Predetermine an alternate location in case the primary location is inaccessible
Establish communication with staff
Maintain telephone and radio communication with emergency services
Post rumor control and information on the internet and in an area accessible to our students and the community
Record emergency related incidents
Maintain communication with staff by whatever means available (SMS text messaging, audio alarm warning system, intercom, bullhorn, canned air horn, two-way radio, e-mail, written notices)

Internal Communications

Staff will be notified when an incident occurs and kept informed as additional information becomes available and as plans for management of the situation evolve. The following practices will be utilized to disseminate information internally when appropriate:

Alert Notifications (SMS Texting)

Staff will be notified when an incident occurs and kept informed as additional information becomes available and as plans for management of the situation evolve. The following practices will be utilized to disseminate information internally when appropriate:

Telephone Tree

A telephone tree is a simple, widely used system for notifying staff of an incident when they are not at their primary work location. The tree originates with the senior site official, who contacts the members of the Incident Management Team. Team members then, in turn, will contact groups of staff identified on their call list.

Staff Meetings

As appropriate, updated information about an incident will be presented at regularly scheduled staff meetings. In some cases, special staff meetings may be called as incident evolution requires. Staff will also have the opportunity to address any misinformation or rumors. Any new procedures or temporary changes will also be reviewed at this time.

Communication With the District Administrative Office

The Incident Commander will use the designated countywide Emergency Radio Network to notify the site administrator of our District's status/needs. The site administrator will notify the District office. The District office will notify the County Office of the status of all of the District's sites. He/she will designate staff member(s) to monitor all communications.

Activation

Concept of Operations

The senior executive (or designee) determines whether to activate this annex based upon information from initial staff reports and local authorities. When activated, the Communications annex coordinates and supports emergency response/recovery telecommunications requirements

Immediately report communications degradation, interruption, or failure by alternate means (e.g. cell phone) to our District's Emergency Operations Center (EOC) if activated or the Communications Officer

The local emergency communications plan will include channel designations, contingency communications procedures, and training in back-up communications equipment.

Continuity of Operations (COOP)

General

Continuity of Operations planning is a program that ensures continued performance of essential functions across a full range of potential emergencies, be they natural or man-made, when a significant interruption of operations occurs following a severe disaster or tragedy.

A COOP provides guidance and establishes responsibilities and procedures to ensure that essential functions are maintained. COOP is not the same as an Emergency Operations Plan or a Recovery Plan, but rather supplements it, in the event normal facility or human resources are not available.

A COOP provides a continuity infrastructure that through careful planning ensures:
Emergency delegation of authority and an orderly line of succession, as necessary.
Safekeeping of essential personnel, resources, facilities, and vital records.
Emergency acquisition of resources necessary for business resumption.
The capability to perform critical functions remotely until resumption of normal operations.

A District's COOP plan should allow for its implementation anytime, with or without warning, during normal and after-hours operations; providing full operational capability for essential functions no later than 12 hours after activation; and sustain essential functions for up to 30 days.

The purpose of these Continuity of Operations (COOP) procedures is to ensure that there are procedures in place to maintain or rapidly resume essential operations within the District after an incident that results in disruption of normal activities or services to the District. Failure to maintain these critical services would significantly affect the operations and/or service mission of the District in an adverse way.

Scope

It is the responsibility of the District's officials to protect students and staff from incidents and restore critical operations as soon as it is safe to do so. This responsibility involves identifying and mitigating hazards, preparing for and responding to incidents, and managing the recovery process.

The COOP procedures outline actions needed to maintain and/or rapidly resume essential operations, business, and physical services, when interrupted for an extended period of time following an incident.

Responsibilities

Designated District Staff, in conjunction with the affected administrator(s) and staff, will perform the essential functions as follows:

Senior Executive/Site Administrator

Determine when to close District, and/or send students/staff to alternate locations
Disseminate information internally to students and staff
Communicate with family, media, and the larger community
Identify a line of succession, including who is responsible for restoring which business functions for the District
Ensure systems are in place for rapid contract execution after an incident
Identify relocation areas for site and administrative operations
Create a system for registering students (off site or into alternative locations)
Brief and train staff regarding their additional responsibilities

Secure and provide needed personnel, equipment and supplies, facilities, resources, and services required for continued operations
Identify strategies to continue operations (e.g., using the Internet, providing alternatives to operational contingencies)
Work with local and state government officials to determine when it is safe for students and staff to return to the District's buildings and grounds
Manage the restoration of the District's buildings and grounds (e.g. debris removal, repairing, repainting, and/or landscaping)
Collaborate with private and public-sector service providers and contractors

Administrative Services, District Staff

Maintain inventory
Maintain essential records (and copies of records) including the District's insurance policy
Ensure redundancy of records is kept at a different physical location.
Secure District's equipment and materials in advance.
Restore administrative and recordkeeping functions such as payroll, accounting, and personnel records.
Retrieve, collect, and maintain personnel data
Provide accounts payable and cash management services

Administrative Support Staff

Establish necessary support services for students and staff
Implement additional response and recovery activities according to established protocols
Collaborate with public and private providers

Food Services Worker

Determine how food services will resume
Support staff and volunteers as much as possible

Transportation

Provide emergency transportation services as needed
Assess and implement alternative transportation services that may be necessitated

Evacuation

General

Evacuation is one means of protecting the staff, students and visitors from the effects of a hazard through the orderly movement of person(s) away from the hazard. The type and magnitude of the emergency will dictate the scale of an evacuation (i.e., evacuation area).

Concept of Operations

Evacuation orders are generally given by the following:
Local Police
Environmental Health & Safety
Facilities Services
Administrator, director, or building supervisor
Fire Department with jurisdiction
Any person identifying a hazard and by activating the fire alarm system via a fire alarm pull station

Evacuation Procedures

Evacuation will be initiated by means of the fire alarm system. Whenever the alarm is sounded all occupants of all buildings are to initiate the evacuation procedure.
Take the Incident Action packet/binder which has a current class list and a red/green 8½ x 11 card (red on one side and green on the other side)
Close all doors and windows. (DO NOT LOCK DOORS)
Follow the safest evacuation route to the assembly or safe dispersal area.
Teachers are to take roll and make certain no one reenters the building for any reason.
If all students are present with staff member, staff will hold up the GREEN sheet to acknowledge to responsible incident management person that all students are present.
Support staff who have regular schedules with students need to have a green and red card also. If all students who are regularly scheduled are in their care and custody, they are to raise the green card, so staff member and responsible incident management person can see.
Staff members are to raise the red card even if they think a student is with support staff so responsible incident management person can account for those students.
If a student is not present, the staff member will hold up the RED card and wait for the administration to contact him/her to see who is absent. The responsible incident management person will coordinate the search for the missing student.
Students should remain 30 – 50 feet away from any building.
Students are to remain in groups, until the all clear signal is given.

On-Site Evacuation

The Incident Commander or designee activates fire alarm.
All staff follow the Evacuation Procedures identified above.
Once assembled, building occupants remain in their designated assembly or safe dispersal area until further instructions are given.
Reentry is only authorized after it is determined that conditions and buildings are deemed safe by appropriate incident management staff.

Off-Site Evacuation

If it is determined that the buildings and area are not safe for occupation and that the On-Site Evacuation locations are also at risk, the appropriate incident management staff will initiate an Off-Site Evacuation.
The Incident Commander or designee determines safest method for evacuating the site. This may include use of buses or simply walking to designated off-site location.
Staff members secure the student roster when leaving the building and take attendance once group is assembled in pre-designated safe location.
Once assembled off-site, staff members and students stay in place until further instructions are given.
In the event clearance is received from appropriate agencies, Incident Commander may authorize students and staff to return to buildings.

Evacuating Students with Disabilities

Procedures and actions regarding the special needs' population should cover the evacuation, transportation and medical needs of students who will require extreme special handling in an emergency. In most cases, additional safeguards must be established regarding roles, responsibilities and procedures for students with physical, sensory, emotional and health disabilities.

The following are steps that cover the evacuation procedure of student(s) with disabilities:
Review all paths of travel and potential obstacles
Know the facility, grounds, paths, exits and potential obstacles
Determine the primary and secondary paths of exit to be used during emergencies
Individuals with mobility impairments will need a smooth, solid, level walking surface, an exit that avoids barriers such as stairs, narrow doors and elevators and guardrails that protect open sides of the path
Compile and distribute evacuation route information to be used during emergency operations
Include alternative evacuation route information, should the primary route be inaccessible due to damage or danger
Install appropriate signage and visual alarms
Place evacuation information indicating primary and secondary exits in all offices, rooms, multipurpose rooms, hallways/corridors, lobbies, bathrooms and cafeterias. For passages and doorways that might be mistaken for an exit, place visible signs that proclaim, "NOT AN EXIT"
Place emergency notification devices appropriate for each student
Post signage with the name and location of each area so that the students will know exactly where they are, in order to comply with ADA (American's with Disabilities Act) Accessibility

Buildings and Facilities Signage Requirements

Approximately 60 inches above the floor
In a location that is not obscured in normal operation such as a swinging door
In all primary function areas

Preparation and Planning

Identify the students and staff with special needs and the type of assistance they will require in an emergency
Allow visitors to self-identify on a sign-in log if they have special evacuation needs
Discuss evacuation issues with the staff members and caretakers of students with special needs, including individuals, who may be temporarily disabled (i.e. a student with a broken leg)
Train staff in general evacuation procedures

Review the areas of rescue, primary exits, evacuation techniques, and the locations and operation of emergency equipment
Provide in-depth training to those designated to evacuate students with special needs
Train the staff for proper lifting techniques when lifting a person for evacuation
Anyone can assist a student with a visual impairment
Check on each special needs student to assure he/she is accounted for during an evacuation
Review the plan with emergency response personal, including local police, fire and emergency medical technicians
Identify “areas of rescue” in our site for students to wait for evacuation assistance from emergency personnel
Before operations begin in the Fall, walk around the site with first responders so that they are familiar with the primary exits and all areas of rescue; these areas must meet specifications for fire resistance and ventilation
Ask the responders to conduct a special drill explaining how they will support the students and staff with special needs during an emergency
Complete all contracts and Statements of Understanding with key emergency support providers
Ensure that sufficient transportation capacity exists with transportation providers, partner agencies, and suppliers to effectively meet the demand in an emergency
Identify transportation contracts through the District in case of an emergency; Emergency response for special needs requires special vans and special equipment
Specify who will do what to address these transportation needs
Develop a list of District-owned vehicles, staff vehicles that are available and make prior arrangements for their use in the event of an emergency
Review the evacuation plan with students and staff to be familiar with the process and identify any problems
Practice implementation of special duck and cover actions by students with able-bodied partners
Students should be aware that evacuation by themselves may be difficult or impossible because of obstacles in their path or because electric dependent machines may not function (i.e. elevator)
Special pre-planned assistance must be provided and reviewed regularly

Lockdown

General

A District or school site lock down is necessary when the threat of violence or gunfire is identified or directed by law enforcement and it is necessary to prevent the perpetrator(s) from entering occupied areas. During lock down, students are to remain in rooms or designated locations at all times.

Instructions

If a lock down situation is required, the Site Administrator will make an announcement on the Public Address (PA) system. If the PA system is not available, the Site Administrator will use other means of communication (e.g., sending messengers to deliver instructions). The Site Administrator should be calm, convey reassuring comments that the situation is under control, and provide clear and consistent directions. Below is an example of an announcement to be made by the Site Administrator:

"YOUR ATTENTION PLEASE. WE HAVE AN EMERGENCY SITUATION. STAFF ARE TO LOCK ROOM DOORS UNTIL NOTIFIED BY AN ADMINISTRATOR OR LAW ENFORCEMENT. STUDENTS AND STAFF ARE TO PROCEED TO THE NEAREST ROOM OR BUILDING. PLEASE REMAIN INDOORS UNTIL FURTHER INSTRUCTIONS ARE PROVIDED."

If inside, staff should instruct students to lie on the floor, move away from doors and remain in the center of the room out of the line of fire, lock the doors (if possible), and close any shades or blinds if it appears safe to do so. Students and staff who are physically unable to lie on the ground should move away from doors and windows.
If outside, students should proceed to their rooms if it is safe to do so. If it is not safe, staff must direct students into nearby rooms or other District buildings (e.g., auditorium, library, cafeteria, and gymnasium).
District staff and students must remain in their room or secured area until further instructions are provided by the Site Administrator or law enforcement.
Landline phones should not be used. District staff should use cell phones and speak quietly.
All site entrances and exits must be locked, and no visitors other than appropriate law enforcement or emergency personnel are to be allowed on the site.

Public, Medical, and Mental Health

General

Establishment of public, medical, and mental health procedures, will assist the District in preparing for, responding to, and recovering from an incident that affects the health and safety of students, staff, and family. Furthermore, coordination with Public Health agencies, Emergency Medical Services (EMS), and Mental Health support services will broaden their capacity to deal with these incidents by providing the District with resources beyond their existing expertise and training.

Public Health

Procedures

Designate District Medical Manager and/or other key personnel as the individual(s) responsible for coordinating incidents such as disease outbreaks, bioterrorism, and natural disasters with local, State, and Federal Public Health agencies.
Coordinate with local, State, and Federal Public Health agencies on information sharing protocols.
Develop procedures for reporting information to local, State, and Federal Public Health agencies.
Contact local Public Health agency to determine notification procedures for students/family, staff, and public, if necessary.
Send out any required notification to students/family, staff and public as required.
Establish a dedicated contact phone number for questions and concerns.
Coordinate with local, State, and Federal Public Health agencies, for assistance with managing large scale incidents or incidents beyond the District's resources.

Medical Health

Procedures

Designate District Medical Manager and/or other key personnel as the individual(s) responsible for coordinating incidents involving students or staff injuries or illnesses
Provide CPR/First Aid/AED to all staff designated to work in medical capacity
Establish a triage area for injured students and staff
Separate walking wounded, critically injured and deceased individuals (Keep a log of names of these individuals)
Keep a record of students and staff that are transported off-site for treatment.
Coordinate with local Emergency Medical Services (EMS) agencies for assistance with large scale incidents or incidents beyond the District's resources.

Mental Health

Procedures

Designate crisis counselors and/or other key personnel as the individual(s) responsible for coordinating incidents with local, State, and Federal Mental Health agencies
Activate crisis counselors during the incident to begin identifying students and staff that require assistance
Keep a log of individuals counseled or that require counseling following the incident
Notify students, family, and staff of counseling services available
Coordinate with local, State, and Federal Mental Health agencies, for assistance with large scale incidents or incidents beyond the 's resources.

Psychological First Aid for Schools (PFA-S)

The field of school safety and emergency management has evolved significantly over the past decade. Tragically, acts of violence, natural disasters, and terrorist attacks have taught us many lessons. We also know that other types of emergencies can impact schools, including medical emergencies, transportation accidents, sports injuries, peer victimization, public health emergencies, and the sudden death of a member of the school community. We now recognize the need for school emergency management plans that are up-to-date and take an “all-hazards”approach with clear communication channels and procedures that effectively reunite parents and caregivers with students. We have also learned that preparing school administrators, teachers, and school partnering agencies before a critical event is crucial for effective response, the value of ongoing training and emergency exercises, and that having intervention models that address the public health, mental health, and psychosocial needs of students and staff is essential to a safe school environment and the resumption of learning. (excerpted from Psychological First Aid for Schools, Field Operations Guide, 2nd Edition)

Field Operations Guide (FOG)

We use the PFA-S FOG as-needed, to prepare and respond to critical incidents affecting the mental health of our students. https://www.nctsn.org/resources/psychological-first-aid-schools-pfa-s-field-operations-guide

Public Safety and Security

Purpose

The Public Safety and Security Annex integrates State public safety and security capabilities and resources to support the full range of incident management activities.

Scope

The Public Safety and Security Annex provides a mechanism for coordinating and providing support to local law enforcement authorities to include non-investigative/non-criminal law enforcement, public safety, and security capabilities and resources during incidents. The Public Safety and Security Annex capabilities support incident management requirements, including force and critical infrastructure protection, security planning and technical assistance, technology support, and public safety, in both pre-incident and post-incident situations. The Public Safety and Security Annex generally is activated in situations requiring extensive assistance to provide public safety and security.

Key Tasks/Responsibilities

Coordinate public safety and security support (including personnel and equipment) to any affected department/agency during preparation for, response to, and/or recovery from any real or potential incident.
County Sheriff's Office
Police Department
Other Law Enforcement Agencies
Private Security Companies

Coordinate critical information dissemination regarding public safety/security through mass warning/notification.

County Sheriff's Office
Police Department
Dispatch
County Emergency Management
Facilitate multi-function public safety activities such as evacuation, traffic, looting, and riot control
County Sheriff's Office
Police Department
Other Law Enforcement Agencies
Fire/EMS

Concept of Operations

Local law enforcement authorities have the primary responsibility for public safety and security and are the first line of response and support in these functional areas, utilizing the Incident Command System on-scene
In larger-scale incidents, additional resources should first be obtained through the activation of mutual aid agreements with neighboring jurisdictions and/or State authorities, which may require the management of incident operations through a Unified Command structure

Through the Public Safety and Security Annex, outside resources supplement local resources when requested or required, as appropriate, and are integrated into the incident command structure using National Incident Management System principles and protocols
The Public Safety and Security Annex activities should not be confused with the activities described in the Terrorism Incident Annex or other criminal investigative law enforcement activities

As the lead law enforcement official in the United States, the Attorney General, generally acting through the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), maintains the lead for criminal investigations of terrorist acts or terrorist threats by individuals or groups inside the United States
The Public Safety and Security Annex is activated when public safety and security capabilities and resources are needed to support incident operations
This includes threat or pre-incident as well as post-incident situations
When activated, the primary agencies assess public safety and security needs, and respond to requests for resources and planning/technical assistance from county agencies
The Public Safety and Security Annex manages support by coordinating the implementation of authorities related to public safety and security and protection of property, including critical infrastructure, and security resources and technologies and other assistance to support incident management operations and security capabilities and resources are needed to support incident operations
This includes threat or pre-incident as well as post-incident situations
The Public Safety and Security Annex maintains close coordination with Federal, State, and local officials to determine public safety and security support requirements and to jointly determine resource priorities
The primary agencies maintain communications with supporting agencies to determine capabilities, assess the availability of resources, and track resources that have been deployed

Recovery

General

When a disaster occurs, it is all too easy to get consumed by the urgent activities and emotions surrounding the event. That is understandable but don't allow the intensity of the incident to distract you from some extremely important actions you should be taking. Keep in mind that no financial assistance will occur until there is a declared disaster by the State and the Federal governments.

Tracking time and material (supplies and equipment specifically used for the disaster) should happen always, regardless of disaster declarations. There is no guarantee that we will get our expenses reimbursed. We are at the mercy of the State and Federal governments. In most cases, however, labor and materials specific to the disaster response get reimbursed. Losses already covered by our insurance are typically NOT reimbursed. For example, if an employee is injured our Workers' Compensation would cover the injured employee. If a building was damaged and our insurance does not cover that specific cause of loss there may be a chance it is reimbursable.

Before – Action Items

Establish relationships and contact information from our county Operational Area and Coordinating Council (OACC)
Create and maintain a current contact list with this information and other contact information essential to the Finance/Administration Section of our ICS structure
Train and practice the Start-up, Operation of, and the Closure of this ICS Section.
Modify and update our Emergency Operations Plan as necessary

During – Action Items

Within the very first moments of an incident, begin tracking every employee's and volunteer's time spent on the incident. (Be alert to any announcements from local or State government regarding "Public Assistance" requests or meetings.) Use the form designed for that purpose, the Activity Log (ICS 214). If not readily available, make sure each person is tracking the following:
Incident name
Date
Worker's name
Log each major activity and track start and end times
Don't be concerned with tracking too much – that can be sorted out after the event
This information will need to be transferred onto the Activity Log (ICS 214) before we can apply for Public Assistance funding (this is what they call the State and Federal reimbursement program)
Keep track of ANY disaster-related expenditures for supplies or equipment. It is best to retain copies of priced-out receipts and invoices for possible State and Federal reimbursement. For example, if our facilities may be used as a shelter and we are required to provide custodial services specific to the shelter, toilet paper, paper towels, cleaning material and chemicals would all likely be reimbursable. If our facility were being used as a medical care facility and the HVAC system required filters different than what we would normally use, the cost of the filters (and the labor to change them) are likely reimbursable.
Establish the Recovery Unit in the Finance/Administration Section of our Emergency Operations Center (EOC).
Have all sites or units collect information on their ability to sustain operations.
Develop staffing pattern for the Recovery Unit.

Collect information on damages, duration and impact from the following:
Utility Providers

Social, medical and health services
Transportation routes and services
Debris issues
County Government Operations
Private sector retail and wholesale providers
Others
Develop initial short term and long-term recovery objectives.
Refer to hazard/threat-specific annexes for information.
Develop information for the PIO on the recovery process and progress.
Develop a plan to assign personnel to sustain the recovery effort
Coordinate with the OACC, other local jurisdictions and the State on their recovery efforts.
While it is best if we already have an established relationship with our county Operational Area Coordinating Council (OACC) contact, we need to identify that individual and the means of communicating with them. We will want them to know who at our District will serve as the contact for emergency incidents. This will serve a couple of purposes:
It will keep our District "in the loop" and better informed when an incident affecting our District occurs
It will alert us to any notice of "Public Assistance" informational meetings to learn about getting Federal and State reimbursement for disaster related District activity
If our county's OACC is overwhelmed with an incident we should reach out directly to our Emergency Services Coordinator at the Governor's Office of Emergency Services Region Operational Area.
Ask them to put the District on the list for notification of "Public Assistance" informational meetings
There are forms that will be exchanged between our District and the OACC or the California Governor's Office of Emergency Services (they act as our liaison with FEMA)
If our employees and volunteers remain under our direction and control we are responsible for any costs associated with their activities. Should they perform work that they would not normally do and it is attributable to the disaster we will likely be able to reimburse the labor. Management costs are typically NOT reimbursable.
If our employees and volunteers, or our facilities, are tasked outside of our District we must only do so under the terms of a mutual aid agreement or memorandum of understanding to which the District have agreed, in writing. Make sure we understand when and if risk transfer occurs as it should be clear in these documents. These documents should identify, specifically, what is "covered" and by "whom." Examples for other agency usage of our facility might include the Fire Department using our facility as a command center for the incident.
Or, local hospitals may be "at-capacity" and need our facility to provide some form of medical or health services. In these cases, (like the case of sheltering) a written request for use of our facilities should be on file or requested prior to allowing the agency to use them. These documents should specify what they will and will not cover in terms of costs related to using the facility. Typically, if an outside agency damages the property or they cause a liability exposure, they are responsible for coverage.

When in doubt, ask for help.

After – Action Items

Begin closing the Recovery Unit
Assign any open or pending tasks, such as Public Assistance funding or other outstanding receivables or payables, to appropriate staff with specific checkup or due dates
Make sure all Activity Logs and equipment/supply records have been assembled and recorded into the request for Public Assistance from Cal OES and FEMA
Conduct an After-Action debrief within the Finance/Administration Section and include that in the main incident After-Action debrief held by the District
Review our EOP and include any lessons learned or altered actions into the plan for update and redistribution to the emergency management team
Participate in and debriefings provided by our ICS team and close the Recovery Unit

Reunification

General

Student release is a crucial part of emergency planning. During an emergency or disaster, the traditional student release procedure is often unsafe and therefore not operable. Accordingly, a comprehensive emergency plan needs to include certain procedures to accomplish the main priority of safety planning which is to ensure the safety of the students to every extent possible.

There are a wide variety of emergency situations that might require student/family reunification. Student/family reunification may be needed if the site is evacuated or closed as a result of a hazardous materials transportation accident, fire, natural gas leak, flooding, earthquake, tsunami, school violence, bomb threat, terrorist attack or other local hazard.

Student/Family reunification is part of the Incident Command System and is assigned to the Operations Area.

Reunification Procedures

In an emergency, sites must establish a safe area for family members to meet with students. This area must be away from the both the damage and the student's assembly area. In a typical release the following steps will be followed:

Family member will report to the assigned area and give the name of the student
Picture ID will normally be required by the person in charge to insure the person requesting a minor is a match to the name on the emergency release card
A runner will go to the student assembly area and get the minor requested by the parent or adult and escort the student back to the pick-up area
Parents will be asked to sign a form indicating they picked up the minor (the date and time will also be indicated on the pick-up form)
If the minor is in the first aid area, the parent will be escorted to that area for reunification with their child/children
Counselors, when available, will be located close to the first aid area in the event they are needed

Traffic Control

Traffic may be controlled by trained and authorized employees who meet the requirements outlined in the Manual on Uniform Traffic Control Devices (MUTCD) Part 7, Traffic Control for School Areas. In the absence of this condition, we must wait until local law enforcement is available and on scene at the site.
To every extent possible, two-way traffic will be maintained to allow for entry and exit of emergency vehicles
As the situation develops there may be time for barricades and other traffic control devices to be delivered and set up
It should be understood this will not occur at the beginning of the incident
When law enforcement arrives on the scene they will take charge and do whatever is necessary, including the towing of vehicles to manage the emergency or disaster

Maintaining the Procedures

Student rosters should be updated at least twice a year
If enrollment dictates this may be updated more frequently
Updated rosters should be stored in every room in an area easily identified by the both staff and substitutes.
Additional copies of the rosters should be distributed to the site administrator and placed in the back of the emergency plan binder

Emergency cards should be filled out at the beginning of the year
This card should include contact information on family members, as well as other adults who can be contacted if the family member is not available
The card should also indicate who the minor is permitted to leave site with, if necessary
DO NOT release students to people not listed on the student emergency card.
A well- intentioned friend may offer to take a minor home; however, District staff must be certain that students are only released to the appropriate people, so their families will know where they are
The card should also include all pertinent medical information such as allergies, medications, and doctor contact information
These cards should be stored in the front office in both hard copy and electronically, if possible

Things to Remember

Some family members will refuse to cooperate with the student/family reunification process
This situation can be diminished, to some degree, if family members are informed about the District's release procedures before the disaster or emergency occurs
They should be reminded that the safety of their student is our utmost priority
Family members may be emotional when arriving at the site
Have counselors available to deal with issues if needed
Shortly after the incident, the media will have a presence on our site
The Public Information Officer, part of the command staff operating under the Incident Command System, will deal with the media, however, it is important that family be sheltered from media representatives

Shelter-in-Place

General

This action is taken to place and/or keep students indoors in order to provide a greater level of protection from airborne contaminants in outside air. Shelter-in-place is implemented when there is a need to isolate students and staff from the outside environment and includes the shutdown of room and/or building air systems. During shelter-in-place, no one should be exposed to the outside air.

Description of Action

If an emergency occurs that requires students and staff to Shelter-in-Place, the Site Administrator will make an announcement on the PA system. If the PA system is not available, the Site Administrator will use other means of communication (e.g., sending messengers to deliver instructions). The Site Administrator should be calm, convey reassuring comments that the situation is under control, and provide clear and consistent directions. Below is an example of an announcement to be made by the Site Administrator:

"YOUR ATTENTION PLEASE. WE HAVE RECEIVED INFORMATION REGARDING A HAZARD IN THE COMMUNITY. WE ARE INSTITUTING SHELTER-IN-PLACE PROCEDURES. PLEASE REMAIN INSIDE THE BUILDING AWAY FROM OUTSIDE AIR WITH WINDOWS AND DOORS SECURELY CLOSED AND AIR CONDITIONING UNITS TURNED OFF. ALL STUDENTS AND STAFF THAT ARE OUTSIDE ARE TO IMMEDIATELY MOVE TO THE PROTECTION OF AN INSIDE ROOM. PLEASE REMAIN INDOORS UNTIL FURTHER INSTRUCTIONS ARE PROVIDED."

If inside, staff should keep students in their rooms until further instructions are given
If outside, students must proceed to their rooms if it is safe to do so
If it is determined to be unsafe, staff should direct students into nearby rooms or buildings (e.g., auditorium, library, cafeteria, and gymnasium)
Staff and students who were exposed to outside air should congregate in indoor locations away from individuals who were not exposed to outside air
Anyone who is exhibiting symptoms must be treated
Staff is responsible for securing individual rooms and for completing the following procedures as needed:
Shut down the room/building HVAC (Heating Ventilation and Air Conditioning) system
Turn off local fans in the area
Close and lock doors and windows

If necessary, seal gaps under doors and windows with wet towels or duct tape, seal vents with aluminum foil or plastic wrap, and turn off sources of ignition, such as pilot lights

Situational Awareness

In the U.S., every public agency is expected to address situational awareness and personnel security. Situational Awareness is the ability to identify, process, and comprehend the critical information about an incident. More simply, it is knowing what is going on around us.

Overview

Situational Awareness requires continuous monitoring of relevant sources of information regarding actual incidents and developing hazards. A common core function of Emergency Operations Centers (EOC) is gaining, maintaining, and sharing Situational Awareness and developing a Situational Picture (SitPic) that is shared between the Incident ICS, EOC, JIS, and field staff participants in the incident.

In the early stages of activation, the EOC will obtain Situational Awareness. This is important because accurate, timely information will enable more informed, effective decision-making. An excellent tool for developing and maintaining this condition of the OODA loop.

OODA Loop

The OODA loop is the cycle: observe–orient–decide–act, developed by military strategist and United States Air Force Colonel John Boyd in the 1960s. Boyd applied the concept to the combat operations process, often at the operational level during military campaigns. It is now also often applied to understand commercial operations and learning processes.
The OODA loop has become an important concept in emergency management. According to Boyd, decision-making occurs in a recurring cycle of observe–orient–decide–act. An entity (whether an individual or an organization) that can process this cycle quickly, observing and reacting to unfolding events more rapidly than an “opponent,” can thereby "get inside" the opponent's decision cycle and gain the advantage.

Observe – Sensing yourself and the world around you
Orient – What you believe: a complex set of filters of genetic heritage, cultural predispositions, personal experience, and knowledge
Decide – A review of alternative courses of action and the selection of the preferred course as a hypothesis to be tested.
Act – Testing the decision chosen for implementation.

Every employee is a critical link to situational awareness. This annex address the expectations of this District in establishing and maintaining a vital communication and informational internal network. Whether you are in an office environment, inside a building, in the field, or at home, what you observe and absorb are invaluable to our District.

Prepare

The following list includes the minimum expectations for every employee:
Develop and maintain a personal family communication plan
Use the Family Emergency Communication Plan – Wallet Sized provided by our District
The plan should be completed at hire and updated when any of the information changes but at least annually
Share our plan with your family
Review and familiarize yourself with the District’s Emergency Operations Plan (EOP)
Prepare a “Go-Bag” for yourself with a 3-day supply of food and water
See the “Go-Bag” guide for help in assembling and stocking
Keep a copy of the District’s Critical Incident Field Operations Guide (FOG) with you at all times during work hours

Field Protocol

Before, during, and after critical incidents there are some basic steps you should take to improve your situation and help others in need:

f you are operating a vehicle or other equipment, stop your activity as soon as is safely possible (If driving, follow safe driving practices and get maneuver your vehicle without endangering your own or the safety of others)
Assess the situation using the OODA loop and take appropriate action
Follow our District's Communication protocols as outlined in the EOP
If you are unable to proceed to your primary location (starting and ending shift worksite) find out if you can return to an alternate site
If returning to any of these sites proves unreasonable, proceed to the nearest public facility (police or fire station, hospital, local government office) and notify our District of your exact location
Provide our District's Emergency Operations Center (EOC) with as much detailed information as possible:
Time, Date, and Location of Critical Incident
Your condition (unaffected, injured, etc.) and the condition of your equipment
Describe the type of incident such as fire, hazmat, earthquake, etc.
Provide details on estimate impact in your area (how much loss or damage)

Disaster Service Worker

As a California public employee, you may be called upon to work as a Disaster Service Worker (DSW) in the event of an emergency. The information contained in the Disaster Service Worker website will help you understand your role and obligations as a disaster service worker, and what to do in an emergency (California Government Code Section 3100-3109).

Special Needs Population

Planning Needs and Assumptions

For individuals with special needs, physical environments become a great deal more hostile and difficult to deal with during and after an emergency. The ability to get to accessible exits and personal items may be reduced. Communication may be impeded at a time when clear and rapid communication is crucial to safety and survival.

To comply with statutes involving students with special needs, individuals responsible for evacuation and emergency operation plans, notification protocols, shelter identification, emergency medical care and other emergency response and recovery programs must:

Have sound working knowledge of the accessibility and nondiscrimination requirements applicable under Federal disability rights laws
Know the special needs demographics of the attending students on site
Involve students with different types of disabilities and staff in identifying the communication and transportation needs, accommodations, support systems, equipment, services, and supplies that they will need during an emergency
Consider emergency accommodations for those with temporary disabilities
Identify existing resources within the site and local community that meet the special needs of these students
Develop new community partners and resources, as needed
Inform family members about the efforts to keep students safe
Identify medical needs and make an appropriate plan
Determine transportation needs, special vans, and buses for students
Identify any necessary tools such as personal response plans, evacuation equipment or visual aids
Include local responders and establish a relationship with individual students with disabilities and staff

HAZARD/THREAT ANNEX

Hazard-Threat Assessment

A representative number of participants were selected to participate in the Hazard-Threat Assessment Survey (HTAS). This survey follows best practices in emergency management and is a very important part of updating our Emergency Operations Plan.

This survey was designed to help us prioritize possible threats or hazards we may face. It covers many possible scenarios but is not exhaustive in nature. The survey information generated is invaluable in helping our Emergency Operations Plan Collaborative Planning Team identify the hazards and threats most likely to impact us.

The Collaborative Planning team has selected the following Hazards/Threats to be included in this annex:
Active Assailant
Cyber Threat or Attack
Earthquake
Extreme Heat and Unhealthy Air Quality
Fire-Structural
Fire-Forest, Wildfire, or Urban Interface
Infectious Disease
Power and Utility Failure
Severe Weather
Tsunami

Active Assailant

Purpose

Active assailant situations are often over within 10 to 15 minutes, before law enforcement arrives on the scene. Individuals must be prepared both mentally and physically to deal with an active assailant situation.

This Annex will address current best practices for dealing with Active Assailants, Before, During, and After an incident.

Situation and Assumptions

An Active Assailant is an individual actively engaged in the killing or attempting to kill people in a confined and populated area. In most cases, active assailants use firearms and there is no pattern or method to their selection of victims.

Active Assailant situations are unpredictable and evolve quickly. Typically, the immediate deployment of law enforcement is required to stop the attack and mitigate harm to victims.

Continuity of Operations (Annex Specific)

Continuity of Operations is defined as the internal effort of an organization to assure that the capability exists to continue essential functions and services in response to a comprehensive array of potential emergencies or disasters.

In the case of an active assailant actions can be taken in advance to mitigate some of the outcome of the attack.

Organization and Assignment of Responsibilities

Refer to the Organization and Assignment of Responsibilities section located in the Basic Plan.

Plan Development

This annex is part of the Hazard and Threat Annex and was developed using current best practices

Incident Command Actions

Before

Threat and Physical Security Assessment of each site

Conducting periodic threat and physical security assessments will ensure that best practices are in place to control access to your campus.

- Appropriate perimeter fencing installation and maintenance
- Locks and closers on perimeter gates that prevent outsiders from opening the gate (mesh screen around gate area)
- Check for keyed exterior locksets of all classroom doors
- Make sure the lockset on the interior of the classroom door has a thumb lock or other quick-lock style lockset (see Figure 1- Interior Lock)
- Verify visitor access control is in place and works as intended
- Require classroom doors to be closed and locked when students are present

Student Education

- Educate students (age appropriate) through workshops, seminars, lectures, and any other opportunity to teach about the hazards of an active assailant/physical threat and ways each person can potentially react to such a situation
- Supplement in-person instructional elements with additional information to reinforce the training

Such material may be distributed in a variety of ways, including but not limited to web pages, social media, printed literature, radio/TV, etc.
Foster a respectful school community
Be aware of indications of violence and take remedial actions accordingly (i.e. If you see something, say something)

Behavioral Red Flags
Recognizing indicators for potential violence by an individual:
Increased use of alcohol and/or illegal drugs
Unexplained increase in absenteeism; vague physical complaints
Noticeable decrease in attention to appearance and hygiene
Depression/withdrawal
Resistance and overreaction to changes in policy and procedures
Repeated violations of District policies
Increased severe mood swings
Noticeably unstable, emotional responses
Explosive outbursts of anger or rage without provocation
Suicidal; comments about “putting things in order”
Behavior, which is suspect of paranoia, (“everybody is against me”)
Increasingly talks of personal problems
Talk of severe financial problems
Talk of previous incidents of violence
Empathy with individuals committing violence
Increase in unsolicited comments about firearms, other dangerous weapons, and violent crimes

Develop a positive behavioral intervention program that identifies at-risk behaviors early on and ensures administration is aware of these individuals
Decide upon communications and public information releases with your Public Information Officer prior to an incident
Develop model releases that provide well thought out and consistent messaging on behalf of the District
Discuss and decide upon Spontaneous Memorial practices including
Ease of public access
Minimize disruption of vehicular and pedestrian traffic
Monitored for appropriateness of items placed at the memorial
Prepared to announce the one location to the public and that it will be open from/to specific dates (typically no longer than 2-3 weeks)
Line-of-sight view by administration

During

Responding to an Active Assailant/Physical Threat

If you are in a situation where your safety is in question and you are at risk of harm from another person, you must quickly determine the most reasonable way to protect your own life.

Run (evacuate)

If there is an accessible escape path, attempt to evacuate the building/area. Be sure to:
Have an escape route and plan in mind
Evacuate regardless of whether others agree to follow
Leave your belongings behind
Help others escape, if possible
Prevent individuals from entering an area where the active assailant may be
Keep your hands visible, to prevent confusion to law enforcement
Follow the instructions of law enforcement personnel
Do not attempt to move wounded people
Notify Police when you are safe

Hide (lockdown)

If evacuation is not possible, find a place to hide where the active assailant is less likely to find you. Your hiding place should:
Be out of the active assailant's view
Provide protection if shots are fired in your direction (i.e. a room with a closed and locked door)
Not trap you or restrict your options for movement
Remember Cover vs. Concealment
Spread out to reduce target area
To prevent an active assailant from entering your hiding place:
Lock the door, if possible
Blockade the door with whatever is available – heavy furniture, door wedges, file cabinets, etc.
Cover any windows or openings that have a direct line of sight into a hallway
If the active assailant is nearby:
Lock the door, if possible
Close windows, shades and curtains.
Silence all cell phone and other electronic devices
Turn off any source of noise (i.e. radios, televisions, etc.)
Hide behind large items (i.e. cabinets, desks)
Remain silent

Do not sound the fire alarm
A fire alarm would signal the occupants to evacuate the building and thus place them in potential harm as they attempted to exit
Notify Police when it is safe to do so

Fight

If running and hiding are not possible:
Remain calm
Notify Police, if possible, to alert hem of the active assailant's location
If you cannot speak, leave the line open and allow the dispatcher to listen
As a last resort, and only when your life is in imminent danger, attempt to disrupt and/or incapacitate the active assailant by:
Acting as aggressively as possible against him/her
Throwing items and improvising weapons
Yelling
Committing to your actions

Law Enforcement

Law enforcement's purpose is to stop the active assailant as soon as possible. Officers will proceed directly to the area in which the last shots were heard.

While officers may prefer to team up, they are likely to deploy individually, upon arrival at the scene
Officers may wear regular patrol uniforms or external bulletproof vests, Kevlar helmets, and other tactical equipment
Officers may be armed with rifles, shotguns, handguns
Officers may use pepper spray or tear gas to control the situation
Officers may shout commands, and may push individuals to the ground for their safety
The first officers to arrive to the scene will not stop to help injured persons. Expect rescue teams comprised of additional officers and emergency medical personnel to follow the initial officers. These rescue teams will treat and remove any injured persons. They may also call upon able-bodied individuals to assist in removing the wounded from the premises.

While law enforcement personnel are still assessing the situation, uniformed security and/or police officers will move through the entire area to ensure the threat is over. For the safety of you and the officers, you may be handcuffed until the incident details are fully known.

How to react when law enforcement arrives:

Remain calm, and follow officers' instructions
Put down any items in your hands (i.e., cell phones, bags, jackets)
Immediately raise hands and spread fingers
Always keep hands visible
Avoid making quick movements toward officers such as holding on to them for safety
Avoid pointing, screaming and/or yelling
Do not stop to ask officers for help or direction when evacuating, just proceed in the direction from which officers are entering the premises

Once you have reached a safe location or an assembly point, you will likely be held in that area by law enforcement until the situation is under control, and all witnesses have been identified and questioned. Do not leave until law enforcement authorities have instructed you to do so.

Considerations
If a security threat is imminent or occurring, our personnel will take all reasonable and appropriate actions to minimize the hazard to the District's students and staff. If the perpetrator(s) is known, Incident Command will immediately deactivate the incident site's ID card(s) to prevent the individual(s) from entering a building/room equipped with card access.

For locations without electronic access control, incident personnel will make reasonable attempts to secure these doors as quickly as possible. The nature of the threat may make it unsafe for incident personnel to move from door-to-door, thus preventing these locations from being quickly secured.

If you become aware of an active assailant situation, immediately notify Police at 911. Information to provide to law enforcement or 911 operators:
Location of the active assailant
Number of assailants
Identity of the assailant(s), if known
Physical description of assailant(s)
Number and type of weapons held by the assailant(s)
Number of potential victims at the location

After

Good Practice for Coping
Good Practice for Coping
Be aware of your environment and any possible dangers
Take note of the two nearest exits in any facility you visit
If you are in an office, stay there and secure the door
If you are in a hallway, get into a room and secure the door
As a last resort, attempt to take the active assailant down. When the assailant is at close range and you cannot flee, your chance of survival is much greater if you try to incapacitate him/her.
Call 911 when it is safe to do so

Any time there is a significant security concern, we will make every reasonable attempt to immediately increase security on site. At the same time emergency personnel are responding to the emergency, public safety officials will communicate the hazard to the community via all available and appropriate means.

If you receive an official emergency communication notifying you of a hazardous situation where you must take immediate action to protect yourself, stay as calm as possible and follow these procedures. Only you will be able to determine the safest course of action that should be taken.

Bomb Threat Procedures and Checklist – DHS

BOMB THREAT PROCEDURES

This quick reference checklist is designed to help employees and decision makers of commercial facilities, schools, etc. respond to a bomb threat in an orderly and controlled manner with the first responders and other stakeholders.

Most bomb threats are received by phone. Bomb threats are serious until proven otherwise. Act quickly, but remain calm and obtain information with the checklist on the reverse of this card.

If a bomb threat is received by phone:

1. Remain calm. Keep the caller on the line for as long as possible. DO NOT HANG UP, even if the caller does.
2. Listen carefully. Be polite and show interest.
3. Try to keep the caller talking to learn more information.
4. If possible, write a note to a colleague to call the authorities or, as soon as the caller hangs up, immediately notify them yourself.
5. If your phone has a display, copy the number and/or letters on the window display.
6. Complete the Bomb Threat Checklist immediately. Write down as much detail as you can remember. Try to get exact words.
7. Immediately upon termination of call, DO NOT HANG UP, but from a different phone, contact authorities immediately with information and await instructions.

If a bomb threat is received by handwritten note:

- Call _____
- Handle note as minimally as possible.

If a bomb threat is received by e-mail:

- Call _____
- Do not delete the message.

Signs of a suspicious package:

- No return address
- Excessive postage
- Stains
- Strange odor
- Strange sounds
- Unexpected delivery
- Poorly handwritten
- Misspelled words
- Incorrect titles
- Foreign postage
- Restrictive notes

Refer to your local bomb threat emergency response plan for evacuation criteria

Cyber Threat or Attack

Purpose

Understanding the risks and motivations behind cyber threats or attacks is crucial in establishing and implementing this Cyber Threat or Attack annex. Technology continues to improve and develop at an amazing pace and with that advancement comes the challenges of protecting what we collect and manage using that technology.

Common criminals as well as hostile foreign actors have a couple of primary motivations when it comes to attacking your organization's cyber space. Both money and operational disruption are at the top of that list. For some hackers, they thrive on finding ways to access your information and then sell it, or threaten to disclose it asking for a "ransom," while freezing up your means of storing, accessing, or distributing information.

This annex will focus on the incident management perspective and address what to do before, during, and after an incident, following current best practices. These practices fall under the general category of cyber security.

Situation and Assumptions

Think of the cyber world as you would your own facilities. You provide appropriate fencing to ensure the security of those within its boundaries. The more access points you provide the more difficult it becomes to keep that site secure and safe. The cyber world is really the same way. Years ago we may have had only a handful of access points to our local area network. As technology improved, we added access. As we added access we provided more entry points for those who would seek our harm.

We are making some basic assumptions about systems and practices we should have in place:

- Installed and using modern firewall and antivirus software
- Conducting regular antivirus scanning
- Configured firewalls to prevent ransomware
- Keeping operating systems patches up-to-date
- Completing critical patching as expeditiously as possible
- Conducting employee cyber security awareness training including current best practices
- Keeping individual sites segregated
- Keeping user groups segregated (staff and student users segregated)
- Keeping privilege access management limited
- Using multi-factor authentication
- Implemented and using strong password policy
- Using off-site back up
- Providing email filtering to prevent spam reaching employees

Organization and Assignment of Responsibilities

Our IT department will have leadership over all aspects of our technology equipment and network spaces. They are the core of our Cyber Security Incident Response Team.

It is the responsibility of our Information Technology (IT) professionals to maintain a safe and secure cyber space. However, it is every network user's responsibility to follow best practices introduced by our IT professionals.

Glossary of Terms

Cyber Security Incident Response Team (CSIRT)

A group of experts that assesses, documents and responds to a cyber incident so that a network can not only recover quickly, but also avoid future incidents.

Denial-of-service attack

A denial-of-service attack floods systems, servers, or networks with traffic to exhaust resources and bandwidth. As a result, the system is unable to fulfill legitimate requests. Attackers can also use multiple compromised devices to launch this attack. This is known as a distributed-denial-of-service (DDoS) attack.

DNS Tunneling

DNS tunneling utilizes the DNS protocol to communicate non-DNS traffic over port 53. It sends HTTP and other protocol traffic over DNS. There are various, legitimate reasons to utilize DNS tunneling. However, there are also malicious reasons to use DNS Tunneling VPN services. They can be used to disguise outbound traffic as DNS, concealing data that is typically shared through an internet connection. For malicious use, DNS requests are manipulated to exfiltrate data from a compromised system to the attacker's infrastructure. It can also be used for command and control callbacks from the attacker's infrastructure to a compromised system.

Malware

Malware is a term used to describe malicious software, including spyware, ransomware, viruses, and worms. Malware breaches a network through a vulnerability, typically when a user clicks a dangerous link or email attachment that then installs risky software. Once inside the system, malware can do the following:

- Blocks access to key components of the network (ransomware)
- Installs malware or additional harmful software
- Covertly obtains information by transmitting data from the hard drive (spyware)
- Disrupts certain components and renders the system inoperable

Man-in-the-middle attack

Man-in-the-middle (MitM) attacks, also known as eavesdropping attacks, occur when attackers insert themselves into a two-party transaction. Once the attackers interrupt the traffic, they can filter and steal data.

Two common points of entry for MitM attacks:

- On unsecure public Wi-Fi, attackers can insert themselves between a visitor's device and the network. Without knowing, the visitor passes all information through the attacker.
- Once malware has breached a device, an attacker can install software to process all of the victim's information.

Phishing

Phishing is the practice of sending fraudulent communications that appear to come from a reputable source, usually through email. The goal is to steal sensitive data like credit card and login information or to install malware on the victim's machine. Phishing is an increasingly common cyberthreat.

SQL injection

A Structured Query Language (SQL) injection occurs when an attacker inserts malicious code into a server that uses SQL and forces the server to reveal information it normally would not. An attacker could carry out a SQL injection simply by submitting malicious code into a vulnerable website search box. Learn how to defend against SQL injection attacks.

