(If you are applying for more than one Advisory Body, please include a response for each Advisory Body.)

A strong and effective advisory group can be a tremendous asset to both new and well-established youth mentoring programs. The purpose of most Advisory Boards is to help the City gain new insights and advice to solve community problems or explore new opportunities by stimulating robust, high-quality conversations. The role of an Advisory Board is not to make decisions, but rather to provide current knowledge, critical thinking and analysis to increase the confidence of the city decision-makers.

Interests & Experiences

Question applies to multiple boards

Summarize your participation in civic or community activities, including years of service.

I have been a United Methodist Pastor for almost 40 years and the communities I have served I have worked to connect the church to the work of the city in caring for the most vulnerable in our midst. Here in Livermore, I have worked with the Human Services Department in funding and providing for a variety of programs including the shower and laundry ministry at Asbury, the safe parking program, hosting Open Heart Kitchen and the Livermore Homeless Refuge and working with Partners for Change.

Question applies to multiple boards

Briefly explain your interest in serving on the Advisory Body(s) you have selected. (If applying for more than one Advisory Body, please include a response for each Advisory Body.)

I care deeply about the work of the Human Services Department as it improves the lives of the vulnerable in our community. I would be able to articulate that work to others in the community and bring the experience I have working in the community to this group.
