NOW THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF MONROE COUNTY, FLORIDA:

SECTION 1. HOME RULE CHARTER.

The Board of County Commissioners of Monroe County, Florida hereby proposes, by ordinance, the following Charter for the governance of Monroe County.

The proposed Charter of Monroe County, Florida, as stated and incorporated herein, reads as follows:

MONROE COUNTY HOME RULE CHARTER

PREAMBLE

WE, THE CITIZENS OF MONROE COUNTY, FLORIDA, united in the belief that governmental decisions affecting local interests should be made locally, rather than by the State, and that County government should be reflective of the people of the County and should serve them in achieving a more responsive and efficient form of government and in order to empower the people of this County to make changes in their own government, do ordain and establish this Home Rule Charter for Monroe County, Florida.

ARTICLE 1
CREATION, POWERS, AND ORDINANCES OF HOME RULE CHARTER GOVERNMENT

1.1 Creation and general powers of home rule charter government

Monroe County shall be that of a chartered county under Section 1, Article VIII of the Florida Constitution of 1968 pursuant to which this Charter is adopted, and shall not be a charter for consolidation of county and municipal governments in Monroe County pursuant to Section 6(e), Article VIII of the Florida Constitution of 1968. Except as may be limited by this Home Rule Charter ("Charter"), Monroe County shall have all powers of self-government granted now or hereafter by the Constitution and laws of the State of Florida.

1.2 Body corporate, name and boundaries

Monroe County shall be a body corporate and politic. The corporate name shall be Monroe County. The county seat and boundaries shall be those designated by law on the effective date of this Charter.

1.3 Construction

The powers granted by this Charter shall be construed broadly in favor of the charter government. The specified powers in this Charter shall not be construed as limiting, in any way, the general or specific power of the government, as stated in this article. It is the intent of this article to grant to the charter government full power and authority to exercise all governmental powers necessary for the effective operation and conduct of the affairs of the charter government.

1.4 Special powers and duties of county

1.4.1 County purposes. The county, operating under this Charter, shall have all special powers and duties which are not inconsistent with this Charter, heretofore granted by law to the Board of County Commissioners, and shall have such additional county and municipal powers as may be required to fulfill the intent of this Charter.

1.4.2 Municipal purposes. The county shall have all necessary powers to accomplish municipal purposes within special districts. Property situated within municipalities shall not be subject to taxation for services rendered by the county exclusively for the benefit of the property or residents not within municipal boundaries, nor shall property situated in the county be subject to taxation for services provided by the county exclusively for the benefit of the property or residents within municipal boundaries.

1.5 Transfer of powers

Whenever a municipality, special district or agency shall request the performance or transfer of a function to the county, the county shall have the power and authority to assume and perform such functions and obligations. This section does not authorize a transfer in violation of Article VIII, Section 4 of the Constitution of Florida.

1.6 Separation of powers

Monroe County shall operate under an elected county commission and appointed county manager form of government with separation between the legislative and executive functions of the government in accordance with the provisions of this Charter. The establishment and adoption of policy shall be the responsibility of the Board of County Commissioners, and the execution of that policy shall be the responsibility of the county manager, hereinafter referred to as the County Administrator.

1.7 Relation to state law

The provisions of this Charter are not intended, and shall not be construed, to conflict with the Constitution of the State of Florida, general law, or special law approved by vote of the electorate.

1.8 Conflict of County Ordinances with Municipal Ordinances

Except as otherwise provided by law, or in this Charter, municipal ordinances shall prevail over county ordinances to the extent of any conflict within the boundaries of the municipality. To the extent that a county ordinance and a municipal ordinance shall cover the same subject without conflict, then both the municipal ordinance and the county ordinance shall be effective, each being deemed supplemental to the other. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6.3 herein, this Section 1.8 may only be amended by a unanimous vote of the Board of County Commissioners to place the amendment question on the ballot for referendum, and after the referendum is then approved by the voters at two consecutive general elections.