Zero-day exploit

A zero-day exploit hits after a network vulnerability is announced but before a patch or solution is implemented. Attackers target the disclosed vulnerability during this window of time. Zero-day vulnerability threat detection requires constant awareness.

Incident Command Actions

Maintaining a best-practices approach to cyber security requires us to keep up to date on current trends and threats in the cyber world. Most of what we know comes from internet service providers who share this information to help us be better prepared.

Our cybersecurity response process recommendations by the SANS Institute, as defined in its Incident Handler's Handbook.

Earthquake

Duck, Cover, and Hold

This action is used to protect students and staff from flying or falling debris. Upon the first indication of an earthquake, staff should direct students to Duck, Cover, and Hold.

The Incident Commander will make the following announcement on the PA System:

"ATTENTION PLEASE. DUCK, COVER AND HOLD. DUCK, COVER, AND HOLD. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION TO FOLLOW."

Note: If the PA system is not available, use other means of communication, i.e. send messengers to deliver instructions, email, etc.

Description of Action

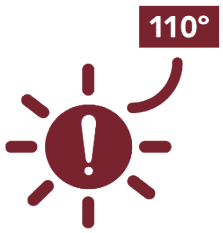
If inside

Drop to knees
Get under desk and remain facing away from windows
Clasp both hands behind neck
Bury face in arms
Make body as small as possible
Close eyes and cover ears with forearms.

If outside

Drop to knees
Clasp both hands behind neck
Bury face in arms
Make body as small as possible
Close eyes and cover ears with forearms.
Avoid glass and falling objects

Procedures



Avoid glass and falling objects. Move away from windows, heavy suspended light fixtures, and other overhead hazards.
When the shaking stops, the Incident Commander will issue the All Clear Response
Use prescribed routes and proceed directly to the Assembly Area. Teachers shall notify the Student Attendance/Release Team of missing students.
The Incident Commander to direct the Security Team to post guards a safe distance away from building entrances to prevent access.
Warn all personnel to avoid touching fallen electrical wires.
First Aid Team will check for injuries and provide appropriate first aid.
The Incident Commander will direct the Facility Team to turn off water, gas, and electrical and to alert appropriate utility company of damages, if appropriate.
If the area appears safe, the Search and Rescue team will be cleared by the Incident Commander to make an initial inspection of the District's buildings, if needed.
The Incident Commander will contact the Superintendent to determine if additional actions are deemed necessary.

During Non-Operating Hours

The Incident Commander and Identified Maintenance/Facilities Personnel will assess damages to determine needed corrective actions. For apparent damages, contact the Superintendent to determine if the District should be closed. If the District must be closed, notify staff and students as identified in District Closure Response Procedure.

Extreme Heat and Unhealthy Air Quality

Purpose

The purpose of this annex is to ensure that staff is advised of hazardous conditions caused by extreme heat conditions and/or unhealthy air quality and to minimize exposure to those conditions. Governmental agencies, such as the Air Quality Management District (AQMD), the National Weather Service (NWS-NOAA), the Center for Disease Control (CDC) and others provide guidance in how to respond to unhealthful air quality and extreme heat conditions.

Actions

The Incident Commander monitors air quality and heat conditions to provide recommended actions during an unhealthful air quality or extreme heat event. The Incident Commander will keep the Senior Executive or designee informed of these conditions and activate this annex. Upon activation, site administrators will perform the following:

Notify students and staff when unhealthful air quality or extreme heat conditions exist.
Modify District programs and work assignments for the protection of students and staff.
Adhere to the Unhealthful Air Quality and Extreme Heat Plan to correspond with current recommendations of both the AQMD and the NWS.
Cooperate with other governmental agencies and with the total community in matters of critical concern regarding unhealthful air quality and extreme heat.

District Activities and What To Do During Extreme Heat Conditions.

The National Weather Service (NOAA) provides information on responding to extreme heat conditions. The Incident Commander monitors temperature and humidity in the District and the National Weather Service website to ensure that our District sites are notified upon attainment of an extreme heat condition.
Always provide adequate amounts of water to students and staff to maintain appropriate hydration, use areas shaded from the direct sunlight, and:
When the Heat Index reaches the range of 90 to 105 degrees Fahrenheit, sunstroke, heat cramps, and heat exhaustion are possible. Everyone shall minimize prolonged, vigorous outdoor activity.
When the Heat Index reaches the range of 105 to 130 degrees Fahrenheit, sunstroke and heat exhaustion are likely and heat stroke is possible. Everyone shall discontinue prolonged, vigorous outdoor activity.
When the Heat Index reaches or exceeds 130 degrees Fahrenheit, heat stroke is highly likely with continued exposure. Everyone shall discontinue all vigorous outdoor activity.

Fire - Structural

The following procedure addresses the necessary actions that should be taken if a fire is discovered in or on the District's facilities. A timely response to this situation is critical to prevent injuries and further property damage.

Procedure

NOTE – There are cases during Active Assailant incidents where the assailant may trigger the fire alarm. This is done as a means to induce students and staff to evacuate which may provide the assailant with more "targets." Modified responses to a fire alarm should be discussed with your local fire and law enforcement jurisdictions to coordinate best practices for your district.
If a fire is discovered on site, the administrative staff will immediately signal the fire alarm and direct students out of the building.
The Incident Commander will call 911 and provide the location and nature of the incident
The Incident Commander will immediately initiate the Off-Site Evacuation Procedures
Staff and students will evacuate buildings using pre-designated routes or other safe routes and convene at the Assembly Area
Site staff members must bring their student rosters and take attendance at the Assembly Area to account for all students
Staff will notify the Incident Commander of any missing students
If safe to do so, staff will use fire extinguishers to suppress the fire until the local fire department arrives
All fires, regardless of size, which are extinguished by site personnel, require a call to the responding Fire Department to indicate "the fire is out"
The Incident Commander will secure the area to prevent unauthorized entry and keep access roads clear for emergency vehicles
The Incident Commander will notify the Senior Executive of the fire. The Senior Executive should work with the Public Information Officer
Outreach and Communication to disseminate information
In the event that students need to be released from the school site, refer to the Reunification Annex for reunification procedures
If necessary, the Incident Commander will notify appropriate Transportation official to request transportation for student and staff evacuation.

Any affected areas will not be reopened until the Fire Department or the appropriate agency provides clearance and the Incident Commander issues authorization to do so. For fires during non-school hours, the Incident Commander and the Senior Executive will determine if the school site will open the following day.

Fire - Forest, Wildfire, or Urban Interface

General

Fires can happen in almost any place, at any time, in almost any condition or circumstance as long as there is fuel, oxygen, and heat. While District's are required to have regularly scheduled fire drills by California law it is easy to overlook the risks associated with poor housekeeping, excessive and dried wildland shrubs and trees close to the District sites and many other factors. The damage caused by fire is real and serious, but the potential hazard of smoke can sometimes be even worse.

Fire in Surrounding Area

The following procedure addresses actions that should be taken in the event that a fire is discovered in an area nearby District grounds. The initiated response actions should take into consideration the location and size of the fire, its proximity to the District site, and the likelihood that the fire may affect the District.

Incident Command Actions

Before

Review and update the "Recovery" Annex located in your Functional Annex following current State and Federal "Best Practices" guidelines
Locate and participate in CSTI's course, "Recovery From Disasters: The Local Community Role (G-205)
Identify and include your "whole community" in strengthening your Pre-Disaster Recovery framework

During

Call 911 if you see a fire or flames.
Activate and follow your Emergency Operations Plan.
Use your internal Emergency Management Alert System to communicate with staff, students and parents.
Always follow instructions from your local emergency agencies (Fire and Law Enforcement).
If trapped, call 911 and give your location, but be aware that emergency response could be delayed or impossible. Turn of HVAC and natural gas. Turn on lights to help rescuers find you if you have power. Fill sinks and tubs with water and keep windows and doors unlocked.
Ensure you have a representative designated to be in contact with Cal OES (may be specific to your region) and your local EOC
You might consider predesignating a representative to be an active member of the Recovery task force.
If your site is a designated shelter or evacuation point, follow the instructions of the organization or agency that is managing the site (ie: American Red Cross).
Follow the Cal/OSHA Protection from Wildfire Smoke regulation, Title 8, Section 5141.1 for use of N95 respirators. https://www.dir.ca.gov/title8/5141_1.html. and you can find resources on wildfire smoke safety in this Cal/OSHA link. https://www.dir.ca.gov/dosh/Worker-Health-and-Safety-in-Wildfire-Regions.html
Monitor the Air Quality Index (AQI) at www.airnow.gov and enter the zip code of the location where you will be working. The current AQI is also available from the U.S. Forest Service at https://tools.airfire.org/ or a local air district, which can be located at www.arb.ca.gov/capcoa/dismap.htm
Listen to EAS, NOAA Weather Radio, or local alerting systems for current emergency information and instructions.

If you are not ordered to evacuate but smoky conditions exist, stay inside in a safe location or go to a location where smoke levels are lower, if possible.
Avoid vigorous activities outdoors and if travelling in a vehicle in the areas affected, close windows and make sure air is on "re-circulate" mode.

After

Continue to follow your EOP Recovery Annex
Listen to authorities to find out when it is safe to return and whether water is safe to drink.
Avoid hot ash, charred trees, smoldering debris, and live embers. The ground may contain heat pockets that can burn you or spark another fire. Consider the danger to pets and livestock.
Avoid downed power lines.
Send text messages or use social media to reach out to family and friends. Phone systems are often busy following a disaster. Make calls only in emergencies.
For those that are part of the damage assessment team, ensure training on personal protective equipment (PPE) use is conducted.
Continue to monitor the Air Quality Index (AQI) at www.airnow.gov and enter the zip code of the location where you will be working. The current AQI is also available from the U.S. Forest Service at https://tools.airfire.org/ or a local air district, which can be located at www.arb.ca.gov/capcoa/dismap.htm
Contact your insurance company/insurance pool/JPA for assistance.
Document everything you do related to the fire. For more details on this process, refer to the IMReady FEMA document.
Wildfires dramatically change landscape and ground conditions, which can lead to increased risk of flooding due to heavy rains, flash flooding and mudflows. Flood risk remains significantly higher until vegetation is restored — up to 5 years after a wildfire.
Be prepared to provide emotional and wellbeing services and resources for students and staff. Mental and physical fatigue are common in these situations .
https://www.cdc.gov/disasters/wildfires/afterfire.html and https://emergency.cdc.gov/coping/index.asp and www.NCTSN.org.

Any responsible person who observes a fire in the area outside of the District should immediately call 911 and notify the Incident Commander
The Incident Commander will initiate the appropriate Immediate Response Actions, which may include Shelter-in-Place, On-Site Evacuation, or Off-Site Evacuation
The Incident Commander will call 911 (to verify – good redundancy) and provide the location and nature of the incident
The Incident Commander will act to prevent students from approaching the fire and keep routes open for emergency vehicles
The Incident Commander will work with responding emergency personnel to determine if District grounds are threatened by the fire, smoke, or other hazardous conditions
If the Incident Commander issues the On-Site Evacuation procedure, staff and students will evacuate the affected building(s) using pre-designated routes or other safe routes and convene at the Assembly Area
All District staff members must bring their student rosters and take attendance at the Assembly Area to account for all students. Staff will notify the Incident Commander of any missing students
The Incident Commander should monitor local radio stations for emergency information.
The Incident Commander will notify the Senior Executive of the emergency situation
The office of the Senior Executive should work with the Office of Public Information and Communication to disseminate information
If necessary, the Incident Commander will notify the appropriate Transportation official to request transportation for staff and student evacuation
The Incident Commander will initiate Off-Site Evacuation procedures, as described in the Evacuation Annex, if warranted by changes in conditions
• In the event that students need to be released from the District site, refer to the Reunification Annex for reunification procedures

Infectious Disease

Purpose

The purpose of the Infectious Disease annex is to help equip our organization to be ready for the unexpected – before, during, and after an infectious disease outbreak. This annex does note replace the required Injury and Illness Prevention Program (IIPP) or other health and safety orders relevant to California Occupational Safety and Health Administration (Cal OSHA) or California Department of Public Health (CDPH)requirements.

Following are two current and specific requirements:

- COVID-19 Safety Plan (CSP) – The CSP is outlined in the CDPH Guidance and Framework for K-12 schools dated January 14, 2021
- The COVID-19 Prevention Plan (CPP) – The CPP is a requirement of the Cal/OSHA COVID -19 Prevention emergency temporary standard.

Infectious diseases occur, often with little or no warning. Essentials that need to be considered include the following:
EOPs may have to be activated with community partners if there is an infectious disease outbreak;
Rapid evolution and dissemination of information about an infectious disease incident will likely require activation of the Communication Annex;
Extensive absences may cause normal operations to close for days or weeks, calling for the activation of the Continuity of Operations (COOP) Annex;
Depending on the disease, there may potentially be some deaths in the community; and,
If handled poorly, community trust in our organization is likely to be shaken.

Disease Sources

Infectious diseases are illnesses that are transmitted from one person to another through various routes. These infectious diseases can be viral, bacterial, or fungal. Some of the more common infectious diseases that may affect us are:
Gastroenteritis; norovirus; influenza; chicken pox; and hand, foot, and mouth, which are all caused by a viral infection, Bacterial infections that can cause E. Coli, MRSA, and strep throat, and Fungal infections, like ringworm.

Influenza, one of the most common infectious diseases, is a highly contagious viral disease. Pandemic influenza differs from both seasonal influenza (flu) and avian influenza in the following aspects:
It is a rare global outbreak which can affect populations around the world.
It is caused by a new influenza virus to which people do not have immunity
Depending upon the specific virus, it can cause more severe illness than regular flu
Influenza can affect young healthy people more so than older, sick people. The Department of Health and Human Services will take the lead in mobilizing a local response to pandemic influenza. Public health alerts will be reported to our organization and the community. Individual rooms, hallways or, if necessary, entire sites may be closed temporarily to contain spread of the virus.

While influenza is the most common infectious disease there are others that can greatly affect our operations, including reduction in work force size to levels that make it difficult to fulfill organizational or operational mission objectives. The “Historical Information” section of this annex identifies some of the major infectious diseases that have affected us in the near past.

Rate of Spread

Infectious diseases may be categorized according to the rate at which they infect the population. The U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) categorizes the rate at which diseases are spread as a continuum from smallest to largest: case, outbreak, epidemic, and pandemic.

Case
A case is defined as an individual with the disease.

Outbreak
An outbreak is defined as a localized, as opposed to a generalized, epidemic. This term is also used synonymously with epidemic, and is sometimes the preferred word, as it may prevent sensationalism associated with the word epidemic.

Epidemic
An epidemic is defined as the occurrence of more cases of disease than expected in a given area or among a specific group of people over a period.

Pandemic
A pandemic is defined as an epidemic occurring over a very wide area (several countries or continents) and usually affecting a large proportion of the population.

Situation and Assumptions
The World Health Organization (WHO) provides an influenza pandemic alert system, with a scale ranging from Phase 1 (a low risk of a flu pandemic) to Phase 6 (a full-blown pandemic). See Figure 1, below.
Phase 1: A virus in animals has caused no known infections in humans.
Phase 2: An animal flu virus has caused infection in humans.
Phase 3: Sporadic cases or small clusters of disease occur in humans. Human-to-human transmission, if any, is insufficient to cause community-level outbreaks.
Phase 4: The risk for a pandemic is greatly increased but not certain.
Phase 5: Spread of disease between humans is occurring in more than one country of one WHO region.
Phase 6: Community-level outbreaks are in at least one additional country in a different WHO region from phase 5. A global pandemic is under way.

Concept of Operations

We monitor the following levels of activation for our EOP and Emergency Operations Center:

Level 3 (lowest level):

This level implies that, with modest augmentation, the lead agency or program can address the primary needs of the response. In the United States, many small natural disasters or environmental responses fall into this activation level.

Level 2 (intermediate level):

This level implies substantial augmentation is required for the lead agency or program to meet response requirements.

Level 1 (highest level):

This level requires an agency wide response and often includes domestic and international partners. As an example, there have been five Level 1 activations since 2005: Hurricane Katrina (2005), influenza A (H1N1) pandemic (2009–10), Ebola virus disease outbreak (2014–2016), Zika virus outbreak (2016–2017), and Coronavirus Disease 2019 (2019-202?).

Continuity of Operations (Annex Specific)

Important Notice

Occupational Health and Safety standards impose additional requirements on employers to protect employees from airborne infectious diseases like COVID-19 and pathogens transmitted by aerosols. Under section 3203 of California's general industry safety regulations, employers must establish, implement, and maintain an effective Injury and Illness Prevention Program (IIPP) to protect employees from workplace hazards. Employers are required to determine if the infectious disease is a hazard in their workplace. If it is a workplace hazard, then employers must implement infection control measures, including applicable and relevant recommendations from federal, state and local guidelines. It is the employer's responsibility to maintain a current and relevant IIPP.

All staff are to be informed regarding protective actions and/or modifications related to this plan. Messaging and risk communications during an emerging infectious disease or pandemic will be conducted by our Emergency Operations Center. Guidance and instructions on established infection control measures such as social distancing, personnel protective equipment and telework polices are provided by our Emergency Operations Center to assist in limiting the spread of influenza at the primary and alternate worksites.

Within the workplace, social distancing measures could take the form of:

Modifying the frequency and type of face-to-face employee encounters (e.g., placing moratoriums on hand-shaking, substituting teleconferences for face-to-face meetings, staggering breaks, posting infection control guidelines);
Establishing flexible work hours or worksite, (e.g., telecommuting);
Promoting social distancing between employees and those with whom they interact to maintain six-feet spatial separation between individuals; and
Implementing strategies that request and enable employees with influenza to stay home at the first sign of symptoms.

Frequent, daily contact is important to keep our employees informed about developments in our response, impacts on the workforce, and to reassure employees that we are continuing to function as usual.
When necessary, our planners and pandemic response teams will include deliberate methods to measure, monitor, and adjust actions to changing conditions and improved protection strategies.

Implement a formal worker and workplace protection strategy with metrics for assessing worker conformance and workplace cleanliness.
Monitor and periodically test protection methods.
Track and implement changes in approved or recommended protection measures.
Pre-position material and equipment onsite.
Ensure essential personnel are at the primary worksite.
Reaffirm that essential suppliers have their material and personnel on-hand and can respond, and support as planned.
Coordinate with local public health and emergency response points of contact to ensure open, adequate communications.

Organization and Assignment of Responsibilities

We utilize the Standardized Emergency Management System (SEMS) which incorporates the Incident Command System (ICS) as the method of managing a crisis or event until operations return to “normal.” This includes activation, when necessary, of incident command posts and the activation of our EOC.

Plan Development

During the health crisis it is vital that we capture lessons learned and alternative practices to our operations as they occur
Maintain a central depository for this information to use it following the crisis to update this annex and our EOP in general
It is our intent to review our EOP and annexes at least annually and update as necessary to maintain a best-practices EOP
We will share this annex periodically with our Health partners to ensure it has captured the most current trends and practices

Authorities and References

In the United States, the responsibility for public health rests primarily with city or county and state public health agencies. All states and many large counties and cities have their own public health departments. Although many public health investigations are conducted with local resources, a city, county, or state health department can request field

epidemiologic or laboratory assistance from the next higher-level public health agency in response to a large or complex outbreak or problem that requires additional staff, expertise, or other resources.

In the United States, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) is the highest-level public health agency. Federal prisons, military bases, and tribal reservations have their own independent health systems but also can request assistance from CDC. Globally, countries can request assistance for field investigations from the World Health Organization, which coordinates with its members for needed resources. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (cdc.gov) contains the most current and relevant information on specific exposures and the appropriate practices and protocols.

Incident Command Actions

Before

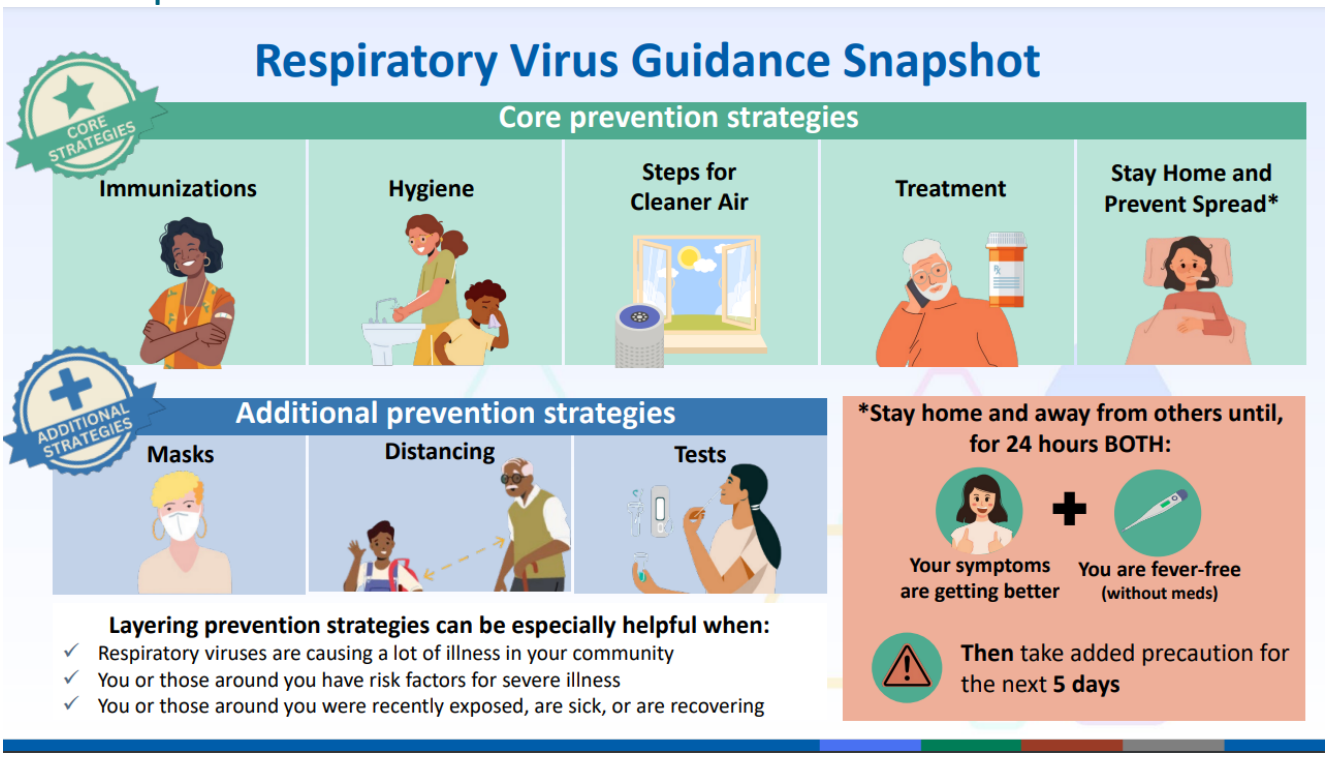
One of the best things to do prior to an infectious disease incident is to identify, collect, and maintain current and relevant contact information of organizations and agencies that will be important to our ongoing operations. These should include local, state, and federal public health jurisdictions such as:
Your local health department contact
(Searchable database https://www.naccho.org/membership/lhd-directory)
California Department of Public Health – https://www.cdph.ca.gov/
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) - https://www.cdc.gov/

Building and maintaining relationships with local health officials cannot be over emphasized. This effort before an infectious disease outbreak will prove invaluable as we seek support and guidance in maintaining, shutting down, and resuming operations.

In addition to this practice it is important to identify and document operational norms and standards that you maintain on an ongoing basis. These records will greatly help you resume operations following a major infectious disease event.

During

We activate our Emergency Operations Plan at a level sufficient to stay ahead of issues as much as possible including the activation of:
Communication annex
Continuity of Operations Plan (COOP) annex



Additional actions include:
Maintain contact with our local Health Department and coordinate our actions based upon their recommendations
Collect preventive informational flyers and documents and disseminate to staff and/or students, as relevant
Activate heightened surveillance of illness within our sites. Gather data on symptoms of all students and/or staff who are sick at home.
Insure those who are ill stay home
Send the sick home immediately
Provide fact sheets and guidelines for families to make them aware of symptoms and remind them of respiratory hygiene etiquette
Monitor bulletins and alerts from the Department of Health and Human Services
Keep staff and students informed of developing issues
Assist the Department of Health and Human Services in monitoring outbreaks
Respond to media inquiries regarding organization attendance status
Implement telework procedures, if necessary, so that staff can stay home

Maintain surveillance after the initial epidemic in the event a second wave passes through the community

After

As with any major crisis or incident the major goal of our institution is to get things back to “normal.” This means restoration of our primary operations back to pre-incident or event levels. This is most effectively accomplished when there are accurate and well-maintained records and practices in place that help us on this recovery journey. Following are key concepts and actions that should be considered in getting back to “normal.”

COVID-19 Specific Guidance

Power and Utility Failure

Extended power outages may impact the whole community and the economy. A power outage is when the electrical power goes out unexpectedly. A power outage may:
Disrupt communications, water, and transportation
Close retail businesses, grocery stores, gas stations, ATMs, banks, and other services
Cause food spoilage and water contamination
Prevent use of medical devices

Protect Students And Staff During A Power Outage

Keep freezers and refrigerators closed
Only use generators outdoors and away from windows or air intakes
Do not use gas appliances for heating
Disconnect appliances and electronics to avoid damage from electrical surges
Have alternate plans for refrigerating medicines or using power-dependent medical devices
If safe, go to an alternate location for heat or cooling

Electrical Systems

The M&O Department should identify the location of all electrical main and subpanels throughout the site
Use a clean and clear site map of each site and label the map “Electrical Systems Field Operations Guide” (known as the Electrical Systems FOG)
Indicate the locations of the main electrical shut-off and each sub-panel main shut-off in the Electrical Systems FOG
Include a photo of each panel and label the photos corresponding to the panel numbers
If panels do not have a numeric identifier, consider adding that at all panel locations
Label the site main and subpanel main shut-off for each panel so as to minimize confusion
Laminate or plastic-protect the Electrical Systems FOG and provide to designated and trained employee(s) who will be responsible for emergency shutdown and restoration following an electrical failure

Backup Supplies and Other Resources

Identify all of the items needed that rely on electricity
Identify and have emergency plans for students or staff relying upon medical devices powered by electricity and refrigerated medicines
Find out how long medication can be stored at higher temperatures and get specific guidance for any medications that are critical for life
Plan for batteries and other alternatives to meet our needs when the power goes out
Sign up for local alerts and warning systems. Monitor weather reports
Ensure that any carbon monoxide detectors are in working order and that battery backups are available
Determine whether the phone system will work in a power outage and how long battery backup will last
Review the supplies that are available in case of a power outage
Have flashlights with extra batteries available for individual rooms or offices without exterior light sources
Maintain an inventory of nonperishable food and water
Regularly check the thermometer in the refrigerator and freezer so that we can know the temperature when the power is restored. Throw out food if the temperature is 40 degrees or higher
Keep mobile phones and other electric equipment charged and gas tanks full

Survive During

When power goes out, a trained and responsible employee should:
Keep freezers and refrigerators closed. The refrigerator will keep food cold for about four hours. A full freezer will keep the temperature for about 48 hours. Use coolers with ice if necessary. Monitor temperatures with a thermometer.
Maintain food supplies that do not require refrigeration
Avoid carbon monoxide poisoning. Generators and any fuel or gas-powered devices should always be used outdoors and at least 20 feet away from windows
Turn off or disconnect all appliances, equipment, or electronics. Power may return with momentary “surges” or “spikes” that can cause damage

Power Restoration

When in doubt, throw it out! Throw away any food that has been exposed to temperatures 40 degrees or higher for two hours or more, or that has an unusual odor, color, or texture
If the power is out for more than a day, discard any medication that should be refrigerated, unless the drug’s label says otherwise. If a life depends on the refrigerated drugs, consult a doctor or pharmacist and use medicine only until a new supply is available

Purpose

The State of California is vulnerable to a variety of severe weather hazards. This incident annex addresses the hazards associated with severe weather. When severe weather occurs, the impacts can be devastating and may affect isolated locations or multiple jurisdictions simultaneously.

When the impacts exceed the capabilities of local jurisdictions, the State must respond in a prompt, organized, and efficient manner to save lives, mitigate property damage, and restore a sense of normalcy to the community. This response is coordinated through the Governor's Office of Emergency Services (OES) in concert with local, state, Federal, volunteer, and private sector partners.

Situation and Assumptions

El Niño

During El Niño, trade winds weaken. Warm water is pushed back east, toward the west coast of the Americas. El Niño means Little Boy in Spanish. South American fishermen first noticed periods of unusually warm water in the Pacific Ocean in the 1600s. The full name they used was El Niño de Navidad because El Niño typically peaks around December.

El Niño can affect our weather significantly. The warmer waters cause the Pacific jet stream to move south of its neutral position. With this shift, areas in the northern U.S. and Canada are dryer and warmer than usual. But in the U.S. Gulf Coast and Southeast, these periods are wetter than usual and have increased flooding.

Hail

Hail is considered severe when it reaches 1 inch in diameter. Hail can reach sizes much larger than the severe threshold size. Hail causes close to $1 billion in damage to property and crops each year in the U.S. While property is typically at greatest risk for hail damage, the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) estimate that 24 people are injured from hail each year.

Thunderstorms

The National Weather Service (NWS) defines a severe thunderstorm as any storm that produces one or more of the following: a tornado, damaging wind speeds of 58 mph (50 knots) or greater, and/or hail 1 inch in diameter or larger.

Continuity of Operations (Annex Specific)

The goal of emergency management is to restore operations of any organization back to its primary purpose, or "normal." In some cases, restoration of operations may have to be a new normal.

Organization and Assignment of Responsibilities

This organization follows SEMS/NIMS requirements, specifically incorporating the Incident Command System into emergency and incident operations.

Plan Development

This annex was selected for inclusion in this Emergency Operations Plan (EOP) following best practices Hazard/Threat Analysis and is reviewed annually for currency and applicability.
Severe weather-related hazards can occur at any time throughout the year

Local jurisdictions adversely affected by severe weather may declare local State of Emergency upon being affected
Local jurisdictions adversely affected by severe weather may use mutual aid agreements as part of their response to the disaster
Local jurisdictions affected by severe weather may request resources from the State as the situation evolves

Vision Statement

Zane Middle School is a safe, caring, and inclusive learning environment where every student is valued, respected, and supported. We are committed to fostering academic excellence and ensuring all students are fully prepared for college and career success by students making progress towards the six competencies of the ECS Portrait of a Graduate.

Our vision is realized through:

Exemplary Academic Achievement: We strive for 95% or more completion for all students on IXL Math and ELA Benchmarks. Furthermore, we commit to achieving a 5% increase in the number of students performing at or above grade level on these benchmark assessments by the end of each reporting period, leading to a year-end 5% decrease in the number of students earning a D or F.

A Culture of Belonging: We cultivate a strong sense of community where students, staff, and families feel a deep sense of belonging, as measured by the California Healthy Kids Survey (CHKS), ensuring that each member of the Zane community is seen and celebrated in their growth and development.

Mission Statement

The mission of Zane Middle School is to cultivate a thriving and supportive environment where every student realizes their full potential while learning in a safe and caring environment. We achieve this by providing rigorous, relevant, and engaging instruction that promotes excellence in academics and ensures continuous growth for all learners. Our commitment is to empower students to make measurable progress toward the 6 Competencies of the ECS Portrait of a Graduate:

Effective Communicator

Independent Critical Thinker

Responsible Collaborator

Community Engager

Global Steward

Resilient Learner

We work in partnership with staff, families, and the community to foster a culture where every individual is respected, valued, and safe, preparing all students to be contributing members of society and ultimately equipping them for college and career success.

The Superintendent or designee may display posters, in areas on campus where students frequently congregate, notifying students of the appropriate telephone number to call to report child abuse or neglect. (Education Code 33133.5)

In addition, student identification cards for students in grades 7-12 shall include the National Domestic Violence Hotline telephone number. (Education Code 215.5)

The Superintendent or designee shall establish procedures for the identification and reporting of known and suspected child abuse and neglect in accordance with law.

Procedures for reporting child abuse, as specified in Penal Code 11164-11174.3, shall be included in the district and/or school comprehensive safety plan. (Education Code 32282)

(Penal Code 11166)

Any mandated reporter who has knowledge of or who reasonably suspects that a child is suffering serious emotional damage or is at a substantial risk of suffering serious emotional damage, based on evidence of severe anxiety, depression, withdrawal, or untoward aggressive behavior toward self or others, may make a report to the appropriate agency. (Penal Code 11165.9, 11166.05, 11167)

Any district employee who reasonably believes to have observed the commission of a murder, rape, or lewd or lascivious act by use of force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury against a victim who is a child under 14 years of age shall notify a peace officer. (Penal Code 152.3)

The fact that a child is experiencing homelessness or is classified as an unaccompanied minor, as defined in the federal McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act (42 USC 11434a), is not, in and of itself, a sufficient basis for reporting child abuse or neglect. (Penal Code 11165.15)

Responsibility for Reporting

The reporting duties of mandated reporters are individual and cannot be delegated to another person. (Penal Code 11166)

When two or more mandated reporters jointly have knowledge of a known or suspected instance of child abuse or neglect, the report may be made by a member of the team selected by mutual agreement and a single report may be made and signed by the selected member of the reporting team. Any member who has knowledge that the member designated to report has failed to do so shall thereafter make the report. (Penal Code 11166)

No supervisor or administrator shall impede or inhibit a mandated reporter from making a report. (Penal Code 11166)

Any person not identified as a mandated reporter who has knowledge of or observes a child whom the person knows or reasonably suspects has been a victim of child abuse or neglect may report the known or suspected instance of child abuse or neglect to the appropriate agency. (Penal Code 11166)

Reporting Procedures
Initial Telephone Report

Immediately or as soon as practicable after knowing or observing suspected child abuse or neglect, a mandated reporter shall make an initial report by telephone to any police department (excluding a district police/security department), sheriff's department, county probation department if designated by the county to receive such reports, or county welfare department. (Penal Code 11165.9, 11166)

Such reports shall be made to the following agency(ies):

Child Welfare Services - 2440 Sixth Street, Eureka, CA 95501 / Telepone: 707-445-6180

When the initial telephone report is made, the mandated reporter shall note the name of the official contacted, the date and time contacted, and any instructions or advice received.

Written Report

Within 36 hours of knowing or observing the information concerning the incident, the mandated reporter shall prepare and either send, fax, or electronically transmit to the appropriate agency a written follow-up report, which includes a completed California Department of Justice (DOJ) form (BCIA 8572). (Penal Code 11166, 11168)

The DOJ form may be obtained from the district office or other appropriate agencies, such as the police department, sheriff's department, or county probation or welfare department.

Reports of suspected child abuse or neglect shall include, if known: (Penal Code 11167)

The name, business address, and telephone number of the person making the report and the capacity that makes the person a mandated reporter

The child's name and address, present location, and, where applicable, school, grade, and class

The names, addresses, and telephone numbers of the child's parents/guardians

The name, address, telephone number, and other relevant personal information about the person(s) who might have abused or neglected the child

The information that gave rise to the reasonable suspicion of child abuse or neglect and the source(s) of that information
The mandated reporter shall make a report even if some of this information is not known or is uncertain to the mandated reporter. (Penal Code 11167)

The mandated reporter may give to an investigator from an agency investigating the case, including a licensing agency, any information relevant to an incident of child abuse or neglect or to a report made for serious emotional damage pursuant to Penal Code 11166.05. (Penal Code 11167)

3. Internal Reporting

The mandated reporter shall not be required to disclose the mandated reporter's identity to a supervisor, the principal, or the Superintendent or designee. (Penal Code 11166)

However, employees reporting child abuse or neglect to an appropriate agency are encouraged, but not required, to notify the principal as soon as possible after the initial telephone report to the appropriate agency. When so notified, the principal shall inform the Superintendent or designee.

The principal so notified shall provide the mandated reporter with any assistance necessary to ensure that reporting procedures are carried out in accordance with law, Board policy, and administrative regulation. At the mandated reporter's request, the principal may assist in completing and filing the necessary forms.

Reporting the information to an employer, supervisor, principal, school counselor, co-worker, or other person shall not be a substitute for making a mandated report to the appropriate agency. (Penal Code 11166)

Training

Within the first six weeks of each school year, or within the first six weeks of employment if hired during the school year, the Superintendent or designee shall provide training on mandated reporting requirements to district employees and persons working on their behalf who are mandated reporters. (Education Code 44691; Penal Code 11165.7)

The Superintendent or designee shall use the online training module provided by the California Department of Social Services (CDSS). (Education Code 44691)

Victim Interviews by Social Services

Whenever CDSS or another government agency is investigating suspected child abuse or neglect that occurred within the child's home or out-of-home care facility, the student may be interviewed by an agency representative during school hours, on school premises. The Superintendent or designee shall give the student the choice of being interviewed in private or in the presence of any adult school employee or volunteer aide selected by the student. (Penal Code 11174.3)

A staff member or volunteer aide selected by a child may decline to be present at the interview. If the selected person accepts, the principal or designee shall inform the person of the following requirements prior to the interview: (Penal Code 11174.3)
The purpose of the selected person's presence at the interview is to lend support to the child and enable the child to be as comfortable as possible

The selected person shall not participate in the interview

The selected person shall not discuss the facts or circumstances of the case with the child

The selected person is subject to the confidentiality requirements of the Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act, a violation of which is punishable as specified in Penal Code 11167.5
If a staff member agrees to be present, the interview shall be held at a time during school hours when it does not involve an expense to the school. (Penal Code 11174.3)

Release of Child to Peace Officer

When a child is released to a peace officer and taken into custody as a victim of suspected child abuse or neglect, the Superintendent or designee and/or principal shall not notify the parent/guardian, but rather shall provide the peace officer with the address and telephone number of the child's parent/guardian. (Education Code 48906)

Parent/Guardian Complaints

Upon request, the Superintendent or designee shall provide parents/guardians with procedures for reporting suspected child abuse occurring on district property to appropriate agencies. For parents/guardians whose primary language is not English, such procedures shall be in their primary language and, when communicating orally regarding those guidelines and/or procedures, an interpreter shall be provided.

To file a complaint against a district employee or other person suspected of child abuse or neglect on district property, parents/guardians may file a report by telephone, in person, or in writing with any appropriate agency identified above under "Reporting Procedures." If a parent/guardian makes a complaint about an employee to any other employee, the employee receiving the information shall notify the parent/guardian of procedures for filing a complaint with the appropriate agency. The employee shall also file a report when obligated to do so pursuant to Penal Code 11166 using the procedures described above for mandated reporters.

In addition, if the child is enrolled in special education, a separate complaint may be filed with the California Department of Education pursuant to 5 CCR 3200-3205.

Notifications

The Superintendent or designee shall provide to all new employees who are mandated reporters a statement that informs them of their status as mandated reporters, their reporting obligations under Penal Code 11166, and their confidentiality rights under Penal Code 11167. Additionally, the district shall provide these new employees with a copy of Penal Code 11165.7, 11166, and 11167. (Penal Code 11165.7, 11166.5)

Before beginning employment, any person who will be a mandated reporter by virtue of the person's position shall sign a statement indicating knowledge of the reporting obligations under Penal Code 11166 and compliance with such provisions. The signed statement shall be retained by the Superintendent or designee. (Penal Code 11166.5)

Employees who work with dependent adults shall be notified of legal responsibilities and reporting procedures pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code 15630-15637.

The Superintendent or designee also shall notify all employees that:
A mandated reporter who reports a known or suspected instance of child abuse or neglect shall not be held civilly or criminally liable for making a report and this immunity shall apply even if the mandated reporter acquired the knowledge or reasonable suspicion of child abuse or neglect outside of the mandated reporter's professional capacity or outside the scope of employment (Penal Code 11172)

Any other person making a report shall not incur civil or criminal liability unless it can be proven that the person knowingly made a false report or made a report with reckless disregard of the truth or falsity of the report. (Penal Code 11172)

If a mandated reporter fails to timely report an incident of known or reasonably suspected child abuse or neglect, the mandated reporter may be guilty of a crime punishable by a fine and/or imprisonment (Penal Code 11166)
No employee shall be subject to any sanction by the district for making a report unless it can be shown that the employee knowingly made a false report or made a report with reckless disregard of the truth or falsity of the report. (Penal Code 11166, 11172)

Discipline – BP/AR 5144

Original Adopted Date: 05/21/2019 | Last Revised Date: 09/12/2024 | Last Reviewed Date: 09/12/2024Status: ADOPTED

The Governing Board is committed to providing a safe, supportive, and positive school environment which is conducive to student learning and achievement and desires to prepare students for responsible citizenship by fostering self-discipline and personal responsibility. The Board believes that high expectations for student behavior, use of effective school and classroom management strategies, provision of appropriate intervention and support, and parent/guardian involvement can minimize the need for disciplinary measures that exclude students from instruction as a means for correcting student misbehavior.

The Superintendent or designee shall develop effective, age-appropriate strategies for maintaining a positive school climate and responding appropriately to student misbehavior at district schools. The strategies shall focus on providing students with needed supports; communicating clear, appropriate, and consistent expectations and consequences for student conduct; and ensuring equity and continuous improvement in the implementation of district discipline policies and practices.

In addition, the Superintendent or designee's strategies for responding to student misconduct shall reflect the Board's preference for the use of positive interventions and alternative disciplinary measures over exclusionary discipline measures.

Disciplinary measures that may result in loss of instructional time or cause students to be disengaged from school, such as detention, suspension, and expulsion, shall be imposed only when required or permitted by law or when other means of correction have been documented to have failed. (Education Code 48900.5)

School personnel and volunteers shall not allow any disciplinary action taken against a student to result in the denial or delay of a school meal. (Education Code 49557.5)

A student shall not be denied recess unless the student's participation poses an immediate threat to the physical safety of the student or to the physical safety of one or more of the student's peers. If, due to such immediate threat, a student is denied recess, staff shall make all reasonable efforts to resolve the threat and minimize the student's exclusion from recess, to the greatest extent practicable. (Education Code 49056)

Seclusion and behavioral restraint are prohibited as a means of discipline and shall not be used to correct student behavior except as permitted pursuant to Education Code 49005.4 and in accordance with district regulations. (Education Code 49005.2)

The Superintendent or designee shall create a model discipline matrix that lists violations and the consequences for each as allowed by law.

The principal or designee at each school may develop disciplinary rules to meet the school's particular needs consistent with law, Board policy, and administrative regulations. The Board, at an open meeting, may review the approved school discipline rules for consistency with Board policy and state law. Site-level disciplinary rules shall be included in the district's comprehensive safety plan. (Education Code 32282, 35291.5)

At all times, the safety of students and staff, providing interventions and supports to students, as well as the maintenance of an orderly school environment, shall be priorities in determining appropriate discipline. When misconduct occurs, staff shall attempt to identify the causes of the student's behavior and implement appropriate support and/or discipline. When choosing between different disciplinary strategies, staff shall consider the effect of each option on the student's health, well-being, and opportunity to learn.

Staff shall enforce disciplinary rules fairly, consistently, and in accordance with the district's nondiscrimination policies.

The Superintendent or designee shall provide professional development as necessary to assist staff in developing the skills needed to effectively and equitably implement the disciplinary strategies adopted for district schools, including, but not limited to, knowledge of school and classroom management skills and their consistent application, effective accountability and positive intervention techniques, and the tools to form strong, cooperative relationships with parents/guardians.

District goals for improving school climate, based on suspension and expulsion rates, surveys of students, staff, and parents/guardians regarding their sense of school safety and connectedness to the school community, and other local measures, shall be included in the district's local control and accountability plan, as required by law.

At the beginning of each school year, the Superintendent or designee may report to the Board regarding disciplinary strategies used in district schools in the immediately preceding school year and their effect on student learning.

Site-Level Rules

Site-level rules shall be consistent with state law and Board policies and administrative regulations. In developing site-level disciplinary rules, the principal or designee shall solicit the participation, views, and advice of one representative selected by each of the following groups: (Education Code 35291.5)
Parents/guardians

Teachers

School administrators

School security personnel, if any

Students in grades seven through twelve
Annually, site-level discipline rules shall be reviewed and, if necessary, updated to align with any changes in state law, district discipline policies and regulations, and/or goals for school safety and climate as specified in the district's local control and accountability plan. A copy of the rules shall be filed with the Superintendent or designee for inclusion in the comprehensive safety plan.

School rules shall be communicated to students clearly and in an age-appropriate manner.

It shall be the duty of each employee of the school to enforce the school rules on student discipline. (Education Code 35291.5)

Disciplinary Strategies

To the extent possible, staff shall use disciplinary strategies that keep students in school and participating in the instructional program. Except when students' presence causes a danger to themselves or others or they commit a single act of a grave nature or an offense for which suspension or expulsion is required by law, suspension, supervised suspension, or expulsion shall be used only when other means of correction have failed to bring about proper conduct. Disciplinary strategies may include, but are not limited to:
Discussion or conference between school staff, the student, and the student's parents/guardians

Referral of the student to the school counselor or other school support service personnel for case management and counseling

Convening of a study team, guidance team, resource panel, or other intervention-related team to assess the behavior and develop and implement an individual plan to address the behavior in partnership with the student and the student's parents/guardians

When applicable, referral for a comprehensive psychosocial or psychoeducational assessment, including for purposes of creating an individualized education program (IEP) or a Section 504 plan

Enrollment in a program for teaching prosocial behavior or anger management

Participation in a restorative justice program

A positive behavior support approach with tiered interventions that occur during the school day on campus

Participation in a social and emotional learning program that teaches students the ability to understand and manage emotions, develop caring and concern for others, make responsible decisions, establish positive relationships, and handle challenging situations capably

Participation in a program that is sensitive to the traumas experienced by students, focuses on students' behavioral health needs, and addresses those needs in a proactive manner

After-school programs that address specific behavioral issues or expose students to positive activities and behaviors, including, but not limited to, those operated in collaboration with local parent and community groups

Detention after school hours as provided in the section below entitled "Detention After School"

Community service as provided in the section below entitled "Community Service"

In accordance with Board policy and administrative regulation, restriction or disqualification from participation in extracurricular activities

Reassignment to an alternative educational environment

Suspension and expulsion in accordance with law, Board policy, and administrative regulation
When, by law or district policy, other means of correction are required to be implemented before a student could be suspended or expelled, any other means of correction implemented shall be documented and retained in the student's records. (Education Code 48900.5)

When a student has been suspended, or other means of correction have been implemented against the student, for an incident of racist bullying, harassment, or intimidation, the principal or designee shall engage both the victim and perpetrator in a restorative justice practice suitable to the needs of the students. The principal or designee shall also require the perpetrator to engage in a culturally sensitive program that promotes racial justice and equity and combats racism and ignorance and shall regularly check on the victim to ensure that the victim is not in danger of suffering from any long-lasting mental health issues. (Education Code 48900.5)

Staff shall enforce disciplinary rules fairly, consistently, and in accordance with the district's nondiscrimination policies.

When disciplining a student who has been identified for special education and related services, the procedures specified in Administrative Regulation 5144.2 - Suspension And Expulsion/Due Process (Students With Disabilities) shall be applied. If a student has not been identified as a student with a disability and the district suspects the behavior that resulted in discipline may be based in an unidentified disability, the district shall conduct an evaluation to determine if the student has a disability which requires an IEP or 504 plan. (U.S.C. 1412(a)(3))

Detention After School

Students may be detained for disciplinary reasons for up to one hour after the close of the maximum school day, or until the departure of the school bus to which they have been assigned if applicable. (5 CCR 307, 353)

The student shall not be detained unless the principal or designee notifies the parent/guardian.

Students shall remain under the supervision of a certificated employee during the period of detention.

Students may be offered the choice of serving their detention on Saturday rather than after school.

Community Service

As part of or instead of disciplinary action, the Board, Superintendent, principal, or principal's designee may require a student to perform community service during nonschool hours on school grounds or, with written permission of the student's parent/guardian, off school grounds. Such service may include, but is not limited to, community or school outdoor beautification, community or campus betterment, and teacher, peer, or youth assistance programs. (Education Code 48900.6)

This community service option is not available for a student who has been suspended, pending expulsion, pursuant to Education Code 48915. However, if the recommended expulsion is not implemented or the expulsion itself is suspended, then the student may be required to perform community service for the resulting suspension. (Education Code 48900.6)

Notice to Parents/Guardians and Students

At the beginning of the school year, the Superintendent or designee shall notify parents/guardians, in writing, about the availability of district rules related to discipline. (Education Code 35291, 48980)

The Superintendent or designee shall also provide written notice of disciplinary rules to parents/guardians of transfer students at the time of their enrollment in the district.

Dress Code – BP/AR 5132

Original Adopted Date: 09/13/2000 | Last Revised Date: 02/27/2020 | Last Reviewed Date: 02/27/2020

In cooperation with teachers, students, and parents/guardians, the principal or designee may establish school rules governing student dress and grooming which are consistent with law, Board policy, and administrative regulations. These school dress codes shall be regularly reviewed.

The following guidelines shall apply to all regular school activities:

Dress Code
Students must wear a shirt with pants or skirt, or the equivalent, and shoes.

Shirts and dresses must have fabric on the front and the sides.

The fabric covering the buttocks, genitals, and breasts must not be transparent (see-through).

Hats and other headwear must allow the face to be visible and not interfere with the line of sight of any student or staff. Hoodies must allow the student's face and ears to be visible to staff. No sunglasses may be worn indoors.

Clothing must be suitable for all scheduled classroom activities, including physical education, science labs, wood shop, and other activities where unique hazards exist. Specialized courses may require specialized attire, such as sports uniforms or safety gear.

Shoes must be worn at all times. Flip-flops, socks or sock-like footwear, slippers, backless shoes, or shoes with over a one-inch heel are not safe or appropriate for school. Toes must be covered.

Clothing may not depict, advertise or advocate the use of alcohol (excluding Humboldt County restaurants/family establishments), tobacco, or drugs.

Clothing may not reference genitals nor depict profanity, pornography, nudity, vulgarity, or sexual acts.

Clothing may not use or depict hate speech targeting any individual or group based on economics, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, intelligence, race, religious affiliation, sexual orientation, or any other protected group.

Clothing must not threaten the health or safety of any student or staff.

Clothing may not depict or advocate violence, criminal activity, race superiority, or hate speech.

Any attire identified as gang-related by local law enforcement is not allowed.

The dress code shall be modified as appropriate to accommodate a student's religious or cultural observance, health condition, or other circumstance deemed necessary by the principal or designee. In addition, the principal or designee may impose dress requirements to accommodate the needs of special school activities, physical education classes, athletic activities, and other extracurricular and cocurricular activities.

No grade of a student participating in a physical education class shall be adversely affected if the student does not wear standardized physical education apparel because of circumstances beyond the student's control. (Education Code 49066)

Students shall be allowed to wear sun-protective clothing, including but not limited to hats, for outdoor use during the school day. (Education Code 35183.5)

Gang-Related Apparel

At individual schools that have a dress code prohibiting gang-related apparel at school or school activities, the principal, staff, and parents/guardians participating in the development of the school safety plan shall define "gang-related apparel" and shall limit this definition to apparel that reasonably could be determined to threaten the health and safety of the school environment if it were worn or displayed on a school campus. (Education Code 32282)

Because gang-related symbols are constantly changing, definitions of gang-related apparel shall be reviewed annually and updated whenever related information is received. As necessary, the school shall collaborate with law enforcement agencies to update definitions of gang-related apparel.

In addition, the principal or designee may impose dress requirements to accommodate the needs of special school activities, physical education classes, athletic activities, and other extracurricular and cocurricular activities.

(Education Code 32282)

Original Adopted Date: 10/22/2018 | Last Revised Date: 06/27/2024 | Last Reviewed Date: 06/27/2024Status: ADOPTED

This policy shall apply to all acts constituting bullying related to school activity or to school attendance occurring within a district school, to acts which occur off campus or outside of school-related or school-sponsored activities but which may have an impact or create a hostile environment at school, and to all acts of the Governing Board and the Superintendent in enacting policies and procedures that govern the district.

The Board recognizes the harmful effects of bullying on student well-being, student learning, and school attendance and desires to provide a welcoming, safe, and supportive school environment that protects students from physical, mental, and emotional harm. No individual or group shall, through physical, written, verbal, visual, or other means, harass, sexually harass, threaten, intimidate, cyberbully, cause bodily injury to, or commit hate violence against any student or school personnel, or retaliate against them for filing a complaint or participating in the complaint resolution process.

The Superintendent or designee shall develop strategies for addressing bullying in district schools with the involvement of students, parents/guardians, and staff. As appropriate, the Superintendent or designee may also collaborate with social services, mental health services, law enforcement, courts, and other agencies and community organizations in the development and implementation of effective strategies to promote safety in schools and the community.

Such strategies shall be incorporated into the comprehensive safety plan and, to the extent possible, into the local control and accountability plan and other applicable district and school plans.

Any complaint of bullying shall be investigated and, if determined to be discriminatory, resolved in accordance with law and the district's uniform complaint procedures specified in Administrative Regulation 1312.3. If, during the investigation, it is determined that a complaint is about nondiscriminatory bullying, the principal or designee shall inform the complainant and shall take all necessary actions to resolve the complaint.

If the Superintendent or designee believes it is in the best interest of a student who has been the victim of an act of bullying, as defined in Education Code 48900, the Superintendent or designee shall advise the student's parents/guardians that the student may transfer to another school. If the parents/guardians of a student who has been the victim of an act of bullying requests a transfer for the student pursuant to Education Code 46600, the Superintendent or designee shall allow the transfer in accordance with law and district policy on intradistrict or interdistrict transfer, as applicable.

District families are encouraged to model respectful behavior, contribute to a safe and supportive learning environment, and monitor potential causes of bullying.

Any employee who permits or engages in bullying or retaliation related to bullying shall be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal.

Examples of Prohibited Conduct
Bullying is an aggressive behavior that involves a real or perceived imbalance of power between individuals with the intent to cause emotional or physical harm. Bullying can be physical, verbal, or social/relational and may involve a single severe act or repetition or potential repetition of a deliberate act. Bullying includes, but is not limited to, any act described in Education Code 48900(r).

Cyberbullying includes the electronic creation or transmission of harassing communications, direct threats, or other harmful texts, sounds, or images, which may be shared, sent, or posted publicly. Cyberbullying may include, but is not limited to, personal or private information that causes humiliation, false or negative information to discredit or disparage, or threats of physical harm. Cyberbullying may also include breaking into another person's electronic account or assuming that person's online identity in order to damage that person's reputation.

Examples of the types of conduct that may constitute bullying and are prohibited by the district include, but are not limited to:
Physical bullying: An act that inflicts harm upon a person's body or possessions, such as hitting, kicking, pinching, spitting, tripping, pushing, taking or breaking someone's possessions, or making cruel or rude hand gestures

Verbal bullying: An act that includes saying or writing hurtful things, such as teasing, name-calling, inappropriate sexual comments, taunting, or threats to cause harm

Measures to Prevent Bullying

The Superintendent or designee shall implement measures to prevent bullying in district schools, including, but not limited to, the following:
Developing a strategic plan for school connectedness and social skills with benchmark tracking, which may include providing regular opportunities and spaces for students to develop social skills and strengthen relationships and promoting adult support from family and school staff, peer-led programs, and partnerships with key community groups, implementing socially based educational techniques such as cooperative learning projects that can improve educational outcomes as well as peer relations, creating a supportive school environment that fosters belonging through equitable classroom management, mentoring, and peer support groups that allow students to lean on each other and learn from each other's experiences, and building social connection into health education courses including information on the consequences of social connection on physical and mental health, key risk and protective factors, and strategies for increasing social connection

Ensuring that each school establishes clear rules for student and staff conduct and implements strategies to promote a positive, supportive, and collaborative school climate

Providing information to students, through student handbooks, district and school websites and social media, and other age-appropriate means, about district and school rules related to bullying, mechanisms available for reporting incidents or threats, and the consequences for engaging in bullying

Encouraging students to notify school staff when they are being bullied or when they suspect that another student is being bullied, and providing means by which students may report threats or incidents confidentially and anonymously

Conducting an assessment of bullying incidents at each school and, if necessary, increasing supervision and security in areas where bullying most often occurs, such as playgrounds, hallways, restrooms, and cafeterias

Annually notifying district employees that, pursuant to Education Code 234.1, any school staff who witnesses an act of bullying against a student has a responsibility to immediately intervene to stop the incident when it is safe to do so

Staff Development

The Superintendent or designee shall annually make available to all certificated staff and to other employees who have regular interaction with students the California Department of Education (CDE) online training module on the dynamics of bullying and cyberbullying, including the identification of bullying and cyberbullying and the implementation of strategies to address bullying. (Education Code 32283.5)

The Superintendent or designee shall provide training to teachers and other school staff to raise their awareness about the legal obligation of the district and its employees to prevent discrimination, harassment, intimidation, and bullying of district students. Such training shall be designed to provide staff with the skills to:
Discuss the diversity of the student body and school community, including their varying immigration experiences

Discuss bullying prevention strategies with students, and teach students to recognize the behavior and characteristics of bullying perpetrators and victims

Identify the signs of bullying or harassing behavior

Take immediate corrective action when bullying is observed

Report incidents to the appropriate authorities, including law enforcement in instances of criminal behavior
Information and Resources

The Superintendent or designee shall post on the district's website, in a prominent location and in a manner that is easily accessible to students and parents/guardians, information on bullying and harassment prevention which includes the following: (Education Code 234.6)

Student Instruction

As appropriate, the district shall provide students with instruction, in the classroom or other educational settings, that promotes social-emotional learning, effective communication and conflict resolution skills, character development, respect for cultural and individual differences, self-esteem development, assertiveness skills, digital and media literacy skills, and appropriate online behavior.

The district shall also educate students about the negative impact of bullying, discrimination, intimidation, and harassment based on actual or perceived immigration status, religious beliefs and customs, or any other individual bias or prejudice.

Students should be taught the difference between appropriate and inappropriate behaviors, how to advocate for themselves, how to help another student who is being bullied, and when to seek assistance from a trusted adult. As role models for students, staff are responsible for teaching and modeling respectful behavior and building safe and supportive learning environments, and are expected to demonstrate effective problem-solving and anger management skills.

To discourage cyberbullying, teachers may advise students to be cautious about sharing passwords, personal data, or private photos online and to consider the consequences of making negative comments about others online.

Reporting and Filing of Complaints

Any student, parent/guardian, or other individual who believes that a student has been subjected to bullying or who has witnessed bullying may report the incident to a teacher, the principal, a compliance officer, or any other available school employee.

When a report of bullying is submitted, the principal or a district compliance officer shall inform the student or parent/guardian of the right to file a formal written complaint in accordance with Administrative Regulation 1312.3 - Uniform Complaint Procedures. The student who is the alleged victim of the bullying shall be given an opportunity to describe the incident, identify witnesses who may have relevant information, and provide other evidence of bullying.

Within one business day of receiving such a report, a staff member shall notify the principal of the report, regardless of whether a uniform complaint is filed. In addition, any school employee who observes an incident of bullying involving a student shall, within one business day, report such observation to the principal or a district compliance officer, regardless of whether the alleged victim files a complaint.

Within two business days of receiving a report of bullying, the principal shall notify the district compliance officer identified in Administrative Regulation 1312.3.

Any individuals with information about cyberbullying activity shall save and print any electronic or digital messages that they feel constitute cyberbullying and shall notify a teacher, the principal, or other employee so that the matter may be investigated. When an investigation concludes that a student used a social networking site or service to bully or harass another student, the Superintendent or designee may report the cyberbullying to the social media platform and may request the material be removed.

Discipline/Corrective Actions

Corrective actions for a student who commits an act of bullying of any type may include counseling, behavioral intervention, and education, and, if the behavior is severe or pervasive as defined in Education Code 48900, may include suspension or expulsion in accordance with district policies and regulations.

When a student has been suspended, or other means of correction have been implemented against the student, for an incident of racist bullying, harassment, or intimidation, the principal or designee shall engage both the victim and perpetrator in a restorative justice practice suitable to the needs of the students. The principal or designee shall also require the perpetrator to engage in a culturally sensitive program that promotes racial justice and equity and combats racism and ignorance and shall regularly check on the victim to ensure that the victim is not in danger of suffering from any long-lasting mental health issues. (Education Code 48900.5)

When appropriate based on the severity or pervasiveness of the bullying, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the parents/guardians of victims and perpetrators and may contact law enforcement.

Support Services

The Superintendent, principal, or designee may refer a victim, witness, perpetrator, or other student affected by an act of bullying to a school counselor, school psychologist, social worker, child welfare attendance personnel, school nurse, or other school support service personnel for case management, counseling, and/or participation in a restorative justice program as appropriate. (Education Code 48900.9)

If any student involved in bullying exhibits warning signs of suicidal thought or intention or of intent to harm another person, the Superintendent or designee shall, as appropriate, implement district intervention protocols which may include, but are not limited to, referral to district or community mental health services, other health professionals, and/or law enforcement, in accordance with Board Policy and Administrative Regulation 5141.52 - Suicide Prevention.

That due to the nature of the violation, the presence of the student causes a continuing danger to the physical safety of the student or others
A vote to expel a student shall be taken in an open session of a Board meeting. (Education Code 48918(j))

(Education Code 48910)

When suspending a student from class, the teacher shall immediately report this action to the principal or designee and send the student to the principal or designee for appropriate action. If that action requires the continuing presence of the student at school, the student shall be appropriately supervised during the class periods from which the student has been suspended. (Education Code 48910)

As soon as possible after the teacher has suspended the student, the teacher shall ask the student's parent/guardian to attend a parent-teacher conference regarding the suspension. A counselor or psychologist may attend the conference if it is practicable, and a school administrator shall attend if requested by the parent/guardian or teacher. (Education Code 48910)

A student suspended from class shall not be returned to class during the period of the suspension without the approval of the teacher of the class and the principal or designee. (Education Code 48910)

A student suspended from class shall not be placed in another regular class during the period of suspension. However, a student assigned to more than one class per day may continue to attend other regular classes except those held at the same time as the class from which the student was suspended. (Education Code 48910)

A teacher may also refer a student, for any of the acts specified above in Education Code 48900, to the principal or designee for consideration of a suspension from school. (Education Code 48910)

The teacher of any class from which a student is suspended may require the student to complete any assignments and tests missed during the removal. (Education Code 48913)

Suspension by Superintendent, Principal or Principal's Designee

To implement disciplinary procedures at a school site, the principal may, in writing, designate as the principal's designee another administrator or, if the principal is the only administrator at the school site, a certificated employee. As necessary, the principal may, in writing, also designate another administrator or certificated employee as the secondary designee to assist with disciplinary procedures when the principal and the principal's primary designee are absent from the school site.

The Superintendent, principal, or designee shall immediately suspend any student found at school or at a school activity away from school to have committed any of the acts listed in the Board policy under "Authority to Expel" for which a recommendation of expulsion is required. (Education Code 48915(c))

The Superintendent, principal, or designee may impose a suspension for a first offense if it is determined that the student violated any of Items #1-5 listed under "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12" above or if the student's presence causes a danger to persons. (Education Code 48900.5)

For all other offenses, a student may be suspended only when the Superintendent or principal has determined that other means of correction have failed to bring about proper conduct. (Education Code 48900.5)

When other means of correction are implemented prior to imposing suspension upon a student, including supervised suspension, the Superintendent, principal, or designee shall document the other means of correction used and retain the documentation in the student's record. (Education Code 48900.5)

Length of Suspension

The Superintendent, principal, or designee may suspend a student from school for not more than five consecutive school days. (Education Code 48911)

A student may be suspended from school for not more than 20 school days in any school year. However, if a student enrolls in or is transferred to another regular school, an opportunity school or class, or continuation school or class for the purpose of adjustment, the student may be suspended for not more than 30 school days in a school year. The district may count suspensions that occur while a student is enrolled in another school district toward the maximum number of days for which the student may be suspended in any school year. (Education Code 48903, 48911, 48912)

These restrictions on the number of days of suspension shall not apply when the suspension is extended pending an expulsion. (Education Code 48911)

Due Process Procedures for Suspension

Suspensions shall be imposed in accordance with the following procedures:

Informal Conference: Suspension shall be preceded by an informal conference conducted by the Superintendent, principal, or designee with the student and, whenever practicable, the teacher, supervisor, or school employee who referred the student to the principal. At the conference, the student shall be informed of the reason for the disciplinary action, including the other means of correction that were attempted before the suspension as required pursuant to Education Code 48900.5, and the evidence against the student, and shall be given the opportunity to present the student's version and evidence in the student's defense. (Education Code 48911)

This conference may be omitted if the Superintendent, principal, or designee determines that an emergency situation exists involving a clear and present danger to the lives, safety, or health of students or school personnel. If a student is suspended without this conference, the student, the student's parent/guardian, or if the student is a foster youth, the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or if the student is an Indian child, the Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, county social worker, shall be notified of the student's right to a conference and the right to return to school for the purpose of the conference. The conference shall be held within two school days, unless the student waives the right to it or is physically unable to attend for any reason. In such a case, the conference shall be held as soon as the student is physically able to return to school for the conference. (Education Code 48911)

Administrative Actions: All requests for student suspension are to be processed by the principal or designee. A school employee shall report the suspension, including the name of the student and the cause for the suspension, to the Superintendent or designee. (Education Code 48911)

Notice to Parents/Guardians: At the time of the suspension, a school employee shall make a reasonable effort to contact the parent/guardian, or if the student is a foster youth, the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or if the student is an Indian child, the Indian child's tribal social worker, and, if applicable, the county social worker, in person, by email, or by telephone. Whenever a student is suspended, the parent/guardian, or, if applicable, the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or the Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, the county social worker, shall also be notified in writing of the suspension. (Education Code 48911)

This notice shall state the specific offense committed by the student. (Education Code 48900.8)

In addition, the notice shall state the date and time when the student may return to school.

Parent/Guardian Conference: Whenever a student is suspended, school officials may conduct a meeting with the parent/guardian to discuss the cause(s) and duration of the suspension, the school policy involved, and any other pertinent matter. (Education Code 48914)

If school officials request to meet with the parent/guardian, a foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or an Indian child's tribal social worker, and, if applicable, the county social worker, the notice may state that the law requires such individuals to respond to the request without delay. However, the student shall not be penalized for the failure of the parent/guardian, a foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or an Indian child's tribal social worker, and, if applicable, the county social worker, to attend such a conference. The student may not be denied reinstatement solely because such individuals failed to attend the conference. (Education Code 48911)

Extension of Suspension: If the Board is considering the expulsion of a suspended student from any school or the suspension of a student for the balance of the semester from continuation school, the Superintendent or designee may, in writing, extend the suspension until such time as the Board has made a decision, provided the following requirements are followed: (Education Code 48911)

The extension of the original period of suspension is preceded by notice of such extension with an offer to hold a conference concerning the extension, giving the student an opportunity to be heard

This conference may be held in conjunction with a meeting requested by the student or parent/guardian to challenge the original suspension.

The Superintendent or designee determines, following a meeting in which the student and the student's parent/guardian were invited to participate, that the student's presence at the school or at an alternative school would endanger persons or property or threaten to disrupt the instructional process

If the student involved is a foster youth or Indian child, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the district's educational liaison of the need to invite the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney and county social worker, or the Indian child's tribal social worker or, if applicable, the county social worker, to attend the meeting (Education Code 48853.5, 48911, 48918.1)

If the student involved is a child or youth experiencing homelessness, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the district liaison for homeless students (Education Code 48918.1)

In lieu of or in addition to suspending a student, the Superintendent, principal, or designee may provide services or require the student to participate in an alternative disciplinary program designed to correct the behavior and keep the student in school
Suspension by the Board

The Board may suspend a student for any of the acts listed under "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12," and "Additional Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades 4-12," above and within the limits specified under "Suspension by Superintendent, Principal, or Designee," above. (Education Code 48912)

The Board may suspend a student enrolled in a continuation school or class for a period not longer than the remainder of the semester. The suspension shall meet the requirements of Education Code 48915. (Education Code 48912.5)

When the Board is considering a suspension, disciplinary action, or any other action (except expulsion) against any student, it shall hold a closed session if a public hearing would lead to disclosure of information that would violate a student's right to privacy under Education Code 49073-49079. (Education Code 35146, 48912)

The Board shall provide the student and parent/guardian with written notice of the closed session by registered or certified mail or personal service. Upon receiving this notice, the student or parent/guardian may request a public meeting, and this request shall be granted if made in writing within 48 hours after receipt of the Board's notice. However, any discussion that conflicts with any other student's right to privacy still shall be held in closed session. (Education Code 35146, 48912)

On-Campus Suspension

A student for whom an expulsion action has not been initiated and who poses no imminent danger or threat to the school, students, or staff may be assigned to on-campus suspension in a separate classroom, building, or site for the entire period of suspension. The following conditions shall apply: (Education Code 48911.1)
The on-campus suspension classroom shall be staffed in accordance with law

The student shall have access to appropriate counseling services

The on-campus suspension classroom shall promote completion of schoolwork and tests missed by the student during the suspension

The student shall be responsible for contacting the student's teacher(s) to receive assignments to be completed in the supervised suspension classroom and the teacher(s) shall provide all assignments and tests that the student will miss while suspended

If no such work is assigned, the person supervising the suspension classroom shall assign schoolwork.
At the time a student is assigned to an on-campus suspension classroom, the principal or designee shall notify the student's parent/guardian, or if the student is a foster youth, the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or, if the student if an Indian child, the Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, county social worker, in person, by email, or by telephone. When the assignment is for longer than one class period, this notification shall be made in writing. (Education Code 48911.1)

Superintendent or Principal's Authority to Recommend Expulsion

Unless the Superintendent or principal determines that expulsion should not be recommended under the circumstances or that an alternative means of correction would address the conduct, the Superintendent or principal shall recommend a student's expulsion for any of the following acts: (Education Code 48915)
Causing serious physical injury to another person, except in self-defense

Possession of any knife or other dangerous object of no reasonable use to the student

Unlawful possession of any controlled substance as listed in Health and Safety Code 11053-11059, except for:

The first offense for the possession of not more than one ounce of marijuana, other than concentrated cannabis

The student's possession of over-the-counter medication for use by the student for medical purposes

Medication prescribed for the student by a physician

Robbery or extortion

Assault or battery, as defined in Penal Code 240 and 242, upon any school employee
In determining whether to recommend the expulsion of a student, the Superintendent, principal, or designee shall act as quickly as possible to ensure that the student does not lose instructional time. (Education Code 48915)

Student's Right to Expulsion Hearing

Any student recommended for expulsion shall be entitled to a hearing to determine whether the student should be expelled. The hearing shall be held within 30 school days after the Superintendent, principal, or designee determines that the student has committed the act(s) that form the basis for the expulsion recommendation. (Education Code 48918(a))

The student is entitled to at least one postponement of an expulsion hearing for a period of not more than 30 calendar days. The request for postponement shall be in writing. Any subsequent postponement may be granted at the Board's discretion. (Education Code 48918(a))

If the Board finds it impractical during the regular school year to comply with these time requirements for conducting an expulsion hearing, the Superintendent or designee may, for good cause, extend the time period by an additional five school days. Reasons for the extension shall be included as a part of the record when the expulsion hearing is held. (Education Code 48918(a))

If the Board finds it impractical to comply with the time requirements of the expulsion hearing due to a summer recess of Board meetings of more than two weeks, the days during the recess shall not be counted as school days. The days not counted during the recess may not exceed 20 school days, as defined in Education Code 48925. Unless the student requests in writing that the expulsion hearing be postponed, the hearing shall be held not later than 20 calendar days prior to the first day of the next school year. (Education Code 48918(a))

Once the hearing starts, all matters shall be pursued with reasonable diligence and concluded without unnecessary delay. (Education Code 48918(a))

Stipulated Expulsion

After a determination that a student has committed an offense for which the student may be expelled, the Superintendent, principal, or designee shall offer the student, the student's parent/guardian, or, when applicable, other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, the option to waive a hearing and stipulate to the expulsion or to a suspension of the expulsion under certain conditions. The offer shall be made only after written notice of the expulsion hearing pursuant to Education Code 48918 has been given.

The stipulation agreement shall be in writing and shall be signed by the student, the student's parent/guardian, or, when applicable, the person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student. The stipulation agreement shall include notice of all the rights that the student is waiving, including the waiving of the right to have a full hearing, to appeal the expulsion to the County Board of Education, and to consult legal counsel.

A stipulated expulsion agreed to by the student, the student's parent/guardian, or, when applicable, the person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, shall be effective upon approval by the Board.

Rights of Complaining Witness

An expulsion hearing involving allegations of sexual assault or sexual battery may be postponed for one school day in order to accommodate the special physical, mental, or emotional needs of a student who is the complaining witness. (Education Code 48918.5)

Whenever the Superintendent or designee recommends an expulsion hearing that addresses allegations of sexual assault or sexual battery, the Superintendent or designee shall give the complaining witness a copy of the district's suspension and expulsion policy and regulation and shall advise the witness of the right to: (Education Code 48918.5)
Receive five days' notice of the scheduled testimony at the hearing

Have up to two adult support persons present at the hearing at the time the witness testifies

Have a closed hearing during the time the witness testifies
Whenever any allegation of sexual assault or sexual battery is made, the Superintendent or designee shall immediately advise complaining witnesses and accused students to refrain from personal or telephone contact with each other during the time when an expulsion process is pending. (Education Code 48918.5)

Written Notice of the Expulsion Hearing

Written notice of the expulsion hearing shall be forwarded to the student and the student's parent/guardian at least 10 calendar days before the date of the hearing. The notice shall include: (Education Code 48900.8, 48918(b))
The date and place of the hearing

A statement of the specific facts, charges, and offense upon which the proposed expulsion is based

A copy of district disciplinary rules which relate to the alleged violation

Notification of the student's or parent/guardian's obligation, pursuant to Education Code 48915.1, to provide information about the student's status in the district to any other district in which the student seeks enrollment

This obligation applies when a student is expelled for acts other than those described in Education Code 48915(a) or (c).

The opportunity for the student or the student's parent/guardian to appear in person or be represented by legal counsel or by a nonattorney adviser

Legal counsel means an attorney or lawyer who is admitted to the practice of law in California and is an active member of the State Bar of California.

Nonattorney adviser means an individual who is not an attorney or lawyer, but who is familiar with the facts of the case and has been selected by the student or student's parent/guardian to provide assistance at the hearing.

The right to inspect and obtain copies of all documents to be used at the hearing

The opportunity to confront and question all witnesses who testify at the hearing

The opportunity to question all evidence presented and to present oral and documentary evidence on the student's behalf, including witnesses
Additional Notice of Expulsion Hearing for Foster Youth, Homeless Students, and Indian Children

If the student facing expulsion is a foster student or Indian child, the Superintendent or designee shall also send notice of the hearing to the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or the Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, county social worker, at least 10 calendar days prior to the hearing. (Education Code 48918.1)

If the student facing expulsion is a student experiencing homelessness, the Superintendent or designee shall also send notice of the hearing to the district liaison for homeless students at least 10 calendar days prior to the hearing. (Education Code 48918.1)

Any notice for these purposes may be provided by the most cost-effective method possible, including by email or a telephone call. (Education Code 48918.1)

Conduct of Expulsion Hearing

Closed Session: Notwithstanding Education Code 35145, the Board shall conduct a hearing to consider the expulsion of the student in a session closed to the public unless the student requests in writing at least five days prior to the hearing that the hearing be a public meeting. If such a request is made, the meeting shall be public to the extent that privacy rights of other students are not violated. (Education Code 48918)

Whether the expulsion hearing is held in closed or public session, the Board may meet in closed session to deliberate and determine whether the student should be expelled. If the Board admits any other person to this closed session, the parent/guardian, the student, and the counsel of the student also shall be allowed to attend the closed session. (Education Code 48918(c))

If a hearing that involves a charge of sexual assault or sexual battery is to be conducted in public, a complaining witness shall have the right to testify in closed session when testifying in public would threaten serious psychological harm to the witness and when there are no alternative procedures to avoid the threatened harm, including, but not limited to, a videotaped deposition or contemporaneous examination in another place communicated to the hearing room by closed-circuit television. (Education Code 48918(c)

Record of Hearing: A record of the hearing shall be made and may be maintained by any means, including electronic recording, as long as a reasonably accurate and complete written transcription of the proceedings can be made. (Education Code 48918(g))

Subpoenas: Before commencing a student expulsion hearing, the Board may issue subpoenas, at the request of either the student or the Superintendent or designee, for the personal appearance at the hearing of any person who actually witnessed the action that gave rise to the recommendation for expulsion. After the hearing has commenced, the Board or the hearing officer or administrative panel may issue such subpoenas at the request of the student or the County Superintendent of Schools or designee. All subpoenas shall be issued in accordance with Code of Civil Procedure 1985-1985.2 and enforced in accordance with Government Code 11455.20. (Education Code 48918(i))

Any objection raised by the student or the Superintendent or designee to the issuance of subpoenas may be considered by the Board in closed session, or in open session if so requested by the student, before the meeting. The Board's decision in response to such an objection shall be final and binding. (Education Code 48918(i))

If the Board determines, or if the hearing officer or administrative panel finds and submits to the Board, that a witness would be subject to unreasonable risk of harm by testifying at the hearing, a subpoena shall not be issued to compel the personal attendance of that witness at the hearing. However, that witness may be compelled to testify by means of a sworn declaration as described in Item #6 below. (Education Code 48918(i))

Presentation of Evidence: Technical rules of evidence shall not apply to the expulsion hearing, but relevant evidence may be admitted and used as proof only if it is the kind of evidence on which reasonable persons can rely in the conduct of serious affairs. The decision of the Board to expel shall be supported by substantial evidence that the student committed any of the acts pursuant to Education Code 48900 and listed in "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12," and "Additional Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades 4-12," above. (Education Code 48918(h))

Findings of fact shall be based solely on the evidence at the hearing. Although no finding shall be based solely on hearsay, sworn declarations may be admitted as testimony from witnesses whose disclosure of their identity or testimony at the hearing may subject them to an unreasonable risk of physical or psychological harm. (Education Code 48918(f))

In cases where a search of a student's person or property has occurred, evidence describing the reasonableness of the search shall be included in the hearing record.

Testimony by Complaining Witnesses: The following procedures shall be observed when a hearing involves allegations of sexual assault or sexual battery by a student: (Education Code 48918, 48918.5)

Any complaining witness shall be given five days' notice before being called to testify

Any complaining witness shall be entitled to have up to two adult support persons, including, but not limited to, a parent/guardian or legal counsel, present during the testimony

Before a complaining witness testifies, support persons shall be admonished that the hearing is confidential

The person presiding over the hearing may remove a support person who is disrupting the hearing

If one or both support persons are also witnesses, the hearing shall be conducted in accordance with Penal Code 868.5

Evidence of specific instances of prior sexual conduct of a complaining witness shall be presumed inadmissible and shall not be heard unless the person conducting the hearing determines that extraordinary circumstances require the evidence to be heard

Before such a determination is made, the complaining witness shall be given notice and an opportunity to oppose the introduction of this evidence. In the hearing on the admissibility of this evidence, the complaining witness shall be entitled to be represented by a parent/guardian, legal counsel, or other support person. Reputation or opinion evidence regarding the sexual behavior of a complaining witness shall not be admissible for any purpose.

In order to facilitate a free and accurate statement of the experiences of the complaining witness and to prevent discouragement of complaints, the district shall provide a nonthreatening environment

The district shall provide a room separate from the hearing room for the use of the complaining witness before and during breaks in testimony

At the discretion of the person conducting the hearing, the complaining witness shall be allowed reasonable periods of relief from examination and cross-examination during which the complaining witness may leave the hearing room

The person conducting the hearing may:

Arrange the seating within the hearing room so as to facilitate a less intimidating environment for the complaining witness

Limit the time for taking the testimony of a complaining witness to normal school hours, if there is no good cause to take the testimony during other hours

(Permit one of the support persons to accompany the complaining witness to the witness stand

Decision: The Board's decision as to whether to expel a student shall be made within 40 school days after the student is removed from school, unless the student requests in writing that the decision be postponed. (Education Code 48918(a))
Alternative Expulsion Hearing: Hearing Officer or Administrative Panel

Instead of conducting an expulsion hearing itself, the Board may contract with the county hearing officer or with the Office of Administrative Hearings of the State of California for a hearing officer. The Board may also appoint an impartial administrative panel composed of three or more certificated personnel, none of whom shall be members of the Board or on the staff of the school in which the student is enrolled. (Education Code 48918)

A hearing conducted by the hearing officer or administrative panel shall conform to the same procedures applicable to a hearing conducted by the Board as specified above in "Conduct of Expulsion Hearing," including the requirement to issue a decision within 40 school days of the student's removal from school, unless the student requests that the decision be postponed. (Education Code 48918(a) and (d))

The hearing officer or administrative panel shall, within three school days after the hearing, determine whether to recommend expulsion of the student to the Board. If expulsion is not recommended, the expulsion proceeding shall be terminated and the student shall be immediately reinstated and permitted to return to the classroom instructional program from which the referral was made, unless another placement is requested in writing by the student's parent/guardian. Before the student's placement decision is made by the student's parent/guardian, the Superintendent or designee shall consult with the parent/guardian and district staff, including the student's teachers, regarding other placement options for the student in addition to the option to return to the classroom instructional program from which the student's expulsion referral was made. The decision to not recommend expulsion shall be final. (Education Code 48918(e))

If expulsion is recommended, findings of fact in support of the recommendation shall be prepared and submitted to the Board. All findings of fact and recommendations shall be based solely on the evidence presented at the hearing. The

Board may accept the recommendation based either upon a review of the findings of fact and recommendations submitted or upon the results of any supplementary hearing the Board may order. (Education Code 48918(f))

In accordance with Board policy, the hearing officer or administrative panel may recommend that the Board suspend the enforcement of the expulsion. If the hearing officer or administrative panel recommends that the Board expel a student but suspend the enforcement of the expulsion, the student shall not be reinstated and permitted to return to the classroom instructional program from which the referral was made until the Board has ruled on the recommendation. (Education Code 48917, 48918)

Final Action by the Board

Whether the expulsion hearing is conducted in closed or open session by the Board, a hearing officer, or an administrative panel or is waived through the signing of a stipulated expulsion agreement, the final action to expel shall be taken by the Board in public. (Education Code 48918(j))

The Board's decision is final. If the decision is to not expel, the student shall be reinstated immediately. If the decision is to suspend the enforcement of the expulsion, the student shall be reinstated under the conditions of the suspended expulsion.

Upon ordering an expulsion, the Board shall set a date when the student shall be reviewed for readmission to a school within the district. For a student expelled for any "mandatory recommendation and mandatory expulsion" act listed in "Authority to Expel" in the accompanying Board policy, this date shall be one year from the date the expulsion occurred, except that the Board may set an earlier date on a case-by-case basis. For a student expelled for other acts, this date shall be no later than the last day of the semester following the semester in which the expulsion occurred. If an expulsion is ordered during summer session or the intersession period of a year-round program, the Board shall set a date when the student shall be reviewed for readmission not later than the last day of the semester following the summer session or intersession period in which the expulsion occurred. (Education Code 48916)

At the time of the expulsion order, the Board shall recommend a plan for the student's rehabilitation, which may include: (Education Code 48916)
Periodic review, as well as assessment at the time of review, for readmission

Recommendations for improved academic performance, tutoring, special education assessments, job training, counseling, employment, community service, or other rehabilitative programs
With parent/guardian consent, students who have been expelled for reasons relating to controlled substances or alcohol may be required to enroll in a county-sponsored drug rehabilitation program before returning to school. (Education Code 48916.5)

Written Notice to Expel

The Superintendent or designee shall send written notice of the decision to expel to the student or parent/guardian. This notice shall include the following:
The specific offense committed by the student for any of the causes for suspension or expulsion listed above under "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12" or "Additional Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades 4-12" (Education Code 48900.8)

The fact that a description of readmission procedures will be made available to the student and parent/guardian (Education Code 48916)

Notice of the right to appeal the expulsion to the County Board (Education Code 48918)

Notice of the alternative educational placement to be provided to the student during the time of expulsion (Education Code 48918)

Notice of the student's or parent/guardian's obligation to inform any new district in which the student seeks to enroll of the student's status with the expelling district, pursuant to Education Code 48915.1 (Education Code 48918)
Decision to Suspend Expulsion Order

In accordance with Board policy, when deciding whether to suspend the enforcement of an expulsion order, the Board shall take into account the following criteria:
The student's pattern of behavior

The seriousness of the misconduct

The student's attitude toward the misconduct and willingness to follow a rehabilitation program
The suspension of the enforcement of an expulsion shall be governed by the following:
The Board may, as a condition of the suspension of enforcement, assign the student to a school, class, or program appropriate for the student's rehabilitation

This rehabilitation program may provide for the involvement of the student's parent/guardian in the student's education. However, a parent/guardian's refusal to participate in the rehabilitation program shall not be considered in the Board's determination as to whether the student has satisfactorily completed the rehabilitation program. (Education Code 48917)

During the period when enforcement of the expulsion order is suspended, the student shall be on probationary status (Education Code 48917)

The suspension of the enforcement of an expulsion order may be revoked by the Board if the student commits any of the acts listed under "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12" or "Additional Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades 4-12" above, or violates any of the district's rules and regulations governing student conduct (Education Code 48917)

When the suspension of enforcement of an expulsion order is revoked, a student may be expelled under the terms of the original expulsion order (Education Code 48917)

Upon satisfactory completion of the rehabilitation assignment, the Board shall reinstate the student in a district school

Upon reinstatement, the Board may order the expunging of any or all records of the expulsion proceedings. (Education Code 48917)

The Superintendent or designee shall send written notice of any decision to suspend the enforcement of an expulsion order during a period of probation to the student or parent/guardian

The notice shall inform the parent/guardian of the right to appeal the expulsion to the County Board, the alternative educational placement to be provided to the student during the period of expulsion, and the student's or parent/guardian's obligation to inform any new district in which the student seeks to enroll of the student's status with the expelling district, pursuant to Education Code 48915.1(b). (Education Code 48918(j))

Suspension of the enforcement of an expulsion order shall not affect the time period and requirements for the filing of an appeal of the expulsion order with the County Board (Education Code 48917)
Appeal

If a student is expelled from school, the student or parent/guardian is entitled to file an appeal of the Board's decision with the County Board. The appeal must be filed within 30 days of the Board's decision to expel, even if the expulsion order is suspended and the student is placed on probation. (Education Code 48919)

If the student submits a written request for a copy of the written transcripts and supporting documents from the district simultaneously with the filing of the notice of appeal with the County Board, the district shall provide the student with these documents within 10 school days following the student's written request. (Education Code 48919)

Notification to Law Enforcement Authorities

Prior to the suspension or expulsion of any student, the principal or designee shall notify appropriate city or county law enforcement authorities of any student acts of assault which may have violated Penal Code 245. (Education Code 48902)

The principal or designee shall notify appropriate city or county law enforcement authorities of any student acts which may involve the possession or sale of narcotics or of a controlled substance, or of any student acts involving the possession, sale, or furnishing of firearms, explosives, or other dangerous weapons in violation of Education Code 48915(c)(1) or (5) or Penal Code 626.9 and 626.10. (Education Code 48902)

Within one school day after a student's suspension or expulsion, the principal or designee shall notify appropriate county or district law enforcement authorities, by telephone or other appropriate means, of any student acts which may violate Education Code 48900(c) or (d), relating to the possession, use, offering, or sale of controlled substances, alcohol, or intoxicants of any kind. (Education Code 48902)

Placement During Expulsion

The Board shall refer expelled students to a program of study that is: (Education Code 48915, 48915.01)
Appropriately prepared to accommodate students who exhibit discipline problems

Not provided at a comprehensive middle, junior, or senior high school or at any elementary school, unless the program is offered at a community day school established at any of these

Not housed at the school site attended by the student at the time of suspension
When the placement described above is not available and when the County Superintendent so certifies, students expelled for only acts described in Items #6-12 under "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12" and Items #1-3 under "Additional Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades 4-12" above may be referred to a program of study that is provided at another comprehensive middle, junior, or senior high school or at an elementary school. (Education Code 48915)

The program for a student expelled from any of grades K-6 shall not be combined or merged with programs offered to students in any of grades 7-12. (Education Code 48916.1)

Readmission After Expulsion

Prior to the date set by the Board for the student's readmission:
The Superintendent or designee shall hold a conference with the student's parent/guardian, or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, and the student

At the conference, the student's rehabilitation plan shall be reviewed and the Superintendent or designee shall verify that the provisions of this plan have been met. School regulations shall be reviewed and the student and the student's parent/guardian or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student shall be asked to indicate in writing their willingness to comply with these regulations.

The Superintendent or designee shall transmit to the Board a recommendation regarding readmission

The Board shall consider this recommendation in closed session. If a written request for open session is received from the student's parent/guardian or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, or adult student, it shall be honored to the extent that privacy rights of other students are not violated.

If the readmission is granted, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the student and the student's parent/guardian, or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, by registered mail, of the Board's decision regarding readmission

The Board may deny readmission only if it finds that the student has not satisfied the conditions of the rehabilitation plan or that the student continues to pose a danger to campus safety or to other district students or employees (Education Code 48916)

If the Board denies the readmission of a student, the Board shall determine either to continue the student's placement in the alternative educational program initially selected or to place the student in another program that serves expelled students, including placement in a county community school

The Board shall provide written notice to the expelled student and the student's parent/guardian, or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, describing the reasons for denying readmittance into the regular program

This notice shall indicate the Board's determination of the educational program which the Board has chosen. The student shall enroll in that program unless the parent/guardian chooses to enroll the student in another school district. No student shall be denied readmission into the district based solely on the student's arrest, adjudication by a juvenile court, formal or informal supervision by a probation officer, detention in a juvenile facility, enrollment in a juvenile court school, or other such contact with the juvenile justice system. (Education Code 48645.5)

Maintenance of Records

The district shall maintain a record of each suspension and expulsion, including its specific cause(s). (Education Code 48900.8)

Expulsion records of any student shall be maintained in the student's mandatory interim record and sent to any school in which the student subsequently enrolls upon written request by that school. (Education Code 48918(k))

The Superintendent or designee shall, within five working days, honor any other district's request for information about an expulsion from this district. (Education Code 48915.1)

Notice Regarding Student Offenses

When a student commits certain offenses that may endanger staff or others, the following procedures shall be implemented to notify staff members as appropriate:
Acts That Are Grounds for Suspension or Expulsion

The Superintendent or designee shall inform the teacher(s) of each student who, during the previous three school years, has engaged in or is reasonably suspected to have engaged in any act, except the possession or use of tobacco products, that would constitute a ground for suspension or expulsion as specified in Administrative Regulation 5144.1 - Suspension and Expulsion/Due Process (Education Code 49079)

This information shall be based upon district records maintained in the ordinary course of business or records received from a law enforcement agency. (Education Code 49079)

Information received by teacher(s) shall be received in confidence for the limited purpose for which it was provided and shall not be further disseminated by the teacher (Education Code 48201, 49079)

Any court-initiated information that a teacher, counselor, or administrator receives shall be kept confidential and used only to rehabilitate the student and protect other students and staff (Welfare and Institutions Code 827)

The information shall be further disseminated only when communication with the student, parent/guardian, law enforcement staff, and probation officer is necessary to rehabilitate the student or to protect students and staff. (Welfare and Institutions Code 827)

When a student is removed from school as a result of an offense, the Superintendent shall hold the court's information in a separate confidential file until the student is returned to the district (Welfare and Institutions Code 827)

If the student is returned to a different district, the Superintendent shall transmit the information provided by the student's parole or probation officer to the superintendent of the new district of attendance. (Welfare and Institutions Code 827)

Any confidential file of court-initiated information shall be kept until the student becomes 18, graduates from high school, or is released from juvenile court jurisdiction, whichever occurs first, and shall then be destroyed (Welfare and Institutions Code 827)

Another safety procedure or adjustment to a job structure, workplace facility, or work requirement in response to domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, or other qualifying act of violence
The Superintendent or designee shall engage in a timely, good faith, and interactive process with the employee to determine effective reasonable accommodations that do not pose an undue hardship on the district. In determining whether an accommodation is reasonable, the Superintendent or designee shall consider any exigent circumstance or danger facing the employee or their family member. (Government Code 12945.8)

Upon the request of the Superintendent or designee, an employee requesting a reasonable accommodation shall provide a written statement, signed by the employee or an individual acting on the employee's behalf, certifying that the accommodation is for an authorized purpose. The employee shall notify the Superintendent or designee if, due to changing circumstances, the employee needs a new accommodation or no longer needs an accommodation. If a new accommodation is needed, the Superintendent or designee shall follow the procedures described above when making the initial determination regarding effective reasonable accommodations. (Government Code 12945.8)

The district shall not discharge or retaliate against an employee because of the employee's status as a victim of crime or abuse or for requesting a reasonable accommodation, regardless of whether the request was granted. (Government Code 12945.8)

The Governing Board desires to provide a welcoming, safe, and supportive school environment that allows all students equal access to and opportunities in the district's academic, extracurricular, and other educational support programs, services, and activities.

This policy shall apply to all acts constituting unlawful discrimination or harassment related to district activity or attendance, to acts which occur off campus or outside of district-related or district-sponsored activities but which may have an impact or create a hostile environment at school, and to all acts of the Board and the Superintendent in enacting policies and procedures that govern the district.

The Board prohibits, at any district school or activity, unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, and bullying, against an individual or group based on one, or a combination of two or more, protected characteristics, which include, but may not be limited to, race or ethnicity; ancestry; color; ethnic group identification; nationality; national origin; immigration status; sex; sexual orientation; sex stereotypes; gender; gender identity; gender expression; religion; disability; medical condition; genetic information; pregnancy, false pregnancy, childbirth, termination of pregnancy, or related conditions or recovery; and parental, marital, and family status; a perception of one or more of such characteristics; or association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics. (Education Code 200, 210.1, 210.2, 212, 212.1, 220, 221.51, 230, 260; Government Code 11135, 12926; 20 USC 1681-1688, 42 USC 2000d-2000d-7)

Unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, or bullying, may result from physical, verbal, nonverbal, or written conduct based on any of the categories listed above. Unlawful discrimination also occurs when prohibited conduct is so severe, persistent, or pervasive that it affects a student's ability to participate in or benefit from an educational program or activity; creates an intimidating, threatening, hostile, or offensive educational environment; has the effect of substantially or unreasonably interfering with a student's academic performance; or otherwise adversely affects a student's educational opportunities.

Unlawful discrimination also includes disparate treatment of students based on one of the categories above with respect to the provision of opportunities to participate in district programs or activities or the provision or receipt of educational benefits or services.

Because unlawful discrimination could occur when disciplining students, including suspension and expulsion, the Superintendent or designee shall ensure that staff enforce discipline rules fairly, consistently and in a non-discriminatory manner, as specified in Board Policy and Administrative Regulation 5144 - Discipline, Board Policy and Administrative Regulation 5144.1 - Suspension and Expulsion/Due Process, and Administrative Regulation 5144.2 - Suspension and Expulsion/Due Process (Students With Disabilities).

The Board also prohibits any form of retaliation against any individual who reports or participates in the reporting of unlawful discrimination, files or participates in the filing of a complaint, or investigates, participates, or refuses to participate in the investigation of a complaint or report alleging unlawful discrimination. Retaliation complaints shall be investigated and resolved in the same manner as a discrimination complaint.

The Superintendent or designee shall facilitate students' access to the educational program by publicizing the district's nondiscrimination policy and related complaint procedures to students, parents/guardians, and employees. In addition,

the Superintendent or designee shall post the district's policies prohibiting discrimination, harassment, intimidation, and bullying and other required information on the district's website in a manner that is easily accessible to parents/guardians and students, in accordance with law and the accompanying administrative regulation. (Education Code 234.1, 234.6; 34 CFR 106.8)

The Superintendent or designee shall provide training and/or information on the scope and use of the policy and complaint procedures and take other measures designed to increase understanding of the requirements of law related to discrimination. The Superintendent or designee shall regularly review the implementation of the district's nondiscrimination policies and practices and, as necessary, shall take action to remove any identified barrier to student access to or participation in the district's educational program. The Superintendent or designee shall report the findings and recommendations to the Board after each review.

Regardless of whether a complainant complies with the writing, timeline, and/or other formal filing requirements, all complaints alleging unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, or bullying, shall be investigated and prompt action taken to stop the discrimination, prevent recurrence, and address any continuing effect on students.

Students who engage in unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, retaliation, or bullying, in violation of law, Board policy, or administrative regulation shall be subject to appropriate consequence or discipline, which may include suspension or expulsion when the behavior is severe or pervasive as defined in Education Code 48900.4. Any employee who permits or engages in prohibited discrimination related to a district activity, attendance, or district-related or district-sponsored activity, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, retaliation, or bullying, shall be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal.

When a student has been suspended, or other means of correction have been implemented against the student for an incident of racist bullying, harassment, or intimidation, the principal or designee may engage both the victim and perpetrator in a restorative justice practice suitable to the needs of the students. The principal or designee may also require the perpetrator to engage in a culturally sensitive program that promotes racial justice and equity and combats racism and ignorance and regularly check on the victim to ensure that the victim is not in danger of suffering from any long-lasting mental health issues. (Education Code 48900.5)

When appropriate based on the severity or pervasiveness of the bullying, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the parents/guardians of victims and perpetrators and may contact law enforcement.

Complaints alleging unlawful discrimination in district programs and activities shall be investigated and resolved in accordance with Board Policy 1312.3 - Uniform Complaint Procedures, when required by law. However, complaints alleging sexual harassment under Title IX shall be investigated and resolved in accordance with the procedures specified in Administrative Regulation 5145.71 - Title IX Sexual Harassment Complaint Procedures.

Record-Keeping

The Superintendent or designee shall maintain a record of all reported cases of unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, or bullying, to enable the district to monitor, address, and prevent repetitive prohibited behavior in district schools.

If 15 percent or more of students enrolled in a particular district school speak a single primary language other than English, the district's policy, regulation, forms, and notices concerning nondiscrimination shall be translated into that language in accordance with Education Code 234.1 and 48985. In all other instances, the district shall ensure meaningful access to all relevant information for parents/guardians with limited English proficiency.

Support for Intersex, Nonbinary, Transgender and Gender-Nonconforming Students

Gender refers to a student's sex, and includes a student's gender identity and gender expression. (Education Code 210.7)

Gender identity refers to a student's gender-related identity, appearance, or behavior as determined from the student's internal sense, regardless of whether that gender-related identity, appearance, or behavior is different from that traditionally associated with the student's physiology or assigned sex at birth.

Gender expression refers to a student's gender-related appearance and behavior, regardless of whether stereotypically associated with the student's assigned sex at birth. (Education Code 210.7)

Gender transition refers to the process in which a student changes from living and identifying as the sex assigned to the student at birth to living and identifying as the sex that corresponds to the student's gender identity.

Gender-nonconforming refers to when a student's gender expression differs from stereotypical expectations.

Intersex refers to when a student has natural bodily variations in anatomy, hormones, chromosomes, and other traits that differ from expectations generally associated with female and male bodies.

Nonbinary refers to when a student's gender identity falls outside of the traditional conception of strictly either female or male, regardless of whether the student identifies as transgender, was born with intersex traits, uses gender-neutral pronouns, or uses agender, genderqueer, pangender, gender nonconforming, gender variant, or such other more specific term to describe their gender.

Sex refers to the biological condition of being a female or male human being. (5 CCR 4910)

Transgender refers to when a student's gender identity is different from the sex assigned at birth.

The district shall ensure that all students, regardless of sex, gender, gender identity or gender expression, are afforded the same rights, benefits, and protections provided to students by law and Board policy. To do so, the Superintendent or designee shall address each situation that arises on a case-by-case basis and in accordance with the following guidelines:

Acceptance of a Student's Gender Identity: The district shall accept the student's assertion of the student's gender identity and treat the student consistent with that gender identity unless district personnel present a credible and supportable basis for believing that the student's assertion is for an improper purpose

Use of Names and Pronouns: Upon request by a student, district personnel shall address the student by the requested name and pronoun(s), without the necessity of a court order or a change to the student's mandatory permanent student record

Inadvertent slips or honest mistakes by district personnel in the use of the student's name and/or pronouns may not constitute a violation of this administrative regulation or the accompanying Board policy.

Accessibility to Sex-Segregated Facilities, Programs, and Activities: When the district maintains sex-segregated facilities, such as restrooms and locker rooms, or offers sex-segregated programs and activities, such as physical education classes, intermural sports, and interscholastic athletic programs, students shall be permitted to access facilities and participate in programs and activities consistent with their gender identity

Additionally, a student shall be permitted to participate in accordance with the student's gender identity in other circumstances where students are separated by sex, such as for class discussions, yearbook pictures, and field trips.

To address any student's privacy concerns in using sex-segregated facilities, the district shall consider offering a gender-neutral or single-use restroom or changing area, a bathroom stall with a door, an area in the locker room separated by a curtain or screen, or use of the locker room before or after the other students. However, in no case shall the district require a student to utilize these options because of the student's sex, gender, gender identify, or gender expression. A student's right to participate in a sex-segregated activity in accordance with the student's gender identity shall not render invalid or inapplicable any other eligibility rule established for participation in the activity.

Beginning July 1, 2026, each school shall provide and maintain at least one all-gender restroom for student use that meets the requirements of Education Code 35292.5.

Adherence to Uniforms/Dress Code: A student has the right to dress in a manner consistent with the student's gender identity, subject to any dress code adopted on a school site, which may not discriminate on the basis of sex, gender, gender identity or gender expression

Equal Access to Educational Programs and Activities: Upon request by a student based on the student's gender identity or gender expression, the Compliance Officer shall identify and develop strategies for ensuring that the student's access to educational programs and activities is maintained

The Compliance Officer shall consider the rights of all students and how those rights may affect and be affected by the rights of other students. Additionally, the Compliance Officer shall identify specific school site employee(s) to whom the student may report any problem related to the student's sex, gender, gender identity, or gender expression so that prompt action can be taken to address it. Alternatively, if appropriate and desired by the student, the school may form a support team for the student that will meet periodically to assess whether the arrangements for the student are providing equal access to programs and activities.

Right to privacy: A student's sex, gender, gender identity, and gender status is private information

The district may only disclose such information to others when the disclosure is permitted by law, with the student's prior written consent, or when the district has compelling evidence that disclosure is necessary to preserve the student's physical or mental well-being. (Education Code 220.3, 220.5; 34 CFR 99.31, 99.36)

Student Records: A student's sex and legal name shall be maintained as part of a student's mandatory permanent student record as specified in 5 CCR 432 and shall only be changed with proper documentation (Education Code 49061-49072)

When a request to change a student's gender or name is submitted without proper documentation, any change to the student's gender or name shall be applied only to documents not included in the mandatory permanent student record such as attendance sheets, report cards, and school identification.

The Superintendent or designee shall follow this guideline such that it does not change or alter the obligations of the district to maintain student records in accordance with Board Policy/Administrative Regulation 5125 - Student Records, and to ensure access to such records in accordance with Board Policy/Administrative Regulation 1340 - Access to District Records.

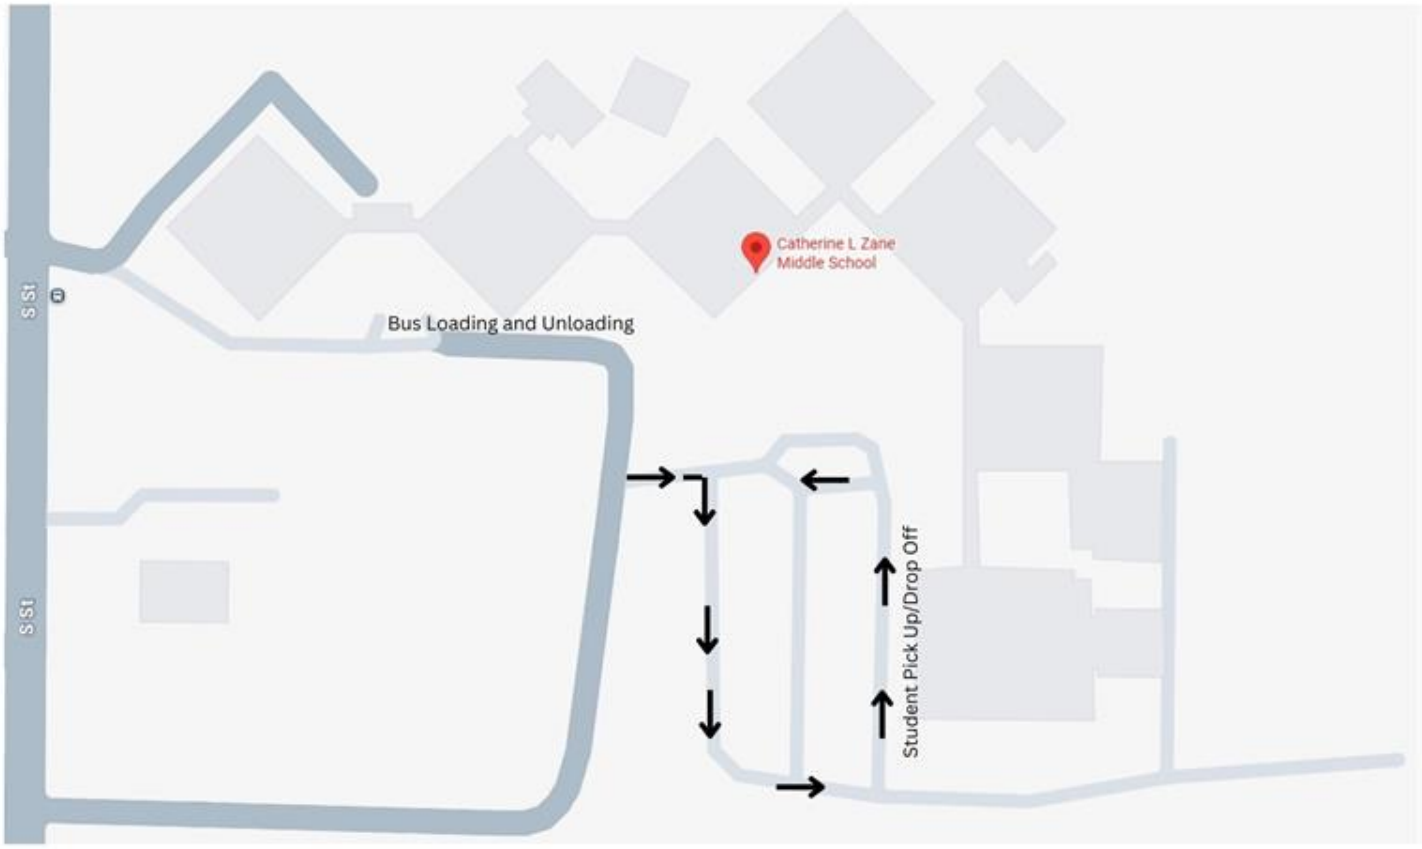
Arrival/Dismissal: In general, children are asked not to arrive more than 30 minutes before the start of the school day unless there are meetings or activities scheduled for them. Students may not wait for any length of time after school to attend activities that start substantially after dismissal time. Schools do not have the personnel to provide supervision outside of specified arrival and dismissal times. Arrival procedures include: For arrival at Zane, students are expected to be Safe, Respectful, and Responsible. To ensure safety, students must stay on campus, use the crosswalk, walk and lock their wheels, and use designated entrances/exits while staying on paved areas and walking forward with hands, feet, and objects to themselves. Respectful behavior includes opening doors gently, maintaining a voice level of 0-2, allowing free movement in the halls, and immediately following staff directions. Being Responsible means being on time, keeping belongings, and having items ready before exiting a vehicle or bus. Specific to car arrivals: if arriving by car, the designated drop-off zone must be used, where cars pull forward and students must be prepared to exit the car immediately. If the drop-off zone is not used, the car operator must park in a parking space, and the student must use the crosswalk near the gym to enter the campus. See maps below for entry and exit points.



Leaving School During the Day: No child in grades TK – 8 is permitted to leave school during the school day without permission from the school office. If parents are taking their child out of school early, they must go to the school office to sign out their child to be released. The office must be notified in advance if someone other than a parent is to pick up the student. The dismissal procedures at Zane are designed to ensure all students are Safe, Respectful, and Responsible. For Safety, students must use the crosswalk, walk and lock their wheels, stay in paved areas, and wait patiently and calmly in designated areas with an adult. Students walk with their teacher to the front of the school and must stay with an adult at all times. Respectful behavior includes opening doors gently, maintaining a voice level of 0-2, moving freely in the halls without crowding others, selecting a bus seat quickly and quietly, and immediately following all personnel and staff instructions. To be Responsible, students should arrive at ASES on time, keep their belongings with them, and leave classrooms promptly. Specific to car departures: students must walk to the designated drop-off/pick-up area and enter the car only when it is fully stopped in the designated area. The car must check for clearance before exiting the designated area and joining the flow of traffic. Students meeting parents in the designated parking area must use the crosswalk near the gym to safely access their vehicle in the parking lot. See maps below for designated areas for ingress and egress routes as well as drop of areas.

Every six months after the date of the certification, the Superintendent or designee may request recertification of the employee's status as a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, other specified offense, or ongoing circumstances related to the crime or abuse. The employee shall notify the Superintendent or designee if, due to changing circumstances, the employee needs a new accommodation or no longer needs an accommodation. If a new accommodation is needed, the Superintendent or designee shall follow the procedures described above when making the initial determination regarding effective reasonable accommodations. (Government Code 12945.8)

The district shall not discharge or retaliate against an employee because of the employee's status as a victim of crime or abuse or for requesting a reasonable accommodation, regardless of whether the request was granted. (Government Code 12945.8)

Opioid Overdose Protocol – Melanie's Law

Current law (Education Code section 49414.3) allows schools to provide emergency opioid antagonist administration for individuals who may be experiencing symptoms of opioid drug poisoning. Opioid drug poisoning is a life-threatening condition that can be reversed with the administration of an opioid antagonist medication such as naloxone. Without immediate administration of an opioid antagonist and summoning Emergency Medical Services (911), death could occur.

This law allows for a school nurse or a trained volunteer to administer an opioid antagonist medication to an individual who is exhibiting potentially life-threatening symptoms of opioid drug poisoning. Training is provided to the volunteer on topics including but not limited to:

- Signs and symptoms of opioid drug poisoning
- How to administer the naloxone nasal spray (or other opioid antagonist)
- Calling EMS (911) and any follow up documentation or actions required.

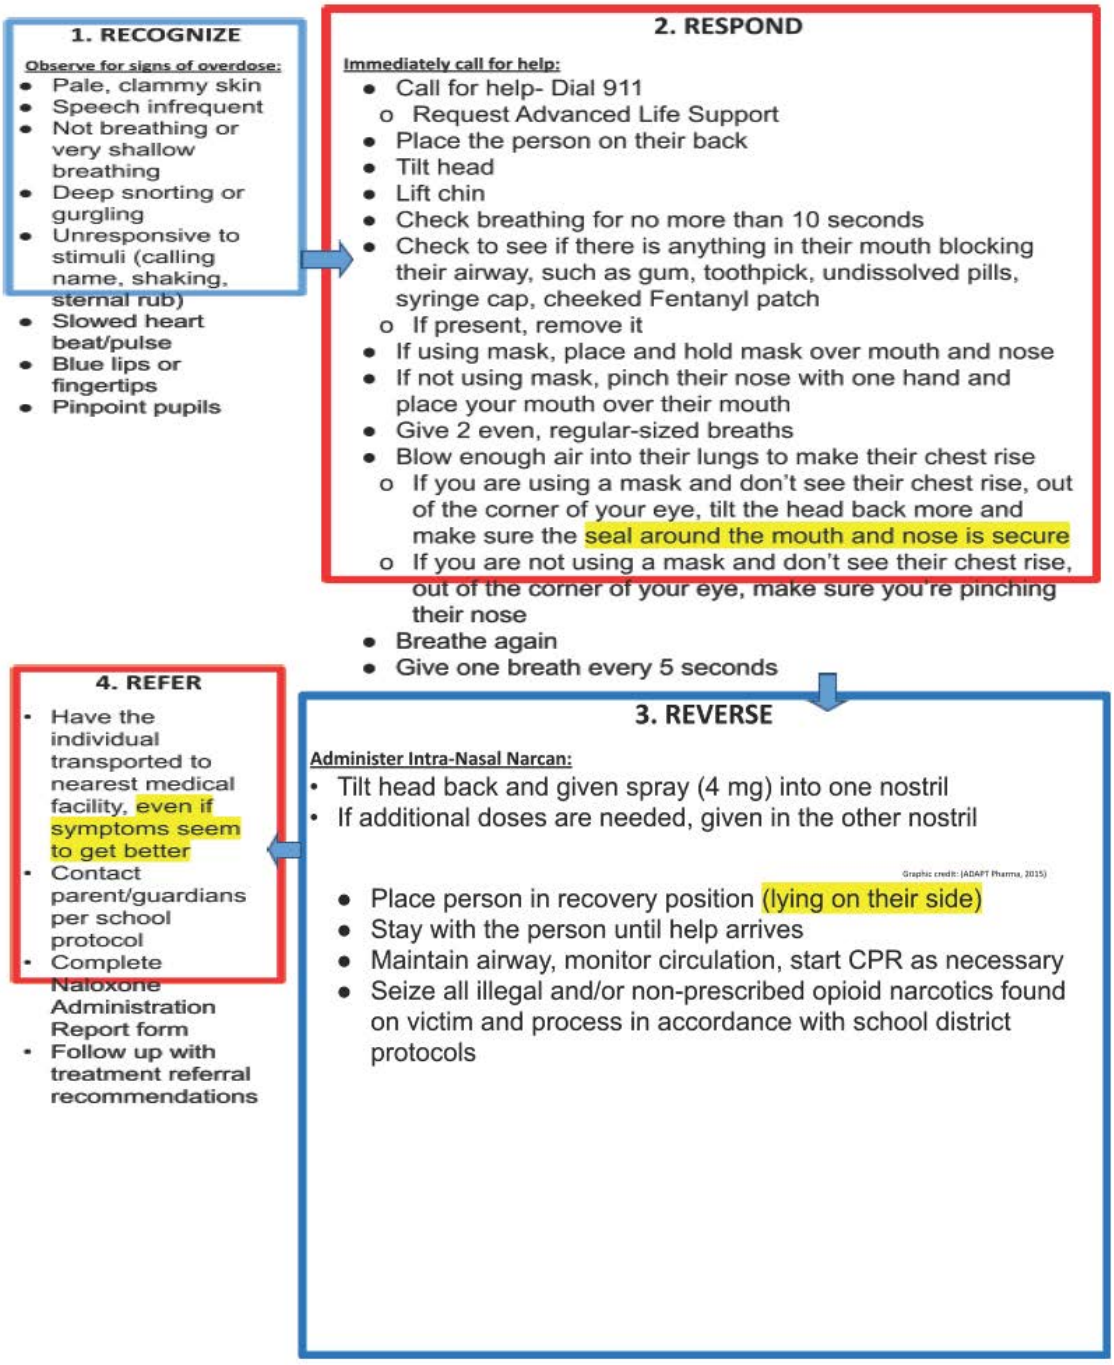
*CPR training is recommended but not required of persons trained to administer an opioid antagonist.

Staff members who volunteer to be trained are protected under the law and will be provided defense and indemnification by the District for any and all civil liability.

This notification is provided annually to all staff. If staff are willing to be identified as a volunteer and be trained, staff complete the volunteer form and submit it to their site administrator.

Employees who volunteer to be trained may rescind their offer to volunteer at any time. No benefit will be granted to or withheld from any individual based on his or her offer to volunteer. There will be no retaliation against any individual for rescinding his or her offer to volunteer, including after receiving training.

Narcan/Naloxone on School Sites:
Each school site is given Narcan/Naloxone packages for overdose or possible overdose events. These complete packages contain:



- Narcan Nasal Spay
- Narcan/Naloxone Quick Start Guide
- Gloves
- Face Mask
- Adult/Child CPR Rescue Mask Kit

o Alcohol Pads
o Rescue Mask Instructions

- Narcan/Naloxone Administration Report

(For additional supplies, please contact the District Office.)

Notification of Immigration Enforcement for Catherine L. Zane Middle School

Protocol for Responding to ICE Agents on Campus
(Updated to reflect AB 49, SB 98, and CDE Guidance, September 2025)

This protocol is aligned with recommendations from the California School Board Association (CSBA), the California Department of Education (CDE), and recent legislation (AB 49 and SB 98). It is designed to uphold the law while protecting the rights and safety of students and staff.

Step 1: Remain Calm and Professional
Greet ICE agents respectfully.
Do not obstruct their actions physically or verbally.
Remember: Obstruction may result in legal consequences and loss of federal funding.

Step 2: Verify Access Requirements (AB 49)
Do not allow ICE agents into non-public areas of the school-site (classrooms, offices, buses, field trips, or other LEA-sponsored activities) without one of the following:

- A valid judicial warrant
- A judicial subpoena
- A court order
- A state or federal law requiring compliance

Politely ask:
1. “Do you have a judicial warrant, subpoena, or court order?”
2. “May I have your name and the names of the agents present?”
3. “May I call my principal to help assist in this process?”
4. “May I contact the superintendent/district office to ensure I follow Governing Board Policies correctly?”
5. “May I record this interaction?”

Step 3: Document the Interaction
Record:

- Names of agents
- Time and date of arrival
- Any documents presented
- Details of their requests or actions

Do not interpret legal documents yourself. Immediately forward warrants, subpoenas, or court orders to district-level personnel.

Step 4: Follow Standard Law Enforcement Procedures
Treat ICE agents as you would any other law enforcement officers (LEOs).
Verify credentials.
Ensure all interactions align with visitor management and safety protocols.

Step 5: Communication Protocol (SB 98)
Notify the following if ICE is present on a school site:

- Pupils
- Families
- Faculty and staff
- Other community members as appropriate

Use district-approved messaging channels to ensure clear, accurate, and timely communication.

Step 6: Prioritize Safety and Contact the District Office
Keep students and staff safe and calm.
If uncertain how to proceed, immediately contact the District Office for guidance.
Do not make independent legal determinations—defer to district leadership.
Key Reminders
Student and staff well-being comes first.
Never allow unauthorized access to non-public areas.
Always document interactions and escalate legal review.

Emergencies Disaster Preparedness Plan – BP/AR 3516

The Governing Board recognizes that all district staff and students must be prepared to respond quickly and responsibly to emergencies, disasters, and threats of disaster. The district shall take all reasonable steps to prevent and/or mitigate the impact of a disaster on district students, staff, and schools.

The Superintendent or designee shall develop and maintain a disaster preparedness plan which contains routine and emergency disaster procedures, including, but not limited to, earthquake emergency procedures, and adaptations for individuals with disabilities in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and Section 504 of the federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Provision of a first aid kit to each classroom
Upon notification that a pandemic situation exists, adjustment of attendance policies for students and sick leave policies for staff with known or suspected pandemic influenza or other infectious disease

The Superintendent or designee shall assemble critical information that would be needed in an emergency. Such information may include, but is not limited to, a list of individuals and organizations who should be contacted for assistance in an emergency, current layouts and blueprints of school buildings, aerial photos of the campus, maps of evacuation routes and alternate routes, a roster of employees with their work locations, student photographs and their emergency contact information, a clearly labeled set of keys, location of first aid supplies, procedures and locations for turning off fire alarms, sprinklers, utilities, and other systems, information to access the district's technology infrastructure, and insurance information. Such information shall be stored in a box in a secure, easily accessible location, with a duplicate kept at another location in case the primary location is inaccessible.

Use of SEMS/NIMS *

The District uses the Incident Command System as identified in the Authorities and References section of this plan.

In the event of a major disaster, there is no guarantee emergency medical, or fire personnel will be able to immediately respond to school sites. Therefore, the school staff must be prepared to ensure the care and safety of students during the first several hours after a major disaster without outside assistance. It is critical to determine who does what, where, and how before such a disaster occurs.

Use the Standardized Emergency Management System as detailed in the California Emergency Services Act (Gov. Code Section 8607) and the supporting California Code of Regulations

Disaster Service Worker Status

Government Code 3100
It is hereby declared that the protection of the health and safety and preservation of the lives and property of the people of the state from the effects of natural, manmade, or war-caused emergencies which result in conditions of disaster or in extreme peril to life, property, and resources is of paramount state importance requiring the responsible efforts of public and private agencies and individual citizens. In furtherance of the exercise of the police power of the state in protection of its citizens and resources, all public employees are hereby declared to be disaster service workers subject to such disaster service activities as may be assigned to them by their supervisors or by law.
(Amended by Stats. 1971, Ch. 38.)

These laws have two ramifications: 1) public school employees may be pressed into service as Disaster Service Workers by their superiors and may be asked to do jobs other than their usual duties for periods of time exceeding their normal working hours; and 2) in those cases, their Worker's Compensation Coverage becomes the responsibility of the state government (CalOES). The district, however, pays their overtime pay. These circumstances apply only when a local or State emergency has been proclaimed.

Individualized Safety Plans

The Education Code requires school disaster procedures to also include adaptations for pupils with disabilities in accordance with the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act and Section 504 of the federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and would require the annual evaluation of the comprehensive school safety plan and the annual review of a charter school's school safety plan to also include ensuring that the plan includes appropriate adaptations for pupils with disabilities and address any concerns to individual plans, as specified.

Outside Agency Use of Facilities

The Board shall grant the use of school buildings, grounds, and equipment to public agencies, including the American Red Cross, for mass care and welfare shelters during disasters or other emergencies affecting the public health and welfare. The Board shall cooperate with such agencies in furnishing and maintaining whatever services the district may deem necessary to meet the community's needs. (Education Code 32282)

Emergency Procedures for People with Disabilities

The information contained in this document will assist school administrators, teachers, special education staff, parents, and students in planning for the support that may require for students with special needs in the event of an emergency. For the purposes of this section, students with special needs are those who cannot comfortably or safely access and use the standard resources offered in disaster preparedness, relief and recovery, whether their disability is chronic or temporary.

For individuals with special needs, physical environments may pose additional challenges. The ability to get to accessible exits and access personal items may be reduced. Communication may be impeded at a time when clear and rapid communication is crucial to safety and survival.
To comply with statutes involving students with special needs, individuals responsible for evacuation and emergency operation plans, notification protocols, shelter identification, emergency medical care and other emergency response and recovery programs must:

- Have sound working knowledge of the accessibility and nondiscrimination requirements applicable under Federal disability rights laws;
- Know the special needs demographics of the students attending classes on site;
- Involve students with different types of disabilities, staff, and teachers in identifying the communication and transportation needs, accommodations, support systems, equipment, services, and supplies that they will need during an emergency;
- Consider emergency accommodations for those with temporary disabilities.
- Identify existing resources within the school and local community that meet the special needs of these students;
- Develop new community partners and resources, as needed.
- Inform parents about the efforts to keep their child safe at school;
- Identify medical needs and make an appropriate plan;
- Determine transportation needs, special vans and buses for students;
- Identify any necessary tools such as personal response plans, evacuation equipment or visual aids;
- Include local responders and establish a relationship with individual students with disabilities and their teachers.

Mitigation Strategies (Before an Emergency Occurs)

- Learn about the types of hazards that may impact the school (e.g., earthquakes, floods, wildfires) and assure that emergency response procedures address each one.
- Identify a pre-evacuation site that is accessible to students with disabilities
- Plan a primary and secondary evacuation route from each location the student is in during the course of the day.
- Arrange sufficient transportation ahead of time to accommodate the entire special needs/staff population.
- Develop a schedule of daily activities and classes that identifies where a special needs student may be located each period of the day.
- Consider classroom location in placement of students with disabilities. Evaluate the handicap accessibility of nearby exits and proximity to the school nurse.
- Conduct a test of the family notification system to assure that contact information is up-to-date to help decrease parent anxiety during a disaster.

Tactical Response to Criminal Incidents

ACTIVE SHOOTER OR OTHER ACTIVE ASSAILANTS

All district sites adhere to the standardized procedures for Lockdown and Active Shooter and other Active Assailant listed in this plan if there is an active shooter, individual with a weapon on campus or other possible violent crime. For more details see Active Asailant, Threats , and Lock Down procedures.

Dangerous, Violent, Or Unlawful Activities

SB 671
SB 671 requires a Comprehensive School Safety Plan to include procedures to assess and respond to reports of any dangerous, violent, or unlawful activity that is being conducted or threatened to be conducted at the school, at an activity sponsored by the school, or on a school bus serving the school.

Multidisciplinary Threat Assessment Team
Eureka City Schools uses a multidisciplinary threat assessment team consisting of the specific site administrator, a local law enforcement representative, the student services Director, mental health or behavioral specialist representative as needed, and other outside services as needed.

Assessment and Response
Prohibited and concerning behaviors are defined in California Education Code 48900 and 48915. Additionally, all threats of self-harm are assessed and acted upon, as needed. In cases where dangerous, violent, or unlawful activities are being conducted, Law Enforcement is notified at once and a call to 911 is made.

The threshold of law enforcement intervention is decided by the relevant administration in cooperation with the District and mutual aid if requested. In practice, we find if a real or possible threat is present. We evaluate the threat or possible threat based upon prohibited and concerning behaviors, responding appropriately to the incident.

Risk Management
Risk Management is notified in incidents where there is physical, property or damage to others. Additionally, Risk Management is involved if a security assessment or report is needed. There may be times, following a potential or real incident, that an after-action debrief might be conducted, including a written summary.

School Culture and Training
Eureka City Schools utilizes PBIS as outlined in our PBIS Handbook. Eureka City Schools School Climate Team created our PBIS handbook in consultation with Dr. Jeff Sprague. The purpose of this handbook is to guide and support ECS staff as we implement PBIS in our school. Our goal is to provide all of our students with safe and effective school environments where they can experience academic and social-behavioral success.

Eureka City Schools conducts an annual update to their Comprehensive Safe School Plan at each school site as required by the California Education Code.

Training for all stakeholders is conducted during annual site meetings by administrators and/or district representatives.

Reunification

Student release is a crucial part of emergency planning. During an emergency or disaster, the traditional student release procedure is often unsafe and therefore not operable. Accordingly, a comprehensive emergency plan needs to include certain procedures to accomplish the main priority of safety planning which is to ensure the safety of the students to every extent possible.

There are a wide variety of emergency situations that might require student/family reunification. Student/family reunification may be needed if the site is evacuated or closed as a result of a hazardous materials transportation accident, fire, natural gas leak, flooding, earthquake, tsunami, school violence, bomb threat, terrorist attack or other local hazard.

Student/Family reunification is part of the Incident Command System and is assigned to the Operations Area.

Threats of Violence

THREATS

If a threat is made or if there is a weapon found on campus, the Threat Assessment team (consisting of multi-disciplinary personnel, including but not limited administration, counselors, mental health professionals, Information Technology professionals and law enforcement) will conduct the following steps:

- Evaluate the threat

THEN

- Decide if the threat is clearly transient and respond to the transient threat

o Contact student's parents if necessary.
o Notify intended victim's parents if necessary.
o See that threat is resolved through explanation, apology or making amends.
o Consult with Risk Management & Security Manager or law enforcement if necessary.
o Refer for conflict mediation, restorative justice or counseling to resolve problem as appropriate.
o Follow discipline procedures as per BP/AR.
o Develop Behavior Intervention Plan or Behavior Contract as appropriate.

OR

o Decide if the substantive threat is serious and respond to the serious substantive threat.
o Mobilize threat assessment team members as needed.
o Contact student's parents.
o Notify intended victim's parents.
o Protect and notify intended victim and parents of victim.
o Caution the student about the consequences of carrying out the threat.
o Provide direct supervision of student until parents assume control
o Consult with Risk Management and law enforcement.
o Refer for conflict mediation, restorative justice or counseling to resolve problem is appropriate
o Follow discipline procedures as per BP/AR
o Develop Behavior Intervention Plan

OR

- Decide if the substantive threat is very serious and respond to the very serious substantive threat

o Mobilize threat assessment team members as needed.
o Contact student's parents
o Notify intended victim's parents
o Protect and notify intended victim and parents of victim
o Caution the student about the consequences of carrying out the threat
o Provide direct supervision of student until parents assume control
o Consult with Risk Management & Security Manager and Law Enforcement
o Conduct mental health assessment
o Follow discipline procedures as per BP/AR
o Develop Behavior Intervention Plan

AND

- Implement a safety plan

OTHER CRIMES

If other crimes are committed on campus such as thefts and vandalism school administration, risk management and other needed resources along with law enforcement will conduct an investigation. Depending on the investigation outcomes, administration will follow district procedures for discipline and will assist in any necessary prosecution procedures through the District Attorney's office.

FUNCTIONAL ANNEX

Accounting for all Persons

Attendance Records

It is our daily practice to maintain manual attendance records in the Administrative Office of each site. This includes Daily Attendance Records, Site Employee Logs, Visitor Logs, and Itinerant Employee Logs (such as food services, maintenance and operations, etc.). If there are contractors or contracted service workers on-site in a controlled location (such as fenced areas under construction) the employer of record should be advised to consider keeping their own records of employee locations.

Crisis or Incident Accounting

In the event of a crisis or incident, each site administrator will ensure there are 2 – 3 key employees (only one needs to have control of records at a time – additional staff are only for backup) who will have responsibility as scribes to collect all site attendance records from the administrative office.

These records are to be provided to the on-site incident commander upon request. It is the scribe's responsibility to maintain and protect these records.

In cases where students, staff, or visitors cannot be located, the name and description of the person(s) will be provided to Search and Rescue teams for more specific search. All records of searches and tracking of people on-site will be recorded in appropriate ICS log. The incident commander will be kept informed of attendance status and updated with changes.

Assembly Areas

All staff will report as soon as is possible to their predesignated assembly areas. Premade signs may be used and maintained in assembly kits to assist in identifying specific assembly areas and will be held so as to be easily identified. Assembly area facilitators will distribute/record the attendance of all individuals in their assembly area.

For shelter-in-place or any evacuation, either on-site or off-site, attendance will be taken at any assembly areas and a comparison made to the attendance logs as follows:

Student Daily Attendance
Site Employee Log
Visitor Log
Itinerant Employee Log

Student Release

Student release will be conducted in an orderly fashion as outlined in the Reunification Annex of this plan. Attendance records will be checked and recorded as students leave the site.

Communications

Purpose

The Communications Annex ensures the availability and coordinated use of our communications systems for the dissemination of disaster information, for the exchange of information between decision-makers, and for the coordination of communications with local response agencies.

Scope

When activated, the Communications annex coordinates and supports emergency response/recovery telecommunications requirements. This includes the interface between our District and other agencies and outside organizations, such as local, state, and federal government, private nonprofit organizations, and business/industry. Immediately report communications degradation, interruption, or failure by alternate means (e.g. cell phone) to the Communications Officer and/or the District's Emergency Operations Center (EOC) if activated.

Activation

The senior executive (or designee) determines whether to activate this annex based upon information from initial staff reports and local authorities. The local emergency communications plan will include:
Channel designations
Contingency communications procedures
Training in back-up communications equipment

Key Tasks/Responsibilities

Develop a local communications plan
Establish and maintain liaison with local response agencies, state agencies, commercial communications companies, and amateur radio organizations
Support communications equipment (radio, computer, fax, etc.) as needed
Provide communications capability
Maintain equipment inventory
Designate a centrally-located area (usually main office) easily identified by staff, media, and the public
Predetermine an alternate location in case the primary location is inaccessible
Establish communication with staff
Maintain telephone and radio communication with emergency services
Post rumor control and information on the internet and in an area accessible to our students and the community
Record emergency related incidents
Maintain communication with staff by whatever means available (SMS text messaging, audio alarm warning system, intercom, bullhorn, canned air horn, two-way radio, e-mail, written notices)

Internal Communications

Staff will be notified when an incident occurs and kept informed as additional information becomes available and as plans for management of the situation evolve. The following practices will be utilized to disseminate information internally when appropriate:

Alert Notifications (SMS Texting)

Staff will be notified when an incident occurs and kept informed as additional information becomes available and as plans for management of the situation evolve. The following practices will be utilized to disseminate information internally when appropriate:

Telephone Tree

A telephone tree is a simple, widely used system for notifying staff of an incident when they are not at their primary work location. The tree originates with the senior site official, who contacts the members of the Incident Management Team. Team members then, in turn, will contact groups of staff identified on their call list.

Staff Meetings

As appropriate, updated information about an incident will be presented at regularly scheduled staff meetings. In some cases, special staff meetings may be called as incident evolution requires. Staff will also have the opportunity to address any misinformation or rumors. Any new procedures or temporary changes will also be reviewed at this time.

Communication With the District Administrative Office

The Incident Commander will use the designated countywide Emergency Radio Network to notify the site administrator of our District's status/needs. The site administrator will notify the District office. The District office will notify the County Office of the status of all of the District's sites. He/she will designate staff member(s) to monitor all communications.

Activation

Concept of Operations

The senior executive (or designee) determines whether to activate this annex based upon information from initial staff reports and local authorities. When activated, the Communications annex coordinates and supports emergency response/recovery telecommunications requirements

Immediately report communications degradation, interruption, or failure by alternate means (e.g. cell phone) to our District's Emergency Operations Center (EOC) if activated or the Communications Officer

The local emergency communications plan will include channel designations, contingency communications procedures, and training in back-up communications equipment.

Continuity of Operations (COOP)

General

Continuity of Operations planning is a program that ensures continued performance of essential functions across a full range of potential emergencies, be they natural or man-made, when a significant interruption of operations occurs following a severe disaster or tragedy.

A COOP provides guidance and establishes responsibilities and procedures to ensure that essential functions are maintained. COOP is not the same as an Emergency Operations Plan or a Recovery Plan, but rather supplements it, in the event normal facility or human resources are not available.

A COOP provides a continuity infrastructure that through careful planning ensures:
Emergency delegation of authority and an orderly line of succession, as necessary.
Safekeeping of essential personnel, resources, facilities, and vital records.
Emergency acquisition of resources necessary for business resumption.
The capability to perform critical functions remotely until resumption of normal operations.

A District's COOP plan should allow for its implementation anytime, with or without warning, during normal and after-hours operations; providing full operational capability for essential functions no later than 12 hours after activation; and sustain essential functions for up to 30 days.

The purpose of these Continuity of Operations (COOP) procedures is to ensure that there are procedures in place to maintain or rapidly resume essential operations within the District after an incident that results in disruption of normal activities or services to the District. Failure to maintain these critical services would significantly affect the operations and/or service mission of the District in an adverse way.

Scope

It is the responsibility of the District's officials to protect students and staff from incidents and restore critical operations as soon as it is safe to do so. This responsibility involves identifying and mitigating hazards, preparing for and responding to incidents, and managing the recovery process.

The COOP procedures outline actions needed to maintain and/or rapidly resume essential operations, business, and physical services, when interrupted for an extended period of time following an incident.

Responsibilities

Designated District Staff, in conjunction with the affected administrator(s) and staff, will perform the essential functions as follows:

Senior Executive/Site Administrator

Determine when to close District, and/or send students/staff to alternate locations
Disseminate information internally to students and staff
Communicate with family, media, and the larger community
Identify a line of succession, including who is responsible for restoring which business functions for the District
Ensure systems are in place for rapid contract execution after an incident
Identify relocation areas for site and administrative operations
Create a system for registering students (off site or into alternative locations)
Brief and train staff regarding their additional responsibilities

Secure and provide needed personnel, equipment and supplies, facilities, resources, and services required for continued operations
Identify strategies to continue operations (e.g., using the Internet, providing alternatives to operational contingencies)
Work with local and state government officials to determine when it is safe for students and staff to return to the District's buildings and grounds
Manage the restoration of the District's buildings and grounds (e.g. debris removal, repairing, repainting, and/or landscaping)
Collaborate with private and public-sector service providers and contractors

Administrative Services, District Staff

Maintain inventory
Maintain essential records (and copies of records) including the District's insurance policy
Ensure redundancy of records is kept at a different physical location.
Secure District's equipment and materials in advance.
Restore administrative and recordkeeping functions such as payroll, accounting, and personnel records.
Retrieve, collect, and maintain personnel data
Provide accounts payable and cash management services

Administrative Support Staff

Establish necessary support services for students and staff
Implement additional response and recovery activities according to established protocols
Collaborate with public and private providers

Food Services Worker

Determine how food services will resume
Support staff and volunteers as much as possible

Transportation

Provide emergency transportation services as needed
Assess and implement alternative transportation services that may be necessitated

Evacuation

General

Evacuation is one means of protecting the staff, students and visitors from the effects of a hazard through the orderly movement of person(s) away from the hazard. The type and magnitude of the emergency will dictate the scale of an evacuation (i.e., evacuation area).

Concept of Operations

Evacuation orders are generally given by the following:
Local Police
Environmental Health & Safety
Facilities Services
Administrator, director, or building supervisor
Fire Department with jurisdiction
Any person identifying a hazard and by activating the fire alarm system via a fire alarm pull station

Evacuation Procedures

Evacuation will be initiated by means of the fire alarm system. Whenever the alarm is sounded all occupants of all buildings are to initiate the evacuation procedure.
Take the Incident Action packet/binder which has a current class list and a red/green 8½ x 11 card (red on one side and green on the other side)
Close all doors and windows. (DO NOT LOCK DOORS)
Follow the safest evacuation route to the assembly or safe dispersal area.
Teachers are to take roll and make certain no one reenters the building for any reason.
If all students are present with staff member, staff will hold up the GREEN sheet to acknowledge to responsible incident management person that all students are present.
Support staff who have regular schedules with students need to have a green and red card also. If all students who are regularly scheduled are in their care and custody, they are to raise the green card, so staff member and responsible incident management person can see.
Staff members are to raise the red card even if they think a student is with support staff so responsible incident management person can account for those students.
If a student is not present, the staff member will hold up the RED card and wait for the administration to contact him/her to see who is absent. The responsible incident management person will coordinate the search for the missing student.
Students should remain 30 – 50 feet away from any building.
Students are to remain in groups, until the all clear signal is given.

On-Site Evacuation

The Incident Commander or designee activates fire alarm.
All staff follow the Evacuation Procedures identified above.
Once assembled, building occupants remain in their designated assembly or safe dispersal area until further instructions are given.
Reentry is only authorized after it is determined that conditions and buildings are deemed safe by appropriate incident management staff.

Off-Site Evacuation

If it is determined that the buildings and area are not safe for occupation and that the On-Site Evacuation locations are also at risk, the appropriate incident management staff will initiate an Off-Site Evacuation.
The Incident Commander or designee determines safest method for evacuating the site. This may include use of buses or simply walking to designated off-site location.
Staff members secure the student roster when leaving the building and take attendance once group is assembled in pre-designated safe location.
Once assembled off-site, staff members and students stay in place until further instructions are given.
In the event clearance is received from appropriate agencies, Incident Commander may authorize students and staff to return to buildings.

Evacuating Students with Disabilities

Procedures and actions regarding the special needs' population should cover the evacuation, transportation and medical needs of students who will require extreme special handling in an emergency. In most cases, additional safeguards must be established regarding roles, responsibilities and procedures for students with physical, sensory, emotional and health disabilities.

The following are steps that cover the evacuation procedure of student(s) with disabilities:
Review all paths of travel and potential obstacles
Know the facility, grounds, paths, exits and potential obstacles
Determine the primary and secondary paths of exit to be used during emergencies
Individuals with mobility impairments will need a smooth, solid, level walking surface, an exit that avoids barriers such as stairs, narrow doors and elevators and guardrails that protect open sides of the path
Compile and distribute evacuation route information to be used during emergency operations
Include alternative evacuation route information, should the primary route be inaccessible due to damage or danger
Install appropriate signage and visual alarms
Place evacuation information indicating primary and secondary exits in all offices, rooms, multipurpose rooms, hallways/corridors, lobbies, bathrooms and cafeterias. For passages and doorways that might be mistaken for an exit, place visible signs that proclaim, "NOT AN EXIT"
Place emergency notification devices appropriate for each student
Post signage with the name and location of each area so that the students will know exactly where they are, in order to comply with ADA (American's with Disabilities Act) Accessibility

Buildings and Facilities Signage Requirements

Approximately 60 inches above the floor
In a location that is not obscured in normal operation such as a swinging door
In all primary function areas

Preparation and Planning

Identify the students and staff with special needs and the type of assistance they will require in an emergency
Allow visitors to self-identify on a sign-in log if they have special evacuation needs
Discuss evacuation issues with the staff members and caretakers of students with special needs, including individuals, who may be temporarily disabled (i.e. a student with a broken leg)
Train staff in general evacuation procedures

Review the areas of rescue, primary exits, evacuation techniques, and the locations and operation of emergency equipment
Provide in-depth training to those designated to evacuate students with special needs
Train the staff for proper lifting techniques when lifting a person for evacuation
Anyone can assist a student with a visual impairment
Check on each special needs student to assure he/she is accounted for during an evacuation
Review the plan with emergency response personal, including local police, fire and emergency medical technicians
Identify “areas of rescue” in our site for students to wait for evacuation assistance from emergency personnel
Before operations begin in the Fall, walk around the site with first responders so that they are familiar with the primary exits and all areas of rescue; these areas must meet specifications for fire resistance and ventilation
Ask the responders to conduct a special drill explaining how they will support the students and staff with special needs during an emergency
Complete all contracts and Statements of Understanding with key emergency support providers
Ensure that sufficient transportation capacity exists with transportation providers, partner agencies, and suppliers to effectively meet the demand in an emergency
Identify transportation contracts through the District in case of an emergency; Emergency response for special needs requires special vans and special equipment
Specify who will do what to address these transportation needs
Develop a list of District-owned vehicles, staff vehicles that are available and make prior arrangements for their use in the event of an emergency
Review the evacuation plan with students and staff to be familiar with the process and identify any problems
Practice implementation of special duck and cover actions by students with able-bodied partners
Students should be aware that evacuation by themselves may be difficult or impossible because of obstacles in their path or because electric dependent machines may not function (i.e. elevator)
Special pre-planned assistance must be provided and reviewed regularly

Lockdown

General

A District or school site lock down is necessary when the threat of violence or gunfire is identified or directed by law enforcement and it is necessary to prevent the perpetrator(s) from entering occupied areas. During lock down, students are to remain in rooms or designated locations at all times.

Instructions

If a lock down situation is required, the Site Administrator will make an announcement on the Public Address (PA) system. If the PA system is not available, the Site Administrator will use other means of communication (e.g., sending messengers to deliver instructions). The Site Administrator should be calm, convey reassuring comments that the situation is under control, and provide clear and consistent directions. Below is an example of an announcement to be made by the Site Administrator:

"YOUR ATTENTION PLEASE. WE HAVE AN EMERGENCY SITUATION. STAFF ARE TO LOCK ROOM DOORS UNTIL NOTIFIED BY AN ADMINISTRATOR OR LAW ENFORCEMENT. STUDENTS AND STAFF ARE TO PROCEED TO THE NEAREST ROOM OR BUILDING. PLEASE REMAIN INDOORS UNTIL FURTHER INSTRUCTIONS ARE PROVIDED."

If inside, staff should instruct students to lie on the floor, move away from doors and remain in the center of the room out of the line of fire, lock the doors (if possible), and close any shades or blinds if it appears safe to do so. Students and staff who are physically unable to lie on the ground should move away from doors and windows.
If outside, students should proceed to their rooms if it is safe to do so. If it is not safe, staff must direct students into nearby rooms or other District buildings (e.g., auditorium, library, cafeteria, and gymnasium).
District staff and students must remain in their room or secured area until further instructions are provided by the Site Administrator or law enforcement.
Landline phones should not be used. District staff should use cell phones and speak quietly.
All site entrances and exits must be locked, and no visitors other than appropriate law enforcement or emergency personnel are to be allowed on the site.

Public, Medical, and Mental Health

General

Establishment of public, medical, and mental health procedures, will assist the District in preparing for, responding to, and recovering from an incident that affects the health and safety of students, staff, and family. Furthermore, coordination with Public Health agencies, Emergency Medical Services (EMS), and Mental Health support services will broaden their capacity to deal with these incidents by providing the District with resources beyond their existing expertise and training.

Public Health

Procedures

Designate District Medical Manager and/or other key personnel as the individual(s) responsible for coordinating incidents such as disease outbreaks, bioterrorism, and natural disasters with local, State, and Federal Public Health agencies.
Coordinate with local, State, and Federal Public Health agencies on information sharing protocols.
Develop procedures for reporting information to local, State, and Federal Public Health agencies.
Contact local Public Health agency to determine notification procedures for students/family, staff, and public, if necessary.
Send out any required notification to students/family, staff and public as required.
Establish a dedicated contact phone number for questions and concerns.
Coordinate with local, State, and Federal Public Health agencies, for assistance with managing large scale incidents or incidents beyond the District's resources.

Medical Health

Procedures

Designate District Medical Manager and/or other key personnel as the individual(s) responsible for coordinating incidents involving students or staff injuries or illnesses
Provide CPR/First Aid/AED to all staff designated to work in medical capacity
Establish a triage area for injured students and staff
Separate walking wounded, critically injured and deceased individuals (Keep a log of names of these individuals)
Keep a record of students and staff that are transported off-site for treatment.
Coordinate with local Emergency Medical Services (EMS) agencies for assistance with large scale incidents or incidents beyond the District's resources.

Mental Health

Procedures

Designate crisis counselors and/or other key personnel as the individual(s) responsible for coordinating incidents with local, State, and Federal Mental Health agencies
Activate crisis counselors during the incident to begin identifying students and staff that require assistance
Keep a log of individuals counseled or that require counseling following the incident
Notify students, family, and staff of counseling services available
Coordinate with local, State, and Federal Mental Health agencies, for assistance with large scale incidents or incidents beyond the 's resources.

Psychological First Aid for Schools (PFA-S)

The field of school safety and emergency management has evolved significantly over the past decade. Tragically, acts of violence, natural disasters, and terrorist attacks have taught us many lessons. We also know that other types of emergencies can impact schools, including medical emergencies, transportation accidents, sports injuries, peer victimization, public health emergencies, and the sudden death of a member of the school community. We now recognize the need for school emergency management plans that are up-to-date and take an “all-hazards”approach with clear communication channels and procedures that effectively reunite parents and caregivers with students. We have also learned that preparing school administrators, teachers, and school partnering agencies before a critical event is crucial for effective response, the value of ongoing training and emergency exercises, and that having intervention models that address the public health, mental health, and psychosocial needs of students and staff is essential to a safe school environment and the resumption of learning. (excerpted from Psychological First Aid for Schools, Field Operations Guide, 2nd Edition)

Field Operations Guide (FOG)

We use the PFA-S FOG as-needed, to prepare and respond to critical incidents affecting the mental health of our students. https://www.nctsn.org/resources/psychological-first-aid-schools-pfa-s-field-operations-guide

Public Safety and Security

Purpose

The Public Safety and Security Annex integrates State public safety and security capabilities and resources to support the full range of incident management activities.

Scope

The Public Safety and Security Annex provides a mechanism for coordinating and providing support to local law enforcement authorities to include non-investigative/non-criminal law enforcement, public safety, and security capabilities and resources during incidents. The Public Safety and Security Annex capabilities support incident management requirements, including force and critical infrastructure protection, security planning and technical assistance, technology support, and public safety, in both pre-incident and post-incident situations. The Public Safety and Security Annex generally is activated in situations requiring extensive assistance to provide public safety and security.

Key Tasks/Responsibilities

Coordinate public safety and security support (including personnel and equipment) to any affected department/agency during preparation for, response to, and/or recovery from any real or potential incident.
County Sheriff's Office
Police Department
Other Law Enforcement Agencies
Private Security Companies

Coordinate critical information dissemination regarding public safety/security through mass warning/notification.

County Sheriff's Office
Police Department
Dispatch
County Emergency Management
Facilitate multi-function public safety activities such as evacuation, traffic, looting, and riot control
County Sheriff's Office
Police Department
Other Law Enforcement Agencies
Fire/EMS

Concept of Operations

Local law enforcement authorities have the primary responsibility for public safety and security and are the first line of response and support in these functional areas, utilizing the Incident Command System on-scene
In larger-scale incidents, additional resources should first be obtained through the activation of mutual aid agreements with neighboring jurisdictions and/or State authorities, which may require the management of incident operations through a Unified Command structure

Through the Public Safety and Security Annex, outside resources supplement local resources when requested or required, as appropriate, and are integrated into the incident command structure using National Incident Management System principles and protocols
The Public Safety and Security Annex activities should not be confused with the activities described in the Terrorism Incident Annex or other criminal investigative law enforcement activities

As the lead law enforcement official in the United States, the Attorney General, generally acting through the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), maintains the lead for criminal investigations of terrorist acts or terrorist threats by individuals or groups inside the United States
The Public Safety and Security Annex is activated when public safety and security capabilities and resources are needed to support incident operations
This includes threat or pre-incident as well as post-incident situations
When activated, the primary agencies assess public safety and security needs, and respond to requests for resources and planning/technical assistance from county agencies
The Public Safety and Security Annex manages support by coordinating the implementation of authorities related to public safety and security and protection of property, including critical infrastructure, and security resources and technologies and other assistance to support incident management operations and security capabilities and resources are needed to support incident operations
This includes threat or pre-incident as well as post-incident situations
The Public Safety and Security Annex maintains close coordination with Federal, State, and local officials to determine public safety and security support requirements and to jointly determine resource priorities
The primary agencies maintain communications with supporting agencies to determine capabilities, assess the availability of resources, and track resources that have been deployed

Recovery

General

When a disaster occurs, it is all too easy to get consumed by the urgent activities and emotions surrounding the event. That is understandable but don't allow the intensity of the incident to distract you from some extremely important actions you should be taking. Keep in mind that no financial assistance will occur until there is a declared disaster by the State and the Federal governments.

Tracking time and material (supplies and equipment specifically used for the disaster) should happen always, regardless of disaster declarations. There is no guarantee that we will get our expenses reimbursed. We are at the mercy of the State and Federal governments. In most cases, however, labor and materials specific to the disaster response get reimbursed. Losses already covered by our insurance are typically NOT reimbursed. For example, if an employee is injured our Workers' Compensation would cover the injured employee. If a building was damaged and our insurance does not cover that specific cause of loss there may be a chance it is reimbursable.

Before – Action Items

Establish relationships and contact information from our county Operational Area and Coordinating Council (OACC)
Create and maintain a current contact list with this information and other contact information essential to the Finance/Administration Section of our ICS structure
Train and practice the Start-up, Operation of, and the Closure of this ICS Section.
Modify and update our Emergency Operations Plan as necessary

During – Action Items

Within the very first moments of an incident, begin tracking every employee's and volunteer's time spent on the incident. (Be alert to any announcements from local or State government regarding "Public Assistance" requests or meetings.) Use the form designed for that purpose, the Activity Log (ICS 214). If not readily available, make sure each person is tracking the following:
Incident name
Date
Worker's name
Log each major activity and track start and end times
Don't be concerned with tracking too much – that can be sorted out after the event
This information will need to be transferred onto the Activity Log (ICS 214) before we can apply for Public Assistance funding (this is what they call the State and Federal reimbursement program)
Keep track of ANY disaster-related expenditures for supplies or equipment. It is best to retain copies of priced-out receipts and invoices for possible State and Federal reimbursement. For example, if our facilities may be used as a shelter and we are required to provide custodial services specific to the shelter, toilet paper, paper towels, cleaning material and chemicals would all likely be reimbursable. If our facility were being used as a medical care facility and the HVAC system required filters different than what we would normally use, the cost of the filters (and the labor to change them) are likely reimbursable.
Establish the Recovery Unit in the Finance/Administration Section of our Emergency Operations Center (EOC).
Have all sites or units collect information on their ability to sustain operations.
Develop staffing pattern for the Recovery Unit.

Collect information on damages, duration and impact from the following:
Utility Providers

Social, medical and health services
Transportation routes and services
Debris issues
County Government Operations
Private sector retail and wholesale providers
Others
Develop initial short term and long-term recovery objectives.
Refer to hazard/threat-specific annexes for information.
Develop information for the PIO on the recovery process and progress.
Develop a plan to assign personnel to sustain the recovery effort
Coordinate with the OACC, other local jurisdictions and the State on their recovery efforts.
While it is best if we already have an established relationship with our county Operational Area Coordinating Council (OACC) contact, we need to identify that individual and the means of communicating with them. We will want them to know who at our District will serve as the contact for emergency incidents. This will serve a couple of purposes:
It will keep our District "in the loop" and better informed when an incident affecting our District occurs
It will alert us to any notice of "Public Assistance" informational meetings to learn about getting Federal and State reimbursement for disaster related District activity
If our county's OACC is overwhelmed with an incident we should reach out directly to our Emergency Services Coordinator at the Governor's Office of Emergency Services Region Operational Area.
Ask them to put the District on the list for notification of "Public Assistance" informational meetings
There are forms that will be exchanged between our District and the OACC or the California Governor's Office of Emergency Services (they act as our liaison with FEMA)
If our employees and volunteers remain under our direction and control we are responsible for any costs associated with their activities. Should they perform work that they would not normally do and it is attributable to the disaster we will likely be able to reimburse the labor. Management costs are typically NOT reimbursable.
If our employees and volunteers, or our facilities, are tasked outside of our District we must only do so under the terms of a mutual aid agreement or memorandum of understanding to which the District have agreed, in writing. Make sure we understand when and if risk transfer occurs as it should be clear in these documents. These documents should identify, specifically, what is "covered" and by "whom." Examples for other agency usage of our facility might include the Fire Department using our facility as a command center for the incident.
Or, local hospitals may be "at-capacity" and need our facility to provide some form of medical or health services. In these cases, (like the case of sheltering) a written request for use of our facilities should be on file or requested prior to allowing the agency to use them. These documents should specify what they will and will not cover in terms of costs related to using the facility. Typically, if an outside agency damages the property or they cause a liability exposure, they are responsible for coverage.

When in doubt, ask for help.

After – Action Items

Begin closing the Recovery Unit
Assign any open or pending tasks, such as Public Assistance funding or other outstanding receivables or payables, to appropriate staff with specific checkup or due dates
Make sure all Activity Logs and equipment/supply records have been assembled and recorded into the request for Public Assistance from Cal OES and FEMA
Conduct an After-Action debrief within the Finance/Administration Section and include that in the main incident After-Action debrief held by the District
Review our EOP and include any lessons learned or altered actions into the plan for update and redistribution to the emergency management team
Participate in and debriefings provided by our ICS team and close the Recovery Unit

Reunification

General

Student release is a crucial part of emergency planning. During an emergency or disaster, the traditional student release procedure is often unsafe and therefore not operable. Accordingly, a comprehensive emergency plan needs to include certain procedures to accomplish the main priority of safety planning which is to ensure the safety of the students to every extent possible.

There are a wide variety of emergency situations that might require student/family reunification. Student/family reunification may be needed if the site is evacuated or closed as a result of a hazardous materials transportation accident, fire, natural gas leak, flooding, earthquake, tsunami, school violence, bomb threat, terrorist attack or other local hazard.

Student/Family reunification is part of the Incident Command System and is assigned to the Operations Area.

Reunification Procedures

In an emergency, sites must establish a safe area for family members to meet with students. This area must be away from the both the damage and the student's assembly area. In a typical release the following steps will be followed:

Family member will report to the assigned area and give the name of the student
Picture ID will normally be required by the person in charge to insure the person requesting a minor is a match to the name on the emergency release card
A runner will go to the student assembly area and get the minor requested by the parent or adult and escort the student back to the pick-up area
Parents will be asked to sign a form indicating they picked up the minor (the date and time will also be indicated on the pick-up form)
If the minor is in the first aid area, the parent will be escorted to that area for reunification with their child/children
Counselors, when available, will be located close to the first aid area in the event they are needed

Traffic Control

Traffic may be controlled by trained and authorized employees who meet the requirements outlined in the Manual on Uniform Traffic Control Devices (MUTCD) Part 7, Traffic Control for School Areas. In the absence of this condition, we must wait until local law enforcement is available and on scene at the site.
To every extent possible, two-way traffic will be maintained to allow for entry and exit of emergency vehicles
As the situation develops there may be time for barricades and other traffic control devices to be delivered and set up
It should be understood this will not occur at the beginning of the incident
When law enforcement arrives on the scene they will take charge and do whatever is necessary, including the towing of vehicles to manage the emergency or disaster

Maintaining the Procedures

Student rosters should be updated at least twice a year
If enrollment dictates this may be updated more frequently
Updated rosters should be stored in every room in an area easily identified by the both staff and substitutes.
Additional copies of the rosters should be distributed to the site administrator and placed in the back of the emergency plan binder

Emergency cards should be filled out at the beginning of the year
This card should include contact information on family members, as well as other adults who can be contacted if the family member is not available
The card should also indicate who the minor is permitted to leave site with, if necessary
DO NOT release students to people not listed on the student emergency card.
A well- intentioned friend may offer to take a minor home; however, District staff must be certain that students are only released to the appropriate people, so their families will know where they are
The card should also include all pertinent medical information such as allergies, medications, and doctor contact information
These cards should be stored in the front office in both hard copy and electronically, if possible

Things to Remember

Some family members will refuse to cooperate with the student/family reunification process
This situation can be diminished, to some degree, if family members are informed about the District's release procedures before the disaster or emergency occurs
They should be reminded that the safety of their student is our utmost priority
Family members may be emotional when arriving at the site
Have counselors available to deal with issues if needed
Shortly after the incident, the media will have a presence on our site
The Public Information Officer, part of the command staff operating under the Incident Command System, will deal with the media, however, it is important that family be sheltered from media representatives

Shelter-in-Place

General

This action is taken to place and/or keep students indoors in order to provide a greater level of protection from airborne contaminants in outside air. Shelter-in-place is implemented when there is a need to isolate students and staff from the outside environment and includes the shutdown of room and/or building air systems. During shelter-in-place, no one should be exposed to the outside air.

Description of Action

If an emergency occurs that requires students and staff to Shelter-in-Place, the Site Administrator will make an announcement on the PA system. If the PA system is not available, the Site Administrator will use other means of communication (e.g., sending messengers to deliver instructions). The Site Administrator should be calm, convey reassuring comments that the situation is under control, and provide clear and consistent directions. Below is an example of an announcement to be made by the Site Administrator:

"YOUR ATTENTION PLEASE. WE HAVE RECEIVED INFORMATION REGARDING A HAZARD IN THE COMMUNITY. WE ARE INSTITUTING SHELTER-IN-PLACE PROCEDURES. PLEASE REMAIN INSIDE THE BUILDING AWAY FROM OUTSIDE AIR WITH WINDOWS AND DOORS SECURELY CLOSED AND AIR CONDITIONING UNITS TURNED OFF. ALL STUDENTS AND STAFF THAT ARE OUTSIDE ARE TO IMMEDIATELY MOVE TO THE PROTECTION OF AN INSIDE ROOM. PLEASE REMAIN INDOORS UNTIL FURTHER INSTRUCTIONS ARE PROVIDED."

If inside, staff should keep students in their rooms until further instructions are given
If outside, students must proceed to their rooms if it is safe to do so
If it is determined to be unsafe, staff should direct students into nearby rooms or buildings (e.g., auditorium, library, cafeteria, and gymnasium)
Staff and students who were exposed to outside air should congregate in indoor locations away from individuals who were not exposed to outside air
Anyone who is exhibiting symptoms must be treated
Staff is responsible for securing individual rooms and for completing the following procedures as needed:
Shut down the room/building HVAC (Heating Ventilation and Air Conditioning) system
Turn off local fans in the area
Close and lock doors and windows

If necessary, seal gaps under doors and windows with wet towels or duct tape, seal vents with aluminum foil or plastic wrap, and turn off sources of ignition, such as pilot lights

Situational Awareness

In the U.S., every public agency is expected to address situational awareness and personnel security. Situational Awareness is the ability to identify, process, and comprehend the critical information about an incident. More simply, it is knowing what is going on around us.

Overview

Situational Awareness requires continuous monitoring of relevant sources of information regarding actual incidents and developing hazards. A common core function of Emergency Operations Centers (EOC) is gaining, maintaining, and sharing Situational Awareness and developing a Situational Picture (SitPic) that is shared between the Incident ICS, EOC, JIS, and field staff participants in the incident.

In the early stages of activation, the EOC will obtain Situational Awareness. This is important because accurate, timely information will enable more informed, effective decision-making. An excellent tool for developing and maintaining this condition of the OODA loop.

OODA Loop

The OODA loop is the cycle: observe–orient–decide–act, developed by military strategist and United States Air Force Colonel John Boyd in the 1960s. Boyd applied the concept to the combat operations process, often at the operational level during military campaigns. It is now also often applied to understand commercial operations and learning processes.
The OODA loop has become an important concept in emergency management. According to Boyd, decision-making occurs in a recurring cycle of observe–orient–decide–act. An entity (whether an individual or an organization) that can process this cycle quickly, observing and reacting to unfolding events more rapidly than an “opponent,” can thereby "get inside" the opponent's decision cycle and gain the advantage.

Observe – Sensing yourself and the world around you
Orient – What you believe: a complex set of filters of genetic heritage, cultural predispositions, personal experience, and knowledge
Decide – A review of alternative courses of action and the selection of the preferred course as a hypothesis to be tested.
Act – Testing the decision chosen for implementation.

Every employee is a critical link to situational awareness. This annex address the expectations of this District in establishing and maintaining a vital communication and informational internal network. Whether you are in an office environment, inside a building, in the field, or at home, what you observe and absorb are invaluable to our District.

Prepare

The following list includes the minimum expectations for every employee:
Develop and maintain a personal family communication plan
Use the Family Emergency Communication Plan – Wallet Sized provided by our District
The plan should be completed at hire and updated when any of the information changes but at least annually
Share our plan with your family
Review and familiarize yourself with the District’s Emergency Operations Plan (EOP)
Prepare a “Go-Bag” for yourself with a 3-day supply of food and water
See the “Go-Bag” guide for help in assembling and stocking
Keep a copy of the District’s Critical Incident Field Operations Guide (FOG) with you at all times during work hours

Field Protocol

Before, during, and after critical incidents there are some basic steps you should take to improve your situation and help others in need:

f you are operating a vehicle or other equipment, stop your activity as soon as is safely possible (If driving, follow safe driving practices and get maneuver your vehicle without endangering your own or the safety of others)
Assess the situation using the OODA loop and take appropriate action
Follow our District's Communication protocols as outlined in the EOP
If you are unable to proceed to your primary location (starting and ending shift worksite) find out if you can return to an alternate site
If returning to any of these sites proves unreasonable, proceed to the nearest public facility (police or fire station, hospital, local government office) and notify our District of your exact location
Provide our District's Emergency Operations Center (EOC) with as much detailed information as possible:
Time, Date, and Location of Critical Incident
Your condition (unaffected, injured, etc.) and the condition of your equipment
Describe the type of incident such as fire, hazmat, earthquake, etc.
Provide details on estimate impact in your area (how much loss or damage)

Disaster Service Worker

As a California public employee, you may be called upon to work as a Disaster Service Worker (DSW) in the event of an emergency. The information contained in the Disaster Service Worker website will help you understand your role and obligations as a disaster service worker, and what to do in an emergency (California Government Code Section 3100-3109).

Special Needs Population

Planning Needs and Assumptions

For individuals with special needs, physical environments become a great deal more hostile and difficult to deal with during and after an emergency. The ability to get to accessible exits and personal items may be reduced. Communication may be impeded at a time when clear and rapid communication is crucial to safety and survival.

To comply with statutes involving students with special needs, individuals responsible for evacuation and emergency operation plans, notification protocols, shelter identification, emergency medical care and other emergency response and recovery programs must:

Have sound working knowledge of the accessibility and nondiscrimination requirements applicable under Federal disability rights laws
Know the special needs demographics of the attending students on site
Involve students with different types of disabilities and staff in identifying the communication and transportation needs, accommodations, support systems, equipment, services, and supplies that they will need during an emergency
Consider emergency accommodations for those with temporary disabilities
Identify existing resources within the site and local community that meet the special needs of these students
Develop new community partners and resources, as needed
Inform family members about the efforts to keep students safe
Identify medical needs and make an appropriate plan
Determine transportation needs, special vans, and buses for students
Identify any necessary tools such as personal response plans, evacuation equipment or visual aids
Include local responders and establish a relationship with individual students with disabilities and staff

HAZARD/THREAT ANNEX

Hazard-Threat Assessment

A representative number of participants were selected to participate in the Hazard-Threat Assessment Survey (HTAS). This survey follows best practices in emergency management and is a very important part of updating our Emergency Operations Plan.

This survey was designed to help us prioritize possible threats or hazards we may face. It covers many possible scenarios but is not exhaustive in nature. The survey information generated is invaluable in helping our Emergency Operations Plan Collaborative Planning Team identify the hazards and threats most likely to impact us.

The Collaborative Planning team has selected the following Hazards/Threats to be included in this annex:
Active Assailant
Cyber Threat or Attack
Earthquake
Extreme Heat and Unhealthy Air Quality
Fire-Structural
Fire-Forest, Wildfire, or Urban Interface
Infectious Disease
Power and Utility Failure
Severe Weather
Tsunami

Active Assailant

Purpose

Active assailant situations are often over within 10 to 15 minutes, before law enforcement arrives on the scene. Individuals must be prepared both mentally and physically to deal with an active assailant situation.

This Annex will address current best practices for dealing with Active Assailants, Before, During, and After an incident.

Situation and Assumptions

An Active Assailant is an individual actively engaged in the killing or attempting to kill people in a confined and populated area. In most cases, active assailants use firearms and there is no pattern or method to their selection of victims.

Active Assailant situations are unpredictable and evolve quickly. Typically, the immediate deployment of law enforcement is required to stop the attack and mitigate harm to victims.

Continuity of Operations (Annex Specific)

Continuity of Operations is defined as the internal effort of an organization to assure that the capability exists to continue essential functions and services in response to a comprehensive array of potential emergencies or disasters.

In the case of an active assailant actions can be taken in advance to mitigate some of the outcome of the attack.

Organization and Assignment of Responsibilities

Refer to the Organization and Assignment of Responsibilities section located in the Basic Plan.

Plan Development

This annex is part of the Hazard and Threat Annex and was developed using current best practices

Incident Command Actions

Before

Threat and Physical Security Assessment of each site

Conducting periodic threat and physical security assessments will ensure that best practices are in place to control access to your campus.

- Appropriate perimeter fencing installation and maintenance
- Locks and closers on perimeter gates that prevent outsiders from opening the gate (mesh screen around gate area)
- Check for keyed exterior locksets of all classroom doors
- Make sure the lockset on the interior of the classroom door has a thumb lock or other quick-lock style lockset (see Figure 1- Interior Lock)
- Verify visitor access control is in place and works as intended
- Require classroom doors to be closed and locked when students are present

Student Education

- Educate students (age appropriate) through workshops, seminars, lectures, and any other opportunity to teach about the hazards of an active assailant/physical threat and ways each person can potentially react to such a situation
- Supplement in-person instructional elements with additional information to reinforce the training

Such material may be distributed in a variety of ways, including but not limited to web pages, social media, printed literature, radio/TV, etc.
Foster a respectful school community
Be aware of indications of violence and take remedial actions accordingly (i.e. If you see something, say something)

Behavioral Red Flags
Recognizing indicators for potential violence by an individual:
Increased use of alcohol and/or illegal drugs
Unexplained increase in absenteeism; vague physical complaints
Noticeable decrease in attention to appearance and hygiene
Depression/withdrawal
Resistance and overreaction to changes in policy and procedures
Repeated violations of District policies
Increased severe mood swings
Noticeably unstable, emotional responses
Explosive outbursts of anger or rage without provocation
Suicidal; comments about “putting things in order”
Behavior, which is suspect of paranoia, (“everybody is against me”)
Increasingly talks of personal problems
Talk of severe financial problems
Talk of previous incidents of violence
Empathy with individuals committing violence
Increase in unsolicited comments about firearms, other dangerous weapons, and violent crimes

Develop a positive behavioral intervention program that identifies at-risk behaviors early on and ensures administration is aware of these individuals
Decide upon communications and public information releases with your Public Information Officer prior to an incident
Develop model releases that provide well thought out and consistent messaging on behalf of the District
Discuss and decide upon Spontaneous Memorial practices including
Ease of public access
Minimize disruption of vehicular and pedestrian traffic
Monitored for appropriateness of items placed at the memorial
Prepared to announce the one location to the public and that it will be open from/to specific dates (typically no longer than 2-3 weeks)
Line-of-sight view by administration

During

Responding to an Active Assailant/Physical Threat

If you are in a situation where your safety is in question and you are at risk of harm from another person, you must quickly determine the most reasonable way to protect your own life.

Run (evacuate)

If there is an accessible escape path, attempt to evacuate the building/area. Be sure to:
Have an escape route and plan in mind
Evacuate regardless of whether others agree to follow
Leave your belongings behind
Help others escape, if possible
Prevent individuals from entering an area where the active assailant may be
Keep your hands visible, to prevent confusion to law enforcement
Follow the instructions of law enforcement personnel
Do not attempt to move wounded people
Notify Police when you are safe

Hide (lockdown)

If evacuation is not possible, find a place to hide where the active assailant is less likely to find you. Your hiding place should:
Be out of the active assailant's view
Provide protection if shots are fired in your direction (i.e. a room with a closed and locked door)
Not trap you or restrict your options for movement
Remember Cover vs. Concealment
Spread out to reduce target area
To prevent an active assailant from entering your hiding place:
Lock the door, if possible
Blockade the door with whatever is available – heavy furniture, door wedges, file cabinets, etc.
Cover any windows or openings that have a direct line of sight into a hallway
If the active assailant is nearby:
Lock the door, if possible
Close windows, shades and curtains.
Silence all cell phone and other electronic devices
Turn off any source of noise (i.e. radios, televisions, etc.)
Hide behind large items (i.e. cabinets, desks)
Remain silent

Do not sound the fire alarm
A fire alarm would signal the occupants to evacuate the building and thus place them in potential harm as they attempted to exit
Notify Police when it is safe to do so

Fight

If running and hiding are not possible:
Remain calm
Notify Police, if possible, to alert hem of the active assailant's location
If you cannot speak, leave the line open and allow the dispatcher to listen
As a last resort, and only when your life is in imminent danger, attempt to disrupt and/or incapacitate the active assailant by:
Acting as aggressively as possible against him/her
Throwing items and improvising weapons
Yelling
Committing to your actions

Law Enforcement

Law enforcement's purpose is to stop the active assailant as soon as possible. Officers will proceed directly to the area in which the last shots were heard.

While officers may prefer to team up, they are likely to deploy individually, upon arrival at the scene
Officers may wear regular patrol uniforms or external bulletproof vests, Kevlar helmets, and other tactical equipment
Officers may be armed with rifles, shotguns, handguns
Officers may use pepper spray or tear gas to control the situation
Officers may shout commands, and may push individuals to the ground for their safety
The first officers to arrive to the scene will not stop to help injured persons. Expect rescue teams comprised of additional officers and emergency medical personnel to follow the initial officers. These rescue teams will treat and remove any injured persons. They may also call upon able-bodied individuals to assist in removing the wounded from the premises.

While law enforcement personnel are still assessing the situation, uniformed security and/or police officers will move through the entire area to ensure the threat is over. For the safety of you and the officers, you may be handcuffed until the incident details are fully known.

How to react when law enforcement arrives:

Remain calm, and follow officers' instructions
Put down any items in your hands (i.e., cell phones, bags, jackets)
Immediately raise hands and spread fingers
Always keep hands visible
Avoid making quick movements toward officers such as holding on to them for safety
Avoid pointing, screaming and/or yelling
Do not stop to ask officers for help or direction when evacuating, just proceed in the direction from which officers are entering the premises

Once you have reached a safe location or an assembly point, you will likely be held in that area by law enforcement until the situation is under control, and all witnesses have been identified and questioned. Do not leave until law enforcement authorities have instructed you to do so.

Considerations
If a security threat is imminent or occurring, our personnel will take all reasonable and appropriate actions to minimize the hazard to the District's students and staff. If the perpetrator(s) is known, Incident Command will immediately deactivate the incident site's ID card(s) to prevent the individual(s) from entering a building/room equipped with card access.

For locations without electronic access control, incident personnel will make reasonable attempts to secure these doors as quickly as possible. The nature of the threat may make it unsafe for incident personnel to move from door-to-door, thus preventing these locations from being quickly secured.

If you become aware of an active assailant situation, immediately notify Police at 911. Information to provide to law enforcement or 911 operators:
Location of the active assailant
Number of assailants
Identity of the assailant(s), if known
Physical description of assailant(s)
Number and type of weapons held by the assailant(s)
Number of potential victims at the location

After

Good Practice for Coping
Good Practice for Coping
Be aware of your environment and any possible dangers
Take note of the two nearest exits in any facility you visit
If you are in an office, stay there and secure the door
If you are in a hallway, get into a room and secure the door
As a last resort, attempt to take the active assailant down. When the assailant is at close range and you cannot flee, your chance of survival is much greater if you try to incapacitate him/her.
Call 911 when it is safe to do so

Any time there is a significant security concern, we will make every reasonable attempt to immediately increase security on site. At the same time emergency personnel are responding to the emergency, public safety officials will communicate the hazard to the community via all available and appropriate means.

If you receive an official emergency communication notifying you of a hazardous situation where you must take immediate action to protect yourself, stay as calm as possible and follow these procedures. Only you will be able to determine the safest course of action that should be taken.

Bomb Threat Procedures and Checklist – DHS

BOMB THREAT PROCEDURES

This quick reference checklist is designed to help employees and decision makers of commercial facilities, schools, etc. respond to a bomb threat in an orderly and controlled manner with the first responders and other stakeholders.

Most bomb threats are received by phone. Bomb threats are serious until proven otherwise. Act quickly, but remain calm and obtain information with the checklist on the reverse of this card.

If a bomb threat is received by phone:

1. Remain calm. Keep the caller on the line for as long as possible. DO NOT HANG UP, even if the caller does.
2. Listen carefully. Be polite and show interest.
3. Try to keep the caller talking to learn more information.
4. If possible, write a note to a colleague to call the authorities or, as soon as the caller hangs up, immediately notify them yourself.
5. If your phone has a display, copy the number and/or letters on the window display.
6. Complete the Bomb Threat Checklist immediately. Write down as much detail as you can remember. Try to get exact words.
7. Immediately upon termination of call, DO NOT HANG UP, but from a different phone, contact authorities immediately with information and await instructions.

If a bomb threat is received by handwritten note:

- Call _____
- Handle note as minimally as possible.

If a bomb threat is received by e-mail:

- Call _____
- Do not delete the message.

Signs of a suspicious package:

- No return address
- Excessive postage
- Stains
- Strange odor
- Strange sounds
- Unexpected delivery
- Poorly handwritten
- Misspelled words
- Incorrect titles
- Foreign postage
- Restrictive notes

Refer to your local bomb threat emergency response plan for evacuation criteria

Cyber Threat or Attack

Purpose

Understanding the risks and motivations behind cyber threats or attacks is crucial in establishing and implementing this Cyber Threat or Attack annex. Technology continues to improve and develop at an amazing pace and with that advancement comes the challenges of protecting what we collect and manage using that technology.

Common criminals as well as hostile foreign actors have a couple of primary motivations when it comes to attacking your organization's cyber space. Both money and operational disruption are at the top of that list. For some hackers, they thrive on finding ways to access your information and then sell it, or threaten to disclose it asking for a "ransom," while freezing up your means of storing, accessing, or distributing information.

This annex will focus on the incident management perspective and address what to do before, during, and after an incident, following current best practices. These practices fall under the general category of cyber security.

Situation and Assumptions

Think of the cyber world as you would your own facilities. You provide appropriate fencing to ensure the security of those within its boundaries. The more access points you provide the more difficult it becomes to keep that site secure and safe. The cyber world is really the same way. Years ago we may have had only a handful of access points to our local area network. As technology improved, we added access. As we added access we provided more entry points for those who would seek our harm.

We are making some basic assumptions about systems and practices we should have in place:

- Installed and using modern firewall and antivirus software
- Conducting regular antivirus scanning
- Configured firewalls to prevent ransomware
- Keeping operating systems patches up-to-date
- Completing critical patching as expeditiously as possible
- Conducting employee cyber security awareness training including current best practices
- Keeping individual sites segregated
- Keeping user groups segregated (staff and student users segregated)
- Keeping privilege access management limited
- Using multi-factor authentication
- Implemented and using strong password policy
- Using off-site back up
- Providing email filtering to prevent spam reaching employees

Organization and Assignment of Responsibilities

Our IT department will have leadership over all aspects of our technology equipment and network spaces. They are the core of our Cyber Security Incident Response Team.

It is the responsibility of our Information Technology (IT) professionals to maintain a safe and secure cyber space. However, it is every network user's responsibility to follow best practices introduced by our IT professionals.

Glossary of Terms

Cyber Security Incident Response Team (CSIRT)

A group of experts that assesses, documents and responds to a cyber incident so that a network can not only recover quickly, but also avoid future incidents.

Denial-of-service attack

A denial-of-service attack floods systems, servers, or networks with traffic to exhaust resources and bandwidth. As a result, the system is unable to fulfill legitimate requests. Attackers can also use multiple compromised devices to launch this attack. This is known as a distributed-denial-of-service (DDoS) attack.

DNS Tunneling

DNS tunneling utilizes the DNS protocol to communicate non-DNS traffic over port 53. It sends HTTP and other protocol traffic over DNS. There are various, legitimate reasons to utilize DNS tunneling. However, there are also malicious reasons to use DNS Tunneling VPN services. They can be used to disguise outbound traffic as DNS, concealing data that is typically shared through an internet connection. For malicious use, DNS requests are manipulated to exfiltrate data from a compromised system to the attacker's infrastructure. It can also be used for command and control callbacks from the attacker's infrastructure to a compromised system.

Malware

Malware is a term used to describe malicious software, including spyware, ransomware, viruses, and worms. Malware breaches a network through a vulnerability, typically when a user clicks a dangerous link or email attachment that then installs risky software. Once inside the system, malware can do the following:

- Blocks access to key components of the network (ransomware)
- Installs malware or additional harmful software
- Covertly obtains information by transmitting data from the hard drive (spyware)
- Disrupts certain components and renders the system inoperable

Man-in-the-middle attack

Man-in-the-middle (MitM) attacks, also known as eavesdropping attacks, occur when attackers insert themselves into a two-party transaction. Once the attackers interrupt the traffic, they can filter and steal data.

Two common points of entry for MitM attacks:

- On unsecure public Wi-Fi, attackers can insert themselves between a visitor's device and the network. Without knowing, the visitor passes all information through the attacker.
- Once malware has breached a device, an attacker can install software to process all of the victim's information.

Phishing

Phishing is the practice of sending fraudulent communications that appear to come from a reputable source, usually through email. The goal is to steal sensitive data like credit card and login information or to install malware on the victim's machine. Phishing is an increasingly common cyberthreat.

SQL injection

A Structured Query Language (SQL) injection occurs when an attacker inserts malicious code into a server that uses SQL and forces the server to reveal information it normally would not. An attacker could carry out a SQL injection simply by submitting malicious code into a vulnerable website search box. Learn how to defend against SQL injection attacks.

Zero-day exploit

A zero-day exploit hits after a network vulnerability is announced but before a patch or solution is implemented. Attackers target the disclosed vulnerability during this window of time. Zero-day vulnerability threat detection requires constant awareness.

Incident Command Actions

Maintaining a best-practices approach to cyber security requires us to keep up to date on current trends and threats in the cyber world. Most of what we know comes from internet service providers who share this information to help us be better prepared.

Our cybersecurity response process recommendations by the SANS Institute, as defined in its Incident Handler's Handbook.

- Conduct regular and periodic training for our staff to ensure they have the tools they need to preserve our cyber security. This may include hands-on virtual or email tests and scenarios designed to reinforce safe cyber practices and protect our digital/cyber foot print.
- Perform regular security assessments and intrusion testing
- Provide a trained staff Cybersecurity Incident Response Team (CSIRT)

During

Identification

- Monitor IT systems and detect deviations from normal operations and see if they represent actual security incidents
- Establish type and severity
- Log actions and responses
- Collect evidence

Containment

- Isolate impacted system(s)
- Implement temporary workarounds to maintain operations

Eradication

- Identify the root cause
- Remove malicious software from all affected systems
- Take action to prevent root cause from recurring

Caution

After

Recovery

- Bring affected systems back online
- Test, verify, and monitor affected systems to ensure they are operating normally

After-Action Report

- Finalized incident documentation
- Perform a retrospective of the incident to determine what was effective and what was not to identify lessons learned

Earthquake

Duck, Cover, and Hold

This action is used to protect students and staff from flying or falling debris. Upon the first indication of an earthquake, staff should direct students to Duck, Cover, and Hold.

The Incident Commander will make the following announcement on the PA System:

“ATTENTION PLEASE. DUCK, COVER AND HOLD. DUCK, COVER, AND HOLD. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION TO FOLLOW.”

Note: If the PA system is not available, use other means of communication, i.e. send messengers to deliver instructions, email, etc.

Description of Action

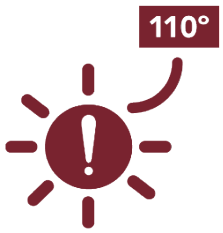
If inside

Drop to knees
Get under desk and remain facing away from windows
Clasp both hands behind neck
Bury face in arms
Make body as small as possible
Close eyes and cover ears with forearms.

If outside

Drop to knees
Clasp both hands behind neck
Bury face in arms
Make body as small as possible
Close eyes and cover ears with forearms.
Avoid glass and falling objects

Procedures



Avoid glass and falling objects. Move away from windows, heavy suspended light fixtures, and other overhead hazards.
When the shaking stops, the Incident Commander will issue the All Clear Response
Use prescribed routes and proceed directly to the Assembly Area. Teachers shall notify the Student Attendance/Release Team of missing students.
The Incident Commander to direct the Security Team to post guards a safe distance away from building entrances to prevent access.
Warn all personnel to avoid touching fallen electrical wires.
First Aid Team will check for injuries and provide appropriate first aid.
The Incident Commander will direct the Facility Team to turn off water, gas, and electrical and to alert appropriate utility company of damages, if appropriate.
If the area appears safe, the Search and Rescue team will be cleared by the Incident Commander to make an initial inspection of the District’s buildings, if needed.
The Incident Commander will contact the Superintendent to determine if additional actions are deemed necessary.

During Non-Operating Hours

The Incident Commander and Identified Maintenance/Facilities Personnel will assess damages to determine needed corrective actions. For apparent damages, contact the Superintendent to determine if the District should be closed. If the District must be closed, notify staff and students as identified in District Closure Response Procedure.

Extreme Heat and Unhealthy Air Quality

Purpose

The purpose of this annex is to ensure that staff is advised of hazardous conditions caused by extreme heat conditions and/or unhealthy air quality and to minimize exposure to those conditions. Governmental agencies, such as the Air Quality Management District (AQMD), the National Weather Service (NWS-NOAA), the Center for Disease Control (CDC) and others provide guidance in how to respond to unhealthful air quality and extreme heat conditions.

Actions

The Incident Commander monitors air quality and heat conditions to provide recommended actions during an unhealthful air quality or extreme heat event. The Incident Commander will keep the Senior Executive or designee informed of these conditions and activate this annex. Upon activation, site administrators will perform the following:

Notify students and staff when unhealthful air quality or extreme heat conditions exist.
Modify District programs and work assignments for the protection of students and staff.
Adhere to the Unhealthful Air Quality and Extreme Heat Plan to correspond with current recommendations of both the AQMD and the NWS.
Cooperate with other governmental agencies and with the total community in matters of critical concern regarding unhealthful air quality and extreme heat.

District Activities and What To Do During Extreme Heat Conditions.

The National Weather Service (NOAA) provides information on responding to extreme heat conditions. The Incident Commander monitors temperature and humidity in the District and the National Weather Service website to ensure that our District sites are notified upon attainment of an extreme heat condition.
Always provide adequate amounts of water to students and staff to maintain appropriate hydration, use areas shaded from the direct sunlight, and:
When the Heat Index reaches the range of 90 to 105 degrees Fahrenheit, sunstroke, heat cramps, and heat exhaustion are possible. Everyone shall minimize prolonged, vigorous outdoor activity.
When the Heat Index reaches the range of 105 to 130 degrees Fahrenheit, sunstroke and heat exhaustion are likely and heat stroke is possible. Everyone shall discontinue prolonged, vigorous outdoor activity.
When the Heat Index reaches or exceeds 130 degrees Fahrenheit, heat stroke is highly likely with continued exposure. Everyone shall discontinue all vigorous outdoor activity.

Fire - Structural

The following procedure addresses the necessary actions that should be taken if a fire is discovered in or on the District's facilities. A timely response to this situation is critical to prevent injuries and further property damage.

Procedure

NOTE – There are cases during Active Assailant incidents where the assailant may trigger the fire alarm. This is done as a means to induce students and staff to evacuate which may provide the assailant with more "targets." Modified responses to a fire alarm should be discussed with your local fire and law enforcement jurisdictions to coordinate best practices for your district.
If a fire is discovered on site, the administrative staff will immediately signal the fire alarm and direct students out of the building.
The Incident Commander will call 911 and provide the location and nature of the incident
The Incident Commander will immediately initiate the Off-Site Evacuation Procedures
Staff and students will evacuate buildings using pre-designated routes or other safe routes and convene at the Assembly Area
Site staff members must bring their student rosters and take attendance at the Assembly Area to account for all students
Staff will notify the Incident Commander of any missing students
If safe to do so, staff will use fire extinguishers to suppress the fire until the local fire department arrives
All fires, regardless of size, which are extinguished by site personnel, require a call to the responding Fire Department to indicate "the fire is out"
The Incident Commander will secure the area to prevent unauthorized entry and keep access roads clear for emergency vehicles
The Incident Commander will notify the Senior Executive of the fire. The Senior Executive should work with the Public Information Officer
Outreach and Communication to disseminate information
In the event that students need to be released from the school site, refer to the Reunification Annex for reunification procedures
If necessary, the Incident Commander will notify appropriate Transportation official to request transportation for student and staff evacuation.

Any affected areas will not be reopened until the Fire Department or the appropriate agency provides clearance and the Incident Commander issues authorization to do so. For fires during non-school hours, the Incident Commander and the Senior Executive will determine if the school site will open the following day.

Fire - Forest, Wildfire, or Urban Interface

General

Fires can happen in almost any place, at any time, in almost any condition or circumstance as long as there is fuel, oxygen, and heat. While District's are required to have regularly scheduled fire drills by California law it is easy to overlook the risks associated with poor housekeeping, excessive and dried wildland shrubs and trees close to the District sites and many other factors. The damage caused by fire is real and serious, but the potential hazard of smoke can sometimes be even worse.

Fire in Surrounding Area

The following procedure addresses actions that should be taken in the event that a fire is discovered in an area nearby District grounds. The initiated response actions should take into consideration the location and size of the fire, its proximity to the District site, and the likelihood that the fire may affect the District.

Incident Command Actions

Before

Review and update the "Recovery" Annex located in your Functional Annex following current State and Federal "Best Practices" guidelines
Locate and participate in CSTI's course, "Recovery From Disasters: The Local Community Role (G-205)
Identify and include your "whole community" in strengthening your Pre-Disaster Recovery framework

During

Call 911 if you see a fire or flames.
Activate and follow your Emergency Operations Plan.
Use your internal Emergency Management Alert System to communicate with staff, students and parents.
Always follow instructions from your local emergency agencies (Fire and Law Enforcement).
If trapped, call 911 and give your location, but be aware that emergency response could be delayed or impossible. Turn of HVAC and natural gas. Turn on lights to help rescuers find you if you have power. Fill sinks and tubs with water and keep windows and doors unlocked.
Ensure you have a representative designated to be in contact with Cal OES (may be specific to your region) and your local EOC
You might consider predesignating a representative to be an active member of the Recovery task force.
If your site is a designated shelter or evacuation point, follow the instructions of the organization or agency that is managing the site (ie: American Red Cross).
Follow the Cal/OSHA Protection from Wildfire Smoke regulation, Title 8, Section 5141.1 for use of N95 respirators. https://www.dir.ca.gov/title8/5141_1.html. and you can find resources on wildfire smoke safety in this Cal/OSHA link. https://www.dir.ca.gov/dosh/Worker-Health-and-Safety-in-Wildfire-Regions.html
Monitor the Air Quality Index (AQI) at www.airnow.gov and enter the zip code of the location where you will be working. The current AQI is also available from the U.S. Forest Service at https://tools.airfire.org/ or a local air district, which can be located at www.arb.ca.gov/capcoa/dismap.htm
Listen to EAS, NOAA Weather Radio, or local alerting systems for current emergency information and instructions.

If you are not ordered to evacuate but smoky conditions exist, stay inside in a safe location or go to a location where smoke levels are lower, if possible.
Avoid vigorous activities outdoors and if travelling in a vehicle in the areas affected, close windows and make sure air is on "re-circulate" mode.

After

Continue to follow your EOP Recovery Annex
Listen to authorities to find out when it is safe to return and whether water is safe to drink.
Avoid hot ash, charred trees, smoldering debris, and live embers. The ground may contain heat pockets that can burn you or spark another fire. Consider the danger to pets and livestock.
Avoid downed power lines.
Send text messages or use social media to reach out to family and friends. Phone systems are often busy following a disaster. Make calls only in emergencies.
For those that are part of the damage assessment team, ensure training on personal protective equipment (PPE) use is conducted.
Continue to monitor the Air Quality Index (AQI) at www.airnow.gov and enter the zip code of the location where you will be working. The current AQI is also available from the U.S. Forest Service at https://tools.airfire.org/ or a local air district, which can be located at www.arb.ca.gov/capcoa/dismap.htm
Contact your insurance company/insurance pool/JPA for assistance.
Document everything you do related to the fire. For more details on this process, refer to the IMReady FEMA document.
Wildfires dramatically change landscape and ground conditions, which can lead to increased risk of flooding due to heavy rains, flash flooding and mudflows. Flood risk remains significantly higher until vegetation is restored — up to 5 years after a wildfire.
Be prepared to provide emotional and wellbeing services and resources for students and staff. Mental and physical fatigue are common in these situations .
https://www.cdc.gov/disasters/wildfires/afterfire.html and https://emergency.cdc.gov/coping/index.asp and www.NCTSN.org.

Any responsible person who observes a fire in the area outside of the District should immediately call 911 and notify the Incident Commander
The Incident Commander will initiate the appropriate Immediate Response Actions, which may include Shelter-in-Place, On-Site Evacuation, or Off-Site Evacuation
The Incident Commander will call 911 (to verify – good redundancy) and provide the location and nature of the incident
The Incident Commander will act to prevent students from approaching the fire and keep routes open for emergency vehicles
The Incident Commander will work with responding emergency personnel to determine if District grounds are threatened by the fire, smoke, or other hazardous conditions
If the Incident Commander issues the On-Site Evacuation procedure, staff and students will evacuate the affected building(s) using pre-designated routes or other safe routes and convene at the Assembly Area
All District staff members must bring their student rosters and take attendance at the Assembly Area to account for all students. Staff will notify the Incident Commander of any missing students
The Incident Commander should monitor local radio stations for emergency information.
The Incident Commander will notify the Senior Executive of the emergency situation
The office of the Senior Executive should work with the Office of Public Information and Communication to disseminate information
If necessary, the Incident Commander will notify the appropriate Transportation official to request transportation for staff and student evacuation
The Incident Commander will initiate Off-Site Evacuation procedures, as described in the Evacuation Annex, if warranted by changes in conditions
• In the event that students need to be released from the District site, refer to the Reunification Annex for reunification procedures

Infectious Disease

Purpose

The purpose of the Infectious Disease annex is to help equip our organization to be ready for the unexpected – before, during, and after an infectious disease outbreak. This annex does note replace the required Injury and Illness Prevention Program (IIPP) or other health and safety orders relevant to California Occupational Safety and Health Administration (Cal OSHA) or California Department of Public Health (CDPH)requirements.

Following are two current and specific requirements:

- COVID-19 Safety Plan (CSP) – The CSP is outlined in the CDPH Guidance and Framework for K-12 schools dated January 14, 2021
- The COVID-19 Prevention Plan (CPP) – The CPP is a requirement of the Cal/OSHA COVID -19 Prevention emergency temporary standard.

Infectious diseases occur, often with little or no warning. Essentials that need to be considered include the following:
EOPs may have to be activated with community partners if there is an infectious disease outbreak;
Rapid evolution and dissemination of information about an infectious disease incident will likely require activation of the Communication Annex;
Extensive absences may cause normal operations to close for days or weeks, calling for the activation of the Continuity of Operations (COOP) Annex;
Depending on the disease, there may potentially be some deaths in the community; and,
If handled poorly, community trust in our organization is likely to be shaken.

Disease Sources

Infectious diseases are illnesses that are transmitted from one person to another through various routes. These infectious diseases can be viral, bacterial, or fungal. Some of the more common infectious diseases that may affect us are:
Gastroenteritis; norovirus; influenza; chicken pox; and hand, foot, and mouth, which are all caused by a viral infection, Bacterial infections that can cause E. Coli, MRSA, and strep throat, and Fungal infections, like ringworm.

Influenza, one of the most common infectious diseases, is a highly contagious viral disease. Pandemic influenza differs from both seasonal influenza (flu) and avian influenza in the following aspects:
It is a rare global outbreak which can affect populations around the world.
It is caused by a new influenza virus to which people do not have immunity
Depending upon the specific virus, it can cause more severe illness than regular flu
Influenza can affect young healthy people more so than older, sick people. The Department of Health and Human Services will take the lead in mobilizing a local response to pandemic influenza. Public health alerts will be reported to our organization and the community. Individual rooms, hallways or, if necessary, entire sites may be closed temporarily to contain spread of the virus.

While influenza is the most common infectious disease there are others that can greatly affect our operations, including reduction in work force size to levels that make it difficult to fulfill organizational or operational mission objectives. The “Historical Information” section of this annex identifies some of the major infectious diseases that have affected us in the near past.

Rate of Spread

Infectious diseases may be categorized according to the rate at which they infect the population. The U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) categorizes the rate at which diseases are spread as a continuum from smallest to largest: case, outbreak, epidemic, and pandemic.

Case
A case is defined as an individual with the disease.

Outbreak
An outbreak is defined as a localized, as opposed to a generalized, epidemic. This term is also used synonymously with epidemic, and is sometimes the preferred word, as it may prevent sensationalism associated with the word epidemic.

Epidemic
An epidemic is defined as the occurrence of more cases of disease than expected in a given area or among a specific group of people over a period.

Pandemic
A pandemic is defined as an epidemic occurring over a very wide area (several countries or continents) and usually affecting a large proportion of the population.

Situation and Assumptions
The World Health Organization (WHO) provides an influenza pandemic alert system, with a scale ranging from Phase 1 (a low risk of a flu pandemic) to Phase 6 (a full-blown pandemic). See Figure 1, below.
Phase 1: A virus in animals has caused no known infections in humans.
Phase 2: An animal flu virus has caused infection in humans.
Phase 3: Sporadic cases or small clusters of disease occur in humans. Human-to-human transmission, if any, is insufficient to cause community-level outbreaks.
Phase 4: The risk for a pandemic is greatly increased but not certain.
Phase 5: Spread of disease between humans is occurring in more than one country of one WHO region.
Phase 6: Community-level outbreaks are in at least one additional country in a different WHO region from phase 5. A global pandemic is under way.

Concept of Operations

We monitor the following levels of activation for our EOP and Emergency Operations Center:

Level 3 (lowest level):

This level implies that, with modest augmentation, the lead agency or program can address the primary needs of the response. In the United States, many small natural disasters or environmental responses fall into this activation level.

Level 2 (intermediate level):

This level implies substantial augmentation is required for the lead agency or program to meet response requirements.

Level 1 (highest level):

This level requires an agency wide response and often includes domestic and international partners. As an example, there have been five Level 1 activations since 2005: Hurricane Katrina (2005), influenza A (H1N1) pandemic (2009–10), Ebola virus disease outbreak (2014–2016), Zika virus outbreak (2016–2017), and Coronavirus Disease 2019 (2019-202?).

Continuity of Operations (Annex Specific)

Important Notice

Occupational Health and Safety standards impose additional requirements on employers to protect employees from airborne infectious diseases like COVID-19 and pathogens transmitted by aerosols. Under section 3203 of California's general industry safety regulations, employers must establish, implement, and maintain an effective Injury and Illness Prevention Program (IIPP) to protect employees from workplace hazards. Employers are required to determine if the infectious disease is a hazard in their workplace. If it is a workplace hazard, then employers must implement infection control measures, including applicable and relevant recommendations from federal, state and local guidelines. It is the employer's responsibility to maintain a current and relevant IIPP.

All staff are to be informed regarding protective actions and/or modifications related to this plan. Messaging and risk communications during an emerging infectious disease or pandemic will be conducted by our Emergency Operations Center. Guidance and instructions on established infection control measures such as social distancing, personnel protective equipment and telework polices are provided by our Emergency Operations Center to assist in limiting the spread of influenza at the primary and alternate worksites.

Within the workplace, social distancing measures could take the form of:

Modifying the frequency and type of face-to-face employee encounters (e.g., placing moratoriums on hand-shaking, substituting teleconferences for face-to-face meetings, staggering breaks, posting infection control guidelines);
Establishing flexible work hours or worksite, (e.g., telecommuting);
Promoting social distancing between employees and those with whom they interact to maintain six-feet spatial separation between individuals; and
Implementing strategies that request and enable employees with influenza to stay home at the first sign of symptoms.

Frequent, daily contact is important to keep our employees informed about developments in our response, impacts on the workforce, and to reassure employees that we are continuing to function as usual.
When necessary, our planners and pandemic response teams will include deliberate methods to measure, monitor, and adjust actions to changing conditions and improved protection strategies.

Implement a formal worker and workplace protection strategy with metrics for assessing worker conformance and workplace cleanliness.
Monitor and periodically test protection methods.
Track and implement changes in approved or recommended protection measures.
Pre-position material and equipment onsite.
Ensure essential personnel are at the primary worksite.
Reaffirm that essential suppliers have their material and personnel on-hand and can respond, and support as planned.
Coordinate with local public health and emergency response points of contact to ensure open, adequate communications.

Organization and Assignment of Responsibilities

We utilize the Standardized Emergency Management System (SEMS) which incorporates the Incident Command System (ICS) as the method of managing a crisis or event until operations return to “normal.” This includes activation, when necessary, of incident command posts and the activation of our EOC.

Plan Development

During the health crisis it is vital that we capture lessons learned and alternative practices to our operations as they occur
Maintain a central depository for this information to use it following the crisis to update this annex and our EOP in general
It is our intent to review our EOP and annexes at least annually and update as necessary to maintain a best-practices EOP
We will share this annex periodically with our Health partners to ensure it has captured the most current trends and practices

Authorities and References

In the United States, the responsibility for public health rests primarily with city or county and state public health agencies. All states and many large counties and cities have their own public health departments. Although many public health investigations are conducted with local resources, a city, county, or state health department can request field

epidemiologic or laboratory assistance from the next higher-level public health agency in response to a large or complex outbreak or problem that requires additional staff, expertise, or other resources.

In the United States, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) is the highest-level public health agency. Federal prisons, military bases, and tribal reservations have their own independent health systems but also can request assistance from CDC. Globally, countries can request assistance for field investigations from the World Health Organization, which coordinates with its members for needed resources. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (cdc.gov) contains the most current and relevant information on specific exposures and the appropriate practices and protocols.

Incident Command Actions

Before

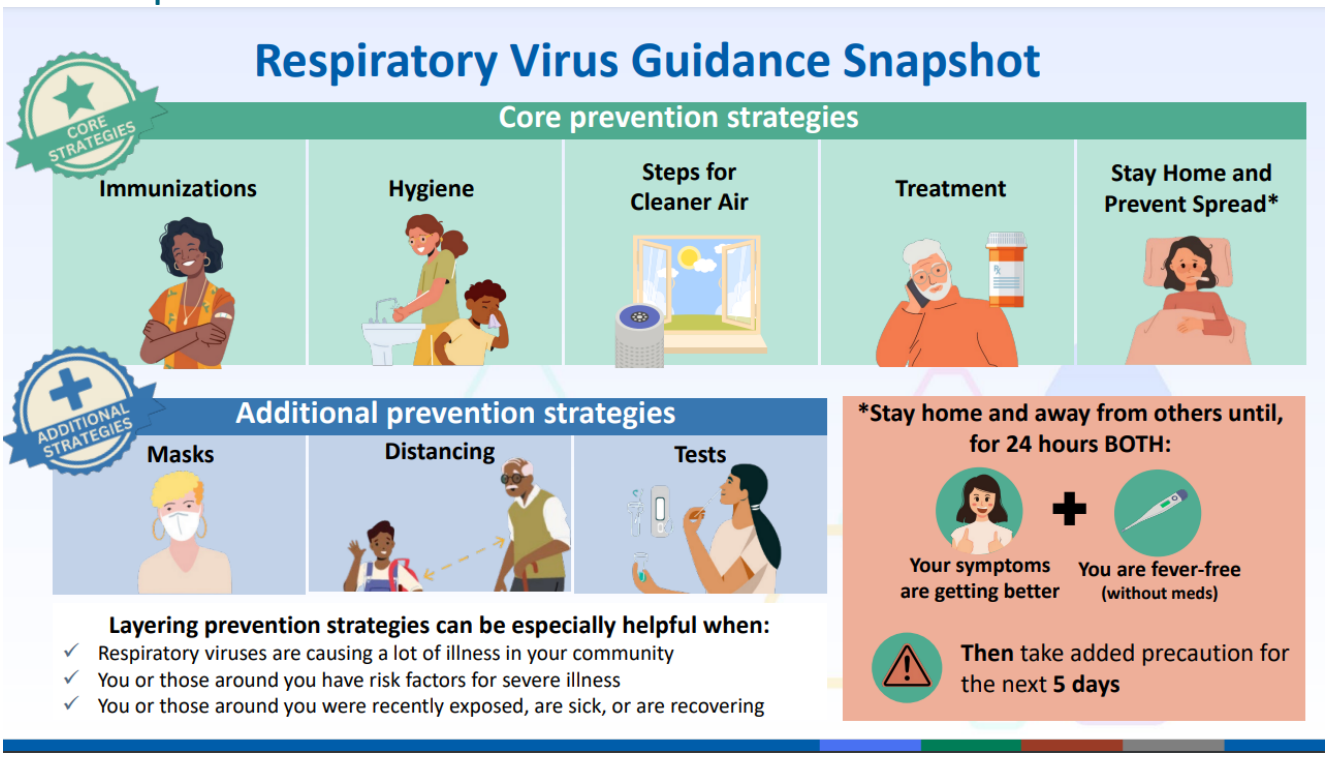
One of the best things to do prior to an infectious disease incident is to identify, collect, and maintain current and relevant contact information of organizations and agencies that will be important to our ongoing operations. These should include local, state, and federal public health jurisdictions such as:
Your local health department contact
(Searchable database https://www.naccho.org/membership/lhd-directory)
California Department of Public Health – https://www.cdph.ca.gov/
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) - https://www.cdc.gov/

Building and maintaining relationships with local health officials cannot be over emphasized. This effort before an infectious disease outbreak will prove invaluable as we seek support and guidance in maintaining, shutting down, and resuming operations.

In addition to this practice it is important to identify and document operational norms and standards that you maintain on an ongoing basis. These records will greatly help you resume operations following a major infectious disease event.

During

We activate our Emergency Operations Plan at a level sufficient to stay ahead of issues as much as possible including the activation of:
Communication annex
Continuity of Operations Plan (COOP) annex



Additional actions include:
Maintain contact with our local Health Department and coordinate our actions based upon their recommendations
Collect preventive informational flyers and documents and disseminate to staff and/or students, as relevant
Activate heightened surveillance of illness within our sites. Gather data on symptoms of all students and/or staff who are sick at home.
Insure those who are ill stay home
Send the sick home immediately
Provide fact sheets and guidelines for families to make them aware of symptoms and remind them of respiratory hygiene etiquette
Monitor bulletins and alerts from the Department of Health and Human Services
Keep staff and students informed of developing issues
Assist the Department of Health and Human Services in monitoring outbreaks
Respond to media inquiries regarding organization attendance status
Implement telework procedures, if necessary, so that staff can stay home

Maintain surveillance after the initial epidemic in the event a second wave passes through the community

After

As with any major crisis or incident the major goal of our institution is to get things back to “normal.” This means restoration of our primary operations back to pre-incident or event levels. This is most effectively accomplished when there are accurate and well-maintained records and practices in place that help us on this recovery journey. Following are key concepts and actions that should be considered in getting back to “normal.”

COVID-19 Specific Guidance

Power and Utility Failure

Extended power outages may impact the whole community and the economy. A power outage is when the electrical power goes out unexpectedly. A power outage may:
Disrupt communications, water, and transportation
Close retail businesses, grocery stores, gas stations, ATMs, banks, and other services
Cause food spoilage and water contamination
Prevent use of medical devices

Protect Students And Staff During A Power Outage

Keep freezers and refrigerators closed
Only use generators outdoors and away from windows or air intakes
Do not use gas appliances for heating
Disconnect appliances and electronics to avoid damage from electrical surges
Have alternate plans for refrigerating medicines or using power-dependent medical devices
If safe, go to an alternate location for heat or cooling

Electrical Systems

The M&O Department should identify the location of all electrical main and subpanels throughout the site
Use a clean and clear site map of each site and label the map “Electrical Systems Field Operations Guide” (known as the Electrical Systems FOG)
Indicate the locations of the main electrical shut-off and each sub-panel main shut-off in the Electrical Systems FOG
Include a photo of each panel and label the photos corresponding to the panel numbers
If panels do not have a numeric identifier, consider adding that at all panel locations
Label the site main and subpanel main shut-off for each panel so as to minimize confusion
Laminate or plastic-protect the Electrical Systems FOG and provide to designated and trained employee(s) who will be responsible for emergency shutdown and restoration following an electrical failure

Backup Supplies and Other Resources

Identify all of the items needed that rely on electricity
Identify and have emergency plans for students or staff relying upon medical devices powered by electricity and refrigerated medicines
Find out how long medication can be stored at higher temperatures and get specific guidance for any medications that are critical for life
Plan for batteries and other alternatives to meet our needs when the power goes out
Sign up for local alerts and warning systems. Monitor weather reports
Ensure that any carbon monoxide detectors are in working order and that battery backups are available
Determine whether the phone system will work in a power outage and how long battery backup will last
Review the supplies that are available in case of a power outage
Have flashlights with extra batteries available for individual rooms or offices without exterior light sources
Maintain an inventory of nonperishable food and water
Regularly check the thermometer in the refrigerator and freezer so that we can know the temperature when the power is restored. Throw out food if the temperature is 40 degrees or higher
Keep mobile phones and other electric equipment charged and gas tanks full

Survive During

When power goes out, a trained and responsible employee should:
Keep freezers and refrigerators closed. The refrigerator will keep food cold for about four hours. A full freezer will keep the temperature for about 48 hours. Use coolers with ice if necessary. Monitor temperatures with a thermometer.
Maintain food supplies that do not require refrigeration
Avoid carbon monoxide poisoning. Generators and any fuel or gas-powered devices should always be used outdoors and at least 20 feet away from windows
Turn off or disconnect all appliances, equipment, or electronics. Power may return with momentary “surges” or “spikes” that can cause damage

Power Restoration

When in doubt, throw it out! Throw away any food that has been exposed to temperatures 40 degrees or higher for two hours or more, or that has an unusual odor, color, or texture
If the power is out for more than a day, discard any medication that should be refrigerated, unless the drug’s label says otherwise. If a life depends on the refrigerated drugs, consult a doctor or pharmacist and use medicine only until a new supply is available

Purpose

The State of California is vulnerable to a variety of severe weather hazards. This incident annex addresses the hazards associated with severe weather. When severe weather occurs, the impacts can be devastating and may affect isolated locations or multiple jurisdictions simultaneously.

When the impacts exceed the capabilities of local jurisdictions, the State must respond in a prompt, organized, and efficient manner to save lives, mitigate property damage, and restore a sense of normalcy to the community. This response is coordinated through the Governor's Office of Emergency Services (OES) in concert with local, state, Federal, volunteer, and private sector partners.

Situation and Assumptions

El Niño

During El Niño, trade winds weaken. Warm water is pushed back east, toward the west coast of the Americas. El Niño means Little Boy in Spanish. South American fishermen first noticed periods of unusually warm water in the Pacific Ocean in the 1600s. The full name they used was El Niño de Navidad because El Niño typically peaks around December.

El Niño can affect our weather significantly. The warmer waters cause the Pacific jet stream to move south of its neutral position. With this shift, areas in the northern U.S. and Canada are dryer and warmer than usual. But in the U.S. Gulf Coast and Southeast, these periods are wetter than usual and have increased flooding.

Hail

Hail is considered severe when it reaches 1 inch in diameter. Hail can reach sizes much larger than the severe threshold size. Hail causes close to $1 billion in damage to property and crops each year in the U.S. While property is typically at greatest risk for hail damage, the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) estimate that 24 people are injured from hail each year.

Thunderstorms

The National Weather Service (NWS) defines a severe thunderstorm as any storm that produces one or more of the following: a tornado, damaging wind speeds of 58 mph (50 knots) or greater, and/or hail 1 inch in diameter or larger.

Continuity of Operations (Annex Specific)

The goal of emergency management is to restore operations of any organization back to its primary purpose, or "normal." In some cases, restoration of operations may have to be a new normal.

Organization and Assignment of Responsibilities

This organization follows SEMS/NIMS requirements, specifically incorporating the Incident Command System into emergency and incident operations.

Plan Development

This annex was selected for inclusion in this Emergency Operations Plan (EOP) following best practices Hazard/Threat Analysis and is reviewed annually for currency and applicability.
Severe weather-related hazards can occur at any time throughout the year

Local jurisdictions adversely affected by severe weather may declare local State of Emergency upon being affected
Local jurisdictions adversely affected by severe weather may use mutual aid agreements as part of their response to the disaster
Local jurisdictions affected by severe weather may request resources from the State as the situation evolves

(Penal Code 11165.7)

Reasonable suspicion means that it is objectively reasonable for a person to entertain a suspicion, based upon facts that could cause a reasonable person in a like position, drawing when appropriate on the person's training and experience, to suspect child abuse or neglect. However, reasonable suspicion does not require certainty that child abuse or neglect has occurred nor does it require a specific medical indication of child abuse or neglect. (Penal Code 11166)

Reportable Offenses

Using the procedures provided below, a mandated reporter shall make a report whenever the mandated reporter, while acting in a professional capacity or within the scope of employment, has knowledge of or observes a child whom the mandated reporter knows or reasonably suspects has been the victim of child abuse or neglect. (Penal Code 11166)

Any mandated reporter who has knowledge of or who reasonably suspects that a child is suffering serious emotional damage or is at a substantial risk of suffering serious emotional damage, based on evidence of severe anxiety, depression, withdrawal, or untoward aggressive behavior toward self or others, may make a report to the appropriate agency. (Penal Code 11165.9, 11166.05, 11167)

Any district employee who reasonably believes to have observed the commission of a murder, rape, or lewd or lascivious act by use of force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury against a victim who is a child under 14 years of age shall notify a peace officer. (Penal Code 152.3)

The fact that a child is experiencing homelessness or is classified as an unaccompanied minor, as defined in the federal McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act (42 USC 11434a), is not, in and of itself, a sufficient basis for reporting child abuse or neglect. (Penal Code 11165.15)

Responsibility for Reporting

The reporting duties of mandated reporters are individual and cannot be delegated to another person. (Penal Code 11166)

When two or more mandated reporters jointly have knowledge of a known or suspected instance of child abuse or neglect, the report may be made by a member of the team selected by mutual agreement and a single report may be made and signed by the selected member of the reporting team. Any member who has knowledge that the member designated to report has failed to do so shall thereafter make the report. (Penal Code 11166)

No supervisor or administrator shall impede or inhibit a mandated reporter from making a report. (Penal Code 11166)

Any person not identified as a mandated reporter who has knowledge of or observes a child whom the person knows or reasonably suspects has been a victim of child abuse or neglect may report the known or suspected instance of child abuse or neglect to the appropriate agency. (Penal Code 11166)

Reporting Procedures
Initial Telephone Report

Immediately or as soon as practicable after knowing or observing suspected child abuse or neglect, a mandated reporter shall make an initial report by telephone to any police department (excluding a district police/security department), sheriff's department, county probation department if designated by the county to receive such reports, or county welfare department. (Penal Code 11165.9, 11166)

Such reports shall be made to the following agency(ies):

Child Welfare Services - 2440 Sixth Street, Eureka, CA 95501 / Telepone: 707-445-6180

When the initial telephone report is made, the mandated reporter shall note the name of the official contacted, the date and time contacted, and any instructions or advice received.

Written Report

Within 36 hours of knowing or observing the information concerning the incident, the mandated reporter shall prepare and either send, fax, or electronically transmit to the appropriate agency a written follow-up report, which includes a completed California Department of Justice (DOJ) form (BCIA 8572). (Penal Code 11166, 11168)

The DOJ form may be obtained from the district office or other appropriate agencies, such as the police department, sheriff's department, or county probation or welfare department.

Reports of suspected child abuse or neglect shall include, if known: (Penal Code 11167)

The name, business address, and telephone number of the person making the report and the capacity that makes the person a mandated reporter

The child's name and address, present location, and, where applicable, school, grade, and class

The names, addresses, and telephone numbers of the child's parents/guardians

The name, address, telephone number, and other relevant personal information about the person(s) who might have abused or neglected the child

The information that gave rise to the reasonable suspicion of child abuse or neglect and the source(s) of that information
The mandated reporter shall make a report even if some of this information is not known or is uncertain to the mandated reporter. (Penal Code 11167)

The mandated reporter may give to an investigator from an agency investigating the case, including a licensing agency, any information relevant to an incident of child abuse or neglect or to a report made for serious emotional damage pursuant to Penal Code 11166.05. (Penal Code 11167)

3. Internal Reporting

The mandated reporter shall not be required to disclose the mandated reporter's identity to a supervisor, the principal, or the Superintendent or designee. (Penal Code 11166)

However, employees reporting child abuse or neglect to an appropriate agency are encouraged, but not required, to notify the principal as soon as possible after the initial telephone report to the appropriate agency. When so notified, the principal shall inform the Superintendent or designee.

The principal so notified shall provide the mandated reporter with any assistance necessary to ensure that reporting procedures are carried out in accordance with law, Board policy, and administrative regulation. At the mandated reporter's request, the principal may assist in completing and filing the necessary forms.

Reporting the information to an employer, supervisor, principal, school counselor, co-worker, or other person shall not be a substitute for making a mandated report to the appropriate agency. (Penal Code 11166)

Training

Within the first six weeks of each school year, or within the first six weeks of employment if hired during the school year, the Superintendent or designee shall provide training on mandated reporting requirements to district employees and persons working on their behalf who are mandated reporters. (Education Code 44691; Penal Code 11165.7)

The Superintendent or designee shall use the online training module provided by the California Department of Social Services (CDSS). (Education Code 44691)

The training shall include, but not necessarily be limited to, training in identification and reporting of child abuse and neglect. Additionally, the training shall include information that failure to report an incident of known or reasonably suspected child abuse or neglect as required by law is a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment and/or a fine as specified. (Education Code 44691; Penal Code 11165.7)

In addition, the Superintendent or designee shall provide annual training on the prevention of abuse, including sexual abuse, of children on district property, by district staff, or in district-sponsored programs. (Education Code 44691)

The Superintendent or designee shall obtain and retain proof of each mandated reporter's completion of the training. (Education Code 44691)

Victim Interviews by Social Services

Whenever CDSS or another government agency is investigating suspected child abuse or neglect that occurred within the child's home or out-of-home care facility, the student may be interviewed by an agency representative during school hours, on school premises. The Superintendent or designee shall give the student the choice of being interviewed in private or in the presence of any adult school employee or volunteer aide selected by the student. (Penal Code 11174.3)

A staff member or volunteer aide selected by a child may decline to be present at the interview. If the selected person accepts, the principal or designee shall inform the person of the following requirements prior to the interview: (Penal Code 11174.3)
The purpose of the selected person's presence at the interview is to lend support to the child and enable the child to be as comfortable as possible

The selected person shall not participate in the interview

The selected person shall not discuss the facts or circumstances of the case with the child

The selected person is subject to the confidentiality requirements of the Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act, a violation of which is punishable as specified in Penal Code 11167.5
If a staff member agrees to be present, the interview shall be held at a time during school hours when it does not involve an expense to the school. (Penal Code 11174.3)

Release of Child to Peace Officer

When a child is released to a peace officer and taken into custody as a victim of suspected child abuse or neglect, the Superintendent or designee and/or principal shall not notify the parent/guardian, but rather shall provide the peace officer with the address and telephone number of the child's parent/guardian. (Education Code 48906)

Parent/Guardian Complaints

Upon request, the Superintendent or designee shall provide parents/guardians with procedures for reporting suspected child abuse occurring on district property to appropriate agencies. For parents/guardians whose primary language is not English, such procedures shall be in their primary language and, when communicating orally regarding those guidelines and/or procedures, an interpreter shall be provided.

To file a complaint against a district employee or other person suspected of child abuse or neglect on district property, parents/guardians may file a report by telephone, in person, or in writing with any appropriate agency identified above under "Reporting Procedures." If a parent/guardian makes a complaint about an employee to any other employee, the employee receiving the information shall notify the parent/guardian of procedures for filing a complaint with the appropriate agency. The employee shall also file a report when obligated to do so pursuant to Penal Code 11166 using the procedures described above for mandated reporters.

In addition, if the child is enrolled in special education, a separate complaint may be filed with the California Department of Education pursuant to 5 CCR 3200-3205.

Notifications

The Superintendent or designee shall provide to all new employees who are mandated reporters a statement that informs them of their status as mandated reporters, their reporting obligations under Penal Code 11166, and their confidentiality rights under Penal Code 11167. Additionally, the district shall provide these new employees with a copy of Penal Code 11165.7, 11166, and 11167. (Penal Code 11165.7, 11166.5)

Before beginning employment, any person who will be a mandated reporter by virtue of the person's position shall sign a statement indicating knowledge of the reporting obligations under Penal Code 11166 and compliance with such provisions. The signed statement shall be retained by the Superintendent or designee. (Penal Code 11166.5)

Employees who work with dependent adults shall be notified of legal responsibilities and reporting procedures pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code 15630-15637.

The Superintendent or designee also shall notify all employees that:
A mandated reporter who reports a known or suspected instance of child abuse or neglect shall not be held civilly or criminally liable for making a report and this immunity shall apply even if the mandated reporter acquired the knowledge or reasonable suspicion of child abuse or neglect outside of the mandated reporter's professional capacity or outside the scope of employment (Penal Code 11172)

Any other person making a report shall not incur civil or criminal liability unless it can be proven that the person knowingly made a false report or made a report with reckless disregard of the truth or falsity of the report. (Penal Code 11172)

If a mandated reporter fails to timely report an incident of known or reasonably suspected child abuse or neglect, the mandated reporter may be guilty of a crime punishable by a fine and/or imprisonment (Penal Code 11166)
No employee shall be subject to any sanction by the district for making a report unless it can be shown that the employee knowingly made a false report or made a report with reckless disregard of the truth or falsity of the report. (Penal Code 11166, 11172)

Discipline – BP/AR 5144

Original Adopted Date: 05/21/2019 | Last Revised Date: 09/12/2024 | Last Reviewed Date: 09/12/2024Status: ADOPTED

The Governing Board is committed to providing a safe, supportive, and positive school environment which is conducive to student learning and achievement and desires to prepare students for responsible citizenship by fostering self-discipline and personal responsibility. The Board believes that high expectations for student behavior, use of effective school and classroom management strategies, provision of appropriate intervention and support, and parent/guardian involvement can minimize the need for disciplinary measures that exclude students from instruction as a means for correcting student misbehavior.

The Superintendent or designee shall develop effective, age-appropriate strategies for maintaining a positive school climate and responding appropriately to student misbehavior at district schools. The strategies shall focus on providing students with needed supports; communicating clear, appropriate, and consistent expectations and consequences for student conduct; and ensuring equity and continuous improvement in the implementation of district discipline policies and practices.

In addition, the Superintendent or designee's strategies for responding to student misconduct shall reflect the Board's preference for the use of positive interventions and alternative disciplinary measures over exclusionary discipline measures.

Disciplinary measures that may result in loss of instructional time or cause students to be disengaged from school, such as detention, suspension, and expulsion, shall be imposed only when required or permitted by law or when other means of correction have been documented to have failed. (Education Code 48900.5)

School personnel and volunteers shall not allow any disciplinary action taken against a student to result in the denial or delay of a school meal. (Education Code 49557.5)

A student shall not be denied recess unless the student's participation poses an immediate threat to the physical safety of the student or to the physical safety of one or more of the student's peers. If, due to such immediate threat, a student is denied recess, staff shall make all reasonable efforts to resolve the threat and minimize the student's exclusion from recess, to the greatest extent practicable. (Education Code 49056)

Seclusion and behavioral restraint are prohibited as a means of discipline and shall not be used to correct student behavior except as permitted pursuant to Education Code 49005.4 and in accordance with district regulations. (Education Code 49005.2)

The Superintendent or designee shall create a model discipline matrix that lists violations and the consequences for each as allowed by law.

The principal or designee at each school may develop disciplinary rules to meet the school's particular needs consistent with law, Board policy, and administrative regulations. The Board, at an open meeting, may review the approved school discipline rules for consistency with Board policy and state law. Site-level disciplinary rules shall be included in the district's comprehensive safety plan. (Education Code 32282, 35291.5)

At all times, the safety of students and staff, providing interventions and supports to students, as well as the maintenance of an orderly school environment, shall be priorities in determining appropriate discipline. When misconduct occurs, staff shall attempt to identify the causes of the student's behavior and implement appropriate support and/or discipline. When choosing between different disciplinary strategies, staff shall consider the effect of each option on the student's health, well-being, and opportunity to learn.

Staff shall enforce disciplinary rules fairly, consistently, and in accordance with the district's nondiscrimination policies.

The Superintendent or designee shall provide professional development as necessary to assist staff in developing the skills needed to effectively and equitably implement the disciplinary strategies adopted for district schools, including, but not limited to, knowledge of school and classroom management skills and their consistent application, effective accountability and positive intervention techniques, and the tools to form strong, cooperative relationships with parents/guardians.

District goals for improving school climate, based on suspension and expulsion rates, surveys of students, staff, and parents/guardians regarding their sense of school safety and connectedness to the school community, and other local measures, shall be included in the district's local control and accountability plan, as required by law.

At the beginning of each school year, the Superintendent or designee may report to the Board regarding disciplinary strategies used in district schools in the immediately preceding school year and their effect on student learning.

Site-Level Rules

Site-level rules shall be consistent with state law and Board policies and administrative regulations. In developing site-level disciplinary rules, the principal or designee shall solicit the participation, views, and advice of one representative selected by each of the following groups: (Education Code 35291.5)
Parents/guardians

Teachers

School administrators

School security personnel, if any

Students in grades seven through twelve
Annually, site-level discipline rules shall be reviewed and, if necessary, updated to align with any changes in state law, district discipline policies and regulations, and/or goals for school safety and climate as specified in the district's local control and accountability plan. A copy of the rules shall be filed with the Superintendent or designee for inclusion in the comprehensive safety plan.

School rules shall be communicated to students clearly and in an age-appropriate manner.

It shall be the duty of each employee of the school to enforce the school rules on student discipline. (Education Code 35291.5)

Disciplinary Strategies

To the extent possible, staff shall use disciplinary strategies that keep students in school and participating in the instructional program. Except when students' presence causes a danger to themselves or others or they commit a single act of a grave nature or an offense for which suspension or expulsion is required by law, suspension, supervised suspension, or expulsion shall be used only when other means of correction have failed to bring about proper conduct. Disciplinary strategies may include, but are not limited to:
Discussion or conference between school staff, the student, and the student's parents/guardians

Referral of the student to the school counselor or other school support service personnel for case management and counseling

Convening of a study team, guidance team, resource panel, or other intervention-related team to assess the behavior and develop and implement an individual plan to address the behavior in partnership with the student and the student's parents/guardians

When applicable, referral for a comprehensive psychosocial or psychoeducational assessment, including for purposes of creating an individualized education program (IEP) or a Section 504 plan

Enrollment in a program for teaching prosocial behavior or anger management

Participation in a restorative justice program

A positive behavior support approach with tiered interventions that occur during the school day on campus

Participation in a social and emotional learning program that teaches students the ability to understand and manage emotions, develop caring and concern for others, make responsible decisions, establish positive relationships, and handle challenging situations capably

Participation in a program that is sensitive to the traumas experienced by students, focuses on students' behavioral health needs, and addresses those needs in a proactive manner

After-school programs that address specific behavioral issues or expose students to positive activities and behaviors, including, but not limited to, those operated in collaboration with local parent and community groups

Detention after school hours as provided in the section below entitled "Detention After School"

Community service as provided in the section below entitled "Community Service"

In accordance with Board policy and administrative regulation, restriction or disqualification from participation in extracurricular activities

Reassignment to an alternative educational environment

Suspension and expulsion in accordance with law, Board policy, and administrative regulation
When, by law or district policy, other means of correction are required to be implemented before a student could be suspended or expelled, any other means of correction implemented shall be documented and retained in the student's records. (Education Code 48900.5)

When a student has been suspended, or other means of correction have been implemented against the student, for an incident of racist bullying, harassment, or intimidation, the principal or designee shall engage both the victim and perpetrator in a restorative justice practice suitable to the needs of the students. The principal or designee shall also require the perpetrator to engage in a culturally sensitive program that promotes racial justice and equity and combats racism and ignorance and shall regularly check on the victim to ensure that the victim is not in danger of suffering from any long-lasting mental health issues. (Education Code 48900.5)

Staff shall enforce disciplinary rules fairly, consistently, and in accordance with the district's nondiscrimination policies.

When disciplining a student who has been identified for special education and related services, the procedures specified in Administrative Regulation 5144.2 - Suspension And Expulsion/Due Process (Students With Disabilities) shall be applied. If a student has not been identified as a student with a disability and the district suspects the behavior that resulted in discipline may be based in an unidentified disability, the district shall conduct an evaluation to determine if the student has a disability which requires an IEP or 504 plan. (U.S.C. 1412(a)(3))

Detention After School

Students may be detained for disciplinary reasons for up to one hour after the close of the maximum school day, or until the departure of the school bus to which they have been assigned if applicable. (5 CCR 307, 353)

The student shall not be detained unless the principal or designee notifies the parent/guardian.

Students shall remain under the supervision of a certificated employee during the period of detention.

Students may be offered the choice of serving their detention on Saturday rather than after school.

Community Service

As part of or instead of disciplinary action, the Board, Superintendent, principal, or principal's designee may require a student to perform community service during nonschool hours on school grounds or, with written permission of the student's parent/guardian, off school grounds. Such service may include, but is not limited to, community or school outdoor beautification, community or campus betterment, and teacher, peer, or youth assistance programs. (Education Code 48900.6)

This community service option is not available for a student who has been suspended, pending expulsion, pursuant to Education Code 48915. However, if the recommended expulsion is not implemented or the expulsion itself is suspended, then the student may be required to perform community service for the resulting suspension. (Education Code 48900.6)

Notice to Parents/Guardians and Students

At the beginning of the school year, the Superintendent or designee shall notify parents/guardians, in writing, about the availability of district rules related to discipline. (Education Code 35291, 48980)

The Superintendent or designee shall also provide written notice of disciplinary rules to parents/guardians of transfer students at the time of their enrollment in the district.

Dress Code – BP/AR 5132

Original Adopted Date: 09/13/2000 | Last Revised Date: 02/27/2020 | Last Reviewed Date: 02/27/2020

In cooperation with teachers, students, and parents/guardians, the principal or designee may establish school rules governing student dress and grooming which are consistent with law, Board policy, and administrative regulations. These school dress codes shall be regularly reviewed.

The following guidelines shall apply to all regular school activities:

Dress Code
Students must wear a shirt with pants or skirt, or the equivalent, and shoes.

Shirts and dresses must have fabric on the front and the sides.

The fabric covering the buttocks, genitals, and breasts must not be transparent (see-through).

Hats and other headwear must allow the face to be visible and not interfere with the line of sight of any student or staff. Hoodies must allow the student's face and ears to be visible to staff. No sunglasses may be worn indoors.

Clothing must be suitable for all scheduled classroom activities, including physical education, science labs, wood shop, and other activities where unique hazards exist. Specialized courses may require specialized attire, such as sports uniforms or safety gear.

Shoes must be worn at all times. Flip-flops, socks or sock-like footwear, slippers, backless shoes, or shoes with over a one-inch heel are not safe or appropriate for school. Toes must be covered.

Clothing may not depict, advertise or advocate the use of alcohol (excluding Humboldt County restaurants/family establishments), tobacco, or drugs.

Clothing may not reference genitals nor depict profanity, pornography, nudity, vulgarity, or sexual acts.

Clothing may not use or depict hate speech targeting any individual or group based on economics, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, intelligence, race, religious affiliation, sexual orientation, or any other protected group.

Clothing must not threaten the health or safety of any student or staff.

Clothing may not depict or advocate violence, criminal activity, race superiority, or hate speech.

Any attire identified as gang-related by local law enforcement is not allowed.

The dress code shall be modified as appropriate to accommodate a student's religious or cultural observance, health condition, or other circumstance deemed necessary by the principal or designee. In addition, the principal or designee may impose dress requirements to accommodate the needs of special school activities, physical education classes, athletic activities, and other extracurricular and cocurricular activities.

No grade of a student participating in a physical education class shall be adversely affected if the student does not wear standardized physical education apparel because of circumstances beyond the student's control. (Education Code 49066)

Students shall be allowed to wear sun-protective clothing, including but not limited to hats, for outdoor use during the school day. (Education Code 35183.5)

Gang-Related Apparel

At individual schools that have a dress code prohibiting gang-related apparel at school or school activities, the principal, staff, and parents/guardians participating in the development of the school safety plan shall define "gang-related apparel" and shall limit this definition to apparel that reasonably could be determined to threaten the health and safety of the school environment if it were worn or displayed on a school campus. (Education Code 32282)

Because gang-related symbols are constantly changing, definitions of gang-related apparel shall be reviewed annually and updated whenever related information is received. As necessary, the school shall collaborate with law enforcement agencies to update definitions of gang-related apparel.

In cooperation with teachers, students, and parents/guardians, the principal or designee may establish school rules governing student dress and grooming which are consistent with law, Board policy, and administrative regulations. These school dress codes shall be regularly reviewed.

The following guidelines shall apply to all regular school activities:

Dress Code
Students must wear a shirt with pants or skirt, or the equivalent, and shoes.

Shirts and dresses must have fabric on the front and the sides.

The fabric covering the buttocks, genitals, and breasts must not be transparent (see-through).

Hats and other headwear must allow the face to be visible and not interfere with the line of sight of any student or staff. Hoodies must allow the student's face and ears to be visible to staff. No sunglasses may be worn indoors.

Clothing must be suitable for all scheduled classroom activities, including physical education, science labs, wood shop, and other activities where unique hazards exist. Specialized courses may require specialized attire, such as sports uniforms or safety gear.

Shoes must be worn at all times. Flip-flops, socks or sock-like footwear, slippers, backless shoes, or shoes with over a one-inch heel are not safe or appropriate for school. Toes must be covered.

Clothing may not depict, advertise or advocate the use of alcohol (excluding Humboldt County restaurants/family establishments), tobacco, or drugs.

Clothing may not reference genitals nor depict profanity, pornography, nudity, vulgarity, or sexual acts.

Clothing may not use or depict hate speech targeting any individual or group based on economics, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, intelligence, race, religious affiliation, sexual orientation, or any other protected group.

Clothing must not threaten the health or safety of any student or staff.

Clothing may not depict or advocate violence, criminal activity, race superiority, or hate speech.

Any attire identified as gang-related by local law enforcement is not allowed.
The dress code shall be modified as appropriate to accommodate a student's religious or cultural observance, health condition, or other circumstance deemed necessary by the principal or designee. In addition, the principal or designee may impose dress requirements to accommodate the needs of special school activities, physical education classes, athletic activities, and other extracurricular and cocurricular activities.

No grade of a student participating in a physical education class shall be adversely affected if the student does not wear standardized physical education apparel because of circumstances beyond the student's control. (Education Code 49066)

Students shall be allowed to wear sun-protective clothing, including but not limited to hats, for outdoor use during the school day. (Education Code 35183.5)

Gang-Related Apparel

At individual schools that have a dress code prohibiting gang-related apparel at school or school activities, the principal, staff, and parents/guardians participating in the development of the school safety plan shall define "gang-related apparel" and shall limit this definition to apparel that reasonably could be determined to threaten the health and safety of the school environment if it were worn or displayed on a school campus. (Education Code 32282)

Because gang-related symbols are constantly changing, definitions of gang-related apparel shall be reviewed annually and updated whenever related information is received. As necessary, the school shall collaborate with law enforcement agencies to update definitions of gang-related apparel.

Original Adopted Date: 10/22/2018 | Last Revised Date: 06/27/2024 | Last Reviewed Date: 06/27/2024Status: ADOPTED

This policy shall apply to all acts constituting bullying related to school activity or to school attendance occurring within a district school, to acts which occur off campus or outside of school-related or school-sponsored activities but which may have an impact or create a hostile environment at school, and to all acts of the Governing Board and the Superintendent in enacting policies and procedures that govern the district.

The Board recognizes the harmful effects of bullying on student well-being, student learning, and school attendance and desires to provide a welcoming, safe, and supportive school environment that protects students from physical, mental, and emotional harm. No individual or group shall, through physical, written, verbal, visual, or other means, harass, sexually harass, threaten, intimidate, cyberbully, cause bodily injury to, or commit hate violence against any student or school personnel, or retaliate against them for filing a complaint or participating in the complaint resolution process.

The Superintendent or designee shall develop strategies for addressing bullying in district schools with the involvement of students, parents/guardians, and staff. As appropriate, the Superintendent or designee may also collaborate with social services, mental health services, law enforcement, courts, and other agencies and community organizations in the development and implementation of effective strategies to promote safety in schools and the community.

Such strategies shall be incorporated into the comprehensive safety plan and, to the extent possible, into the local control and accountability plan and other applicable district and school plans.

Any complaint of bullying shall be investigated and, if determined to be discriminatory, resolved in accordance with law and the district's uniform complaint procedures specified in Administrative Regulation 1312.3. If, during the investigation, it is determined that a complaint is about nondiscriminatory bullying, the principal or designee shall inform the complainant and shall take all necessary actions to resolve the complaint.

If the Superintendent or designee believes it is in the best interest of a student who has been the victim of an act of bullying, as defined in Education Code 48900, the Superintendent or designee shall advise the student's parents/guardians that the student may transfer to another school. If the parents/guardians of a student who has been the victim of an act of bullying requests a transfer for the student pursuant to Education Code 46600, the Superintendent or designee shall allow the transfer in accordance with law and district policy on intradistrict or interdistrict transfer, as applicable.

District families are encouraged to model respectful behavior, contribute to a safe and supportive learning environment, and monitor potential causes of bullying.

Any employee who permits or engages in bullying or retaliation related to bullying shall be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal.

Examples of Prohibited Conduct
Bullying is an aggressive behavior that involves a real or perceived imbalance of power between individuals with the intent to cause emotional or physical harm. Bullying can be physical, verbal, or social/relational and may involve a single severe act or repetition or potential repetition of a deliberate act. Bullying includes, but is not limited to, any act described in Education Code 48900(r).

Cyberbullying includes the electronic creation or transmission of harassing communications, direct threats, or other harmful texts, sounds, or images, which may be shared, sent, or posted publicly. Cyberbullying may include, but is not limited to, personal or private information that causes humiliation, false or negative information to discredit or disparage, or threats of physical harm. Cyberbullying may also include breaking into another person's electronic account or assuming that person's online identity in order to damage that person's reputation.

Examples of the types of conduct that may constitute bullying and are prohibited by the district include, but are not limited to:
Physical bullying: An act that inflicts harm upon a person's body or possessions, such as hitting, kicking, pinching, spitting, tripping, pushing, taking or breaking someone's possessions, or making cruel or rude hand gestures

Verbal bullying: An act that includes saying or writing hurtful things, such as teasing, name-calling, inappropriate sexual comments, taunting, or threats to cause harm

Social/relational bullying: An act that harms a person's reputation or relationships, such as leaving a person out of an activity on purpose, influencing others not to be friends with someone, spreading rumors, or embarrassing someone in public

Cyberbullying: An act that occurs on electronic devices such as computers, tablets, or cell phones, such as sending demeaning or hateful text messages, direct messages or public posts on social media apps, gaming forums, or emails, spreading rumors by email or by posting on social networking sites, shaming or humiliating by allowing others to view, participate in, or share disparaging or harmful content, or posting or sharing embarrassing photos, videos, website, or fake profiles
Measures to Prevent Bullying

The Superintendent or designee shall implement measures to prevent bullying in district schools, including, but not limited to, the following:
Developing a strategic plan for school connectedness and social skills with benchmark tracking, which may include providing regular opportunities and spaces for students to develop social skills and strengthen relationships and promoting adult support from family and school staff, peer-led programs, and partnerships with key community groups, implementing socially based educational techniques such as cooperative learning projects that can improve educational outcomes as well as peer relations, creating a supportive school environment that fosters belonging through equitable classroom management, mentoring, and peer support groups that allow students to lean on each other and learn from each other's experiences, and building social connection into health education courses including information on the consequences of social connection on physical and mental health, key risk and protective factors, and strategies for increasing social connection

Ensuring that each school establishes clear rules for student and staff conduct and implements strategies to promote a positive, supportive, and collaborative school climate

Providing information to students, through student handbooks, district and school websites and social media, and other age-appropriate means, about district and school rules related to bullying, mechanisms available for reporting incidents or threats, and the consequences for engaging in bullying

Encouraging students to notify school staff when they are being bullied or when they suspect that another student is being bullied, and providing means by which students may report threats or incidents confidentially and anonymously

Conducting an assessment of bullying incidents at each school and, if necessary, increasing supervision and security in areas where bullying most often occurs, such as playgrounds, hallways, restrooms, and cafeterias

Annually notifying district employees that, pursuant to Education Code 234.1, any school staff who witnesses an act of bullying against a student has a responsibility to immediately intervene to stop the incident when it is safe to do so

Staff Development

The Superintendent or designee shall annually make available to all certificated staff and to other employees who have regular interaction with students the California Department of Education (CDE) online training module on the dynamics of bullying and cyberbullying, including the identification of bullying and cyberbullying and the implementation of strategies to address bullying. (Education Code 32283.5)

The Superintendent or designee shall provide training to teachers and other school staff to raise their awareness about the legal obligation of the district and its employees to prevent discrimination, harassment, intimidation, and bullying of district students. Such training shall be designed to provide staff with the skills to:
Discuss the diversity of the student body and school community, including their varying immigration experiences

Discuss bullying prevention strategies with students, and teach students to recognize the behavior and characteristics of bullying perpetrators and victims

Identify the signs of bullying or harassing behavior

Take immediate corrective action when bullying is observed

Report incidents to the appropriate authorities, including law enforcement in instances of criminal behavior
Information and Resources

The Superintendent or designee shall post on the district's website, in a prominent location and in a manner that is easily accessible to students and parents/guardians, information on bullying and harassment prevention which includes the following: (Education Code 234.6)
The district's policy on student suicide prevention, including a reference to the policy's age appropriateness for students in grades K-6

The definition of sex discrimination and harassment as described in Education Code 230, including the rights set forth in Education Code 221.8

Any additional information the Superintendent or designee deems important for preventing bullying and harassment
Student Instruction

As appropriate, the district shall provide students with instruction, in the classroom or other educational settings, that promotes social-emotional learning, effective communication and conflict resolution skills, character development, respect for cultural and individual differences, self-esteem development, assertiveness skills, digital and media literacy skills, and appropriate online behavior.

The district shall also educate students about the negative impact of bullying, discrimination, intimidation, and harassment based on actual or perceived immigration status, religious beliefs and customs, or any other individual bias or prejudice.

Students should be taught the difference between appropriate and inappropriate behaviors, how to advocate for themselves, how to help another student who is being bullied, and when to seek assistance from a trusted adult. As role models for students, staff are responsible for teaching and modeling respectful behavior and building safe and supportive learning environments, and are expected to demonstrate effective problem-solving and anger management skills.

To discourage cyberbullying, teachers may advise students to be cautious about sharing passwords, personal data, or private photos online and to consider the consequences of making negative comments about others online.

Reporting and Filing of Complaints

Any student, parent/guardian, or other individual who believes that a student has been subjected to bullying or who has witnessed bullying may report the incident to a teacher, the principal, a compliance officer, or any other available school employee.

When a report of bullying is submitted, the principal or a district compliance officer shall inform the student or parent/guardian of the right to file a formal written complaint in accordance with Administrative Regulation 1312.3 - Uniform Complaint Procedures. The student who is the alleged victim of the bullying shall be given an opportunity to describe the incident, identify witnesses who may have relevant information, and provide other evidence of bullying.

Within one business day of receiving such a report, a staff member shall notify the principal of the report, regardless of whether a uniform complaint is filed. In addition, any school employee who observes an incident of bullying involving a student shall, within one business day, report such observation to the principal or a district compliance officer, regardless of whether the alleged victim files a complaint.

Within two business days of receiving a report of bullying, the principal shall notify the district compliance officer identified in Administrative Regulation 1312.3.

Any individuals with information about cyberbullying activity shall save and print any electronic or digital messages that they feel constitute cyberbullying and shall notify a teacher, the principal, or other employee so that the matter may be investigated. When an investigation concludes that a student used a social networking site or service to bully or harass another student, the Superintendent or designee may report the cyberbullying to the social media platform and may request the material be removed.

Discipline/Corrective Actions

Corrective actions for a student who commits an act of bullying of any type may include counseling, behavioral intervention, and education, and, if the behavior is severe or pervasive as defined in Education Code 48900, may include suspension or expulsion in accordance with district policies and regulations.

When a student has been suspended, or other means of correction have been implemented against the student, for an incident of racist bullying, harassment, or intimidation, the principal or designee shall engage both the victim and perpetrator in a restorative justice practice suitable to the needs of the students. The principal or designee shall also require the perpetrator to engage in a culturally sensitive program that promotes racial justice and equity and combats racism and ignorance and shall regularly check on the victim to ensure that the victim is not in danger of suffering from any long-lasting mental health issues. (Education Code 48900.5)

When appropriate based on the severity or pervasiveness of the bullying, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the parents/guardians of victims and perpetrators and may contact law enforcement.

Support Services

The Superintendent, principal, or designee may refer a victim, witness, perpetrator, or other student affected by an act of bullying to a school counselor, school psychologist, social worker, child welfare attendance personnel, school nurse, or other school support service personnel for case management, counseling, and/or participation in a restorative justice program as appropriate. (Education Code 48900.9)

If any student involved in bullying exhibits warning signs of suicidal thought or intention or of intent to harm another person, the Superintendent or designee shall, as appropriate, implement district intervention protocols which may include, but are not limited to, referral to district or community mental health services, other health professionals, and/or law enforcement, in accordance with Board Policy and Administrative Regulation 5141.52 - Suicide Prevention.

Students shall not be suspended or expelled based solely on a student's truancy, tardiness, or absenteeism from assigned school activities. (Education Code 48900)

That other means of correction are not feasible or have repeatedly failed to bring about proper conduct

That due to the nature of the violation, the presence of the student causes a continuing danger to the physical safety of the student or others
A vote to expel a student shall be taken in an open session of a Board meeting. (Education Code 48918(j))

Such acts include injuring or intimidating a victim, interfering with the exercise of a victim's civil rights, or damaging a victim's property because of the victim's race, ethnicity, religion, nationality, disability, gender, gender identity, gender expression, or sexual orientation; a perception of the presence of any of those characteristics in the victim; or the victim's association with a person or group with one or more of those actual or perceived characteristics. (Education Code 233; Penal Code 422.55)

Intentionally engaged in harassment, threats, or intimidation against district personnel or students that is sufficiently severe or pervasive to have the actual and reasonably expected effect of materially disrupting classwork, creating substantial disorder, and invading the rights of school personnel or students by creating an intimidating or hostile educational environment (Education Code 48900.4)
Suspension from Class by a Teacher

A teacher may suspend a student from class for the remainder of the day and the following day for any of the acts specified in Education Code 48900 and listed as Items #1-19 under "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12" above or for disruption or willful defiance at any grade level. (Education Code 48910)

When suspending a student from class, the teacher shall immediately report this action to the principal or designee and send the student to the principal or designee for appropriate action. If that action requires the continuing presence of the student at school, the student shall be appropriately supervised during the class periods from which the student has been suspended. (Education Code 48910)

As soon as possible after the teacher has suspended the student, the teacher shall ask the student's parent/guardian to attend a parent-teacher conference regarding the suspension. A counselor or psychologist may attend the conference if it is practicable, and a school administrator shall attend if requested by the parent/guardian or teacher. (Education Code 48910)

A student suspended from class shall not be returned to class during the period of the suspension without the approval of the teacher of the class and the principal or designee. (Education Code 48910)

A student suspended from class shall not be placed in another regular class during the period of suspension. However, a student assigned to more than one class per day may continue to attend other regular classes except those held at the same time as the class from which the student was suspended. (Education Code 48910)

A teacher may also refer a student, for any of the acts specified above in Education Code 48900, to the principal or designee for consideration of a suspension from school. (Education Code 48910)

The teacher of any class from which a student is suspended may require the student to complete any assignments and tests missed during the removal. (Education Code 48913)

Suspension by Superintendent, Principal or Principal's Designee

To implement disciplinary procedures at a school site, the principal may, in writing, designate as the principal's designee another administrator or, if the principal is the only administrator at the school site, a certificated employee. As necessary, the principal may, in writing, also designate another administrator or certificated employee as the secondary designee to assist with disciplinary procedures when the principal and the principal's primary designee are absent from the school site.

The Superintendent, principal, or designee shall immediately suspend any student found at school or at a school activity away from school to have committed any of the acts listed in the Board policy under "Authority to Expel" for which a recommendation of expulsion is required. (Education Code 48915(c))

The Superintendent, principal, or designee may impose a suspension for a first offense if it is determined that the student violated any of Items #1-5 listed under "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12" above or if the student's presence causes a danger to persons. (Education Code 48900.5)

For all other offenses, a student may be suspended only when the Superintendent or principal has determined that other means of correction have failed to bring about proper conduct. (Education Code 48900.5)

When other means of correction are implemented prior to imposing suspension upon a student, including supervised suspension, the Superintendent, principal, or designee shall document the other means of correction used and retain the documentation in the student's record. (Education Code 48900.5)

Length of Suspension

The Superintendent, principal, or designee may suspend a student from school for not more than five consecutive school days. (Education Code 48911)

A student may be suspended from school for not more than 20 school days in any school year. However, if a student enrolls in or is transferred to another regular school, an opportunity school or class, or continuation school or class for the purpose of adjustment, the student may be suspended for not more than 30 school days in a school year. The district may count suspensions that occur while a student is enrolled in another school district toward the maximum number of days for which the student may be suspended in any school year. (Education Code 48903, 48911, 48912)

These restrictions on the number of days of suspension shall not apply when the suspension is extended pending an expulsion. (Education Code 48911)

Due Process Procedures for Suspension

Suspensions shall be imposed in accordance with the following procedures:

Informal Conference: Suspension shall be preceded by an informal conference conducted by the Superintendent, principal, or designee with the student and, whenever practicable, the teacher, supervisor, or school employee who referred the student to the principal. At the conference, the student shall be informed of the reason for the disciplinary action, including the other means of correction that were attempted before the suspension as required pursuant to Education Code 48900.5, and the evidence against the student, and shall be given the opportunity to present the student's version and evidence in the student's defense. (Education Code 48911)

This conference may be omitted if the Superintendent, principal, or designee determines that an emergency situation exists involving a clear and present danger to the lives, safety, or health of students or school personnel. If a student is suspended without this conference, the student, the student's parent/guardian, or if the student is a foster youth, the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or if the student is an Indian child, the Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, county social worker, shall be notified of the student's right to a conference and the right to return to school for the purpose of the conference. The conference shall be held within two school days, unless the student waives the right to it or is physically unable to attend for any reason. In such a case, the conference shall be held as soon as the student is physically able to return to school for the conference. (Education Code 48911)

Administrative Actions: All requests for student suspension are to be processed by the principal or designee. A school employee shall report the suspension, including the name of the student and the cause for the suspension, to the Superintendent or designee. (Education Code 48911)

Notice to Parents/Guardians: At the time of the suspension, a school employee shall make a reasonable effort to contact the parent/guardian, or if the student is a foster youth, the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or if the student is an Indian child, the Indian child's tribal social worker, and, if applicable, the county social worker, in person, by email, or by telephone. Whenever a student is suspended, the parent/guardian, or, if applicable, the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or the Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, the county social worker, shall also be notified in writing of the suspension. (Education Code 48911)

This notice shall state the specific offense committed by the student. (Education Code 48900.8)

In addition, the notice shall state the date and time when the student may return to school.

Parent/Guardian Conference: Whenever a student is suspended, school officials may conduct a meeting with the parent/guardian to discuss the cause(s) and duration of the suspension, the school policy involved, and any other pertinent matter. (Education Code 48914)

If school officials request to meet with the parent/guardian, a foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or an Indian child's tribal social worker, and, if applicable, the county social worker, the notice may state that the law requires such individuals to respond to the request without delay. However, the student shall not be penalized for the failure of the parent/guardian, a foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or an Indian child's tribal social worker, and, if applicable, the county social worker, to attend such a conference. The student may not be denied reinstatement solely because such individuals failed to attend the conference. (Education Code 48911)

Extension of Suspension: If the Board is considering the expulsion of a suspended student from any school or the suspension of a student for the balance of the semester from continuation school, the Superintendent or designee may, in writing, extend the suspension until such time as the Board has made a decision, provided the following requirements are followed: (Education Code 48911)

The extension of the original period of suspension is preceded by notice of such extension with an offer to hold a conference concerning the extension, giving the student an opportunity to be heard

This conference may be held in conjunction with a meeting requested by the student or parent/guardian to challenge the original suspension.

The Superintendent or designee determines, following a meeting in which the student and the student's parent/guardian were invited to participate, that the student's presence at the school or at an alternative school would endanger persons or property or threaten to disrupt the instructional process

If the student involved is a foster youth or Indian child, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the district's educational liaison of the need to invite the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney and county social worker, or the Indian child's tribal social worker or, if applicable, the county social worker, to attend the meeting (Education Code 48853.5, 48911, 48918.1)

If the student involved is a child or youth experiencing homelessness, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the district liaison for homeless students (Education Code 48918.1)

In lieu of or in addition to suspending a student, the Superintendent, principal, or designee may provide services or require the student to participate in an alternative disciplinary program designed to correct the behavior and keep the student in school
Suspension by the Board

The Board may suspend a student for any of the acts listed under "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12," and "Additional Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades 4-12," above and within the limits specified under "Suspension by Superintendent, Principal, or Designee," above. (Education Code 48912)

The Board may suspend a student enrolled in a continuation school or class for a period not longer than the remainder of the semester. The suspension shall meet the requirements of Education Code 48915. (Education Code 48912.5)

When the Board is considering a suspension, disciplinary action, or any other action (except expulsion) against any student, it shall hold a closed session if a public hearing would lead to disclosure of information that would violate a student's right to privacy under Education Code 49073-49079. (Education Code 35146, 48912)

The Board shall provide the student and parent/guardian with written notice of the closed session by registered or certified mail or personal service. Upon receiving this notice, the student or parent/guardian may request a public meeting, and this request shall be granted if made in writing within 48 hours after receipt of the Board's notice. However, any discussion that conflicts with any other student's right to privacy still shall be held in closed session. (Education Code 35146, 48912)

On-Campus Suspension

A student for whom an expulsion action has not been initiated and who poses no imminent danger or threat to the school, students, or staff may be assigned to on-campus suspension in a separate classroom, building, or site for the entire period of suspension. The following conditions shall apply: (Education Code 48911.1)
The on-campus suspension classroom shall be staffed in accordance with law

The student shall have access to appropriate counseling services

The on-campus suspension classroom shall promote completion of schoolwork and tests missed by the student during the suspension

The student shall be responsible for contacting the student's teacher(s) to receive assignments to be completed in the supervised suspension classroom and the teacher(s) shall provide all assignments and tests that the student will miss while suspended

If no such work is assigned, the person supervising the suspension classroom shall assign schoolwork.
At the time a student is assigned to an on-campus suspension classroom, the principal or designee shall notify the student's parent/guardian, or if the student is a foster youth, the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or, if the student if an Indian child, the Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, county social worker, in person, by email, or by telephone. When the assignment is for longer than one class period, this notification shall be made in writing. (Education Code 48911.1)

Superintendent or Principal's Authority to Recommend Expulsion

Unless the Superintendent or principal determines that expulsion should not be recommended under the circumstances or that an alternative means of correction would address the conduct, the Superintendent or principal shall recommend a student's expulsion for any of the following acts: (Education Code 48915)
Causing serious physical injury to another person, except in self-defense

Possession of any knife or other dangerous object of no reasonable use to the student

Unlawful possession of any controlled substance as listed in Health and Safety Code 11053-11059, except for:

The first offense for the possession of not more than one ounce of marijuana, other than concentrated cannabis

The student's possession of over-the-counter medication for use by the student for medical purposes

Medication prescribed for the student by a physician

Robbery or extortion

Assault or battery, as defined in Penal Code 240 and 242, upon any school employee
In determining whether to recommend the expulsion of a student, the Superintendent, principal, or designee shall act as quickly as possible to ensure that the student does not lose instructional time. (Education Code 48915)

Student's Right to Expulsion Hearing

Any student recommended for expulsion shall be entitled to a hearing to determine whether the student should be expelled. The hearing shall be held within 30 school days after the Superintendent, principal, or designee determines that the student has committed the act(s) that form the basis for the expulsion recommendation. (Education Code 48918(a))

The student is entitled to at least one postponement of an expulsion hearing for a period of not more than 30 calendar days. The request for postponement shall be in writing. Any subsequent postponement may be granted at the Board's discretion. (Education Code 48918(a))

If the Board finds it impractical during the regular school year to comply with these time requirements for conducting an expulsion hearing, the Superintendent or designee may, for good cause, extend the time period by an additional five school days. Reasons for the extension shall be included as a part of the record when the expulsion hearing is held. (Education Code 48918(a))

If the Board finds it impractical to comply with the time requirements of the expulsion hearing due to a summer recess of Board meetings of more than two weeks, the days during the recess shall not be counted as school days. The days not counted during the recess may not exceed 20 school days, as defined in Education Code 48925. Unless the student requests in writing that the expulsion hearing be postponed, the hearing shall be held not later than 20 calendar days prior to the first day of the next school year. (Education Code 48918(a))

Once the hearing starts, all matters shall be pursued with reasonable diligence and concluded without unnecessary delay. (Education Code 48918(a))

Stipulated Expulsion

After a determination that a student has committed an offense for which the student may be expelled, the Superintendent, principal, or designee shall offer the student, the student's parent/guardian, or, when applicable, other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, the option to waive a hearing and stipulate to the expulsion or to a suspension of the expulsion under certain conditions. The offer shall be made only after written notice of the expulsion hearing pursuant to Education Code 48918 has been given.

The stipulation agreement shall be in writing and shall be signed by the student, the student's parent/guardian, or, when applicable, the person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student. The stipulation agreement shall include notice of all the rights that the student is waiving, including the waiving of the right to have a full hearing, to appeal the expulsion to the County Board of Education, and to consult legal counsel.

A stipulated expulsion agreed to by the student, the student's parent/guardian, or, when applicable, the person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, shall be effective upon approval by the Board.

Rights of Complaining Witness

An expulsion hearing involving allegations of sexual assault or sexual battery may be postponed for one school day in order to accommodate the special physical, mental, or emotional needs of a student who is the complaining witness. (Education Code 48918.5)

Whenever the Superintendent or designee recommends an expulsion hearing that addresses allegations of sexual assault or sexual battery, the Superintendent or designee shall give the complaining witness a copy of the district's suspension and expulsion policy and regulation and shall advise the witness of the right to: (Education Code 48918.5)
Receive five days' notice of the scheduled testimony at the hearing

Have up to two adult support persons present at the hearing at the time the witness testifies

Have a closed hearing during the time the witness testifies
Whenever any allegation of sexual assault or sexual battery is made, the Superintendent or designee shall immediately advise complaining witnesses and accused students to refrain from personal or telephone contact with each other during the time when an expulsion process is pending. (Education Code 48918.5)

Written Notice of the Expulsion Hearing

Written notice of the expulsion hearing shall be forwarded to the student and the student's parent/guardian at least 10 calendar days before the date of the hearing. The notice shall include: (Education Code 48900.8, 48918(b))
The date and place of the hearing

A statement of the specific facts, charges, and offense upon which the proposed expulsion is based

A copy of district disciplinary rules which relate to the alleged violation

Notification of the student's or parent/guardian's obligation, pursuant to Education Code 48915.1, to provide information about the student's status in the district to any other district in which the student seeks enrollment

This obligation applies when a student is expelled for acts other than those described in Education Code 48915(a) or (c).

The opportunity for the student or the student's parent/guardian to appear in person or be represented by legal counsel or by a nonattorney adviser

Legal counsel means an attorney or lawyer who is admitted to the practice of law in California and is an active member of the State Bar of California.

Nonattorney adviser means an individual who is not an attorney or lawyer, but who is familiar with the facts of the case and has been selected by the student or student's parent/guardian to provide assistance at the hearing.

The right to inspect and obtain copies of all documents to be used at the hearing

The opportunity to confront and question all witnesses who testify at the hearing

The opportunity to question all evidence presented and to present oral and documentary evidence on the student's behalf, including witnesses
Additional Notice of Expulsion Hearing for Foster Youth, Homeless Students, and Indian Children

If the student facing expulsion is a foster student or Indian child, the Superintendent or designee shall also send notice of the hearing to the foster youth's educational rights holder, attorney, and county social worker, or the Indian child's tribal social worker and, if applicable, county social worker, at least 10 calendar days prior to the hearing. (Education Code 48918.1)

If the student facing expulsion is a student experiencing homelessness, the Superintendent or designee shall also send notice of the hearing to the district liaison for homeless students at least 10 calendar days prior to the hearing. (Education Code 48918.1)

Any notice for these purposes may be provided by the most cost-effective method possible, including by email or a telephone call. (Education Code 48918.1)

Conduct of Expulsion Hearing

Closed Session: Notwithstanding Education Code 35145, the Board shall conduct a hearing to consider the expulsion of the student in a session closed to the public unless the student requests in writing at least five days prior to the hearing that the hearing be a public meeting. If such a request is made, the meeting shall be public to the extent that privacy rights of other students are not violated. (Education Code 48918)

Whether the expulsion hearing is held in closed or public session, the Board may meet in closed session to deliberate and determine whether the student should be expelled. If the Board admits any other person to this closed session, the parent/guardian, the student, and the counsel of the student also shall be allowed to attend the closed session. (Education Code 48918(c))

If a hearing that involves a charge of sexual assault or sexual battery is to be conducted in public, a complaining witness shall have the right to testify in closed session when testifying in public would threaten serious psychological harm to the witness and when there are no alternative procedures to avoid the threatened harm, including, but not limited to, a videotaped deposition or contemporaneous examination in another place communicated to the hearing room by closed-circuit television. (Education Code 48918(c)

Record of Hearing: A record of the hearing shall be made and may be maintained by any means, including electronic recording, as long as a reasonably accurate and complete written transcription of the proceedings can be made. (Education Code 48918(g))

Subpoenas: Before commencing a student expulsion hearing, the Board may issue subpoenas, at the request of either the student or the Superintendent or designee, for the personal appearance at the hearing of any person who actually witnessed the action that gave rise to the recommendation for expulsion. After the hearing has commenced, the Board or the hearing officer or administrative panel may issue such subpoenas at the request of the student or the County Superintendent of Schools or designee. All subpoenas shall be issued in accordance with Code of Civil Procedure 1985-1985.2 and enforced in accordance with Government Code 11455.20. (Education Code 48918(i))

Any objection raised by the student or the Superintendent or designee to the issuance of subpoenas may be considered by the Board in closed session, or in open session if so requested by the student, before the meeting. The Board's decision in response to such an objection shall be final and binding. (Education Code 48918(i))

If the Board determines, or if the hearing officer or administrative panel finds and submits to the Board, that a witness would be subject to unreasonable risk of harm by testifying at the hearing, a subpoena shall not be issued to compel the personal attendance of that witness at the hearing. However, that witness may be compelled to testify by means of a sworn declaration as described in Item #6 below. (Education Code 48918(i))

Presentation of Evidence: Technical rules of evidence shall not apply to the expulsion hearing, but relevant evidence may be admitted and used as proof only if it is the kind of evidence on which reasonable persons can rely in the conduct of serious affairs. The decision of the Board to expel shall be supported by substantial evidence that the student committed any of the acts pursuant to Education Code 48900 and listed in "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12," and "Additional Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades 4-12," above. (Education Code 48918(h))

Findings of fact shall be based solely on the evidence at the hearing. Although no finding shall be based solely on hearsay, sworn declarations may be admitted as testimony from witnesses whose disclosure of their identity or testimony at the hearing may subject them to an unreasonable risk of physical or psychological harm. (Education Code 48918(f))

In cases where a search of a student's person or property has occurred, evidence describing the reasonableness of the search shall be included in the hearing record.

Testimony by Complaining Witnesses: The following procedures shall be observed when a hearing involves allegations of sexual assault or sexual battery by a student: (Education Code 48918, 48918.5)

Any complaining witness shall be given five days' notice before being called to testify

Any complaining witness shall be entitled to have up to two adult support persons, including, but not limited to, a parent/guardian or legal counsel, present during the testimony

Before a complaining witness testifies, support persons shall be admonished that the hearing is confidential

The person presiding over the hearing may remove a support person who is disrupting the hearing

If one or both support persons are also witnesses, the hearing shall be conducted in accordance with Penal Code 868.5

Evidence of specific instances of prior sexual conduct of a complaining witness shall be presumed inadmissible and shall not be heard unless the person conducting the hearing determines that extraordinary circumstances require the evidence to be heard

Before such a determination is made, the complaining witness shall be given notice and an opportunity to oppose the introduction of this evidence. In the hearing on the admissibility of this evidence, the complaining witness shall be entitled to be represented by a parent/guardian, legal counsel, or other support person. Reputation or opinion evidence regarding the sexual behavior of a complaining witness shall not be admissible for any purpose.

In order to facilitate a free and accurate statement of the experiences of the complaining witness and to prevent discouragement of complaints, the district shall provide a nonthreatening environment

The district shall provide a room separate from the hearing room for the use of the complaining witness before and during breaks in testimony

At the discretion of the person conducting the hearing, the complaining witness shall be allowed reasonable periods of relief from examination and cross-examination during which the complaining witness may leave the hearing room

The person conducting the hearing may:

Arrange the seating within the hearing room so as to facilitate a less intimidating environment for the complaining witness

Limit the time for taking the testimony of a complaining witness to normal school hours, if there is no good cause to take the testimony during other hours

(Permit one of the support persons to accompany the complaining witness to the witness stand

Decision: The Board's decision as to whether to expel a student shall be made within 40 school days after the student is removed from school, unless the student requests in writing that the decision be postponed. (Education Code 48918(a))
Alternative Expulsion Hearing: Hearing Officer or Administrative Panel

Instead of conducting an expulsion hearing itself, the Board may contract with the county hearing officer or with the Office of Administrative Hearings of the State of California for a hearing officer. The Board may also appoint an impartial administrative panel composed of three or more certificated personnel, none of whom shall be members of the Board or on the staff of the school in which the student is enrolled. (Education Code 48918)

A hearing conducted by the hearing officer or administrative panel shall conform to the same procedures applicable to a hearing conducted by the Board as specified above in "Conduct of Expulsion Hearing," including the requirement to issue a decision within 40 school days of the student's removal from school, unless the student requests that the decision be postponed. (Education Code 48918(a) and (d))

The hearing officer or administrative panel shall, within three school days after the hearing, determine whether to recommend expulsion of the student to the Board. If expulsion is not recommended, the expulsion proceeding shall be terminated and the student shall be immediately reinstated and permitted to return to the classroom instructional program from which the referral was made, unless another placement is requested in writing by the student's parent/guardian. Before the student's placement decision is made by the student's parent/guardian, the Superintendent or designee shall consult with the parent/guardian and district staff, including the student's teachers, regarding other placement options for the student in addition to the option to return to the classroom instructional program from which the student's expulsion referral was made. The decision to not recommend expulsion shall be final. (Education Code 48918(e))

If expulsion is recommended, findings of fact in support of the recommendation shall be prepared and submitted to the Board. All findings of fact and recommendations shall be based solely on the evidence presented at the hearing. The

Board may accept the recommendation based either upon a review of the findings of fact and recommendations submitted or upon the results of any supplementary hearing the Board may order. (Education Code 48918(f))

In accordance with Board policy, the hearing officer or administrative panel may recommend that the Board suspend the enforcement of the expulsion. If the hearing officer or administrative panel recommends that the Board expel a student but suspend the enforcement of the expulsion, the student shall not be reinstated and permitted to return to the classroom instructional program from which the referral was made until the Board has ruled on the recommendation. (Education Code 48917, 48918)

Final Action by the Board

Whether the expulsion hearing is conducted in closed or open session by the Board, a hearing officer, or an administrative panel or is waived through the signing of a stipulated expulsion agreement, the final action to expel shall be taken by the Board in public. (Education Code 48918(j))

The Board's decision is final. If the decision is to not expel, the student shall be reinstated immediately. If the decision is to suspend the enforcement of the expulsion, the student shall be reinstated under the conditions of the suspended expulsion.

Upon ordering an expulsion, the Board shall set a date when the student shall be reviewed for readmission to a school within the district. For a student expelled for any "mandatory recommendation and mandatory expulsion" act listed in "Authority to Expel" in the accompanying Board policy, this date shall be one year from the date the expulsion occurred, except that the Board may set an earlier date on a case-by-case basis. For a student expelled for other acts, this date shall be no later than the last day of the semester following the semester in which the expulsion occurred. If an expulsion is ordered during summer session or the intersession period of a year-round program, the Board shall set a date when the student shall be reviewed for readmission not later than the last day of the semester following the summer session or intersession period in which the expulsion occurred. (Education Code 48916)

At the time of the expulsion order, the Board shall recommend a plan for the student's rehabilitation, which may include: (Education Code 48916)
Periodic review, as well as assessment at the time of review, for readmission

Recommendations for improved academic performance, tutoring, special education assessments, job training, counseling, employment, community service, or other rehabilitative programs
With parent/guardian consent, students who have been expelled for reasons relating to controlled substances or alcohol may be required to enroll in a county-sponsored drug rehabilitation program before returning to school. (Education Code 48916.5)

Written Notice to Expel

The Superintendent or designee shall send written notice of the decision to expel to the student or parent/guardian. This notice shall include the following:
The specific offense committed by the student for any of the causes for suspension or expulsion listed above under "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12" or "Additional Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades 4-12" (Education Code 48900.8)

The fact that a description of readmission procedures will be made available to the student and parent/guardian (Education Code 48916)

Notice of the right to appeal the expulsion to the County Board (Education Code 48918)

Notice of the alternative educational placement to be provided to the student during the time of expulsion (Education Code 48918)

Notice of the student's or parent/guardian's obligation to inform any new district in which the student seeks to enroll of the student's status with the expelling district, pursuant to Education Code 48915.1 (Education Code 48918)
Decision to Suspend Expulsion Order

In accordance with Board policy, when deciding whether to suspend the enforcement of an expulsion order, the Board shall take into account the following criteria:
The student's pattern of behavior

The seriousness of the misconduct

The student's attitude toward the misconduct and willingness to follow a rehabilitation program
The suspension of the enforcement of an expulsion shall be governed by the following:
The Board may, as a condition of the suspension of enforcement, assign the student to a school, class, or program appropriate for the student's rehabilitation

This rehabilitation program may provide for the involvement of the student's parent/guardian in the student's education. However, a parent/guardian's refusal to participate in the rehabilitation program shall not be considered in the Board's determination as to whether the student has satisfactorily completed the rehabilitation program. (Education Code 48917)

During the period when enforcement of the expulsion order is suspended, the student shall be on probationary status (Education Code 48917)

The suspension of the enforcement of an expulsion order may be revoked by the Board if the student commits any of the acts listed under "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12" or "Additional Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades 4-12" above, or violates any of the district's rules and regulations governing student conduct (Education Code 48917)

When the suspension of enforcement of an expulsion order is revoked, a student may be expelled under the terms of the original expulsion order (Education Code 48917)

Upon satisfactory completion of the rehabilitation assignment, the Board shall reinstate the student in a district school

Upon reinstatement, the Board may order the expunging of any or all records of the expulsion proceedings. (Education Code 48917)

The Superintendent or designee shall send written notice of any decision to suspend the enforcement of an expulsion order during a period of probation to the student or parent/guardian

The notice shall inform the parent/guardian of the right to appeal the expulsion to the County Board, the alternative educational placement to be provided to the student during the period of expulsion, and the student's or parent/guardian's obligation to inform any new district in which the student seeks to enroll of the student's status with the expelling district, pursuant to Education Code 48915.1(b). (Education Code 48918(j))

Suspension of the enforcement of an expulsion order shall not affect the time period and requirements for the filing of an appeal of the expulsion order with the County Board (Education Code 48917)
Appeal

If a student is expelled from school, the student or parent/guardian is entitled to file an appeal of the Board's decision with the County Board. The appeal must be filed within 30 days of the Board's decision to expel, even if the expulsion order is suspended and the student is placed on probation. (Education Code 48919)

If the student submits a written request for a copy of the written transcripts and supporting documents from the district simultaneously with the filing of the notice of appeal with the County Board, the district shall provide the student with these documents within 10 school days following the student's written request. (Education Code 48919)

Notification to Law Enforcement Authorities

Prior to the suspension or expulsion of any student, the principal or designee shall notify appropriate city or county law enforcement authorities of any student acts of assault which may have violated Penal Code 245. (Education Code 48902)

The principal or designee shall notify appropriate city or county law enforcement authorities of any student acts which may involve the possession or sale of narcotics or of a controlled substance, or of any student acts involving the possession, sale, or furnishing of firearms, explosives, or other dangerous weapons in violation of Education Code 48915(c)(1) or (5) or Penal Code 626.9 and 626.10. (Education Code 48902)

Within one school day after a student's suspension or expulsion, the principal or designee shall notify appropriate county or district law enforcement authorities, by telephone or other appropriate means, of any student acts which may violate Education Code 48900(c) or (d), relating to the possession, use, offering, or sale of controlled substances, alcohol, or intoxicants of any kind. (Education Code 48902)

Placement During Expulsion

The Board shall refer expelled students to a program of study that is: (Education Code 48915, 48915.01)
Appropriately prepared to accommodate students who exhibit discipline problems

Not provided at a comprehensive middle, junior, or senior high school or at any elementary school, unless the program is offered at a community day school established at any of these

Not housed at the school site attended by the student at the time of suspension
When the placement described above is not available and when the County Superintendent so certifies, students expelled for only acts described in Items #6-12 under "Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades K-12" and Items #1-3 under "Additional Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion: Grades 4-12" above may be referred to a program of study that is provided at another comprehensive middle, junior, or senior high school or at an elementary school. (Education Code 48915)

The program for a student expelled from any of grades K-6 shall not be combined or merged with programs offered to students in any of grades 7-12. (Education Code 48916.1)

Readmission After Expulsion

Prior to the date set by the Board for the student's readmission:
The Superintendent or designee shall hold a conference with the student's parent/guardian, or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, and the student

At the conference, the student's rehabilitation plan shall be reviewed and the Superintendent or designee shall verify that the provisions of this plan have been met. School regulations shall be reviewed and the student and the student's parent/guardian or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student shall be asked to indicate in writing their willingness to comply with these regulations.

The Superintendent or designee shall transmit to the Board a recommendation regarding readmission

The Board shall consider this recommendation in closed session. If a written request for open session is received from the student's parent/guardian or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, or adult student, it shall be honored to the extent that privacy rights of other students are not violated.

If the readmission is granted, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the student and the student's parent/guardian, or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, by registered mail, of the Board's decision regarding readmission

The Board may deny readmission only if it finds that the student has not satisfied the conditions of the rehabilitation plan or that the student continues to pose a danger to campus safety or to other district students or employees (Education Code 48916)

If the Board denies the readmission of a student, the Board shall determine either to continue the student's placement in the alternative educational program initially selected or to place the student in another program that serves expelled students, including placement in a county community school

The Board shall provide written notice to the expelled student and the student's parent/guardian, or other person holding the right to make educational decisions for the student, describing the reasons for denying readmittance into the regular program

This notice shall indicate the Board's determination of the educational program which the Board has chosen. The student shall enroll in that program unless the parent/guardian chooses to enroll the student in another school district. No student shall be denied readmission into the district based solely on the student's arrest, adjudication by a juvenile court, formal or informal supervision by a probation officer, detention in a juvenile facility, enrollment in a juvenile court school, or other such contact with the juvenile justice system. (Education Code 48645.5)

Maintenance of Records

The district shall maintain a record of each suspension and expulsion, including its specific cause(s). (Education Code 48900.8)

Expulsion records of any student shall be maintained in the student's mandatory interim record and sent to any school in which the student subsequently enrolls upon written request by that school. (Education Code 48918(k))

The Superintendent or designee shall, within five working days, honor any other district's request for information about an expulsion from this district. (Education Code 48915.1)

Notice Regarding Student Offenses

When a student commits certain offenses that may endanger staff or others, the following procedures shall be implemented to notify staff members as appropriate:
Acts That Are Grounds for Suspension or Expulsion

The Superintendent or designee shall inform the teacher(s) of each student who, during the previous three school years, has engaged in or is reasonably suspected to have engaged in any act, except the possession or use of tobacco products, that would constitute a ground for suspension or expulsion as specified in Administrative Regulation 5144.1 - Suspension and Expulsion/Due Process (Education Code 49079)

This information shall be based upon district records maintained in the ordinary course of business or records received from a law enforcement agency. (Education Code 49079)

Information received by teacher(s) shall be received in confidence for the limited purpose for which it was provided and shall not be further disseminated by the teacher (Education Code 48201, 49079)

Offenses Reported to the District by a Court

When informed by a court that a minor student has been found by the court to have committed any felony or any misdemeanor involving curfew, gambling, alcohol, drugs, tobacco products, carrying of weapons, a sex offense listed in Penal Code 290, assault or battery, larceny, vandalism, or graffiti, the Superintendent or designee shall expeditiously notify the school principal or designee (Welfare and Institutions Code 827)

The principal or designee shall expeditiously disseminate this information to any counselor who directly supervises or reports on the student's behavior or progress and to any teacher or administrator directly supervising or reporting on the student's behavior or progress whom the principal or designee thinks may need the information in order to work

Any court-initiated information that a teacher, counselor, or administrator receives shall be kept confidential and used only to rehabilitate the student and protect other students and staff (Welfare and Institutions Code 827)

The information shall be further disseminated only when communication with the student, parent/guardian, law enforcement staff, and probation officer is necessary to rehabilitate the student or to protect students and staff. (Welfare and Institutions Code 827)

When a student is removed from school as a result of an offense, the Superintendent shall hold the court's information in a separate confidential file until the student is returned to the district (Welfare and Institutions Code 827)

If the student is returned to a different district, the Superintendent shall transmit the information provided by the student's parole or probation officer to the superintendent of the new district of attendance. (Welfare and Institutions Code 827)

Any confidential file of court-initiated information shall be kept until the student becomes 18, graduates from high school, or is released from juvenile court jurisdiction, whichever occurs first, and shall then be destroyed (Welfare and Institutions Code 827)

Accommodations for Victims of Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, Stalking, or Other Qualifying Acts of Violence

Another safety procedure or adjustment to a job structure, workplace facility, or work requirement in response to domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, or other qualifying act of violence
The Superintendent or designee shall engage in a timely, good faith, and interactive process with the employee to determine effective reasonable accommodations that do not pose an undue hardship on the district. In determining whether an accommodation is reasonable, the Superintendent or designee shall consider any exigent circumstance or danger facing the employee or their family member. (Government Code 12945.8)

Upon the request of the Superintendent or designee, an employee requesting a reasonable accommodation shall provide a written statement, signed by the employee or an individual acting on the employee's behalf, certifying that the accommodation is for an authorized purpose. The Superintendent or designee may also request that the employee provide certification of the employee's status as a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, or other qualifying act of violence. Such certification may include: (Government Code 12945.8)

The employee shall notify the Superintendent or designee if, due to changing circumstances, the employee needs a new accommodation or no longer needs an accommodation. If a new accommodation is needed, the Superintendent or designee shall follow the procedures described above when making the initial determination regarding effective reasonable accommodations. (Government Code 12945.8)

The district shall not discharge or retaliate against an employee because of the employee's status as a victim of crime or abuse or for requesting a reasonable accommodation, regardless of whether the request was granted. (Government Code 12945.8)

The Governing Board desires to provide a welcoming, safe, and supportive school environment that allows all students equal access to and opportunities in the district's academic, extracurricular, and other educational support programs, services, and activities.

This policy shall apply to all acts constituting unlawful discrimination or harassment related to district activity or attendance, to acts which occur off campus or outside of district-related or district-sponsored activities but which may have an impact or create a hostile environment at school, and to all acts of the Board and the Superintendent in enacting policies and procedures that govern the district.

The Board prohibits, at any district school or activity, unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, and bullying, against an individual or group based on one, or a combination of two or more, protected characteristics, which include, but may not be limited to, race or ethnicity; ancestry; color; ethnic group identification; nationality; national origin; immigration status; sex; sexual orientation; sex stereotypes; gender; gender identity; gender expression; religion; disability; medical condition; genetic information; pregnancy, false pregnancy, childbirth, termination of pregnancy, or related conditions or recovery; and parental, marital, and family status; a perception of one or more of such characteristics; or association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics. (Education Code 200, 210.1, 210.2, 212, 212.1, 220, 221.51, 230, 260; Government Code 11135, 12926; 20 USC 1681-1688, 42 USC 2000d-2000d-7)

Unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, or bullying, may result from physical, verbal, nonverbal, or written conduct based on any of the categories listed above. Unlawful discrimination also occurs when prohibited conduct is so severe, persistent, or pervasive that it affects a student's ability to participate in or benefit from an educational program or activity; creates an intimidating, threatening, hostile, or offensive educational environment; has the effect of substantially or unreasonably interfering with a student's academic performance; or otherwise adversely affects a student's educational opportunities.

Unlawful discrimination also includes disparate treatment of students based on one of the categories above with respect to the provision of opportunities to participate in district programs or activities or the provision or receipt of educational benefits or services.

Because unlawful discrimination could occur when disciplining students, including suspension and expulsion, the Superintendent or designee shall ensure that staff enforce discipline rules fairly, consistently and in a non-discriminatory manner, as specified in Board Policy and Administrative Regulation 5144 - Discipline, Board Policy and Administrative Regulation 5144.1 - Suspension and Expulsion/Due Process, and Administrative Regulation 5144.2 - Suspension and Expulsion/Due Process (Students With Disabilities).

The Board also prohibits any form of retaliation against any individual who reports or participates in the reporting of unlawful discrimination, files or participates in the filing of a complaint, or investigates, participates, or refuses to participate in the investigation of a complaint or report alleging unlawful discrimination. Retaliation complaints shall be investigated and resolved in the same manner as a discrimination complaint.

The Superintendent or designee shall facilitate students' access to the educational program by publicizing the district's nondiscrimination policy and related complaint procedures to students, parents/guardians, and employees. In addition,

the Superintendent or designee shall post the district's policies prohibiting discrimination, harassment, intimidation, and bullying and other required information on the district's website in a manner that is easily accessible to parents/guardians and students, in accordance with law and the accompanying administrative regulation. (Education Code 234.1, 234.6; 34 CFR 106.8)

The Superintendent or designee shall provide training and/or information on the scope and use of the policy and complaint procedures and take other measures designed to increase understanding of the requirements of law related to discrimination. The Superintendent or designee shall regularly review the implementation of the district's nondiscrimination policies and practices and, as necessary, shall take action to remove any identified barrier to student access to or participation in the district's educational program. The Superintendent or designee shall report the findings and recommendations to the Board after each review.

Regardless of whether a complainant complies with the writing, timeline, and/or other formal filing requirements, all complaints alleging unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, or bullying, shall be investigated and prompt action taken to stop the discrimination, prevent recurrence, and address any continuing effect on students.

Students who engage in unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, retaliation, or bullying, in violation of law, Board policy, or administrative regulation shall be subject to appropriate consequence or discipline, which may include suspension or expulsion when the behavior is severe or pervasive as defined in Education Code 48900.4. Any employee who permits or engages in prohibited discrimination related to a district activity, attendance, or district-related or district-sponsored activity, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, retaliation, or bullying, shall be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal.

When a student has been suspended, or other means of correction have been implemented against the student for an incident of racist bullying, harassment, or intimidation, the principal or designee may engage both the victim and perpetrator in a restorative justice practice suitable to the needs of the students. The principal or designee may also require the perpetrator to engage in a culturally sensitive program that promotes racial justice and equity and combats racism and ignorance and regularly check on the victim to ensure that the victim is not in danger of suffering from any long-lasting mental health issues. (Education Code 48900.5)

When appropriate based on the severity or pervasiveness of the bullying, the Superintendent or designee shall notify the parents/guardians of victims and perpetrators and may contact law enforcement.

Complaints alleging unlawful discrimination in district programs and activities shall be investigated and resolved in accordance with Board Policy 1312.3 - Uniform Complaint Procedures, when required by law. However, complaints alleging sexual harassment under Title IX shall be investigated and resolved in accordance with the procedures specified in Administrative Regulation 5145.71 - Title IX Sexual Harassment Complaint Procedures.

Record-Keeping

The Superintendent or designee shall maintain a record of all reported cases of unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, or bullying, to enable the district to monitor, address, and prevent repetitive prohibited behavior in district schools.

Ensure that students and parents/guardians, including those with limited English proficiency, are notified of how to access the relevant information provided in the district's nondiscrimination policy and related complaint procedures, notices, and forms in a language they can understand

If 15 percent or more of students enrolled in a particular district school speak a single primary language other than English, the district's policy, regulation, forms, and notices concerning nondiscrimination shall be translated into that language in accordance with Education Code 234.1 and 48985. In all other instances, the district shall ensure meaningful access to all relevant information for parents/guardians with limited English proficiency.

Any report or complaint alleging unlawful discrimination by the principal, Compliance Officer, Title IX Coordinator, or any other person to whom a report would ordinarily be made or complaint filed shall instead be made to or filed with the Superintendent or designee who shall determine how the complaint will be investigated.

Support for Intersex, Nonbinary, Transgender and Gender-Nonconforming Students

Gender refers to a student's sex, and includes a student's gender identity and gender expression. (Education Code 210.7)

Gender identity refers to a student's gender-related identity, appearance, or behavior as determined from the student's internal sense, regardless of whether that gender-related identity, appearance, or behavior is different from that traditionally associated with the student's physiology or assigned sex at birth.

Gender expression refers to a student's gender-related appearance and behavior, regardless of whether stereotypically associated with the student's assigned sex at birth. (Education Code 210.7)

Gender transition refers to the process in which a student changes from living and identifying as the sex assigned to the student at birth to living and identifying as the sex that corresponds to the student's gender identity.

Gender-nonconforming refers to when a student's gender expression differs from stereotypical expectations.

Intersex refers to when a student has natural bodily variations in anatomy, hormones, chromosomes, and other traits that differ from expectations generally associated with female and male bodies.

Nonbinary refers to when a student's gender identity falls outside of the traditional conception of strictly either female or male, regardless of whether the student identifies as transgender, was born with intersex traits, uses gender-neutral pronouns, or uses agender, genderqueer, pangender, gender nonconforming, gender variant, or such other more specific term to describe their gender.

Sex refers to the biological condition of being a female or male human being. (5 CCR 4910)

Transgender refers to when a student's gender identity is different from the sex assigned at birth.

The district shall ensure that all students, regardless of sex, gender, gender identity or gender expression, are afforded the same rights, benefits, and protections provided to students by law and Board policy. To do so, the Superintendent or designee shall address each situation that arises on a case-by-case basis and in accordance with the following guidelines:

Acceptance of a Student's Gender Identity: The district shall accept the student's assertion of the student's gender identity and treat the student consistent with that gender identity unless district personnel present a credible and supportable basis for believing that the student's assertion is for an improper purpose

Use of Names and Pronouns: Upon request by a student, district personnel shall address the student by the requested name and pronoun(s), without the necessity of a court order or a change to the student's mandatory permanent student record

Inadvertent slips or honest mistakes by district personnel in the use of the student's name and/or pronouns may not constitute a violation of this administrative regulation or the accompanying Board policy.

Accessibility to Sex-Segregated Facilities, Programs, and Activities: When the district maintains sex-segregated facilities, such as restrooms and locker rooms, or offers sex-segregated programs and activities, such as physical education classes, intermural sports, and interscholastic athletic programs, students shall be permitted to access facilities and participate in programs and activities consistent with their gender identity

Additionally, a student shall be permitted to participate in accordance with the student's gender identity in other circumstances where students are separated by sex, such as for class discussions, yearbook pictures, and field trips.

To address any student's privacy concerns in using sex-segregated facilities, the district shall consider offering a gender-neutral or single-use restroom or changing area, a bathroom stall with a door, an area in the locker room separated by a curtain or screen, or use of the locker room before or after the other students. However, in no case shall the district require a student to utilize these options because of the student's sex, gender, gender identify, or gender expression. A student's right to participate in a sex-segregated activity in accordance with the student's gender identity shall not render invalid or inapplicable any other eligibility rule established for participation in the activity.

Beginning July 1, 2026, each school shall provide and maintain at least one all-gender restroom for student use that meets the requirements of Education Code 35292.5.

Adherence to Uniforms/Dress Code: A student has the right to dress in a manner consistent with the student's gender identity, subject to any dress code adopted on a school site, which may not discriminate on the basis of sex, gender, gender identity or gender expression

Equal Access to Educational Programs and Activities: Upon request by a student based on the student's gender identity or gender expression, the Compliance Officer shall identify and develop strategies for ensuring that the student's access to educational programs and activities is maintained

The Compliance Officer shall consider the rights of all students and how those rights may affect and be affected by the rights of other students. Additionally, the Compliance Officer shall identify specific school site employee(s) to whom the student may report any problem related to the student's sex, gender, gender identity, or gender expression so that prompt action can be taken to address it. Alternatively, if appropriate and desired by the student, the school may form a support team for the student that will meet periodically to assess whether the arrangements for the student are providing equal access to programs and activities.

Right to privacy: A student's sex, gender, gender identity, and gender status is private information

The district may only disclose such information to others when the disclosure is permitted by law, with the student's prior written consent, or when the district has compelling evidence that disclosure is necessary to preserve the student's physical or mental well-being. (Education Code 220.3, 220.5; 34 CFR 99.31, 99.36)

Opioid Overdose Protocol – Melanie's Law

Current law (Education Code section 49414.3) allows schools to provide emergency opioid antagonist administration for individuals who may be experiencing symptoms of opioid drug poisoning. Opioid drug poisoning is a life-threatening condition that can be reversed with the administration of an opioid antagonist medication such as naloxone. Without immediate administration of an opioid antagonist and summoning Emergency Medical Services (911), death could occur.

This law allows for a school nurse or a trained volunteer to administer an opioid antagonist medication to an individual who is exhibiting potentially life-threatening symptoms of opioid drug poisoning. Training is provided to the volunteer on topics including but not limited to:

- Signs and symptoms of opioid drug poisoning
- How to administer the naloxone nasal spray (or other opioid antagonist)
- Calling EMS (911) and any follow up documentation or actions required.

*CPR training is recommended but not required of persons trained to administer an opioid antagonist.

Staff members who volunteer to be trained are protected under the law and will be provided defense and indemnification by the District for any and all civil liability.

This notification is provided annually to all staff. If staff are willing to be identified as a volunteer and be trained, staff complete the volunteer form and submit it to their site administrator.

Employees who volunteer to be trained may rescind their offer to volunteer at any time. No benefit will be granted to or withheld from any individual based on his or her offer to volunteer. There will be no retaliation against any individual for rescinding his or her offer to volunteer, including after receiving training.

Notification of Immigration Enforcement for Zoe Barnum High School

Protocol for Responding to ICE Agents on Campus
(Updated to reflect AB 49, SB 98, and CDE Guidance, September 2025)

This protocol is aligned with recommendations from the California School Board Association (CSBA), the California Department of Education (CDE), and recent legislation (AB 49 and SB 98). It is designed to uphold the law while protecting the rights and safety of students and staff.

Step 1: Remain Calm and Professional
Greet ICE agents respectfully.
Do not obstruct their actions physically or verbally.
Remember: Obstruction may result in legal consequences and loss of federal funding.

Step 2: Verify Access Requirements (AB 49)
Do not allow ICE agents into non-public areas of the school-site (classrooms, offices, buses, field trips, or other LEA-sponsored activities) without one of the following:

- A valid judicial warrant
- A judicial subpoena
- A court order
- A state or federal law requiring compliance

Politely ask:
1. “Do you have a judicial warrant, subpoena, or court order?”
2. “May I have your name and the names of the agents present?”
3. “May I call my principal to help assist in this process?”
4. “May I contact the superintendent/district office to ensure I follow Governing Board Policies correctly?”
5. “May I record this interaction?”

Step 3: Document the Interaction
Record:

- Names of agents
- Time and date of arrival
- Any documents presented
- Details of their requests or actions

Do not interpret legal documents yourself. Immediately forward warrants, subpoenas, or court orders to district-level personnel.

Step 4: Follow Standard Law Enforcement Procedures
Treat ICE agents as you would any other law enforcement officers (LEOs).
Verify credentials.
Ensure all interactions align with visitor management and safety protocols.

Step 5: Communication Protocol (SB 98)
Notify the following if ICE is present on a school site:

- Pupils
- Families
- Faculty and staff
- Other community members as appropriate

Use district-approved messaging channels to ensure clear, accurate, and timely communication.

Step 6: Prioritize Safety and Contact the District Office
Keep students and staff safe and calm.
If uncertain how to proceed, immediately contact the District Office for guidance.
Do not make independent legal determinations—defer to district leadership.
Key Reminders
Student and staff well-being comes first.
Never allow unauthorized access to non-public areas.
Always document interactions and escalate legal review.

Such information shall be stored in a box in a secure, easily accessible location, with a duplicate kept at another location in case the primary location is inaccessible.

Use of SEMS/NIMS *

The District uses the Incident Command System as identified in the Authorities and References section of this plan.

In the event of a major disaster, there is no guarantee emergency medical, or fire personnel will be able to immediately respond to school sites. Therefore, the school staff must be prepared to ensure the care and safety of students during the first several hours after a major disaster without outside assistance. It is critical to determine who does what, where, and how before such a disaster occurs.

Use the Standardized Emergency Management System as detailed in the California Emergency Services Act (Gov. Code Section 8607) and the supporting California Code of Regulations

Disaster Service Worker Status

Government Code 3100
It is hereby declared that the protection of the health and safety and preservation of the lives and property of the people of the state from the effects of natural, manmade, or war-caused emergencies which result in conditions of disaster or in extreme peril to life, property, and resources is of paramount state importance requiring the responsible efforts of public and private agencies and individual citizens. In furtherance of the exercise of the police power of the state in protection of its citizens and resources, all public employees are hereby declared to be disaster service workers subject to such disaster service activities as may be assigned to them by their supervisors or by law.
(Amended by Stats. 1971, Ch. 38.)

These laws have two ramifications: 1) public school employees may be pressed into service as Disaster Service Workers by their superiors and may be asked to do jobs other than their usual duties for periods of time exceeding their normal working hours; and 2) in those cases, their Worker's Compensation Coverage becomes the responsibility of the state government (CalOES). The district, however, pays their overtime pay. These circumstances apply only when a local or State emergency has been proclaimed.

Individualized Safety Plans

The Education Code requires school disaster procedures to also include adaptations for pupils with disabilities in accordance with the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act and Section 504 of the federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and would require the annual evaluation of the comprehensive school safety plan and the annual review of a charter school's school safety plan to also include ensuring that the plan includes appropriate adaptations for pupils with disabilities and address any concerns to individual plans, as specified.

Zoe Barnum High School Individualized Plans

At this time, there are no students enrolled that require accommodation to the safety plan.

CSSP and Emergency Operations Training

All staff was trained on emergency procedures through updates on calendar invites and through admin-led training that happen every other Monday for one hour.

The Board shall grant the use of school buildings, grounds, and equipment to public agencies, including the American Red Cross, for mass care and welfare shelters during disasters or other emergencies affecting the public health and welfare. The Board shall cooperate with such agencies in furnishing and maintaining whatever services the district may deem necessary to meet the community's needs. (Education Code 32282)

Emergency Procedures for People with Disabilities

The information contained in this document will assist school administrators, teachers, special education staff, parents, and students in planning for the support that may require for students with special needs in the event of an emergency. For the purposes of this section, students with special needs are those who cannot comfortably or safely access and use the standard resources offered in disaster preparedness, relief and recovery, whether their disability is chronic or temporary.

For individuals with special needs, physical environments may pose additional challenges. The ability to get to accessible exits and access personal items may be reduced. Communication may be impeded at a time when clear and rapid communication is crucial to safety and survival.
To comply with statutes involving students with special needs, individuals responsible for evacuation and emergency operation plans, notification protocols, shelter identification, emergency medical care and other emergency response and recovery programs must:

- Have sound working knowledge of the accessibility and nondiscrimination requirements applicable under Federal disability rights laws;
- Know the special needs demographics of the students attending classes on site;
- Involve students with different types of disabilities, staff, and teachers in identifying the communication and transportation needs, accommodations, support systems, equipment, services, and supplies that they will need during an emergency;
- Consider emergency accommodations for those with temporary disabilities.
- Identify existing resources within the school and local community that meet the special needs of these students;
- Develop new community partners and resources, as needed.
- Inform parents about the efforts to keep their child safe at school;
- Identify medical needs and make an appropriate plan;
- Determine transportation needs, special vans and buses for students;
- Identify any necessary tools such as personal response plans, evacuation equipment or visual aids;
- Include local responders and establish a relationship with individual students with disabilities and their teachers.

Mitigation Strategies (Before an Emergency Occurs)

- Learn about the types of hazards that may impact the school (e.g., earthquakes, floods, wildfires) and assure that emergency response procedures address each one.
- Identify a pre-evacuation site that is accessible to students with disabilities
- Plan a primary and secondary evacuation route from each location the student is in during the course of the day.
- Arrange sufficient transportation ahead of time to accommodate the entire special needs/staff population.
- Develop a schedule of daily activities and classes that identifies where a special needs student may be located each period of the day.
- Consider classroom location in placement of students with disabilities. Evaluate the handicap accessibility of nearby exits and proximity to the school nurse.
- Conduct a test of the family notification system to assure that contact information is up-to-date to help decrease parent anxiety during a disaster.

Tactical Response to Criminal Incidents

ACTIVE SHOOTER OR OTHER ACTIVE ASSAILANTS

All district sites adhere to the standardized procedures for Lockdown and Active Shooter and other Active Assailant listed in this plan if there is an active shooter, individual with a weapon on campus or other possible violent crime. For more details see Active Asailant, Threats , and Lock Down procedures.

Dangerous, Violent, Or Unlawful Activities

SB 671
SB 671 requires a Comprehensive School Safety Plan to include procedures to assess and respond to reports of any dangerous, violent, or unlawful activity that is being conducted or threatened to be conducted at the school, at an activity sponsored by the school, or on a school bus serving the school.

Multidisciplinary Threat Assessment Team
Eureka City Schools uses a multidisciplinary threat assessment team consisting of the specific site administrator, a local law enforcement representative, the student services Director, mental health or behavioral specialist representative as needed, and other outside services as needed.

Assessment and Response
Prohibited and concerning behaviors are defined in California Education Code 48900 and 48915. Additionally, all threats of self-harm are assessed and acted upon, as needed. In cases where dangerous, violent, or unlawful activities are being conducted, Law Enforcement is notified at once and a call to 911 is made.

The threshold of law enforcement intervention is decided by the relevant administration in cooperation with the District and mutual aid if requested. In practice, we find if a real or possible threat is present. We evaluate the threat or possible threat based upon prohibited and concerning behaviors, responding appropriately to the incident.

Risk Management
Risk Management is notified in incidents where there is physical, property or damage to others. Additionally, Risk Management is involved if a security assessment or report is needed. There may be times, following a potential or real incident, that an after-action debrief might be conducted, including a written summary.

School Culture and Training
Eureka City Schools utilizes PBIS as outlined in our PBIS Handbook. Eureka City Schools School Climate Team created our PBIS handbook in consultation with Dr. Jeff Sprague. The purpose of this handbook is to guide and support ECS staff as we implement PBIS in our school. Our goal is to provide all of our students with safe and effective school environments where they can experience academic and social-behavioral success.

Eureka City Schools conducts an annual update to their Comprehensive Safe School Plan at each school site as required by the California Education Code.

Training for all stakeholders is conducted during annual site meetings by administrators and/or district representatives.

Reunification

Student release is a crucial part of emergency planning. During an emergency or disaster, the traditional student release procedure is often unsafe and therefore not operable. Accordingly, a comprehensive emergency plan needs to include certain procedures to accomplish the main priority of safety planning which is to ensure the safety of the students to every extent possible.

There are a wide variety of emergency situations that might require student/family reunification. Student/family reunification may be needed if the site is evacuated or closed as a result of a hazardous materials transportation accident, fire, natural gas leak, flooding, earthquake, tsunami, school violence, bomb threat, terrorist attack or other local hazard.

Student/Family reunification is part of the Incident Command System and is assigned to the Operations Area.

Threats of Violence

THREATS

If a threat is made or if there is a weapon found on campus, the Threat Assessment team (consisting of multi-disciplinary personnel, including but not limited administration, counselors, mental health professionals, Information Technology professionals and law enforcement) will conduct the following steps:

- Evaluate the threat

THEN

- Decide if the threat is clearly transient and respond to the transient threat

o Contact student's parents if necessary.
o Notify intended victim's parents if necessary.
o See that threat is resolved through explanation, apology or making amends.
o Consult with Risk Management & Security Manager or law enforcement if necessary.
o Refer for conflict mediation, restorative justice or counseling to resolve problem as appropriate.
o Follow discipline procedures as per BP/AR.
o Develop Behavior Intervention Plan or Behavior Contract as appropriate.

OR

o Decide if the substantive threat is serious and respond to the serious substantive threat.
o Mobilize threat assessment team members as needed.
o Contact student's parents.
o Notify intended victim's parents.
o Protect and notify intended victim and parents of victim.
o Caution the student about the consequences of carrying out the threat.
o Provide direct supervision of student until parents assume control
o Consult with Risk Management and law enforcement.
o Refer for conflict mediation, restorative justice or counseling to resolve problem is appropriate
o Follow discipline procedures as per BP/AR
o Develop Behavior Intervention Plan

OR

- Decide if the substantive threat is very serious and respond to the very serious substantive threat

o Mobilize threat assessment team members as needed.
o Contact student's parents
o Notify intended victim's parents
o Protect and notify intended victim and parents of victim
o Caution the student about the consequences of carrying out the threat
o Provide direct supervision of student until parents assume control
o Consult with Risk Management & Security Manager and Law Enforcement
o Conduct mental health assessment
o Follow discipline procedures as per BP/AR
o Develop Behavior Intervention Plan

AND

- Implement a safety plan

OTHER CRIMES

If other crimes are committed on campus such as thefts and vandalism school administration, risk management and other needed resources along with law enforcement will conduct an investigation. Depending on the investigation outcomes, administration will follow district procedures for discipline and will assist in any necessary prosecution procedures through the District Attorney's office.

FUNCTIONAL ANNEX

Accounting for all Persons

Attendance Records

It is our daily practice to maintain manual attendance records in the Administrative Office of each site. This includes Daily Attendance Records, Site Employee Logs, Visitor Logs, and Itinerant Employee Logs (such as food services, maintenance and operations, etc.). If there are contractors or contracted service workers on-site in a controlled location (such as fenced areas under construction) the employer of record should be advised to consider keeping their own records of employee locations.

Crisis or Incident Accounting

In the event of a crisis or incident, each site administrator will ensure there are 2 – 3 key employees (only one needs to have control of records at a time – additional staff are only for backup) who will have responsibility as scribes to collect all site attendance records from the administrative office.

These records are to be provided to the on-site incident commander upon request. It is the scribe's responsibility to maintain and protect these records.

In cases where students, staff, or visitors cannot be located, the name and description of the person(s) will be provided to Search and Rescue teams for more specific search. All records of searches and tracking of people on-site will be recorded in appropriate ICS log. The incident commander will be kept informed of attendance status and updated with changes.

Assembly Areas

All staff will report as soon as is possible to their predesignated assembly areas. Premade signs may be used and maintained in assembly kits to assist in identifying specific assembly areas and will be held so as to be easily identified. Assembly area facilitators will distribute/record the attendance of all individuals in their assembly area.

For shelter-in-place or any evacuation, either on-site or off-site, attendance will be taken at any assembly areas and a comparison made to the attendance logs as follows:

Student Daily Attendance
Site Employee Log
Visitor Log
Itinerant Employee Log

Student Release

Student release will be conducted in an orderly fashion as outlined in the Reunification Annex of this plan. Attendance records will be checked and recorded as students leave the site.

Communications

Purpose

The Communications Annex ensures the availability and coordinated use of our communications systems for the dissemination of disaster information, for the exchange of information between decision-makers, and for the coordination of communications with local response agencies.

Scope

When activated, the Communications annex coordinates and supports emergency response/recovery telecommunications requirements. This includes the interface between our District and other agencies and outside organizations, such as local, state, and federal government, private nonprofit organizations, and business/industry. Immediately report communications degradation, interruption, or failure by alternate means (e.g. cell phone) to the Communications Officer and/or the District's Emergency Operations Center (EOC) if activated.

Activation

The senior executive (or designee) determines whether to activate this annex based upon information from initial staff reports and local authorities. The local emergency communications plan will include:
Channel designations
Contingency communications procedures
Training in back-up communications equipment

Key Tasks/Responsibilities

Develop a local communications plan
Establish and maintain liaison with local response agencies, state agencies, commercial communications companies, and amateur radio organizations
Support communications equipment (radio, computer, fax, etc.) as needed
Provide communications capability
Maintain equipment inventory
Designate a centrally-located area (usually main office) easily identified by staff, media, and the public
Predetermine an alternate location in case the primary location is inaccessible
Establish communication with staff
Maintain telephone and radio communication with emergency services
Post rumor control and information on the internet and in an area accessible to our students and the community
Record emergency related incidents
Maintain communication with staff by whatever means available (SMS text messaging, audio alarm warning system, intercom, bullhorn, canned air horn, two-way radio, e-mail, written notices)

Internal Communications

Staff will be notified when an incident occurs and kept informed as additional information becomes available and as plans for management of the situation evolve. The following practices will be utilized to disseminate information internally when appropriate:

Alert Notifications (SMS Texting)

Staff will be notified when an incident occurs and kept informed as additional information becomes available and as plans for management of the situation evolve. The following practices will be utilized to disseminate information internally when appropriate:

Telephone Tree

A telephone tree is a simple, widely used system for notifying staff of an incident when they are not at their primary work location. The tree originates with the senior site official, who contacts the members of the Incident Management Team. Team members then, in turn, will contact groups of staff identified on their call list.

Staff Meetings

As appropriate, updated information about an incident will be presented at regularly scheduled staff meetings. In some cases, special staff meetings may be called as incident evolution requires. Staff will also have the opportunity to address any misinformation or rumors. Any new procedures or temporary changes will also be reviewed at this time.

Communication With the District Administrative Office

The Incident Commander will use the designated countywide Emergency Radio Network to notify the site administrator of our District's status/needs. The site administrator will notify the District office. The District office will notify the County Office of the status of all of the District's sites. He/she will designate staff member(s) to monitor all communications.

Activation

Concept of Operations

The senior executive (or designee) determines whether to activate this annex based upon information from initial staff reports and local authorities. When activated, the Communications annex coordinates and supports emergency response/recovery telecommunications requirements

Immediately report communications degradation, interruption, or failure by alternate means (e.g. cell phone) to our District's Emergency Operations Center (EOC) if activated or the Communications Officer

The local emergency communications plan will include channel designations, contingency communications procedures, and training in back-up communications equipment.

Continuity of Operations (COOP)

General

Continuity of Operations planning is a program that ensures continued performance of essential functions across a full range of potential emergencies, be they natural or man-made, when a significant interruption of operations occurs following a severe disaster or tragedy.

A COOP provides guidance and establishes responsibilities and procedures to ensure that essential functions are maintained. COOP is not the same as an Emergency Operations Plan or a Recovery Plan, but rather supplements it, in the event normal facility or human resources are not available.

A COOP provides a continuity infrastructure that through careful planning ensures:
Emergency delegation of authority and an orderly line of succession, as necessary.
Safekeeping of essential personnel, resources, facilities, and vital records.
Emergency acquisition of resources necessary for business resumption.
The capability to perform critical functions remotely until resumption of normal operations.

A District's COOP plan should allow for its implementation anytime, with or without warning, during normal and after-hours operations; providing full operational capability for essential functions no later than 12 hours after activation; and sustain essential functions for up to 30 days.

The purpose of these Continuity of Operations (COOP) procedures is to ensure that there are procedures in place to maintain or rapidly resume essential operations within the District after an incident that results in disruption of normal activities or services to the District. Failure to maintain these critical services would significantly affect the operations and/or service mission of the District in an adverse way.

Scope

It is the responsibility of the District's officials to protect students and staff from incidents and restore critical operations as soon as it is safe to do so. This responsibility involves identifying and mitigating hazards, preparing for and responding to incidents, and managing the recovery process.

The COOP procedures outline actions needed to maintain and/or rapidly resume essential operations, business, and physical services, when interrupted for an extended period of time following an incident.

Responsibilities

Designated District Staff, in conjunction with the affected administrator(s) and staff, will perform the essential functions as follows:

Senior Executive/Site Administrator

Determine when to close District, and/or send students/staff to alternate locations
Disseminate information internally to students and staff
Communicate with family, media, and the larger community
Identify a line of succession, including who is responsible for restoring which business functions for the District
Ensure systems are in place for rapid contract execution after an incident
Identify relocation areas for site and administrative operations
Create a system for registering students (off site or into alternative locations)
Brief and train staff regarding their additional responsibilities

Secure and provide needed personnel, equipment and supplies, facilities, resources, and services required for continued operations
Identify strategies to continue operations (e.g., using the Internet, providing alternatives to operational contingencies)
Work with local and state government officials to determine when it is safe for students and staff to return to the District's buildings and grounds
Manage the restoration of the District's buildings and grounds (e.g. debris removal, repairing, repainting, and/or landscaping)
Collaborate with private and public-sector service providers and contractors

Administrative Services, District Staff

Maintain inventory
Maintain essential records (and copies of records) including the District's insurance policy
Ensure redundancy of records is kept at a different physical location.
Secure District's equipment and materials in advance.
Restore administrative and recordkeeping functions such as payroll, accounting, and personnel records.
Retrieve, collect, and maintain personnel data
Provide accounts payable and cash management services

Administrative Support Staff

Establish necessary support services for students and staff
Implement additional response and recovery activities according to established protocols
Collaborate with public and private providers

Food Services Worker

Determine how food services will resume
Support staff and volunteers as much as possible

Transportation

Provide emergency transportation services as needed
Assess and implement alternative transportation services that may be necessitated

Evacuation

General

Evacuation is one means of protecting the staff, students and visitors from the effects of a hazard through the orderly movement of person(s) away from the hazard. The type and magnitude of the emergency will dictate the scale of an evacuation (i.e., evacuation area).

Concept of Operations

Evacuation orders are generally given by the following:
Local Police
Environmental Health & Safety
Facilities Services
Administrator, director, or building supervisor
Fire Department with jurisdiction
Any person identifying a hazard and by activating the fire alarm system via a fire alarm pull station

Evacuation Procedures

Evacuation will be initiated by means of the fire alarm system. Whenever the alarm is sounded all occupants of all buildings are to initiate the evacuation procedure.
Take the Incident Action packet/binder which has a current class list and a red/green 8½ x 11 card (red on one side and green on the other side)
Close all doors and windows. (DO NOT LOCK DOORS)
Follow the safest evacuation route to the assembly or safe dispersal area.
Teachers are to take roll and make certain no one reenters the building for any reason.
If all students are present with staff member, staff will hold up the GREEN sheet to acknowledge to responsible incident management person that all students are present.
Support staff who have regular schedules with students need to have a green and red card also. If all students who are regularly scheduled are in their care and custody, they are to raise the green card, so staff member and responsible incident management person can see.
Staff members are to raise the red card even if they think a student is with support staff so responsible incident management person can account for those students.
If a student is not present, the staff member will hold up the RED card and wait for the administration to contact him/her to see who is absent. The responsible incident management person will coordinate the search for the missing student.
Students should remain 30 – 50 feet away from any building.
Students are to remain in groups, until the all clear signal is given.

On-Site Evacuation

The Incident Commander or designee activates fire alarm.
All staff follow the Evacuation Procedures identified above.
Once assembled, building occupants remain in their designated assembly or safe dispersal area until further instructions are given.
Reentry is only authorized after it is determined that conditions and buildings are deemed safe by appropriate incident management staff.

Off-Site Evacuation

If it is determined that the buildings and area are not safe for occupation and that the On-Site Evacuation locations are also at risk, the appropriate incident management staff will initiate an Off-Site Evacuation.
The Incident Commander or designee determines safest method for evacuating the site. This may include use of buses or simply walking to designated off-site location.
Staff members secure the student roster when leaving the building and take attendance once group is assembled in pre-designated safe location.
Once assembled off-site, staff members and students stay in place until further instructions are given.
In the event clearance is received from appropriate agencies, Incident Commander may authorize students and staff to return to buildings.

Evacuating Students with Disabilities

Procedures and actions regarding the special needs' population should cover the evacuation, transportation and medical needs of students who will require extreme special handling in an emergency. In most cases, additional safeguards must be established regarding roles, responsibilities and procedures for students with physical, sensory, emotional and health disabilities.

The following are steps that cover the evacuation procedure of student(s) with disabilities:
Review all paths of travel and potential obstacles
Know the facility, grounds, paths, exits and potential obstacles
Determine the primary and secondary paths of exit to be used during emergencies
Individuals with mobility impairments will need a smooth, solid, level walking surface, an exit that avoids barriers such as stairs, narrow doors and elevators and guardrails that protect open sides of the path
Compile and distribute evacuation route information to be used during emergency operations
Include alternative evacuation route information, should the primary route be inaccessible due to damage or danger
Install appropriate signage and visual alarms
Place evacuation information indicating primary and secondary exits in all offices, rooms, multipurpose rooms, hallways/corridors, lobbies, bathrooms and cafeterias. For passages and doorways that might be mistaken for an exit, place visible signs that proclaim, "NOT AN EXIT"
Place emergency notification devices appropriate for each student
Post signage with the name and location of each area so that the students will know exactly where they are, in order to comply with ADA (American's with Disabilities Act) Accessibility

Buildings and Facilities Signage Requirements

Approximately 60 inches above the floor
In a location that is not obscured in normal operation such as a swinging door
In all primary function areas

Preparation and Planning

Identify the students and staff with special needs and the type of assistance they will require in an emergency
Allow visitors to self-identify on a sign-in log if they have special evacuation needs
Discuss evacuation issues with the staff members and caretakers of students with special needs, including individuals, who may be temporarily disabled (i.e. a student with a broken leg)
Train staff in general evacuation procedures

Review the areas of rescue, primary exits, evacuation techniques, and the locations and operation of emergency equipment
Provide in-depth training to those designated to evacuate students with special needs
Train the staff for proper lifting techniques when lifting a person for evacuation
Anyone can assist a student with a visual impairment
Check on each special needs student to assure he/she is accounted for during an evacuation
Review the plan with emergency response personal, including local police, fire and emergency medical technicians
Identify “areas of rescue” in our site for students to wait for evacuation assistance from emergency personnel
Before operations begin in the Fall, walk around the site with first responders so that they are familiar with the primary exits and all areas of rescue; these areas must meet specifications for fire resistance and ventilation
Ask the responders to conduct a special drill explaining how they will support the students and staff with special needs during an emergency
Complete all contracts and Statements of Understanding with key emergency support providers
Ensure that sufficient transportation capacity exists with transportation providers, partner agencies, and suppliers to effectively meet the demand in an emergency
Identify transportation contracts through the District in case of an emergency; Emergency response for special needs requires special vans and special equipment
Specify who will do what to address these transportation needs
Develop a list of District-owned vehicles, staff vehicles that are available and make prior arrangements for their use in the event of an emergency
Review the evacuation plan with students and staff to be familiar with the process and identify any problems
Practice implementation of special duck and cover actions by students with able-bodied partners
Students should be aware that evacuation by themselves may be difficult or impossible because of obstacles in their path or because electric dependent machines may not function (i.e. elevator)
Special pre-planned assistance must be provided and reviewed regularly

Lockdown

General

A District or school site lock down is necessary when the threat of violence or gunfire is identified or directed by law enforcement and it is necessary to prevent the perpetrator(s) from entering occupied areas. During lock down, students are to remain in rooms or designated locations at all times.

Instructions

If a lock down situation is required, the Site Administrator will make an announcement on the Public Address (PA) system. If the PA system is not available, the Site Administrator will use other means of communication (e.g., sending messengers to deliver instructions). The Site Administrator should be calm, convey reassuring comments that the situation is under control, and provide clear and consistent directions. Below is an example of an announcement to be made by the Site Administrator:

"YOUR ATTENTION PLEASE. WE HAVE AN EMERGENCY SITUATION. STAFF ARE TO LOCK ROOM DOORS UNTIL NOTIFIED BY AN ADMINISTRATOR OR LAW ENFORCEMENT. STUDENTS AND STAFF ARE TO PROCEED TO THE NEAREST ROOM OR BUILDING. PLEASE REMAIN INDOORS UNTIL FURTHER INSTRUCTIONS ARE PROVIDED."

If inside, staff should instruct students to lie on the floor, move away from doors and remain in the center of the room out of the line of fire, lock the doors (if possible), and close any shades or blinds if it appears safe to do so. Students and staff who are physically unable to lie on the ground should move away from doors and windows.
If outside, students should proceed to their rooms if it is safe to do so. If it is not safe, staff must direct students into nearby rooms or other District buildings (e.g., auditorium, library, cafeteria, and gymnasium).
District staff and students must remain in their room or secured area until further instructions are provided by the Site Administrator or law enforcement.
Landline phones should not be used. District staff should use cell phones and speak quietly.
All site entrances and exits must be locked, and no visitors other than appropriate law enforcement or emergency personnel are to be allowed on the site.

Public, Medical, and Mental Health

General

Establishment of public, medical, and mental health procedures, will assist the District in preparing for, responding to, and recovering from an incident that affects the health and safety of students, staff, and family. Furthermore, coordination with Public Health agencies, Emergency Medical Services (EMS), and Mental Health support services will broaden their capacity to deal with these incidents by providing the District with resources beyond their existing expertise and training.

Public Health

Procedures

Designate District Medical Manager and/or other key personnel as the individual(s) responsible for coordinating incidents such as disease outbreaks, bioterrorism, and natural disasters with local, State, and Federal Public Health agencies.
Coordinate with local, State, and Federal Public Health agencies on information sharing protocols.
Develop procedures for reporting information to local, State, and Federal Public Health agencies.
Contact local Public Health agency to determine notification procedures for students/family, staff, and public, if necessary.
Send out any required notification to students/family, staff and public as required.
Establish a dedicated contact phone number for questions and concerns.
Coordinate with local, State, and Federal Public Health agencies, for assistance with managing large scale incidents or incidents beyond the District's resources.

Medical Health

Procedures

Designate District Medical Manager and/or other key personnel as the individual(s) responsible for coordinating incidents involving students or staff injuries or illnesses
Provide CPR/First Aid/AED to all staff designated to work in medical capacity
Establish a triage area for injured students and staff
Separate walking wounded, critically injured and deceased individuals (Keep a log of names of these individuals)
Keep a record of students and staff that are transported off-site for treatment.
Coordinate with local Emergency Medical Services (EMS) agencies for assistance with large scale incidents or incidents beyond the District's resources.

Mental Health

Procedures

Designate crisis counselors and/or other key personnel as the individual(s) responsible for coordinating incidents with local, State, and Federal Mental Health agencies
Activate crisis counselors during the incident to begin identifying students and staff that require assistance
Keep a log of individuals counseled or that require counseling following the incident
Notify students, family, and staff of counseling services available
Coordinate with local, State, and Federal Mental Health agencies, for assistance with large scale incidents or incidents beyond the 's resources.

Psychological First Aid for Schools (PFA-S)

The field of school safety and emergency management has evolved significantly over the past decade. Tragically, acts of violence, natural disasters, and terrorist attacks have taught us many lessons. We also know that other types of emergencies can impact schools, including medical emergencies, transportation accidents, sports injuries, peer victimization, public health emergencies, and the sudden death of a member of the school community. We now recognize the need for school emergency management plans that are up-to-date and take an “all-hazards”approach with clear communication channels and procedures that effectively reunite parents and caregivers with students. We have also learned that preparing school administrators, teachers, and school partnering agencies before a critical event is crucial for effective response, the value of ongoing training and emergency exercises, and that having intervention models that address the public health, mental health, and psychosocial needs of students and staff is essential to a safe school environment and the resumption of learning. (excerpted from Psychological First Aid for Schools, Field Operations Guide, 2nd Edition)

Field Operations Guide (FOG)

We use the PFA-S FOG as-needed, to prepare and respond to critical incidents affecting the mental health of our students. https://www.nctsn.org/resources/psychological-first-aid-schools-pfa-s-field-operations-guide

Public Safety and Security

Purpose

The Public Safety and Security Annex integrates State public safety and security capabilities and resources to support the full range of incident management activities.

Scope

The Public Safety and Security Annex provides a mechanism for coordinating and providing support to local law enforcement authorities to include non-investigative/non-criminal law enforcement, public safety, and security capabilities and resources during incidents. The Public Safety and Security Annex capabilities support incident management requirements, including force and critical infrastructure protection, security planning and technical assistance, technology support, and public safety, in both pre-incident and post-incident situations. The Public Safety and Security Annex generally is activated in situations requiring extensive assistance to provide public safety and security.

Key Tasks/Responsibilities

Coordinate public safety and security support (including personnel and equipment) to any affected department/agency during preparation for, response to, and/or recovery from any real or potential incident.
County Sheriff's Office
Police Department
Other Law Enforcement Agencies
Private Security Companies

Coordinate critical information dissemination regarding public safety/security through mass warning/notification.

County Sheriff's Office
Police Department
Dispatch
County Emergency Management
Facilitate multi-function public safety activities such as evacuation, traffic, looting, and riot control
County Sheriff's Office
Police Department
Other Law Enforcement Agencies
Fire/EMS

Concept of Operations

Local law enforcement authorities have the primary responsibility for public safety and security and are the first line of response and support in these functional areas, utilizing the Incident Command System on-scene
In larger-scale incidents, additional resources should first be obtained through the activation of mutual aid agreements with neighboring jurisdictions and/or State authorities, which may require the management of incident operations through a Unified Command structure

Through the Public Safety and Security Annex, outside resources supplement local resources when requested or required, as appropriate, and are integrated into the incident command structure using National Incident Management System principles and protocols
The Public Safety and Security Annex activities should not be confused with the activities described in the Terrorism Incident Annex or other criminal investigative law enforcement activities

As the lead law enforcement official in the United States, the Attorney General, generally acting through the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), maintains the lead for criminal investigations of terrorist acts or terrorist threats by individuals or groups inside the United States
The Public Safety and Security Annex is activated when public safety and security capabilities and resources are needed to support incident operations
This includes threat or pre-incident as well as post-incident situations
When activated, the primary agencies assess public safety and security needs, and respond to requests for resources and planning/technical assistance from county agencies
The Public Safety and Security Annex manages support by coordinating the implementation of authorities related to public safety and security and protection of property, including critical infrastructure, and security resources and technologies and other assistance to support incident management operations and security capabilities and resources are needed to support incident operations
This includes threat or pre-incident as well as post-incident situations
The Public Safety and Security Annex maintains close coordination with Federal, State, and local officials to determine public safety and security support requirements and to jointly determine resource priorities
The primary agencies maintain communications with supporting agencies to determine capabilities, assess the availability of resources, and track resources that have been deployed

Recovery

General

When a disaster occurs, it is all too easy to get consumed by the urgent activities and emotions surrounding the event. That is understandable but don't allow the intensity of the incident to distract you from some extremely important actions you should be taking. Keep in mind that no financial assistance will occur until there is a declared disaster by the State and the Federal governments.

Tracking time and material (supplies and equipment specifically used for the disaster) should happen always, regardless of disaster declarations. There is no guarantee that we will get our expenses reimbursed. We are at the mercy of the State and Federal governments. In most cases, however, labor and materials specific to the disaster response get reimbursed. Losses already covered by our insurance are typically NOT reimbursed. For example, if an employee is injured our Workers' Compensation would cover the injured employee. If a building was damaged and our insurance does not cover that specific cause of loss there may be a chance it is reimbursable.

Before – Action Items

Establish relationships and contact information from our county Operational Area and Coordinating Council (OACC)
Create and maintain a current contact list with this information and other contact information essential to the Finance/Administration Section of our ICS structure
Train and practice the Start-up, Operation of, and the Closure of this ICS Section.
Modify and update our Emergency Operations Plan as necessary

During – Action Items

Within the very first moments of an incident, begin tracking every employee's and volunteer's time spent on the incident. (Be alert to any announcements from local or State government regarding "Public Assistance" requests or meetings.) Use the form designed for that purpose, the Activity Log (ICS 214). If not readily available, make sure each person is tracking the following:
Incident name
Date
Worker's name
Log each major activity and track start and end times
Don't be concerned with tracking too much – that can be sorted out after the event
This information will need to be transferred onto the Activity Log (ICS 214) before we can apply for Public Assistance funding (this is what they call the State and Federal reimbursement program)
Keep track of ANY disaster-related expenditures for supplies or equipment. It is best to retain copies of priced-out receipts and invoices for possible State and Federal reimbursement. For example, if our facilities may be used as a shelter and we are required to provide custodial services specific to the shelter, toilet paper, paper towels, cleaning material and chemicals would all likely be reimbursable. If our facility were being used as a medical care facility and the HVAC system required filters different than what we would normally use, the cost of the filters (and the labor to change them) are likely reimbursable.
Establish the Recovery Unit in the Finance/Administration Section of our Emergency Operations Center (EOC).
Have all sites or units collect information on their ability to sustain operations.
Develop staffing pattern for the Recovery Unit.

Collect information on damages, duration and impact from the following:
Utility Providers

Social, medical and health services
Transportation routes and services
Debris issues
County Government Operations
Private sector retail and wholesale providers
Others
Develop initial short term and long-term recovery objectives.
Refer to hazard/threat-specific annexes for information.
Develop information for the PIO on the recovery process and progress.
Develop a plan to assign personnel to sustain the recovery effort
Coordinate with the OACC, other local jurisdictions and the State on their recovery efforts.
While it is best if we already have an established relationship with our county Operational Area Coordinating Council (OACC) contact, we need to identify that individual and the means of communicating with them. We will want them to know who at our District will serve as the contact for emergency incidents. This will serve a couple of purposes:
It will keep our District "in the loop" and better informed when an incident affecting our District occurs
It will alert us to any notice of "Public Assistance" informational meetings to learn about getting Federal and State reimbursement for disaster related District activity
If our county's OACC is overwhelmed with an incident we should reach out directly to our Emergency Services Coordinator at the Governor's Office of Emergency Services Region Operational Area.
Ask them to put the District on the list for notification of "Public Assistance" informational meetings
There are forms that will be exchanged between our District and the OACC or the California Governor's Office of Emergency Services (they act as our liaison with FEMA)
If our employees and volunteers remain under our direction and control we are responsible for any costs associated with their activities. Should they perform work that they would not normally do and it is attributable to the disaster we will likely be able to reimburse the labor. Management costs are typically NOT reimbursable.
If our employees and volunteers, or our facilities, are tasked outside of our District we must only do so under the terms of a mutual aid agreement or memorandum of understanding to which the District have agreed, in writing. Make sure we understand when and if risk transfer occurs as it should be clear in these documents. These documents should identify, specifically, what is "covered" and by "whom." Examples for other agency usage of our facility might include the Fire Department using our facility as a command center for the incident.
Or, local hospitals may be "at-capacity" and need our facility to provide some form of medical or health services. In these cases, (like the case of sheltering) a written request for use of our facilities should be on file or requested prior to allowing the agency to use them. These documents should specify what they will and will not cover in terms of costs related to using the facility. Typically, if an outside agency damages the property or they cause a liability exposure, they are responsible for coverage.

When in doubt, ask for help.

After – Action Items

Begin closing the Recovery Unit
Assign any open or pending tasks, such as Public Assistance funding or other outstanding receivables or payables, to appropriate staff with specific checkup or due dates
Make sure all Activity Logs and equipment/supply records have been assembled and recorded into the request for Public Assistance from Cal OES and FEMA
Conduct an After-Action debrief within the Finance/Administration Section and include that in the main incident After-Action debrief held by the District
Review our EOP and include any lessons learned or altered actions into the plan for update and redistribution to the emergency management team
Participate in and debriefings provided by our ICS team and close the Recovery Unit

Reunification

General

Student release is a crucial part of emergency planning. During an emergency or disaster, the traditional student release procedure is often unsafe and therefore not operable. Accordingly, a comprehensive emergency plan needs to include certain procedures to accomplish the main priority of safety planning which is to ensure the safety of the students to every extent possible.

There are a wide variety of emergency situations that might require student/family reunification. Student/family reunification may be needed if the site is evacuated or closed as a result of a hazardous materials transportation accident, fire, natural gas leak, flooding, earthquake, tsunami, school violence, bomb threat, terrorist attack or other local hazard.

Student/Family reunification is part of the Incident Command System and is assigned to the Operations Area.

Reunification Procedures

In an emergency, sites must establish a safe area for family members to meet with students. This area must be away from the both the damage and the student's assembly area. In a typical release the following steps will be followed:

Family member will report to the assigned area and give the name of the student
Picture ID will normally be required by the person in charge to insure the person requesting a minor is a match to the name on the emergency release card
A runner will go to the student assembly area and get the minor requested by the parent or adult and escort the student back to the pick-up area
Parents will be asked to sign a form indicating they picked up the minor (the date and time will also be indicated on the pick-up form)
If the minor is in the first aid area, the parent will be escorted to that area for reunification with their child/children
Counselors, when available, will be located close to the first aid area in the event they are needed

Traffic Control

Traffic may be controlled by trained and authorized employees who meet the requirements outlined in the Manual on Uniform Traffic Control Devices (MUTCD) Part 7, Traffic Control for School Areas. In the absence of this condition, we must wait until local law enforcement is available and on scene at the site.
To every extent possible, two-way traffic will be maintained to allow for entry and exit of emergency vehicles
As the situation develops there may be time for barricades and other traffic control devices to be delivered and set up
It should be understood this will not occur at the beginning of the incident
When law enforcement arrives on the scene they will take charge and do whatever is necessary, including the towing of vehicles to manage the emergency or disaster

Maintaining the Procedures

Student rosters should be updated at least twice a year
If enrollment dictates this may be updated more frequently
Updated rosters should be stored in every room in an area easily identified by the both staff and substitutes.
Additional copies of the rosters should be distributed to the site administrator and placed in the back of the emergency plan binder

Emergency cards should be filled out at the beginning of the year
This card should include contact information on family members, as well as other adults who can be contacted if the family member is not available
The card should also indicate who the minor is permitted to leave site with, if necessary
DO NOT release students to people not listed on the student emergency card.
A well- intentioned friend may offer to take a minor home; however, District staff must be certain that students are only released to the appropriate people, so their families will know where they are
The card should also include all pertinent medical information such as allergies, medications, and doctor contact information
These cards should be stored in the front office in both hard copy and electronically, if possible

Things to Remember

Some family members will refuse to cooperate with the student/family reunification process
This situation can be diminished, to some degree, if family members are informed about the District's release procedures before the disaster or emergency occurs
They should be reminded that the safety of their student is our utmost priority
Family members may be emotional when arriving at the site
Have counselors available to deal with issues if needed
Shortly after the incident, the media will have a presence on our site
The Public Information Officer, part of the command staff operating under the Incident Command System, will deal with the media, however, it is important that family be sheltered from media representatives

Shelter-in-Place

General

This action is taken to place and/or keep students indoors in order to provide a greater level of protection from airborne contaminants in outside air. Shelter-in-place is implemented when there is a need to isolate students and staff from the outside environment and includes the shutdown of room and/or building air systems. During shelter-in-place, no one should be exposed to the outside air.

Description of Action

If an emergency occurs that requires students and staff to Shelter-in-Place, the Site Administrator will make an announcement on the PA system. If the PA system is not available, the Site Administrator will use other means of communication (e.g., sending messengers to deliver instructions). The Site Administrator should be calm, convey reassuring comments that the situation is under control, and provide clear and consistent directions. Below is an example of an announcement to be made by the Site Administrator:

"YOUR ATTENTION PLEASE. WE HAVE RECEIVED INFORMATION REGARDING A HAZARD IN THE COMMUNITY. WE ARE INSTITUTING SHELTER-IN-PLACE PROCEDURES. PLEASE REMAIN INSIDE THE BUILDING AWAY FROM OUTSIDE AIR WITH WINDOWS AND DOORS SECURELY CLOSED AND AIR CONDITIONING UNITS TURNED OFF. ALL STUDENTS AND STAFF THAT ARE OUTSIDE ARE TO IMMEDIATELY MOVE TO THE PROTECTION OF AN INSIDE ROOM. PLEASE REMAIN INDOORS UNTIL FURTHER INSTRUCTIONS ARE PROVIDED."

If inside, staff should keep students in their rooms until further instructions are given
If outside, students must proceed to their rooms if it is safe to do so
If it is determined to be unsafe, staff should direct students into nearby rooms or buildings (e.g., auditorium, library, cafeteria, and gymnasium)
Staff and students who were exposed to outside air should congregate in indoor locations away from individuals who were not exposed to outside air
Anyone who is exhibiting symptoms must be treated
Staff is responsible for securing individual rooms and for completing the following procedures as needed:
Shut down the room/building HVAC (Heating Ventilation and Air Conditioning) system
Turn off local fans in the area
Close and lock doors and windows

If necessary, seal gaps under doors and windows with wet towels or duct tape, seal vents with aluminum foil or plastic wrap, and turn off sources of ignition, such as pilot lights

Situational Awareness

In the U.S., every public agency is expected to address situational awareness and personnel security. Situational Awareness is the ability to identify, process, and comprehend the critical information about an incident. More simply, it is knowing what is going on around us.

Overview

Situational Awareness requires continuous monitoring of relevant sources of information regarding actual incidents and developing hazards. A common core function of Emergency Operations Centers (EOC) is gaining, maintaining, and sharing Situational Awareness and developing a Situational Picture (SitPic) that is shared between the Incident ICS, EOC, JIS, and field staff participants in the incident.

In the early stages of activation, the EOC will obtain Situational Awareness. This is important because accurate, timely information will enable more informed, effective decision-making. An excellent tool for developing and maintaining this condition of the OODA loop.

OODA Loop

The OODA loop is the cycle: observe–orient–decide–act, developed by military strategist and United States Air Force Colonel John Boyd in the 1960s. Boyd applied the concept to the combat operations process, often at the operational level during military campaigns. It is now also often applied to understand commercial operations and learning processes.
The OODA loop has become an important concept in emergency management. According to Boyd, decision-making occurs in a recurring cycle of observe–orient–decide–act. An entity (whether an individual or an organization) that can process this cycle quickly, observing and reacting to unfolding events more rapidly than an “opponent,” can thereby "get inside" the opponent's decision cycle and gain the advantage.

Observe – Sensing yourself and the world around you
Orient – What you believe: a complex set of filters of genetic heritage, cultural predispositions, personal experience, and knowledge
Decide – A review of alternative courses of action and the selection of the preferred course as a hypothesis to be tested.
Act – Testing the decision chosen for implementation.

Every employee is a critical link to situational awareness. This annex address the expectations of this District in establishing and maintaining a vital communication and informational internal network. Whether you are in an office environment, inside a building, in the field, or at home, what you observe and absorb are invaluable to our District.

Prepare

The following list includes the minimum expectations for every employee:
Develop and maintain a personal family communication plan
Use the Family Emergency Communication Plan – Wallet Sized provided by our District
The plan should be completed at hire and updated when any of the information changes but at least annually
Share our plan with your family
Review and familiarize yourself with the District’s Emergency Operations Plan (EOP)
Prepare a “Go-Bag” for yourself with a 3-day supply of food and water
See the “Go-Bag” guide for help in assembling and stocking
Keep a copy of the District’s Critical Incident Field Operations Guide (FOG) with you at all times during work hours

Field Protocol

Before, during, and after critical incidents there are some basic steps you should take to improve your situation and help others in need:
